

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

About Google Book Search

Google's mission is to organize the world's information and to make it universally accessible and useful. Google Book Search helps readers discover the world's books while helping authors and publishers reach new audiences. ## AN ACT TO PRESCRIBE THE RULES FOR THE CONSTRUCTION OF THE CONSOLIDATED LAWS AND CODE AMENDMENTS.

Reported to the Legislature under and in pursuance to the provisions of chapter six hundred and sixty-four of the laws of nineteen hundred and four. (Laws of 1909, chap. 596. In effect May 29, 1909.)

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. In construing the consolidated laws and the amendments to the code of civil procedure and the code of criminal procedure reported to the legislature by the board of statutory consolidation constituted under the provisions of chapter six hundred and sixty-four, of the laws of nineteen hundred and four, entitled "An act to provide for the consolidation of the statutes of the state," and enacted by the legislature of nineteen hundred and nine, and in construing the act amendatory thereof, known as chapter two hundred and forty of the laws of nineteen hundred and nine, for the purpose of determining the effect of any of the provisions or sections thereof on any other provision or section thereof, or on any special law theretofore enacted, the several provisions and sections of such laws and code amendments and said act amendatory thereof shall not be considered as having been enacted or re-enacted by the legislature at the time of the passage of the consolidated laws or such code amendments or said act amendatory thereof but as having been enacted as of the various times when such provisions and sections first became laws by any earlier statutes, provided, however, that when any provision of law after its first enactment by the legislature has been amended or re-enacted, then for the purpose of its construction for the determination of its effect on other sections or provisions of the consolidated laws, it shall be considered as having been enacted at the date of such amendment or re-enactment. If in any such consolidated law and such amendments to the code of civil procedure and the code of criminal procedure as enacted by the legislature of nineteen hundred and nine or said act amendatory thereof there shall have been incorporated any provisions of law that have heretofore been superseded or impliedly repealed, the incorporation of any such provisions shall not be construed as a legislative intent to revive such superseded or repealed provisions, nor shall such incorporation in such consolidated laws be construed to indicate any legislative determination that such provisions had not been theretofore so superseded or repealed. The true purpose and intent of this act is to prescribe that the statute law of the state, so far as it has been reproduced in such consolidated laws and in such amendments to the code of civil procedure and the code of criminal procedure, and in said chapter two hundred and forty of the laws of nineteen hundred and nine, and all special laws in force at the time of the enactment of such consolidated laws, shall be of the same force and effect as they were before the enactment of such consolidated laws or code amendments or said act amendatory thereof.

AN ACT TO PRESCRIBE RULES

NOTE SUBMITTED BY BOARD OF STATUTORY CONSOLIDATION IN ITS REPORT RELATIVE TO CODE OF CIVIL PROCEDURE AMENDMENTS.

The board was authorized by the statute creating it to report for enactment such amendments as it might deem proper and necessary to condense and simplify the existing practice and to adapt the procedure in the courts to existing conditions. An exhaustive study was made of the Code of Civil Procedure by the board pursuant to the statute and an elaborate tentative rearrangement of the Code provisions was made. This preliminary study grouped related practice provisions together according to the steps in the progress of litigation from its commencement to its termination and is embraced in three large printed volumes not submitted with the report of the board to the Legislature. It will be available however when the actual revision of the civil practice in the courts is undertaken and will serve as a basis for subsequent work on this important subject.

The preparation of the consolidated laws and the treatment of the Code of Civil Procedure was carried along side by side, and the consolidated laws as presented have been prepared so that there will be no necessity for a rearrangement of them should a revision of the Code of Civil Procedure be undertaken in the future. It was considered that the primary duty of the board was to complete the consolidated laws, and should time permit, prepare a revision of the civil practice. With the progress of the work it became evident more and more that a revision of the Code of Civil Procedure could best be accomplished unincumbered with the work of the consolidation of the substantive statutes. So delicate and difficult a task is that of revising the present civil practice of the state, which has been in use for over thirty years, that it was deemed the part of wisdom to leave this work as a separate and independent task when the attention of those intrusted with it would not be diverted or divided by the consideration of other matters. After a thorough examination of the whole subject and after due consideration of all of the phases of Code revision, it was deemed advisable at this time not to attempt a revision of the practice, but merely to remove substantive provisions and to this extent to prepare the way for actual revision.

The substantive provisions removed from the Code of Civil Procedure by the board have been distributed in various consolidated laws, but chiefly arranged in a new law known as the Judiciary Law, embracing matters relating to courts and officers thereof, including such subjects as jurors so far as relates to the selection of jurors for a term of court, court clerks, court stenographers, attendants, messengers, criers, interpreters, reporters and attorneys and counselors. A few sections have been inserted in the Civil Rights Law. Various proceedings have been incorporated in the Debtor and Creditor Law. There existed in the session laws the statute relating to general assignments for the benefit of creditors. This statute was assigned to the proposed Debtor and Creditor Law. It was deemed best to consolidate with this statute certain proceedings in the Code of Civil Procedure relating to debtor and creditor. Thus there has been inserted from the Code the article relating to insolvent's discharge from debts, insolvent's exemption from arrest and imprisonment, judgment debtor's discharge from imprisonment and matters of a similar character. The provisions of the Code of Civil Procedure relating to the distribution of personal property have been included in an article in the Decedent Estate Law with the provisions of the Real Property Law relating to the descent of real property. Some matters relating to executors, administrators and testamentary trustees in the revised statutes and session laws have been included under an article in this law. There are many matters of a substantive character relating to executors, administrators and testamentary trustees which might, upon a revision of the Code of Civil Procedure, be included in the Decedent Estate Law. Most of these are to be found in the surrogate's court practice which it has been deemed best, for the present, not to disturb but rather to leave until such time as the practice in the surrogate's court shall be revised. The General Corporation Law contains some proceedings from the Code of Civil Procedure. These have been removed to the General Corporation Law for the purpose of making that law as complete as possible. Thus there have been included in the General Corporation Law from the Code of Civil Procedure provisions relating to change of name, sale of corporate real property, judicial supervision of corporations and of the officers and members thereof, actions for sequestration, actions for dissolution, actions to enforce the individual liability of officers and members of corporations, actions to annul corporations, proceedings for voluntary dissolution of corporations and provisions relating to two or more of the foregoing proceedings or actions. These have been brought together in the General Corporation Law with like provisions of a substantive character as were found in the session laws, such, for instance, as the provisions relating to the powers, duties and liabilities of receivers of corporations.

NOTE

The amendatory act herewith presented was made necessary by the removal from the Code of the substantive provisions above mentioned. The amendatory act does not disturb the numbering of the sections remaining in the Code and the table at the end of the proposed act shows readily the distribution of the sections eliminated. This treatment will not disturb for the present the civil practice and at the same time will remove from the Code substantive provisions and thus prepare the way for an actual revision of the practice.

Respectfully,

ADOLPH J. RODENBECK,

Chairman,

WILLIAM B. HORNBLLOWER,

JOHN G. MILBURN,

ADELBERT MOOT,

Board of Statutory Consolidation.

CONSTITUTION OF NEW YORK

CONSTITUTION OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK

ADOPTED NOVEMBER 6, 1894.

PREAMBLE.

We the people of the State of New York, grateful to Almighty God for our freedom, in order to secure its blessings, do establish this Constitution.

ARTICLE FIRST.

- Sec. 1. Persons not to be disfranchised.
2. Trial by jury.
3. Freedom of worship; religious liberty.
4. Habeas corpus.
5. Excessive bail and fines.
6. Bill of rights.
7. Compensation for taking private property; private roads; drainage of agricultural lands; excess condemnation.
8. Freedom of speech and press; criminal prosecutions for libel.
9. Right to assemble and petition; divorces; lotteries, pool-selling and gambling, laws to prevent.
10. Escheats.
11. Feudal tenures abolished.
12. Allodial tenures.
13. Leases of agricultural lands.
14. Fines and quarter-sales abolished.
15. Purchase of lands from Indians.
16. Common law and acts of the colonial and state legislatures.
17. Grants of land made by the king of Great Britain since 1775; prior grants.
18. Damages for injuries causing death.
19. Workmen's compensation.

§ 1. Persons not to be disfranchised.

No member of this State shall be disfranchised, or deprived of any of the rights or privileges secured to any citizen thereof, unless by the law of the land, or the judgment of his peers.

Const. 1846, art. I, § 1.

§ 2. Trial by jury.

The trial by jury in all cases in which it has been heretofore used shall remain inviolate forever; but a jury trial may be waived by the parties in all civil cases in the manner to be prescribed by law.

Const. 1846, art. I, § 2.

§ 3. Freedom of worship; religious liberty.

The free exercise and enjoyment of religious profession and worship, without discrimination or preference, shall forever be allowed in this State to all mankind; and no person shall be rendered incompetent to be a witness on account of his opinions on matters of religious belief; but the liberty of conscience hereby secured shall not be so construed as to excuse acts of licentiousness, or justify practices inconsistent with the peace or safety of this State.

§ 4. Habeas corpus.

The privilege of the writ of habeas corpus shall not be suspended, unless when, in cases of rebellion or invasion, the public safety may require its suspension.

Const. 1846, art. I, § 4.

§ 5. Excessive bail and fines.

Excessive bail shall not be required nor excessive fines imposed, nor shall cruel and unusual punishments be inflicted, nor shall witnesses be unreasonably detained.

Const. 1846, art. I, § 5.

§ 6. Bill of rights.

No person shall be held to answer for a capital or otherwise infamous crime (except in cases of impeachment, and in cases of militia when in actual service, and the land and naval forces in time of war, or which this State may keep with the consent of Congress in time of peace, and in cases of petit larceny, under the regulation of the Legislature), unless on presentment or indictment of a grand jury, and in any trial in any court whatever the party accused shall be allowed to appear and defend in person and with counsel as in civil actions. No person shall be subject to be twice put in jeopardy for the same offense; nor shall he be compelled in any criminal case to be a witness against himself; nor be deprived of life, liberty or property without due process of law; nor shall private property be taken for public use, without just compensation.

Const. 1846, art. I, § 6.

§ 7. Compensation for taking private property; private roads; drainage of agricultural lands; excess condemnation.

When private property shall be taken for any public use, the compensation to be made therefor, when such compensation is not made by the State, shall be ascertained by a jury, or by the Supreme Court with or without a jury, but not with a referee, or by not less than three commissioners appointed by a court of record, as shall be prescribed by law. Private roads may be opened in the manner to be prescribed by law; but in every case the necessity of the road and the amount of all damage to be sustained by the opening thereof shall be first determined by a jury of freeholders, and such amount, together with the expenses of the proceeding, shall be paid by the person to be benefited. General laws may be passed permitting the owners or occupants of agricultural lands to construct and maintain for the drainage thereof, necessary drains, ditches and dykes upon the lands of others, under proper restrictions and with just compensation, but no special laws shall be enacted for such purposes.

The Legislature may authorize cities to take more land and property than is needed for actual construction in the laying out, widening, extending or relocating parks, public places, highways or streets; provided, however, that the additional land and property so authorized to be taken shall be no more than sufficient to form suitable building sites abutting on such park, public place, highway or street. After so much of the land and property has been appropriated for such park, public place, highway or street as is needed therefor, the remainder may be sold or leased.

Const. 1846, art. I, § 7. Amended Nov. 4, 1913.

§ 8. Freedom of speech and press; criminal prosecutions for libel.

Every citizen may freely speak, write and publish his sentiments on all subjects, being responsible for the abuse of that right; and no law shall be passed to restrain or abridge the liberty of speech or of the press. In all criminal prosecutions or indictments for libels, the truth may be given in evidence to the jury; and if it shall appear to the jury that the matter charged as libelous is true, and was published with good motives and for justifiable ends, the party shall be acquitted; and the jury shall have the right to determine the law and the fact.

Const. 1846, art. I, § 8.

§ 9. Right to assemble and petition; divorces; lotteries, pool-selling and gambling, laws to prevent.

No law shall be passed abridging the right of the people peaceably to assemble and to petition the government, or any department thereof; nor shall any divorce be granted otherwise than by due judicial proceedings; nor shall any lottery or the sale of lottery tickets, pool-selling, book-making, or any other kind of gambling hereafter be authorized or allowed within this State; and the Legislature shall pass appropriate laws to prevent offenses against any of the provisions of this section.

Const. 1846, art. I, § 10.

§ 10. Escheats.

The people of this State, in their right of sovereignty, are deemed to possess the original and ultimate property in and to all lands within the jurisdiction of the State; and all lands the title to which shall fail, from a defect of heirs, shall revert, or escheat to the people.

Const. 1846, art. I, § 11.

§ 11. Feudal tenures abolished.

All feudal tenures of every description, with all their incidents, are declared to be abolished, saving however, all rents and services certain which at any time heretofore have been lawfully created or reserved.

Const. 1846, art. I, § 12.

§ 12. Allodial tenures.

All lands within this State are declared to be allodial, so that, subject only to the liability to escheat, the entire and absolute property is vested in the owners, according to the nature of their respective estates.

Const. 1846, art. I, § 13.

§ 13. Leases of agricultural lands.

No lease or grant of agricultural land, for a longer period than twelve years, hereafter made, in which shall be reserved any rent or service of any kind, shall be valid.

Const. 1846, art. I, § 14.

§ 14. Fines and quarter-sales abolished.

All fines, quarter-sales or other like restraints upon alienation, reserved in any grant of land hereafter to be made, shall be void.

Const. 1846, art. I, § 15.

§ 15. Purchase of lands of Indians.

No purchase or contract for the sale of lands in this State, made since the fourteenth day of October, one thousand seven hundred and seventy-five; or which may hereafter be made, of, or with the Indians, shall be valid, unless made under the authority, and with the consent of the Legislature.

Const. 1846, art. I, § 16.

§ 16. Common law and acts of the colonial and state legislatures.

Such parts of the common law, and of the acts of the Legislature of the colony of New York, as together did form the law of the said colony, on the nineteenth day of April, one thousand seven hundred and seventy-five, and the resolutions of the Congress of the said colony, and of the convention of the State of New York, in force on the twentieth day of April, one thousand seven hundred and seventy-seven, which have not since expired, or been repealed or altered; and such acts of the Legislature of this State as are now in force, shall be and continue the law of this State, subject to such alterations as the Legislature shall make concerning the same. But all such parts of the common law, and such of the said acts, or parts thereof, as are repugnant to this Constitution, are hereby abrogated.

Const. 1846, art. I, § 17.

§ 17. Grants of land made by the king of Great Britain since 1775; prior grants.

All grants of land within this State, made by the king of Great Britain, or persons acting under his authority, after the fourteenth day of October, one thousand seven hundred and seventy-five, shall be null and void; but nothing contained in this Constitution shall affect any grants of land within this State, made by the authority of the said king or his predecessors, or shall annul any charters to bodies politic and corporate, by him or them made, before that day; or shall affect any such grants or charters since made by this State, or by persons acting under its authority; or shall impair the obligation of any debts contracted by the State, or individuals, or bodies corporate, or any other rights of property, or any suits, actions, rights of action, or other proceedings in courts of justice.

§ 18. Damages for injuries causing death.

The right of action now existing to recover damages for injuries resulting in death, shall never be abrogated; and the amount recoverable shall not be subject to any statutory limitation.

New.

§ 19. Workmen's compensation.

Nothing contained in this Constitution shall be construed to limit the power of the Legislature to enact laws for the protection of the lives, health, or safety of employees; or for the payment, either by employers, or by employers and employees or otherwise, either directly or through a State or other system of insurance or otherwise, of compensation for injuries to employees or for death of employees resulting from such injuries without regard to fault as a cause thereof, except where the injury is occasioned by the willful intention of the injured employee to bring about the injury or death, of himself or of another, or where the injury results solely from the intoxication of the injured employee while on duty; or for the adjustment, determination and settlement, with or without trial by jury, of issues which may arise under such legislation; or to provide that the right of such compensation, and the remedy therefor shall be exclusive of all other rights and remedies for injuries to employees or for death resulting from such injuries; or to provide that the amount of such compensation for death shall not exceed a fixed or determinable sum; provided that all moneys paid by an employer to his employees or their legal representatives, by reason of the enactment of any of the laws herein authorized, shall be held to be a proper charge in the cost of operating the business of the employer.

Added Nov. 4, 1913.

ARTICLE SECOND.

- Sec. 1. Qualification of voters.
2. Persons excluded from right of suffrage.
3. Certain occupations and conditions not to affect residence.
4. Registration and election laws to be passed.
5. Manner of voting.
6. Registration and election boards to be non-partisan, except at town and village elections.

§ 1. Qualification of voters.

Every citizen of the age of twenty-one years, who shall have been a citizen for ninety days, and an inhabitant of this State one year next preceding an election, and for the last four months a resident of the county and for the last thirty days a resident of the election district in which he or she may offer his or her vote, shall be entitled to vote at such election in the election district of which he or she shall at the time be a resident, and not elsewhere, for all officers that now are or hereafter may be elective by the people, and upon all questions which may be submitted to the vote of the people, provided, however, that a citizen by marriage shall have been an inhabitant of the United States for five years; and provided that in time of war no elector in the actual military service of the State, or of the United States, in the army or navy thereof, shall be deprived of his or her vote by reason of his or her absence from such election district; and the Legislature shall have power to provide the manner in which and the time and place at which such absent electors may vote, and for the return and canvass of their votes in the election districts in which they respectively reside.

Const. 1846, art. II, § 1.

Amended Nov. 6, 1917.

§ 2. Persons excluded from the right of suffrage.

No person who shall receive, accept, or offer to receive, or pay, offer or promise to pay, contribute, offer or promise to contribute to another, to be paid or used, any money or other valuable thing as a compensation or reward for the giving or withholding a vote at an election, or who shall make any promise to influence the giving or withholding any such vote, or who shall make or become directly or indirectly interested in any bet or wager depending upon the result of any election, shall vote at such election; and upon challenge for such cause, the person so challenged, before the officers authorized for that purpose shall receive his vote, shall swear or affirm before such officers that he has not received or offered, does not expect to receive, has not paid, offered or promised to pay, contributed, offered or promised to contribute to another, to be paid or used, any money or other valuable thing as a compensation or reward for the giving or withholding a vote at such election, and has not made any promise to influence the giving or withholding of any such vote, nor made or become directly or indirectly interested in any bet or wager depending upon the result of such election. The Legislature shall enact laws excluding from the right of suffrage all persons convicted of bribery or of any infamous crime.

Const. 1846, art. II, § 2.

§ 3. Certain occupations and conditions not to affect residence.

For the purpose of voting, no person shall be deemed to have gained or lost a residence, by reason of his presence or absence, while employed in the service of the United States; nor while engaged in the navigation of the waters of this State, or of the United States, or of the high seas; nor while a student of any seminary of learning; nor while kept at any almshouse, or other asylum, or institution wholly or partly supported at public expense or by charity; nor while confined in any public prison.

Const. 1846, art. II, § 3.

§ 4. Registration and election laws to be passed.

Laws shall be made for ascertaining, by proper proofs, the citizens who shall be entitled to the right of suffrage hereby established, and for the registration of voters; which registration shall be completed at least ten days before each election. Such registration shall not be required for town and village elections except by express provision of law. In cities and villages having five thousand inhabitants or more, according to the last preceding State enumeration of inhabitants, voters shall be registered upon personal application only; but voters not residing in such cities or villages shall not be required to apply in person for registration at the first meeting of the officers having charge of the registry of voters.

Const. 1846, art. II, § 4.

§ 5. Manner of voting.

All elections by the citizens, except for such town officers as may by law be directed to be otherwise chosen, shall be by ballot, or by such other method as may be prescribed by law, provided that secrecy in voting be preserved.

Const. 1846, art. II, § 5.

§ 6. Registration and election boards to be bi-partisan, except at town and village elections.

All laws creating, regulating or affecting boards or officers charged with the duty of registering voters, or of distributing ballots at the polls to voters, or of receiving, recording or counting votes at elections, shall secure equal representation of the two political parties which, at the general election next preceding that for which such boards or officers are to serve, cast the highest and the next highest number of votes. All such boards and officers shall be appointed or elected in such manner, and upon the nomination of such representatives of said parties respectively, as the Legislature may direct. Existing laws on this subject shall continue until the Legislature shall otherwise provide. This section shall not apply to town meetings, or to village elections.

New.

District number fifty (50) shall consist of the counties of Chautauqua and Cattaraugus.

Const. 1946, art. III, § 3.

§ 4. Enumerations and reapportionments.

An enumeration of the inhabitants of the State shall be taken under the direction of the Secretary of State, during the months of May and June, in the year one thousand nine hundred and five, and in the same months every tenth year thereafter; and the said districts shall be so altered by the Legislature at the first regular session after the return of every enumeration, that each senate district shall contain as nearly as may be an equal number of inhabitants, excluding aliens, and be in as compact form as practicable, and shall remain unaltered until the return of another enumeration, and shall at all times consist of contiguous territory, and no county shall be divided in the formation of a senate district except to make two or more senate districts wholly in such county. No town, and no block in a city inclosed by streets or public ways, shall be divided in the formation of senate districts; nor shall any district contain a greater excess in population over an adjoining district in the same county, than the population of a town or block therein adjoining such district. Counties, towns or blocks which, from their location, may be included in either of two districts, shall be so placed as to make said districts most nearly equal in number of inhabitants, excluding aliens.

No county shall have four or more senators unless it shall have a full ratio for each senator. No county shall have more than one-third of all the senators; and no two counties or the territory thereof as now organized, which are adjoining counties, or which are separated only by public waters, shall have more than one-half of all the senators.

The ratio for apportioning senators shall always be obtained by dividing the number of inhabitants, excluding aliens, by fifty, and the Senate shall always be composed of fifty members, except that if any county having three or more senators at the time of any apportionment shall be entitled on such ratio to an additional senator or senators, such additional senator or senators shall be given to such county in addition to the fifty senators, and the whole number of senators shall be increased to that extent.

Const. 1846, art. III, § 4.

§ 5. Apportionment of assemblymen; creation of assembly districts.

The members of the assembly shall be chosen by single districts, and shall be apportioned by the Legislature at the first regular session after the return of every enumeration among the several counties of the State, as nearly as may be according to the number of their respective inhabitants, excluding aliens. Every county heretofore established and separately organized, except the county of Hamilton, shall always be entitled to one member of assembly, and no county shall hereafter be erected unless its population shall entitle it to a member. The county of Hamilton shall elect with the county of Fulton, until the population of the county of Hamilton shall, according to the ratio, entitle it to a member. But the Legislature may abolish the said county of Hamilton and annex the territory thereof to some other county or counties.

The quotient obtained by dividing the whole number of inhabitants of the State, excluding aliens, by the number of members of assembly, shall be the ratio for appointment, which shall be made as follows: One member of assembly shall be apportioned to every county, including Fulton and Hamilton as one county, containing less than the ratio and one-half over. Two members shall be apportioned to every other county. The remaining members of assembly shall be apportioned to the counties having more than two ratios according to the number of inhabitants, excluding aliens. Members apportioned on remainders shall be apportioned to the counties having the highest remainders on the order thereof respectively. No county shall have more members of assembly than a county having a greater number of inhabitants, excluding aliens.

Until after the next enumeration, members of the Assembly shall be apportioned to the several counties as follows: Albany county, four members; Allegany county, one member; Broome county, two members; Cattaraugus county, two members; Cayuga county, two members; Chautauqua county, two members; Chemung county, one member; Chenango county, one member; Clinton county, one member; Columbia county, one member; Cortland county, one member; Delaware county, one member; Dutchess county, two members; Erie county, eight members; Essex county, one member; Franklin county, one member; Fulton and Hamilton counties, one member; Genesee county, one member; Greene county, one member; Herkimer county, one member; Jefferson county, two members; Kings county, twenty-one members; Lewis county, one member; Livingston county, one member: Madison county, one member; Monroe county, four members; Montgomery county, one member; New York county, thirty-five members; Niagara county, two members; Oneida county, three members; Onondaga county, four members; Ontario county, one member; Orange county, two members; Orleans county, one member; Oswego county, two members; Otsego county, one member; Putnam county, one member; Queens county, three members; Rensselaer county, three members; Richmond county, one member; Rockland county, one member; St. Lawrence county, two members; Saratoga county, one member; Schenectady county, one member; Schoharie county, one member; Schuyler county, one member; Seneca county, one member; Steuben county, two members; Suffolk county, two members; Sullivan county, one member; Tioga county, one member; Tompkins county, one member; Ulster county, two members; Warren county, one member; Washington county, one member; Wayne county, one member; Westchester county, three members; Wyoming county, one member, and Yates county, one member.

In any county entitled to more than one member, the board of supervisors, and in any city embracing an entire county and having no board of supervisors, the common council, or if there be none, the body exercising the powers of a common council, shall assemble on the second Tuesday of June, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-five, and at such times as the Legislature making an apportionment shall prescribe, and divide such counties into assembly districts as nearly equal in number of inhabitants, excluding aliens, as may be, of convenient and contiguous territory in as compact form as practicable, each of which shall be wholly within a senate district formed under the same apportionment, equal to the number of members of assembly to which such county shall be entitled, and shall cause to be filed in the office of the Secretary of State and of the clerk of such county, a description of such districts, specifying the number of each district and of the inhabitants thereof, excluding aliens, according to the last preceding enumeration; and such apportionment and districts shall remain unaltered until another enumeration shall be made, as herein provided; but said division of the city of Brooklyn and the county of Kings to be made on the second Tuesday of June, one thousand eight hundred and ninety five, shall be made by the common council of the said city and the board of supervisors of said county, assembled in joint session. In counties having more than one senate district, the same number of assembly districts shall be put in each senate district unless the assembly districts cannot be evenly divided among the senate districts of any county, in which case one more assembly district shall be put in the senate district in such county having the largest, or one less assembly district shall be put in the senate district in such county having the smallest number of inhabitants, excluding aliens, as the case may require. No town and no block in a city inclosed by streets or public ways, shall be divided in the formation of assembly districts, nor shall any district contain a greater excess in population over an adjoining district in the same senate district, than the population of a town or block therein adjoining such assembly district. Towns or blocks which, from their location, may be included in either of two districts, shall be so placed as to make said districts most nearly equal in number of inhabitants, excluding aliens; but in the division of cities under the first apportionment, regard shall be had to the number of inhabitants, excluding aliens, of the election districts according to the State enumeration of one thousand eight hundred and ninety-two, so far as may be, instead of blocks. Nothing in this section shall prevent the division, at any time, of counties and towns, and the erection of new towns by the Legislature.

An apportionment by the Legislature, or other body, shall be subject to review by the Supreme Court, at the suit of any citizen, under such reasonable regulations as the Legislature may prescribe; and any court before which a cause may be pending involving an apportionment, shall give precedence thereto over all other causes and proceedings, and if said court be not in session it shall convene promptly for the disposition of the same.

Const. 1846, art. III, § 5.

§ 6. Compensation of members.

Each member of the Legislature shall receive for his services an annual salary of one thousand five hundred dollars. The members of either house shall also receive the sum of one dollar for every ten miles they shall travel in going to and returning from their place of meeting, once in each session, on the most usual route. Senators, when the Senate alone is convened in extraordinary session, or when serving as members of the court for the trial of impeachments, and such members of the Assembly, not exceeding nine in number, as shall be appointed managers of an impeachment, shall receive an additional allowance of ten dollars a day.

Const. 1846, art. III, § 6.

§ 7. Civil appointments of members void.

No member of the Legislature shall receive any civil appointment within this State, or the Senate of the United States, from the Governor, the Governor and Senate, or from the Legislature, or from any city government, during the time for which he shall have been elected; and all such appointments and all votes given for any such member for any such office or appointment shall be void.

Const. 1846, art. III, § 7.

§ 8. Persons disqualified from being members.

No person shall be eligible to the Legislature, who at the time of his election, is, or within one hundred days previous thereto has been, a member of Congress, a civil or military officer under the United States, or an officer under any city government. And if any person shall, after his election as a member of the Legislature, be elected to Congress, or appointed to any office, civil or military, under the government of the United States, or under any city government, his acceptance thereof shall vacate his seat.

Const. 1846, art. III, § 8.

§ 9. Time of elections.

The elections of senators and members of assembly, pursuant to the provisions of this Constitution, shall be held on the Tuesday succeeding the first Monday of November, unless otherwise directed by the Legislature.

Const. 1846, art. III, § 9.

§ 10. Powers of each house.

A majority of each house shall constitute a quorum to do business. Each house shall determine the rules of its own proceedings, and be the judge of the elections, returns and qualifications of its own members; shall choose its own officers; and the Senate shall choose a temporary president to preside in case of the absence or impeachment of the Lieutenant-Governor, or when he shall refuse to act as president, or shall act as Governor.

Const. 1846, art. III, § 10.

§ 11. Journals; open sessions; adjournments.

Each house shall keep a journal of its proceedings, and publish the same, except such parts as may require secrecy. The doors of each house shall be kept open, except when the public welfare shall require secrecy. Neither house shall, without the consent of the other, adjourn for more than two days.

Const. 1846, art. III, § 11.

§ 12. Members not to be questioned for speeches.

For any speech or debate in either house of the Legislature, the members shall not be questioned in any other place.

Const. 1846, art. III, § 12.

§ 13. Bills may originate in either house.

Any bill may originate in either house of the Legislature, and all bills passed by one house may be amended by the other.

Const. 1846, art. III, § 13.

§ 14. Enacting clause of bills.

The enacting clause of all bills shall be "The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows," and no law shall be enacted except by bill.

Const. 1846, art. III, § 14.

§ 15. Manner of passing bills.

No bill shall be passed or become a law unless it shall have been printed and upon the desks of the members, in its final form, at least three calendar legislative days prior to its final passage, unless the Governor, or the acting Governor, shall have certified to the necessity of its immediate passage, under his hand and the seal of the State; nor shall any bill be passed or become a law, except by the assent of a majority of the members elected to each branch of the Legislature; and upon the last reading of a bill, no amendment thereof shall be allowed, and the question upon its final passage shall be taken immediately thereafter, and the yeas and nays entered on the journal.

Const. 1846, art. III, § 15.

§ 16. Private and local bills not to embrace more than one subject.

No private or local bill, which may be passed by the Legislature, shall embrace more than one subject, and that shall be expressed in the title.

Const. 1846, art. III, § 16.

§ 17. Existing laws made applicable to be inserted.

No act shall be passed which shall provide that any existing law, or any part thereof, shall be made or deemed a part of said act, or which shall enact that any existing law, or part thereof, shall be applicable, except by inserting it in such act.

Const. 1846, art. III, § 17.

§ 18. Cases in which private and local bills shall not be passed; restrictions as to laws authorizing street railroads.

The legislature shall not pass a private or local bill in any of the following cases:

Changing the names of persons.

Laying out, opening, altering, working or discontinuing roads, highways or alleys, or for draining swamps or other low lands.

Locating or changing county seats.

Providing for changes of venue in civil or criminal cases.

Incorporating villages.

Providing for election of members of boards of supervisors.

Selecting, drawing, summoning or impaneling grand or petit jurors.

Regulating the rate of interest on money.

The opening and conducting of elections or designating places of voting.

Creating, increasing or decreasing fees, percentages or allowances of public officers, during the term for which said officers are elected or appointed.

Granting to any corporation, association or individual the right to lay down railroad tracks.

Granting to any private corporation, association or individual any exclusive privilege, immunity or franchise whatever.

Granting to any person, association, firm or corporation an exemption from taxation on real or personal property

Providing for building bridges, and chartering companies for such purposes, except on the Hudson river below Waterford, and on the East river, or over the waters forming a part of the boundaries of the State.

The Legislature shall pass general laws providing for the cases enumerated in this section, and for all other cases which in its judgment, may be provided for by general laws. But no law shall authorize the construction or operation of a street railroad except upon the condition that the consent of the owners of one-half in value of the property bounded on, and the consent also of the local authorities having the control of, that portion of a street or highway upon which it is proposed to construct or operate such railroad be first obtained, or in case the consent of such property owners cannot be obtained, the Appellate Division of the Supreme Court, in the department in which it is proposed to be constructed, may, upon application, appoint three commissioners who shall determine, after a hearing of all parties interested, whether such railroad ought to be constructed or operated, and their determination, confirmed by the court, may be taken in lieu of the consent of the property owners. [As amended in 1901. To take effect Jan. 1, 1902.]

Const. 1846, art. III, § 18, added in 1874.

§ 19. Private claims not to be audited by legislature.

The Legislature shall neither audit nor allow any private claim or account against the State, but may appropriate money to pay such claims as shall have been audited and allowed according to law.

Const. 1846, art. III, § 19, added in 1874.

§ 20. Two-thirds bills.

The assent of two-thirds of the members elected to each branch of the Legislature shall be requisite to every bill appropriating the public moneys or property for local or private purposes.

Const. 1846, art. I, § 9.

§ 21. Appropriation bills.

No money shall ever be paid out of the treasury of this State, or any of its funds, or any of the funds under its management, except in pursuance of an appropriation by law; nor unless such payment be made within two years next after the passage of such appropriation act; and every such law making a new appropriation, or continuing or reviving an appropriation, shall distinctly specify the sum appropriated, and the object to which it is to be applied; and it shall not be sufficient for such law to refer to any other law to fix such sum.

Const. 1846, art. VII, § 8.

§ 22. Restrictions as to provisions in the appropriation or supply bills.

No provision or enactment shall be embraced in the annual appropriation or supply bill, unless it relates specifically to some particular appropriation in the bill; and any such provision or enactment shall be limited in its operation to such appropriation.

New.

§ 23. Certain sections not to apply to commission bills.

Sections seventeen and eighteen of this article shall not apply to any bill, or the amendments to any bill, which shall be reported to the Legislature by commissioners who have been appointed pursuant to law to revise the statutes.

Const. 1846, art. III, § 25, added in 1874.

§ 24. Tax bills to state tax distinctly.

Every law which imposes, continues or revives a tax shall distinctly state the tax and the object to which it is to be applied, and it shall not be sufficient to refer to any other law to fix such tax or object.

Const. 1846, art. III, § 20, added in 1874.

§ 25. When ayes and nays necessary; three-fifths to constitute quorum.

On the final passage, in either house of the Legislature, of any act which imposes, continues or revives a tax, or creates a debt or charge, or makes, continues or revives any appropriation of public or trust money or property, or releases, discharges or commutes any claim or demand of the State, the question shall be taken by yeas and nays, which shall be duly entered upon the journals, and three-fifths of all the members elected to either house shall, in all such cases, be necessary to constitute a quorum therein.

Const. 1846, art. III, § 21, added in 1874.

§ 26. Board of supervisors.

There shall be in each county, except in a county wholly included in a city, a board of supervisors, to be composed of such members and elected in such manner and for such period as is or may be provided by law. In a city which includes an entire county, or two or more entire counties, the powers and duties of a board of supervisors may be devolved upon the municipal assembly, common council, board of aldermen or other legislative body of the city. [As amended in 1899.]

Const. 1846, art. III, § 22, added in 1874.

§ 27. Local legislative powers.

The Legislature shall, by general laws, confer upon the boards of supervisors of the several counties of the State such further powers of local legislation and administration as the Legislature may, from time to time, deem expedient, and in counties which now have, or may hereafter have, county auditors or other fiscal officers, authorized to audit bills, accounts, charges, claims or demands against the county, the Legislature may confer such powers upon said auditors, or fiscal officers, as the Legislature may, from time to time deem expedient

Const. 1846, art. III, § 23, added in 1874, amended 1900.

§ 28. Extra compensation prohibited.

The Legislature shall not, nor shall the common council of any city, nor any board of supervisors, grant any extra compensation to any public officer, servant, agent or contractor.

Const. 1846, art. III, § 24.

§ 29. Prison labor; contract system abolished.

The Legislature shall, by law, provide for the occupation and employment of prisoners sentenced to the several state prisons, penitentiaries, jails and reformatories in the State; and on and after the first day of January, in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-seven, no person in any such prison, penitentiary, jail or reformatory, shall be required or allowed to work, while under sentence thereto, at any trade, industry or occupation, wherein or whereby his work, or the product or profit of his work, shall be farmed out, contracted, given or sold to any person, firm, association or corporation. This section shall not be construed to prevent the Legislature from providing that convicts may work for, and that the products of their labor may be disposed of to, the State or any political division thereof, or for or to any public institution owned or managed and controlled by the State, or any political division thereof.

New.

ARTICLE FOURTH.

- Sec. 1. Executive power.
2. Qualifications of governor and lieutenant-governor.
3. Election of governor and lieutenant-governor.
4. Duties and powers of governor; compensation.
5. Reprieves, commutations and pardons to be granted by governor.
6. When lieutenant-governor to act as governor.
7. Qualifications and duties of lieutenant-governor; succession to the governorship.
8. Salary of lieutenant-governor.
9. Bills to be presented to governor; approval; passage of bills by legislature if not approved.

§ 1. Executive power.

The executive power shall be vested in a Governor, who shall hold his office for two years; a Lieutenant-Governor shall be chosen at the same time, and for the same term. The Governor and Lieutenant-Governor elected next preceding the time when this section shall take effect, shall hold office until and including the thirty-first day of December, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-six, and their successors shall be chosen at the general election in that year.

Const. 1846, art. IV, § 1.

§ 2. Qualifications of governor and lieutenant-governor.

No person shall be eligible to the office of Governor or Lieutenant-Governor, except a citizen of the United States, of the age of not less than thirty years, and who shall have been five years next preceding his election a resident of this State.

Const. 1846, art. IV, § 2.

§ 3. Election of governor and lieutenant-governor.

The Governor and Lieutenant-Governor shall be elected at the times and places of choosing members of the Assembly. The persons respectively having the highest number of votes for Governor and Lieutenant-Governor shall be elected; but in case two or more shall have an equal and the highest number of votes for Governor, or for Lieutenant-Governor, the two houses of the Legislature at its next annual session shall forthwith, by joint ballot, choose one of the said persons so having an equal and the highest number of votes for Governor or Lieutenant-Governor.

Const. 1846, art. IV, § 3.

§ 4. Duties and powers of governor; compensation.

The Governor shall be Commander-in-Chief of the military and naval forces of the State. He shall have power to convene the Legislature, or the Senate only, on extraordinary occasions. At extraordinary sessions no subject shall be acted upon, except such as the Governor may recommend for consideration. He shall communicate by message to the Legislature at every session the condition of the State, and recommend such matters to it as he shall judge expedient. He shall transact all necessary business with the officers of government, civil and military. He shall expedite all such measures as may be resolved upon by the Legislature, and shall take care that the laws are faithfully executed. He shall receive for his services an annual salary of ten thousand dollars, and there shall be provided for his use a suitable and furnished executive residence.

Const. 1846, art. IV, § 4, amended in 1874.

§ 5. Reprieves, commutations, and pardons to be granted by governor.

The Governor shall have the power to grant reprieves, commutations and pardons after conviction, for all offenses except treason and cases of impeachment, upon such conditions and with such restrictions and limitations, as he may think proper, subject to such regulations as may be provided by law relative to the manner of applying for pardons. Upon conviction for treason, he shall have power to suspend the execution of the sentence, until the case shall be reported to the Legislature at its next meeting, when the Legislature shall either pardon, or commute the sentence, direct the execution of the sentence, or grant a further reprieve. He shall annually communicate to the Legislature each case of reprieve, commutation or pardon granted, stating the name of the convict, the crime of which he was convicted, the sentence and its date, and the date of the commutation, pardon or reprieve.

Const. 1846, art. IV, § 5.

§ 6. When lieutenant-governor to act as governor.

In case of the impeachment of the Governor, or his removal from office, death, inability to discharge the powers and duties of the said office, resignation, or absence from the State, the powers and duties of the office shall devolve upon the Lieutenant-Governor for the residue of the term, or until the disability shall cease. But when the Governor shall, with the consent of the Legislature, be out of the State, in time of war, at the head of a military force thereof, he shall continue Commander-in-Chief of all the military force of the State.

Const. 1846, art. IV, § 6.

§ 7. Qualifications and duties of lieutenant-governor; succession to the governorship.

The Lieutenant-Governor shall possess the same qualifications of eligibility for office as the Governor. He shall be president of the Senate, but shall have only a casting vote therein. If during a vacancy of the office of Governor, the Lieutenant-Governor shall be impeached, displaced, resign, die, or become incapable of performing the duties of his office, or be absent from the State, the President of the Senate shall act as Governor until the vacancy be filled or the disability shall cease; and if the President of the Senate for any of the above causes shall become incapable of performing the duties pertaining to the office of Governor, the Speaker of the Assembly shall act as Governor until the vacancy be filled or the disability shall cease.

Const. 1846, art. IV, § 7.

§ 8. Salary of lieutenant-governor.

The Lieutenant-Governor shall receive for his services an annual salary of five thousand dollars, and shall not receive or be entitled to any other compensation, fee or perquisite, for any duty or service he may be required to perform by the Constitution or by law.

Const. 1846, art. IV, § 8, amended in 1874.

§ 9. Bills to be presented to governor; approval; passage of bill by legislature if not approved.

Every bill which shall have passed the Senate and Assembly shall, before it becomes a law, be presented to the Governor; if he approve, he shall sign it; but if not, he shall return it with his objections to the house in which it shall have originated, which shall enter the objections at large on the journal, and proceed to reconsider it. If after such reconsideration, two-thirds of the members elected to that house shall agree to pass the bill, it shall be sent, together with the objections, to the other house, by which it shall likewise be reconsidered; and if approved by two-thirds of the members elected to that house, it shall become a law notwithstanding the objections of the Governor. In all such cases, the votes in both houses shall be determined by yeas and nays, and the names of the members voting shall be entered on the journal of each house respectively. If any bill shall not be returned by the Governor within ten days (Sundays excepted) after it shall have been presented to him, the same shall be a law in like manner as if he had signed it, unless the Legislature shall, by their adjournment, prevent its return, in which case it shall not become a law without the approval of the Governor. No bill shall become a law after the final adjournment of the Legislature, unless approved by the Governor within thirty days after such adjournment. If any bill presented to the Governor contain several items of appropriation of money, he may object to one or more of such items while approving of the other portion of the bill. In such case, he shall append to the bill, at the time of signing it, a statement of the items to which he objects; and the appropriation so objected to shall not take effect. If the Legislature be in session, he shall transmit to the house in which the bill originated a copy of such statement, and the items objected to shall be separately reconsidered. If on reconsideration one or more of such items be approved by two-thirds of the members elected to each house, the same shall be part of the law, notwithstanding the objections of the Governor. All the provisions of this section, in relation to bills not approved by the Governor, shall apply in cases in which he shall withhold his approval from any item or items contained in a bill appropriating money.

Const. 1846, art. IV, § 9, amended in 1874.

ARTICLE FIFTH.

- Sec.
1. State officers.
  2. First election of state officers.
  3. Superintendent of public works; appointment; powers and duties.
  4. Superintendent of state prisons; appointment; powers and duties.
  5. Commissioners of the land office; of the canal fund; canal board.
  6. Powers and duties of boards.
  7. State treasurer; suspension by governor.
  8. Certain offices abolished.
  9. Civil service appointments and promotions.

§ 1. State officers.

The Secretary of State, Comptroller, Treasurer, Attorney-General and State Engineer and Surveyor shall be chosen at a general election, at the times and places of electing the Governor and Lieutenant-Governor, and shall hold their offices for two years, except as provided in section two of this article. Each of the officers in this article named, excepting the Speaker of the Assembly, shall, at stated times during his continuance in office, receive for his services a compensation which shall not be increased or diminished during the term for which he shall have been elected; nor shall he receive to his use any fees or perquisites of office or other compensation. No person shall be elected to the office of State Engineer and Surveyor who is not a practical civil engineer.

Const. 1846, art. V, §§ 1, 2.

§ 2. First election of state officers.

The first election of the Secretary of State, Comptroller, Treasurer, Attorney-General and State Engineer and Surveyor, pursuant to this article, shall be held in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-five, and their terms of office shall begin on the first day of January following, and shall be for three years. At the general election in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-eight, and every two years thereafter, their successors shall be chosen for the term of two years.

New.

§ 3. Superintendent of public works; appointment; powers and duties of.

A Superintendent of Public Works shall be appointed by the Governor, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, and hold his office until the end of the term of the Governor by whom he was nominated, and until his successor is appointed and qualified. He shall receive a compensation to be fixed by law. He shall be required by law to give security for the faithful execution of his office before entering upon the duties thereof. He shall be charged with the execution of all laws relating to the repair and navigation of the canals, and also of those relating to the construction and improvement of the canals, except so far as the execution of the laws relating to such construction or improvement shall be confided to the State Engineer and Surveyor; subject to the control of the Legislature, he shall make the rules and regulations for the navigation or use of the canals. He may be suspended or removed from office by the Governor, whenever, in his judgment, the public interest shall so require; but in case of the removal of such Superintendent of Public Works from office, the Governor shall file with the Secretary of State a statement of the cause of such removal, and shall report such removal and the cause thereof to the Legislature at its next session. The Superintendent of Public Works shall appoint not more than three assistant superintendents, whose duties shall be prescribed by him, subject to modification by the Legislature, and who shall receive for their services a compensation to be fixed by law. They shall hold their office for three years, subject to suspension or removal by the Superintendent of Public Works, whenever, in his judgment, the public interest shall so require. Any vacancy in the office of any such assistant superintendent shall be filled for the remainder of the term for which he was appointed, by the Superintendent of Public Works; but in case of the suspension or removal of any such assistant superintendent by him, he shall at once report to the Governor, in writing, the cause of such removal. All other persons employed in the care and management of the canals, except collectors of tolls, and those in the department of the State Engineer and Surveyor, shall be appointed by the Superintendent of Public Works, and be subject to suspension or removal by him. The Superintendent of Public Works shall perform all the duties of the former Canal Commissioners and Board of Canal Commissioners, as now declared by law, until otherwise provided by the Legislature. The Governor, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, shall have power to fill vacancies in the office of Superintendent of Public Works; if the Senate be not in session, he may grant commissions which shall expire at the end of the next succeeding session of the Senate.

§ 4. Superintendent of state prisons; appointment; powers and duties of.

A Superintendent of State Prisons shall be appointed by the Governor, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, and hold his office for five years, unless sooner removed; he shall give security in such amount, and with such sureties as shall be required by law for the faithful discharge of his duties; he shall have the superintendence, management and control of state prisons, subject to such laws as now exist or may hereafter be enacted; he shall appoint the agents, wardens, physicians and chaplains of the prisons. The agent and warden of each prison shall appoint all other officers of such prison, except the clerk, subject to the approval of the same by the Superintendent. The Comptroller shall appoint the clerks of the prisons. The Superintendent shall have all the powers and perform all the duties not inconsistent herewith, which were formerly had and performed by the Inspectors of State Prisons. The Governor may remove the Superintendent for cause at any time, giving to him a copy of the charges against him, and an opportunity to be heard in his defense.

Const. 1846, art. V, § 4, amended in 1876.

§ 5. Commissioners of the land office; of the canal fund; canal board.

The Lieutenant-Governor, Speaker of the Assembly, Secretary of State, Comptroller, Treasurer, Attorney-General and State

Engineer and Surveyor shall be the commissioners of the land office. The Lieutenant-Governor, Secretary of State, Comptroller, Treasurer and Attorney-General shall be the commissioners of the canal fund. The canal board shall consist of the commissioners of the canal fund, the State Engineer and Surveyor and the Superintendent of Public Works.

Const. 1846, art. V, § 5.

§ 6. Powers and duties of boards.

The powers and duties of the respective boards, and of the several officers in this article mentioned, shall be such as now are or hereafter may be prescribed by law.

Const. 1846, art. V, § 6.

§ 7. State treasurer, suspension by governor.

The Treasurer may be suspended from office by the Governor, during the recess of the Legislature, and until thirty days after the commencement of the next session of the Legislature, whenever it shall appear to him that such Treasurer has, in any particular, violated his duty. The Governor shall appoint a competent person to discharge the duties of the office during such suspension of the Treasurer.

Const. 1846, art. V, § 7.

§ 8. Certain offices abolished.

All offices for the weighing, gauging, measuring, culling or inspecting any merchandise, produce, manufacture or commodity whatever, are hereby abolished; and no such office shall hereafter be created by law; but nothing in this section contained shall abrogate any office created for the purpose of protecting the public health or the interests of the State in its property, revenue, tolls or purchases, or of supplying the people with correct standards of weights and measures, or shall prevent the creation of any office for such purposes hereafter.

Const. 1846, art. V, § 8.

§ 9. Civil service appointments and promotions.

Appointments and promotions in the civil service of the State, and of all the civil divisions thereof, including cities and villages, shall be made according to merit and fitness to be ascertained, so far as practicable, by examinations, which, so far as practicable, shall be competitive; provided however, that honorably discharged soldiers and sailors from the army and navy of the United States in the late civil war, who are citizens and residents of this State, shall be entitled to preference in appointment and promotion without regard to their standing on any list from which such appointment or promotion may be made. Laws shall be made to provide for the enforcement of this section.

1. Supreme court; how constituted; judicial districts.
  2. Judicial departments; appellate division, how constituted; governor to designate justices; reporter; time and place of holding courts.
  3. Judge or justice not to sit in review; testimony in equity cases.
  4. Terms of office; vacancies, how filled.
  5. City courts abolished; judges become justices of supreme court; salaries; jurisdiction vested in supreme court.
  6. Circuit courts and courts of oyer and terminer abolished.
  7. Court of appeals.
  8. Vacancy in court of appeals, how filled.
  9. Jurisdiction of court of appeals.
  10. Judges not to hold any other office.
  11. Removal of judges.
  12. Compensation; age restriction; assignment by governor.
  13. Trial of impeachments.
  14. County courts.
  15. Surrogates' courts; surrogates, their powers and jurisdiction; vacancies.
  16. Local judicial officers.
  17. Justices of the peace; district court justices.
  18. Inferior local courts.
  19. Clerks of courts.
  20. No judicial officer, except justice of the peace, to receive fees; not to act as attorney or counselor.
  21. Publication of statutes.
  22. Terms of office of present justices of the peace and local judicial officers.
  23. Courts of special sessions.

§ 1. Supreme court; how constituted; judicial districts.

The Supreme Court is continued with general jurisdiction in law and equity, subject to such appellate jurisdiction of the Court of Appeals as now is or may be prescribed by law not inconsistent with this article. The existing judicial districts of the State are continued until changed as hereinafter provided. The Supreme Court shall consist of the Justices now in office, and of the Judges transferred thereto by the fifth section of this article, all of whom shall continue to be Justices of the Supreme Court during their respective terms, and of twelve additional Justices who shall reside in and be chosen by the electors of, the several existing judicial districts, three in the first district, three in the second, and one in each of the other districts; and of their successors. The successors of said Justices shall be chosen by the electors of their respective judicial districts. The Legislature may alter the judicial districts once after every enumeration under the Constitution, of the inhabitants of the State, and thereupon reapportionment the Justices to be thereafter elected in the districts so altered. The Legislature may from time to time increase the number of justices in any judicial district except that the number of justices in the first and second district or in any of the districts into which the second district may be divided, shall not be increased to exceed one justice for each eighty thousand, or fraction over forty thousand of the population thereof, as shown by the last State, or Federal census or enumeration, and except that the number of justices in any other district shall not be increased to exceed one justice for each sixty thousand or fraction over thirty-five thousand of the population thereof as shown by the last State or Federal census or enumeration. The Legislature may erect out of the second judicial district as now constituted, another judicial district and apportion the justices in office between the districts, and provide for the election of additional justices in the new district not exceeding the limit herein provided.

Const. 1846, art. VI, § 6, amended in 1905.

§ 2. Judicial departments; appellate division, how constituted; governor to designate justices; reporter; time and place of holding courts.

The Legislature shall divide the State into four judicial departments. The first department shall consist of the county of New York; the others shall be bounded by county lines, and be compact and equal in population as nearly as may be. Once every ten years the Legislature may alter the judicial departments, but without increasing the number thereof.

There shall be an Appellate Division of the Supreme Court, consisting of seven Justices in the first department, and of five Justices in each of the other departments. In each department four shall constitute a quorum, and the concurrence of three shall be necessary to a decision. No more than five Justices shall sit in any case.

From all the Justices elected to the Supreme Court the Governor shall designate those who shall constitute the Appellate Division in each department; and he shall designate the Presiding Justice thereof, who shall act as such during his term of office, and shall be a resident of the department. The other Justices shall be designated for terms of five years or the unexpired portions of their respective terms of office, if less than five years. From time to time as the terms of such designations expire, or vacancies occur, he shall make new designations. A majority of the Justices so designated to sit in the Appellate Division, in each department shall be residents of the department. He may also make temporary designations in case of the absence or inability to act of any Justice in the Appellate Division, or in case the Presiding Justice of any Appellate Division shall certify to him that one or more additional Justices are needed for the speedy disposition of the business before it. Whenever the Appellate Division in any department shall be unable to dispose of its business within a reasonable time, a majority of the Presiding Justices of the several departments at a meeting called by the Presiding Justice of the department in arrears may transfer any pending appeals from such department to any other department for hearing and determination. No Justice of the Appellate Division shall, within the department to which he may be designated to perform the duties of an Appellate Justice, exercise any of the powers of a Justice of the Supreme Court, other than those of a Justice out of court, and those pertaining to the Appellate Division, or to the hearing and decision of motions submitted by consent of counsel, but any such Justice, when not actually engaged in performing the duties of such Appellate Justice in the department to which he is designated, may hold any term of the Supreme Court and exercise any of the powers of a Justice of the Supreme Court in any county or judicial district in any other department of the State. From and after the last day of December, eighteen hundred and ninety-five, the Appellate Division shall have the jurisdiction now exercised by the Supreme Court at its General Terms and by the General Terms of the Court of Common Pleas for the City and County of New York, the Superior Court of the City of New York, the Superior Court of Buffalo and the City of Brooklyn, and such additional jurisdiction as may be conferred by the Legislature. It shall have power to appoint and remove a reporter.

The Justices of the Appellate Division in each department shall have power to fix the times and places for holding Special Terms therein, and to assign the Justices in the departments to hold such terms; or to make rules therefor.

Const. 1846, art. VI §§ 7 and 28, added in 1882, amended in 1899 and 1905.

§ 3. Judge or Justice not to sit in review; testimony in equity cases.

No Judge or Justice shall sit in the Appellate Division or in the Court of Appeals in review of a decision made by him or by any court of which he was at the time a sitting member. The testimony in equity cases shall be taken in like manner as in cases at law; and, except as herein otherwise provided, the Legislature shall have the same power to alter and regulate the jurisdiction and proceedings in law and in equity that it has heretofore exercised.

Const. 1846, art. VI, § 8.

§ 4. Terms of office; vacancies, how filled.

The official terms of the Justices of the Supreme Court shall be fourteen years from and including the first day of January next after their election. When a vacancy shall occur otherwise than by expiration of term in the office of Justice of the Supreme Court the same shall be filled for a full term, at the next general election, happening not less than three months after such vacancy occurs; and, until the vacancy shall be so filled, the Governor by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, if the Senate shall be in session, or if not in session the Governor, may fill such vacancy by appointment, which shall continue until and including the last day of December next after the election at which the vacancy shall be filled.

Const. 1846, art. VI, §§ 9, 13.

§ 5. City courts abolished; judges become justices of supreme court; salaries; jurisdiction vested in supreme court.

The Superior Court of the City of New York, the Court of Common Pleas for the City and County of New York, the Superior Court of Buffalo, and the City Court of Brooklyn, are abolished from and after the first day of January, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-six, and thereupon the seals, records, papers and documents of or belonging to such courts, shall be deposited in the offices of the Clerks of the several counties in which said courts now exist; and all actions and proceedings then pending in such courts shall be transferred to the Supreme Court for hearing and determination. The Judges of said courts in office on the first day of January, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-six, shall, for the remainder of the term for which they were elected or appointed, be Justices of the Supreme Court; but they shall sit only in the counties in which they were elected or appointed. Their salaries shall be paid by the said counties respectively, and shall be the same as the salaries of the other Justices of the Supreme Court residing in the same counties. Their successors shall be elected as Justices of the Supreme Court by the electors of the judicial districts in which they respectively reside.

The jurisdiction now exercised by the several courts hereby abolished, shall be vested in the Supreme Court. Appeals from inferior and local courts now heard in the Court of Common Pleas for the City and County of New York and the Superior Court of Buffalo, shall be heard in the Supreme Court in such manner and by such Justice or Justices as the Appellate Divisions in the respective departments which include New York and Buffalo shall direct, unless otherwise provided by the Legislature.

New.

§ 6. Circuit courts and courts of oyer and terminer abolished.

Circuit Courts and Courts of Oyer and Terminer are abolished from and after the last day of December, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-five. All their jurisdiction shall thereupon be vested in the Supreme Court, and all actions and proceedings then pending in such courts shall be transferred to the Supreme Court for hearing and determination. Any Justice of the Supreme Court, except as otherwise provided in this article, may hold court in any county.

New.

§ 7. Court of appeals.

The Court of Appeals is continued. It shall consist of the Chief Judge and Associate Judges now in office, who shall hold their offices until the expiration of their respective terms, and their successors, who shall be chosen by the electors of the State. The official terms of the Chief Judge and Associate Judges shall be fourteen years from and including the first day of January next after their election. Five members of the court shall form a quorum, and the concurrence of four shall be necessary to a decision. The court shall have power to appoint and to remove its reporter, clerk and attendants. Whenever and as often as a majority of the Judges of the Court of Appeals shall certify to the Governor that said court is unable, by reason of the accumulation of causes pending therein, to hear and dispose of the same with reasonable speed, the Governor shall designate not more than four Justices of the Supreme Court to serve as Associate Judges of Court of Appeals. The Justices so designated shall be relieved from their duties as Justices of the Supreme Court and shall serve as Associate Judges of the Court of Appeals until the causes undisposed of in said court are reduced to two hundred, when they shall return to the Supreme Court. The Governor may designate Justices of the Supreme Court to fill vacancies. No Justice shall serve as Associate Judge of the Court of Appeals except while holding the office of Justice of the Supreme Court, and no more than seven Judges shall sit in any case. [As amended in 1899.]

Const. 1846, art. VI, § 3, amended in 1869.

§ 8. Vacancy in court of appeals, how filled.

When a vacancy shall occur otherwise than by expiration of term, in the office of Chief or Associate Judge of the Court of Appeals, the same shall be filled, for a full term, at the next general election happening not less than three months after such vacancy occurs; and until the vacancy shall be so filled, the Governor, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, if the Senate shall be in session, or if not in session the Governor may fill such vacancy by appointment. If any such appointment of Chief Judge shall be made from among the Associate Judges, a temporary appointment of Associate Judge shall be made in like manner; but in such case, the person appointed Chief Judge shall not be deemed to vacate his office of Associate Judge any longer than until the expiration of his appointment as Chief Judge. The powers and jurisdiction of the court shall not be suspended for want of appointment or election, when the number of Judges is sufficient to constitute a quorum. All appointments under this section shall continue until and including the last day of December next after the election at which the vacancy shall be filled.

§ 9. Jurisdiction of court of appeals.

After the last day of December, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-five, the jurisdiction of the Court of Appeals, except where the judgment is of death, shall be limited to the review of questions of law. No unanimous decision of the Appellate Division of the Supreme Court that there is evidence supporting or tending to sustain a finding of fact or a verdict not directed by the court, shall be reviewed by the Court of Appeals. Except where the judgment is of death, appeals may be taken, as of right, to said court only from judgments or orders entered upon decisions of the Appellate Division of the Supreme Court, finally determining actions or special proceedings, and from orders granting new trials on exceptions, where the appellants stipulate that upon affirmance judgment absolute shall be rendered against them. The Appellate Division in any department may, however, allow an appeal upon any question of law which, in its opinion, ought to be reviewed by the Court of Appeals.

The Legislature may further restrict the jurisdiction of the Court of Appeals and the right of appeal thereto, but the right to appeal shall not depend upon the amount involved.

The provisions of this section shall not apply to orders made or judgments rendered by any General Term before the last day of December, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-five, but appeals therefrom may be taken under existing provisions of law.

New.

§ 10. Judges not to hold any other office.

The Judges of the Court of Appeals and the Justices of the Supreme Court shall not hold any other office or public trust. All votes for any of them, for any other than a judicial office, given by the Legislature or the people, shall be void.

Const. 1846, art. VI, § 10, amended in 1869.

§ 11. Removal of judges.

Judges of the Court of Appeals and Justices of the Supreme Court may be removed by concurrent resolution of both houses of the Legislature, if two-thirds of all the members elected to each house concur therein. All other judicial officers, except Justices of the Peace and judges or justices of inferior courts not of record, may be removed by the Senate, on the recommendation of the Governor, if two-thirds of all the members elected to the Senate concur therein. But no officer shall be removed by virtue of this section except for cause, which shall be entered on the journals, nor unless he shall have been served with a statement of the cause alleged, and shall have had an opportunity to be heard. On the question of removal, the yeas and nays shall be entered on the journal.

§ 12. Compensation; age restriction; assignment by governor.

No person shall hold the office of Judge or Justice of any court longer than until and including the last day of December next after he shall be seventy years of age. Each justice of the supreme court shall receive from the state the sum of ten thousand dollars per year. Those assigned to the appellate divisions in the third and fourth departments shall each receive in addition the sum of two thousand dollars, and the presiding justices thereof the sum of two thousand five hundred dollars per year. Those justices elected in the first and second judicial departments shall continue to receive from their respective cities, counties or districts, as now provided by law, such additional compensation as will make their aggregate compensation what they are now receiving. Those justices elected in any judicial department other than the first or second, and assigned to the appellate divisions of the first or second departments, shall, while so assigned, receive from those departments respectively, as now provided by law, such additional sum as is paid to the justices of those departments. A justice elected in the third or fourth department assigned by the appellate division or designated by the governor to hold a trial or special term in a judicial district other than that in which he is elected shall receive in addition ten dollars per day for expenses while actually so engaged in holding such term, which shall be paid by the state and charged upon the judicial district where the service is rendered. The compensation herein provided shall be in lieu of and shall exclude all other compensation and allowance to said justices for expenses of every kind and nature whatsoever. The provisions of this section shall apply to the judges and justices now in office and to those hereafter elected.

Const. 1846, art. VI, §§ 13, 14, amended in 1869 and 1909.

§ 13. Trial of impeachments.

The Assembly shall have the power of impeachment, by a vote of a majority of all the members elected. The Court for the Trial of Impeachments shall be composed of the President of the Senate, the senators or the major part of them, and the Judges of the Court of Appeals, or the major part of them. On the trial of an impeachment against the Governor or Lieutenant-Governor, the Lieutenant-Governor shall not act as a member of the court. No judicial officer shall exercise his office, after articles of impeachment against him shall have been preferred to the Senate, until he shall have been acquitted. Before the trial of an impeachment the members of the court shall take an oath or affirmation truly and impartially to try the impeachment according to the evidence, and no person shall be convicted without the concurrence of two-thirds of the members present. Judgment in cases of impeachment shall not extend further than to removal from office, or removal from office and disqualification to hold and enjoy any office of honor, trust or profit under this State; but the party impeached shall be liable to indictment and punishment according to law.

§ 14. County courts.

The existing County Courts are continued, and the Judges thereof now in office shall hold their offices until the expiration of their respective terms. In the county of Kings there shall be four County Judges. The number of County Judges in any county may also be increased, from time to time, by the Legislature, to such number that the total number of County Judges in any one county shall not exceed one for every two hundred thousand, or major fraction thereof, of the population of such county. The additional County Judges in the county of Kings shall be chosen at the general election held in the first odd-numbered year after the adoption of this amendment. The additional County Judges whose offices may be created by the Legislature shall be chosen at the general election held in the first odd-numbered year after the creation of such office. All County Judges, including successors to existing Judges, shall be chosen by the electors of the counties for the term of six years from and including the first day of January following their election. County Courts shall have the powers and jurisdiction they now possess, and also original jurisdiction in actions for the recovery of money only, where the defendants reside in the county, and in which the complaint demands judgment for a sum not exceeding two thousand dollars. The Legislature may hereafter enlarge or restrict the jurisdiction of the County Courts, provided, however, that their jurisdiction shall not be so extended as to authorize an action therein for the recovery of money only, in which the sum demanded exceeds two thousand dollars, or in which any person not a resident of the county is a defendant. Courts of Sessions, except in the county of New York, are abolished from and after the last day of December, eighteen hundred and ninety-five. All the jurisdiction of the Court of Sessions in each county, except the county of New York, shall thereupon be vested in the County Court thereof, and all actions and proceedings then pending in such Courts of Sessions shall be transferred to the said County Courts for hearing and determination. Every County Judge shall perform such duties as they may be required by law. His salary shall be established by law, payable out of the county treasury. A County Judge of any county may hold County Courts in any other county when requested by the judge of such other county.

Const. 1846, art. VI, § 15, amended in 1869 and Nov. 4, 1913.

§ 15. Surrogates' courts; surrogates, their powers and jurisdiction; vacancies.

The existing Surrogate's Courts are continued, and the Surrogates now in office shall hold their offices until the expiration of their terms. Their successors shall be chosen by the electors of their respective counties, and their terms of office shall be six years, except in the county of New York, where they shall continue to be fourteen years. Surrogates and Surrogates' Courts shall have the jurisdiction and powers which the Surrogates and existing Surrogates' Courts now possess, until otherwise provided by the Legislature. The County Judge shall be Surrogate of his county, except where a separate Surrogate has been or shall be elected. In counties having a population exceeding forty thousand, wherein there is no separate Surrogate, the Legislature may provide for the election of a separate officer to be Surrogate, whose term of office shall be six years. When the Surrogate shall be elected as a separate officer his salary shall be established by law, payable out of the county treasury. No County Judge or Surrogate shall hold office longer than until and including the last day of December next after he shall be seventy years of age. Vacancies occurring in the office of County Judge or Surrogate shall be filled in the same manner as like vacancies occurring in the Supreme Court. The compensation of any County Judge or Surrogate shall not be increased or diminished during his term of office. For the relief of Surrogates' Courts the Legislature may confer upon the Supreme Court in any county having a population exceeding four hundred thousand, the powers and jurisdiction of Surrogates, with authority to try issues of fact by jury in probate cases.

§ 16. Local judicial officers.

The Legislature may, on application of the board of supervisors, provide for the election of local officers, not to exceed two in any county, to discharge the duties of County Judge and of Surrogate, in cases of their inability or of a vacancy, and in such other cases as may be provided by law, and to exercise such other powers in special cases as are or may be provided by law.

Const. 1846, art. VI, § 16, amended in 1869.

§ 17. Justices of the peace; district court justices.

The electors of the several towns shall, at their annual town meetings, or at such other time and in such manner as the Legislature may direct, elect Justices of the Peace, whose term of office shall be four years. In case of an election to fill a vacancy occurring before the expiration of a full term, they shall hold for the residue of the unexpired term. Their number and classification may be regulated by law. Justices of the Peace and judges or justices of inferior courts not of record, and their clerks may be removed for cause, after due notice and an opportunity of being heard, by such courts as are or may be prescribed by law. Justices of the Peace and District Court Justices may be elected in the different cities of this State in such manner, and with such powers, and for such terms, respectively, as are or shall be prescribed by law; all other judicial officers in cities, whose election or appointment is not otherwise provided for in this article, shall be chosen by the electors of such cities, or appointed by some local authorities thereof.

§ 18. Inferior local courts.

Inferior local courts of civil and criminal jurisdiction may be established by the Legislature, but no inferior local court hereafter created shall be a court of record. The Legislature shall not hereafter confer upon any inferior or local court of its creation, any equity jurisdiction or any greater jurisdiction in other respects than is conferred upon County Courts by or under this article. Except as herein otherwise provided, all judicial officers shall be elected or appointed at such times and in such manner as the Legislature may direct.

§ 19. Clerks of courts.

Clerks of the several counties shall be clerks of the Supreme Court, with such powers and duties as shall be prescribed by law. The Justices of the Appellate Division in each department shall have power to appoint and to remove a clerk, who shall keep his office at a place to be designated by said Justices. The Clerk of the Court of Appeals shall keep his office at the seat of government. The Clerk of the Court of Appeals and the clerks of the Appellate Division shall receive compensation to be established by law and paid out of the public treasury.

§ 20. No judicial Officer, except justice of the peace, to receive fees; not to act as attorney or counselor.

No judicial officer, except Justices of the Peace, shall receive to his own use any fees or perquisites of office; nor shall any

Judge of the Court of Appeals, or Justice of the Supreme Court, or any County Judge or Surrogate hereafter elected in a county having a population exceeding one hundred and twenty thousand, practice as an attorney or counselor in any court of record in this State, or act as referee. The Legislature may impose a similar prohibition upon County Judges and Surrogates in other counties. No one shall be eligible to the office of Judge of the Court of Appeals, Justice of the Supreme Court, or, except in the county of Hamilton, to the office of County Judge or Surrogate, who is not an attorney and counselor of this State.

§ 21. Publication of statutes.

The Legislature shall provide for the speedy publication of all statutes, and shall regulate the reporting of the decisions of the courts; but all laws and judicial decisions shall be free for publication by any person.

Const. 1846, art. VI, § 23, amended in 1869.

§ 22. Terms of office of present justices of the peace and local judicial officers.

Justices of the Peace and other local judicial officers provided for in sections seventeen and eighteen, in office when this article takes effect, shall hold their offices until the expiration of their respective terms.

Const. 1846, art. VI, § 25, amended in 1869.

§ 23. Courts of special sessions.

Courts of Special Sessions shall have such jurisdiction of offenses of the grade of misdemeanors as may be prescribed by law.

Const. 1846, art. VI, § 26, amended in 1869.

ARTICLE SEVENTH.

- Sec. 1. State credit not to be given.
2. State debts, power to contract.
3. State debts to repel invasions.
4. Limitation of legislative power to create debts.
5. Sinking fund, how kept and invested.
6. Claims barred by statute of limitations.
7. Forest preserve.
8. Canals, not to be sold; not applicable to certain canals; disposition of funds.
9. No tolls to be imposed; contracts for work and materials; no extra compensation.
10. Canal improvement and cost thereof.
11. Payment of debts of the State.
12. Improvement of highways.

§ 1. State credit not to be given.

The credit of the State shall not in any manner be given or loaned to or in aid of any individual, association or corporation.

Const. 1846, art. VII, § 9.

§ 2. State debts, power to contract.

The State may, to meet casual deficits or failures in revenues, or for expenses not provided for, contract debts; but such debts, direct or contingent, singly or in the aggregate, shall not at any time exceed one million of dollars; and the moneys arising from the loans creating such debts shall be applied to the purpose for which they were obtained, or to repay the debt so contracted, and to no other purpose whatever.

Const. 1846, art. VII, § 10.

§ 3. State debts to repel invasions.

In addition to the above limited power to contract debts, the State may contract debts to repel invasion, suppress insurrection, or defend the State in war; but the money arising from the contracting of such debts shall be applied to the purpose for which it was raised, or to repay such debts, and to no other purpose whatever.

Const. 1846, art. VII, § 11.

§ 4. Limitation of legislative power to create debts.

Except the debts specified in sections two and three of this article, no debts shall be hereafter contracted by or in behalf of this State, unless such debt shall be authorized by a law, for some single work or object, to be distinctly specified therein; and such law shall impose and provide for the collection of a direct annual tax to pay, and sufficient to pay, the interest on such debt as it falls due, and also to pay and discharge the principal of such debt within fifty years from the time of the contracting thereof. No such law shall take effect until it shall, at a general election have been submitted to the people, and have received a majority of all the votes cast for and against it at such election. On the final passage of such bill in either house of the Legislature, the question shall be taken by ayes and noes, to be duly entered on the journals thereof, and shall be: "Shall this bill pass, and ought the same to receive the sanction of the people?"

The Legislature may at any time, after the approval of such law by the people, if no debt shall have been contracted in pursuance thereof, repeal the same; and may at any time, by law, forbid the contracting of any further debt or liability under such law; but the tax imposed by such act, in proportion to the debt and liability which may have been contracted, in pursuance of such law, shall remain in force and be irrepealable, and be annually collected, until the proceeds thereof shall have made the provision hereinbefore specified to pay and discharge the interest and principal of such debt and liability. The money arising from any loan or stock creating such debt or liability shall be applied to the work or object specified in the act authorizing such debt or liability, or for the payment of such debt or liability, and for no other purpose whatever. No such law shall be submitted to be voted on, within three months after its passage or at any general election when any other law, or any bill shall be submitted to be voted for or against. The Legislature may provide for the issue of bonds of the state to run for a period not exceeding fifty years in lieu of bonds heretofore authorized but not issued and shall impose and provide for the collection of a direct annual tax for the payment of the same as hereinbefore required. When any sinking fund created under this section shall equal in amount the debt for which it was created, no further direct tax shall be levied on account of said sinking fund and the Legislature shall reduce the tax to an amount equal to the accruing interest on such debt. The Legislature may from time to time alter the rate of interest to be paid upon any State debt, which has been or may be authorized pursuant to the provisions of this section, or upon any part of such debt, provided, however, that the rate of interest shall not be altered upon any part of such debt or upon any bond or other evidence thereof, which has been, or shall be created or issued before such alteration. In case the Legislature increase the rate of interest upon any such debt, or part thereof, it shall impose and provide for the collection of a direct annual tax to pay and sufficient to pay the increased or altered interest on such debt as it falls due and also to pay and discharge the principal of such debt within fifty years from the time of the contracting thereof, and shall appropriate annually to the sinking fund moneys in amount sufficient to pay such interest and pay and discharge the principal of such debt when it shall become due and payable.

Const. 1846, art. VII, § 12, amended in 1905 and 1909.

§ 5. Sinking fund, how kept and invested.

The sinking funds provided for the payment of interest and the extinguishment of the principal of the debts of the State shall be separately kept and safely invested, and neither of them shall be appropriated or used in any manner other than for the specific purpose for which it shall have been provided.

Const. 1846, art. VII, § 13, amended in 1874.

§ 6. Claims barred by statute of limitations.

Neither the Legislature, canal board, nor any person or persons acting in behalf of the State, shall audit, allow or pay any claim which, as between citizens of the State, would be barred by lapse of time. This provision shall not be construed to repeal any statute fixing the time within which claims shall be presented or allowed, nor shall it extend to any claim duly presented within the time allowed by law, and prosecuted with due diligence from the time of such presentment. But if the claimant shall be under legal disability, the claim may be presented within two years after such disability is removed.

§ 7. Forest preserve.

The lands of the State, now owned or hereafter acquired, constituting the forest preserve as now fixed by law, shall be forever kept as wild forest lands. They shall not be leased, sold or exchanged, or be taken by any corporation, public or private, nor shall the timber thereon be sold, removed or destroyed. But the Legislature may by general laws provide for the use of not exceeding three per centum of such lands for the construction and maintenance of reservoirs for municipal water supply, for the canals of the State and to regulate the flow of streams. Such reservoirs shall be constructed, owned and controlled by the State, but such work shall not be undertaken until after the boundaries and high flow lines thereof shall have been accurately surveyed and fixed, and after public notice, hearing and determination that such lands are required for such public use. The expense of any such improvements shall be apportioned on the public and private property and municipalities benefited to the extent of the benefits received. Any such reservoir shall always be operated by the State and the Legislature shall provide for a charge upon the property and municipalities benefited for a reasonable return to the State upon the value of the rights and property of the State used and the services of the State rendered, which shall be fixed for terms of not exceeding ten years and be readjustable at the end of any term. Unsanitary conditions shall not be created or continued by any such public works. A violation of any of the provisions of this section may be restrained at the suit of the people or, with the consent of the Supreme Court in Appellate Division, on notice to the Attorney-General at the suit of any citizen.

Amended Nov. 4, 1913.

§ 8. Canals, not to be sold; not applied to certain canals; disposition of funds.

The Legislature shall not sell, lease or otherwise dispose of the Erie canal, the Oswego canal, the Champlain canal, the Cayuga and Seneca canal, or the Black River canal; but they shall remain the property of the State and under its management forever. The prohibition of lease, sale or other disposition herein contained, shall not apply to the canal known as the Main and Hamburg street canal, situated in the city of Buffalo, and which extends easterly from the westerly line of Main street to the westerly line of Hamburg street. All funds that may be derived from any lease, sale or other disposition of any canal shall be applied to the improvement, superintendence or repair of the remaining portion of the canals.

Const. 1846, art. VII, § 6, amended in 1882.

§ 9. No tolls to be imposed; contracts for work and materials; no extra compensation.

No tolls shall hereafter be imposed on persons or property transported on the canals, but all boats navigating the canals, and the owners and masters thereof, shall be subject to such laws and regulations as have been or may hereafter be enacted concerning the navigation of the canals. The Legislature shall annually, by equitable taxes, make provision for the expenses of the superintendence and repairs of the canals. All contracts for work or materials on any canal shall be made with the persons who shall offer to do or provide the same at the lowest price, with adequate security for their performance. No extra compensation shall be made to any contractor; but if, from any unforeseen cause, the terms of any contract shall prove to be unjust and oppressive, the canal board may, upon the application of the contractor, cancel such contract.

Const. 1846, art. VII, § 3, amended in 1882.

§ 10. Canal improvement, and cost thereof.

The canals may be improved in such manner as the Legislature shall provide by law. A debt may be authorized for that purpose in the mode prescribed by section four of this article, or the cost of such improvement may be defrayed by the appropriation of funds from the state treasury, or by equitable annual tax.

New.

§ 11. Payment of debts of the state.

The Legislature may appropriate out of any funds in the treasury, moneys to pay the accruing interest and principal of any debt heretofore or hereafter created, or any part thereof and may set apart in each fiscal year, moneys in the state treasury as a sinking fund to pay the interest as it falls due and to pay and discharge the principal of any debt heretofore or hereafter created under section four of article seven of the constitution until the same shall be wholly paid, and the principal and income of such sinking fund shall be applied to the purpose for which said sinking fund is created and to no other purpose whatever; and, in the event such moneys so set apart in any fiscal year be sufficient to provide such sinking fund, a direct annual tax for such year need not be imposed and collected, as required by the provisions of said section four of article seven, or of any law enacted in pursuance thereof.

Added in 1905.

§ 12. Improvement of highways.

A debt or debts of the state may be authorized by law for the improvement of highways. Such highways shall be determined under general laws, which shall also provide for the equitable apportionment thereof among the counties. The aggregate of the debts authorized by this section shall not at any one time exceed the sum of fifty millions of dollars. The payment of the annual interest on such debt and the creation of a sinking fund of at least two per centum per annum to discharge the principal at maturity shall be provided by general laws whose force and effect shall not be diminished during the existence of any debt created thereunder. The Legislature may by general laws require the county or town or both to pay to the sinking fund the proportionate part of the cost of any such highway within the boundaries of such county or town and the proportionate part of the interest thereon, but no county shall at any time for any highway be required to pay more than thirty-five hundredths of the cost of such highway, and no town more than fifteen hundredths. None of the provisions of the fourth section of this article shall apply to debts for the improvement of highways hereby authorized.

Added in 1905.

ARTICLE EIGHTH.

- Sec. 1. Corporations, formation of.
2. Dues of corporations.
3. Corporation, definition of term.
4. Savings bank charters; restrictions upon trustees; special charters not to be granted.
5. Specie payment.
6. Registry of bills or notes.
7. Liability of stockholders of banks.
8. Billholders of insolvent bank, preferred creditors.
9. Credit or money of the state not to be given.
10. Counties, cities and towns not to give or loan money or credit; limitation of indebtedness.
11. State board of charities; state commission in lunacy; state commission of prisons.
12. Boards appointed by governor.
13. Existing laws to remain in force.
14. Maintenance and support of inmates of charitable institutions.
15. Commissioners continued in office.

§ 1. Corporations, formation of.

Corporations may be formed under general laws; but shall not be created by special act, except for municipal purposes, and in cases where, in the judgment of the Legislature, the objects of the corporation cannot be attained under general laws. All general laws and special acts passed pursuant to this section may be altered from time to time or repealed.

Const. 1846, art. VIII, § 1.

§ 2. Dues of corporations.

Dues from corporations shall be secured by such individual liability of the corporators and other means as may be prescribed by law.

Const. 1846, art. VIII, § 2.

§ 3. Corporation, definition of term.

The term corporations as used in this article shall be construed to include all associations and joint-stock companies having any of the powers or privileges of corporations not possessed by individuals or partnerships. And all corporations shall have the right to sue and shall be subject to be sued in all courts in like cases as natural persons.

Const. 1846, art. VIII, § 3.

§ 4. Savings bank charters; restrictions upon trustees; special charters not to be granted.

The Legislature shall, by general law, conform all charters of savings banks, or institutions for savings, to a uniformity of powers, rights and liabilities, and all charters hereafter granted for such corporations shall be made to conform to such general law, and to such amendments as may be made thereto. And no such corporation shall have any capital stock, nor shall the trustees thereof, or any of them, have any interest whatever, direct or indirect, in the profits of such corporation; and no director or trustee of any such bank or institution shall be interested in any loan or use of any money or property of such bank or institution for savings. The Legislature shall have no power to pass any act granting any special charter for banking purposes; but corporations or associations may be formed for such purposes under general laws.

Const. 1846, art. VIII, § 4, amended in 1874.

§ 5. Specie payment.

The Legislature shall have no power to pass any law sanctioning in any manner, directly or indirectly, the suspension of specie payments, by any person, association or corporation, issuing bank notes of any description.

Const. 1846, art. VIII, § 5.

§ 6. Registry of bills or notes.

The Legislature shall provide by law for the registry of all bills or notes, issued or put in circulation as money, and shall require ample security for the redemption of the same in specie.

Const. 1846, art. VIII, § 6.

§ 7. Liability of stockholders of banks.

The stockholders of every corporation and joint-stock association for banking purposes, shall be individually responsible to the amount of their respective share or shares of stock in any such corporation or association, for all its debts and liabilities of every kind.

Const. 1846, art. VIII, § 7.

§ 8. Billholders of insolvent bank, preferred creditors.

In case of the insolvency of any bank or banking association, the billholders thereof shall be entitled to preference in payment, over all other creditors of such bank or association.

Const. 1846, art. VIII, § 8.

§ 9. Credit or money of the state not to be given.

Neither the credit nor the money of the State shall be given or loaned to or in aid of any association, corporation or private undertaking. This section shall not, however, prevent the Legislature from making such provision for the education and support of the blind, the deaf and dumb, and juvenile delinquents, as to it may seem proper. Nor shall it apply to any fund or property now held, or which may hereafter be held, by the State for educational purposes.

Const. 1846, art. VIII, § 10, added in 1874.

§ 10. Limitation of indebtedness of counties, cities, towns and villages; exception as to city of New York.

No county, city, town or village shall hereafter give any money or property, or loan its money or credit to or in aid of any individual, association or corporation, or become directly or indirectly the owner of stock in, or bonds of, any association or corporation; nor shall any such county, city, town or village be allowed to incur any indebtedness except for county, city, town or village purposes. This section shall not prevent such county, city, town or village from making such provision for the aid or support of its poor as may be authorized by law. No county or city shall be allowed to become indebted for any purpose or in any manner to an amount which, including existing indebtedness, shall exceed ten per centum of the assessed valuation of the real estate of such county or city subject to taxation, as it appeared by the assessment-rolls of said county or city on the last assessment for state or county taxes prior to the incurring of such indebtedness; and all indebtedness in excess of such limitation, except such as now may exist, shall be absolutely void, except as herein otherwise provided. No county or city whose present indebtedness exceeds ten per centum of the assessed valuation of its real estate subject to taxation, shall be allowed to become indebted in any further amount until such indebtedness shall be reduced within such limit. This section shall not be construed to prevent the issuing of certificates of indebtedness or revenue bonds issued in anticipation of the collection of taxes for amounts actually contained or to be contained in the taxes for the year when such certificates or revenue bonds are issued and payable out of such taxes; nor to prevent the city of New York from issuing bonds to be redeemed out of the tax levy for the year next succeeding the year of their issue, provided that the amount of such bonds which may be issued in any one year in excess of the limitations herein contained shall not exceed one-tenth of one per centum of the assessed valuation of the real estate of said city subject to taxation. Nor shall this section be construed to prevent the issue of bonds to provide for the supply of water; but the term of the bonds issued to provide the supply of water, in excess of the limitation of indebtedness fixed herein, shall not exceed twenty years, and a sinking fund shall be created on the issuing of the said bonds for their redemption, by raising annually a sum which will produce an amount equal to the sum of the principal and interest of said bonds at their maturity. All certificates of indebtedness or revenue bonds issued in anticipation of the collection of taxes, which are not retired within five years after their date of issue, and bonds issued to provide for the supply of water, and any debt hereafter incurred by any portion or part of a city, if there shall be any such debt, shall be included in ascertaining the power of the city to become otherwise indebted; except that debts incurred by any city of the first class after the first day of January, nineteen hundred and four, and debts incurred by any city of the second class after the first day of January, nineteen hundred and eight, and debts incurred by any city of the third class after the first day of January, nineteen hundred and ten, to provide for the supply of water shall not be so included; and except further that any debt hereafter incurred by the city of New York for a public improvement owned or to be owned by the city, which yields to the city current net revenue, after making any necessary allowance for repairs and maintenance for which the city is liable, in excess of the interest on said debt and of the annual installments necessary for its amortization may be excluded in ascertaining the power of said city to become otherwise indebted, provided that a sinking fund for its amortization shall have been established and maintained and that the indebtedness shall not be so excluded during any period of time when the revenue aforesaid shall not be sufficient to equal the said interest and amortization installments, and except further that any indebtedness heretofore incurred by the city of New York for any rapid transit or dock investment may be so excluded proportionately to the extent to which the current net revenue received by said city therefrom shall meet the interest and amortization installments thereof, provided that any increase in the debt incurring power of the city of New York which shall result from the exclusion of debts heretofore incurred shall be available only for the acquisition or construction of properties to be used for rapid transit or dock purposes. The legislature shall prescribe the method by which and the terms and conditions under which the amount of any debt to be so excluded shall be determined, and no such debt shall be excluded except in accordance with the determination so prescribed. The legislature may in its discretion confer appropriate jurisdiction on the appellate division of the supreme court in the first judicial department for the purpose of determining the amount of any debt to be so excluded. No indebtedness of a city valid at the time of its inception shall thereafter become invalid by reason of the operation of any of the provisions of this section. Whenever the boundaries of any city are the same as those of a county, or when any city shall include within its boundaries more than one county, the power of any county wholly included within such city to become indebted shall cease, but the debt of the county, heretofore existing, shall not, for the purposes of this section, be reckoned as a part of the city debt. The amount hereafter to be raised by tax for county or city purposes, in any county containing a city of over one hundred thousand inhabitants, or any such city of this State, in addition to providing for the principal and interest of existing debt shall not in the aggregate exceed in any one year two per centum of the assessed valuation of the real and personal estate of such county or city, to be ascertained as prescribed in this section in respect to county or city debt.

Const. 1846, art. VIII, § 11, added in 1874, and amended in 1884, 1899, 1905, 1907, 1909, 1917.

§ 11. State board of charities; state commission in lunacy; state commission of prisons.

The Legislature shall provide for a state board of charities, which shall visit and inspect all institutions, whether state, county, municipal, incorporated or not incorporated, which are of a charitable, eleemosynary, correctional or reformatory character, excepting only such institutions as are hereby made subject to the visitation and inspection of either of the commissions hereinafter mentioned, but including all reformatories except those in which adult males convicted of felony shall be confined; a state commission in lunacy, which shall visit and inspect all institutions, either public or private, used for the care and treatment of the insane (not including institutions for epileptics or idiots); a state commission of prisons which shall visit and inspect all institutions used for the detention of sane adults charged with or convicted of crime, or detained as witnesses or debtors.

New.

§ 12. Boards appointed by governor.

The members of the said board and of the said commissions shall be appointed by the Governor, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate; and any member may be removed from office by the Governor for cause, an opportunity having been given him to be heard in his defense.

New.

§ 13. Existing laws to remain in force.

Existing laws relating to institutions referred to in the foregoing sections and to their supervision and inspection, in so far as such laws are not inconsistent with the provisions of the Constitution, shall remain in force until amended or repealed by the Legislature. The visitation and inspection herein provided for shall not be exclusive of other visitation and inspection now authorized by law.

New.

§ 14. Maintenance and support of inmates of charitable institutions.

Nothing in this Constitution contained shall prevent the Legislature from making such provision for the education and support of the blind, the deaf and dumb, and juvenile delinquents, as to it may seem proper; or prevent any county, city, town or village from providing for the care, support, maintenance and secular education, of inmates of orphan asylums, homes for dependent children or correctional institutions, whether under public or private control. Payments by counties, cities, towns and villages to charitable, eleemosynary, correctional and reformatory institutions, wholly or partly under private control, for care, support and maintenance, may be authorized, but shall not be required by the Legislature. No such payments shall be made for any inmate of such institutions who is not received and retained therein pursuant to rules established by the state board of charities. Such rules shall be subject to the control of the Legislature by general laws.

New.

§ 15. Commissioners continued in office.

Commissioners of the state board of charities and commissioners of the state commission in lunacy, now holding office, shall be continued in office for the term for which they were appointed, respectively, unless the Legislature shall otherwise provide. The Legislature may confer upon the commissions and upon the board mentioned in the foregoing sections any additional powers that are not inconsistent with other provisions of the Constitution.

New.

ARTICLE NINTH.

- Sec. 1. Common schools.
2. Regents of the university.
3. Common school, literature and the United States deposit funds.
4. No aid to denominational schools.

§ 1. Common schools.

The Legislature shall provide for the maintenance and support of a system of free common schools, wherein all the children of this State may be educated.

New.

§ 2. Regents of the university.

The corporation created in the year one thousand seven hundred and eighty-four, under the name of The Regents of the University of the State of New York, is hereby continued under the name of The University of the State of New York. It shall be governed and its corporate powers, which may be increased, modified or diminished by the Legislature, shall be exercised by not less than nine regents.

New.

§ 3. Common school, literature and the United States deposit funds.

The capital of the common school fund, the capital of the literature fund, and the capital of the United States deposit fund, shall be respectively preserved inviolate. The revenue of the said common school fund shall be applied to the support of common schools; the revenue of the said literature fund shall be applied to the support of academies; and the sum of twenty-five thousand dollars of the revenues of the United States deposit fund shall each year be appropriated to and made part of the capital of the said common school fund.

Const. 1846, art. IX, § 1.

§ 4. No aid to denominational schools.

Neither the State nor any subdivision thereof, shall use its property or credit or any public money, or authorize or permit either to be used, directly or indirectly, in aid or maintenance, other than for examination or inspection, of any school or institution of learning wholly or in part under the control or direction of any religious denomination, or in which any denominational tenet or doctrine is taught.

New.

ARTICLE TENTH.

- Sec. 1. Sheriffs, clerks of counties, district attorneys and registers; governor may remove.
2. Appointment or election of officers not provided for by this constitution.
3. Duration of term.
4. Time of election.
5. Vacancies in office, how filled.
6. Political year.
7. Removal from office for misconduct, etc.
8. Office deemed vacant.
9. Compensation of officers.

§ 1. Sheriffs, clerks of counties, district attorneys and registers; governor may remove.

Sheriffs, clerks of counties, district attorneys and registers in counties having registers, shall be chosen by the electors of the respective counties, once in every three years and as often as vacancies shall happen, except in the counties of New York and Kings, and in counties whose boundaries are the same as those of a city, where such officers shall be chosen by the electors once in every two or four years as the Legislature shall direct. Sheriffs shall hold no other office and be ineligible for the next term after the termination of their offices. They may be required by law to renew their security from time to time; and in default of giving such new security, their offices shall be deemed vacant. But the county shall never be made responsible for the acts of the sheriff. The Governor may remove any officer, in this section mentioned, within the term for which he shall have been elected; giving to such officer a copy of the charges against him, and an opportunity of being heard in his defense.

Const. 1846, art. X, § 1.

§ 2. Appointment or election of officers, not provided for by this constitution.

All county officers, whose election or appointment is not provided for by this Constitution, shall be elected by the electors of the respective counties or appointed by the boards of supervisors, or other county authorities, as the Legislature shall direct. All city, town and village officers, whose election or appointment is not provided for by this Constitution, shall be elected by the electors of such cities, towns and villages, or of some division thereof, or appointed by such authorities thereof, as the Legislature shall designate for that purpose. All other officers, whose election or appointment is not provided for by this Constitution, and all officers, whose offices may hereafter be created by law, shall be elected by the people, or appointed, as the Legislature may direct.

Const. 1846, art. X, § 2.

§ 3. Duration of term.

When the duration of any office is not provided by this Constitution it may be declared by law, and if not so declared, such office shall be held during the pleasure of the authority making the appointment.

Const. 1846, art. X, § 3.

§ 4. Time of election.

The time of electing all officers named in this article shall be prescribed by law.

Const. 1846, art. X, § 4.

§ 5. Vacancies in offices, how filled.

The Legislature shall provide for filling vacancies in office, and in case of elective officers, no person appointed to fill a vacancy shall hold his office by virtue of such appointment longer than the commencement of the political year next succeeding the first annual election after the happening of the vacancy.

Const. 1846, art. X, § 5.

§ 6. Political year.

The political year and legislative term shall begin on the first day of January; and the Legislature shall, every year, assemble on the first Wednesday in January.

Const. 1846, art. X, § 6.

§ 7. Removal from office for misconduct, etc.

Provision shall be made by law for the removal for misconduct or malversation in office of all officers, except judicial, whose powers and duties are not local or legislative and who shall be elected at general elections, and also for supplying vacancies created by such removal.

Const. 1846, art. X, § 7.

§ 8. Office deemed vacant.

The Legislature may declare the cases in which any office shall be deemed vacant when no provision is made for that purpose in this Constitution.

Const. 1846, art. X, § 8.

§ 9. Compensation of officers.

No officer whose salary is fixed by the Constitution shall receive any additional compensation. Each of the other state officers named in the Constitution shall, during his continuance in office, receive a compensation, to be fixed by law, which shall not be increased or diminished during the term for which he shall have been elected or appointed; nor shall he receive to his use any fees or perquisites of office as other compensation.

Const. 1846, art. X, § 9.

ARTICLE ELEVENTH.

- Sec. 1. State militia.
2. Enlistment.
3. Organization of militia.
4. Appointment of military officers by the governor.
5. Manner of election of military officers prescribed by the legislature.
6. Commissioned officers, their removal.

§ 1. State militia.

All able-bodied male citizens between the ages of eighteen and forty-five years, who are residents of the State, shall constitute the militia, subject however, to such exemptions as are now, or may be hereafter created by the laws of the United States, or by the Legislature of this State.

Const. 1846, art. XI, § 1.

§ 2. Enlistment.

The Legislature may provide for the enlistment into the active force of such other persons as may make application to be so enlisted.

New.

§ 3. Organization of militia.

The militia shall be organized and divided into such land and naval, and active and reserve forces as the Legislature may deem proper, provided however that there shall be maintained at all times a force of not less than ten thousand enlisted men, fully uniformed, armed, equipped, disciplined and ready for active service. And it shall be the duty of the Legislature at each session to make sufficient appropriation for the maintenance thereof.

New.

§ 4. Appointment of military officers by the governor.

The Governor shall appoint the chiefs of the several staff departments, his aides-de-camp and military secretary, all of whom shall hold office during his pleasure, their commissions to expire with the term for which the Governor shall have been elected; he shall also nominate, and with the consent of the Senate appoint, all major-generals.

Const. 1846, art. XI, § 3.

§ 5. Manner of election of military officers prescribed by legislature.

All other commissioned and non-commissioned officers shall be chosen or appointed in such manner as the Legislature may deem most conducive to the improvement of the militia, provided, however, that no law shall be passed changing the existing mode of election and appointment unless two-thirds of the members present in each house shall concur therein.

Const. 1846, art. XI, §§ 4, 6.

§ 6. Commissioned officers; their removal.

The commissioned officers shall be commissioned by the Governor as commander-in-chief. No commissioned officer shall be removed from office during the term for which he shall have been appointed or elected, unless by the Senate on the recommendation of the Governor, stating the grounds on which such removal is recommended, or by the sentence of a court-martial, or upon the findings of an examining board organized pursuant to law, or for absence without leave for a period of six months or more.

Const. 1846, art. XI, § 5.     •

ARTICLE TWELFTH.

- Sec. 1. Organization of cities and villages; regulation of wages, etc., of employees of state, county, city, town, etc.
- 2. Classification of cities; general and special city laws; special city laws; how passed by legislature and acceptance by cities.
- 3. Election of city officers, when to be held; extension and abridgment of terms.

§ 1. Organization of cities and villages; regulation of wages, etc., of employees of state, county, city, town, etc.

It shall be the duty of the Legislature to provide for the organization of cities and incorporated villages, and to restrict their power of taxation, assessment, borrowing money, contracting debts, and loaning their credit, so as to prevent abuses in assessments and in contracting debt by such municipal corporations; and the Legislature may regulate and fix the wages or salaries, the hours of work or labor, and make provision for the protection, welfare and safety of persons employed by the state or by any county, city, town, village or other civil division of the state, or by any contractor or subcontractor performing work, labor or services for the state, or for any county, city, town, village or other civil division thereof.

Const. 1846, art. VIII, § 9, amended in 1905.

§ 2. Classification of cities; general and special city laws; special city laws; how passed by legislature and acceptance by cities.

All cities are classified according to the latest state enumeration, as from time to time made, as follows: The first class includes all cities having a population of one hundred and seventy-five thousand, or more; the second class, all cities having a population of fifty thousand and less than one hundred and seventy-five thousand; the third class, all other cities. Laws relating to the property, affairs or government of cities, and the several departments thereof, are divided into general and special city laws; general city laws are those which relate to all the cities of one or more classes; special city laws are those which relate to a single city, or to less than all the cities of a class. Special city laws shall not be passed except in conformity with the provisions of this section. After any bill for a special city law, relating to a city, has been passed by both branches of the Legislature, the house in which it originated shall immediately transmit a certified copy thereof to the mayor of such city, and within fifteen days thereafter the mayor shall return such bill to the house from which it was sent, or if the session of the Legislature at which such bill was passed has terminated, to the Governor, with the mayor's certificate thereon, stating whether the city has or has not accepted the same.

In every city of the first class, the mayor, and in every other city, the mayor and the legislative body thereof concurrently, shall act for such city as to such bill; but the Legislature may provide for the concurrence of the legislative body in cities of the first class. The Legislature shall provide for a public notice and opportunity for a public hearing concerning any such bill in every city to which it relates, before action thereon. Such a bill, if it relates to more than one city, shall be transmitted to the mayor of each city to which it relates, and shall not be deemed accepted unless accepted as herein provided, by every such city. Whenever any such bill is accepted as herein provided, it shall be subject as are other bills, to the action of the Governor. Whenever, during the session at which it was passed, any such bill is returned without the acceptance of the city or cities to which it relates, or within such fifteen days is not returned, it may nevertheless again be passed by both branches of the Legislature, and it shall then be subject as are other bills, to the action of the Governor. In every special city law which has been accepted by the city or cities to which it relates, the title shall be followed by the words "accepted by the city," or "cities," as the case may be; in every such law which is passed without such acceptance, by the words "passed without the acceptance of the city," or "cities," as the case may be.

New. Amended in 1907.

§ 3. Election of city officers, when to be held; extension and abridgment of terms.

All elections of city officers, including supervisors and judicial officers of inferior local courts, elected in any city or part of a city, and of county officers elected in the counties of New York and Kings, and in all counties whose boundaries are the same as those of a city, except to fill vacancies, shall be held on the Tuesday succeeding the first Monday in November in an odd-numbered year, and the term of every such officer shall expire at the end of an odd-numbered year. The terms of office of all such officers elected before the first day of January, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-five, whose successors have not then been elected, which under existing laws would expire with an even-numbered year, or in an odd-numbered year and before the end thereof, are extended to and including the last day of December next following the time when such terms would otherwise expire; the terms of office of all such officers, which under existing laws would expire in an even-numbered year, and before the end thereof, are abridged so as to expire at the end of the preceding year. This section shall not apply to any city of the third class, or to elections of any judicial officer, except judges and justices of inferior local courts.

New.

ARTICLE THIRTEENTH.

- Sec. 1. Oath of office.
2. Official bribery and corruption.
3. Offer or promise to bribe.
4. Person bribed or offering a bribe may be a witness.
5. Free passes, franking privileges, etc., not to be received by a public officer; penalty.
6. Removal of district attorney for failure to prosecute; expenses of prosecutions for bribery.

§ 1. Oath of office.

Members of the Legislature, and all officers executive and judicial, except such inferior officers as shall be by law exempted shall, before they enter on the duties of their respective offices, take and subscribe the following oath or affirmation: "I do solemnly swear (or affirm) that I will support the Constitution of the United States, and the Constitution of the State of New York, and that I will faithfully discharge the duties of the office of ———, according to the best of my ability;" and all such officers who shall have been chosen at any election shall, before they enter on the duties of their respective offices, take and subscribe the oath or affirmation above prescribed, together with the following addition thereto, as part thereof:

"And I do further solemnly swear (or affirm) that I have not directly or indirectly paid, offered or promised to pay, contributed, or offered or promised to contribute any money, or other valuable thing as a consideration or reward for the giving or withholding a vote at the election at which I was elected to said office, and have not made any promise to influence the giving or withholding any such vote," and no other oath, declaration or test shall be required as a qualification for any office of public trust.

Const. 1846, art. XII, § 1, amended in 1874.

§ 2. Official bribery and corruption.

Any person holding office under the laws of this State who, except in payment of his legal salary, fees or perquisites, shall receive or consent to receive, directly or indirectly, anything of value or of personal advantage, or the promise thereof, for performing or omitting to perform any official act, or with the express or implied understanding that his official action or omission to act is to be in any degree influenced thereby, shall be deemed guilty of a felony. This section shall not affect the validity of any existing statute in relation to the offense of bribery.

Const. 1846, art. XV, § 1, added in 1874.

§ 3. Offer or promise to bribe.

Any person who shall offer or promise a bribe to an officer, if it shall be received, shall be deemed guilty of a felony and liable to punishment, except as herein provided. No person offering a bribe shall, upon any prosecution of the officer for receiving such bribe, be privileged from testifying in relation thereto, and he shall not be liable to civil or criminal prosecution therefor, if he shall testify to the giving or offering of such bribe. Any person who shall offer or promise a bribe, if it be rejected by the officer to whom it was tendered, shall be deemed guilty of an attempt to bribe, which is hereby declared to be a felony.

Const. 1846, art. XV, § 2, added in 1874.

§ 4. Person bribed or offering a bribe may be a witness.

Any person charged with receiving a bribe, or with offering or promising a bribe, shall be permitted to testify in his own behalf in any civil or criminal prosecution therefor.

Const. 1846, art. XV, § 3, added in 1874.

§ 5. Free passes, franking privileges, etc., not to be received by public officers; penalty.

No public officer, or person elected or appointed to a public office, under the laws of this State, shall directly or indirectly ask, demand, accept, receive or consent to receive for his own use or benefit, or for the use or benefit of another, any free pass, free transportation, franking privilege or discrimination in passenger, telegraph or telephone rates, from any person or corporation, or make use of the same himself or in conjunction with another. A person who violates any provision of this section, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall forfeit his office at the suit of the Attorney-General. Any corporation, or officer or agent thereof, who shall offer or promise to a public officer, or person elected or appointed to a public office, any such free pass, free transportation, franking privilege or discrimination, shall also be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and liable to punishment except as herein provided. No person, or officer or agent of a corporation, giving any such free pass, free transportation, franking privilege or discrimination hereby prohibited, shall be privileged from testifying in relation thereto, and he shall not be liable to civil or criminal prosecution therefor if he shall testify to the giving of the same.

New.

§ 6. Removal of district attorney for failure to prosecute; expenses of prosecutions for bribery.

Any district attorney who shall fail faithfully to prosecute a person charged with the violation in his county of any provision of this article which may come to his knowledge, shall be removed from office by the Governor, after due notice and an opportunity of being heard in his defense. The expenses which shall be incurred by any county, in investigating and prosecuting any charge of bribery or attempting to bribe any person holding office under the laws of this State within such county, or of receiving bribes by any such person in said county, shall be a charge against the State, and their payment by the State shall be provided for by law.

Const. 1846, art. XV, § 4, added in 1874.

ARTICLE FOURTEENTH.

- Sec. 1. Amendment to constitution, how proposed, voted upon and ratified.
2. Future constitutional conventions; how called; election of delegates; compensation; quorum; submission of amendments; officers; rules; vacancies; taking effect.
3. Amendments of convention and legislature submitted coincidently.

§ 1. Amendments to constitution, how proposed, voted upon and ratified.

Any amendment or amendments to this Constitution may be proposed in the Senate and Assembly; and if the same shall be agreed to by a majority of the members elected to each of the two houses, such proposed amendment or amendments shall be entered on their journals, and the yeas and nays taken thereon, and referred to the Legislature to be chosen at the next general election of senators, and shall be published for three months previous to the time of making such choice; and if in the Legislature so next chosen, as aforesaid, such proposed amendment or amendments shall be agreed to by a majority of all the members elected to each house, then it shall be the duty of the Legislature to submit such proposed amendment or amendments to the people for approval in such manner and at such times as the Legislature shall prescribe; and if the people shall approve and ratify such amendment or amendments by a majority of the electors voting thereon, such amendment or amendments shall become a part of the Constitution from and after the first day of January next after such approval.

Const. 1846, art. XIII, § 1.

At the general election to be held in the year one thousand nine hundred and sixteen, and every twentieth year thereafter, and also at such times as the Legislature may by law provide, the question, "Shall there be a convention to revise the Constitution and amend the same?" shall be decided by the electors of the State; and in case a majority of the electors voting thereon shall decide in favor of a convention for such purpose, the electors of every senate district of the State, as then organized, shall elect three delegates at the next ensuing general election at which members of the Assembly shall be chosen, and the electors of the State voting at the same election shall elect fifteen delegates-at-large. The delegates so elected shall convene at the capitol on the first Tuesday of April next ensuing after their election, and shall continue their session until the business of such convention shall have been completed. Every delegate shall receive for his services the same compensation and the same mileage as shall then be annually payable to the members of the Assembly. A majority of the convention shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, and no amendment to the Constitution shall be submitted for approval to the electors as hereinafter provided, unless by the assent of a majority of all the delegates elected to the convention, the yeas and nays being entered on the journal to be kept. The convention shall have the power to appoint such officers, employes and assistants as it may deem necessary, and fix their compensation and to provide for the printing of its documents, journal and proceedings. The convention shall determine the rules of its own proceedings, choose its own officers, and be the judge of the election, returns and qualifications of its members. In case of a vacancy, by death, resignation or other cause, of any district delegate elected to the convention, such vacancy shall be filled by a vote of the remaining delegates representing the district in which such vacancy occurs. If such vacancy occurs in the office of a delegate-at-large, such vacancy shall be filled by a vote of the remaining delegates-at-large. Any proposed constitution or constitutional amendment which shall have been adopted by such convention, shall be submitted to a vote of the electors of the State at the time and in the manner provided by such convention, at an election which shall be held not less than six weeks after the adjournment of such convention. Upon the approval of such constitution or constitutional amendments, in the manner provided in the last preceding section, such constitution or constitutional amendment, shall go into effect on the first day of January next after such approval.

§ 3. Amendments of convention and legislature submitted coincidentally.

Any amendment proposed by a constitutional convention relating to the same subject as an amendment proposed by the Legislature, coincidentally submitted to the people for approval at the general election held in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-four, or at any subsequent election, shall, if approved, be deemed to supersede the amendment so proposed by the Legislature.

New.

ARTICLE FIFTEENTH.

Sec. 1. Time of taking effect.

§ 1. Time of taking effect.

This Constitution shall be in force from and including the first day of January, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-five, except as herein otherwise provided.

Done in Convention at the Capitol in the city of Albany, the twenty-ninth day of September, in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-four, and of the Independence of the United States of America the one hundred and nineteenth.

In witness whereof, we have herunto subscribed our names.

JOSEPH HODGES CHOATE,

President and Delegate-at-Large,

CHARLES ELLIOTT FITCH,

Secretary.

RULES OF THE COURT OF APPEALS.

RULES OF THE COURT OF APPEALS.

NOTICE.

The first Monday of each session only will be a motion day, on which oral arguments will be heard in original motions. Original motions may be submitted, without oral argument, on any Monday when the Court is in session, provided they are submitted by both sides.

After the day calendar is made up—at 6 o'clock P. M.—stipulations are too late. The Clerk has then no power to leave a number off.

The full number of cases and points (10) are required, without which appeals may not be heard.

The "Order Calendar" is composed of preferred causes, and the notice of argument must claim the preference "as an appeal entitled to be heard under Rule XI." Appeals from orders should be noticed for the first Monday of a session.

The County Clerk's certificate, or waiver thereof under section 3301, Code Civil Procedure, are necessary parts of the printed case on appeal.

When a new calendar is ordered, it is desirable to notice causes in which the returns are filed, at once.

Counsel residing in New York city and its vicinity who intend to argue causes on the General Calendar, should send their residence addresses to the Clerk, and should promptly notify him of changes in their office addresses.

The daily sessions of the Court are held from 2 o'clock P. M., to 6 o'clock P. M., except Fridays only when it will sit from 10 A. M. to 2 P. M.

Every exhibit presented to the Court should be plainly marked with the address of the Counsel presenting the same, as well as the title of the cause.

The Clerk always submits for Counsel who are absent when their cases are called for argument, provided their papers have been filed, as directed by Rule VII.

Requests for copies of opinions should be addressed to the State Reporter, Albany, N. Y.

The sixteen printed copies of the case required by Rule VII to be filed with the clerk must be bound in light-colored (not dark) paper and should not be sent to the Clerk for filing until after the appeal has received a calendar number.

Each day's calendar and all court notices to the Bar are printed in the New York Law Journal, which is the legal publication through which the clerk endeavors to reach the legal profession.

Attention of Attorneys is called to Rule VII, which will be strictly enforced.

RULES OF PRACTICE.

(Adopted October 22, 1894; amended December 15, 1906; May 22, 1917.

RULE I.

Appellant to file return; effect of omission.—If the appellant shall not cause the proper return to be made and filed with the clerk of this Court within the time prescribed by law (Code Civ. Proc., § 1315), the respondent may, by notice in writing, require such return to be filed within ten days after the service of the notice, and if the return be not filed in pursuance of such notice, the appellant shall be deemed to have waived the appeal. On an affidavit proving that the appeal was perfected, and the service of such notice, and a certificate of the clerk that no return has been filed, the respondent may enter an order with the clerk dismissing the appeal for want of prosecution, with costs; and the court below may thereupon proceed as though there had been no appeal.

RULE II.

Further return may be ordered.—If the return made by the clerk of the court below shall be defective, either party may, on an affidavit, specifying the defect, and on notice to the opposite party, apply to one of the Judges of this court for an order, that the clerk make a further return without delay.

RULE III.

Attorneys and guardians below to continue to act.—The attorneys and guardians ad litem of the respective parties in the court below shall be deemed the attorneys and guardians of the same parties respectively, in this court, until others shall be retained or appointed, and notice thereof shall be served on the adverse party.

RULE IV.

Appellant to make a case; its form.—In all calendar causes a case shall be made by the appellant, which shall consist of a copy of the return, and the reasons of the court below for its judgment, or an affidavit that the same cannot be procured, together with an index to the pleadings, exhibits, depositions and other principal matters. Every opinion in the cause at Special Term, as well as at the Appellate Division of the Supreme Court, relating to the questions involved in the appeal, is included by the foregoing provision.

RULE V.

Cases and points to be printed; mode of printing.—All cases and points, and all other papers furnished to the court in calendar causes, shall be printed on white paper, as provided in section 796 of the Code of Civil Procedure, and, if bound, the covers shall be of light-colored paper, which can be legibly written upon. The folio, numbering from the commencement to the end of the case, shall be printed on the outer margin of the page. Small pica leaded or ten point leaded with four to pica leads, is the smallest letter and most compact mode of composition which is allowed. No charge for printing the papers mentioned in this rule shall be allowed as a disbursement in a cause unless the requirements of the preceding sentence shall be shown, by affidavit, to have been complied with in all papers printed. (Amended December 15, 1906.)

RULE VI.

Appellant to serve copies of case; effect of his default.—Within forty days after the appeal is perfected, the appellant shall serve three printed copies of the case on the attorney of the adverse party. If he fail to do so, the respondent may, by notice in writing, require the service of such copies within ten days after service of the notice, and, if the copies be not served in pursuance of such notice, the appellant shall be deemed to have waived the appeal; and on an affidavit proving the default and the service of such notice, the respondent may enter an order with the clerk dismissing the appeal for want of prosecution, with costs; and the court below may thereupon proceed as though there had been no appeal.

RULE VII.

Copies of cases and points.—At least twenty days before a cause is placed on the day calendar, the appellant shall file with the clerk eighteen printed copies, of the case; and shall at the same time file with the clerk eighteen printed copies, and serve on the attorney or counsel for the respondent three printed copies, of the points to be relied on by him, with a reference to the authorities to be cited. Within ten days after such service the respondent shall file with the clerk eighteen printed copies, and serve on the attorney or counsel for the appellant, three printed copies, of the points to be relied on by him, with a reference to the authorities to be cited.

If the appellant desires to present points or authorities in reply, he shall file with the clerk eighteen printed copies thereof and serve three printed copies on the attorney or counsel for the respondent, within five days after receipt of the respondent's points; and no supplemental points will be allowed from either side unless especially requested by the court.

No points will be received by the court on argument or submission unless they shall have been filed and served as above provided; except that in appeals under Rule XI, noticed for the first Monday of a session, and in causes upon a new general calendar to be heard during the first two weeks of any session at which such new calendar is taken up, the parties shall file the printed cases, and file and serve or exchange the printed points, at least two days before the commencement of the session.

The cases and points filed with the clerk shall be disposed of as follows: One copy shall be furnished to each of the Judges; one copy shall be kept by the clerk, with the records of the court; one copy shall be deposited in the State Library; one copy shall be deposited in each branch of the library of the Court of Appeals; one copy shall be deposited in the library of the New York Law Institute; one copy shall be deposited in the Law Library of Brooklyn; one copy shall be deposited in the Law Library of the Eighth Judicial District, and one copy shall be delivered to the reporter. (As amended October 15, 1910.)

RULE VIII.

Statement and discussion of facts.—In all causes each party shall briefly state upon his printed points, in a separate form, the leading facts which he deems established, with a reference to the folios where the evidence of such facts may be found. And the court will not hear an extended discussion upon any mere question of fact.

Every cause shall be deemed to be submitted to such Judges as may be absent at the time of the argument, unless objection to such submission by counsel arguing the cause be then made.

RULE IX.

Criminal causes.—Appeals in criminal causes brought after making up the calendar, or too late to be placed on said calendar, may be put upon the calendar at any time, and brought on for a hearing as preferred causes, upon a notice of ten days; and it shall be the duty of the clerk to place such causes on the calendar for the day for which they shall be noticed or upon which the cause shall be ordered by the court, or stipulated by the parties, to be heard.

RULE X.

Submission and reservation of causes.—Causes will not be received upon submission until reached in the regular call of the calendar. No reservation will be made of any of the first eight causes, unless on account of sickness, or an engagement elsewhere in the actual trial or argument of another cause commenced before the term of this court, or of other inevitable necessity, to be shown by affidavit. Other causes may be reserved upon reasonable cause shown, or by stipulation of parties filed with the clerk; but no cause shall be so reserved by stipulation after the same has been placed upon the day calendar.

Causes reserved for a day certain by stipulation, when in order to be called, have priority among each other according to the time of filing the stipulations with the clerk, and shall follow next in order the undisposed of causes of the calendar for the day previous. Default may be taken in them.

No reserved cause, whether reserved generally or for a particular day, will be called before its number is reached on the regular call of the calendar. (Amended December 15, 1906.)

RULE XI.

Motions and appeals from orders.—Motions, appeals from final orders in special proceedings, from interlocutory judgments and from orders in actions and special proceedings, certified to this court by the Appellate Divisions of the Supreme Court, except orders granting a new trial, may be noticed for, and will be heard on, the first Monday of each session of the court, before taking up the general calendar. Notices of argument of appeals within this rule must contain the claim that the appeal is one entitled to be heard under Rule XI of the Court of Appeals.

Motions will be heard orally on the first Monday of a session only; but they may be submitted without oral argument on any Monday when the court is in session; provided they are submitted by both sides and the papers are filed with the clerk on or before the preceding Friday. If either party demands an oral argument of a motion noticed for any other than the first Monday of a session, the motion will go over to the first Monday of the succeeding session.

Where notice has been given of a motion, if no one shall appear to oppose, it will be granted as of course.

If a motion be not made on the day for which it has been noticed, the opposing party will be entitled, on applying to the court at the close of the motions for that day to a rule denying the motion, with costs. (Amended December 15, 1906.)

RULE XII.

Call of calendar.—Eight causes only will be called on any day, but after such call causes ready on both sides will be heard in their order. Any cause which is regularly called and passed, without postponement by the court for good cause shown at the time of the call, shall be stricken from the calendar.

Causes upon the calendar may be exchanged one for another, as of course, on filing with the clerk a note of the proposed exchange, with the numbers of the causes, signed by the respective attorneys or counsel. Upon all subsequent calendars each of said causes will take the place due to the date of the filing of the return in the other.

In like manner, a cause not upon the calendar in which an appeal to this court has been perfected and the return duly filed with the clerk, may be exchanged, as of course, for another cause upon the calendar, on filing with the clerk a note of the proposed exchange, with the number of the cause on the calendar, and the date of filing return in the cause not upon the calendar, signed by the respective attorneys or counsel, and also a stipulation of the attorneys or counsel in the cause not on the calendar setting down the same for argument in place of the calendar cause when reached, with the same effect as if duly noticed. Upon all subsequent calendars, each of said causes will take the place due to the date of filing the return in the other. (Amended December 15, 1906.)

Rules XIII-XV      RULES OF PRACTICE.

RULE XIII.

Time of argument.—In the argument of a cause not more than two hours shall be occupied by counsel on either side, except by the express permission of the court.

In the argument of an appeal within Rule XI not more than thirty minutes shall be occupied by the appellant's counsel, nor more than twenty-five minutes by the respondent's counsel, unless express permission be given by the court, and the cause placed at the foot of the order calendar. (Amended December 15, 1906.)

RULE XIV.

Preferred causes.—No causes are entitled to any preference upon the calendar except such as is given by law or the special order of the court.

Any party claiming a preference must so state in his notice of argument to the opposite party and to the clerk; and he must also state the ground of such preference, so as to show to which of the preferred classes the cause belongs.

A preferred cause being once passed loses its preference.

RULE XV.

Defaults.—Judgments of reversal by default will not be allowed. When a cause is called in its order on the calendar, if the appellant fails to appear and furnish the court with the papers required, and argue or submit his cause, judgment of affirmance by default will be ordered on motion of the respondent. If the appellant only appears, he may either argue or submit the cause.

When any cause shall be regularly called for argument, and no other disposition shall be made thereof, the appeal shall be dismissed without costs, and an order shall be entered accordingly, which shall be absolute unless upon application made and good cause shown, upon notice to the opposite party within ten days, if the court is in session, and if not on the first motion day of the next session, the court shall revoke said order and restore said appeal.

RULE XVI.

Remittitur.—The remittitur shall contain a copy of the judgment of this court and the return made by the clerk below, and shall be sealed with the seal and signed by the clerk of this court.

RULE XVII.

Affirmance by default.—When a judgment or order shall be affirmed by the default of the appellant, the remittitur shall not be sent to the court below, unless this court shall otherwise direct, until ten days after notice of the affirmance shall have been served by the attorney for the respondent on the attorney for the appellant and proof thereof filed with the clerk. Service of the notice shall be proved to the clerk by affidavit, or by the written admission of the attorney on whom it was served.
(Amended December 15, 1906.)

RULE XVIII.

Enlarging time revoking orders.—The time prescribed by these rules for doing any act may be enlarged by the court or by any of the Judges thereof; and any of the Judges may make orders to stay proceedings, which, when served with papers and notice of motion, shall stay the proceedings according to the terms of the order. Any order may be revoked or modified by the Judge who made it; or, in case of his absence or inability to act, by any of the other Judges.

RULE XIX.

Calendars.—When a new calendar is ordered by the court, the clerk shall place thereon all causes in which notices of argument, with proof or admission of service, have been filed in his office; and, also, if ordered by the court, all other causes in which the returns have been filed in his office; and the causes so put on the calendar by the direction of the court will be heard in their order as if regularly noticed.

RULE XX.

Motions for reargument.—Motions for reargument must be submitted on printed briefs (eighteen copies) without oral argument, on five days' notice to the adverse party, stating briefly the ground upon which a reargument is asked, and the points supposed to have been overlooked or misapprehended by the court, with proper reference to the particular portion of the case and to the authorities relied upon. A copy of the brief shall be served on the adverse party with the notice of motion.
(Amended Dec. 15, 1906; Nov. 20, 1917.)

RULE XXI.

Motions for leave to appeal.—Motions for leave to appeal must be submitted, without oral argument, on printed briefs (eighteen copies) and one copy of the record in the court below, on five days' notice to the adverse party, stating concisely the grounds upon which such leave is asked. The brief of the applicant must point out the particular portions of the record where the questions sought to be reviewed are raised. A copy of such brief shall be served on the adverse party with the notice of motion. (Added, May 22, 1917; amended Nov. 20, 1917.)

Rules I-III RULES OF ADMISSION OF ATTORNEYS.

RULES OF THE COURT OF APPEALS FOR THE ADMISSION OF ATTORNEYS AND COUNSELORS-AT-LAW.***

(Adopted by the Court of Appeals, December 2, 1895. Amended April, 1908, May 17, 1911, and May 15 and 18, 1917. In effect May 17 and 18, 1917.)

RULE I.

General regulation as to admission.—No person shall be admitted to practice as an attorney or counselor in any court of record of the State except upon an order of the Appellate Division of the Supreme Court admitting him to the bar and licensing him to practice upon compliance with these rules.

RULE II.

Admission without examination.—The following classes of persons may in the discretion of the Appellate Division be admitted and licensed without examination:

1. Any person admitted to practice and who has practiced five years as a member of the bar in the highest law court in any other state or territory of the American Union or in the District of Columbia.

2. Any person admitted to practice and who has practiced five years in another country whose jurisprudence is based on the principles of the English common law.

3. Any American citizen domiciled in a foreign country whose jurisprudence is based on the principles of the English common law holding a diploma or degree which would entitle him to practice law in the courts of such foreign country if a citizen thereof. Any person admitted under this rule must possess the other qualifications required by these rules and must produce a letter of recommendation from one of the judges of the highest law court of such other state or country, or furnish other satisfactory evidence of character and qualifications.

An attorney and counselor from another state or foreign jurisdiction may in the discretion of any court of record be admitted pro hac vice to participate in the trial or argument of any cause in which he may be employed.

RULE III.

Admission on examination.—Three classes of persons may be admitted to the bar upon examination:

1. Persons who are not graduates of a college or university;
2. Persons who are graduates of a college or university; and
3. Persons who have been admitted as attorneys and have practiced three years in another state or country.

In each class the applicant must prove by his own affidavit to * Attention is called to Judiciary Law (L. 1909, ch. 85), §§ 468, 469, and Penal Law (L. 1909, ch. 88), § 270, as amended by L. 1917, ch. 783, requiring the registration in the office of the clerk of the Court of Appeals of all persons admitted to practice as attorneys-at-law or as attorneys and counselors-at-law in the courts of record of the State.

RULES OF ADMISSION OF ATTORNEYS. Rule III

the satisfaction of the State Board of Law Examiners that he is a citizen of the United States, twenty-one years of age, stating his age, and an actual and not a constructive resident of the State for not less than six months immediately preceding and that he has not been examined for admission to practice and been refused admission within four months, and that he has studied law in the manner and according to the conditions in these rules prescribed.

Applicants in the first class (i. e., persons who are not graduates of a college or university) must have studied law for a period of four years. Such an applicant may pursue his course of law study wholly by serving a clerkship in the office of a practicing attorney; or partly by serving such clerkship and partly by attending a law school; but every such applicant must serve such clerkship for a period of at least one year continuously either before examination by the State Board of Law Examiners or after such examination and prior to admission to the bar.

Applicants in the second class (i. e., persons who are graduates of a college or university) must have studied law for a period of three years. Such an applicant may pursue his course of law study wholly by serving a clerkship in the office of a practicing attorney; or wholly by attending a law school; or partly by serving such clerkship and partly by attending a law school.

Applicants in the third class (i. e., persons who have been admitted as attorneys and have practiced three years in another state or country) must have studied law for a period of one year within this State and pursue such course of study either by serving a clerkship or by attendance upon a law school as the applicant may elect.

Candidates for admission to the bar under this rule (i. e., upon examination) may be admitted and licensed upon producing and filing with the court the certificate of the State Board of Law Examiners that the applicant has satisfactorily passed the examination prescribed by these rules and has complied with their provisions, and upon producing and filing with the court, in the case of applicants in the first class (i. e., persons who are not graduates of a college or university), evidence that he has served a regular clerkship of one year in this State with an attorney or attorneys in regular practice, either before or after having passed such examination. The applicant must also produce and file evidence that he is a person of good moral character which must be shown by the affidavits of two reputable persons of the town or city in which he resides, one of whom must be a practicing attorney of the Supreme Court. Such affidavits must state that the applicant is, to the knowledge of the affiant, a person of good moral character and must set forth in detail the facts upon which such knowledge is based; but such affidavits shall not be conclusive and the court may make further examination and inquiry.

Rules IIIa, IV RULES OF ADMISSION OF ATTORNEYS.

If the applicant be a graduate of a college or university he must have pursued the prescribed course of law study after his graduation, provided, however, if such graduate of a college or university has pursued the first year of his law study in an approved law school, and said year of study was prerequisite for his graduation from such college or university, then such year of law school study, if successfully completed, shall be deemed to be and shall be accepted as a part of said prescribed course of law study; and, if the applicant be a person admitted to the bar of another state or country he must have pursued his prescribed period of law study after having remained as a practicing attorney in such other state or country for the period of three years.

(Amended May 2, 1916.)

RULE III-a.

Examinations dispensed with.—The examination is dispensed with in the case of any applicant entitled to examination under these rules who is a graduate of a law school duly registered by the Regents of the University of the State of New York which requires a three year course for graduation and who has been prevented from entering two examinations next following his graduation by actual and necessary service in the military or naval forces of the United States. Such applicant shall produce before the State Board of Law Examiners, in addition to the proof required by these rules of applicants for examination his diploma and satisfactory evidence of adequate instruction in New York Pleading and Practice and of such military or naval service. Each applicant shall pay the examiners the fee provided by Rule VIII. The State Board of Law Examiners shall certify to the Appellate Division of the Supreme Court in the department in which any such person resides that the examination has been dispensed with. The examination in Substantive Law and Evidence alone may be dispensed with in case the applicant has had no satisfactory instruction in New York Pleading and Practice. (Added Mar. 29, 1918.)

RULE IV.

Regulations concerning preliminary studies.—All candidates for admission to the bar upon examination, except applicants in the third class mentioned in Rule III (i. e., persons who have been admitted and have practiced three years in another state or country), must have pursued a preliminary course of study evidenced by graduation from a college or university, or by passing a Regents' examination or the equivalent, as hereinafter prescribed:

Applicants who are not graduates of a college, or university, subject to the limitations and requirements hereinafter, in this subdivision, expressed, or members of the bar as above described, before entering upon the clerkship or attendance at a law school herein prescribed shall have passed an examination conducted under the authority and in accordance with the ordinances and rules of the University of the State of New York, in English, three years; mathematics, two years; Latin, two years; science, one year; history, two years; or in their substantial equivalents as defined by the rules of the University, and shall have filed a certificate of such fact, signed by the Commissioner of Education, with the clerk of the Court of Appeals, whose duty it shall be to return to the person named therein a certified copy of the same, showing the date of such filing. The Regents may accept as the equivalent of and substitute for the examination in this rule prescribed, either, first, a certificate, properly authenticated, of having successfully completed a full year's course of study in any college, or university; second, a certificate, properly authenticated, of having satisfactorily completed a four years' course of study in any institution registered by the Regents as maintaining a satisfactory academic standard; or, third, a Regents' diploma.

All graduates of a college or university existing under the government or laws of any foreign country other than those where English is the language of the people, and all applicants who apply for law students' certificates upon equivalents or substitutes, as above provided, all or any part of which are earned or issued in said foreign countries, shall pass the Regents' examination in second year English. The Regents' certificate above prescribed shall be deemed to take effect as of the date of the completion of the Regents' examination, as the same shall appear upon said certificate.

RULE V.

Regulations concerning study at law schools.—The provisions of these rules for study at a law school must be fulfilled by good and regular attendance and successfully completing the prescribed course of instruction at an incorporated law school, or a law school connected with an incorporated college or university, having a law department organized with competent instructors and professors, in which instruction as hereinafter provided is regularly given.

Good and regular attendance upon and the successful completion of the prescribed course of instruction at a law school, the school year of which shall consist of not less than thirty-two school weeks, exclusive of vacations, in which not less than ten hours of attendance upon law lectures or recitations of such prescribed course, to be given or conducted by regular members of the faculty, are required in each week, shall be deemed a year's attendance under this rule.

A period of time not exceeding six weeks actually spent in good and regular attendance upon and successful completion of law courses requiring at least ten hours of attendance in each week in a summer session maintained in connection with a law school organized as prescribed in this rule, shall be allowed as a part of the period of clerkship or study otherwise prescribed by these rules.

The same period of time shall not be duplicated for different purposes, except that a student attending a law school, as herein provided, and who, during the vacations of such school, not exceeding three months in any one year, shall pursue his studies in the office of a practicing attorney, shall be allowed to count the time so occupied during such vacation or vacations as part of the clerkship in a law office specified in these rules; and except that a student attending a law school as herein provided, or serving a regular clerkship in the office of a practicing attorney of the Supreme Court in this State, who, during the vacation of such school or of such clerkship, as in Rule VI provided, shall, for a period not exceeding six weeks, actually attend upon and successfully complete a law course or courses in a summer session maintained in connection with a law school organized as prescribed in this rule, may be allowed the time so spent as part of the clerkship in a law office as prescribed by these rules. (Amended and in effect May 18, 1917.)

RULE VI.

Regulations concerning clerkship.—The provisions of these rules for studying law by the service of a regular clerkship must be fulfilled by serving such clerkship in the office of a practicing attorney of the Supreme Court in this State, after the candidate has attained the age of eighteen years.

It shall be the duty of attorneys, with whom a clerkship shall be commenced, to file a certificate of the same in the office of the clerk of the Court of Appeals, which certificate shall, in each case, state the date of the beginning of the period of clerkship, and such period shall be deemed to commence at the time of such filing and shall be computed by the calendar year.

In computing the period of clerkship a vacation actually taken, not exceeding two months in each year, shall be allowed as a part of such year.

RULE VII.

Proof to entitle candidate to examination.—The State Board of Law Examiners, before admitting an applicant to an examination, shall require proof that the preliminary conditions prescribed by these rules have been fulfilled; which proof shall be made as follows, viz.:

First. That the applicant is a college graduate, by the production of his diploma, or certificate of graduation, under the seal of the college.

Second. That he has been admitted to the bar of another State or country, by the production of his license, or certificate, executed by the proper authorities.

Third. In all cases where the service of a clerkship is required, that he has served a regular clerkship in the office of a practicing attorney of the Supreme Court in this State, after the age of eighteen years, by producing and filing with the Board a certified copy of the attorney's certificate, as filed in the office of the clerk of the Court of Appeals, and producing and filing an affidavit of the attorney or attorneys with whom such clerkship was served, showing the actual service of such a clerkship, the continuance and end thereof, and that not more than two months' vacation was taken in any one year. Both of said affidavits must be to the effect that during the entire period of such clerkship, except during the stated vacation time, the applicant was actually employed by said attorney as a regular law clerk and student in his law office, and under his direction and advice, engaged in the practical work of the office during the usual business hours of the day.

RULES OF ADMISSION OF ATTORNEYS. Rule VII

Fourth. The time of study allowed in a law school must be proved by the certificate of the teacher or president of the faculty, under whose instructions the person has studied, under the seal of the school, if such there be, in addition to the affidavit of the applicant, which must, also, state the age at which the applicant began his attendance at such law school. Said certificate and affidavit must, also, show that the law school prescribes the course of instruction contemplated by these rules, and each shall also contain the statement that said applicant took the prescribed course of instruction required at said school for the degree of Bachelor of Laws while in attendance thereat, and bona fide took and successfully passed all examinations in all the subjects required for said degree during such period of attendance, in each case specifying the subjects in which said applicant took and passed his examinations as aforesaid, which proof must be satisfactory to the Board of Examiners.

Fifth. That the applicant has passed the Regents' examination, or its equivalent must be proved by the production of a certified copy of the Regents' certificate filed in the office of the clerk of the Court of Appeals, as hereinbefore provided.

Sixth. When it satisfactorily appears that any diploma, affidavit, or certificate, required to be produced has been lost, or destroyed, without the fault of the applicant, or has been unjustly refused or withheld, or by the death or absence of the person or officer who should have made it, cannot be obtained, the Board of Law Examiners may accept such other proof of the requisite facts as they shall deem sufficient.

Seventh. A law student whose clerkship, or attendance at a law school has already begun, as shown by the records of the Court of Appeals, or of any incorporated law school, or law school established in connection with any college or university, may, at his option, file or produce, instead of the proofs required by these rules, those required by the Rules of the Court of Appeals in force June 1, 1908.

Eighth. The provisions of subdivision four of this rule, so far as applicable, shall apply to persons making proof of the time of study allowed at summer sessions of a law school. (Subd. added and in effect May 18, 1917.)

RULE VIII.

Regulations concerning examination.—The examination held by such State Board of Examiners may be conducted by oral or written questions and answers, or partly oral and partly written, but shall be as nearly uniform in the knowledge and capacity which they shall require as is reasonably possible. Every applicant shall be given and required to pass a satisfactory examination in the canons of ethics adopted by the American Bar Association and by the New York State Bar Association. An applicant who has failed to pass one examination cannot again be examined until at least four months after such failure.

The State Board of Law Examiners shall be paid as compensation, each, the sum of two thousand dollars per year, and, in addition, such further sum as the court may direct, and an annual sum not exceeding thirty-five hundred dollars per year shall be allowed for necessary disbursements of the Board. Every applicant for examination shall pay to the examiners a fee of twenty-five dollars, which shall be applied upon the compensation and allowance above provided, and any surplus thereafter remaining shall be held by the treasurer of the State Board of Law Examiners and deposited in some bank, in good standing, in the city of Albany, to his credit and subject to his draft as such treasurer, when approved by the Chief Judge. (Amended and in effect May 15, 1917.)

RULE IX.

Relief from excusable mistakes.—When the filing of a certificate, as required by these rules, has been omitted by excusable mistake or without fault, the court may order such filing as of the proper date.

RULE X.

Additional rules by the Appellate Division.—The Justices of the Appellate Division in each department may adopt for their several and respective departments such additional special rules for ascertaining the moral and general fitness of applicants as to such Justices may seem proper.

STATE OF NEW YORK — IN COURT OF APPEALS.

At a Court of Appeals for the State of New York, Held at the Capitol, in the City of Albany, on the 17th
Day of April, A. D. 1913. Present: Hon. Edgar M.
Cullen, Chief Judge, Presiding.

IN THE MATTER OF THE STATE BOARD OF LAW EXAMINERS.

Objections having been formulated and presented to the court with respect to the methods of examinations pursued by the State Board of Law Examiners, and with respect to other matters in the administration of their office, and the same having been duly considered by the court, it is hereby ordered as follows, namely:

PERSONS WHO WERE ENGAGED IN MILITARY SERVICE.

I. It is ordered that the publication of the book entitled " Bar Examinations and Courses of Study " be discontinued.

II. It is ordered that the papers containing the written answers given by rejected candidates, upon their examinations for admission to practice as attorneys and counselors at law in the courts of this State, be preserved for a period of four weeks from the date of the announcement by the Board of the results of the examinations, when they may be destroyed, and that of the examination papers of successful candidates one in twenty sets thereof be preserved for the period of three years and filed in the office of the clerk of the court.

III. The State Board of Law Examiners is instructed so to frame the questions propounded to candidates for admission to practice as to permit of a reasoned answer to a question. The Board is instructed in that respect to formulate questions, whether based upon decided cases or upon statutes, so as to ascertain the ability of the candidate to apply his knowledge of legal principles and of statutory rules, and to explain the method of their application by him, rather than to elicit answers the correctness of which will rest upon the candidate's power of memorization. The marking of a candidate should be measured by the reasoning power shown, and not wholly by mere correctness.

IV. It is further ordered that a copy of this order be printed with the rules for the admission of attorneys and counselors at law; that a copy be filed in the office of the Secretary of State and that a copy be transmitted to the presiding justice of the Appellate Division of the Supreme Court in each judicial department.

R. M. BARBER,
Clerk.

ADMISSION TO THE BAR OF PERSONS WHO HAVE BEEN ENGAGED IN MILITARY SERVICE.

STATE OF NEW YORK IN COURT OF APPEALS.

On application duly made therefor, it is Ordered, that in all cases of applicants for admission to the Bar, where it shall appear that the applicant is a graduate of a law school and holds a degree regularly conferred by such school, and it shall appear that such applicant has been engaged in the military or naval service of the United States of America, as a member of the national guard or of the naval militia of the State of New York, or by reason of voluntary enlistment, conscription or otherwise, or in service at a recognized government military training camp, or as a member of the naval reserve corps, or in the ambulance service of the allies in Europe, the time ordinarily required by the law school from which he has graduated and received his degree as aforesaid as a condition of graduation and the bestowal of such degree shall be credited to him, although it may appear that by reason of his engagement in the said military or naval service or in such training camp or ambulance service some of the time ordinarily required for graduation or for obtaining such degree has been waived by the law school granting the same. The time so credited for such service, however, shall not exceed one year, nor shall it exceed the time allowed by the school from which he graduated and received his degree; and

Further ordered, that in all cases where, after an applicant for admission to the Bar shall have commenced his period of law study, either in a law school or law office, as provided by the rules of this court relating to admission of attorneys and counselors at law, it shall appear that such applicant has been engaged in the military or naval service of the United States of America, as a member of the national guard of the State of New York, or by reason of voluntary enlistment, conscription or otherwise, or in service at a recognized government military training camp or in the ambulance service in Europe, the time of such service, not exceeding one year, shall be included as part of the period of study provided for by Rules VI and VII relating to the admission of attorneys and counselors at law.

This order shall not apply to persons commencing the study of law subsequent to May 10, 1917, and nothing herein contained shall be construed as exempting an applicant for admission to the Bar from taking and passing the examination as required by the rules of this court.

Dated May 10, 1917.

Ordered, that in all cases where after the applicant shall have commenced his period of law study, as provided by the Rules of this court relating to the admission of attorneys and counselors at law, he has engaged in the military or naval service of the United States of America, in connection with the defense and patrol of our Mexican border, because of his having been a member of the National Guard of the State of New York, or otherwise, the time of such service shall be included as a part of the period of study required by Rules VI and VII.

Dated, January 31, 1917.

R. M. BARBER, Clerk.

L. 1918, ch. 263 —An Act relative to the constitutional oath of an attorney and counselor at law.

§ 1. Any person who, from actual service in the military or naval forces of the United States, is unable to take in open court the constitutional oath of office required of an attorney and counselor at law, may take such oath before the commanding officer of that person's regiment or ship or separate detachment, as the case may be, and such commanding officer is hereby authorized to administer such oath and to transmit the written or printed form thereof to the clerk of the proper appellate division, who, upon approval of the said court, shall file such oath in his office, and thereupon such oath shall have the full force and effect as if taken in open court; provided, however, that such person, as soon as he is physically able, shall forthwith subscribe the oath in the roll or book kept in the office of the said clerk and before he shall discharge any of the duties of an attorney and counselor at law.

SUPREME COURT RULES.

Adopted in convention of the Justices of the Supreme Court assigned to the Appellate Division thereof, held at Albany, December, 1893, pursuant to Code of Civil Procedure, section 17; amended October 24, 1899; October 24, 1905; April 30, 1910; June 17, 1913.

Rule 1. Application for admission as attorneys.

Within ten days after the first day of January in each year, the Appellate Division in each department shall appoint a Committee on Character and Fitness of not less than three for the department, or may appoint a committee for each Judicial District within the department, to whom shall be referred all applications for admission to practice as attorney and counselor at law, such committee to continue in office until their successors are appointed. To the respective committees shall be referred all applications for admission to practice, either upon the certificate of the State Board of Law Examiners, or upon motion under Rule 2 of the Rules of the Court of Appeals for the admission of attorneys and counselors at law. The committee shall require the attendance before it, or a member thereof, of each applicant, with the affidavit of at least two practicing attorneys acquainted with such applicant, residing in the Judicial District in which the applicant resides, that he is of such character and general fitness as justifies admission to practice, and the affidavit must set forth in detail the facts upon which the affiant's knowledge of the applicant is based, and it shall be the duty of the committee to examine each applicant, and the committee must be satisfied from such examination, and other evidence that the applicant shall produce, that the applicant has such qualifications as to character and general fitness as in the opinion of the committee justify his admission to practice, and no person shall be admitted to practice except upon the production of a certificate from the committee to that effect, unless the court otherwise orders.

No applicant shall be entitled to receive such a certificate who is not able to speak and to write the English language intelligently, nor until he affirmatively establishes to the satisfaction of the committee that he possesses such a character as justifies his admission to the Bar and qualifies him to perform the duties of an attorney and counselor at law.

An applicant for admission to practice as an attorney and counselor at law on motion, under the provisions of Rule 2 of the Rules of the Court of Appeals for the admission of attorneys and counselors at law, must present to the court proof that he has been admitted to practice as an attorney and counselor

An applicant for admission to practice as an attorney and counselor at law on motion, under the provisions of Rule 2 of the Rules of the Court of Appeals for the admission of attorneys and counselors at law, must present to the court proof that he has been admitted to practice as an attorney and counselor at law in the highest court of law in another state, or in a country whose jurisprudence is based upon the principles of the common law of England; a certificate, executed by the proper authorities, that he has been duly admitted to practice in such state or country; that he has actually remained in said state or country, and practiced in such court as attorney and counselor at law for at least five years; a certificate from a judge of such court that he has been duly admitted to practice and has actually continuously practiced as an attorney and counselor at law for a period of at least five years after he has been admitted, specifying the name of the place or places in which he has so practiced and that he has a good character as such attorney. Such certificate must be duly certified by the clerk of the court of which the judge is a member, and the seal of the court must be attached thereto. He must also prove that he is a citizen of the United States and has been an actual resident of the State of New York for at least six months prior to the making of the application, giving the place of his residence by street and number, if such there be, and the length of time he has been such resident. He shall also submit the affidavits of two persons who are residents of the judicial district in which he resides, one of whom must be an attorney and counselor at law, that he is of such character and general fitness as justifies admission to practice, and the affidavit must set forth in detail the facts upon which the affiant's knowledge of the applicant is based. In all cases the applicant must appear in person before the court on the motion for his admission, and also before the committee on character and fitness for the district in which the application is made.

In all cases the applicant for admission must file with the clerk of the Appellate Division of the proper department the papers required for his admission as heretofore specified prior to or at the time of the motion for admission to practice. (Amended April 1, 1910 and June 17, 1913.)

Rule 2. Papers, where filed; indorsements.

The papers, in cases pending in the Appellate Division, shall be filed with the clerk of such division of the department in which the case is pending. In all other cases where no provision is made by the Code, papers in the Supreme Court shall be filed in the office of the clerk of the county specified in the complaint as the place of trial. In Surrogate's Courts, in the office of Surrogate; in other courts of record, in the office of the respective clerks thereof. In case the place of trial be changed to another county, all subsequent papers shall be filed in the county to which such change is made. All papers served or filed, must be indorsed or subscribed with the name of the attorney or attorneys, or the name of the party if he appears in person, and his or their office address, or place of business.

Rule 3. Motion papers to be specified in order and filed; effect of failure to file; entry of order.

When any order is entered, all the papers, used or read on the motion on either side, shall be specified in the order, and shall be filed with the clerk, unless already on file or otherwise ordered by the court, or the order may be set aside as irregular, with costs. The clerk shall not enter such order unless the motion papers are filed, and unless the order is signed by the justice presiding at the court at which the motion was heard. When an opinion has been delivered by the court, it shall be filed with the order and shall be considered a part of the record upon which the order was made; and if the order does not state the grounds upon which it was made, the opinion may be considered to ascertain such grounds.

When the affidavits and papers upon a non-enumerated motion are required by law or by the rules of the court to be filed, and the order to be entered in a county other than that in which the motion is made, the clerk shall deliver to the party prevailing in the motion, unless the court shall otherwise direct, a certified copy of the rough minutes, showing what papers were used or read, together with the affidavits and papers used or read upon such motion, with a note of the decision thereon, or the order directed to be entered, properly certified. It shall be the duty of the party to whom such papers are delivered to cause the same to be filed, and the proper order entered in the proper county within ten days thereafter, or the order may be set aside as irregular, with costs. (Amended Apr. 1, 1910, in effect Sept. 1, 1910.)

Rule 4. Undertaking and affidavit in proceedings for injunctions, attachment, order of arrest and writ to be filed.

Except where otherwise expressly provided by law, it shall be the duty of the attorney of the party required to give a bond or undertaking to forthwith file the same with the proper clerk; and in case such bonds and undertakings shall not be so filed, any party to the action or special proceeding, or other persons interested, shall be at liberty to move the court to vacate the proceedings or order as if no bond or undertaking had been given. It shall also be the duty of the attorney to file the petition or affidavit upon which an injunction, attachment, order of arrest, or writ, has been granted within ten days after the same shall have been served. In case of a failure so to file such petition or affidavit, the opposing party may move to vacate the order, warrant or writ, and the same shall be vacated by the court or judge granting the same, unless for proper cause shown time to file the same shall be extended.

Rule 5. Sureties, justification of bonds to be acknowledged.

Whenever a Justice or other officer approves of the security to be given in any case, or reports upon its sufficiency, it shall be his duty to require personal sureties to justify, or, if the security offered is by way of mortgage on real estate, to require proof of the value of such real estate. And all bonds and undertakings, and other securities in writing, shall be duly proved or acknowledged in like manner as deeds of real estate, before the same shall be received or filed.

In no case shall an attorney or counselor be surety on any undertaking or bond required by law, or by these rules, or by any order of a court or judge, in any action or proceeding, or be bail in any civil or criminal case, or proceeding.

Rules 6, 7      GENERAL RULES OF PRACTICE.

Rule 6. Sheriff's return, how compelled.

At any time after the day when it is the duty of the sheriff, or other officer, to return, deliver, or file any process or other paper, by the provisions of the Code of Civil Procedure, or by these rules of the courts, any party entitled to have such act done, except where otherwise provided by law, may serve on the officer a notice to return, deliver, or file such process, or other paper as the case may be, within ten days, or show cause, at a Special Term to be designated in said notice, why an attachment should not issue against him.

Rule 7. Books to be kept by clerk of courts.

The clerk of the Appellate Division in each department shall keep:

1. A book, properly indexed, in which shall be entered the title of all actions and proceedings which are pending in that court, and all actions or special proceedings commenced in the Appellate Division with entries under each, showing the proceedings taken therein and the final disposition thereof.

2. A minute book, showing the proceedings of the court from day to day.

3. A remittitur book, containing the final order made upon the decision of each case, a certified copy of which shall be transmitted to the proper clerk as required by the Code of Civil Procedure.

4. A book, properly indexed, in which shall be recorded at large all bonds or undertakings filed in his office, with a statement of the action or special proceeding in which it is given, and a statement of any disposition or order made of or concerning it.

5. A book, properly indexed, which shall contain the name of each attorney admitted to practice, with the date of his admission, and a book, properly indexed, which shall contain the name of each person who has been refused admission or who has been disbarred or otherwise disciplined or censured by the court. The clerk of each department shall transmit to the clerk of the Court of Appeals and to the clerks of the other departments the names of all attorneys who have been admitted to practice, the names of all applicants who have been refused admission, and the names of all attorneys who have been disbarred, disciplined or censured by the court. The clerk of each department is directed to enter in the proper book the name of each attorney who has been admitted to practice, with date of his admission, and the name of each person who has been refused admission or has been disciplined, with the date of such refusal of admission or discipline, received from the other departments of the state, together with the date when and department wherein the order was made. (Subd. added Apr. 1, 1910, in effect Sept. 1, 1910.)

The clerks of the other courts shall keep in their respective offices, in addition to the "judgment book" required to be kept by the Code of Civil Procedure:

1. A book, properly indexed, in which shall be entered the title of all civil actions and special proceedings, with proper entries under each denoting the papers filed and the orders made and the steps taken therein, with the dates of the several proceedings.

2. A book in which shall be entered at large each bond and undertaking filed in his office, with a statement showing when filed and a statement of any disposition or order made of or concerning it.

3. Such other books, properly indexed, as may be necessary to enter the minutes of the court, docket judgments, enter orders and all other necessary matters and proceedings, and such other books as the Appellate Division in each department shall direct.

Rule 8. Judgments, entering and docketing of.

Judgments shall only be entered, or docketed, in the offices of the clerks of the courts of this State, within the hours during which, by law, they are required to keep open their respective offices for the transaction of business, and at no other time.

Rule 9. Subpoena duces tecum against public department or officer; by whom issued; when production of books and papers not required; production of copy; costs.

No subpoenas duces tecum requiring a library association or corporation; a public officer; a department of a municipal corporation, or other public officer or department, to produce on the trial of an action or special proceeding before a court or referee, books, papers or other documents or writings in its or his possession, shall be issued except by a justice of the Supreme Court in the District in which the library or department is located or the public officer is employed, or a judge of the court in which the action or special proceeding is pending, and except upon one day's notice to the library, officer, corporation or head of the department having possession of the books, papers or other documents or writings and also to the opposing party or his attorney. The justice or the judge to whom the application is made shall not require the production of such books, papers or other documents or writings before a court or referee, when a stipulation between the attorneys or a copy thereof, duly verified, will in his opinion serve the purpose of such production, and he may impose such other conditions as may in his opinion be reasonable. Upon the refusal of a party to such an application to make such stipulation when required so to do, the justice or the judge (to whom the application for a subpoena duces tecum is made) may impose upon such party the actual cost or expense incurred in producing the books, papers or other documents or writings in accordance with the subpoena, in addition to the fees now required by law upon the service of a subpoena. (Added June 17, 1913, in effect November 1, 1913. Former Rule IX repealed April 30, 1910.)

Rule 10. Change of attorneys.

An attorney may be changed by consent of the party and his attorney, or upon application of the client upon cause shown and upon such terms as shall be just, by the order of the court or a Judge thereof, and not otherwise.

Rule 11. Agreements between parties or attorneys to be in writing.

No private agreement or consent between the parties or their attorneys, in respect to the proceedings in a cause, shall be binding, unless the same shall have been reduced to the form of an order by consent, and entered, or unless the evidence thereof shall be in writing, subscribed by the party against whom the same shall be alleged, or by his attorney or counsel.

Rules 12-16 GENERAL RULES OF PRACTICE.

Rule 12. Consents to payment of money out of court.

All consents providing for the payment of money out of court shall be acknowledged before an officer authorized to take the acknowledgment of deeds, accompanied with proof of the identity of the applicant from some person other than the applicant, before any order is granted thereon.

Rule 13. Orders of arrest, injunction or attachment.

Every order of arrest, as well as every injunction or attachment, shall briefly state the grounds on which it is granted.

Rule 14. Discovery of books, papers and documents.

Applications may be made in the manner provided by law to compel the production and discovery or inspection with copy of books, papers and documents relating to the merits of any civil action pending in court or of any defense of such action, in the following cases:

1. By the plaintiff, to compel the discovery of books, papers or documents in the possession or under the control of the defendant, which may be necessary to enable the plaintiff to frame his complaint or to answer any pleading of the defendant.

2. By the defendant, to compel the like discovery of books, papers or documents in the possession or under the control of the plaintiffs, which may be necessary to enable the defendant to answer any pleading of the plaintiffs.

3. Either party may be compelled to make discovery of any book, document, record, article or property in his possession or under his control, or in the possession of his agent or attorney, upon its appearing to the satisfaction of the court that such book, document, record, article or property is material to the decision of the action or special proceeding, or some motion or application therein, or is competent evidence in the case, or an inspection thereof is necessary to enable a party to prepare for trial.

Rule 15. Form of application for discovery of books.

The moving papers upon the application for such discovery or inspection shall state the facts and circumstances on which the same is claimed, and shall be verified by affidavit stating that the books, papers, articles, property, and documents whereof discovery or inspection is sought are not in the possession or under the control of the party applying therefor, but are in the possession or under the control of the party against whom discovery is sought or his agent or attorney. The party applying shall show to the satisfaction of the court or judge the materiality and necessity of the discovery or inspection sought, the particular information which he requires, and in the case of books and papers, that there are entries therein as to the matter of which he seeks a discovery or inspection.

Rule 16. Contents of order; stay of proceedings.

The order for granting the application shall specify the mode in which the discovery or inspection is to be made, which may be either by requiring the party to deliver sworn copies of the matters to be discovered, or to allow an inspection with copy, or by requiring him to produce and deposit the same with the clerk, dorsed with the title of the cause. All the pleadings and other proceedings and copies thereof shall be fairly and legibly written or printed, and if not so written or printed and folioed and indorsed as aforesaid, the clerk shall not file the same, nor will the court hear any motion or application founded thereon.

All pleadings and other papers in an action or special proceeding served on a party or an attorney, or filed with the clerk of the court, must comply with section 796 of the Code of Civil Procedure and must be written or printed in black characters; and no clerk of the court shall file or enter the same in his office unless it complies with this rule. The party upon whom the paper is served shall be deemed to have waived the objection for non-compliance with this rule unless within twenty-four hours after the receipt thereof he returns such papers to the party serving the same with a statement of the particular objection to its receipt; but this waiver shall not apply to papers required to be filed or delivered to the court.

It shall be the duty of the attorney by whom the copy pleadings shall be furnished for the use of a court on trial, to plainly designate on each pleading the part or parts thereof claimed to be admitted or controverted by the succeeding pleadings. (As amended October 24, 1899.)

Rule 20. Service and settlement of interrogatories.

Interrogatories to be annexed to a commission issued under article second of title three, chapter nine, of the Code of Civil Procedure shall be served within ten days after the entry of the order, allowing the commission. Cross-interrogatories shall be served within ten days after the service of the interrogatories, unless a different time is fixed therefor by the order allowing the commission. In case a party shall fail to serve such cross-interrogatories within the time limited therefor, he shall be deemed to have waived his right to propound cross-interrogatories to the witness to be examined under the commission. Either party may, within two days after the service of the cross-interrogatories or within two days after the time to serve cross-interrogatories has expired, serve upon the opposing party a notice of settlement of the interrogatories and cross-interrogatories before a Justice of the court or County Judge. The time at which such interrogatories or cross-interrogatories shall be noticed for settlement shall be not less than two nor more than ten days after the service of the notice. If neither party serves such a notice within the time limited therefor, the interrogatories and cross-interrogatories are to be deemed settled as served and shall be so allowed without notice. (As amended October 24, 1899.)

Rule 21. Non-enumerated motions; noticing of.

Non-enumerated motions, in the Supreme Court, except in the first and second districts, and motions noticed to be heard in Erie county, shall be noticed for the first day of the term or sitting of the court, accompanied with copies of the affidavits and papers on which the same shall be made, and the notice shall not be for a later day, unless sufficient cause be shown (and contained in the affidavits served), for not giving notice for the first day. In other courts such motions may be made on any day designed by the Judges thereof. In the Appellate Division such motions may be noticed for any motion day in the term.

Rules 18, 19 GENERAL RULES OF PRACTICE.

which the testimony is sought to be taken, and a copy of the pleadings or other papers defining the issues in such action or special proceeding, or the facts to be proved therein. Upon the return of such order to show cause, the Supreme Court shall upon such affidavit and upon the original petition, and upon such other facts as shall appear, determine whether such person should be required to appear; be sworn or affirmed; testify; answer the question or questions propounded; produce the book or paper, or subscribe to his deposition, as the case may be, and may prescribe such terms and conditions as shall seem proper. Upon proof of a failure or refusal on the part of any person to comply with any order of the court made upon such determination, the court or judge shall make an order requiring such a person to show cause before it or him at a time and place therein specified, why such person should not be punished for the offense as for a contempt. Upon the return of the order to show cause the questions which arise must be determined as upon a motion. If such failure or refusal is established to the satisfaction of the court or judge before whom the order to show cause is made returnable, the court or judge shall enforce the order and prescribe the punishment as in the case of a recalcitrant witness in the Supreme Court. (As amended October 24, 1899.)

Rule 18. Proof of service of summons by persons other than sheriff; in divorce cases.

Where personal service of the summons and of the complaint, or notice, if any accompany the same, shall be made by any other person than the sheriff, it shall be necessary for such person to state in his affidavit of service his age, or that he is more than twenty-one years of age; when and at what particular place, and in what manner he served the same; and that he knew the person served to be the person mentioned and described in the summons as defendant therein, and also to state in his affidavit that he left with defendant such copy, as well as delivered it to him. No such service shall be made by any person who is less than eighteen years of age.

In actions for divorce, or to annul a marriage, or for separate maintenance, the affidavit, in addition to the above requirements, shall state what knowledge the affiant had of the person served being the defendant and proper person to be served, and how he acquired such knowledge. The court may require the affiant to appear in court and be examined in respect thereto, and when service has been made by the sheriff, the court must require the officer who made the service to appear and be examined in like manner, unless there shall be presented with the certificate of service the affidavit of such officer, that he knew the person served to be the same person named as defendant in the summons, and shall also state the source of his knowledge.

Rule 19. Pleadings, to be folioed.

Every pleading, deposition, affidavit, case, bill, exceptions, report, paper, order or judgment exceeding two folios in length, shall be distinctly numbered and marked at each folio in the margin thereof, and all copies either for the parties or the court shall be numbered or marked in the margin, so as to conform to the original draft or entry and to each other, and shall be in-

All pleadings and other papers in an action or special proceeding served on a party or an attorney, or filed with the clerk of the court, must comply with section 796 of the Code of Civil Procedure and must be written or printed in black characters; and no clerk of the court shall file or enter the same in his office unless it complies with this rule. The party upon whom the paper is served shall be deemed to have waived the objection for non-compliance with this rule unless within twenty-four hours after the receipt thereof he returns such papers to the party serving the same with a statement of the particular objection to its receipt; but this waiver shall not apply to papers required to be filed or delivered to the court.

It shall be the duty of the attorney by whom the copy pleadings shall be furnished for the use of a court on trial, to plainly designate on each pleading the part or parts thereof claimed to be admitted or controverted by the succeeding pleadings. (As amended October 24, 1899.)

Rule 20. Service and settlement of interrogatories.

Interrogatories to be annexed to a commission issued under article second of title three, chapter nine, of the Code of Civil Procedure shall be served within ten days after the entry of the order, allowing the commission. Cross-interrogatories shall be served within ten days after the service of the interrogatories, unless a different time is fixed therefor by the order allowing the commission. In case a party shall fail to serve such cross-interrogatories within the time limited therefor, he shall be deemed to have waived his right to propound cross-interrogatories to the witness to be examined under the commission. Either party may, within two days after the service of the cross-interrogatories or within two days after the time to serve cross-interrogatories has expired, serve upon the opposing party a notice of settlement of the interrogatories and cross-interrogatories before a Justice of the court or County Judge. The time at which such interrogatories or cross-interrogatories shall be noticed for settlement shall be not less than two nor more than ten days after the service of the notice. If neither party serves such a notice within the time limited therefor, the interrogatories and cross-interrogatories are to be deemed settled as served and shall be so allowed without notice. (As amended October 24, 1899.)

Rule 21. Non-enumerated motions; noticing of.

Non-enumerated motions, in the Supreme Court, except in the first and second districts, and motions noticed to be heard in Erie county, shall be noticed for the first day of the term or sitting of the court, accompanied with copies of the affidavits and papers on which the same shall be made, and the notice shall not be for a later day, unless sufficient cause be shown (and contained in the affidavits served), for not giving notice for the first day. In other courts such motions may be made on any day designed by the Judges thereof. In the Appellate Division such motions may be noticed for any motion day in the term.

Rules 22-25 GENERAL RULES OF PRACTICE.

Rule 22. Motions to strike out irrelevant matter; notice of.

Motions to strike out of any pleading matter alleged to be irrelevant, redundant or scandalous, and motions to correct a pleading on the ground of its being "so indefinite or uncertain that the precise meaning or application is not apparent," must be noticed before demurring or answering the pleading and within twenty days from the service thereof. The time to make such motion shall not be extended unless notice of an application for such extension, stating the time and place thereof, of at least two days shall be given to the adverse party.

Rule 23. Affidavits of merits.

All motions for relief to which a party is not entitled as matter of right shall be made upon papers showing merits, and the good faith of the prosecution or defense, which may be shown by any proof that shall satisfy the court. (Amended Apr. 1, 1910, in effect Sept. 1, 1910.)

Rule 24. Affidavit for order extending time.

No order extending a defendant's time to answer or demur, or the plaintiff's time to reply to a counterclaim, shall be granted, unless the party applying for such order presents to the judge to whom the application is made an affidavit of the attorney or counsel retained to defend the action that from the statement of the case made to him by the defendant he verily believes that the defendant has a good and substantial defense upon the merits to the cause of action set forth in the complaint, or to some part thereof, or an affidavit of the attorney or counsel for the plaintiff, that from the statement of the case made to him by the plaintiff he verily believes that the plaintiff has a good and substantial defense upon the merits to the cause of action set forth as a counterclaim, or to some part thereof, as the case may be. The affidavit shall also state the cause of action and the relief demanded in the complaint and, where a counterclaim has been interposed, the cause of action alleged as a counterclaim and the relief demanded in the answer; and whether any and what extension or extensions of time to answer, demur or reply by stipulation or order have been granted.

When the time to serve any pleading has been extended by stipulation or order for twenty days, no further time shall be granted by order, except upon two days' notice to the adverse party of the application for such order. (Amended Apr. 1, 1910, in effect Sept. 1, 1910.)

Rule 25. Ex parte application to contain statement as to previous application.

Whenever application is made ex parte on affidavit to a Judge or court for an order, the affidavit shall state whether any previous application has been made for such order, and, if made, to what court or Judge, and what order or decision was made thereon, and what new facts, if any, are claimed to be shown. For failure to comply with this rule, any order made on such application may be revoked or set aside. This rule shall apply to proceedings supplementary to execution, and to every application for an order or judgment made in any action or special proceeding.

Rule 26. Application for judgment on failure to answer.

When the plaintiff in an action in the Supreme Court is entitled to judgment upon the failure of the defendant to answer the complaint, and the relief demanded requires application to be made to the court, such application may be made at any Special Term in the district embracing the county in which the action is triable, or, except in the first district, in an adjoining county; such application, except in the first judicial district, may also be made at a Trial Term in the county in which the action is triable. When a reference or writ of inquiry shall be ordered the same shall be executed in the county in which the action is triable, unless the court shall otherwise order. In the first judicial district, every motion or application for an order or judgment where notice is necessary, must be made to the Special Term for the hearing of motions, and where notice is not necessary, to the Special Term for the transaction of ex parte business, except where other provision is expressly made by law, or the general or special rules of practice. In the county of Kings all such applications shall be made at the Special Term for the hearing of motions. Any order or judgment granted in violation of this provision shall be vacated by the Special Term, at which the application should have been made, or by the Appellate Division of the Supreme Court; and no order or judgment granted in violation of this rule shall be entered by the clerk.

Rule 27. Orders granted on petitions, contents may be docketed.

Orders granted on petitions, or relating thereto, shall refer to such petitions by the names and descriptions of the petitioners and the date of the petitions, if the same be dated, without reciting or setting forth the tenor or substance thereof unnecessarily. Any order or judgment directing the payment of money, or affecting the title to property, if founded on petition, where no complaint is filed, may, at the request of any party interested, be enrolled and docketed, as other judgments.

Rule 28. Inquests, when taken.

(Repealed Apr. 1, 1910, in effect Sept. 1, 1910.)

Rule 29. Opening of counsel; examination of witnesses and summing up.

In the trial of civil causes, unless the justice presiding or the referee shall otherwise direct, each party shall open his case before any evidence is introduced, and, except by special permission of the court, no other opening by either party shall thereafter be permitted.

On the trial of issues of fact, one counsel only on each side shall examine or cross-examine a witness, who shall not repeat the answer or answers of such witness at the time he shall be under examination. One counsel only on each side shall sum up the cause, and he shall not occupy more than one hour, and the testimony, if taken down in writing, shall be written by some person other than the examining counsel; but the judge who holds the court may otherwise order, or dispense with this requirement.

While addressing the court, examining witnesses or summing up, counsel shall stand. (Amended Apr. 1, 1910, in effect Sept. 1, 1910.)

Rule 30. Non-suit before referee; referee's report; testimony in references other than for trial of issues; exceptions, when filed.

On a hearing before a referee or referees, the plaintiff may submit to a non-suit or dismissal of his complaint, or may be non-suited, or his complaint may be dismissed, in like manner as upon a trial, at any time before the cause has been finally submitted to a referee or the referees for their decision; in which case the referee or referees shall report according to the fact, and judgment may thereupon be perfected by the defendant.

In references other than for the trial of the issues in an action, or for computing the amount due in foreclosure cases, the testimony of the witnesses shall be signed by them; the report of the referee shall be filed with the testimony, and a note of the day of the filing shall be entered by the clerk in the proper book, under the title of the cause or proceeding. At any time after the report is filed either party may bring on the action or proceeding at Special Term on notice to the parties interested therein. (Amended Apr. 1, 1910, in effect Sept. 1, 1910.)

Rule 31. Motion for new trial, where made; case or exceptions, when necessary.

When an order grants or refuses a new trial, except on the exceptions taken during the trial, it shall specify the grounds upon which the motion was made and the ground or grounds upon which it was granted. In all actions where either party is entitled to have an issue or issues of fact settled for trial by a jury, either as a matter of right or by leave of the court if either party desires such a trial, the party must within twenty days after issue joined, give notice of motion that all the issues or one or more specific issues be so tried. If such motion is not made within such time, the right to a trial by jury is waived. With the notice of motion shall be served a copy of the questions of fact proposed to be submitted to the jury for trial, in proper form to be incorporated in the order; and the court or judge may settle the issues, or may refer it to a referee to settle them. Such issues must be settled in the form prescribed in sections 823 and 970 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

When any specific question of fact involved in an action or any question of fact not put in issue, is ordered to be tried by a jury, as a substitute for a feigned issue, and has been tried, or a reference other than of the whole issue has been ordered under the Code, and a trial had, if either party shall desire to apply for a new trial, on the ground of any error of the judge or referee, or on the ground that the verdict or report is against evidence (except when the judge directs such motion to be made upon his minutes at the same term of the court at which the issues are tried), a case or exceptions shall be made, or a case containing exceptions, as may be required; which case or exceptions must be served and settled in the manner prescribed by the rules of court for the settlement of cases and exceptions in other cases. Such motions must be made, in the first instance, at Special Term. (Amended Apr. 1, 1910, in effect Sept. 1, 1910.)

Rule 32. Cases, exceptions, when served; amendments; settlement, etc.

Whenever it shall be necessary to make a case, or a case and exceptions, or a case containing exceptions, the same shall be made, and a copy thereof served on the opposite party within the following times:

If the trial was before the court or referee, including trials by a jury of one or more specific questions of fact in an action triable by the court, within thirty days after service of a copy of the decision or report and of written notice of the entry of the judgment thereon.

In the Surrogate's Court, within thirty days after service of a copy of the decree or order and notice of the entry thereof.

If the trial were before a jury within thirty days after notice of the decision of a motion for a new trial, if such motion be made and be not decided at the time of the trial, or within thirty days after service of a copy of the judgment and notice of its entry.

The party served may, within ten days thereafter, propose amendments thereto, and serve a copy on the party proposing a case or exceptions, who may then, within four days thereafter, serve the opposite party with a notice that the case or exceptions with the proposed amendments will be submitted for settlement at a time and place to be specified in the notice, to the judge or referee before whom the cause was tried.

Whenever amendments are proposed to a case or exceptions, the party proposing such case or exceptions shall, before submitting the same to the judge or referee for settlement, mark upon the several amendments his allowance or disallowance thereof, and shall also plainly mark thereon and upon the stenographer's minutes the parts to which the proposed amendments are applicable, together with the number of the amendment. If the party proposing the amendments claims that the case should be made to conform to the minutes of the stenographer he must refer at the end of each amendment to the proper page of such minutes. The judge or referee shall thereupon correct and settle the case. The time for settling the case must be specified in the notice, and it shall not be less than four nor more than ten days after the service of such notice. The lines of the case shall be so numbered that each copy shall correspond. The surrogate, on appeal from his court, may by order allow further time for the doing of any of the acts above provided to be done on such appeals.

Cases reserved for argument and special verdicts shall be settled in the same manner. The parties may agree on the facts proven to be inserted in the case, instead of the testimony on the approval of the judge.

No order extending the time to serve a case, or a case containing exceptions, or the time within which amendments thereto may be served, shall be made unless the party applying for such order serve a notice of two days upon the adverse parties of his intention to apply therefor, stating the time and place for making such application. (As amended October 24, 1899.)

Rules 33-35 GENERAL RULES OF PRACTICE.

Rule 33. Failure to make a case.

If the party shall omit to make a case within the time above limited, he shall be deemed to have waived his right thereto; and when a case is made, and the parties shall omit, within the several times above limited, the one party to propose amendments, and the other to notify an appearance before the judge, or referee, they shall respectively be deemed, the former to have agreed to the case as proposed, and the latter to have agreed to the amendments as proposed.

Rule 34. Bill of exceptions; case and exceptions; final judgment on appeal; resettlement; exhibits.

A bill of exceptions shall contain only so much of the evidence as is necessary to present the questions of law upon which exceptions were taken on the trial; and it shall be the duty of the judge upon settlement to strike out all the evidence and other matter which in his opinion have been inserted unnecessarily.

A case and exceptions shall contain all the evidence by question and answer, the rulings of the court and the exceptions of all parties to the record, but shall not contain the opening and summing up or the remarks of counsel unless ordered by the judge or referee before whom the case or exceptions are settled. The appellate division, on rendering final judgment on appeal pursuant to the provisions of section 1317 of the Code of Civil Procedure, on reversing or modifying a judgment entered upon the decision of the court, or the report of a referee, without granting a new trial, may reverse any finding, and shall make such new findings of facts proved upon the trial as shall be necessary to sustain the judgment awarded by the appellate division. The facts as found by the appellate division shall be inserted in its order for judgment and the facts as found by the special term or referee before whom the case was tried which are reversed by the appellate division shall likewise be specified in such order.

If any case or bill of exceptions does not conform to this rule, the court before which the same shall be brought for review may order the same back for resettlement.

Exhibits shall not be printed at length unless the judge or referee so direct.

When, upon non-enumerated motions, voluminous documents have been used which are material only as to the fact of their existence, or as to a small part of their contents, the parties may, by stipulation, or the court or judge below may, upon notice, settle a statement respecting the same, or the parts thereof to be returned upon the appeal from the order, to be used in place of the original documents. (As amended April 1, 1910, and June 17, 1913.)

Rule 35. Case to be signed; service of copy.

(Repealed Apr. 1, 1910, in effect Sept. 1, 1910.)

GENERAL RULES OF PRACTICE. Rules 36, 37

Rule 36. Neglect to bring issue of fact to trial; causes where defendant is under arrest preferred.

Whenever an issue of fact, in any action pending in any court has been joined, and the plaintiff therein shall fail to bring the same to trial according to the course and practice of the court, the defendant, at any time after younger issues shall have been tried in their regular order, may move at Special Term for the dismissal of the complaint with costs.

If it be made to appear to the court that the neglect of the plaintiff to bring the action to trial has not been unreasonable, the court may permit the plaintiff, on such terms as may be just, to bring the said action to trial at a future term.

Whenever in any action an issue shall have been joined, if the defendant be imprisoned under an order of arrest, in the action, or if the property of the defendant be held under attachment, the trial of the action shall be preferred. Every cause placed upon the calendar of the Trial Term or Special Term for the trial of equity cases shall be moved for argument or trial when reached in its order, and shall not be reserved or put over except by the consent of the court unless otherwise permitted by special rule; and, if passed without being so reserved or put over, it shall be entered on all subsequent calendars as of date when passed, and no term fee shall be taxed thereon for any subsequent term. (As amended October 24, 1899.)

Rule 37. Notice for argument and of motions; order to show cause, where returnable; effect of order staying proceedings when made within ten days of Trial Term; irregularities to be stated; judgment by default in divorce cases.

All questions for argument, and all motions made at Special or Trial Terms shall be brought before the court on notice, of not less than eight days, unless a shorter time is prescribed by a judge or court, under section 780 of the Code, by an order to show cause, except that where the attorneys for the respective parties reside or have their offices in the same city or village, such notice may be a notice of five days; if the opposite party shall not appear to oppose, the party making the motion shall be entitled to the order or judgment moved for, on proof of due service of the notice or order and papers required to be served by him, unless the court shall otherwise direct. If the party making the motion shall not appear, the court shall deny the motion on the filing of the copy, notice of motion, or order to show cause.

Such order to show cause shall in no case be granted unless a special and sufficient reason for requiring a shorter notice than eight days shall be stated in the papers presented, nor unless in a case where the attorneys for the respective parties reside or have their offices in the same city or village, a special and sufficient reason for requiring a shorter notice than five days shall be stated in the papers presented, and the party shall, in his affidavit, state the present condition of the action, and whether at issue, and, if not yet tried, the time appointed for holding the next Special or Trial Term where the action is triable. An order to show cause shall also (except in the first judicial district) be returnable only before the judge who grants it, or at a Special Term appointed to be held in the district in which the action is triable.

No order, except in the first judicial district, served after the action shall have been noticed for trial, if served within ten days of the Trial Term, shall have the effect to stay the proceedings in the action, unless made at the term where such action is to be tried, or by the judge who is appointed or is to hold such Trial Term, or unless such stay is contained in an order to show cause returnable on the first day of such term, in which case it shall not operate to prevent the subpoenaing of witnesses or placing the cause on the calendar.

When the motion is for irregularity, the notice or order shall specify the irregularity complained of.

This rule, so far as it permits a judgment by default, or by the consent of the adverse party, shall not extend to an action for a divorce, or limited separation, or to annul a marriage.

In the first judicial district, all motions must be noticed to be heard at and all orders to show cause must be returnable at the Special Term for hearing of litigated motions, except in cases where the special rules of the first judicial district shall require such motion to be made at some other term of the court.

If a notice of motion is served ten days before the return day thereof, it may, immediately after the prayer for relief and before the signature, contain the following statement: "Answering affidavits must be served five days before the return day," in which case answering affidavits, in order to be used upon the motion, must be so served. The moving party, upon receiving such answering affidavits, may serve affidavits in reply at least two days before the hearing. Such replying affidavits shall be limited strictly to matters in reply. Affidavits in answer and reply cannot be read upon the motion if not so served, unless the court in its discretion, for good cause shown, may otherwise order. (Amended Apr. 1, 1910, in effect Sept. 1, 1910.)

Rule 38. Enumerated motions; non-enumerated motions, what are; contested motions, when not heard at circuit.

Enumerated motions are motions arising on special verdict, issues of law, cases, exceptions, appeals from judgments sustaining or overruling demurrers, appeals from judgment or order granting or refusing a new trial in an inferior court, appeals by virtue of sections 1346 and 1349 of the Code, agreed cases submitted under section 1279 of the Code, and appeals from final orders and decrees of Surrogate's Courts, and matters provided for by sections 2085-2099 and 2138 of the Code.

Non-enumerated motions include all other questions submitted to the court, and shall be heard at Special Term except when otherwise directed by law.

Contested motions shall not be noticed or brought to a hearing at any Special Term held at the same time and place with a Trial Term, except in actions upon the calendar for trial at such term, and in which the hearing of the motion is necessary to the disposal of the cause unless otherwise ordered by the Justice holding the court; and except, also, that in counties in which no Special Term distinct from a Trial Term is appointed to be held, motions in actions triable in any such county may be noticed and brought on at the time of holding the Trial and Special Term in the county in which such actions are triable.

Rule 39. Notes of issue, when to be filed; separate calendar for non-enumerated motions, preferred cases; cases not reserved; when passed, place on subsequent calendars.

At the first term of the Appellate Division of the Supreme Court in each department, and at such other times as the court shall from time to time direct, the clerk shall make up a calendar which shall consist of cases pending and undisposed of as follows:

Notes of issue for the Appellate Division shall be filed eight days before the commencement of the court at which the cause may be noticed. The clerk shall prepare a calendar for the Appellate Division and, except in the first department, cause the same to be printed for each of the Justices holding the court. Appeals shall be placed on the calendar, according to the date of the service of the notice of appeal; and all subsequent enumerated appeals in the same cause shall be put on the calendar as of the date of the first appeal; and other cases as of the time when the question to be reviewed arose. Appeals in non-enumerated motions shall also be placed upon a separate calendar. Cases entitled to preference shall be placed separately on the calendar.

The Appellate Division of each department shall adopt rules regulating the hearing of causes and of calendar practice in such department not inconsistent with the Code of Civil Procedure.

Judgment of reversal by default will not be allowed. Where the cause is called in its order on the calendar, if the appellant fails to appear and furnish the court with the papers required, and argue or submit his cause, judgment of affirmance by default will be ordered on motion of the respondent. If the appellant only appears he may either argue or submit the case. If neither party appears, the case will be passed and placed at the foot of the calendar. When any cause shall be twice passed, the clerk shall enter an order of course dismissing the appeal or the proceedings, or denying the motion for a new trial—but the court may, upon motion, vacate the order and restore the cause.

Rule 40. Enumerated motions; what papers to be furnished, and by whom; points to contain a statement of facts.

The papers to be furnished on enumerated motions at Special Term shall be a copy of the pleadings, when the question arises on the pleadings, or any part thereof, a copy of the special verdict, return or other papers on which the question arises. The party whose duty it is to furnish the papers shall serve a copy on the opposite party, except upon the trial of issues of law, at least five days before the time for which the matter may be noticed for argument. If the party whose duty it is to furnish the papers shall neglect to do so, the opposite party shall be entitled to move, on affidavit and on four days' notice of motion that the cause be struck from the calendar (whichever party may have noticed it for argument), and that the judgment be rendered in his favor.

The papers shall be furnished by the plaintiff when the question arises on special verdict, and by the party demurring on the trial of issues of law, and in all other cases by the party making the motion. Each party shall prefix to his points a concise statement of the facts of the case, with reference to the folios; and if such statement is not furnished, no discussion of the facts by the party omitting such statement will be permitted. (As amended October 24, 1890.)

Rule 41. Papers to be furnished, on appeal, by appellant; printed copies of case and points; appeals from non-enumerated motions.

In all cases to be heard in the Appellate Division, except appeals from non-enumerated motions, the papers shall be furnished by the appellant or the moving party, and in cases agreed upon, under section 1270 of the Code, by the plaintiff.

The party whose duty it is to furnish the papers shall cause a printed copy of the requisite papers to be filed in the office of the clerk of the Appellate Division within twenty days after an appeal has been taken, or the order made for the hearing of a cause therein, or the agreed case filed in the clerk's office pursuant to section 1279 of the Code; but if it shall be necessary to make a case or case and exceptions after the appeal has been taken or the order made for the hearing in the Appellate Division, the printed papers, including the case as settled and signed by the judge before whom the case was tried, shall be filed within twenty days after the settlement of the case; and the party whose duty it is to furnish the papers shall serve within said twenty days upon his adversary three printed copies of such papers.

Such papers shall consist of a notice of appeal, if an appeal has been taken; a copy of the judgment-roll, or the decree in the court below, and the papers upon which it was entered; if no judgment was entered, the pleadings, minutes of trial, and the order sending the case to the Appellate Division or the order appealed from, or the papers required by section 1280 of the Code of Civil Procedure. To these papers shall be attached the case or case and exceptions if it is to be used in the Appellate Division. All the foregoing papers shall be certified by the proper clerk, or be stipulated by the parties to be true copies of the original. There shall be prefixed to these papers a statement showing the time of the beginning of the action or special proceeding, and of the service of the respective pleadings; the names of the original parties in full; and any change in the parties, if such has taken place. There shall be added to them the opinion of the court below, or an affidavit that no opinion was given, or, if given, that a copy could not be procured. The foregoing papers shall constitute the record in the Appellate Division. If the papers shall not be filed and served as herein provided by the party whose duty it is to do so, his opponent may move the court on three days' notice, on any motion day, for an order dismissing the appeal, or for a judgment in his favor, as the case may be.

The papers in all appeals from non-enumerated motions shall consist of printed copies of the papers which were used in the court below, and are specified in the order, certified by the proper clerk, or stipulated by the parties to be true copies of the original, and of the whole thereof. There shall be added to them the opinion of the court below, or an affidavit that no opinion was given, or, if given, that a copy could not be procured.

They shall be filed with the clerk within fifteen days after the appeal is taken and at the same time the appellant shall serve upon his adversary three printed copies thereof.

If the appellant fails to file and serve the papers as aforesaid, the respondent may move, on any motion day, upon three days' notice, to dismiss the appeal.

If the judge from whose order the appeal is taken orders that it shall not be necessary to insert in the printed papers upon which the appeal is to be taken such exhibits or other voluminous documents as are not necessary for a consideration of the questions raised by the appeal, the clerk shall then certify that the printed papers are true copies of the originals and of the whole thereof specified in the order except those omitted by order of the court. (As amended Oct. 24, 1899, and Apr. 1, 1910, in effect Sept. 1, 1910.)

Rule 42. Briefs and points to be exchanged by the parties.

The Appellate Division in any department may make such rules in relation to the exchange of briefs and the delivery of papers and briefs to the justices thereof as they may deem expedient in all cases, whether enumerated or non-enumerated.

Rule 43. Cases and points to be printed and indexed; number to be delivered to the court; citations from official reports.

The cases and points, and all other papers furnished in the Appellate Division in calendar cases, shall be printed on white writing paper, with a margin on the outer edge of the leaf not less than one and a half inch wide. The printed page, exclusive of any marginal note or reference, shall be seven inches long and three and a half inches wide. The folio, numbering from the commencement to the end of the papers, shall be printed on the outer margin of the page.

The cases and points in each case shall be uniform in size and in the type of this rule.

All cases cited on the briefs from the courts of this state shall be cited from the reports of the official reporters, if such cases shall have been reported in full in the official reports.

At the beginning of the argument of any appeal, the party whose duty it is to furnish the papers shall deliver to the clerk thirteen copies thereof, and each party shall deliver to the clerk thirteen copies of his briefs and points. The clerk shall deliver one copy of the papers and briefs to each justice, two to the official reporter, and shall transmit one to the librarian of the State Law Library, one to the clerk of each of the other departments, and shall dispose of the remainder as directed by the court. The Appellate Division in any department may require further copies of the papers and briefs to be delivered in their discretion.

The printed papers on appeal shall contain an index in the front thereof. The index of the exhibits shall concisely indicate the contents or nature of each exhibit and the folio of the case at which it is admitted in evidence and at which it is printed in the record. Said index shall also contain a reference to the folios at which a motion for a dismissal of the complaint or the direction of a verdict is contained; and to the certificate that the case contains all the evidence. At the top of each page of the case or bill of exceptions must be printed the name of the witness then testifying and of the party calling him, and indicating whether the examination is direct, cross or redirect. Each affidavit or other paper printed upon an appeal from an order shall be preceded by a description thereof that must specify on whose behalf it was read; and the name of the affiant shall be printed at the top of each page containing an affidavit. On an appeal from an order granting or denying a motion to strike out parts of a pleading as irrelevant, redundant or scandalous, or to make a pleading more definite and certain, the portion of the pleading to which the motion relates must be printed in italics. (Amended Oct. 24, 1905, and Apr. 1, 1910, in effect Sept. 1, 1910.)

Rule 44. Non-enumerated motions, when heard; default, how taken.

Non-enumerated motions in the Appellate Division and appeals from orders will be heard upon such days as are designated by the special rule of the Appellate Division in each Department.

If a non-enumerated motion noticed to be heard at the Appellate Division shall not be made upon the day for which it is noticed, the party attending pursuant to notice to oppose the same, may, at the close of that order of business, unless the court shall otherwise order, take an order against the party giving the notice, denying the motion, with costs. (Amended Apr. 1, 1910, in effect Sept. 1, 1910.)

Rule 45. Additional allowance.

Applications for an additional allowance can only be made to the court before which the trial is had or the judgment rendered, and shall in all cases be made before final costs are adjusted.

Rule 46. Motion to amend justice's return on appeal, when to be noticed.

On appeal from a justice's judgment, where a County Court has not jurisdiction, by reason of relationship, etc., a notice of motion for an order to compel the justice to amend his return may be given in twenty days after the date of the certificate of the county judge, and not after that time.

Rule 47. Counsel, time allowed.

At the hearing of causes in the Appellate Division or at Special Term, not more than one counsel shall be heard on each side, and then not more than one hour each, except when the court shall otherwise order.

On appeals from orders and on non-enumerated motions, but one counsel on each side shall be heard, and not more than thirty minutes each, unless the court shall otherwise order.

The Appellate Division in any department may make such further or different regulations upon these subjects as it may deem proper.

Rule 48. Stay of proceedings, for change of venue; affidavits, on motion to change venue.

No order to stay proceedings for the purpose of moving to change the place of trial shall be granted unless it shall appear from the papers that the defendant has used due diligence in preparing the motion for the earliest practical day after issue joined. Such order shall not stay the plaintiff from taking any step, except subpoenaing witnesses for the trial, without a special clause to that effect.

On motions to change the place of trial, the moving party shall state the nature of the controversy and show how his witnesses are material, and the grounds of his belief that the testimony of such witnesses will be favorable to his contention, and shall also show where the cause of action arose, and such facts shall be taken into consideration by the court in fixing the place of trial. (Amended Apr. 1, 1910, in effect Sept. 1, 1910.)

Rule 49. Guardians ad litem.

No person shall be appointed guardian ad litem, either on the application of the infant or otherwise, unless he be the general guardian of such infant, or is fully competent to understand and protect the rights of the infant, and has no interest adverse to that of the infant, and is not connected in business with the attorney or counsel of the adverse party. And no person shall be appointed such guardian who is not of sufficient ability to answer to the infant for any damage which may be sustained by his negligence or misconduct in the defense or prosecution of the suit, and such ability shall be shown by affidavit stating facts in respect thereto. And no person shall be appointed guardian ad litem who is nominated by the adverse party.

Rule 50. Guardian ad litem, duties, compensation; affidavit to entitle guardian to compensation.

It shall be the duty of every attorney or officer of the court to act as the guardian of any infant defendant, in any suit or proceeding against him, whenever appointed for that purpose by an order of this court. And it shall be the duty of such guardian to examine into the circumstances of the case, so far as to enable him to make the proper defense, when necessary for the protection of the rights of the infant; and he shall be entitled to such compensation for his services as the court may deem reasonable. But no order allowing compensation to guardians ad litem shall be made, except upon an affidavit to be made by such guardian, if an attorney of the court, or if the guardian be not an attorney, then an affidavit to be made by an attorney of the court who has acted in the matter in behalf of such guardian, showing that he has examined into the circumstances of the case, and has, to the best of his ability, made himself acquainted with the rights of his ward, and that such guardian has taken all the steps necessary for the protection of such rights, to the best of his knowledge, and as he believes, stating what has been done by him for the purpose of ascertaining the rights of the ward.

Rule 51. Guardian, bond of, before receiving property.

No guardian ad litem for an infant party shall as such guardian receive any money or property belonging to such infant, or which may be awarded to him in the suit (except such costs and expenses as may be allowed by the court to the guardian), unless he has given an undertaking executed by a surety company authorized to do business in this state, in double the amount of such money or property, or a bond secured by a mortgage on improved and unincumbered real property. .

Rules 52-54 GENERAL RULES OF PRACTICE.

Neither shall the general guardian of an infant receiving any part of the proceeds of a sale of real property belonging to an infant sold under a decree, judgment or order of the court until the guardian has given such further security for the faithful discharge of his trust as the court may direct. In case, however, such proceeds shall exceed the sum of five hundred dollars the court shall require the guardian to give a bond, in the penalty of double the amount to be paid to the guardian, such bond to be that of a surety company authorized to do business in this state or secured by mortgage on improved and unincumbered real property worth the amount of the penalty of the bond. (Amended Apr. 1, 1910, in effect Sept. 1, 1910.)

Rule 52. General guardian, appointment of.

Except in cases otherwise provided for by law, for the purpose of having a general guardian appointed, the infant, if of the age of fourteen years or upward, or some relative or friend, if the infant is under fourteen, may present a petition to the court, stating the age and residence of the infant, and the name and residence of the person proposed or nominated as guardian, and the relationship, if any, which said person bears to the infant, and the nature, situation and value of the infant's estate.

Rule 53. Age of infant and amount of property to be ascertained by court.

Upon presenting the petition, the court shall, by inspection or otherwise, ascertain the age of the infant, and if of the age of fourteen years or upward shall examine him as to his voluntary nomination of a suitable and proper person as guardian; if under fourteen, shall ascertain who is entitled to the guardianship, and shall name a competent and proper person as guardian. The court shall also ascertain the amount of the personal property, and the gross amount of value of the rents and profits of the real estate of the infant during his minority, and shall also ascertain the sufficiency of the security offered by the guardian.

Rule 54. Bond of a general guardian.

The security to be given by the general guardian of an infant shall be a bond in the penalty of double the amount of the personal estate of his ward and of a gross amount or value of the rents or profits of the real estate during his minority. The bond shall be executed by the guardian, together with at least two sufficient sureties, each of whom shall be worth the amount specified in the penalty of the bond over and above all debts. If, however, the total amount of the personal estate of an infant and of the gross amount or value of the rents or profits of the real estate during his minority shall exceed twenty-five hundred dollars, then the bond must be the bond of a surety company authorized to do business in this State, or the general guardian may give a bond secured by a mortgage on improved and unincumbered real property of the value of the penalty of the bond.

The court in its discretion may vary the security where from special circumstances it may be found for the interest of the infant, and may direct the principal of the estate and any part thereof to be invested in the stocks of the state of New York or of the United States, or deposited with any trust company which shall have been designated as a depository for such moneys, or invested in bond and mortgage on unincumbered and improved property of at least double the value of the amount invested, to be shown to the satisfaction of the court, for the benefit of the infants, and that the interest or income thereof only be received by the guardian. (Amended Apr. 1, 1910, in effect Sept. 1, 1910.)

Rule 55. Sale of real estate of infants, lunatics, etc.; contents of petition.

The petition in proceedings to sell, mortgage or lease real estate belonging to an infant or lunatic, idiot or habitual drunkard, shall state, besides the particular grounds for a sale, mortgage or lease of the property, and the other matters required by the Code, the age and residence of the infant lunatic, idiot or habitual drunkard, and the name and residence of the person proposed as a special guardian or committee, the relationship, if any, which he bears to the infant, lunatic, idiot or habitual drunkard, and the security proposed to be given; and also whether any previous application has been made, and, if so, the time thereof, and what disposition was made of the same.

Rule 56. Referee's report on petition to sell, etc.

The referee appointed on such petition must report as to whether a sale, mortgage or lease of the premises (or any and what portion thereof), would be beneficial to the infant, lunatic, idiot or habitual drunkard, and the particular reason therefor, and whether the infant, lunatic, idiot or habitual drunkard is in absolute need of having some and what portion of the proceeds of such sale, mortgage or lease, for a purpose provided in section 2348 of the Code, in addition to what he might earn by his own exertions; and such referee shall also ascertain and report the value of the property or interest to be disposed of, specifically, as to each separate lot or parcel, and whether there is any person entitled to dower or a life estate, or estate for years, in the premises, and the terms and conditions on which it should be sold

And the referee's report shall give such further facts as are necessary or proper on the application.

The facts in relation to the value of the property or interest to be disposed of required to be ascertained and reported upon by the referee must be proven on such reference by evidence of at least two disinterested persons, in addition to that of the petitioner, and the report shall not refer to the petition or any other papers for a statement of fact. (As amended October 24, 1899.)

Rule 57. Bond of special guardian.

The security required on a sale of the real estate of an infant shall be a bond of the guardian, with two sufficient sureties, in the sum of double the value of the premises, including the interest on such value during the minority of the infant, each of which sureties shall be worth the penalty of the bond over and above all debts, which bond shall be duly acknowledged and accompanied with affidavits of justification made by the sureties. In case, however, the value of the premises including the interest on such value during the minority of the infant, shall exceed the sum of five hundred dollars, the court must require the guardian to give a bond of a surety company authorized to do business in this state or a bond secured by a mortgage on improved and unincumbered real property of the value of the penalty of the bond. (Amended Apr. 1, 1910, in effect Sept. 1, 1910.)

Rules 58-60 GENERAL RULES OF PRACTICE.

Rule 58. Proceeds of sale must be brought into court; costs.

If the proceeds of the sale exceed $500, and the guardian has not given security by mortgage upon real estate, he shall bring the proceeds into court, or invest the same under the direction of the court, for the use of the infant; and the guardian shall only be entitled to receive so much of the interest or income thereof, from time to time, as may be necessary for the support and maintenance of the infant, without the order of the court. If the infant's interest in the property does not exceed $1,000, the whole costs, including disbursements, shall not exceed twenty-five dollars, and referee's fees not exceeding ten dollars. Where several infants are interested in the same premises as tenants in common, the application in behalf of all shall be joined in the same petition, although they may have several general guardians; and there shall be but one reference to ascertain the propriety of a sale as to all, and but one bill of costs shall be allowed.

Rule 59. When proceeds of sale to be paid to general guardian; petition therefor.

No money arising from the sale of the real estate of an infant shall be paid over to his general guardian, except so much thereof, or of the interest or income, from time to time, as may be necessary for his support or maintenance, unless such guardian shall give a bond in the penalty of double the amount to be paid to him with sufficient surety to be approved by the court. In case, however, such money shall exceed the sum of five hundred dollars the court must require the guardian to give a bond of a surety company authorized to do business in this state or a bond secured by a mortgage on improved and unincumbered real property of a value of the penalty of the bond.

No order shall be made for the payment of any such moneys to any person, except upon petition, accompanied by a certified copy of the order, in pursuance of which the money was brought into court, together with a statement of the county treasurer, city chamberlain, or other depository of the money, showing the present state and amount of the fund, separating the principal and interest, and showing the amount of each; and the court may take such proof of the truth of the matters stated in the petition as shall be deemed proper, or may refer the same to a suitable referee to take proof and report thereon. (Amended Apr. 1, 1910, in effect Sept. 1, 1910.)

Rule 60. Reference on failure to answer on mortgage foreclosure; judgment.

If, in an action to foreclose a mortgage, the defendant fails to answer within the time allowed for that purpose, or the right of the plaintiff, as stated in the complaint, is admitted by the answer, the plaintiff may have an order referring it to some suitable person as referee, to compute the amount due to the plaintiff, and to such of the defendants as are prior incumbrancers of the mortgaged premises, and to examine and report whether the mortgaged premises can be sold in parcels, if the whole amount secured by the mortgage has not become due. If the defendant is an infant, and has put in a general answer by his guardian, or if any of the defendants are absentees the order of reference shall also direct the person to whom it is referred to take proof of the facts and circumstances stated in the complaint, and to examine the plaintiff or his agent, on oath, as to any payments which have been made, and to compute the amount due on the mortgage, preparatory to the application for judgment of foreclosure and sale.

When no answer is put in by the defendant, within the time allowed for that purpose, or any answer denying any material facts of the complaint, the plaintiff, after the cause is in readiness for trial, as to all the defendants, may apply for judgment, at any Special Term, upon due notice to such of the defendants as have appeared in the action, and without putting the cause on the calendar.

The plaintiff, in such case, when he moves for judgment, must show, by affidavit or otherwise, whether any of the defendants who have not appeared are absentees; and, if so, he must produce the report as to the proof of the facts and circumstances stated in the complaint, and of the examination of the plaintiff or his agent, on oath, as to any payments which have been made. And in all foreclosure cases the plaintiff, when he moves for judgment, must show by affidavit, or by the certificate of the clerk of the county in which the mortgaged premises are situated, that a notice of the pendency of the action, containing the names of the parties thereto, the object of the action, and a description of the property in that county affected thereby, the date of the mortgage, and the parties thereto, and the time and place of recording the same, has been filed at least twenty days before such application for judgment, and at or after the time of filing of the complaint, as required by law.

Rule 61. Judgment for sale on foreclosure, what to contain; disposition of surplus money; referee.

In every judgment for the sale of mortgaged premises, the description and particular boundaries of the property to be sold, so far, at least, as the same can be ascertained from the mortgage, shall be inserted. And, unless otherwise specially ordered by the court, the judgment shall direct that the mortgaged premises, or so much thereof as may be sufficient to discharge the mortgage debt, the expenses of the sale and the costs of the action, as provided by sections 1626 and 1776 of the Code, and which may be sold separately without material injury to the parties interested, be sold by or under the direction of the sheriff of the county, or a referee, and that the plaintiff, or any other party, may become a purchaser on such sale; that the sheriff or referee execute a deed to the purchaser; that out of the proceeds of the sale, unless otherwise directed, he pay the expenses of the sale, as provided in section 1676 aforesaid, and that he pay to the plaintiff, or his attorney, the amount of his debt, interest and costs, or so much as the purchase money will pay of the same and that he take the receipt of the plaintiff, or his attorney, for the amount so paid, and file the same with his report of sale, and that the purchaser at such sale be let into possession of the premises on production of the deed.

All surplus moneys arising from the sale of mortgaged premises, under any judgment, shall be paid by the sheriff or referee making the sale within five days after the same shall be received and be ascertainable, in the city of New York to the chamberlain of the said city, and in other counties to the treasurer thereof, unless otherwise specially directed, subject to the further order of the court, and every judgment in foreclosure shall contain such directions, except where other provisions are specially made by the court. No report of a sale shall be filed or confirmed, unless accompanied with a proper voucher for the surplus moneys, and showing that they have been paid over, deposited or disposed of in pursuance of the judgment. The referee to be appointed in foreclosure cases, to compute the amount due, or to sell mortgaged premises, shall be selected by the court, and the court shall not appoint as such referee a person nominated by the party to the action or his counsel.

Rule 62. Sale of lands in the counties of New York, Kings or the city of Buffalo, under judgment or order.

Where lands in the county of New York or the county of Kings are sold under a decree, order or judgment of any court, they shall be sold at public auction, between eleven o'clock in the forenoon and three o'clock in the afternoon, unless otherwise specifically directed.

Notice of such sale must be given, and the sale must be had, as prescribed in section 1678 of the Code.

Such sales in the county of New York, unless otherwise specifically directed, shall take place at the Exchange Sales Rooms, now located at Nos. 14 and 16 Vezey street in the city of New York.

The Appellate Division of the Supreme Court in the First Department is authorized to change the place at which said sales shall be made, may make rules and regulations in relation thereto and may designate the auctioneers or persons who shall make the same.

Such sales in the city of Buffalo shall on and after May 1st, 1896, take place at the Real Estate Exchange rooms, between the hours of nine and eleven in the forenoon, and two and three o'clock in the afternoon, unless the court ordering the sales shall otherwise direct. Such sales shall, however, be made subject to such regulations as the justices of the Supreme Court of the Eighth District shall establish. (As amended October 24, 1899.)

Rule 63. Mortgage and assignments to be filed or recorded before conveyance.

Whenever a sheriff or referee sells mortgaged premises under a decree or order, or judgment of the court, it shall be the duty of the plaintiff, before a deed is executed to the purchaser, to file such mortgage and any assignment thereof in the office of the clerk, unless such mortgage and assignments have been duly proved or acknowledged, so as to entitle the same to be recorded; in which case, if it has not been already done, it shall be the duty of the plaintiff to cause the same to be recorded at full length in the county or counties where the lands so sold are situated, before a deed is executed to the purchaser on the sale; the expense of which filing or recording, and the entry thereof shall be allowed in the taxation of costs; and, if filed with the clerk, he shall enter in the minutes the filing of such mortgage and assignments, and the time of filing. But this rule shall not extend to any case where the mortgage or assignments appear, by the pleadings or proof in the suit commenced thereon, to have been lost or destroyed.

Rule 64. Application for surplus moneys; reference; searches; unsatisfied liens.

On filing the report of the sale, any party to the suit, or any person who had a lien on the mortgaged premises at the time of the sale, upon filing with the clerk where the report of sale is filed a notice, stating that he is entitled to such surplus moneys or some part thereof, and the nature and extent of his claim, may have an order of reference to ascertain and report the amount due to him, or to any other person, which is a lien upon such surplus moneys, and to ascertain the priorities of the several liens thereon; to the end that, on the coming in and confirmation of the report on such reference, such further order may be made for the distribution of such surplus moneys as may be just. The referee shall, in all cases, be selected by the court. The owner of the equity of redemption, and every party who appeared in the cause, or who shall have filed a notice of claim with the clerk, previous to the entry of the order of reference, shall be entitled to service of a notice of the application for the reference, and to attend on such reference, and to the usual notices of subsequent proceedings relative to such surplus. But if such claimant or such owner has not appeared, or made his claim by an attorney of this court, the notice may be served by putting the same into the post-office, directed to the claimant at his place of residence, as stated in the notice of his claim, and upon the owner in such manner as the court may direct. All official searches for conveyances or incumbrances, made in the progress of the cause, shall be filed with the judgment roll, and notice of the hearing shall be given to any person having or appearing to have an unsatisfied lien on the moneys in such manner as the court shall direct; and the party moving for the reference shall show, by affidavit, what unsatisfied liens appear by such official searches, and whether any, and what other unsatisfied liens are known to him to exist.

Rule 65. Partition to embrace all lands in common.

Where several tracts or parcels of land lying within this state are owned by the same persons in common, no separate action for the partition of a part thereof shall be brought without the consent of all the parties interested therein; or without the special order of the court made on notice to all parties who have appeared in the action, to be obtained before application for the relief demanded in the complaint; and, if brought without such a consent or order, the share of the plaintiff may be charged with the whole cost of proceeding; and where infants are interested, the complaint shall state whether or not the parties own any other lands in common. (Amended Apr. 1, 1910, in effect Sept. 1 1910.)

Rule 66. Reference as to title of premises.

Where the rights and interests of the several parties, as stated in the complaint, are not denied or controverted, if any of the defendants are infants or absentees, or unknown, the plaintiff, on an affidavit of the fact, and notice to such of the parties as have appeared, may apply at a Special Term, for an order of reference, to take proof of the plaintiff's title and interest in the premises, and of the several matters set forth in the complaint; and to ascertain and report the rights and interests of the several parties in the premises, and an abstract of the conveyances under which the same are held. Such referee and the referee appointed to sell shall in all cases be selected by the court. (As amended October 24, 1905.)

Rule 67. Notice of stay of sale in partition or foreclosure.

No order to stay a sale under judgment in partition or for the foreclosure of a mortgage shall be granted or made by a judge out of court, except upon a notice of at least two days to the plaintiff's attorney.

Rule 68. Moneys paid into court; report of county treasurers and chamberlain of City of New York.

On or before the first day of February in each year the county treasurer in each county and the chamberlain of the city of New York shall file a report duly verified with the Appellate Division of the Supreme Court of the Department in which the county is embraced containing a statement of all moneys in his hands on the first day of January preceding that have been paid into Court or received by him to the credit of any action or proceeding, specifically stating the securities in which the moneys so paid into Court are invested or the depositories in which such moneys are deposited. In case such county treasurer or chamberlain refuses to comply with this rule the Appellate Division of the Department shall issue an order requiring him to file such statement within the time specified therein and obedience to such order may be enforced as for contempt of court. (Added June 17, 1913. Former Rule 68 repealed April 30, 1910.)

Rule 69. Order for payment out of court; accounts with trust companies; draft to be countersigned by justice; what to be stated in draft.

All orders directing the payment of money out of court shall direct the payment to be made to the person entitled to receive the same, and all checks or drafts for the payment of money out of court shall be drawn payable to the order of the person entitled to the moneys; and shall specify in what particular suit or on what account the money is to be paid out, and the time when the order authorizing such payment was made. No order in any pending action, for the payment of money out of court, shall be made, except on regular notice or order to show cause, duly served on the attorneys of all the parties who have appeared therein, or filed notice or claim thereto. When moneys are deposited by the order of the court in any trust company, the entry of such deposit in the books of the company shall contain a short reference to the title of the cause or matter in which such deposit is directed to be made, and shall specify also the time from which the interest or accumulation on such deposit is to commence, where it does not commence from the date of such deposit. The secretary of the company shall, on or before the first day of February in each year, transmit to the Appellate Division of the Supreme Court in the department in which the trust company is located a statement of the accounts in each department, showing the amount, on the last preceding first day of January, including the interest or accumulation on the sum deposited to the credit of each cause or matter.

In every draft upon the trust company by the county treasurer or chamberlain, for moneys deposited with the said company, or for the interest or accumulation on such moneys, the title of the cause or matter on account of which the draft is made, and the date of the order authorizing such draft shall be stated, and the draft shall be made payable to the order of the person or persons entitled to the money. Any attorney or other person procuring an order for the payment of money out of court, shall obtain two certified copies of the order, both to be countersigned by the judge granting the same; one copy shall be filed with the county treasurer and the other shall accompany the draft drawn upon the depository and be filed with it, and the several banks and other depositories having trust funds of the court on deposit, are forbidden to pay out any of such funds without the production and filing of such certified and countersigned copy order. This provision is not intended to dispense with any of the requirements of this rule, as to the form of the draft, nor to apply to a case where periodical payments are directed to be made, as provided for by the last sentence of this rule, after the first payment from such fund shall have been made under an order of the court, in the manner herein specified. Where periodical payments are directed to be made out of a fund deposited with such company, the delivery to the secretary of the company of one copy of the order authorizing the several payments shall be sufficient to authorize the payment of subsequent drafts in pursuance of such order. (Amended Apr. 1, 1910, in effect Sept. 1, 1910.)

Rule 70. Gross sum in payment of life-estate.

Whenever a party, as a tenant for life, or by the curtesy, or in dower, is entitled to the annual interest or income of any sum paid into court and invested in permanent securities, such party shall be charged with the expense of investing such sum, and of receiving and paying over the interest or income thereof; but if such party is willing, and consents to accept a gross sum in lieu of such annual interest or income for life, the same shall be estimated according to the then value of an annuity of five per cent. on the principal sum, during the probable life of such person, according to the Carlisle Table of Mortality. (As amended October 24, 1905.)

Rule 71. Fees on inquisition of lunacy; special order of the court; when necessary, to pay costs.

On the execution of a commission of lunacy, etc., the commissioners, for every day they are necessarily employed in hearing the testimony and taking the inquisition, shall be entitled to an allowance to be fixed by the court, not exceeding ten dollars for each day to each of such commissioners.

Where the costs and expenses exceed $250, besides witness fees and allowances to commissioners, the committee shall not be at liberty to pay the same out of the estate in his hands, without a special order of the court upon notice to all parties who have appeared in such proceedings, directing such payment.

Rule 72. Divorce or separation, action for; reference on default; averments in complaint; plaintiff to be examined on oath.

When an action is brought to obtain a divorce or separation, or to declare a marriage contract void, the court shall in no case order the reference to a referee nominated by either party nor to a referee agreed upon by the parties, nor without proof by affidavit conformable to the rules relating to the manner and proof of the service of the summons and complaint. Notice of appearance and retainer shall not be sufficient to excuse such proof.

When the action is for a divorce on the ground of adultery, unless it be averred in the complaint that the adultery charged was committed without the consent, connivance, privity or procurement of the plaintiff; that five years have not elapsed since the discovery of the fact that such adultery had been committed, and that the plaintiff has not voluntarily cohabited with the defendant since such discovery; and, also, where, at the time of the offense charged, the defendant was living in adulterous intercourse with the person with whom the offense is alleged to have been committed; that five years have not elapsed since the commencement of such adulterous intercourse was discovered by the plaintiff, and the complaint containing such averments be verified by the oath of the plaintiff in the manner prescribed by the Code, judgment shall not be rendered for the relief demanded until the plaintiff's affidavit be produced stating the above facts.

In an action for a divorce or for the annulment of a marriage, where the defendant fails to answer, no reference shall be granted to take proof of the facts stated in the complaint, but before a judgment shall be granted the proof of such facts must be made to the court in open court and a copy of the evidence taken before the court shall be written out and filed with the judgment roll. The court may, however, in case the evidence is such that the public interest requires that the examination of the witnesses should not be public, exclude all persons from the court room except the parties to the action and their counsel and the witnesses, and shall order such evidence, when filed with the clerk, sealed up and exhibited only to the parties to the action or some one specially interested upon order of the court.

Rule 73. Divorce, judgment by default, when granted.

Before judgment by default shall be granted in an action to annul a marriage on the ground that the party was under the age of legal consent, proof must be made showing that the parties thereto have not freely cohabited for any time as husband and wife, after the plaintiff had attained the age of consent. If the action is brought to annul the marriage, on the ground that the plaintiff's consent was obtained by force or fraud, the plaintiff must show that there has been no voluntary cohabitation between the parties as man and wife; and if it is brought to annul a marriage on the ground that the plaintiff was a lunatic, proof must be produced showing that the lunacy still continues; or that the parties have not cohabited as husband and wife after the plaintiff was restored to his reason.

Rule 74. Divorce, answer in action.

The defendant in the answer may set up the adultery of the plaintiff, or any other matter which would be a bar to a divorce, separation, or the annulling of a marriage contract; and if an issue is taken thereon, it shall be tried at the same time and in the same manner as other issues of fact in the cause.

Rule 75. Legitimacy of children on divorce.

On a complaint filed by a husband for a divorce, if he wishes to question the legitimacy of any of the children of his wife, the allegation that they are or that he believes them to be illegitimate, shall be distinctly made in the complaint. If, upon default, proofs shall be taken upon the question of legitimacy as well as upon the other matters stated in the complaint, and if the issue is tried by a jury, an issue on the question of legitimacy of the children shall be awarded and tried at the same time.

Rule 76. Judgment declaring marriage void, or granting a divorce not to be by default; copy of pleading or testimony not to be furnished; judgment to be entered by court.

No judgment annulling a marriage contract, or granting a divorce, or for a separation or limited divorce, shall be made of course by the default of the defendant; or in the consequence of any neglect to appear at the hearing of the cause, or by consent. Every such case shall be heard after the trial of the issue, or upon the coming in of the proofs at a Special Term of the court; but where no person appears on the part of the defendant, the details of evidence in adultery causes shall not be read in public, but shall be submitted in open court. No officer of any court, with whom the proceedings in an adultery cause are filed, on or before whom the testimony is taken, nor any clerk of such officer, either before or after the termination of this suit, shall permit a copy of any of the pleadings or testimony, or of the substance of the details thereof, to be taken by any other person than a party or the attorney or counsel of a party, who has appeared in the cause, without a special order of the court.

No judgment in an action for a divorce shall be entered except upon the special direction of the court.

Rule 77. Receiver of debtor's estate; powers and duties; costs.

Every receiver of the property and effects of the debtor shall, unless restricted by the special order of the court, have general power and authority to sue for and collect all the debts, demands and rents belonging to such debtor, and to compromise and settle such as are unsafe and of a doubtful character. He may also sue in the name of a debtor, where it is necessary or proper for him to do so; and he may apply for and obtain an order of course that the tenants of any real estate belonging to the debtor, or of which he is entitled to the rents and profits, attorn to such receiver, and pay their rents to him. He shall also be permitted to make leases, from time to time, as may be necessary, for terms not exceeding one year. And it shall be his duty, without any unreasonable delay, to convert all the personal estate and effects into money; but he shall not sell any real estate of the debtor without the special order of the court, until after judgment in the cause. He is not to be allowed for the costs of any suit brought by him against an insolvent from whom he is unable to collect his costs, unless such suit is brought by order of the court, or by the consent of all persons interested in the funds in his hands. But he may, by leave of the court, sell such desperate debts, and all other doubtful claims to personal property, at public auction, giving at least ten days' public notice of the time and place of such sale.

Rule 78. Suits by receiver; costs.

Whenever a receiver, appointed under proceedings supplementary to execution, shall apply for leave to bring an action, he shall present and file with his application the written request of the creditor in whose behalf he was appointed, that such action be brought; or else he shall give a bond with sufficient security and properly acknowledged and approved by the court, to the person against whom the action is to be brought, conditioned for the payment of any costs which may be recovered against such receiver. And leave to bring action shall not be granted except on such written request or on the giving of such security.

In all other cases where a receiver applies to the court for leave to bring an action, he shall show in such application that he has sufficient property in his actual possession to secure the person against whom the action is to be brought for any costs which he may recover against such receiver; otherwise the court may require the receiver to give such bond conditioned for the payment of costs, and with such security as is above mentioned.

Rule 79. Who may be referee, and duties of.

Except in a case provided for by section 1011 of the Code of Civil Procedure, no person, unless he is an attorney of the court in good standing, shall be appointed sole referee for any purpose in any pending action or proceeding. Nor shall any person be appointed a referee who is the partner or clerk of the attorney, or counsel, of the party in whose behalf such application for such appointment is made, or who is in any way connected in business with such attorney or counsel, or who occupies the same office with such attorney or counsel. All moneys received by a referee appointed to sell real property shall be forthwith deposited by the referee in his own name as referee in a bank or trust company authorized to receive on deposit court funds; and if there be no such depository in the city or town in which the referee resides, then he shall deposit such moneys forthwith in a depository located in an adjoining city or town, or with the County Treasurer of the county in which the action or special proceeding is pending; and such moneys so deposited shall not be withdrawn, except as directed by the judgment or order under which the deposit is made or upon the order of the Court. (As amended April 30, 1910 and June 17, 1913.)

The following form has been approved by the justices of the Supreme Court in the First Department.

To comply with the Amended Rules of Practice in foreclosure cases the judgment should contain immediately following the direction to sell and in substitution for the provisions now in use the following provisions:

Under the direction of ....., Esq., who is hereby appointed referee for that purpose; that said referee give public notice of the time and place of such sale according to law and the course and practice of this court; that the plaintiff or any other party to this action may become the purchaser or purchasers on such sale; that said referee execute to the purchaser or purchasers on such sale a deed of the premises sold; that such referee on receiving the proceeds of sale forthwith pay therefrom the taxes, assessments and water rents which are or may become liens on the premises at the time of sale. That said referee then deposit the balances of such proceeds of sale in* ..... and shall thereafter make the following payments, and his checks drawn for that purpose shall be paid by the said depository:

First.—The sum of $50 to the said referee for his fees herein.

Second.—Advertising expenses as shown on the bills presented and certified by the said referee to be correct, and duplicate copies of which shall be left with said depository.

Third.—Said referee shall also pay to the plaintiff the sum of ..... dollars, adjudged to the plaintiff for his costs and disbursements in this action, with interest thereon from the date hereof, together with an additional allowance of ....., dollars hereby awarded to the plaintiff, in addition to costs, with interest thereon from the date thereof; and also ..... dollars, the said amount so reported due as aforesaid, together with the legal interest thereon from the date of said report; or so much thereof as the purchase money of the mortgaged premises will pay of the same.

Fourth.—If such referee intends to apply for a further allowance for his fees, he may leave upon deposit such amount as will cover such additional allowance, to await the further order of the court thereon, after application duly made.

Rule 80. Sequestration of property of corporation; where motion for receiver may be made; removal of receiver.

All motions for the sequestration of the property of corporations, or for the appointment of receivers thereof, must be made in the judicial district in which the principal place of business of said corporations, respectively, is situated, except that in actions brought by the Attorney-General in behalf of the people of this state, when it shall be made to appear that such sequestration is a necessary incident to the action, and that no receiver has already been appointed, a motion for the appointment of one may be made in any county within the judicial district in which such action is triable. No motion can be made, or other proceeding had for the removal of a receiver, elsewhere than in the judicial district in which the order for his appointment was made. And where a receiver has been appointed, his appointment shall be extended to any subsequent suit or proceeding relating to the same estate or property in which a receiver is necessary.

Rule 81. Power of receiver to employ counsel.

No receiver shall have power to employ more than one counsel, except under special circumstances and in particular cases requiring the employment of additional counsel, and in such cases only upon special application to the court, showing such circumstances by his petition or affidavit, and on notice to the party or person on whose behalf or application he was appointed. This rule shall apply to all receivers, present and future; and no allowance shall be made to any receiver for expenses paid, or made, or incurred in violation of this rule.

Rule 82. Examination of a party before trial.

When an examination is required under sections 870, 871, 872 of the Code of Civil Procedure, the affidavit shall specify the facts and circumstances which show, in conformity with subdivision 4 of section 872, that the examination of the person is material and necessary.

Rule 83. Courts may make further rules.

The Appellate Division in each department, and the various courts of record, may make such further rules in regard to the transaction of business before them respectively, not inconsistent with the foregoing rules, as they in their discretion may deem necessary.

Rule 84. Practice in cases not covered by these rules.

In cases where no provision is made by statute or by these rules the proceedings shall be according to the customary practice as it formerly existed in the Court of Chancery or Supreme Court, in cases not provided for by statute or by the written rules of those courts.

Rules 85, 86 GENERAL RULES OF PRACTICE.

Rule 85. Appellate division; announcement of decision; copies; publication.

Before any decision of the Appellate Division of the Supreme Court in any Department in which an opinion is written is announced there shall be furnished to the clerk of the Court a copy of each opinion delivered by the Court and immediately after the announcement of the decision and on the same day the clerk shall transmit such copy or copies so received by him, duly certified as required by section 92 of the Judiciary Law, and a list of all cases decided at the same time to the Supreme Court Reporter, and no decision on any appeal in which an opinion is written shall be announced until a copy of the opinion has been furnished to the clerk as aforesaid. No copy of any opinion in any case decided by the Appellate Division in any Department shall be delivered to any person until after the decision is announced and no copy of such opinion shall be delivered to any person except counsel in the case until after the list of decisions and certified copies of the opinions shall have been transmitted to the Supreme Court Reporter. The Supreme Court Reporter shall publish the opinions of the Appellate Division as soon as practicable without waiting to publish together all the opinions of a particular term or month. (As added June 17, 1913, in effect November 1, 1913.)

Rule 86. Publication of paper in first department; designation of newspapers.

Whenever a notice, summons, citation, order or other paper shall be required by the Code of Civil Procedure or other provision of law, or by the order of any court or a judge thereof, or of a surrogate or of the clerk of a court or any other official or individual, to be published in a newspaper in the First Department, or public notice of any application to a court or judge or other officer shall be required to be given by publication thereof in a newspaper in the First Department, or where any court or a judge thereof or a surrogate or other judicial officer or public officer is authorized or required to designate a newspaper in the First Department for the publication of any such notice, summons, citation, order or other paper, the newspaper designated by any court or judge thereof, or surrogate or other judicial officer or public officer, shall be a newspaper designated by the Appellate Division of the Supreme Court in the First Department as hereinafter provided, and no such publication shall be deemed to give the notice required to be given if the same is published in any newspaper in the First Department which has not been designated by an order of the Appellate Division of the Supreme Court in the First Department; and the publication of such notice, summons, citation, order or other paper in any undesignated newspaper in the First Department shall not be deemed a compliance with any provision of the Code of Civil Procedure or other provision of law or of the order of any court or judge.

The Appellate Division of the Supreme Court in the First Department shall from time to time designate such newspapers in such Department as in its opinion have such a circulation as is calculated to give public notice of a legal publication, and from time to time revoke such designation. To entitle a newspaper to such a designation, it must file with the clerk of the Appellate Division a statement, duly verified, showing approximately the amount of its circulation, the time and place of its regular publication, and a statement of its charges for legal publications. (As added June 17, 1913, in effect November 1, 1913.)

RULES FOR COMPUTING THE VALUE OF THE LIFE ESTATE OR ANNUITY.

Calculate the interest at 5 per cent. for one year upon the sum to the income of which the person is entitled. Multiply this interest by the number of years' purchase set opposite the person's age in the table, and the product is the gross value of the life-estate of such person in said sum.

EXAMPLES.

Suppose a widow's age is 37, and she is entitled to dower in real estate worth \$350.75. One-third of this is \$116.91  $\frac{2}{3}$ . Interest on \$116.91 for one year at 5 per cent. (as fixed by the 70th Rule) is \$5.85. The number of years' purchase which an annuity of \$1 is worth at the age of 37, as appears by the table, is thirteen years and  $\frac{843}{1,000}$  parts of a year, which multiplied by \$5.85, the income for one year, gives \$80.98 and a fraction as the gross value of her right of dower.

Suppose a man whose age is 50 is tenant by the curtesy in the whole of an estate worth $9,000. The annual interest on the sum at 5 per cent. is $450. The number of years' purchase which an annuity of $1 is worth at the age of 50, as per table, is 11.660 parts of a year, which multiplied by $450, the value of one year, gives $5,247 as the gross value of his life estate in the premises, or the proceeds thereof.

NOTE.—The values in this table are calculated on the supposition that the annuities are payable yearly, first payment due one year hence. These values, with those for joint and survivorship life interest, may be found in "Commutation Tables for Joint Annuities and Survivorship Assurances Based on the Carlisle Mortality, by David Chisholm." London, Charles & Edwin Layton, 1858.

RULES OF APPELLATE DIVISION, FIRST DEPARTMENT.

RULES OF THE APPELLATE DIVISION, FIRST DEPARTMENT.

RULE I.

When Court opens.—The Court will open at 2 o'clock and continue until 6 o'clock in the afternoon, unless sooner adjourned; except that on motion days the Court will open at 10:30 o'clock in the forenoon. (Rule I, as amended December 17, 1909.)

RULE II.

Motion days; calendar; ex parte business.—The first and third Fridays succeeding the first and third Mondays of each month, or such other days as shall be designated for hearing appeals from orders by the Appellate Division, shall be motion days. The clerk will make up a calendar for each motion day of all motions noticed to be heard on that day. A note of issue, stating the nature of the motion and the day for which it has been noticed, must be filed with the clerk before 12 o'clock noon on the day preceding the day for which the motion is noticed. The motion calendar will be called by the clerk at 10 o'clock on each motion day, when all motions to be submitted without oral argument must be submitted. Where a motion is to be orally argued the same will be marked ready on the call by the clerk, and will be heard by the Court at 10:30. (Rule II, as amended December 17, 1909.)

RULE III.

Appeals from orders; time allowed; submission.—Appeals from orders will be heard only upon motion days, the calendar of which will be taken up immediately after the disposition of the motion calendar. On the argument of such appeals not more than fifteen minutes will be allowed to each side, except when the Court otherwise orders. Appeals from orders which have been placed upon the calendar may be submitted by the parties, with the approbation of the Court, at any time during the term, upon delivering to and leaving with the clerk the requisite number of printed copies of the points.

RULE IV.

Appeals from orders; return; dismissal; postponement of argument of non-enumerated case by consent.—Appeals from orders may be noticed for argument on any motion day. The appellant or moving party must file with the clerk of the Appellate Division, at least eight days before the day upon which such appeal shall have been noticed, a note of issue, which shall state the day upon which the notice of appeal shall have been served, and nineteen as required by Rule 41 of the General Rules of Practice, with an affidavit showing the service of three printed copies thereof upon the attorney for the respondent, together with a notice of argument of the appeal with admission or proof of service; and the clerk shall thereupon place the appeal upon the calendar for the day upon which such appeal shall have been noticed. If an appeal shall have been noticed for argument by the respondent, and the appellant or other party whose duty it is to file nineteen copies of the papers upon which the appeal is to be heard, printed as required by the General Rules of Practice, shall fail to file the same at least eight days before the day for which such appeal is noticed, the opposite party may move upon affidavit and upon four days' notice of motion that the appeal be dismissed or that judgment be rendered in his favor.

At any time before 3 o'clock of the day preceding the day upon which a non-enumerated case shall have been noticed for argument, or to which the hearing thereof shall have been adjourned, the respective counsel may file a written consent with the clerk that the case may be set down for a subsequent motion day; and cases set down will be added to the calendar of that day at the foot of the cases remaining thereon undisposed of without further notice. (Amended, 1913.)

RULE V.

Calendar of enumerated cases; note of issue; return; dismissal; preferred causes.—The clerk will make up a calendar of enumerated causes for each term of the Court, which shall consist of the enumerated causes upon the calendar of the preceding term undisposed of, to which shall be added new cases which shall have been noticed as hereinafter provided.

The appellant, the plaintiff in a controversy submitted to the Court under section 1279 of the Code of Civil Procedure, the relator in a writ of certiorari, or the moving party in a case to be heard as an enumerated case, shall file with the clerk of the Appellate Division, within the time prescribed by Rule XLI of the General Rules of Practice, a printed copy of the papers upon which the appeal or case is to be heard, duly certified as required by the rule, and nineteen copies of the printed papers upon which the case is to be heard, printed as required by the General Rules of Practice with an admission of service or an affidavit showing the service of three printed copies thereof upon the attorney for the respondent or opposing party. After the printed copies of the papers shall have been duly filed as hereinbefore required, and after the printed copies of the points shall have been filed by the appellant or moving party, as required by Rule VI, either party may notice the case for argument for any day in the term, and upon filing of such notice of argument, with admission or proof of service, with the clerk of the Court, and a note of issue which shall state the day upon which the notice of appeal was served, the clerk shall, upon the day for which the same shall have been noticed, place the case upon the calendar at the foot thereof.

In case the party whose duty it is to file and serve the printed papers, shall fail to file or serve the same, as hereinbefore required, the opposing party may move upon four days' notice that the appeal be dismissed, or that judgment or order be rendered in his favor.

Either party to an appeal which by law is entitled to a preference may serve with the notice of argument a notice that application will be made on the next motion day for an order placing the cause upon the day calendar upon a day named in the notice of motion, and such application will be heard as a motion on the motion day for which the same is noticed. (Amended March, 1911, 1913.)

RULE VI.

Day calendar; points.—Within twenty days after the papers upon which an appeal is to be heard shall have been filed with the clerk of the Court as required by Rule XLI of the General Rules of Practice and by Rule V of these rules, except when the papers are filed in July, August or September, the appellant, plaintiff in a controversy submitted to the Court under section 1279 of the Code of Civil Procedure, the relator in a writ of certiorari, or the moving party in a case to be heard as an enumerated case, shall file with the clerk eighteen printed copies and serve on the attorney for his opponent three printed copies of the points to be relied upon by him, with a reference to the authorities to be cited. When the papers are filed in July, August or September, then the points must be filed and served at least fifteen days before the first Tuesday of October. Within ten days after such service the respondent or defendant shall file with the clerk eighteen printed copies and serve on the attorney for the appellant or moving party three printed copies of the points to be relied upon by him, with a reference to the authorities to be cited. If the appellant or moving party desires to present points or authorities in reply he shall file with the clerk eighteen printed copies and serve three printed copies thereof on the attorney for his opponent within five days after the receipt of his opponent's points. No points shall be received by the Court on the argument or submission of the appeal unless they shall have been filed and served as above provided. At 4 o'clock on each day the clerk will make up a calendar of fifteen enumerated cases for the next day. A case on such day calendar will not be reserved or postponed except by order of the Court upon special cause shown. At any time after the filing of a note of issue in an enumerated cause and before it shall have been placed on the day calendar, a written consent, signed by the attorneys or counsel who are to argue the case, that the appeal be set down for any future day of the term may be filed with the clerk, and such case shall be placed on the day calendar for such day at the end of the cases remaining thereon undisposed of in the order upon which they have been set down, provided that no more than fifteen cases shall be placed on any day calendar, and provided that such case would have been reached on the general calendar if not so set down. If an appellant or moving party is in default in filing and serving the points hereinbefore required, the opposing party may move upon four days' notice to dismiss the appeal or for final judgment or final order, as the case requires. If the respondent is in default in filing and serving the points hereinbefore required he will not be heard except by special leave of the Court. (Rule VI, as amended March 23, 1911.)

RULE VII.

Submission on points.—In any case in which the printed copies of the papers upon which an appeal is to be heard shall have been filed with the clerk of the Appellate Division, as required by Rule 41 of the General Rules of Practice, and the printed copies of the points filed with the clerk, as required by Rule 6 of the Rules of the Appellate Division for the First Department, either party may, by a written stipulation filed with the clerk, submit the appeal upon the printed papers and points filed as aforesaid.

RULE VIII.

Motions for reargument.—Motions for reargument must be noticed for the first, second or third motion days after the appeal has been decided. Such motions will only be heard on notice to the adverse party, stating briefly the grounds upon which a reargument is asked; and such motion must be submitted on printed briefs stating concisely the points supposed to have been overlooked or misapprehended by the Court, and with proper reference to the particular portion of the case and the authorities relied upon, and a printed copy of the opinion, and counsel will not be heard orally. (Rule VIII, as amended December 17, 1909.)

RULE IX.

When supplemental brief may be submitted; counsel having cases on same day calendar in first and second departments.—No brief or memorandum of authorities will be received by the Court after the argument of a motion or an appeal, unless permission be given by the Court for its submission after notice to opposing counsel of the application for such permission.

In the event of counsel having cases upon the day calendars of the Appellate Divisions of the First and Second Departments on the same day, such counsel shall attend the Court in that department in which his case stands nearest the head of such day calendar; and his case upon the calendar of the other department will be held until the argument of the case is finished in the department in which he is first required to attend. In the event of counsel having cases upon each of the day calendars of the said departments upon the same day, which stand equally distant from the heads of the respective day calendars, such counsel shall attend Court in the First Department.

RULE X.

Appeals from City Court and Municipal Court.—Applications "to a justice of the Appellate Division of the First Judicial Department," under section 1344 of the Code of Civil Procedure, for the allowance of an appeal to be taken to such Appellate Division from the determination of the justices designated to hear appeals from the City Court of the city of New York and the Municipal Courts of the Boroughs of Manhattan and the Bronx, may be made upon any motion day within two months after such determination, unless the determination is made within two months of the last motion day prior to the first day of July, in which case they may be made on the first motion day in the October term; and must be upon notice of two days to the opposite party or parties, and a note of issue filed, and the same put upon the calendar of motions in the manner provided by Rule II of the Appellate Division rules relating to the hearing of motions.

The papers upon which such application is made must contain a copy of the opinion of the justices below, if any; a copy of the printed record in the court below, if any; a concise statement of the grounds of alleged error, and proof of due service of the papers upon which the application is founded. Upon the calling of the motion calendar, such applications must be submitted without argument. Such applications will not be entertained unless an application for leave to appeal has first been made to the justices by whom such determination was made, in the manner provided by Rule VII for the regulation of the hearing of appeals from the City Court of the city of New York and the Municipal Courts of the boroughs of Manhattan and the Bronx, and has been denied. (Amended December, 1909, 1913.)

RULE XI.

Applications for admission to practice.—Every application for admission to practice as an attorney and counsellor-at-law under Rule 2 of the Rules of the Court of Appeals for the admission of attorneys and counsellors-at-law shall, in addition to the proof required by said rule and by Rule 1 of the General Rules of Practice, present to the Court proof of the qualifications required for the admission of an attorney and counsellor-at-law in the State in which he had been admitted and had practiced, and the nature of the examination required of an applicant for admission to practice as an attorney and counsellor-at-law in such State.

Every application for admission to practice under Rule 2 of the Rules of the Court of Appeals for the admission of attorneys and counsellors-at-law shall be referred to the Committee on Character, who shall report to the Court upon the character of the applicant and his qualifications to be admitted to practice in the Courts of this State, and no person will be admitted to practice on such an application until after the Committee on Character shall have made its report. (Rule XI, amended December 28, 1910.)

Non-enumerated motions.—Appeals from orders may be noticed for argument for any motion day at 10:30 o'clock A. M. Nineteen copies of the appeal papers must be delivered to the clerk with the note of issue, etc., at least eight days before the day for which the appeal shall have been noticed for argument. Nineteen copies of the points in cases upon the Day Calendar of non-enumerated motions shall be delivered to the clerk in his office before 10:30 A. M., and, before the argument, to the opposing counsel three copies.

APPELLATE DIVISION — SUPREME COURT — ELECTION CASES.

The justices of the Appellate Division of the Supreme Court in the First Judicial Department do hereby make and establish the following rules to promote the efficient administration of justice in relation to the hearing and determination of any questions arising under the Election Law (chapter 909 of the Laws of 1896, and the amendments thereto):

Rule 1. All applications to the Supreme Court or a justice thereof to review the determination and acts of the election officers under section 56 of the Election Law (chapter 909 of the Laws of 1896, as amended); all applications for a writ of mandamus under section 114 of the said Election Law, and all other applications to the Supreme Court or a justice thereof under any of the other provisions of the said Election Law, shall be made to Special Term, Part I of the Supreme Court of the First Judicial District. The justice assigned to such term may hear and determine any such proceeding or may assign any such proceedings to the other parts of the Special Term for hearing and decision, and such application shall have precedence over all other business at any part of the Special Term. The final order determining such special proceeding should in each case state the facts found by the Special Term upon which the determination is made and the determination of the Court upon the facts thus stated.

Rule 2. Appeal from any final order entered in a proceeding specified in Rule 1 shall be brought on for hearing at such time on such day as the Appellate Division shall designate by an order which will be granted on the application of any party to such a special proceeding.

RULES OF THE APPELLATE DIVISION, SECOND DEPARTMENT.

Relating to the Calendar, Admission of Attorneys and Naturalization.

ENUMERATED CALENDAR.

Seventeen (17) copies of the case must be delivered to the Clerk before the commencement of the argument.

The appellant's brief and points in a cause which is on the printed calendar shall be filed with the clerk and shall be served on the attorney for the respondent at least five (5) days before the first day of the term. The appellant shall file with the clerk seventeen (17) printed copies and serve on the attorney for the respondent three (3) printed copies of his said brief and points. Within five (5) days after such service the respondent shall file with the clerk seventeen (17) printed copies and serve on the attorney for the appellant three (3) printed copies of his brief and points. If the appellant desires to present brief or points in reply, he shall file with the clerk seventeen (17) printed copies thereof and serve three (3) printed copies thereof on the attorney for the respondent within three (3) days after the receipt of the respondent's points.

When, according to this rule, an appellant is in default, the appeal may, without previous notice, be dismissed on motion when the cause is reached for argument: and when a respondent is in default, he will not be heard except by leave of the Court.

This rule shall not apply to appeals from orders.

NON-ENUMERATED CALENDAR.

Seventeen (17) copies of the appeal papers and points must be delivered to the clerk before the commencement of the argument.

*Attention is called to General Rule 41,* as printed in this Calendar, and to the special rule in connection therewith. If this Rule is not strictly complied with, such causes as are therein referred to cannot be placed upon the Calendar.*

Special Rule.

When a motion is made to dismiss an appeal for want of prosecution or other neglect, the party desiring to oppose such a motion, in addition to affidavits stating facts excusing the delay, must also submit affidavits stating concisely the facts out of which the controversy arose and the questions of law and fact involved in the said appeal, and showing that the appeal is a meritorious one.

Attention is called to section 1353, Code of Civil Procedure.

CALENDAR PRACTICE.

RULE I.

Appeals from orders.—Appeals from orders, heard as non-enumerated motions, will be placed upon a separate calendar and called upon the first day of the term.

RULE II.

Calendars.—A new calendar will be made up for the January term. Calendars for subsequent terms during the year will be made up by adding to the calendar of the previous term all new appeals to be placed in regular order, according to the date of appeal on compliance with the requirements hereinbefore prescribed. An appeal passed during any term may be brought on for argument on any day during the first week of a subsequent term upon stipulation, or upon four days' notice to the opposing party and on filing with the clerk such stipulation or proof of service of such notice, the clerk will cause the appeal to be placed on the Day Calendar of the day named in such notice or stipulation.

* General Rule 41 not printed here. See ante p. 92

RULES OF THE APPELLATE DIVISION.

RULE III.

Appeals from orders; when heard.—Appeals from orders will also be heard on the third Monday of each term, and notices of argument may be given for such day, and the calendar for such day will consist of causes not called on the first Monday, and other causes in which the appeal-papers and affidavit of service thereof have been filed with the clerk, as required by section 1353 of the Code of Civil Procedure and the General Rules of Practice.

RULE IV.

Day calendar of non-enumerated causes.—Non-enumerated causes will be placed upon the Day Calendar for the first Monday and second Friday of the term, and the hearing of such causes will continue from day to day until completed. The calendar for other days will consist of as many causes as shall be placed thereon from the general Calendar in their numerical order.

RULE V.

Reservation of causes.—Causes can be reserved by consent for a day subsequent to the time when they would be reached in their order, but not, however, later than the first week of the term. A stipulation for reservation must be filed with the clerk before the Day Calendar is made up (1 o'clock P. M.).

RULE VI.

Motions.—Motions other than appeals from orders, will be heard on the first Monday and second Friday of the term, and notes of issue therefor must be filed with the clerk at least two days before the day for which they are noticed.

RULE VII.

Notes of issue in appeals from orders.—No appeal from an order will be heard unless it is placed on the Non-Enumerated Calendar. The attorney or party intending to move such an appeal for argument shall at least eight days before the time of the making up of the calendar, file with the clerk a note of issue, specifying the date of the service of the notice of appeal and stating that the cause is to be put on the Non-Enumerated Calendar. No cause shall be put on the Enumerated or Non-Enumerated Calendar until the papers required by General Rule 41 shall have been filed with the clerk.

RULE VIII.

Notes of issue in preferred causes.—A party who desires to have a cause heard as a preferred cause, must, in his note of issue, state his claim for preference, as provided in section 793 of the Code; or if an order giving the cause a preference has been made under that section, the note of issue must be accompanied with a copy of such order. The clerk, in making up the calendar, shall place such preferred causes at the head of the general calendar, indicating that they are preferred, and that class to which they belong.

SECOND DEPARTMENT.

RULE IX.

Criminal causes may be put upon the calendar at any time.—Appeals in criminal causes, brought after making up the calendar, or too late to be placed upon the calendar, may be put upon the calendar at any time, and brought on for hearing as preferred causes, upon a notice of ten days to the adverse party, as provided in section 535 of the Criminal Code. A note of issue must be filed with the clerk at least five days before the day on which the cause is to be heard, and he shall put the same upon the calendar for the day on which it shall be noticed, or upon which it shall be ordered by the Court, or stipulated by the parties to be heard.

RULE X.

Endorsement on brief.—In order to facilitate the work of the reporter the counsel who argues the cause orally shall endorse his name on upper right hand corner of first page of brief.

RULE XI.

Motions for re-argument.—Motions for re-argument will be heard only on notice to the adverse party, stating briefly the ground upon which a re-argument is asked, and such motions must be submitted upon printed briefs, stating concisely the points supposed to have been overlooked or misapprehended by the Court, with proper reference to the particular portion of the case and the authorities relied on; and a copy of the opinion delivered by the Court in deciding the cause; and counsel will not be heard orally.

RULE XII.

Statute cited in brief—When a statute is cited, so much thereof as may be deemed necessary to the decision of the case should be printed at length on the brief.

RULE XIII.

Costs.—The general rule will prevail of imposing costs on the decision of motions.

Attention is called to section 1355, Code of Civil Procedure, Remittitur.—The remittitur to be transmitted pursuant to section 1355 of the Code shall contain a copy of the judgment order of this court, and the record which has been filed with the clerk, and shall be sealed with the seal and signed by the clerk of this court.

RULES RELATING TO THE ADMISSION OF ATTORNEYS IN THE SECOND DEPARTMENT.

Notice of the time of application for admission as attorneys by those who have passed the examination prescribed by the rules of the Court of Appeals, will be published in the "Law Journal,"

RULES OF THE APPELLATE DIVISION.

at which time applicants must file with the clerk the papers enumerated in Rule I of the General Rules of Practice, and appear personally before the Committee on Character to furnish such information as the committee may desire from them.

RULES REGULATING THE PROCEDURE UPON APPLICATIONS FOR NATURALIZATION IN THE SUPREME COURT IN THE SECOND DEPARTMENT.

All applications of aliens to become citizens of the United States must be heard at the various Special Terms as directed and indicated in the assignment of Justices for holding such terms.

If the applicant fail to appear at the time and place specified in such application, the application will be dismissed without prejudice to a fresh application.

If he appear and for any reason the hearing is not completed upon the stated day aforesaid, the Court may complete such hearing and take final action upon any subsequent day to which the matter shall be publicly adjourned by the direction of the Justice presiding.

(Amended December 10, 1909.)

WHEN COUNSEL HAVE CASES ON SAME DAY IN FIRST AND SECOND DEPARTMENTS.

In the event of counsel having cases upon the day calendars of the Appellate Divisions of the First and Second Departments on the same day, such counsel shall attend the Court in that Department in which his case stands nearest the head of such day calendar; and his case upon the calendar of the other Department will be held until the argument of the case is finished in the Department in which he is first required to attend.

In the event of counsel having cases upon each of the day calendars of the said Departments upon the same day, which stand equally distant from the heads of the respective day calendars, such counsel shall attend Court in the First Department.

RULE I.

All bonds executed by individual sureties in accordance with the provisions of section 9 of chapter 444 of the Laws of 1908, and the Rules of the Court of Appeals adopted pursuant thereto, must contain a statement of the place of residence of each surety, giving the street and the number thereof, if such residence is so known and designated, and in addition to the facts required by the Rules of the Court of Appeals to be stated in the affidavit of justification, each surety must specifically state what property is owned by him, giving a brief description thereof, and also state the value of the same and what, if any, liens or encumbrances there are on such property, with a brief description of the nature and amount of such lien. (Adopted March 4, 1909.)

THIRD DEPARTMENT.

SPECIAL RULE FOR APPLICATIONS FOR LEAVE TO APPEAL TO THIS COURT.

Applications to a justice of the Appellate Division of the Second Judicial Department, under section 1344 of the Code of Civil Procedure, for the allowance of an appeal to be taken to such Appellate Division from the determination of the justices designated to hear appeals from the Municipal Courts of the Boroughs of Brooklyn, Queens and Richmond, may be made upon any motion day within two months after such determination, unless the determination is made within two months of the last motion day prior to the first day of July, in which case they may be made on the first motion day in the September term, and must be upon notice of two days to the opposite party or parties, and a note of issue filed, and the same put upon the calendar of motions in the manner provided by Rule VI of Calendar Practice Rules of the Appellate Division of the Second Judicial Department relating to the hearing of motions.

The papers upon which such application is made must contain a copy of the opinion of the justices below, if any; a copy of the record in the court below, a concise statement of the grounds of alleged error, and proof of due service of the papers upon which the application is founded. Upon the calling of the Motion Calendar such applications must be submitted without argument. Before such application can be entertained it must first have been made to the justices by whom the determination was made, in the manner provided by Rule IX of the Appellate Term of the Supreme Court in the Second Judicial Department, and have been by them denied. If the appeal be allowed the papers must be printed and placed upon the calendar as provided by Rule 41 of the General Rules of Practice.

(Added December 11, 1914.)

RULES OF THE APPELLATE DIVISION, THIRD DEPARTMENT.

RULE I.

Appeals from orders and compensation appeals.—Appeals from orders shall be put upon the non-enumerated calendar. Appeals in compensation cases shall be put upon the compensation appeals calendar immediately following the non-enumerated calendar. The argument of both such classes of cases will be heard only upon the first day of a term and the days immediately following, until they shall all be disposed of, before the general calendar shall be taken up. But submission of such appeals will be received on any day during the term.

Appeals from orders and compensation appeals which are not upon the calendar when printed, may, after papers have been filed and served in compliance with General Rule No. 41, be added thereto upon filing a note of issue with the clerk five days before argument, and be noticed for argument for any Tuesday of the term upon the usual notice of eight days.

The argument of a case on the general calendar will not be required in any case before Wednesday of the first week.
(Amended, 1916.)

RULES OF THE APPELLATE DIVISION.

RULE II.

Original motions.—Original motions in this court may be noticed for the first day of a term, or for the Tuesday of any subsequent week of the term. (Amended, 1916.)

RULE III.

Preferred causes.—A party who desires to have a cause heard as a preferred cause must in his note of issue state his claim for preference as provided in section 793 of the Code, or if an order giving the cause a preference has been made under that section, the note of issue must be accompanied with a copy of such order. The clerk, in making up the calendar, shall place such preferred causes at the head of the general calendar, indicating that they are preferred, and the class to which they belong.

RULE IV.

Appeals in criminal cases.—Appeals in criminal cases, brought after making up the calendar, or too late to be placed thereon, may be put upon the calendar at any time and brought to a hearing as preferred cases upon a notice of ten days to the adverse party, as provided by section 535 of the Criminal Code. A note of issue, with a statement of the day on which the case is noticed to be heard, must be filed with the clerk at least five days before such date. The clerk shall place such causes on the calendar for the day for which they are so noticed, or upon which the cause shall be ordered by the Court, or stipulated by the parties to be heard.

RULE V.

Day calendar.—The clerk shall prepare at 1 o'clock P. M. of each day for the next day a calendar of such number of causes as the Court shall direct, including those undisposed of on the then day calendar, taken from the general calendar in their order thereon, subject to the provisions of Rule 6. Causes not disposed of on any day shall be placed at the head of the calendar for the next day until disposed of.

RULE VI.

Day calendar; how made up; when cause passed.—Excepting the first twenty causes on the general calendar, no cause shall be placed upon the day calendar unless written notice is served on the clerk, by the attorney on one side or the other, that such cause is intended to be moved when called in its regular order, or unless it has been reserved for that day, by stipulation filed with the clerk. None of the first twenty causes on the general calendar shall be reserved by stipulation without consent of the court, upon application made on the first day of the term, and any cause not placed on the day calendar in its order on the general calendar, will be regarded as passed for the term unless put over, or reserved as above provided.

THIRD DEPARTMENT.

RULE VII.

Exchange of cases.—Causes must be argued when reached on the calendar. No exchange of cases will be allowed, unless both cases are ready for argument, and counsel intend to argue them at the same term at which the exchange be made, and when causes are exchanged each shall occupy the proper position of the other in date, on the same and every other subsequent calendar, until heard. A preferred cause exchanged for one not preferred, or set down for a particular day, shall lose its preference; and no case will be called more than once during the same term; unless it shall have been reserved or postponed with the consent of the Court.

RULE VIII.

Submission.—If both parties desire to submit, they may do so at any time during the term by delivering to the clerk the cases and points required by General Rule 43, and either party may submit his points when the case is called, if the other party desires to argue orally on his part.

RULE IX.

Papers, etc., to be included in points.—The appellant, in addition to the statement required by Rule 41, shall prefix to his points a brief statement, showing in what court or before what officer or tribunal the action or proceeding was instituted, the relief sought, the defense or ground of opposition thereto, the result in the court or before the officer or tribunal in which the action or proceeding was commenced, and how the cause was brought into this Court. If any opinion written in the case has been previously reported, he shall also state where it was so reported. If any opinion has been written which has not been reported, the party whose duty it is to furnish the papers shall submit a printed copy of such opinion to the Court either in the record or with his brief.

RULE X.

Indorsement of papers.—The counsel who argue a case shall indorse on the papers delivered to the justices their names and places of residence.

Every cause shall be deemed to be submitted to any justice, qualified to sit therein, who may be absent at the time of the argument, unless objection to such submission by counsel arguing such cause be then made.

RULE XI.

Motions for reargument.—Motions for reargument will only be heard on notice to the adverse party, stating briefly the ground upon which a reargument is asked, and such motion must be submitted on printed briefs stating concisely the points supposed to have been overlooked or misapprehended by the Court with proper reference to the particular portion of the case, and the authorities relied upon.

RULES OF THE APPELLATE DIVISION.

RULE XII.

Cause passed; how entered on subsequent calendars.—If a cause is passed without being reserved, or put over by consent of the Court, it shall be entered on all subsequent calendars as of the date when passed, and the party placing it on the calendar for a subsequent term, must state in his note of issue the date when it was passed. If he omits to do so, whereby the cause retains its priority on the calendar, the Court, on the application of the adverse party, or on its own motion, may strike the cause from the calendar.

RULE XIII.

Term of Supreme Court designated to be held on holiday.—Whenever a Trial Term or Special Term of the Supreme Court, in this department, shall be designated to be held or opened on a day which is provided by law to be observed as a legal holiday, such Court shall be opened and held on the next succeeding secular day.

RULE XIV.

Copies of briefs.—At least twenty days before a term of the Appellate Division at which a cause may be noticed for argument, the appellant, or relator, shall serve upon the attorney for the respondent three printed copies of his brief upon which he intends to rely upon the argument, with a reference to all the authorities which he intends to cite to the Court. At least eight days before said term the respondent shall serve upon the attorney for the appellant, or relator, three printed copies of his brief with a reference to all the authorities which he intends to cite to the Court. If the appellant, or relator, desires to present a brief in reply he may serve the same upon the attorney for the respondent at least three days before said term. Service under this rule may be made either personally or by mail, but service by mail shall not extend the time within which the answering brief may be served. This rule shall not apply to appeals from orders upon non-enumerated motions, nor to causes in which the time to file papers on appeal shall, under General Rule 41, expire within twenty days of the commencement of a term.

RULE XV.

Application of candidates for admission to the Bar.—Candidates for admission to the Bar may be sworn in at the opening of the Court on any Thursday of the term, providing the necessary papers therefor shall have been filed with the clerk of the Court on or before the Tuesday preceding.

An applicant for admission must present a certificate to this Court signed by two members of the Committee on Character and Fitness before one of whom he must appear personally. At the time of such appearance he must present to such member of the committee his certificate of the State Board of Law Examiners, and the affidavits of two practicing attorneys residing in the same Judicial District, as provided by Rule 1 of the General Rules of Practice. Such certificate of the Committee on Character and

THIRD DEPARTMENT.

Fitness, together with the certificate of the State Board of Law Examiners, and the affidavits as to character and fitness, shall be filed with the clerk of this Court.

NOTE.—The Trial Justices of this Department constitute the Committee on Character and Fitness for their respective Judicial Districts.

RULE XVI.

Appeal; case; resettlement; omission of evidence.—By General Rule 34, as amended, said amendment taking effect November 1, 1913, it is provided that “if a case or bill of exceptions does not conform to this rule the Court before which the same shall be brought for review may order the same back for resettlement.” In accordance with the discretionary power thereby vested in the different departments, the Appellate Division of the Third Department announces that a case, brought before said Appellate Division on appeal, will not be ordered back for resettlement where, upon the approval of the Trial Judge or Referee, evidence is omitted bearing upon any issue of fact the determination of which issue of fact the appellant stipulates, upon serving a proposed case, he will not seek to review upon the appeal.

TO ATTORNEYS.

A printed copy of the Appeal Papers shall be filed in the office of the Clerk of the Appellate Division within twenty days after an Appeal has been taken, etc. The copy so filed shall be certified by the proper clerk, or be stipulated by the parties to be true copies of the original. (Rule 41, General Rules of Practice.)

This shall be done before an Appeal shall be placed upon the Calendar. (Sec. 1353, Code Civ. Pro.)

Attorneys should also notice that Rule 41 requires three copies of the Appeal Papers to be served within the same time upon the opposite party.

Notes of issue shall be filed in the Clerk's office eight days before the commencement of the court at which the cause may be noticed. (Rule 39, General Rules of Practice.)

Notes of issue shall specify whether the Appeal is to be placed upon the non-enumerated or general calendar, and where a preference is desired, the note of issue must state the claim for preference as provided in section 793 of the Code, and indicate the class to which it belongs. (Rules 1 and 3, Third Dept.)

Attention is also called to Special Rule 6 of this department, requiring notice to the clerk if a party desires the case put upon the Day Calendar when reached in its order upon the General Calendar.

Thirteen (13) copies of the Appeal Papers and points must be delivered to the Clerk before the commencement of the argument.

CALENDAR RULES.

RULE I.

Notes of issue in appeals from orders.—No appeal from an order will be heard unless it is placed on the non-enumerated calendar. The attorney or party intending to move such an appeal for argument shall, at least eight days before the time of the making up of the calendar, file with the clerk a note of issue, specifying the date of the service of the notice of appeal, and stating that the case is to be put on the non-enumerated calendar. No case shall be put upon the enumerated or non-enumerated calendar until the papers required by General Rule 41 shall have been filed with the clerk.

RULE II.

Notes of issue in preferred cases.—A party who desires to have a case heard as a preferred case, must, in his note of issue, state his claim for preference, as provided in section 793 of the Code; or if an order giving the case a preference has been made under that section, the note of issue must be accompanied with a copy of such order. The clerk in making up the calendar shall place such preferred cases at the head of the general calendar, indicating that they are preferred, and the class to which they belong.

RULE III.

New calendar, when to be made; passed cases.—When a new calendar is ordered by the Court, the Clerk shall place thereon all cases which remain undisposed of on the former calendar, and all other cases in which notes of issue have been filed in his office. If a case shall have been passed, it shall go upon the calendar as of the time when it was passed, and the fact that it was passed shall be stated upon the calendar.

RULE IV.

Criminal cases may be put upon the calendar at any time.—Appeals in criminal cases, brought after making up the calendar, or too late to be placed upon the calendar, may be put upon the calendar at any time, and brought on for hearing as preferred cases, upon a notice of ten days to the adverse party, as provided in section 535 of the Criminal Code. A note of issue must be filed with the clerk at least five days before the day on which the case is to be heard, and he shall put the same on the calendar for the day on which it shall be noticed, or upon which it shall be ordered by the Court, or stipulated by the parties to be heard.

FOURTH DEPARTMENT.

RULE V.

Day calendar to be made by clerk.—The clerk shall prepare at 3 o'clock P. M. of each day, a day calendar for the next day, to consist of ten cases, or such other number as the Court shall direct, including those undisposed of on the then day calendar. They shall be taken from the general calendar in their order thereon, subject to the provisions of Rule Six. Cases not disposed of on any day shall be placed at the head of the calendar for the next day, until disposed of.

RULE VI.

Notice to clerk no longer necessary, etc.—It shall not be necessary to notice cases for the day calendar. Any case on the general calendar may, by stipulation of the parties, filed with the clerk at any time before the case is placed upon the day calendar, be reserved for a day certain, except that no stipulation shall be made or filed reserving any of the first fifty cases on the general calendar beyond the first week. Cases so reserved for a day certain shall not be placed upon the day calendar for any day prior to that to which they have been so reserved. No case shall be put upon the day calendar unless the papers and points have been delivered to and filed with the clerk. Cases which cannot be placed upon the day calendar in their regular order or at the time to which they have been reserved by reason of the non-filing of the papers and points, will be regarded as passed for the term.

RULE VII.

Clerk to telegraph day calendar.—The clerk shall on each day during the term, immediately on making up the day calendar, telegraph the numbers of the cases upon it to the county clerks at Buffalo, Syracuse, Utica, Oswego, Lockport, Auburn and Watertown, and the county clerks receiving said telegrams are directed to post or bulletin the same in such manner as shall be most convenient for attorneys and others desiring to see the same, and also to procure the publication of such telegrams in the newspapers of their respective cities.

RULE VIII.

Reservations and submissions.—Cases will not be received upon submission until reached in the regular call of the calendar. No reservation will be made of any of the first eight cases upon the general calendar unless on account of sickness, or an engagement of counsel elsewhere in the actual trial or argument of another case in a court of record, commenced before the term of this Court, or other inevitable necessity to be shown by affidavit. Other cases may be reserved upon reasonable cause shown, or by stipulation of parties, filed with the clerk, but no case shall be so reserved by stipulation after the same has been placed upon the day calendar.

Cases reserved for a day certain by stipulation, when in order to be called, have priority among each other according to their number on the calendar, and shall follow next in order the undis-posed of cases of the calendar for the day previous. Default may be taken in them, and they will, if passed, be put upon future calendars as if passed in the regular call.

Every cause shall be deemed to be submitted to such justices as may be absent from the Court at the time of the argument, unless objection to such submission by counsel arguing the cause be then made.

RULE IX.

Papers to be filed with the clerk and exchange of briefs.—Within fifteen days after the service of the printed papers required to be served by General Rule 41 in enumerated motions, the party whose duty it is to furnish those papers shall file with the clerk sixteen printed copies of the papers and sixteen printed copies of his brief and the points upon which he intends to rely upon the argument, with a reference to all the authorities which he intends to cite to the Court; and shall, at the same time, serve on the attorney or counsel for the other party three copies thereof. Within seven days thereafter the other party shall file with the clerk sixteen printed copies of his brief and points, with a reference to all his authorities, and serve on the attorney or counsel for the moving party, three printed copies thereof. If either party shall fail to serve and file his brief and points, as herein required, he shall not be heard upon the argument, and judgment may be entered against him, as upon default, on application to the Court on any motion day upon three days' notice.

If the moving party desires to serve an answering brief, he shall file with the clerk sixteen printed copies thereof, and serve upon his opponent three printed copies, within five days after the receipt of his opponent's brief. He shall not include in his answering brief, any matter which is not in the nature of an answer to the brief to which it purports to reply. No supplemental briefs will be allowed unless requested by the Court. This rule shall not apply to appeals from non-enumerated motions. It shall apply to all cases which shall be put upon the day calendar upon and after the first day of March, 1896. Upon the argument of all cases before that time, the moving parties shall furnish to the clerk sixteen copies of the case, and each party shall furnish to the clerk sixteen copies of his brief. The clerk shall distribute the cases and briefs as prescribed in General Rule 43, and he shall, in addition, deliver one copy of each to the Librarian of the Law Library in Buffalo, Rochester and Syracuse, to be bound and indexed for reference.

RULE X.

Statement to be prefixed to brief.—The moving party, in addition to the statement required in General Rule 41, shall prefix to his points a brief statement, showing when and in what court or before what officer or tribunal the action or proceeding was instituted, the relief sought, the defense or grounds of opposition thereto, the result in the court or before the officer or tribunal in which the action or proceeding was commenced, the proceedings subsequent to the first decision, and how the case was brought into this Court. If any opinion written in the case has been previously reported, he shall also state where it was so reported. If any opinion has been written which has not been reported, the party whose duty it is to furnish the papers shall submit a printed copy of such opinion to the Court, in the record.

RULE XI.

Indorsement on brief.—The counsel who argues the case shall indorse on his brief, delivered to the judges, his name and place of residence.

RULE XII.

Exchange of cases.—No exchange of cases will be allowed unless both cases are ready for argument, and counsel intend to argue them at the same term at which the exchange is made; and when cases are exchanged, each shall occupy the proper position of the other in date, on the same and every subsequent calendar, until heard. A preferred case exchanged for one not preferred, or set down for a particular day, shall lose its preference, and no case will be called more than once during the same term, unless it shall have been reserved or postponed with the consent of the Court.

RULE XIII.

Non-enumerated calendar to be disposed of at opening of term.—Argument of appeals on the non-enumerated calendar will be heard only upon the first day of a term and the hearing of such appeals will be continued from day to day until they shall all be disposed of before the general calendar shall be taken up, but submission of appeals from the non-enumerated calendar will be received on any day during the term. Original motions in this Court may be noticed for the first day of a term or for the Friday of any subsequent week of the term. (Amended May 20, 1912.)

RULE XIV.

Motions for reargument and leave to appeal.—Motions for reargument or for leave to appeal to the Court of Appeals will be heard only on notice to the adverse party, stating briefly the ground upon which a reargument is asked, or upon which leave to appeal is desired, and such motions may be submitted upon five copies of printed or typewritten papers and briefs, stating concisely the points supposed to have been overlooked or misapprehended by the Court, or the questions of law sought to be reviewed upon appeal to the Court of Appeals, with proper reference to the particular portion of the case and the authorities relied upon, with a copy of the opinion, if any, delivered by the court in deciding the case. Oral argument on such motions will not be heard, and it is unnecessary for counsel to appear on such motions. They may be submitted by mailing paper to the clerk. (Amended, 1913.)

RULES OF THE APPELLATE DIVISION.

RULE XV.

Remittitur.—The remittitur to be transmitted pursuant to section 1355 of the Code shall contain a copy of the judgment or order of this court, and the record which has been filed with the clerk, and shall be sealed with the seal and signed by the clerk of this court.

RULE XVI.

Official examiners of title.—An official examiner of title, before he is licensed and admitted to practice as such, must file the bond required by Rule 3 of the Rules of the Court of Appeals relating to applications to practice as official examiners of title, approved by the presiding justice of the Appellate Division of the Supreme Court in this department. In case of the death or insolvency of either of the sureties, the official examiner of title must forthwith file a new bond with new sureties fully complying with said rule. Each applicant for a license as an official examiner of title must also produce such evidence of character and as to the standing in regard to financial transactions as the Appellate Division of this department may require. (Adopted May 27, 1909.)

RULE XVII.

Calendar.—A new calendar will be made up for the January Term. Cases not upon the printed calendar may thereafter be noticed for argument for any day of the term, and may be added to the calendar, after the printed records have been filed, upon filing with the clerk a note of issue and proof of service of notice of argument; and will be placed upon the day calendar when reached in their regular order; but no case will be placed upon the day calendar until the briefs have been filed, without special order of the court. (In effect January 1, 1916.)

RULE XVIII.

Dismissal of appeal; failure to serve case.—After an appeal has been taken to this court the appeal may be dismissed on motion upon notice of three days for failure by appellant to make, or serve, his proposed case, or to procure the settlement thereof, or to print, serve and file the record, or to serve and file his points, or for any other unreasonable delay upon his part in prosecuting the appeal. If the respondent fails to serve or file his points within the time allowed therefor, the appellant may serve upon respondent a written demand that the respondent file and serve his points, and upon filing proof of service of such demand and showing that three days have elapsed since such service, and that the respondent has not served and filed his brief, the case may be placed upon the day calendar when reached in its regular order, and the respondent shall not be heard upon the argument of the appeal except by leave of the Court. (In effect January 1, 1916.)

NOTICE.

Index all records on Appeal in front part of Case.

The daily sessions of the Court are held from 2 o'clock P. M. to 6 o'clock P. M., except Fridays only, when Court sits from 10 A. M. to 1 P. M. No Court on Saturdays.

The session appointed for July is for one day only, and Court meets at 2 P. M. on that day, for handing down decisions, admissions of attorneys, and the hearing of original motions in this Court. No argument of an appeal will be heard on that day.

Counsel will be heard orally on motions to dismiss appeals, amend decisions, etc.

All stipulations, notes of issue, and motion papers must be properly endorsed on the back for filing.

No stipulation reserving any of the first fifty cases on the general calendar beyond the first Friday will be honored except by order of the Court. After the day calendar is made up — at 3 o'clock P. M. — stipulations in any case are too late. The clerk has then no power to leave a number off.

No case will be given a place on the calendar until the original record, settled by the trial court, has been filed with the clerk.

The full number of cases and points (16) are required, without which appeals may not be heard.

The sixteen printed copies of the case required by Rule 41 to be filed with the clerk, must be bound in light-colored (not dark) paper.

The county clerk's certificate, or waiver thereof under section 3301 of the Code of Civil Procedure, is a necessary part of the printed case on appeal.

Counsel whose names appear in the calendar will be notified by telegram collect, when case is on day calendar, unless otherwise desired.

Every exhibit presented to the Court must be plainly marked with the address of counsel presenting the same, as well as the title of the cause, in order to ensure its return.

Decisions of the Court are handed on Wednesdays at 2 P. M. when the Court is in session, and on the Tuesday appointed in July.

RULES OF THE APPELLATE DIVISION.

Attorneys desiring to be notified by telegram collect, of any decision should so request the clerk.

Remittiturs are sent on the day the decision is made, or the day following, to the county clerk of the county in which the appeal arises, except in appeals from Surrogate's Court, when they are sent to the clerk of the Surrogate's Court.

Request for copies of opinions should be addressed to the clerk of the Justice writing the opinion.

RULES OF SUPREME COURT — FIRST JUDICIAL DISTRICT IN NEW YORK COUNTY — TRIAL TERM.

(Amended 1912, 1913, 1914, 1915, 1916)

---

RULES FOR THE REGULATION OF THE TRIAL TERMS OF THE SUPREME COURT IN THE FIRST JUDICIAL DISTRICT IN NEW YORK COUNTY AND TO REGULATE THE CALENDAR PRACTICE THEREIN.

Rule 1. General Calendars.

Rule 2. Reserved causes; motions in respect to calendar.

Rule 3. Preferred causes.

Rule 4. Trial Terms; number of; time of holding; time of opening; what causes tried at, respectively.

Rule 5. Special Issues.

Rule 6. Special Calendar; Short Cause Calendar.

Rule 7. Day Calendars.

Rule 8. Fines imposed on delinquent jurors.

RULE I.

General calendars.—The calendar of issues of fact to be tried by the jury in New York county shall consist of two separate calendars, known respectively as General Calendar No. 1 and General Calendar No. 2, which shall be made up from time to time as ordered by the Appellate Division of the Supreme Court in the First Department, and these calendars shall remain for the successive Trial Terms of the court until new calendars are prepared. There shall be placed upon Calendar No. 1 all tort actions, except actions in ejectment and replevin and to recover damages for the conversion of personal property, and upon Calendar No. 2 all actions not on Calendar No. 1. A note of issue must specify, in addition to the particulars required by section 977 of the Code of Civil Procedure, the number of the calendar on which the cause is to be placed as above provided, and the clerk shall not receive a note of issue unless it complies with this provision. New causes that have been regularly noticed for trial and a note of issue duly filed after the making up of the general calendars shall be put at the foot of the proper calendar according to date of issue. A cause on either of said general calendars may be reserved generally and so marked by the clerk at any time if the parties file a consent to that effect. All motions or applications in regard to the calendars, except as provided by Rules 3, 5, 6 and 7, must be heard by or made to the justice holding Part III in regard to the Calendar No. 1, and the justice holding Part XIV in regard to Calendar No. 2.

At least ten days before the first Monday of a Trial Term the calendar clerk of the Trial Terms shall prepare a Trial Calendar No. 1 containing so many of the pending causes on General Calendar No. 1 not reserved generally as the justice holding Part

III shall direct, and a Trial Calendar No. 2 containing so many of the pending causes on General Calendar No. 2 not reserved generally as the justice holding Part XIV shall direct. Such Trial Calendars shall be posted in said clerk's office and published in the New York Law Journal on Saturday, Monday and Tuesday. Any party to a cause appearing on such Trial Calendars may serve notice on the calendar clerk and on the attorney for the other parties to the cause before four o'clock Tuesday afternoon to the effect that the cause is to be marked ready for trial, and, if no motion for postponement is made as hereinafter provided, the cause shall be marked ready by the clerk; but if no party shall serve such notice the cause shall be marked reserved generally. If, however, a party desires to apply to the court for a postponement, or to have the cause marked reserved generally, he shall serve upon the attorneys for the other parties not later than twelve o'clock on Wednesday noon written notice specifying the grounds of the application for postponement and also copies of any affidavits and exhibits upon which the motion will be made, which notice, affidavits and exhibits, with proof of service, must be filed with the calendar clerk before four o'clock Wednesday afternoon. A party intending to oppose such motion must serve any affidavits and exhibits in opposition and file the same with proof of service not later than four o'clock Thursday afternoon. The justices holding Parts III and XIV, respectively, shall hear and determine all motions for postponement of causes on their several calendars, and, provided the papers are indorsed "for argument," counsel may briefly argue such motions, which shall be heard and disposed of on Friday so far as practicable. The calendar clerk shall thereupon post in his office and publish on Saturday and Monday in the Law Journal the list of causes marked ready for trial, or such part thereof as the said justices may respectively direct. (Amended July 8, 1916; in effect September 1, 1916.)

RULE II.

Reserved causes; motions in respect to calendar.—Causes marked reserved generally, if younger issues have been reached in regular order, and causes in which new trials have been ordered, may be placed on the appropriate Ready Calendar on filing a consent with the calendar clerk; or a party may apply to the justice holding either Part III or XIV of the Trial Terms, as the case may require upon two days' notice for an order placing such a cause upon the Trial Calendar or upon a Day Calendar as the court may direct.

Annually, during the month of June, or at such other time or times as the Appellate Division in the First Department may direct, a call shall be made of all causes on each of the General Calendars marked "reserved generally" or "stayed" or "jury disagreed" or "juror withdrawn." The Part in which such call shall be made and the justice to make the same shall be designated by the Appellate Division, and said justice shall have power to adjourn the call from day to day until it is completed. A list of the causes to be so called shall be published in the Law Journal at least eight days before the call.

If, upon such call, it shall appear that the plaintiff has unreasonably neglected to proceed in the action or that younger issues have been tried in their regular order, the defendant or one or more defendants in the action may move to dismiss the complaint as provided for in Rule 36 of the General Rules of Practice, provided notice of motion to that effect and any affidavits or exhibits be served upon the plaintiff five days before such call. Upon such motion, the court may make an order dismissing the complaint, or if it is made to appear that failure of the plaintiff to bring the action to trial has not been unreasonable, the court may place the cause at the foot of the appropriate Ready Calendar, or otherwise dispose of it as justice may require and on such terms as may be just. If upon such call any party to a cause in which no such motion is made shall answer ready, or shall have theretofore filed with the calendar clerk a notice so stating, the cause shall thereupon be marked ready for trial and placed at the foot of the appropriate Ready Calendar unless otherwise directed by the court. If, however, upon such call none of the parties to the cause appears or answers ready or files notice as aforesaid, then the same shall be stricken from the General Calendar and subsequently restored only upon service of a new notice of trial and filing of a new note of issue, whereupon it shall be placed upon the appropriate General Calendar as of the date when restored and not as of the date of original issue. (Amended July 8, 1916; in effect September 1, 1916.)

RULE III.

Preferred causes.—A party claiming to be entitled to a preference under section 791 of the Code of Civil Procedure may apply therefor to the Court at Part II, in the manner prescribed by section 793. If the application for a preference be granted, the court shall direct the cause to be placed upon an appropriate Day Calendar for a day certain for trial, and called after the causes then upon such Day Calendar marked ready. If the party who has moved for the preference shall not be ready to proceed with the trial when the cause is called for trial, the court, in its discretion, may allow an adjournment, or send the cause to the foot of the Ready Calendar, or direct a dismissal or inquest, or otherwise dispose of the cause as justice may require.

The justices holding Parts III and XIV in charge of Calendars Nos. 1 and 2, respectively, may, on application of any party to a cause brought by or against a receiver of a corporation and on five days' notice to the other party, direct that such cause be Such Trial Calendars shall be posted in said clerk's office and published in the New York Law Journal on Saturday, Monday and Tuesday. Any party to a cause appearing on such Trial Calendars may serve notice on the calendar clerk and on the attorney for the other parties to the cause before four o'clock Tuesday afternoon to the effect that the cause is to be marked ready for trial, and, if no motion for postponement is made as hereinafter provided, the cause shall be marked ready by the clerk; but if no party shall serve such notice the cause shall be marked reserved generally. If, however, a party desires to apply to the court for a postponement, or to have the cause marked reserved generally, he shall serve upon the attorneys for the other parties not later than twelve o'clock on Wednesday noon written notice specifying the grounds of the application for postponement and also copies of any affidavits and exhibits upon which the motion will be made, which notice, affidavits and exhibits, with proof of service, must be filed with the calendar clerk before four o'clock Wednesday afternoon. designated by the Appellate Division, and said justice shall have power to adjourn the call from day to day until it is completed. A list of the causes to be so called shall be published in the Law Journal at least eight days before the call.

If, upon such call, it shall appear that the plaintiff has unreasonably neglected to proceed in the action or that younger issues have been tried in their regular order, the defendant or one or more defendants in the action may move to dismiss the complaint as provided for in Rule 36 of the General Rules of Practice, provided notice of motion to that effect and any affidavits or exhibits be served upon the plaintiff five days before such call. Upon such motion, the court may make an order dismissing the complaint, or if it is made to appear that failure of the plaintiff to bring the action to trial has not been unreasonable, the court may place the cause at the foot of the appropriate Ready Calendar, or otherwise dispose of it as justice may require and on such terms as may be just. If upon such call any party to a cause in which no such motion is made shall answer ready, or shall have theretofore filed with the calendar clerk a notice so stating, the cause shall thereupon be marked ready for trial and placed at the foot of the appropriate Ready Calendar unless otherwise directed by the court. If, however, upon such call none of the parties to the cause appears or answers ready or files notice as aforesaid, then the same shall be stricken from the General Calendar and subsequently restored only upon service of a new notice of trial and filing of a new note of issue, whereupon it shall be placed upon the appropriate General Calendar as of the date when restored and not as of the date of original issue. (Amended July 8, 1916; in effect September 1, 1916.)

RULE III.

Preferred causes.—A party claiming to be entitled to a preference under section 791 of the Code of Civil Procedure may apply therefor to the Court at Part II, in the manner prescribed by section 793. If the application for a preference be granted, the court shall direct the cause to be placed upon an appropriate Day Calendar for a day certain for trial, and called after the causes then upon such Day Calendar marked ready. If the party who has moved for the preference shall not be ready to proceed with the trial when the cause is called for trial, the court, in its discretion, may allow an adjournment, or send the cause to the foot of the Ready Calendar, or direct a dismissal or inquest, or otherwise dispose of the cause as justice may require.

The justices holding Parts III and XIV in charge of Calendars Nos. 1 and 2, respectively, may, on application of any party to a cause brought by or against a receiver of a corporation and on five days' notice to the other party, direct that such cause be granted a preference over older issues and placed on the Ready Calendar or on a Day Calendar for trial as it may direct, although no notice of application for a preference may have been served with the notice of trial as provided in section 793 of the Code of Civil Procedure. (Amended July 8, 1916; in effect September 1, 1916.)

RULE IV.

Trial terms; number of; time of holding; time of opening; what causes tried at, respectively.—There shall be twenty Trial Terms of the Supreme Court to be known respectively as Trial Terms, Part I to XX inclusive. Each of said terms shall commence on the first Monday of January, February, March, April, May, June, October, November and December in each year, and shall continue to and until the Friday preceding the first Monday of the following term, or until the term shall be adjourned without day.

The Trial Terms shall open at 10 A. M. on each trial day during the term and shall continue in session until 4:30 P. M. Part I shall be the Criminal Term of the Supreme Court and shall be held in the Criminal Court Building or in the County Court House in the County of New York. Part II shall be the Trial Term for the disposition of the Special Calendar under Rule 6. In Parts III to XIII, inclusive, shall be tried causes from General Calendar No. 1. In Parts XIV to XVIII, inclusive, shall be tried causes from General Calendar No. 2. In Parts XIX and XX shall be tried such causes from General Calendars Nos. 1 and 2 as shall from time to time be ordered by the Appellate Division or as may be sent from other Parts. (Amended, 1913, 1914; July 8, 1916; in effect September 1, 1916.)

RULE V.

Special issues.—All questions of fact ordered or directed to be tried by a jury, all issues and questions of fact in special proceedings, and all issues and questions of fact which have been stated for trial in pursuance of sections 970 and 971 of the Code of Civil Procedure, and all controverted questions of fact of which any party has a constitutional right of trial by jury, and in any proceedings for the probate of a will in which any controverted questions of fact arise which a Surrogate of the County of New York shall direct to be tried at a Trial Term of the Supreme Court to be held within the County of New York under section 2538 of the Code of Civil Procedure, shall be placed upon Calendar No. 2 in the order of filing with the calendar clerk of the order, directing the cause to be so placed or of the order or direction for the trial by jury or of the order stating the issues or questions of fact to be tried by jury. (Amended October 16, 1916.)

FIRST JUDICIAL DISTRICT — TRIAL TERM.

RULE VI.

Special calendar; short cause calendar.— Subd. 1. In an action wherein the plaintiff seeks to recover a debt or liquidated demand upon a bond or other obligation for the payment of a specific sum of money, or upon a bond or undertaking on appeal, or upon a negotiable instrument, or for goods sold and delivered; either party may, after the cause has been placed upon the General Calendar, upon two days' notice to the opposing party, apply to the justice holding Part II for an order placing said cause upon the Special Calendar for trial, and the cause thereupon shall be tried and disposed of at Part II.

Subd. 2. In an action wherein the plaintiff seeks to recover upon an account stated, or for wages, salary or compensation for services, or upon a policy of insurance, or for rent or hire of real or personal property, or for money had and received, or for money loaned, or on a statute where the sum sought to be recovered is a sum of money other than a penalty or on a guaranty, the plaintiff may, at the first term at which the cause shall have been placed upon the General Calendar, upon five days' notice to the defendant, and upon competent proof by affidavit of the facts upon which the cause of action is based, apply to the justice holding Part II for an order placing said cause upon the Special Calendar for trial. Copies of the affidavits and exhibits, if any, upon which the application is based, must be served with the notice of the application. If upon the affidavits so submitted and the affidavits of the opposing party the court shall be satisfied that there is no substantial defense to the action, or that the answer was not interposed in good faith, or was interposed for the purpose of delay, the court may place the cause upon the Special Calendar in Part II. The court may, in its discretion, grant or deny the application, with or without costs, or upon terms, such as admitting facts not actually controverted, consenting to the examination before trial of a party or witnesses, producing books, papers or documents or giving security to secure the plaintiff in the event of final judgment being in his favor. The papers upon which such application shall be made and the answering affidavits, if any, must be filed with the Calendar Clerk before twelve o'clock noon of the day for which the application is noticed, and no oral argument will be heard upon such application, unless so ordered by the justice holding Part II.

Subd. 3. In an action on contract, express or implied, other than a contract to marry, either party may apply in Part II on two days' notice to the adverse party for an order placing the cause upon the Special Calendar. Upon such application, if it appears by affidavit and the pleadings to the satisfaction of the justice holding Part II that the trial of the action will not occupy more than two hours, and that no good reason exists why the action should not be promptly tried, he may direct the cause to be placed upon the Special Calendar in Part II, and the cause shall thereupon be disposed of in its regular order on such calendar. The papers upon which the application is made and the answering affidavits, if any, must be filed with the calendar clerk before twelve o'clock noon of the day for which the application is noticed, and no oral argument will be heard upon such applications unless ordered by the justice holding Part II.

Subd. 4. All causes and all questions and issues of fact ordered on the Special Calendar shall be placed thereon in the order of filing with the calendar clerk of the order directing the cause to be so placed, and shall be called and tried in that order, unless postponed for good cause shown by affidavit to the satisfaction of the justice holding Part II. If the trial of any cause which is placed upon the Special Calendar upon the ground that it will not occupy more than two hours shall nevertheless actually occupy more than that time, the court may, in its discretion, stop the trial and send the cause to the foot of the appropriate General Calendar. If at any time there shall be more causes upon the Special Calendar than can be promptly tried and disposed of in Part II the justice holding said part may send said causes, or any of them, to Part XIV, where they shall be placed upon the Day Calendar and tried and disposed of in like manner as the other causes on the Day Calendar in that part. (Former Rule V, renumbered and amended, October 16, 1916.)

RULE VII.

Day calendars.—The clerk shall make up a separate Day Calendar for each day of the term of the causes from Calendars Nos. 1 and 2 set down for trial on such day. The Day Calendar of causes from General Calendar No. 1 shall be called at Part III at 3:30 o'clock P. M. Day Calendar of causes from General Calendar No. 2 shall be called at Part XIV at 3:30 o'clock P. M. The causes on each of the Day Calendars shall remain thereon from day to day until they are tried or otherwise disposed of. Causes on the Day Calendar from Calendar No. 1 shall be sent for trial to Parts III, IV, V, VI VII, VIII, IX, X, XI, XII and XIII. Causes on the Day Calendar from Calendar No. 2 shall be sent for trial to Parts XIV, XV, XVI, XVII and XVIII. After the call of the calendar at 3:30 o'clock P. M. in Parts III and XIV, the justices there presiding shall assign for the following morning one or more causes to each of the several parts. No application to postpone the trial of a cause shall in any case be entertained after such cause has been sent to a part for trial and no cause so assigned shall again be placed upon the Day Calendar, except by order of the justice holding the part from which it was sent for good cause shown to him by affidavit but such cause shall remain in the part to which it has been sent for trial until finally disposed of. In addition to the Day Calendar the clerk shall prepare a calendar to be known as the Supplementary Calendar, from which the justices in Parts III and XIV, in the event of the Day Calendar being disposed of, may assign causes to the several parts. When a cause has been tried and the jury disagreed, or for any reason there has been a mistrial or a juror has been withdrawn, the cause may be restored to the Call Calendar or to the Day Calendar from which it was sent for trial, or may be set down for trial upon another day of the same week at which it was tried by the justice holding the part from which it was sent for trial. In case a Trial Term shall not have business enough to occupy it during court hours, causes from either Parts III or XIV only shall be sent to it for trial. The calendar clerk shall have charge of the calendars herein provided for. All orders relating to the calendar and all notes of issue of causes to be placed upon the calendars shall be filed with said calendar clerk. The said clerk shall each week make up two calendars of causes from the General Calendars for trial at Trial Term, which calendars shall be published at least two days before the same are called. These calendars shall be called by the justices of the court holding Parts III and XIV on Friday of each week at 2 o'clock P. M. unless another day is specifically fixed by him to call such calendars. Causes on such calendars may be set down for trial on any day in the week following in case it should appear upon the call of either of the calendars on Friday that the number of causes set down for trial on the following week will not be sufficient to occupy the available time of all the Trial Terms of the court to which the causes are to be assigned. The justices holding Parts III and XIV shall order a calendar of causes from the proper General Calendar to be made up and called on Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock. Upon the call of such calendar causes may be set down for any day of the week in which the calendar is called or for the succeeding week. When a cause has appeared and has been called for the second time in either of the Call Calendars on a subsequent call, it must, when reached, be assigned to the Day Calendar for trial or go to the foot of the proper General Calendar, unless it should be made to appear by affidavit to the satisfaction of the court that the cause should be further adjourned, in which case it shall be adjourned to such time as the court shall fix, and when the cause is again called the same must be assigned to the Day Calendar for trial or go to the foot of the General Calendar. When a cause has thus been set down on a call of either of the calendars on any Friday or Wednesday for trial and appears upon the Day Calendar it must be tried or go to the foot of the General Calendar, unless it appears by affidavit to the satisfaction of the justice calling the Day Calendar that, in consequence of the happening of an event since the cause was set down for trial, the trial cannot, with justice to one of the parties, proceed. The court may then direct the cause to be set down for trial on another day in the same or following week of the term or place the cause on the Friday Call Calendar. If it shall appear by affidavit to the satisfaction of the court that counsel who is to try any cause upon a Day Calendar expects to argue a cause upon a Day Calendar of the Supreme Court of the United States, or the Court of Appeals of the State of New York, or the United States Circuit Court of Appeals, or any Appellate Division of the Supreme Court, or is actually engaged in the trial of a cause in a federal or state court of record, except the Municipal Court, sitting in the County of New York, Bronx, Kings, Queens, Nassau or Richmond, the cause shall be adjourned until such argument or trial is concluded, unless the trial in which the counsel is engaged is likely to be protracted. But a cause on the Day Calendar shall not be adjourned on account of the engagement of counsel for more than three days except by the court or upon the consent of all the parties to the cause. Not more than two causes shall be held ready on one Trial Calendar for one counsel in addition to the cause in which he is engaged unless otherwise ordered by the court. In any such case the counsel who is to try the causes must be designated on the call of the Day Calendar on Monday morning. (Amended May 2 and October 16, 1916.)

RULES OF SUPREME COURT.

RULE VIII.

Fines imposed on delinquent jurors.—An order directing a delinquent juror to show cause why the payment of a fine should not be enforced must be granted by and made returnable before the justice by whom said fine is imposed and made returnable at the Trial Term to which said justice is assigned upon such day and at such time as he shall designate.

Where a justice by whom a fine was imposed has ceased to be a member of the court, or has been designated as a member of the Appellate Division of the Appellate Term, or has been assigned to hold Special Term, or is absent or unable for any reason to hear or determine the matter, the order directing the delinquent juror to show cause in such case must be granted by and made returnable before and heard and determined by the justice assigned to hold Part III, upon such day of the term and at such time as he shall designate. (Adopted March 2, 1916; amended July 8, 1916; in effect September 1, 1916.)

RULE IX.

Accounts of trustees.—In all actions or proceedings brought in the Supreme Court involving an accounting of a testamentary trustee or a trustee under a deed, notice of such action or proceeding must be given to the State Comptroller before a judgment or order is made passing the accounts of such trustees. (Adopted May 19, 1916; amended July 8, 1916; in effect September 1, 1916.)

RULES OF SUPREME COURT — FIRST JUDICIAL DISTRICT — SPECIAL TERM.

(Amended, 1909, 1913, 1914, 1916)

RULES FOR THE REGULATION OF THE SPECIAL TERMS OF THE SUPREME COURT IN THE FIRST JUDICIAL DISTRICT AND ESTAB- LISHING THE CALENDAR PRACTICE THEREIN.

RULE I.

Special Term for hearing litigated motions.—There shall be a Special Term of the Supreme Court for the hearing of litigated motions to commence on the first Monday of each month and to continue until the Friday preceding the first Monday of the succeeding month, which term shall be held every day except Saturdays, Sundays and legal holidays. The Court shall open at half-past ten in the morning and shall continue until all business before the Court has been disposed of. This Special Term shall be known as Special Term, Part I.

RULE II.

Motion calendar; notes of issue; appearance of counsel; application for final judgment; motion for judgment on pleadings.—Motions may be noticed for any day during the term. The clerk of Special Term, Part I, shall make up a calendar for each day. The order to show cause or notice of motion, with proof of service thereof, must be filed with the clerk before the date on which the motion is noticed to be heard, except where an order to show cause is granted returnable in less than two days, when the clerk at any time before the day for hearing may place the motion on the calendar, or the justice assigned to said part of the court may place the motion on the calendar on the day upon which the order to show cause is returnable. This calendar will be called at the opening of the court and no motion will be heard that is not upon the calendar. On the hearing of a motion upon such calendar but one counsel on each side will be heard, and not more than fifteen minutes will be allowed to each counsel unless the court shall otherwise order. Application for final judgment where an interlocutory judgment has been entered and an account has been taken, or other proceeding had before a referee, or for a final judgment in an action for divorce under section 1774 of the Code of Civil Procedure, motions for a new trial on the ground of surprise or newly discovered evidence, motions to confirm a referee's report and for final judgment in an action or proceeding in which an issue of fact has been tried by a jury or by a referee, where application to the court for final judgment or final order is necessary, applications for the appointment of commissioners or for a final order or judgment in a proceeding to condemn real estate for public use, motion for judgment upon the pleadings under section

FIRST JUDICIAL DISTRICT — SPECIAL TERM.

547 of the Code of Civil Procedure, trial of an issue of law, brought on and tried by the court as a contested motion under section 976 of the Code of Civil Procedure, may be noticed for and made at Part I of the Special Term for the hearing of litigated motions upon any day of the July, August and September terms, or at any other time when Part III of the Special Term is not in session. The justice assigned to Part I of the Special Term, if he does not deem it important that such application should be heard during the time when Part III is not in session, may adjourn the same to the next term of Special Term, Part III. (Amended, 1914; in effect February 1, 1914.)

RULE III.

Proof required in assignment cases or dissolution proceedings.— In all actions or proceedings in which the accounts of an assignee for the benefit of creditors or of a receiver appointed in an action or in a proceeding for the dissolution of a corporation are presented for settlement or to be passed upon by the Court, a notice or a copy of an advertisement requiring the creditors to present their claims to a referee, must be mailed to each creditor whose name appears on the books of the assignor or corporation, with the postage thereon prepaid, at least twenty days before the day specified in such notice or advertisement. Proofs of such mailing shall be required on the application for a final decree passing the accounts of the assignee or receiver unless proof is furnished that personal service of such notice or copy of advertisement has been made upon the creditor.

RULE IV.

Special Term for ex parte business.— There shall be a Special Term of the Supreme Court for the transaction of ex parte business, to be held on the first Monday of each month and to continue to and including the Saturday prior to the first Monday of the following month. The Court shall open at half-past ten o'clock in the morning, and shall continue in session until four o'clock in the afternoon, except Saturdays, upon which day the Court may be adjourned at twelve o'clock noon, and shall be open every day in the year, except Sundays and legal holidays. This Special Term shall be known as Special Term, Part 2. The justice assigned to Part 2 shall also attend to the drawing of jurors for the Trial Terms of the Supreme Court.

RULE V.

What matters must be brought before Special Term for ex parte business.— Applications for all Court orders, ex parte or by consent, or where notice is not required or has been waived, must be made to Special Term, Part 2. Any ex parte Court order granted by any justice of the Court other than the one assigned to hold Part 2 of the Special Term, shall not be entered by the clerk. All applications for judgment in actions where the defendant has failed to appear, or has waived notice of motion for judgment or has consented thereto, except in actions for divorce, all proceedings under the Domestic Relations Law for the adoption of children, and all proceedings under the Insanity Law for the commitment of a person alleged to be insane, shall be made to said Special Term, Part 2, and shall not be made to any other Court or justice. All orders for the examination of parties or witnesses in supplementary proceedings, or to perpetuate testimony, or for the examination of parties before trial or for the examination of witnesses under letters rogatory, or foreign commissions, or in aid of an attachment, or for any other purpose, or in any proceeding (except an order to show cause or a warrant issued under section 2269 of the Code of Civil Procedure, which must be made returnable before Part 1 of the Special Term), shall be made returnable before the justice assigned to hold said Special Term, Part 2, unless made returnable before a referee or commissioner under express statutory authority; and all writs of habeas corpus or other writs that are required by law to be returnable at a Special Term of the Supreme Court, or before a justice thereof, must be made returnable at the said Special Term, Part 2, or before the justice assigned to hold the same. Any writ or order before mentioned returnable elsewhere shall, upon its return, be transferred to said Special Term, Part 2, for hearing and decision. If not so transferred, the writ or order shall be disregarded. In actions for absolute divorce or to annul a marriage, where no answer is interposed, a reference to take proof will not be granted. In such cases the application for judgment must be made at the Special Term, Part 3, and the case placed upon the preferred calendar as hereinafter provided. Whenever the justice assigned to either Part 1, Part 2 or Part 3 of the Special Term is disqualified from hearing any application or motion that shall be brought on before him, he may send such application or motion to such other Part of the Special Term as he shall select, to be there heard and disposed of.

Proceedings under section 634 of the Building Code and all other proceedings instituted in the Supreme Court authorized by said Building Code must be heard in the said Special Term, Part 2. If a jury is demanded, the justice holding such term may continue such proceeding before the justice holding one of the Trial Terms, where a jury shall forthwith be impaneled and the questions determined and the proceeding finally disposed of as required by said Building Code. In case neither of the Trial Terms is in session, the justice assigned to the said Special Term, Part 2, may impanel a jury and dispose of the proceeding as required by the said Building Code.

In an application for a commitment under section 80 of the Insanity Law (chap. 32, Laws of 1909) it must be shown by the petition or by an accompanying affidavit whether or not the person alleged to be insane is confined on a criminal charge, or on bail pending the determination of a criminal charge, or in official custody for the purpose of ascertaining his condition after a criminal charge has been made against him. If a criminal charge is pending against the person thus alleged to be insane, two days' notice of the time and place of presenting the application to the court or a justice thereof must be given to the district attorney.

FIRST JUDICIAL DISTRICT — SPECIAL TERM.

In case of a rehearing and a review of the proceedings already had and of the order of commitment under section 83 of the Insanity Law (chap. 32, Laws of 1909), the justice assigned to Part 2 of the Special Term may send the question of the insanity of such alleged lunatic to either part of the Trial Term for trial before a jury as required by said section. The justice trying such proceeding before a jury shall certify the verdict to the justice assigned to Part 2 of the Special Term, who shall make the order as required by such section.

All applications to the court in the summary proceedings authorized by sections 57 and 74 of the Public Service Commissions Law (chap. 480, Laws of 1909) shall be made at Part 2 of the Special Term, which court shall grant the necessary final order or judgment if the corporation proceeded against fails to answer within the time allowed by the court. If an answer is interposed, the justice holding Part 2 of the Special Term shall forthwith transfer the action or proceeding to Special Term, Part 3, which court shall immediately inquire into the facts and circumstances and grant the proper judgment or order, provided, however, that the justice assigned to Special Term, Part 3, may from time to time assign such actions or proceedings to the other parts of the Special Term for hearing and decision. (As amended Dec. 17, 1909; Nov. 20, 1917, in effect Jan. 1, 1918.)

RULE VI.

Regulations governing insolvent assignments.—The following regulations will apply to all the insolvent assignments for the benefit of creditors and applications to the Court thereunder:

Subdivision 1. Duties of the Clerk.—The clerk, in addition to the books now kept by him, shall provide a register and docket.

In the register shall be entered in full every decree and final order made in the proceedings according to date, and the docket shall contain a brief memorandum of each day's proceedings according to their respective titles.

The register and docket shall be, at all times during Court hours, open for public inspection.

Subdivision 2. Each petition or order or decree filed shall be indorsed with the day and date of such filing, and the papers in each case shall be kept in a file by themselves.

Subdivision 3. No paper shall be permitted to be taken off the files of the Court for any purpose, except on an order of the Court.

Subdivision 4. Every paper filed shall have a brief memorandum indorsed on the outside cover, showing the nature thereof.

Subdivision 5. Copies of any and all papers in these proceedings shall be furnished to any person applying for same upon the payment of the legal fees.

Subdivision 6. Process.—All process, citations, summons and subpoenas shall issue out of the Court under the seal thereof and be attested by the clerk.

Subdivision 7. Appearances—Any party may appear in these proceedings, either in person or by attorney—if by attorney the name of such attorney, with his place of business and residence, shall be indorsed on each and every paper filed by him, and his name shall be entered in the docket.

RULES OF SUPREME COURT.

Subdivision 8. Schedules.—The schedule of liabilities and assets required to be filed by the assignor or assignee shall fully and fairly state the nominal and actual value of the assets, and the cause for the difference, and a separate affidavit will be required which shall fully explain the cause of such difference. If required the affidavits of disinterested experts as to such value must be furnished.

Subdivision 9. Signing of.—Where there may be more than one sheet of paper necessary to contain the schedules, each page shall be signed by the person or persons verifying the same. The sheets of paper on which the schedules are written shall be securely fastened before the filing thereof, and shall be indorsed with the full name of the assignor and assignee, and when filed by an attorney shall also be indorsed with his name and business address.

Subdivision 10. Filing by Assignee.—Should the schedules be filed by the assignee there must be a full affidavit made by such assignee and some disinterested expert, showing the nature and value of the property assigned.

Subdivision 11. Name and Residence.—The name, residence, occupation and place of business of the assignor, and name and place of business of the assignee, may be incorporated in the affidavit or annexed to the schedules.

Subdivision 12. Recapitulation.—There shall be a recapitulation at the end of the schedules as follows:

Debts and liabilities amount to $           ; assets nominally worth $           ; assets actually worth $

Subdivision 13. Contingent.—Contingent liabilities shall appear on a separate sheet of paper.

Subdivision 14. Amendments of.—Application to amend the schedules shall be made by verified petition, in which the amendments sought to be made shall appear in full and such amendments shall be verified in the same manner as the original schedules were verified.

Subdivision 15. Bond of Assignee.—The bond shall be joint and several in form, and must be accompanied by the affidavit prescribed by section 812 of the Code of Civil Procedure, and also by the affidavit of each surety, setting forth his business and where it is carried on, the amount of his debts and liabilities, and the description and value of property, real or personal, owned by him, so that it may appear that he is worth the amount in which he is required to justify over and above his debts and liabilities.

Subdivision 16. Justification of Sureties.—The Court may in its discretion require any surety to appear and justify.

Subdivision 17. At least one of such sureties shall be a freeholder. If the penalty of the bond be twenty thousand dollars or over, it may be executed by two sureties justifying each in that sum, or by more than two sureties, the amount of whose justification united is double the penalty of the bond.

Subdivision 18. Provisional.—The affidavit upon which application is made for leave to file a provisional bond, must show fully and fairly the nature and extent of the property assigned, and good and sufficient reasons must be shown why the schedules cannot be filed, and it must appear satisfactorily to the Court that a necessity exists for the filing of such provisional bond, and for the purposes of this act the affidavit so filed shall be deemed a schedule of the assigned property until such time as the regular schedules shall be filed.

FIRST JUDICIAL DISTRICT — SPECIAL TERM.

Upon the filing of the schedules the amount of the bond will be determined finally, and should the provisional bond already filed be deemed sufficient, an order will be granted making such bond as approved the final bond.

Subdivision 19. Assignee.—Every assignee shall keep full, exact and regular books of account of all receipts, payments and expenditures of money by him, which said books shall always, during business hours, be open to the inspection of any person interested in the trust estate.

Subdivision 20. In making sales at auction of personal property, the assignee shall give at least ten days' notice of the time and place of the sale and of the articles to be sold by advertisement in one or more newspapers, and he shall give notice of the sale at auction of any real estate at least twenty days before such sale. Upon such sales the assignee shall sell by printed catalogue, in parcels, and shall file a copy of such catalogue, with the prices obtained for the goods sold, with his final account.

Subdivision 21. When any notice is served on the creditors of the insolvent, pursuant to the provisions of the statute, or these rules, by mail, every envelope containing such notice shall have upon it a direction to the postmaster, at the place to which it is sent, to return the same to the sender within ten days unless called for. Upon every application made to the Court upon such service, an affidavit shall be presented showing whether any such notices have been returned.

Subdivision 22. Upon an application made for a general citation, the assignee shall file with his petition his account, with the vouchers.

Subdivision 23. The assignee must file an account in all cases, which shall be referred for examination.

Discharge.—No discharge shall be granted an assignee who has not advertised for claims pursuant to section 4 of the statute and the 30th subdivision of this rule.

No discharge can be granted an assignee and his sureties in any case, whether the creditors have been paid, or have released or have entered into composition or not, except in a regular proceeding for an accounting, under section 20 of the act, commenced by petition for citation and citation thereon to all persons interested in the estate.

Subdivision 24. Substituted Assignee.—Whenever an assignee shall have been removed, either on his own petition or on the petition of any person interested in the estate, and another person appointed as assignee in his place and stead, a certified copy of the order made on such petition shall be filed and recorded in the clerk's office of the county wherein the original assignment was recorded, and the clerk of the county shall make such suitable entry on the margin of the record of the original assignment as will show the appointment of such substituted assignee, and the said certified copy of the order shall be attached to the original assignment.

Subdivision 25. Account of Assignee.—The account of the assignee shall be in the nature of a debit and credit statement; he shall debit himself with the assets as shown in the schedules as filed, and credit himself with any decrease as well as expenses.

Subdivision 26. The statement of expenditures shall be full and complete, and the vouchers for all payments shall be attached to the account.

Subdivision 27. The affirmative on the accounting shall be with the assignee, and objections to the account may be presented to the referee in writing, or be brought out on a cross-examination, and in the latter case they must be specifically taken and entered in the minutes.

Subdivision 28. The testimony taken shall be signed by the several witnesses, and attached to and filed with a report of the referee.

Subdivision 29. Report of Referee.—The report of the referee shall show all the jurisdictional facts necessary to confer power on the Court, such as the proper execution and acknowledgment of the assignment, the recording of the same, the filing of the schedules and bond, the advertising for creditors, the issuing of the citation, the presenting of the account, and when any items may be disallowed in the account of the assignee, the same shall be fully set out in the report.

Subdivision 30. Notice to Present Claims.—A copy of the notice of advertisement requiring creditors to present their claims must be mailed to each creditor whose name appears on the books of the assignor, with the postage thereon prepaid, at least thirty days before the days specified in such advertisement, and proof of such mailing must be required on the application for a final decree, unless personal service thereof is made upon such creditors.

Subdivision 31. The decision of the referee after the trial of a disputed claim under section 26 of the general assignment act, shall be filed with the clerk of the Court, and a copy served on the defeated party. The Court shall, on application of either party, confirm the said report, and the decision of the referee shall be reviewed only by appeal from the order confirming the report to the Appellate Division.

RULE VII.

Special Terms for trial of issues of law and of fact—There shall be six Special Terms of the Supreme Court for the trial of issues of law and issues of fact triable by the court, and for the hearing and decisions of other matters and special proceedings not otherwise provided for, to be known respectively as Parts III, IV, V, VI, VII and VIII. Each term shall commence on the first Monday of each month, and shall continue until the Friday preceding the first Monday of the succeeding month. Amended, 1909, 1914; in effect November 16, 1914.)

RULE VIII.

A General Calendar of all the issues of fact triable by the court without a jury in the county of New York shall be made from time to time as shall be ordered by the Appellate Division of the Supreme Court in the First Department. Such calendar shall continue to be the General Calendar for every successive Special Term until a new General Calendar is ordered as aforesaid. New cases, as they are noticed for trial, shall be placed at the foot of this General Calendar upon filing a note of issue as required by the Code of Civil Procedure. A motion to correct this General Calendar may be made on two days' notice to the opposing party at Part 3 of the Special Term on the call of any Friday Calendar.

There shall also be made up a Special Calendar upon which shall be placed all issues of law now at issue, and upon which shall be placed, at the foot thereof, new issues of law hereafter noticed for trial.

There shall also be made up a Special Calendar which shall be known as the Preferred Calendar, upon which shall be placed all undefended actions for divorce or for annulment of marriage or for a separation; all actions entitled under the Code or the General or Special Rules of Practice to a preference; all applications for judgment in actions where issues have been framed and sent to a jury for trial; all applications for final judgment where an interlocutory judgment has been entered and an account has been taken or other proceedings had before a referee; all motions for a new trial upon exceptions or on the ground of surprise or newly discovered evidence; and exceptions to and motions to confirm a referee's report in special proceedings, including surplus money proceedings, and in actions in which an issue of fact has been tried by a referee where application to the court for final judgment or a final order is necessary; all applications for the appointment of commissioners, for a final order or final judgment in proceedings to condemn real estate for public use; all applications for final order in certiorari proceedings or proceedings where an alternative writ of mandamus has been issued; all proceedings to review assessments for the taxation of real and personal property in the county of New York which are now pending or which shall hereafter be brought for that purpose; all proceedings to review the assessment for taxation of special franchises or to enforce the payment of taxes based thereon or proceedings to review the assessment thereof under section 46 of the Tax Law (chap. 62, Laws of 1909); all applications for judgment upon the pleadings under section 547 of the Code of Civil Procedure, and all trials of an issue of law brought on as a contested motion under section 976 of the Code of Civil Procedure. The Special Calendar of issues of law and the Special Preferred

Calendar herein provided for shall be called and disposed of in Part 3 of the Special Term; provided, however, that the justice assigned to Part 3 may from time to time assign issues of law and preferred cases from such calendars to the other parts of the Special Term for hearing and decision.

Applications for final judgment in actions to annul a marriage or for a divorce shall be made at Special Term, Part 3, upon the judgment-roll, a certificate of the county clerk that no order has been entered in the action since the entry of the interlocutory judgment, or if any such order or orders have been entered, that copies thereof are annexed to his certificate and proof by affidavit that no application has been made for an order to the knowledge of the party making application, or his attorney, except where an order has been granted and a certified copy of such order is annexed to the certificate of the county clerk. Where, in such an action, a party other than the party making the application has appeared in the action, five days' notice of such application, with the papers upon which the same was made and a copy of the proposed final judgment, shall be served upon the attorney who has appeared in the action. In a proceeding for the revocation of a liquor tax certificate, where the issue has been joined, the proceeding shall be placed upon the Preferred Calendar called in Special Term, Part 3, and disposed of as other cases upon the said calendar. In case, however, the issue is joined in such a proceeding too late to place it on the calendar of the June Special Term in any year, it may be brought on by either party during July, August or September, at Special Term, Part 2, and there heard and determined. In case a proceeding is not so brought on in Part 2, as hereinbefore provided, before the first Monday in October, it shall be placed upon the Preferred Calendar to be called at Special Term, Part 3, for the October term. (Amended 1909; 1914; Nov. 20, 1917, in effect Jan. 1, 1918.)

RULE IX.

Calendar of causes from general calendar for trial at Special Term. When cause on Day Calendar will be passed.—The clerk of Part 3 of the Special Term, with the assistance of the special deputy clerk assigned to such part, and of the clerk of Part 4, shall each week make up a calendar of causes from the General Calendar for trial at Special Term, which calendar shall be published at least two days before the same is called. This calendar shall be called by the justice assigned to Special Term, Part 3, on Friday of each week at 2 o'clock P. M., unless another day is specifically fixed by him to call such calendar. Causes on such calendar may be set down for trial on any day in the week following. In case it should appear upon the call of the calendar on Friday that the number of causes set down for trial in the following week will not be sufficient to occupy the available time of all the parts of the Special Term of the court assigned to the trial of equity causes, the justice assigned to Special Term, Part 3, shall order a calendar of causes from the General Calendar to be made up and to be called upon Wednesday morning following at 10 o'clock. Upon the call of such calendar, causes may be set down for any day of the week in which the calendar is so called or for the succeeding week. The said clerks shall make up a Day Calendar for each day from the General Calendar, upon which shall be placed all the causes set down for that day or remaining undisposed of from previous days, which Day Calendar shall be called in Part 3 of the Special Term at 10:15 A. M. of each day, and causes therefrom shall be assigned to the several parts of the Special Term.

FIRST JUDICIAL DISTRICT—SPECIAL TERM.

When a cause thus set down on the call of the calendar on any Friday or Wednesday for trial appears upon the Day Calendar it must be tried or go to the foot of the General Calendar unless it appears by affidavit to the satisfaction of the court calling the Day Calendar that in consequence of the happening of any event since the cause was so set down for trial the trial cannot with justice to one of the parties proceed. The court may then by order set the cause down for trial on another day in the term or place the cause on the Friday calendar.

If it shall appear by affidavit to the satisfaction of the court that counsel who is to try any cause upon a Day Calendar expects to argue a cause upon a Day Calendar of the Supreme Court of the United States, or the Court of Appeals of the State of New York, or the United States Circuit Court of Appeals, or any Appellate Division of the Supreme Court, or is actually engaged in the trial of a cause in a Federal or State court of record, except the Municipal Court, sitting in the County of New York, Bronx, Kings, Queens, Nassau or Richmond, the cause shall be adjourned until such argument or trial is concluded, unless the trial in which the counsel is engaged is likely to be protracted. In no other event shall a cause upon the Day Calendar be passed for the day. (Amended May 2, 1916; Nov. 20, 1917, in effect Jan. 1, 1918.)

RULE X.

Passing cause; reservation of causes for same counsel.—In no event shall a cause on the day calendar be passed from day to day on account of the engagement of counsel for more than three days.

Not more than two causes shall be held ready on the day calendar for one counsel in addition to the cause in which he is engaged, and in all causes the counsel who is to try the same must be designated, if required by the Court, on the call of the day calendar.

RULE XI.

Mortgage foreclosures; mechanics' liens.—In all actions brought for the foreclosure of a mortgage or for the foreclosure of mechanics' liens, either party may apply to the Special Term, Part

3. upon notice of two days to the adverse party to have the case placed upon the preferred calendar, to be called in Part 3 of the Special Term, and if it shall appear to the Court upon such application that the trial will not be a protracted one, or that for any special reason the case should be promptly disposed of, it shall be placed upon the preferred calendar for trial.

RULE XII.

Preferred causes.—In all actions in which a preference is given by express provision of law, or by the General Rules of Practice or by special rules, the party entitled to such preference may, upon two days' notice, apply to Special Term, Part 3, for an order placing the cause upon the preferred calendar. In case such preference is granted, the case shall be placed upon the preferred calendar as of the date when the motion was made, and shall be called in its order.

RULE XIII.

Duration of Special Term.—No Special Term shall be continued beyond the Friday preceding the commencement of a new term, except for the purpose of completing a trial already commenced during the term, in which case immediately upon the completion of the trial, the Court shall adjourn for the term.

RULE XIV.

Regulating the procedure upon applications for naturalization in the first judicial district.—All applications of aliens to be admitted to become citizens of the United States must be heard and final action had thereon at Part 2 of the Special Term. Such hearings shall be had only upon Mondays and Thursdays at 2 o'clock P. M. of each week during the year, which are hereby designated as the stated days for such applications. The application which is required by chapter 927 of the Laws of 1895 to be filed with the clerk of the Court shall be so filed with the assistant clerk of such Special Term assigned to that branch of the business. Such application shall specify the stated day (more than fourteen days thereafter) when such application will be brought on for hearing and final action.

The assistant clerk assigned to naturalization business shall make up a calendar of such applications for each of said stated days, upon which he will place all such applications in the order of filing, for the days specified in the application. The calendar will be called at 2 o'clock in the afternoon upon each stated day. The hearing upon such applications shall be had upon the call of the calendar and the testimony of the applicant and his witnesses on each application shall be thereupon taken in open Court. Such testimony shall be taken down by the stenographer assigned to that branch of the Court, and shall be written out and filed with the application.

If the applicant fail to appear upon the call of the calendar, the application will be dismissed without prejudice to a fresh application. The special deputy to the clerk of the city and county of New York, in Part 8 of the Special Term, is hereby directed, at all times until a justice is assigned to hold said Part, to act as an additional assistant to the clerk assigned to naturalization business, and to devote his entire time to the duties of what is known as the Naturalization Bureau; under the general direction of the special deputy in Part 2 of the Special Term and of the assistants to such special deputy in said Naturalization Bureau. (As amended April 22, 1909.)

RULE XV.

Sales of real estate.—All sales of real estate, or interest or estate therein made in pursuance of any judgment, decree or order, or by an officer of the Court under its direction must be made as directed by section 1678 of the Code, and notice of such sale must be given as prescribed in that section.

The referee or officer making such sale shall cause to be published with the notice of sale a diagram of the property to be sold, or of which an interest therein is to be sold, showing the street or avenue upon which such property is located, its street or avenue number, if any, and specifying the number of feet to the nearest cross street or avenue. Where such sale is made to satisfy any lien or charge upon the real property sold, the approximate amount of such lien or charge shall be stated in a note annexed to such notice of sale, and where there are taxes, assessments or other liens upon the said property, which are to be allowed to the purchaser out of the purchase money, or which are to be paid by the referee, the referee or officer making such sale shall also state in a note annexed to such notice of sale the approximate amount of such charge or lien. An unintentional error, however, in such diagram, or in the amount of the lien or charge for which the property shall be sold, or the amount of such taxes or other lien to be allowed to the purchaser upon the sale, shall not invalidate the sale, nor authorize the Court to relieve the purchaser, or order a new sale.

RULE XVI.

Official examiners of title.—A. An official examiner of title, before he is licensed and admitted to practice as such, must file the bond required by Rule III of the Rules of the Court of Appeals relating to applications to practice as official examiners of title, approved by the Presiding Justice of the Appellate Division of the Supreme Court in this department. All bonds executed by individual sureties must have annexed thereto an affidavit of each surety stating his age and residence, with the street and number, and specifically stating the property owned by the surety, with a brief description thereof, and its value and the liens or incumbrances thereon, with a description of such liens or incumbrances, and the business, if any, of the surety, and stating the amount of his indebtedness, whether there are any existing judgments against him, and the amount of his property over and above such indebtedness. In case of the death of a surety the official examiner of title must within thirty days thereafter file a new bond with new sureties fully complying with this rule. Each applicant for a license as an official examiner of title must also produce a certificate of the committee of character certifying that he is of good moral character and as to his standing in regard to financial transactions.

B. An application for registration of title to real property made under the Real Property Law (chapter 52 of the Laws of 1909) must be made at Special Term, Part II, of the Supreme Court, which is hereby designated the "Title Part" of the said court under section 371 of the said act, and the Justice of the Supreme Court from time to time assigned to Part II of the Special Term is hereby designated as the Justice to have general supervision and control of the business coming under the said act in the county of New York, and all applications to register title to real property under the said act must be returnable at said Title Part, Special Term, Part II, of the Supreme Court.

C. After the time provided in the summons to appear and answer the complaint shall have expired, if there has been no appearance or answer, the applicant may apply to the Special Term, Part II, for a final judgment as provided for in section 390 of the act, as amended by chapter 627 of the Laws of 1910. If there has been an appearance in the action under the said act, but no answer has been interposed, he may apply to the court for final judgment on eight days' notice to all who have appeared in the action. In all applications for judgment the applicant must present to the court proof by affidavit of the service of the summons as required by the said act, and of the appearances or answers, if any, in the action, and that all the provisions of the act entitling the applicant to such judgment have been complied with.

D. Where an answer is interposed which raises an issue of fact which in an action relating to the title of real property would be triable by a jury, either party to the action who is entitled to have such issue determined may apply to the Title Part of the Special Term within twenty days after issue has been joined by the service of the pleadings to have the issues framed to be tried by a jury, as provided by section 970 of the Code of Civil Procedure. The trial of such issues shall be had and the subsequent proceeding in relation thereto shall be such as is prescribed by the Code of Civil Procedure. After such issues are disposed of, either party to the action may apply to the Title Part of the Special Term upon eight days' notice to all who have appeared in the action for final judgment, and on such application the court shall try all other issues in the action not disposed of by the jury, or may refer any such issues undisposed of to be tried by a referee. Where all issues have been disposed of, either party may then upon notice of eight days to all who have appeared in the action apply for final judgment at the Title Part of the Special Term.

FIRST JUDICIAL DISTRICT—SPECIAL TERM.

E. All applications to the court after a certificate of registration has been issued under the provisions of the said act must be made at the Title Part of the Special Term hereinbefore designated, upon notice of eight days to all persons interested in the application. All applications to the court under section 422 of the act shall be made at the Title Part, Part II, of the Special Term, upon eight days' notice to all persons in interest, as provided in that section. All applications made under section 428 of the act shall also be made at the Title Part of the Special Term, upon eight days' notice to the city chamberlain and all other parties who have appeared in the action to recover for loss or damage or deprivation of real property out of the assurance fund provided for by the said act. (As adopted February 4, 1909; amended April 22, 1909, December 28, 1910.)

RULE XVII.

Investment of money paid into court.—The Chamberlain of the City of New York, within thirty days after it shall have been received by him, shall invest all money paid into court by deposit with him in bonds of the United States, bonds of the State of New York or bonds or stock of the city of New York, and cause the same to be duly registered in his name as such Chamberlain; and hereafter no money so paid into court shall be invested in securities other than those hereinbefore specified. And the Chamberlain is hereby required to file in the office of the Clerk of the Appellate Division of the Supreme Court in the First Department, on or before the 1st day of February in each year, a report showing the securities in which money that has been paid into court has been invested and the date at which the investment was made. (Adopted January 11, 1911.)

RULE XVIII.

Accounts of trustees.—In all actions or proceedings brought in the Supreme Court involving an accounting of a testamentary trustee or a trustee under a deed, notice of such action or proceeding must be given to the State Comptroller before a judgment or order is made passing the accounts of such trustees. (Adopted May 19, 1916.)

AMENDED FORM IN FORECLOSURE CASES.

(Adopted by the First Department, October 13, 1910.)

The following form has been approved by the justices of the Supreme Court:

To comply with the Amended Rules of Practice in foreclosure cases the judgment should contain immediately following the direction to sell and in substitution for the provisions now in use the following provisions:

Under the direction of . . . . ., Esq., who is hereby appointed referee for that purpose; the said referee give public notice of the time and place of such sale according to law and the course and practice of this court; that the plaintiff or any other party to this action may become the purchaser or purchasers on such sale; that said referee execute to the purchaser or purchasers on such sale a deed of the premises sold; that such referee on receiving the proceeds of sale forthwith pay therefrom the taxes.

RULES OF SUPREME COURT.

assessments and water rents which are or may become liens on the premises at the time of sale. The said referee then deposit the balances of such proceeds of sale in* . . . . . and shall thereafter make the following payments, and his checks drawn for that purpose shall be paid by the said depository:

First.—The sum of $50 to the said referee for his fees herein.

Second.—Advertising expenses as shown on the bills presented and certified by the said referee to be correct, and duplicate copies of which shall be left with said depository.

Third.—Said referee shall also pay to the plaintiff the sum of . . . . . dollars, adjudged to the plaintiff for his costs and disbursements in this action, with interest thereon from the date hereof, together with an additional allowance of . . . . . dollars, hereby awarded to the plaintiff, in addition to costs, with interest thereon from the date hereof; and also . . . . . dollars, the said amount so reported due as aforesaid, together with the legal interest thereon from the date of said report, or so much thereof as the purchase money of the mortgaged premises will pay of the same.

Fourth.—If such referee intends to apply for a further allowance for his fees, he may leave upon deposit such amount as will cover such additional allowance, to await the further order of the court thereon, after application duly made.

In reference to this form, Hon. Edward E. McCall, Justice of the Supreme Court, First Department, wrote under date of November 5, 1910, as follows:

"The form adopted applies to judgments of foreclosure only, and is based upon Rule LXXIX of the General Rules of Practice in relation to deposit of moneys received by referees appointed to sell real property and was made to meet the exigencies that might arise upon the closing of title of property so sold. Rule LXIX also was taken into consideration, reference particularly being made to payments of money out of court to be paid directly to the 'person entitled to receive the same.' In no way does this agreed form interfere with the amended rules, nor is it intended to be inferred therefrom that a new rule has been adopted, the purpose being to give official sanction to proper payments to be made by referees, without which embarrassing complications might arise upon the closing of the title, if insistence was made of strict adherence to Rules LXIX and LXXIX. It would seem that the form adopted in this Department contains the essential features that would be necessarily adopted for general use throughout the State. In this connection permit me to call your attention to the fact that under the Rule LXXIX, money received by attorneys when deposited in a bank or trust company must be deposited in a bank or trust company authorized to receive court funds and that the number of depositors is limited."

[See memoranda in the American Mortgage Company v. Kneeland (Law Journal, October 5, 1910), and McCutcheon v. Heubener (Law Journal, October 18, 1910).]

RULES TO REGULATE ATTENDANCE, ETC.

RULES TO REGULATE THE ATTENDANCE AND PRESCRIBE THE DUTIES OF THE CLERKS, ASSISTANT CLERKS, CRIERS, INTERPRETERS, STENOGRAPHERS, LIBRARIANS AND ATTENDANTS OF THE SUPREME COURT.

AS AMENDED NOVEMBER 27, 1914.

RULE I.

Special deputy clerks and assistant clerks.—The special deputy to the Clerk of the County of New York assigned to each Special and Trial Term of the Supreme Court shall attend on each day that the Court is in session and remain in attendance from nine-thirty o'clock in the morning until five o'clock in the afternoon, and later if Court is in session. The special deputy clerk assigned to Part 2 of the Trial Terms shall have charge of the General and Special Calendars of the Trial Terms. The assistants to such special deputy clerk shall, in turn, as required by him, attend in Part 2 of the Court. All orders relating to the calendar, and all notes of issue of cases to be placed upon the calendar, shall be filed with the clerk of Part 2 of the Trial Term. He shall make up the General and Special Calendars of such Trial Terms, and shall make up a Day Calendar for each day of the term when the Court is in session. The clerks assigned to the other Trial Terms of the Supreme Court shall render him assistance when he requires it, when they are not actually engaged in their branch of the Court.

The special deputy to the county clerk assigned to Part 3 of the Special Term of the Supreme Court shall have charge of the General and Special Calendars of the Special Term, and all notes of issue of cases to be placed upon the Special Term Calendar and orders relating to the calendar shall be filed with him.

The assistant clerks assigned to Part 3 of the Special Term shall, in turn, as directed by such special deputy clerk, attend the sitting of that part and shall assist the clerk thereof in preparing the calendar. Special deputy clerks assigned to the other Special Terms for Trials shall render the special deputy clerk of Part 3 such assistance as he shall require when the Courts to which they are respectively assigned are not in session.

The special deputy clerk assigned to each Trial and Special Term of the Court shall, subject to the supervision of the justice assigned thereto, be responsible for the proper condition of the Court room, for the supply of stationery, and for the attendance of the officers or attendants assigned to such Special and Trial Terms, and for the performance by such officers or attendants of their respective duties.

The special deputy clerk assigned to the Special Term for the Hearing of Motions shall make up a Day Calendar of motions to be heard each day (not later than three o'clock for the succeeding day) and shall cause the same to be published in the Law Journal. He shall attend at the call of the calendar and render such assistance as the justice assigned to that term of the Court shall require. The assistant clerks assigned to that part of the Court shall attend each day from nine-thirty o'clock in the morning until five o'clock in the afternoon, or as much later as may be necessary, and shall perform such duties as the deputy clerk assigned to that part of the Court shall require. The deputy clerk assigned to the Special Term for the transaction of ex parte business shall attend from nine-thirty o'clock in the morning until five o'clock in the afternoon, or as much later as the justice assigned to that branch of the Court shall require, and shall render to the justice such assistance as he shall require. The assistant clerks assigned to that part of the Court shall keep the records of the Court and shall perform such additional duties as are required by the clerk. There shall be three additional assistants to such clerk (to be assigned to that part of the Special Term) who shall have charge of the records of naturalization heretofore kept in the office of the clerk of the city and county of New York, the clerk of the Superior Court of the city of New York and the clerk of the Court of Common Pleas for the city and county of New York, who shall attend to applicants for naturalization and keep the books and records relating thereto, and who shall perform such additional duties as said special deputy clerk shall require. There shall be two other additional assistants to such special deputy clerk (to be assigned to this branch of the Court), who shall have charge of the records relating to assignments for the benefit of creditors and who shall perform all the clerical duties relating thereto. They shall also perform generally such duties as may be required of them by the justices assigned to this branch of the Court or by the clerk thereof. The assistants to this branch of the Special Term shall attend the office provided for them in the County Court House, in the county of New York, at nine-thirty o'clock in the morning and shall remain until five o'clock in the afternoon, and so much later as shall be necessary. The clerk assigned to the term for the hearing of appeals from the City Court and District Courts in the city of New York shall attend the sitting of the Appellate Term while in session, shall keep the records of such Court and perform such duties in addition as shall be required of him by the justices assigned to hold such term. When the Court is not in session he shall attend each day from nine-thirty o'clock in the morning until five o'clock in the afternoon, and when not occupied with the business of such appellate branch he shall assist the special deputy clerks of Part 2 of the Trial Term and of Part 3 of the Special Term, and perform such other duties as may be required of him by any justice of the Supreme Court.

RULE II.

Stenographers.— There shall be a stenographer attached to each Special and Trial Term of the Supreme Court, whose duty it shall be to attend at the session of the Court to which he is assigned. In case his services are not needed in the Court to which he is assigned, it shall be his duty to attend any other term of the Court at which his services shall be required, either by the justice presiding at such other term or by the special deputy clerk attached thereto. The stenographers assigned to the Special or Trial Terms of the Supreme Court must attend in the Court House each day at ten o'clock in the morning, and each stenographer must remain as long as he is required to remain by the justice presiding at the part to which he is assigned. They shall also render such assistance to any justice of the Court as he shall require. In case of the absence of any stenographer from the part to which he is assigned owing to illness, or when owing to an accumulation of work any such stenographer shall be permitted by the justice presiding in such part to absent himself for a definite period from the daily sittings of the Court for the purpose of enabling him to write out the testimony taken by him, such stenographer may, subject to the approval of such justice, select another stenographer to take his place during such temporary absence.

RULES TO REGULATE ATTENDANCE. ETC.

Such temporary stenographer shall, before acting, take the oath of office. He shall be paid by the official stenographer whose place he takes, and his services shall not be a charge upon the city or county of New York.

RULE III.

Librarian and assistant librarian.—It shall be the duty of the librarian of the Appellate Division of the Supreme Court to take charge of the library of the Appellate Division of the Supreme Court, and to perform generally such duties in relation to such library as the justices shall require. He shall be responsible for all the books in the library, and shall see to it that all books removed from the library to the Court room or elsewhere are returned to the library, and shall be responsible generally for the safekeeping and proper condition of the books and furniture in the library room.

RULE IV.

Interpreters.—The Justices of the Appellate Division of the Supreme Court in the First Department will detail one of the interpreters to act as chief interpreter, whose duty it shall be to attend at the Court House on each day, except on Sundays and legal holidays, from nine-thirty o'clock in the morning until five o'clock in the afternoon, and until each Trial and Special Term of the Court shall have adjourned. He shall keep a record in a book to be provided for the purpose of the time on each day at which each interpreter of the Court shall report for duty and the time at which each interpreter leaves the Court House. He shall assign each interpreter to duty in the particular branch of the Court at which his services are required, and shall make a monthly report to the Presiding Justice of the Supreme Court in the First Department as to the attendance of interpreters, specifying the days and portions of days that each interpreter shall have been absent and the manner in which each of the interpreters has performed his duties, and with such other recommendations as he shall consider proper. He shall at all times obey the directions of any of the justices of the Supreme Court as to the performance of his duties and furnish interpreters for the several parts of the Court when called upon to do so. The other interpreters shall attend on each day, except on Sundays and legal holidays, unless excused by a justice of the Court or by the chief interpreter, from nine-thirty o'clock in the morning until five o'clock in the afternoon, and as much later as any branch of the Court is in session. They shall be under the general direction of the chief interpreter and shall attend at each branch of the Court as required either by him or by a justice of the Supreme Court. Each interpreter shall also render any service required by any justice of the Supreme Court, whether in Court or out of Court. They shall report to the chief interpreter their arrival and departure from the Court House, and generally shall obey his instructions in regard to the performance of their duties. When not actually engaged at a term of the Court the interpreters shall be in attendance at a room to be provided for that purpose, so as to be always available when their services are required.

SUPREME COURT

RULE V.

Crier and assistant crier.—The crier of the Appellate Division of the Supreme Court shall assign the attendants to the Appellate Division and to the various Special and Trial Terms of the Supreme Court. He shall have general charge of the attendants, and it shall be his duty to see that they properly perform their duties. He shall report to the Appellate Division of the Supreme Court any one of such attendants who fails to attend and perform the duties required of him or who in any way misconducts himself. He shall attend at each session of the Appellate Division of the Supreme Court and shall open and adjourn said Court, except when his attendance is dispensed with by the Presiding Justice. He shall make a report each month to the Appellate Division of any violation of any of the rules of the Court of which he is cognizant, and shall perform such other duties as the Presiding Justice of the Appellate Division shall require.

The assistant to the said crier shall attend at the County Court House in the county of New York on each day from nine-thirty o'clock in the morning until five o'clock in the afternoon, and as much longer as his attendance shall be required by any of the justices of the Court, or while any branch of the Court is in session. In the absence of the crier he shall perform all the duties of the crier, and shall perform such other duties as any justice of the Supreme Court or the crier shall require. The assistant crier shall wear while in Court, or in the discharge of his duties, a uniform such as is now established for the crier of the Supreme Court.

RULE VI.

Attendants.—The attendants shall each day attend the various branches or terms of the Court to which they are assigned by the crier from nine-thirty o'clock in the morning until five o'clock in the afternoon, or as much longer as the Court is in session or as a justice of the Supreme Court requires them to attend. They shall report to the clerk of the part to which they are assigned. They shall wear the uniform now prescribed for the attendants of the Supreme Court. In addition to their ordinary duties in Court they shall perform such other duties as may be required of them by a justice of the Supreme Court, by the special deputy clerk of the part to which they are assigned, or by the crier or assistant to the crier.

RULES TO REGULATE ATTENDANCE, ETC.

RULE VII.

Return to commissioner of jurors.—The special deputy clerk assigned to each of the Trial Terms of the Court shall, within five days after the discharge from service of each of the panels of the trial jurors, make a full and complete return to the commissioner of jurors and to the special deputy clerk of Part 4 of the Trial Term showing:

1. The name and residence of each juror who attended and served; the number of days the juror attended for the purpose of serving, and the number of days actually served.

2. The name and residence of each juror who was excused or discharged, with the reason therefor.

3. The name and residence of each juror notified who did not attend or serve.

4. The name and residence of each person fined, and the date and amount of his fine, and the part of the Court at which the fine was imposed, and the name of the justice who held the same (unless the fine has been remitted).

The special deputy clerk of Part 4 shall keep a record showing all the above facts in reference to all the jurors notified to attend at any of the Trial Terms of said Court, and shall, within ten days after the discharge from service of each of the panels of trial jurors, make a return to the counsel to the corporation of all fines imposed, which return shall give the name of each person fined, his address, the amount of the fine, the date when imposed, the part of the court at which the fine was imposed, and the name of the justice who held the same.

RULE VIII.

Each special deputy clerk, assistant clerk, stenographer, interpreter and attendant shall each day sign personally the cards of record of attendance, and state thereon the time of his arrival in Court and the time of his departure therefrom, and the clerks of the calendar parts and the clerks of the various Trial and Special Terms shall each day forward to the crier said cards of record of attendance.

The offices of the clerks of the various parts shall remain open from nine-thirty A. M. to five P. M.

RULES TO PROMOTE THE EFFICIENT ADMINISTRATION OF JUSTICE IN RELATION TO THE HEARING AND DETERMINATION OF QUESTIONS ARISING UNDER THE ELECTION LAW.

The justices of the Appellate Division of the Supreme Court in the First Judicial Department do hereby make and establish the following rules to promote the efficient administration of justice in relation to the hearing and determination of any questions arising under the Election Law (chapter 909 of the Laws of 1896, and the amendments thereto):

Rule 1. All applications to the Supreme Court or a justice thereof to review the determination and acts of the election officers under section 56 of the Election Law (chapter 909 of the Laws of 1896, as amended); all applications for a writ of mandamus under section 114 of the said Election Law, and all other applications to the Supreme Court or a justice thereof under any of the other provisions of the said Election Law, shall be made to Special Term, Part 1 of the Supreme Court of the First Judicial District. The justice assigned to such term may hear and determine any such proceeding or may assign any such proceedings to the other parts of the Special Term for hearing and decision, and such application shall have precedence over all other business at any part of the Special Term. The final order determining such special proceeding should in each case state the facts found by the Special Term upon which the determination is made and the determination of the Court upon the facts thus stated.

Rule 2. Appeal from any final order entered in a proceeding specified in Rule 1 shall be brought on for hearing at such time on such day as the Appellate Division shall designate by an order which will be granted on the application of any party to such a special proceeding.

Rule 9. Accounts of trustees.

RULE I.

General calendars.—There shall be a General Calendar for issues of fact triable by a court and jury, and also a General Calendar for equity causes, which calendars shall be made up from time to time as ordered by the Appellate Division of the Supreme Court, First Department. These calendars shall remain until new calendars are ordered. All notes of issue must be legibly typewritten and must contain all particulars required by section 977 of the Code of Civil Procedure. All motions or applications regarding the calendars shall be made to the justice holding Trial Term, Part II.

The calendar clerk shall have charge of the calendars herein provided for and shall prepare Day Calendars containing as many of the pending causes as the justices shall direct. Additions shall be made to such calendars on Monday of each week as required, and published in the Law Journal at least four days prior thereto. All orders relating to the calendars and all notes of issue of causes to be placed upon the calendars shall be filed with said calendar clerk.

RULE II.

Reserved causes; motions in respect to calendars.—Causes may be marked "reserved generally" by filing a stipulation with the calendar clerk to that effect. All motions in reference to causes so marked, or to those in which new trials have been ordered, shall be made as indicated in Rule I.

If it shall appear that the plaintiff has unreasonably neglected to proceed in any action, or that younger issues have been tried in their regular order, the defendant or one or more defendants in the action may move to dismiss the complaint as provided for in Rule 36 of the General Rules of Practice upon five days' notice of motion to that effect.

TRIAL AND SPECIAL TERMS.

RULE III.

Preferred causes.—A party claiming to be entitled to a preference under section 791 of the Code of Civil Procedure may apply therefor to the court at Trial Term, Part II, in the manner prescribed by section 793. If the application for a preference be granted the court shall direct the cause to be placed upon an appropriate Day Calendar for a day certain for trial and called after the causes then upon such Day Calendar marked "ready." If the party who has moved for the preference shall not be ready to proceed with the trial when the cause is called for trial, the court, in its discretion, may allow an adjournment or send the cause to the foot of the General Calendar or direct a dismissal or inquest or otherwise dispose of the cause as justice may require.

RULE IV.

Special calendar; short cause calendar.—Subdiv. 1. In an action wherein the plaintiff seeks to recover a debt or liquidated demand upon a bond or other obligation for the payment of a specific sum of money, or upon a bond or undertaking on appeal, or upon a negotiable instrument, or for goods sold and delivered, either party may, after the cause has been placed upon the General Calendar, upon two days' notice to the opposing party, apply to the justice holding Part II for an order placing said cause upon the Special Calendar for trial, and the cause thereupon shall be tried and disposed of at Part II.

Subdiv. 2. In an action wherein the plaintiff seeks to recover upon an account stated, or for wages, salary or compensation for services, or upon a policy of insurance, or for rent or hire of real or personal property, or for money had and received, or for money loaned, or on a statute where the sum sought to be recovered is a sum of money other than a penalty or on a guaranty, the plaintiff may, at the first term at which the cause shall have been placed upon the General Calendar, upon five days' notice to the defendant, and upon competent proof by affidavit of the facts upon which the cause of action is based, apply to the justice holding Part II for an order placing said cause upon the Special Calendar for trial. Copies of the affidavits and exhibits, if any, upon which the application is based must be served with the notice of the application. If upon the affidavits so submitted and the affidavits of the opposing party the court shall be satisfied that there is no substantial defense to the action, or that the answer was not interposed in good faith or was interposed for the purpose of delay, the court may place the cause upon the Special Calendar in Part II. The court may, in its discretion, grant or deny the application, with or without costs, or upon terms, such as admitting facts not actually controverted, consenting to the examination before trial of a party or witnesses, producing books, papers or documents, or giving security to secure the plaintiff in the event of final judgment being in his favor. The papers upon which such application shall be made and the answering affidavits, if any, must be filed with the calendar clerk before 12 o'clock noon of the day for which the application is noticed, and no oral argument will be heard upon such application unless so ordered by the justice holding Part II.

RULES OF SUPREME COURT.

Subdiv. 3. In an action on contract, express or implied, other than a contract to marry, either party may apply in Part II on two days' notice to the adverse party for an order placing the cause upon the Special Calendar. Upon such application, if it appears by affidavit and the pleadings to the satisfaction of the justice holding Part II that the trial of the action will not occupy more than two hours and that no good reason exists why the action should not be promptly tried, he may direct the cause to be placed upon the Special Calendar in Part II, and the cause shall thereupon be disposed of in its regular order on such calendar. The papers upon which the application is made and the answering affidavits, if any, must be filed with the calendar clerk before 12 o'clock noon of the day for which the application is noticed, and no oral argument will be heard upon such applications unless ordered by the justice holding Part II.

Subdiv. 4. All causes and all questions and issues of fact ordered on the Special Calendar shall be placed thereon in the order of filing with the calendar clerk of the order directing the cause to be so placed and shall be called and tried in that order, unless postponed for good cause shown by affidavit to the satisfaction of the justice holding Part II. If the trial of any cause which is placed upon the Special Calendar upon the ground that it will not occupy more than two hours shall nevertheless actually occupy more than that time, the court may, in its discretion, stop the trial and send the cause to the foot of the appropriate General Calendar.

RULE V.

Adjournments.—When a cause has appeared on the Day Calendar it must proceed to termination, unless it shall be made to appear by affidavit to the satisfaction of the court that an adjournment shall be granted. In a cause upon the Day Calendar for trial, where it appears that counsel who is to try the same is to argue a cause upon the Day Calendar of the Supreme Court of the United States, or the Court of Appeals of the State of New York, or the United States Circuit Court of Appeals, or who is actually engaged in the trial of a cause in a Federal or State court of record, except the Municipal Court, sitting in the County of Bronx, New York, Kings, Queens, Nassau or Richmond, the cause shall be adjourned until such argument or trial is concluded, unless the trial in which the counsel is engaged is likely to be protracted. But a cause on the Day Calendar shall not be adjourned on account of the engagement of counsel for more than three days except by the court or upon the consent of all the parties to the cause. Not more than two causes shall be held ready on the Day Calendars for one counsel in addition to the cause in which he is engaged unless otherwise ordered by the court. In any such case the counsel who is to try the causes must be designated on the call of the Day Calendar.

RULE VI.

Terms of court; number of; times of holding; time of opening; what causes tried at, respectively.—There shall be three Trial

TRIAL AND SPECIAL TERMS.

Terms of the Supreme Court, Bronx County, to be known respectively as Trial Terms, Parts I, II and III, and one Equity Term, to be known as Special Term. Each of these terms shall commence on the first Monday of January, February, March, April, May, June, October, November and December in each year (except that when the first Monday is a legal holiday the term shall commence on the day following). In addition, Trial Term, Part I, and Special Term shall each hold a term during July, August and September in each year, and all terms shall continue to the Friday preceding the first Monday of the following term, or until the term shall be adjourned without day.

The terms shall open at 10 A. M. on each trial day during the term, and shall continue in session until 4:30 P. M. Applications for the trial of criminal causes and the disposition of such causes shall be made to the justice holding Trial Term, Part I. (Amended, 1917.)

RULE VII.

Motions and ex parte.—Motions may be noticed for any day during the term. The order to show cause or notice of motion, with proof of service thereof, must be filed with the clerk before noon on the day prior to which it is noticed to be heard, except when an order to show cause is granted returnable in less than three days, when application may be made to the justice presiding at Special Term to have same added to the calendar.

Whenever filed papers may be required in any causes pending at Special Term the attorneys must requisition them in advance.

Applications for all court orders, ex parte or by consent, or where notice has been waived or is not required, must be made to Special Term at the clerk's office. Any ex parte court order granted by any justice of the court other than the one assigned to hold Special Term, shall not be entered by the clerk.

RULE VIII.

Fines imposed on delinquent jurors.—An order directing a delinquent juror to show cause why the payment of a fine should not be enforced must be granted by and made returnable before the justice by whom said fine is imposed, and made returnable at a Trial Term to which said justice is assigned upon such day and at such time as he shall designate.

Where a justice by whom a fine was imposed has ceased to be a member of the court, or has been designated as a member of the Appellate Division, or the Appellate Term, or is absent or unable for any reason to hear or determine the matter, the order directing the delinquent juror to show cause in such case must be granted by and made returnable before and heard and determined by the justice assigned to hold Trial Term, Part I, upon such day of the term and at such time as he shall designate.

RULE IX.

Accounts of trustees.—In all actions or proceedings brought in the Supreme Court involving an accounting of a testamentary trustee or a trustee under a deed, notice of such action or proceeding must be given to the State Comptroller before a judgment or order is made passing the accounts of such trustees.

SURROGATES' COURT, NEW YORK COUNTY.

RULES OF PRACTICE OF THE SURROGATES' COURT, NEW YORK COUNTY.

RULE I.

Papers.—Each petition, decree, order, objection, answer, affidavit, stipulation and other paper submitted to the court shall be indorsed with the title of the proceeding to which it relates, and a description of the paper and the name and post-office address of the attorney presenting it.

No decree or paper on file in this court will be intrusted to the attorneys or parties except for the purpose of proper examination in the office where it is deposited, and if any such document or paper shall be needed on a hearing before any referee appointed by this court the same shall be intrusted to a clerk or messenger of this court and delivered to the referee, who shall execute a receipt therefor.

No paper will be received for consideration by the surrogate, or for filing in his office, unless it is of the weight prescribed by Rule XIX. General Rules of Practice, or unless it is written or printed in black characters and conforms in all other respects, so far as practicable, to the requirements of said rule.

No paper will be received by the clerk of the court after argument or submission of a matter subsequent to the date fixed by the surrogate for the receipt of the same, and no such paper shall be received unless a copy has been served upon the attorney or attorneys for the other party or parties who have appeared in the proceeding.

RULE II.

Motion calendar.—A motion calendar will be called on Tuesday and Friday of each week at 10:30 o'clock A. M., except that during the month of July there will be a calendar on Tuesdays only, and from the last Tuesday in July until the first Tuesday after the 15th of September there will be no calendar.

RULE III.

When motion or proceeding may be entered on calendar; adjournment of motion.—To entitle a motion or proceeding to be placed upon the Motion Calendar proof of service of all orders, citations and other papers on which the motion or application is made shall be furnished to the Clerk of the court at or before one o'clock on the day preceding the motion day. Except where a written stipulation of all the parties to the proceeding has been filed with the clerk of the court, a motion shall be adjourned only upon the return day thereof, upon showing legal grounds therefor to the satisfaction of the surrogate.

Proceedings or motions which have been marked "reserved generally" may be restored to the calendar upon two days' notice to all parties who have appeared in the proceeding.

RULE IV.

Probate; will and copy to be filed.—The will, if not lost or destroyed, shall be filed with the petition for probate, unless, upon good cause shown by affidavit, the surrogate dispenses therewith, in which case the will must be filed at least two days before the return day of the citation.

In all cases a copy of the will must be filed with the petition. With such copy there must also be filed an affidavit of two adult persons that they have compared the copy with the original will and that the copy is a true and correct one.

RULE V.

In probate proceedings when all parties in interest have waived the service of citation, notice of at least two days must be given to the probate clerk before the testimony of the subscribing witnesses will be taken.

RULE VI.

Contested probates.—A copy of any objections filed to the probate of a last will and testament shall be served upon the proponent or his attorney in case the proponent shall have appeared by attorney.

In a contested probate proceeding notice of trial shall be served and a note of issue filed as prescribed by section 977 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

In cases of contests in probate proceedings, where a notice of objection filed is required by section 2618, Code of Civil Procedure, and within five days after objections to the probate are filed, the proponent shall present a verified petition for and procure and enter an order directing such notice. If the proponent fails to present such petition and fails to procure and enter such order within five days after objections are filed, any other party to the proceeding may present such petition and order.

RULE VII.

Jury trials of probate cases.—Within five days after a jury trial is demanded in the objections filed to the probate of a will the party making the demand shall present on two days' notice of settlement to the attorneys of all parties who have appeared by attorney a proposed order directing such trial by jury. Such order shall state plainly and concisely the controverted questions of fact to be tried by jury. If a party demanding a trial by jury fails to serve and present a proposed order as aforesaid, such order may thereafter be presented by any party to the proceeding.

RULE VIII.

Accountings.—When a petition for a voluntary account is presented the account to which it relates must be filed therewith. Upon an accounting of any executor, administrator c t. a or testamentary trustee a copy of the will must be filed with the petition and account.

Where a representative of an estate is required by law to pay a transfer tax, no decree in a final accounting proceeding will be signed except upon the production of a receipt for the payment of transfer tax, sealed and countersigned as provided in section 236 of the Tax Law. Exemption from payment of transfer tax must be shown by a copy of an order of exemption. (Amended October 20, 1916.)

SURROGATES' COURT, NEW YORK COUNTY.

RULE IX.

Contested accountings.—On an accounting by an executor, administrator, guardian or trustee any party interested or a creditor desiring to contest the account shall file specific objections thereto and shall serve a copy thereof on the accounting party or upon his attorney in case he shall have appeared by attorney within eight days after the filing of the account, where the accounting is a compulsory one, and within eight days after the return of the citation or within eight days after the proceeding is marked for decree where the accounting is a voluntary one, or within such further or other time in either case as shall be allowed by the surrogate. A special guardian in an accounting proceeding shall file his report or objections within eight days after his appointment, unless for cause shown his time to file such report or objections be extended by the surrogate.

The contest of the account shall be confined to the items or matter objected to.

RULE X.

Affidavit of regularity.—With every proposed decree on an accounting there must be submitted an affidavit of regularity setting forth the necessary jurisdictional facts.

RULE XI.

Entry of decrees against infants in accountings.—In any proceeding for a judicial settlement of an account, wherein a special guardian shall be appointed or a general guardian shall appear to protect the interests of an infant party to such accounting, no decree shall be entered upon default against such infant, but such decree shall be so entered only on the written report of the guardian appearing for such infant that he has carefully examined the account and finds it correct, and upon two days' notice to the guardian of the settlement thereof.

RULE XII.

Administration.—Upon an application for letters of administration where it appears that the intestate was at the time of his death the subject of a foreign power, notice of the application shall be given to the consul or consular representative of such foreign power.

RULE XIII.

Guardianship.—A petition for the application by a guardian for an infant's property, or any portion thereof, to the support, maintenance and education of the infant, shall show the terms of any previous order for the application of any portion of the infant's property.

When the application is made by a person other than the guardian of the property or a parent of the infant, the duly acknowledged consent of such guardian or parent shall be annexed to the petition, or the application must be made on notice to such guardian or parent.

RULES OF PRACTICE

RULE XIV.

A respondent who files an answer or objection shall file there-with a notice of appearance.

RULE XV.

Appearance of a general guardian or committee.—Where an infant appears by his general guardian or where a lunatic, idiot or habitual drunkard appears by his committee the general guardian or the committee shall show that such general guardian or such committee is competent to protect the rights of the infant or incompetent and has no interest adverse to that of the infant or incompetent, and is not connected in business with the attorney or counsel of or any party to the proceeding. It must appear whether or not such general guardian or committee is entitled to share in the distribution of the estate or fund in which the infant or incompetent is interested, and if the general guardian or committee is in any way interested in the estate or fund the nature of such interest must be disclosed. Where a general guardian appears for an infant, the name, residence and relationship to the infant of the person with whom the infant is residing must be disclosed, and also whether or not the infant has a parent living, and if a parent is living, whether or not such parent has knowledge of and approves such appearance, and such knowledge and approval should be shown by the affidavit of such parent. If the infant has no parent living, like knowledge and approval of such appearance by the person with whom the infant resides must be shown in like manner.

If the foregoing provisions of this rule are not strictly complied with, the surrogate will appoint a special guardian for the infant or incompetent, as provided in section 2534, Code of Civil Procedure, notwithstanding the appearance by the general guardian or committee.

RULE XVI.

Referee's report.—A referee shall file with his report all the testimony taken and all the papers and exhibits that were before him in the proceeding in which the report is filed.

When a referee's report has been filed said report shall be confirmed as of course unless exceptions thereto be filed by a party interested in the accounting or proceeding within ten days after a written notice of such filing and a copy of such report shall have been served upon the opposing party; and in case exceptions shall be so filed, any party may bring on the hearing of said exceptions on any stated motion day on the same notice that would be required for the hearing of a motion.

RULE XVII.

Justification of sureties to undertaking on appeal.—The respondent on any appeal from a decree or order of this court may within ten days after the filing of the undertaking required on such appeal serve upon the attorney for the appellant a written notice that he excepts to the sufficiency of the sureties therein; whereupon and within ten days thereafter such sureties, or other sureties in a new undertaking to the same effect, must justify before the surrogate, or a clerk designated for that purpose, on five days' notice of such justification, to be served upon the respondent's attorney, by each surety appearing in person before said surrogate or designated clerk and submitting to an examination, under oath, on the part of the appellant, touching his sufficiency. If such sureties shall be found sufficient, said surrogate or designated clerk will indorse an allowance thereof upon the undertaking or a copy thereof, and a notice of such allowance shall be served upon the attorney for the exceptant; and the effect of any failure to so justify and procure such allowance shall be to avoid the undertaking.

RULE XVIII.

Justification of sureties to bond of executor, administrator, guardian, etc.—Principals and sureties upon bonds and undertakings, if natural persons, must appear and qualify before the clerk designated for that purpose by the surrogate. Whenever a bond with sureties shall be filed by an executor, administrator, guardian or trustee any person interested in the estate may apply to the surrogate for an order requiring the sureties in said bond to appear before him or a clerk designated for that purpose and submit to an examination under oath as to their sufficiency as such sureties. If it shall appear to the satisfaction of the surrogate that such examination is necessary he will make an order prescribing the time and place where such examination shall take place, a copy of which order shall be served upon such executor, administrator, guardian or trustee at least five days before the time fixed for such examination. If on such examination the surrogate shall be satisfied of the sufficiency of such surety he will indorse his approval upon the bond or a copy thereof; and in case such surety on such examination shall not in the opinion of the surrogate be sufficient the surrogate will make an order requiring the substitution of new sureties within five days after the service of a copy of said order upon the executor, administrator, guardian or other trustee, or his attorney, if he shall have appeared by attorney on such examination.

RULE XIX.

Notice of settlement of orders and decrees in litigated motions.—Two days' notice of the settlement of an order on a litigated motion or of a decree or decision shall be given in writing to all the parties who have appeared and to any special guardian in the proceeding in which such order, decree or decision is to be made.

RULE XX.

Costs and allowances.—Whenever a party to a decree shall deem himself entitled to costs the matter will be considered and determined by the surrogate on two days' notice of adjustment. With said notice shall be served a statement showing the items of costs and disbursements to which the party may deem himself entitled, which disbursements shall be duly verified both as to their amount and necessity. The disbursements for referee's and stenographer's fees must be sustained by affidavits or detailed proof.

At the same time and on like notice the surrogate will pass upon any application for an additional allowance. Such application must be accompanied by an affidavit setting forth the number of days necessarily occupied in the hearing or trial, in preparing the account for settlement and in the preparation for the trial, the time occupied on each day in the rendition of the services, their nature and extent in detail, including the services necessarily rendered or to be rendered in the drawing, entering or executing of the decree. In case such trial shall have been had before a referee the time necessarily occupied in such trial before him may be shown by a certificate of such referee.

RULE XXI.

No petition for the probate of a will or for the grant of letters of administration or of guardianship will be entertained during the pendency of a prior proceeding for the same or like relief respecting the same estate or fund or the estate or person of the same infant, except where there is unusual delay in prosecuting such proceeding, and then only upon application to the surrogate, with notice to the prior applicant.

RULE XXII.

Compromise.—Upon application for leave to compromise it should appear by the affidavit of the petitioner's attorney that he has investigated the subject matter of the compromise or the facts of any alleged cause of action. If the attorney has become concerned in the application or its subject matter at the instance of the party with whom the compromise is proposed, or at the instance of any representative of such party, that fact must be disclosed.

RULE XXIII.

Transfer tax proceeding.—Upon the filing of the appraiser's report in a transfer tax proceeding the surrogate will enter the order (upon the submission thereof) determining the value of the property and the amount of tax. The matter will not appear on the calendar at this stage, nor will the court then consider objections to the report.

A party having objections to the report, or the order entered thereupon, may, within sixty days, file a notice of appeal, which must specify the grounds of objection. Upon filing said notice of appeal with the clerk of the court, together with proof of service of said notice upon all parties that appeared before the appraiser, the proceeding will be placed upon the calendar for the next regular motion day without further notice.

Upon the return of the appraiser's notice of time and place of appraisal a special guardian will be appointed to protect the interests of infants if it appears that their rights are involved and they are not otherwise adequately represented.

SURROGATE'S COURT, KINGS COUNTY.

In all applications made to the court to exempt an estate from taxation, or to assess a tax without the appointment of an appraiser, the petition must give the residence of each beneficiary or person entitled to a distributive share. (Amended May 1, 1918.)

---

RULES OF PRACTICE IN THE SURROGATE'S COURT, KINGS COUNTY.

RULE I.

The Surrogate's Court is open for the transaction of business on every secular day as follows: From September 1 to June 30, from 9 A. M. to 4 P. M., except on Saturday; from July 1 to August 31, from 9 A. M. to 2 P. M., except on Saturday; on Saturday, from 9 A. M. to 12 M.

RULE II.

Every paper to be used in the Court shall be endorsed with the title of the proceeding to which it relates, a description of the paper and the name and post-office address of the attorney presenting it.

RULE III.

Every petition received in the office of the Court, unless an order to the contrary shall be endorsed thereon, shall be forthwith marked with the date of its receipt and placed in a repository suitably labeled and displayed. Until disposed of by the Court such petition shall there remain, open to the inspection of the public, except when removed for proper examination.

RULE IV.

No paper in the office of the Court will be intrusted to any attorney, party or other person except for proper examination thereof in the said office.

If any referee appointed by this Court shall request the delivery to him of any such paper for use before him, the same shall be delivered to him upon his execution of a receipt therefor and by a clerk or messenger of the court.

RULE V.

In a proceeding for the probate of a will, not lost or destroyed, a copy of the will shall be filed with the petition and on or before the return of the citation the original will shall be filed.

RULE VI.

Where two or more instruments are offered for probate, citation shall issue to each legatee, devisee or other beneficiary in being named or indicated in any one of such instruments, if any other of such instruments purporting to have been made after the instrument in which he is so named or indicated contains provisions which might adversely affect his interest.

RULE VII.

Upon application for letters of administration, where it appears that an intestate was at death the subject of a foreign power whose Consul is entitled by treaty to the right of administration or intervention, notice of the application shall be given to the Consul whose right is concerned.

RULE VIII.

No petition for the probate of a will, or for the grant of letters of administration or of guardianship will be entertained during the pendency of a prior proceeding for the same or like relief respecting the same estate or the same infant.

RULE IX.

On an accounting by an executor, testamentary trustee or administrator with the will annexed, a copy of the will shall be filed with the petition and account.

RULE X.

When an account is filed for settlement, the accountant shall file therewith a copy of any statement of a claim which has been presented to him and allowed, and which remains unpaid.

RULE XI.

In all proceedings the proofs of service of process shall be filed on or before the day preceding the return, and the proofs of the service of any notice of motion or order to show cause shall be filed on or before the day preceding the day therein named for the hearing of a motion.

RULE XII.

A respondent who files an answer or objection shall file therewith a notice of appearance.

RULE XIII.

If upon trial any party shall offer in evidence a paper in his control, without having before trial submitted the same to opposing counsel for inspection, the Court will in a proper case place the cause at the foot of the calendar, or otherwise postpone the trial, in order that all papers intended for use on the trial, except such as may be reasonably reserved for the examination or contradiction of a witness, may be submitted to opposing counsel for inspection.

If any party shall offer in evidence any paper in his control without having previously submitted the same to opposing counsel for inspection, or if any party shall vexatiously question the authenticity of any paper which has been submitted to his counsel for inspection, the failure so to submit the paper or the making of such question will be regarded by the Court in the adjustment of costs or the consideration of any matter of discretion.

RULE XIV.

At the opening of the trial of a proceeding for accounting the accountant shall present to the Court a statement in writing of the items for which no voucher is filed, the items as to which he holds the affirmative, the objections which he concedes to be well taken and the modifications of the account to which the parties consent; and the objectant shall present to the Court a like statement of the objections which he withdraws.

SURROGATE'S COURT, KINGS COUNTY.

RULE XV.

Special guardians shall file their reports within eight days from the time of their appointment, except where an answer is filed and an adjournment is had, or the time to file the report is extended by order. The report or an accompanying affidavit must state in detail the work done and the number of days spent in its performance.

RULE XVI.

No allowance will be made to an accountant on the settlement of his account unless there is contained in or appended to his bill of costs a verified statement of the services for which he seeks allowance.

If the accountant seeks allowance for services to be rendered in drawing, entering or executing the decree, such statement shall show the nature of such services.

RULE XVII.

Reports, affidavits and statements showing services for which allowance is asked shall be served upon all parties appearing in the proceeding, and must be filed with proof of such service.

RULE XVIII.

Two days' notice of the settlement of any order on a litigated motion or of any decree or decision in writing shall be given to all the parties who have appeared in the proceeding in which such order, decree or decision is to be made and to any special guardian appointed therein.

When a proposed order, decree or decision shall be served, with notice of settlement thereof, the party served shall not submit any complete substitute therefor, but may submit proposed amendments thereto, properly referring by page and folio to the portions of the paper sought to be amended and containing after each amendment a statement of the grounds therefor.

RULE XIX.

The Court will sit for the disposition of litigated business during the weeks commencing on the first, second and third Mondays of each month, except July, August and September, and during the week commencing on the third Monday of September.

RULE XX.

A calendar of returns of process and of motions will be called on each secular day of the year except Friday and Saturday.

Upon the call of the Calendar on any day not appointed for the disposition of litigated business, all cases in which an issue is joined and all motions which are opposed, except such cases or motions as shall be submitted or specially set down for early hearing by order, shall be adjourned to a day thereafter appointed for the disposition of litigated business.

RULES OF PRACTICE.

RULE XXI.

A Calendar of cases in which orders shall have been made for the trial of any question before the Court and a jury will be called on the first Monday of each month, except July, August and September, and on each day thereafter while the Court shall sit for the purpose. Such cases, so far as any question therein shall require trial by jury, will then be tried in their order unless adjournment is granted upon proof of legal excuse.

RULE XXII.

A Calendar of motions and of cases to be tried by the Court without a jury will be called on the third Monday of September and on the second Monday of each other month, except July and August, and on each day thereafter while the Court shall sit for the purpose. Such motions and cases will then be heard unless the Court is occupied with the Calendar of Jury Cases, or adjournment is granted upon proof of legal excuse.

RULE XXIII.

An order for a trial by jury in the Surrogate's Court shall set down the trial for a day therein named, and such order, or a further order, shall state distinctly and plainly each question of fact to be tried. An order to be made in accordance with this rule must be submitted for settlement at the time of the demand for a trial by jury or, in default thereof, it may be thereafter settled at the instance of any party in the same manner as if it were an order upon a litigated motion. (Amended Dec. 21, 1917.)

RULE XXIV.

Principals and sureties upon bonds and undertakings, if natural persons, must appear and qualify at the same time before the Administration Clerk. No bond for a sum less than fifty dollars will be approved. No bond given by a surety company, the penalty of which is more than two thousand dollars, will be approved unless it shall be accompanied by the certificate of the surety that the principal has made an agreement with it for the deposit of the moneys and other depositable assets of the estate in the manner declared to be lawful by section 813 of the Code of Civil Procedure, and that such agreement has provided for such deposit with one or more depositaries previously designated in writing by the Surrogate.

RULE XXV.

A petition for the application by a guardian of an infant's property or any portion thereof to the support or education of the infant shall show that an annual accounting has been duly filed or that good cause exists for disregarding the omission.

The petition shall show the terms of any previous order for the application of any portion of the infant's property. The order thereon shall state the period during which the application of the infants' property shall continue and if an order for its continuance for more than one year is sought the petition must show the circumstances which justify such order.

When the infant is over fourteen years of age he shall join in, subscribe and verify the petition, and when the petition is made by a person other than the guardian of the property, a copy of the petition, together with two days' notice of the time when it will be presented to the Court, shall be served upon such guardian.

RULE XXVI.

Upon application for leave to compromise, the petitioner's attorney, if any, shall state whether or not he has become concerned in the application or its subject matter at the instance of the party with whom the compromise is proposed and whether or not he has received or is to receive compensation from such party.

RULE XXVII.

The guardian of an infant's property, if such guardian is a natural person, shall, upon filing the annual account of such infant's property, produce for examination by the surrogate all securities or evidences of deposit or investment which he has relating to the disposition of such property. (Added Sept. 17, 1917.)

RULES OF PRACTICE.

RULES OF THE SURROGATE'S COURT, QUEENS COUNTY.

RULE I.

Business hours.—The Surrogate's office is open for the transaction of business, except on Sundays, Saturdays and Holidays, as follows: From September 1 to June 30, from 9 A. M. to 4 P. M.; from July 1 to August 31, from 9 A. M. to 2 P. M.; on Saturdays from 9 A. M. to 12 M.

RULE II.

Calendar.—The regular calendar will be called at 10 a. m., on Tuesday of each week, except during the months of August and September.

A calendar of cases in which orders shall have been made for the trial of any controverted questions of fact by the court, with a jury, will be called on the last Tuesday of each month, except July, August and September and on each day thereafter while the court shall sit for the purpose. Such cases will then be tried in their order unless adjournments be granted upon proof of legal excuse. (Amended Feb. 11, 1915.)

RULE III.

Cases not answered.—Cases appearing on the calendar and not answered will be marked adjourned for one week; if not answered on the adjourned day they will be marked "off calendar" and can then be restored only upon two days' notice to, or the written consent of all parties.

RULE IV.

Proofs of service.—Proofs of service of citations or orders to show cause in all proceedings must be filed on or before the day next preceding the return day in order to have the cases placed on the calendar.

RULE V.

Form of papers.—All petitions, decrees, orders, objections and other papers must be written or printed in black ink and endorsed with the title of the proceeding, indicating the nature of the application, and the name and post office address of the attorney. A proposed order must not be attached to any other paper.

All petitions, bonds, proposed orders and other papers must be filed and entered in the office before being submitted to the Surrogate.

RULE VI.

Appearances.—Parties to proceedings may appear personally or by attorney. An attorney appearing for a party duly cited must file a written notice of appearance, and when appearing for a party not cited he must, in addition to the notice of appearance, file a written authorization from such party, duly executed and acknowledged as a deed to be recorded.

SURROGATE'S COURT, QUEENS COUNTY.

RULE VII.

Objections; trial by jury.—Objections in probate, accounting or other proceedings must be in writing, duly verified, and a copy must be served upon the petitioner, or upon his attorney, in case he has appeared by attorney.

Within five days after a jury trial has been demanded, the party making the demand shall present, on two days' notice of settlement to the attorneys of all parties who have appeared, a proposed order directing such trial, which order shall state the controverted questions of fact to be tried by jury. If a party demanding a trial by jury should fail to serve and present such order, it may be presented by any party to the proceeding. (Amended Feb. 11, 1915.)

RULE VIII.

Stipulations for adjournments.—Stipulations for adjournments must be in writing, signed by all parties who have appeared in the proceeding and filed on or before the day next preceding the date set for hearing.

RULE IX.

Probate proceedings.—In probate proceedings the original will and a sworn copy thereof must be filed with the petition, unless upon good cause shown by affidavit the Surrogate dispenses with the filing of the original will, in which case it must be filed at least two days before the return day of the citation.

RULE X.

Foreign wills.—All exemplified copies of foreign wills shall be accompanied by a petition and an order for recording the same.

RULE XI.

Letters of administration.—No letters of administration will be issued while another application for letters on the same estate is pending. .

RULE XII.

Citizens of foreign countries.—Upon application for letters of administration, where it appears that an intestate was at the time of his death the subject of a foreign power whose Consul is entitled by treaty to the right of administration or intervention, notice of the application shall be given to the Consul whose right is concerned.

RULE XIII.

Contest of probate of will.—A party seeking to contest the probate of a last Will and Testament must file with the Clerk of the Court, a written and verified answer, containing a concise statement of the grounds of his objection to such probate, and any facts he may allege tending to establish a want of jurisdiction of the Court to hear such probate. In case such jurisdiction shall be denied or the right of any objecting party to appear and contest shall be questioned, the Court will first hear and pass upon the question of jurisdiction, or the status of the contestant, unless, for the convenience of the parties or the Court, it shall be ordered otherwise.

RULES OF PRACTICE.

In all cases of contests in probate proceedings, the proponents shall, within five days after objections to the probate are filed, present a verified petition for and procure and enter an order directing notice of the time and place of hearing of such objections to be given, and prescribing the manner of giving such notice, to all persons in being who would take any interest in any property under the provisions of the will, and to the executor or executors, trustee or trustees named therein, if any, who have not appeared in the proceeding, as required by section 2617 of the Code, and such petition shall contain the names and addresses of such parties, and state whether any, and which of them, are infants or of unsound mind. In case the proponents shall not present such petition and enter such order within the time aforesaid, such petition may be presented and order entered by or on behalf of any party or parties interested in the estate.

RULE XIV.

Certain persons must be made parties in probate proceedings.—Whenever a party shall put in issue on probate the validity, construction, or the effect of any disposition of personal property under section 2624 of the Code, if it shall appear that all persons interested in such construction are not before the Court, the determination of such question shall be suspended until such persons shall be made parties; and the executor named in the will shall not be held to represent the legatees therein for the purpose of such construction.

RULE XV.

When person not executor entitled to costs.—Whenever any person shall appear in support of the will propounded under section 2617 of the Code, such person shall not thereby become entitled to recover any costs on the probate of said will unless it shall appear to the satisfaction of the Court that the interest of such person was not sufficiently represented and prosecuted by the executor named in the will and his counsel.

RULE XVI.

Accounting (petition).—When a petition for a voluntary accounting is presented the account and vouchers to which it relates shall be filed therewith.

RULE XVII.

Statement of unpaid claims.—When an account is filed for settlement, the accountant shall file therewith a copy of any statement of a claim which has been presented to him and allowed, and which remains unpaid.

SURROGATE'S COURT, QUEENS COUNTY.

RULE XVIII.

Account (copy of will to accompany).—On an accounting by an executor, testamentary trustee, or administrator with the will annexed, a copy of the will shall be filed with the petition and account.

RULE XIX.

Appointment of special guardian for infant.—In the absence of a petition by an infant over fourteen years of age for the appointment of a special guardian in any proceeding, the Surrogate will appoint a special guardian upon his own motion. No special guardian to represent the interest of an infant in any proceeding will be appointed on the nomination of the petitioner or his attorney, or upon the application of a person having an interest adverse to that of the infant. To authorize the appointment of a person as a special guardian on the application of an infant or otherwise in a proceeding in this Court, or to entitle a general guardian of such infant to appear for him in such proceeding, it must appear that such person, or such general guardian, is competent to protect the right of the infant, and that he has no interest adverse to that of the infant and is not connected in business with the attorney or counsel of any party to the proceeding. Whenever an infant interested in any proceeding in said Surrogate's Court has a general guardian no decree will be entered without appointing a special guardian to represent said infant's interest therein, unless such general guardian shall file his appearance in writing and his affidavit of no adverse interest, with the Clerk of said Surrogate's Court.

RULE XX.

Reports of special guardians.—Special guardians in accounting proceedings shall file their reports within five days from the time of their appointment, except where objections are filed and an adjournment is had, or their time to file report is extended by the Surrogate. The report or an accompanying affidavit must state in detail the work done and the number of days spent in its performance.

RULE XXI.

Bill of costs.—No allowance will be made to an accountant on the judicial settlement of his account unless the bill of costs contains a detailed statement of the days employed in connection with the account, showing the time occupied on each day in the rendition of the services, and their nature and extent in detail.

RULE XXII.

Notice of settlement of decree.—In a proceeding where a notice of appearance and demand has been filed, or a special guardian appointed, two days' notice of settlement of decree must be given, unless all parties who have appeared consent to the entry of the decree.

RULES OF PRACTICE.

RULE XXII-A.

Filing receipt for payment of transfer tax.—Where a representative of an estate is required by law to pay a transfer tax, no decree judicially settling the account of such representative will be entered in this Court unless there has been filed in my office a receipt for the payment of such tax, sealed and countersigned as provided by section 236 of the Tax Law, or it has been shown that the estate is exempt from taxation. (Added February 18, 1916.)

RULE XXIII.

Hearing of disputed claim.—Where the parties consent that the Surrogate may hear and determine a disputed claim against the estate of a decedent upon the judicial settlement of the account of an executor or administrator, as provided by section 1822 of the Code of Civil Procedure, the attention of the Court must be directed to this fact on filing the petition for accounting in order that the matter may be placed on the appropriate calendar.

RULE XXIV.

Amendment of proposed decree, etc.—When a proposed order, decree or decision shall be served, with notice of settlement thereof, the party served shall not submit any complete substitute therefor, but may submit proposed amendments thereto, properly referring by page and folio to the portions of the paper sought to be amended and containing after each amendment a statement of the grounds therefor.

RULE XXV.

Papers not to be removed from office.—No record or paper on file in this Court will be intrusted to the custody of the attorneys or parties, except for the purpose of proper examination, in the office where it is deposited; and if any such document or paper shall be needed before any Referee appointed by this Court, the same shall be entrusted to a clerk or messenger of this Court and delivered to the Referee, who shall execute a receipt therefor, and for its redelivery.

RULE XXVI.

Allowance for support of infants.—No allowance will be made to infants for support or education under section 2846, Code of Civil Procedure, unless the petition shows that an annual accounting has been properly filed or good cause is therein shown why it has not been filed. The petition shall show also the terms of any previous order in the same estate, or, if none has been made, that fact shall be stated. Except in exceptional cases, an allowance will be made for the period of one year only, and the order must so provide. Where the infant is over fourteen years of age, he shall join in the petition; and when application is made by any person other than the guardian of the property it shall be made on at least two days' notice to such guardian.

RULE XXVII.

Motions for reargument.—All motions for reargument must be submitted on papers, showing clearly that some question decisive of the case, and which was presented by counsel upon the argument, has been overlooked by the Court; or that the decision is inconsistent with some statute, or with a controlling decision to which, through the neglect or inadvertence of counsel, the attention of the Court was not drawn.

RULE XXVIII.

Transfer tax proceeding.—1. Upon the filing of the appraiser's report in a transfer tax proceeding the Surrogate will immediately enter the order determining the value of the property and the amount of tax. The matter will not appear on the calendar at this stage, nor will the Court then consider objections to the report.

2. A party having objections to the report, or the order entered thereupon, may, within sixty days, file a notice of appeal. Said notice to be served upon all parties appearing before the appraiser, and proof of service must be filed with the clerk, with the notice of appeal. Thereupon the proceeding will be placed upon the calendar for the next regular calendar day. This notice must specify the grounds of objection.

3. A special guardian will be appointed 'o protect the interests of infants upon the return of the appraiser's notice, if it appears that their rights are involved and they are not otherwise adequately represented.

4. A proposed order on a motion to exempt an estate from taxation, must be accompanied by a copy thereof.

RULES OF PRACTICE

RULE VII.

Upon application for letters of administration, where it appears that an intestate was at death the subject of a foreign power whose Consul is entitled by treaty to the right of administration or intervention, notice of the application shall be given to the Consul whose right is concerned.

RULE VIII.

No petition for the probate of a will, or for the grant of letters of administration or of guardianship will be entertained during the pendency of a prior proceeding for the same or like relief respecting the same estate or the same infant.

RULE IX.

On an accounting by an executor, testamentary trustee or administrator with the will annexed, a copy of the will shall be filed with the petition and account.

RULE X.

When an account is filed for settlement, the accountant shall file therewith a copy of any statement of a claim which has been presented to him and allowed, and which remains unpaid.

RULE XI.

In all proceedings the proofs of service of process shall be filed on or before the day preceding the return, and the proofs of the service of any notice of motion or order to show cause shall be filed on or before the day preceding the day therein named for the hearing of a motion.

RULE XII.

A respondent who files an answer or objection shall file therewith a notice of appearance.

RULE XIII.

If upon trial any party shall offer in evidence a paper in his control, without having before trial submitted the same to opposing counsel for inspection, the Court will in a proper case place the cause at the foot of the calendar, or otherwise postpone the trial, in order that all papers intended for use on the trial, except such as may be reasonably reserved for the examination or contradiction of a witness, may be submitted to opposing counsel for inspection.

If any party shall offer in evidence any paper in his control without having previously submitted the same to opposing counsel for inspection, or if any party shall vexatiously question the authenticity of any paper which has been submitted to his counsel for inspection, the failure so to submit the paper or the making of such question will be regarded by the Court in the adjustment of costs or the consideration of any matter of discretion.

RULE XIV.

At the opening of the trial of a proceeding for accounting the accountant shall present to the Court a statement in writing of the items for which no voucher is filed, the items as to which he holds the affirmative, the objections which he concedes to be well taken and the modifications of the account to which the parties consent; and the objectant shall present to the Court a like statement of the objections which he withdraws.

SURROGATE'S COURT, KINGS COUNTY.

RULE XV.

Special guardians shall file their reports within eight days from the time of their appointment, except where an answer is filed and an adjournment is had, or the time to file the report is extended by order. The report or an accompanying affidavit must state in detail the work done and the number of days spent in its performance.

RULE XVI.

No allowance will be made to an accountant on the settlement of his account unless there is contained in or appended to his bill of costs a verified statement of the services for which he seeks allowance.

If the accountant seeks allowance for services to be rendered in drawing, entering or executing the decree, such statement shall show the nature of such services.

RULE XVII.

Reports, affidavits and statements showing services for which allowance is asked shall be served upon all parties appearing in the proceeding, and must be filed with proof of such service.

RULE XVIII.

Two days' notice of the settlement of any order on a litigated motion or of any decree or decision in writing shall be given to all the parties who have appeared in the proceeding in which such order, decree or decision is to be made and to any special guardian appointed therein.

When a proposed order, decree or decision shall be served, with notice of settlement thereof, the party served shall not submit any complete substitute therefor, but may submit proposed amendments thereto, properly referring by page and folio to the portions of the paper sought to be amended and containing after each amendment a statement of the grounds therefor.

RULE XIX.

The Court will sit for the disposition of litigated business during the weeks commencing on the first, second and third Mondays of each month, except July, August and September, and during the week commencing on the third Monday of September.

RULE XX.

A calendar of returns of process and of motions will be called on each secular day of the year except Friday and Saturday.

Upon the call of the Calendar on any day not appointed for

RULES OF PRACTICE.

the disposition of litigated business, all cases in which an issue is joined and all motions which are opposed, except such cases or motions as shall be submitted or specially set down for early hearing by order, shall be adjourned to a day thereafter appointed for the disposition of litigated business.

RULE XXI.

A Calendar of cases in which orders shall have been made for the trial of any question before the Court and a jury will be called on the first Monday of each month, except July, August and September, and on each day thereafter while the Court shall sit for the purpose. Such cases, so far as any question therein shall require trial by jury, will then be tried in their order unless adjournment is granted upon proof of legal excuse.

RULE XXII.

A Calendar of motions and of cases to be tried by the Court without a jury will be called on the third Monday of September and on the second Monday of each other month, except July and August, and on each day thereafter while the Court shall sit for the purpose. Such motions and cases will then be heard unless the Court is occupied with the Calendar of Jury Cases, or adjournment is granted upon proof of legal excuse.

RULE XXIII.

An order for a trial by jury in the Surrogate's Court shall set down the trial for a day therein named, and such order, or a further order, shall state distinctly and plainly each question of fact to be tried. An order to be made in accordance with this rule must be submitted for settlement at the time of the demand for a trial by jury or, in default thereof, it may be thereafter settled at the instance of any party in the same manner as if it were an order upon a litigated motion. (Amended Dec. 21, 1917.)

RULE XXIV.

Principals and sureties upon bonds and undertakings, if natural persons, must appear and qualify at the same time before the Administration Clerk. No bond for a sum less than fifty dollars will be approved. No bond given by a surety company, the penalty of which is more than two thousand dollars, will be approved unless it shall be accompanied by the certificate of the surety that the principal has made an agreement with it for the deposit of the moneys and other depositable assets of the estate in the manner declared to be lawful by section 813 of the Code of Civil Procedure, and that such agreement has provided for such deposit with one or more depositaries previously designated in writing by the Surrogate.

RULE XXV.

A petition for the application by a guardian of an infant's property or any portion thereof to the support or education of the infant shall show that an annual accounting has been duly filed or that good cause exists for disregarding the omission.

The petition shall show the terms of any previous order for the application of any portion of the infant's property. The order thereon shall state the period during which the application of the infants' property shall continue and if an order for its continuance for more than one year is sought the petition must show the circumstances which justify such order.

When the infant is over fourteen years of age he shall join in, subscribe and verify the petition, and when the petition is made by a person other than the guardian of the property, a copy of the petition, together with two days' notice of the time when it will be presented to the Court, shall be served upon such guardian.

RULE XXVI.

Upon application for leave to compromise, the petitioner's attorney, if any, shall state whether or not he has become concerned in the application or its subject matter at the instance of the party with whom the compromise is proposed and whether or not he has received or is to receive compensation from such party.

RULE XXVII.

The guardian of an infant's property, if such guardian is a natural person, shall, upon filing the annual account of such infant's property, produce for examination by the surrogate all securities or evidences of deposit or investment which he has relating to the disposition of such property. (Added Sept. 17, 1917.)

RULES OF PRACTICE.

RULES OF THE SURROGATE'S COURT, QUEENS COUNTY.

RULE I.

Business hours.—The Surrogate's office is open for the transaction of business, except on Sundays, Saturdays and Holidays, as follows: From September 1 to June 30, from 9 A. M. to 4 P. M.; from July 1 to August 31, from 9 A. M. to 2 P. M.; on Saturdays from 9 A. M. to 12 M.

RULE II.

Calendar.—The regular calendar will be called at 10 a. m., on Tuesday of each week, except during the months of August and September.

A calendar of cases in which orders shall have been made for the trial of any controverted questions of fact by the court, with a jury, will be called on the last Tuesday of each month, except July, August and September and on each day thereafter while the court shall sit for the purpose. Such cases will then be tried in their order unless adjournments be granted upon proof of legal excuse. (Amended Feb. 11, 1915.)

RULE III.

Cases not answered.—Cases appearing on the calendar and not answered will be marked adjourned for one week; if not answered on the adjourned day they will be marked "off calendar" and can then be restored only upon two days' notice to, or the written consent of all parties.

RULE IV.

Proofs of service.—Proofs of service of citations or orders to show cause in all proceedings must be filed on or before the day next preceding the return day in order to have the cases placed on the calendar.

RULE V.

Form of papers.—All petitions, decrees, orders, objections and other papers must be written or printed in black ink and endorsed with the title of the proceeding, indicating the nature of the application, and the name and post office address of the attorney. A proposed order must not be attached to any other paper.

All petitions, bonds, proposed orders and other papers must be filed and entered in the office before being submitted to the Surrogate.

RULE VI.

Appearances.—Parties to proceedings may appear personally or by attorney. An attorney appearing for a party duly cited must file a written notice of appearance, and when appearing for a party not cited he must, in addition to the notice of appearance, file a written authorization from such party, duly executed and acknowledged as a deed to be recorded.

SURROGATE'S COURT, QUEENS COUNTY.

RULE VII.

Objections; trial by jury.—Objections in probate, accounting or other proceedings must be in writing, duly verified, and a copy must be served upon the petitioner, or upon his attorney, in case he has appeared by attorney.

Within five days after a jury trial has been demanded, the party making the demand shall present, on two days' notice of settlement to the attorneys of all parties who have appeared, a proposed order directing such trial, which order shall state the controverted questions of fact to be tried by jury. If a party demanding a trial by jury should fail to serve and present such order, it may be presented by any party to the proceeding. (Amended Feb. 11, 1915.)

RULE VIII.

Stipulations for adjournments.—Stipulations for adjournments must be in writing, signed by all parties who have appeared in the proceeding and filed on or before the day next preceding the date set for hearing.

RULE IX.

Probate proceedings.—In probate proceedings the original will and a sworn copy thereof must be filed with the petition, unless upon good cause shown by affidavit the Surrogate dispenses with the filing of the original will, in which case it must be filed at least two days before the return day of the citation.

RULE X.

Foreign wills.—All exemplified copies of foreign wills shall be accompanied by a petition and an order for recording the same.

RULE XI.

Letters of administration.—No letters of administration will be issued while another application for letters on the same estate is pending.

RULE XII.

Citizens of foreign countries.—Upon application for letters of administration, where it appears that an intestate was at the time of his death the subject of a foreign power whose Consul is entitled by treaty to the right of administration or intervention, notice of the application shall be given to the Consul whose right is concerned.

RULE XIII.

Contest of probate of will.—A party seeking to contest the probate of a last Will and Testament must file with the Clerk of the Court, a written and verified answer, containing a concise statement of the grounds of his objection to such probate, and any facts he may allege tending to establish a want of jurisdiction of the Court to hear such probate. In case such jurisdiction shall be denied or the right of any objecting party to appear and contest shall be questioned, the Court will first hear and pass upon the question of jurisdiction, or the status of the contestant, unless, for the convenience of the parties or the Court, it shall be ordered otherwise.

RULES OF PRACTICE.

In all cases of contests in probate proceedings, the proponents shall, within five days after objections to the probate are filed, present a verified petition for and procure and enter an order directing notice of the time and place of hearing of such objections to be given, and prescribing the manner of giving such notice, to all persons in being who would take any interest in any property under the provisions of the will, and to the executor or executors, trustee or trustees named therein, if any, who have not appeared in the proceeding, as required by section 2617 of the Code, and such petition shall contain the names and addresses of such parties, and state whether any, and which of them, are infants or of unsound mind. In case the proponents shall not present such petition and enter such order within the time aforesaid, such petition may be presented and order entered by or on behalf of any party or parties interested in the estate.

RULE XIV.

Certain persons must be made parties in probate proceedings.—Whenever a party shall put in issue on probate the validity, construction, or the effect of any disposition of personal property under section 2624 of the Code, if it shall appear that all persons interested in such construction are not before the Court, the determination of such question shall be suspended until such persons shall be made parties; and the executor named in the will shall not be held to represent the legatees therein for the purpose of such construction.

RULE XV.

When person not executor entitled to costs.—Whenever any person shall appear in support of the will propounded under section 2617 of the Code, such person shall not thereby become entitled to recover any costs on the probate of said will unless it shall appear to the satisfaction of the Court that the interest of such person was not sufficiently represented and prosecuted by the executor named in the will and his counsel.

RULE XVI.

Accounting (petition).—When a petition for a voluntary accounting is presented the account and vouchers to which it relates shall be filed therewith.

RULE XVII.

Statement of unpaid claims.—When an account is filed for settlement, the accountant shall file therewith a copy of any statement of a claim which has been presented to him and allowed, and which remains unpaid.

SURROGATE'S COURT, QUEENS COUNTY.

RULE XVIII.

Account (copy of will to accompany).—On an accounting by an executor, testamentary trustee, or administrator with the will annexed, a copy of the will shall be filed with the petition and account.

RULE XIX.

Appointment of special guardian for infant.—In the absence of a petition by an infant over fourteen years of age for the appointment of a special guardian in any proceeding, the Surrogate will appoint a special guardian upon his own motion. No special guardian to represent the interest of an infant in any proceeding will be appointed on the nomination of the petitioner or his attorney, or upon the application of a person having an interest adverse to that of the infant. To authorize the appointment of a person as a special guardian on the application of an infant or otherwise in a proceeding in this Court, or to entitle a general guardian of such infant to appear for him in such proceeding, it must appear that such person, or such general guardian, is competent to protect the right of the infant, and that he has no interest adverse to that of the infant and is not connected in business with the attorney or counsel of any party to the proceeding. Whenever an infant interested in any proceeding in said Surrogate's Court has a general guardian no decree will be entered without appointing a special guardian to represent said infant's interest therein, unless such general guardian shall file his appearance in writing and his affidavit of no adverse interest, with the Clerk of said Surrogate's Court.

RULE XX.

Reports of special guardians.—Special guardians in accounting proceedings shall file their reports within five days from the time of their appointment, except where objections are filed and an adjournment is had, or their time to file report is extended by the Surrogate. The report or an accompanying affidavit must state in detail the work done and the number of days spent in its performance.

RULE XXI.

Bill of costs.—No allowance will be made to an accountant on the judicial settlement of his account unless the bill of costs contains a detailed statement of the days employed in connection with the account, showing the time occupied on each day in the rendition of the services, and their nature and extent in detail.

RULE XXII.

Notice of settlement of decree.—In a proceeding where a notice of appearance and demand has been filed, or a special guardian appointed, two days' notice of settlement of decree must be given, unless all parties who have appeared consent to the entry of the decree.

RULES OF PRACTICE.

RULE XXII-A.

Filing receipt for payment of transfer tax.—Where a representative of an estate is required by law to pay a transfer tax, no decree judicially settling the account of such representative will be entered in this Court unless there has been filed in my office a receipt for the payment of such tax, sealed and countersigned as provided by section 236 of the Tax Law, or it has been shown that the estate is exempt from taxation. (Added February 18, 1916.)

RULE XXIII.

Hearing of disputed claim.—Where the parties consent that the Surrogate may hear and determine a disputed claim against the estate of a decedent upon the judicial settlement of the account of an executor or administrator, as provided by section 1822 of the Code of Civil Procedure, the attention of the Court must be directed to this fact on filing the petition for accounting in order that the matter may be placed on the appropriate calendar.

RULE XXIV.

Amendment of proposed decree, etc.—When a proposed order, decree or decision shall be served, with notice of settlement thereof, the party served shall not submit any complete substitute therefor, but may submit proposed amendments thereto, properly referring by page and folio to the portions of the paper sought to be amended and containing after each amendment a statement of the grounds therefor.

RULE XXV.

Papers not to be removed from office.—No record or paper on file in this Court will be intrusted to the custody of the attorneys or parties, except for the purpose of proper examination, in the office where it is deposited; and if any such document or paper shall be needed before any Referee appointed by this Court, the same shall be entrusted to a clerk or messenger of this Court and delivered to the Referee, who shall execute a receipt therefor, and for its redelivery.

RULE XXVI.

Allowance for support of infants.—No allowance will be made to infants for support or education under section 2846, Code of Civil Procedure, unless the petition shows that an annual accounting has been properly filed or good cause is therein shown why it has not been filed. The petition shall show also the terms of any previous order in the same estate, or, if none has been made, that fact shall be stated. Except in exceptional cases, an allowance will be made for the period of one year only, and the order must so provide. Where the infant is over fourteen years of age, he shall join in the petition; and when application is made by any person other than the guardian of the property it shall be made on at least two days' notice to such guardian.

SURROGATE'S COURT, QUEENS COUNTY.

RULE XXVII.

Motions for reargument.—All motions for reargument must be submitted on papers, showing clearly that some question decisive of the case, and which was presented by counsel upon the argument, has been overlooked by the Court; or that the decision is inconsistent with some statute, or with a controlling decision to which, through the neglect or inadvertence of counsel, the attention of the Court was not drawn.

RULE XXVIII.

Transfer tax proceeding.—1. Upon the filing of the appraiser's report in a transfer tax proceeding the Surrogate will immediately enter the order determining the value of the property and the amount of tax. The matter will not appear on the calendar at this stage, nor will the Court then consider objections to the report.

2. A party having objections to the report, or the order entered thereupon, may, within sixty days, file a notice of appeal. Said notice to be served upon all parties appearing before the appraiser, and proof of service must be filed with the clerk, with the notice of appeal. Thereupon the proceeding will be placed upon the calendar for the next regular calendar day. This notice must specify the grounds of objection.

3. A special guardian will be appointed to protect the interests of infants upon the return of the appraiser's notice, if it appears that their rights are involved and they are not otherwise adequately represented.

4. A proposed order on a motion to exempt an estate from taxation, must be accompanied by a copy thereof.

RULES OF PRACTICE

RULE VII.

Upon application for letters of administration, where it appears that an intestate was at death the subject of a foreign power whose Consul is entitled by treaty to the right of administration or intervention, notice of the application shall be given to the Consul whose right is concerned.

RULE VIII.

No petition for the probate of a will, or for the grant of letters of administration or of guardianship will be entertained during the pendency of a prior proceeding for the same or like relief respecting the same estate or the same infant.

RULE IX.

On an accounting by an executor, testamentary trustee or administrator with the will annexed, a copy of the will shall be filed with the petition and account.

RULE X.

When an account is filed for settlement, the accountant shall file therewith a copy of any statement of a claim which has been presented to him and allowed, and which remains unpaid.

RULE XI.

In all proceedings the proofs of service of process shall be filed on or before the day preceding the return, and the proofs of the service of any notice of motion or order to show cause shall be filed on or before the day preceding the day therein named for the hearing of a motion.

RULE XII.

A respondent who files an answer or objection shall file therewith a notice of appearance.

RULE XIII.

If upon trial any party shall offer in evidence a paper in his control, without having before trial submitted the same to opposing counsel for inspection, the Court will in a proper case place the cause at the foot of the calendar, or otherwise postpone the trial, in order that all papers intended for use on the trial, except such as may be reasonably reserved for the examination or contradiction of a witness, may be submitted to opposing counsel for inspection.

If any party shall offer in evidence any paper in his control without having previously submitted the same to opposing counsel for inspection, or if any party shall vexatiously question the authenticity of any paper which has been submitted to his counsel for inspection, the failure so to submit the paper or the making of such question will be regarded by the Court in the adjustment of costs or the consideration of any matter of discretion.

RULE XIV.

At the opening of the trial of a proceeding for accounting the accountant shall present to the Court a statement in writing of the items for which no voucher is filed, the items as to which he holds the affirmative, the objections which he concedes to be well taken and the modifications of the account to which the parties consent; and the objectant shall present to the Court a like statement of the objections which he withdraws.

SURROGATE'S COURT, KINGS COUNTY.

RULE XV.

Special guardians shall file their reports within eight days from the time of their appointment, except where an answer is filed and an adjournment is had, or the time to file the report is extended by order. The report or an accompanying affidavit must state in detail the work done and the number of days spent in its performance.

RULE XVI.

No allowance will be made to an accountant on the settlement of his account unless there is contained in or appended to his bill of costs a verified statement of the services for which he seeks allowance.

If the accountant seeks allowance for services to be rendered in drawing, entering or executing the decree, such statement shall show the nature of such services.

RULE XVII.

Reports, affidavits and statements showing services for which allowance is asked shall be served upon all parties appearing in the proceeding, and must be filed with proof of such service.

RULE XVIII.

Two days' notice of the settlement of any order on a litigated motion or of any decree or decision in writing shall be given to all the parties who have appeared in the proceeding in which such order, decree or decision is to be made and to any special guardian appointed therein.

When a proposed order, decree or decision shall be served, with notice of settlement thereof, the party served shall not submit any complete substitute therefor, but may submit proposed amendments thereto, properly referring by page and folio to the portions of the paper sought to be amended and containing after each amendment a statement of the grounds therefor.

RULE XIX.

The Court will sit for the disposition of litigated business during the weeks commencing on the first, second and third Mondays of each month, except July, August and September, and during the week commencing on the third Monday of September.

RULE XX.

A calendar of returns of process and of motions will be called on each secular day of the year except Friday and Saturday.

Upon the call of the Calendar on any day not appointed for

RULES OF PRACTICE.

the disposition of litigated business, all cases in which an issue is joined and all motions which are opposed, except such cases or motions as shall be submitted or specially set down for early hearing by order, shall be adjourned to a day thereafter appointed for the disposition of litigated business.

RULE XXI.

A Calendar of cases in which orders shall have been made for the trial of any question before the Court and a jury will be called on the first Monday of each month, except July, August and September, and on each day thereafter while the Court shall sit for the purpose. Such cases, so far as any question therein shall require trial by jury, will then be tried in their order unless adjournment is granted upon proof of legal excuse.

RULE XXII.

A Calendar of motions and of cases to be tried by the Court without a jury will be called on the third Monday of September and on the second Monday of each other month, except July and August, and on each day thereafter while the Court shall sit for the purpose. Such motions and cases will then be heard unless the Court is occupied with the Calendar of Jury Cases, or adjournment is granted upon proof of legal excuse.

RULE XXIII.

An order for a trial by jury in the Surrogate's Court shall set down the trial for a day therein named, and such order, or a further order, shall state distinctly and plainly each question of fact to be tried. An order to be made in accordance with this rule must be submitted for settlement at the time of the demand for a trial by jury or, in default thereof, it may be thereafter settled at the instance of any party in the same manner as if it were an order upon a litigated motion. (Amended Dec. 21, 1917.)

RULE XXIV.

Principals and sureties upon bonds and undertakings, if natural persons, must appear and qualify at the same time before the Administration Clerk. No bond for a sum less than fifty dollars will be approved. No bond given by a surety company, the penalty of which is more than two thousand dollars, will be approved unless it shall be accompanied by the certificate of the surety that the principal has made an agreement with it for the deposit of the moneys and other depositable assets of the estate in the manner declared to be lawful by section 813 of the Code of Civil Procedure, and that such agreement has provided for such deposit with one or more depositaries previously designated in writing by the Surrogate.

RULE XXV.

A petition for the application by a guardian of an infant's property or any portion thereof to the support or education of the infant shall show that an annual accounting has been duly filed or that good cause exists for disregarding the omission.

The petition shall show the terms of any previous order for the application of any portion of the infant's property. The order thereon shall state the period during which the application of the infants' property shall continue and if an order for its continuance for more than one year is sought the petition must show the circumstances which justify such order.

When the infant is over fourteen years of age he shall join in, subscribe and verify the petition, and when the petition is made by a person other than the guardian of the property, a copy of the petition, together with two days' notice of the time when it will be presented to the Court, shall be served upon such guardian.

RULE XXVI.

Upon application for leave to compromise, the petitioner's attorney, if any, shall state whether or not he has become concerned in the application or its subject matter at the instance of the party with whom the compromise is proposed and whether or not he has received or is to receive compensation from such party.

RULE XXVII.

The guardian of an infant's property, if such guardian is a natural person, shall, upon filing the annual account of such infant's property, produce for examination by the surrogate all securities or evidences of deposit or investment which he has relating to the disposition of such property. (Added Sept. 17, 1917.)

RULES OF PRACTICE.

RULES OF THE SURROGATE'S COURT, QUEENS COUNTY.

RULE I.

Business hours.—The Surrogate's office is open for the transaction of business, except on Sundays, Saturdays and Holidays, as follows: From September 1 to June 30, from 9 A. M. to 4 P. M.; from July 1 to August 31, from 9 A. M. to 2 P. M.; on Saturdays from 9 A. M. to 12 M.

RULE II.

Calendar.—The regular calendar will be called at 10 a. m., on Tuesday of each week, except during the months of August and September.

A calendar of cases in which orders shall have been made for the trial of any controverted questions of fact by the court, with a jury, will be called on the last Tuesday of each month, except July, August and September and on each day thereafter while the court shall sit for the purpose. Such cases will then be tried in their order unless adjournments be granted upon proof of legal excuse. (Amended Feb. 11, 1915.)

RULE III.

Cases not answered.—Cases appearing on the calendar and not answered will be marked adjourned for one week; if not answered on the adjourned day they will be marked "off calendar" and can then be restored only upon two days' notice to, or the written consent of all parties.

RULE IV.

Proofs of service.—Proofs of service of citations or orders to show cause in all proceedings must be filed on or before the day next preceding the return day in order to have the cases placed on the calendar.

RULE V.

Form of papers.—All petitions, decrees, orders, objections and other papers must be written or printed in black ink and endorsed with the title of the proceeding, indicating the nature of the application, and the name and post office address of the attorney. A proposed order must not be attached to any other paper.

All petitions, bonds, proposed orders and other papers must be filed and entered in the office before being submitted to the Surrogate.

RULE VI.

Appearances.—Parties to proceedings may appear personally or by attorney. An attorney appearing for a party duly cited must file a written notice of appearance, and when appearing for a party not cited he must, in addition to the notice of appearance, file a written authorization from such party, duly executed and acknowledged as a deed to be recorded.

SURROGATE'S COURT, QUEENS COUNTY.

RULE VII.

Objections; trial by jury.—Objections in probate, accounting or other proceedings must be in writing, duly verified, and a copy must be served upon the petitioner, or upon his attorney, in case he has appeared by attorney.

Within five days after a jury trial has been demanded, the party making the demand shall present, on two days' notice of settlement to the attorneys of all parties who have appeared, a proposed order directing such trial, which order shall state the controverted questions of fact to be tried by jury. If a party demanding a trial by jury should fail to serve and present such order, it may be presented by any party to the proceeding. (Amended Feb. 11, 1915.)

RULE VIII.

Stipulations for adjournments.—Stipulations for adjournments must be in writing, signed by all parties who have appeared in the proceeding and filed on or before the day next preceding the date set for hearing.

RULE IX.

Probate proceedings.—In probate proceedings the original will and a sworn copy thereof must be filed with the petition, unless upon good cause shown by affidavit the Surrogate dispenses with the filing of the original will, in which case it must be filed at least two days before the return day of the citation.

RULE X.

Foreign wills.—All exemplified copies of foreign wills shall be accompanied by a petition and an order for recording the same.

RULE XI.

Letters of administration.—No letters of administration will be issued while another application for letters on the same estate is pending.

RULE XII.

Citizens of foreign countries.—Upon application for letters of administration, where it appears that an intestate was at the time of his death the subject of a foreign power whose Consul is entitled by treaty to the right of administration or intervention, notice of the application shall be given to the Consul whose right is concerned.

RULE XIII.

Contest of probate of will.—A party seeking to contest the probate of a last Will and Testament must file with the Clerk of the Court, a written and verified answer, containing a concise statement of the grounds of his objection to such probate, and any facts he may allege tending to establish a want of jurisdiction of the Court to hear such probate. In case such jurisdiction shall be denied or the right of any objecting party to appear and contest shall be questioned, the Court will first hear and pass upon the question of jurisdiction, or the status of the contestant, unless, for the convenience of the parties or the Court, it shall be ordered otherwise.

RULES OF PRACTICE.

In all cases of contests in probate proceedings, the proponents shall, within five days after objections to the probate are filed, present a verified petition for and procure and enter an order directing notice of the time and place of hearing of such objections to be given, and prescribing the manner of giving such notice, to all persons in being who would take any interest in any property under the provisions of the will, and to the executor or executors, trustee or trustees named therein, if any, who have not appeared in the proceeding, as required by section 2617 of the Code, and such petition shall contain the names and addresses of such parties, and state whether any, and which of them, are infants or of unsound mind. In case the proponents shall not present such petition and enter such order within the time aforesaid, such petition may be presented and order entered by or on behalf of any party or parties interested in the estate.

RULE XIV.

Certain persons must be made parties in probate proceedings.—Whenever a party shall put in issue on probate the validity, construction, or the effect of any disposition of personal property under section 2624 of the Code, if it shall appear that all persons interested in such construction are not before the Court, the determination of such question shall be suspended until such persons shall be made parties; and the executor named in the will shall not be held to represent the legatees therein for the purpose of such construction.

RULE XV.

When person not executor entitled to costs.—Whenever any person shall appear in support of the will propounded under section 2617 of the Code, such person shall not thereby become entitled to recover any costs on the probate of said will unless it shall appear to the satisfaction of the Court that the interest of such person was not sufficiently represented and prosecuted by the executor named in the will and his counsel.

RULE XVI.

Accounting (petition).—When a petition for a voluntary accounting is presented the account and vouchers to which it relates shall be filed therewith.

RULE XVII.

Statement of unpaid claims.—When an account is filed for settlement, the accountant shall file therewith a copy of any statement of a claim which has been presented to him and allowed, and which remains unpaid.

SURROGATE'S COURT, QUEENS COUNTY.

RULE XVIII.

Account (copy of will to accompany).—On an accounting by an executor, testamentary trustee, or administrator with the will annexed, a copy of the will shall be filed with the petition and account.

RULE XIX.

Appointment of special guardian for infant.—In the absence of a petition by an infant over fourteen years of age for the appointment of a special guardian in any proceeding, the Surrogate will appoint a special guardian upon his own motion. No special guardian to represent the interest of an infant in any proceeding will be appointed on the nomination of the petitioner or his attorney, or upon the application of a person having an interest adverse to that of the infant. To authorize the appointment of a person as a special guardian on the application of an infant or otherwise in a proceeding in this Court, or to entitle a general guardian of such infant to appear for him in such proceeding, it must appear that such person, or such general guardian, is competent to protect the right of the infant, and that he has no interest adverse to that of the infant and is not connected in business with the attorney or counsel of any party to the proceeding. Whenever an infant interested in any proceeding in said Surrogate's Court has a general guardian no decree will be entered without appointing a special guardian to represent said infant's interest therein, unless such general guardian shall file his appearance in writing and his affidavit of no adverse interest, with the Clerk of said Surrogate's Court.

RULE XX.

Reports of special guardians.—Special guardians in accounting proceedings shall file their reports within five days from the time of their appointment, except where objections are filed and an adjournment is had, or their time to file report is extended by the Surrogate. The report or an accompanying affidavit must state in detail the work done and the number of days spent in its performance.

RULE XXI.

Bill of costs.—No allowance will be made to an accountant on the judicial settlement of his account unless the bill of costs contains a detailed statement of the days employed in connection with the account, showing the time occupied on each day in the rendition of the services, and their nature and extent in detail.

RULE XXII.

Notice of settlement of decree.—In a proceeding where a notice of appearance and demand has been filed, or a special guardian appointed, two days' notice of settlement of decree must be given, unless all parties who have appeared consent to the entry of the decree.

RULES OF PRACTICE.

RULE XXII-A.

Filing receipt for payment of transfer tax.—Where a representative of an estate is required by law to pay a transfer tax, no decree judicially settling the account of such representative will be entered in this Court unless there has been filed in my office a receipt for the payment of such tax, sealed and countersigned as provided by section 236 of the Tax Law, or it has been shown that the estate is exempt from taxation. (Added February 18, 1916.)

RULE XXIII.

Hearing of disputed claim.—Where the parties consent that the Surrogate may hear and determine a disputed claim against the estate of a decedent upon the judicial settlement of the account of an executor or administrator, as provided by section 1822 of the Code of Civil Procedure, the attention of the Court must be directed to this fact on filing the petition for accounting in order that the matter may be placed on the appropriate calendar.

RULE XXIV.

Amendment of proposed decree, etc.—When a proposed order, decree or decision shall be served, with notice of settlement thereof, the party served shall not submit any complete substitute therefor, but may submit proposed amendments thereto, properly referring by page and folio to the portions of the paper sought to be amended and containing after each amendment a statement of the grounds therefor.

RULE XXV.

Papers not to be removed from office.—No record or paper on file in this Court will be intrusted to the custody of the attorneys or parties, except for the purpose of proper examination, in the office where it is deposited; and if any such document or paper shall be needed before any Referee appointed by this Court, the same shall be entrusted to a clerk or messenger of this Court and delivered to the Referee, who shall execute a receipt therefor, and for its redelivery.

RULE XXVI.

Allowance for support of infants.—No allowance will be made to infants for support or education under section 2846, Code of Civil Procedure, unless the petition shows that an annual accounting has been properly filed or good cause is therein shown why it has not been filed. The petition shall show also the terms of any previous order in the same estate, or, if none has been made, that fact shall be stated. Except in exceptional cases, an allowance will be made for the period of one year only, and the order must so provide. Where the infant is over fourteen years of age, he shall join in the petition; and when application is made by any person other than the guardian of the property it shall be made on at least two days' notice to such guardian.

SURROGATE'S COURT, QUEENS COUNTY.

RULE XXVII.

Motions for reargument.—All motions for reargument must be submitted on papers, showing clearly that some question decisive of the case, and which was presented by counsel upon the argument, has been overlooked by the Court; or that the decision is inconsistent with some statute, or with a controlling decision to which, through the neglect or inadvertence of counsel, the attention of the Court was not drawn.

RULE XXVIII.

Transfer tax proceeding.—1. Upon the filing of the appraiser's report in a transfer tax proceeding the Surrogate will immediately enter the order determining the value of the property and the amount of tax. The matter will not appear on the calendar at this stage, nor will the Court then consider objections to the report.

2. A party having objections to the report, or the order entered thereupon, may, within sixty days, file a notice of appeal. Said notice to be served upon all parties appearing before the appraiser, and proof of service must be filed with the clerk, with the notice of appeal. Thereupon the proceeding will be placed upon the calendar for the next regular calendar day. This notice must specify the grounds of objection.

3. A special guardian will be appointed 'o protect the interests of infants upon the return of the appraiser's notice, if it appears that their rights are involved and they are not otherwise adequately represented.

4. A proposed order on a motion to exempt an estate from taxation, must be accompanied by a copy thereof.

RULES OF PRACTICE.

RULES OF PRACTICE OF THE SURROGATE'S COURT, BRONX COUNTY.

(In effect January 2, 1915.)

RULE I.

Papers.—Whenever a proceeding is commenced in this court, the clerk shall assign a file number thereto and note the same in the margin of the book where the proceeding is indexed. Such file number shall be one in a series of that year, and shall be indorsed on all papers in such proceeding or any other proceeding subsequently commenced relating to same estate or fund.

Every paper to be filed in the Court shall be indorsed with the title of the proceeding to which it relates, a description of the paper, the name and post office address of the attorney presenting it and the file number of the proceeding to which it relates.

No paper on file shall be intrusted to any attorney, party or other person except for proper examination thereof in the clerk's office.

If any referee appointed by this Court shall request the delivery to him of any such paper for use before him, the same shall be delivered to him by a messenger of the Court upon his receipt therefor.

Parties and attorneys submitting surety company bonds for filing are required to submit with the original bond a true copy of the same. (Amended January 10, 1917.)

RULE II.

Service of process; proof of.—In all proceedings the proofs of service of process, notices of hearing, notices of motion and orders to show cause shall be filed on or before one o'clock of the day preceding the day therein named for the return day thereof.

RULE III.

Calendars.—A calendar of motions and of matters to be tried by the Court without a jury will be called at 10 o'clock A. M. on Monday and Wednesday of each week, except in the month of August.

SURROGATE'S COURT, BRONX COUNTY.

A term for the trial of controverted questions of fact with a jury, including contested probates, in which a jury trial of such questions has been ordered, shall begin on the first Monday of February, April, June, October and December. A calendar of such contested matters will be called on said first Monday and on each day thereafter while the Court shall sit for the purpose. Such matters will then be tried in their order, unless adjournment is granted upon proof of legal excuse.

RULE IV.

Probate.— In a proceeding for the probate of a will not lost or destroyed, the will and a copy thereof shall be filed with the petition. The correctness of said copy shall be shown by the affidavit of two persons of full age, who shall have compared the copy with the original will.

When all parties in interest have waived the service of citation all papers in the matter must be filed with the probate clerk at least two days before the day fixed for the taking of proof.

RULE V.

Administration.— Upon an application for letters of administration, where it appears that an intestate was at the time of death the subject of a foreign power, notice of the application shall be given to the counsel representing such foreign power.

RULE VI.

Guardianship.— A petition for the application by a guardian of an infant's property or any portion thereof, to the support, maintenance and education of the infant shall show that an annual accounting has been duly filed or that good cause exists for disregarding the omission.

The petition shall show the terms of any previous order for the application of any portion of the infant's property. And if no previous order has been made that fact shall be stated. When the infant is over fourteen years of age he shall join in, subscribe and verify the petition. When the application is made by a person other than the guardian of the property or a parent of the infant, the consent of such guardian or such parent shall be submitted or the application made on notice to him.

RULES OF PRACTICE.

When an infant over fourteen years of age applies for the appointment of a special guardian, or where an infant appears by his general guardian, or where a lunatic, idiot or habitual drunkard appears by his committee, the general or special guardian or the committee shall show that such general or special guardian or such committee is competent to protect the rights of the infant or incompetent and has no interest adverse to that of the infant or incompetent and is not connected in business with any party to the proceeding or the attorney or counsel of such party. It must appear whether or not such general or special guardian or committee is entitled to share in the distribution of the estate or fund in which the infant or incompetent is interested, and if the general or special guardian or committee is in any way interested in the estate or fund, the nature of such interest must be disclosed.

No party to a proceeding will be appointed special guardian of any other party thereto. The petition for the appointment of such special guardian as well as the appearance filed by a general guardian of the infant must in every instance disclose the name, residence and relationship to the infant of the person with whom the infant is residing and whether or not said infant has a parent living. If a parent is living, it must be shown by the affidavit of the parent whether or not such parent has knowledge of and approves such application or appearance. In case the parent has an interest adverse to the infant, the petition on the application for the appointment of such special guardian must be accompanied by the affidavit of the parent, showing in addition to such knowledge aforesaid that such parent has not influenced the infant in the choice of the special guardian.

If the foregoing provisions of this rule are not strictly complied with the Surrogate will, on his own motion, appoint a special guardian for such infant or incompetent, as provided in section 2534, C. C. P., notwithstanding the application of such infant or the appearance by the general guardian or committee.

RULE VII.

Accounting.—On an accounting by an executor, testamentary trustee or administrator with the will annexed, a sworn copy of the will shall be filed with the petition and account.

SURROGATE'S COURT, BRONX COUNTY.

When an account is filed for settlement, the accountant shall file therewith a copy of any statement of a claim which has been presented to him and allowed, and which remains unpaid.

RULE VIII.

Before evidence is taken on a contested accounting the accountant shall present to the Court a statement in writing of the items for which no voucher is filed, the items as to which he holds the affirmative, the objections which he concedes to be well taken and the modifications of the account to which the parties consent; and the objectant shall present to the court a like statement of the objections which he withdraws.

RULE IX.

Upon a contested accounting any party interested, or a contesting creditor, shall serve a copy of his objections upon the accounting party, or upon his attorney in case he shall have appeared by attorney, within eight days after the filing of the account in the office of the clerk of the court, where the accounting is a compulsory one; and within eight days after the return of the citation, where the accounting is a voluntary one; or within such further or other time in either case as shall be allowed by the Surrogate. The contest shall be confined to the items or matters so objected to. If it shall appear to the satisfaction of the court, by affidavit or petition, that an examination of the accounting party will be necessary to enable the contesting party to interpose his objections, such examination may be ordered by the court.

RULE X.

In a proceeding for a judicial settlement of an account, wherein a special guardian shall be appointed to protect the interests of an infant party, no decree will be entered on default against such infant, but such decree shall be so entered only on the written report of the guardian appearing for such infant to the effect that he has carefully examined the account and finds it correct and upon two day's notice of the settlement thereof to the guardian.

SURROGATE'S COURT, BRONX COUNTY.

RULE XI.

With every proposed decree on an accounting there must be submitted an affidavit of regularity, setting forth the necessary jurisdictional facts. A copy of the form of the affidavit required will be furnished by the clerk of the court.

RULE XII.

Trials.—When on a contested probate the objections contain a demand for a trial of controverted questions of fact with a jury and when in any other proceeding such trial is demanded, the party making such demand shall pay a jury fee of three dollars at the time of the demand and shall, within two days thereafter serve on the opposing party or parties, with a two days' notice of settlement, a proposed order which in addition to directing such trial with a jury, shall also state the questions of fact which he deems controverted and desires tried with a jury. In default of the service of such order any opposing party may within three days after such default serve such proposed order, stating the questions of fact, if any, which he deems controverted and desires tried with a jury with like notice of settlement. If at the time of such demand necessary parties have not been cited, the time for service of such proposed order shall not begin to run until the court shall have obtained jurisdiction of such parties. (Amended January 10, 1917.)

RULE XIII.

Notice of trial of such controverted questions of fact must be served at least fourteen days before the first day of the term at which the trial is to be had, and a note of issue stating in addition to the usual requirements the date of entry of the order directing the controverted questions of fact to be tried with a jury, must be filed at least twelve days before the first day of such term. Where a party has served a notice of trial and filed a note of issue, for a term at which the matter is not tried, it is not necessary for him to serve a new notice of trial, or file a new note of issue, for a succeeding term; and the matter will remain on the calendar until it is disposed of.

RULES OF PRACTICE.

A petition for an Order for Notice of hearing under section 2618 of the Code of Civil Procedure shall in all cases where such Notice is required be presented by the proponent within five days after the filing of the objections and on his failure so to do any contestant may present such petition.

Notices of Hearing of objections on contested probates where a jury trial has been demanded, as required by section 2618 of the Code of Civil Procedure, shall specify as the day of trial the same date specified in the Notice of Trial.

RULE XIV.

If upon a trial any party shall offer in evidence a paper in his control, without having before trial submitted the same to opposing counsel for inspection, the court may place the matter at the foot of the calendar or otherwise postpone the trial, in order that all papers intended for use on the trial, except such as may be reasonably reserved for the examination or contradiction of a witness, may be submitted to opposing counsel for inspection.

RULE XV.

Reports of referees.—When a referee's report is filed with the testimony, said report shall be confirmed as of course, unless exceptions thereto are filed by any party interested within eight days after a written notice of such filing and a copy of such report has been served upon the opposing party; and in case exceptions are filed, any party may bring on the hearing of the same on any stated motion day on eight days' notice.

RULE XVI.

Orders, decrees and settlement thereof.—Two days' notice of the settlement of an order on a litigated motion or of a decree or decision shall be given in writing to all the parties who have appeared by attorney in the proceeding in which such order, decree or decision is to be made and to any special guardian appointed therein.

RULES OF PRACTICE.

When a proposed order, decree or decision is served, with notice of settlement thereof, the party served shall not submit any complete substitute therefor, but may submit proposed amendments thereto, properly referring by page and folio to the papers sought to be amended and containing after each amendment a statement of the grounds therefor.

RULE XVII.

Miscellaneous.—No petition for the probate of a will or for the grant of letters of administration or of guardianship, or for the appointment of a testamentary trustee will be entertained during the pendency of a prior proceeding for the same or like relief, respecting the same estate or fund, or the estate or person of the same infant.

RULE XVIII.

A respondent who files an answer or objection shall file therewith a notice of appearance.

RULE XIX.

Special guardians shall file their reports within eight days from the time of their appointment, except where an answer is filed and an adjournment is had or the time to file the report is extended by order. Where a contest has taken place he shall file an affidavit stating in detail the work done by him and the number of days spent in its performance.

RULE XX.

Costs.—No costs will be allowed to the petitioner who takes proceedings to compel the filing of an inventory by an executor or administrator, unless such executor or administrator shall have unreasonably delayed to make and file such inventory after having been duly requested to do so by or in behalf of the petitioner.

Whenever a party to a decree shall deem himself entitled to costs, the application will be considered and determined by the Surrogate on two days' notice of adjustment. With said notice shall be served a statement showing the items of costs and disbursements to which the party may deem himself entitled, which disbursements shall be duly verified, both as to their amount and necessity. The disbursements for referee's and stenographer's fees must be sustained by affidavits or detailed proof.

At the same time, and on like notice, the Surrogate will pass upon any application for an additional allowance. Such application must be accompanied by an affidavit setting forth the number of days necessarily occupied in the hearing or trial, in preparing the account for settlement and in the preparation for the trial: the time occupied on each day in the rendition of the services, their nature and extent in detail including the drawing, entering or executing of the decree. In case such trial shall have been had before a referee, the time necessarily occupied before him may be shown by his certificate.

RULE XXI.

Compromise.— Upon application for leave to compromise the petitioner's attorney, if any, shall state what is the total amount of compensation he has received or is to receive from all sources; the net amount to be received by the petitioner as a result of the settlement; whether or not he has become concerned in the application or its subject matter at the instance of the party with whom the compromise is proposed, and whether or not he has received or is to receive compensation from such party, and the amount thereof, if any.

Notice of the application must be given to the next of kin of the decedent of full age within the state who are entitled to share in the proceeds of the compromise, or the consent of such next of kin must be submitted with the application.

RULE XXII.

Transfer tax proceedings.—A special guardian will be appointed to protect the interests of infants upon the return of the appraiser's notice of time and place of appraisal if it appears that their rights are involved and they are not otherwise adequately represented.

Upon the filing of the appraiser's report in a transfer tax proceeding the petitioner shall submit an order determining the value of the property and the amount of the tax in accordance with the said report; upon the failure of the petitioner so to do within five days after the filing of the report any other party to the proceeding may submit such order upon notice thereof to the petitioner. The surrogate, upon the presentation of such order, will immediately enter the same. The matter will not appear on the calendar at this stage, nor will the court then consider objections to the report.

A party having objections to the report or the order entered thereupon may within sixty days after the entry of such order file a notice of appeal. Said notice must specify the grounds of objection, be served upon all parties appearing before the appraiser and be filed, with proof of service, in the office of the clerk of the court. Thereupon the proceeding will be placed upon the calendar for a motion day not less than eight days after the date of the filing of the notice of appeal, and may be noticed for hearing on at least eight days' notice thereof.

RULES OF CITY COURT.

RULES OF THE CITY COURT OF THE CITY OF NEW YORK.

In convention pursuant to section 323 of the Code of Civil Procedure, Ordered: that the following rules be and they are hereby adopted as the rules of practice for the City Court of the city of New York, to take effect January 1, 1912.

RULE I.

Trial Terms.— Each Trial Term shall begin on the first Monday of the month for which it is assigned, and be continued until and including the Friday preceding the first Monday of the following month, unless the Justice presiding shall continue the term. No Trial Term shall be held during the months of July, August and September, except as hereinafter prescribed. The Justice assigned to the Special Term during the months of July, August and September, with a jury, or without where none is required by the parties, may try "marine cases" or any case in which the defendant may by order of a Justice of this court be actually confined in jail and unable to furnish bail, and when the circumstances of the case are, in the judgment of said Justice, such as to demand a speedy trial in furtherance of justice, and in such cases the Justice assigned to the Special Term during those months may hold such trial in that branch of the court. (Amended November 4, 1914; December 7, 1915, in effect January 1, 1916.)

RULE II.

Special calendar for short causes; for commercial causes.— There shall be a Special Calendar to be called in Part I, Trial Term, for the trial of actions placed thereon, pursuant to the following direction: The justice assigned to Part I, Trial Term, shall send such causes as are placed on this Special Calendar to Part II, Trial Term, for trial. In case Part II shall not have business enough to occupy it during court hours, causes from the Regular Calendar at Part I shall be sent to it for trial. (Amended April 1, 1915.)

In actions on contract, of replevin, or for conversion, where a note of issue has been filed and the cause noticed for trial, either party may apply to the Special Term on two days' notice to the adverse party for an order placing the cause on the special calendar. Upon such application, if it satisfactorily appear by affidavit and the pleadings that the trial of the action will not occupy more than two hours and that no good reason exists why the same should not be promptly tried, the Court may, by order, place the cause on the special calendar for trial. The order shall specify the number of the cause on the general calendar, and a copy thereof must be filed with the calendar clerk. If the trial shall actually occupy more than two hours the Court may in its discretion send the cause to the foot of the general calendar.

CITY OF NEW YORK.

No action brought for the recovery of less than $250, which could have been brought in the Municipal Court of the City of New York, will be advanced to the special calendar.

All actions hereafter advanced to the special calendar shall be called and tried, or otherwise disposed of, in the order in which the same are placed thereon, unless postponed for legal cause, shown by affidavit.

Special calendar for commercial causes.—In any action now on the General Calendar, or which may hereafter be placed thereon, wherein the plaintiff seeks to recover a specific sum of money upon a bond or undertaking or other written obligation or upon a negotiable instrument or for the rent or hire of real or personal property or for money had and received or for money loaned or for goods sold and delivered or on a guaranty, any party to a cause may upon proof of service of a copy thereof or upon a policy of insurance, or for work, labor and services, exclusive of an action for breach of contract of employment, any party to a cause may upon proof of service of a copy thereof upon the attorneys for all parties who have appeared in the action, file with the calendar clerk a notice to the effect that the cause is one of those enumerated hereinabove, and that the same is moved as a Commercial Calendar cause, and thereupon the calendar clerk shall place the cause upon the Special Calendar for Commercial Causes in the order in which such notices are filed. Such calendar shall be called in Part III and the causes thereon tried and disposed of at Parts III and IV. If the party who has moved the cause as a Commercial Calendar Cause shall not be ready to proceed with the trial when the cause is called for trial, the court in its discretion may allow an adjournment or send the cause to the foot of the Trial Calendar or direct a dismissal or inquest or otherwise dispose of the same as justice may require. Whenever there shall not be sufficient causes on the Calendar for Commercial Causes to occupy the time of the courts held in Parts III and IV, causes shall be sent to such part or parts for trial from the Day Calendar by the justice holding Part I. (Amended October 6, 1914, and December 5, 1916; in effect January 1, 1917.)

RULE III.

Preferred causes.—Application for a preference under section 791 of the Code of Civil Procedure, must be made in Trial Term, Part I, and notice thereof served with the notice of trial, agreeably to section 793.

RULE IV.

Actions transferred from other Courts.—In actions transferred to this Court by consent, from other Courts of record, the party filing the order of transfer shall file with the clerk of this Court engrossed copies of the summons and pleadings in such action; and the clerk shall, on filing such process and pleadings, enter said cause on the trial calendar.

RULE V.

Pleadings furnished to Court; duty of attorney.—It shall be the duty of the attorney, by whom the copy of the pleadings shall be furnished, for the use of the Court on a trial, to plainly designate, on each pleading, the part or parts thereof which are claimed to be admitted or controverted by the succeeding pleading.

RULES OF CITY COURT.

RULE VI.

Cases in which a new trial is ordered at Appellate Court.—In lieu of the pleadings, in actions wherein a new trial is granted, the party moving the case for trial must furnish the justice with a printed copy of the appeal book, and a copy of the opinion of the Appellate Court on whose order the case is remanded for the new trial.

RULE VII.

Marine cases.—Marine cases must be commenced (under the Code) by summons, and if the plaintiff applies for an order of arrest to accompany the summons, it must be in the form and to the effect required by section 3178. The pleadings may be oral, or in writing; if oral, the clerk must enter the substance thereof in the minutes. If a jury is demanded, the justice presiding at Special Term may, in his discretion, transfer the action to any one of the Trial Terms; or he may cause to be impanelled a jury for the purpose, and try the cause at Special Term; and said tribunal is hereby declared to be a Trial Term, for the special purposes of considering and determining such cases.

RULE VIII.

Jurisdiction.—Torts committed on board a foreign ship, on the high seas, must be considered as having occurred within the territorial limits of the foreign nation to which the vessel belongs; and the parties having the ship's equipage, though actually here, are still deemed within the foreign jurisdiction. In such case, the Court, having discretion to exercise the power, will decline jurisdiction, unless it is made to appear either: first, that the plaintiff or defendant has been regularly discharged from his ship by competent authority; or, second, that either of the parties is a resident or citizen of the United States. In the excepted cases only will process be allowed.

RULE IX.

Special Term for litigated motions; when held.—There shall be a Special Term of this Court for the hearing of litigated motions, to commence on the first Monday of each month and to continue until the Friday preceding the first Monday of the succeeding month, which term shall be held every day, except Saturday, Sunday and legal holidays. Court shall open at 10 o'clock in the morning and shall continue until all business before the court has been disposed of. This Special Term shall be known as Special Term, Part I. During the months when Trial Terms are not appointed the Justice assigned thereto shall also be assigned to hold Special Term, Part II. Demurrers shall be heard and determined at Special Term, Part I, and may be brought on for hearing upon the usual notice of argument and the filing of the note of issue provided for in Rule XII.

CITY OF NEW YORK.

RULE X.

Special Term for ex parte business; time of sessions.—There shall be a Special Term of this Court for the transaction of ex parte business, to be held on the first Monday of each month, and to continue to and including the Saturday prior to the first Monday of the following month. Court shall open at 10 o'clock in the morning and shall continue in session until 4 o'clock in the afternoon, except Saturday, on which day the Court may be adjourned at 12 o'clock noon, and shall be open every day in the year except Sundays and legal holidays. This Special Term shall be known as Special Term, Part II. The Justice assigned to Special Term, Part II, shall also attend to the drawing of jurors for the Trial Terms of the City Court.

Nature of motions and proceedings to be determined at the Special Term for ex parte business.—Application for all court orders, ex parte or by consent, or where notice is not required or has been waived, must be made to Special Term, Part II. All applications for judgment in actions where the defendant has failed to appear or has waived notice of motion for judgment or has consented thereto shall be made to Special Term, Part II. All orders for the examination of parties or witnesses in supplementary proceedings or to perpetuate testimony or for the examination of parties before trial shall be made returnable before the Justice assigned to hold Special Term, Part II. No ex parte order of reference in supplementary proceedings will be made by this Court or any justice thereof.

RULE XI.

No extension of time to answer for more than two days will be granted, unless upon notice to plaintiff's attorney.

RULE XII.

The clerk assigned to Special Term for Litigated Motions and Chambers shall prepare a motion calendar for each day of the term, other than Saturdays, and place thereon all causes in which notes of issue have been filed, not later than 4 P. M. of the day previous to the return day of the motion, and furnish a copy thereof to the New York Law Journal for publication. The justice presiding at Special Term may add to the calendar, on a day for which it is noticed, any motion not appearing thereon. Motion must be made returnable at 10 A. M., at which hour the calendar will be called and defaults noted.

RULE XIII.

Orders in supplementary proceedings, to punish a judgment debtor for contempt, shall not be made returnable in less than three days from the time of service thereof.

RULE XIV.

Calendar practice; Trial Calendar; Day Calendar; equity causes.—At least eight days before the first Monday of a trial term or whenever the justice assigned to Trial Term, Part I, shall direct,

RULES OF CITY COURT.

the calendar clerk shall prepare a Trial Calendar containing so many of the pending causes on the General Calendar as the justice holding the Trial Term, Part I, shall direct, and such Trial Calendar shall be posted in the calendar clerk's office and published in the New York Law Journal four days preceding the day set for filing the notice hereinafter mentioned. Any party to a cause appearing on such Trial Calendar may serve notice on the calendar clerk and on the attorneys for the other parties to the cause at or before 4 o'clock on a day to be set, following not less than four days after the first publication of the calendar in the Law Journal, to the effect that the cause is to be marked ready for trial, but if no party shall serve such notice the cause shall be marked off and restored to the General Calendar and shall not be again published upon a Trial Calendar until the last number of such calendar which is marked ready shall have been reached on the Day Calendar for trial. Causes appearing more than three times upon the said Trial Calendar shall, unless such notice is served, be placed upon such future Trial Calendar as the justice assigned to Part I, Trial Term, may designate. (Paragraph amended October 8, 1912, June 2, 1914, in effect September 1, 1914.)

Day Calendar.—Said clerk shall make up a Day Calendar for each day from the causes for which a notice is served as aforesaid, upon which shall be placed all such causes marked ready from the previous Trial Calendars or remaining undisposed of from Trial Calendars theretofore posted and published. Such Day Calendar shall be called at Trial Term, Part I, of this court at 9:45 A. M. each day. Three causes therefrom shall be assigned to each of the several trial parts, except Parts II, III, and IV, for trial. (Paragraph amended June 2, 1914, in effect September 1, 1914.)

Equity causes for the foreclosure of mechanic's liens, and in the nature of interpleader, shall be placed upon the Equity Calendar upon five days' notice of trial and upon filing a note of issue therefor with the calendar clerk. Causes shall be placed on such calendar in the order in which notes of issue are received. Such calendar shall be called in Trial Term, Part III, on the second Monday of each term and the causes thereon shall be assigned for trial during the two latter weeks of the term at Trial Term, Part IV. All applications for postponement or delay of the trial of equity causes shall be governed by the rules applicable to causes on the Trial Term Calendar. (Paragraph added June 2, 1914; and new paragraph substituted December 7, 1915, in effect January 1, 1916.)

When a cause thus set down on the Call Calendar on any Friday as "ready" appears upon the Day Calendar, it must be tried or go to the foot of the General Calendar, unless it appears by affidavit to the satisfaction of the justice calling the Day Calendar that the trial cannot with justice to one of the parties proceed. The court may then by order set the cause down for trial on another day in the term or place the cause on a subsequent Trial Calendar.

In no event shall a cause on the Day Calendar be passed from day to day on account of the engagement of counsel for more than two days. Not more than two causes shall be held "ready" on the Day Calendar for one counsel, in addition to the cause in which he is engaged, and in all causes the counsel who is to try the same must be designated, if required by the court, on the call of the day calendar. Actions in which new trials are ordered will, upon application to the Special Term for Litigated Motions, upon two days' notice, be placed upon the Trial Calendar without filing a new note of issue.

RULE XV.

Miscellaneous; fees paid to the clerk not returnable.—Fees paid upon filing notes of issue are, so soon as they reach the hands of the clerk, in the constructive possession of the city of New York; and it is made the official duty of that clerk to pay them, with other lawful fees collected by virtue of his office, into the city treasury.

RULE XVI.

Special rules concerning the duties and obligations of the clerk of the City Court of the City of New York.—1. The clerk, on assuming office, shall make and file, in duplicate, his oath of office, one of which duplicates shall be filed in the office of the city clerk, and the other in the clerk's office of this Court, and give a bond as now prescribed by law.

2. The clerk, or, in his absence, the deputy, shall make statements in writing, duly verified by his oath, of all moneys received for fees or otherwise by him as said clerk, and shall pay into the finance department of the city of New York all such moneys so received by him for the use of or belonging to the city, as required by law; and these acts shall be done once in each and every month, and a duplicate of such statements in writing, also duly verified, shall be at the same time delivered to the chief justice of this Court, or, in his absence, to the justice then presiding at the Special Term, Part II, accompanied by a voucher from the said finance department, showing that such money has been actually so paid over after the auditing and approval of the monthly statement by the department.

RULE XVII.

Complaint dismissed at Trial Term; restoration.—Where a complaint is dismissed, or an inquest allowed, at a Trial Term, the cause will not be restored on consent of the parties; but the facts may be presented to the justice presiding in the part where the cause was disposed of, or at the Special Term, by motion for action thereon.

RULES OF CITY COURT, CITY OF NEW YORK.

RULE XVIII.

Papers to be filed must bear index number.—The clerk of the City Court of the city of New York is hereby authorized to inaugurate and maintain in his office an alphabetical index of the actions and special proceedings commenced in the City Court, which shall be numbered consecutively for the year in which such action or special proceeding is commenced, and each pleading, order, affidavit, judgment, final order or other paper filed in such action or special proceeding shall be filed under the same number, so that in the index book provided for that purpose the record of the filing shall appear. After the action or special proceeding shall have received a number each paper filed therein shall have indorsed thereon the number assigned thereto, and the clerk is authorized to refuse to receive or file any such pleading, order, affidavit or other paper, including the judgment roll or final order, upon which such number does not plainly appear.

RULE XIX.

Settlement of orders on remittitur.—At least three days' notice of settlement of all orders upon remittiturs from the Appellate Term and Appellate Division, Supreme Court, shall be given before presenting the same for signature and entry. /

RULES OF MUNICIPAL COURT OF NEW YORK CITY.

RULES OF THE MUNICIPAL COURT OF THE CITY OF NEW YORK.

(Adopted and duly approved pursuant to section 8 of the Municipal Court Code.)

Rules 1 to 26, in effect September 1, 1915.

Rules 27 to 32, in effect October 23, 1915.

Rule 33, in effect March 1, 1916.

Rule 34, in effect January 19, 1916.

RULE I.

Court shall open at 9 o'clock in the forenoon. At least one of the justices shall be in attendance until 4 o'clock in the afternoon. On Saturdays one justice shall be in attendance between the hours of 10 o'clock in the forenoon and 12 o'clock noon in each borough in a district to be designated by the board of justices for the transaction of such business as may be determined by a justice of this court. During the months of July and August, court shall be held on such days as the justice presiding in each district may designate.

RULE II.

In a district where more than one part has been established the trial calendar shall be called, and precepts in summary proceedings, orders to show cause and notices of motion shall be returnable in part one. The call of the calendar shall precede the transaction of any other business. Motions shall be heard immediately after the call of the calendar.

RULE III.

The clerk in each district shall prepare a daily trial calendar which shall be posted in the clerk's office two days in advance. Causes shall be placed on the trial calendar according to their dates of issue. Adjourned causes shall be placed on a subsequent trial calendar in the order in which they have been adjourned.

RULE IV.

Causes shall appear on the trial calendar in the following order:

(a) Causes in which judgments on default in pleading must be rendered on application to the court.

(b) Actions for wages.

(c) Other actions in which the amount claimed does not exceed fifty dollars.

RULES OF MUNICIPAL COURT OF NEW YORK CITY.

- (d) Summary proceedings to recover possession of real property.
- (e) Hearings on objections taken under sections 88 and 89 of the Municipal Court Code.
- (f) Causes marked for a preference by the court on a preceding day.
- (g) Actions on a written instrument for the payment of money only.
- (h) Causes, not hereinabove enumerated, appearing for the first time on the trial calendar.
- (i) Adjourned actions in causes not hereinabove enumerated.

RULE V.

Causes shall be tried in the order in which they appear on the calendar unless otherwise directed by the court; and in a district where more than one part is held, the justice calling the trial calendar shall assign causes for trial to a disengaged part in the order in which they appear on the calendar.

RULE VI.

Where the plaintiff can recover judgment upon the defendant's default in pleading only upon the application to the court, the clerk, providing the plaintiff appears in person, shall place the cause upon the calendar on a day not less than three nor more than five days after the expiration of the time within which the defendant might have appeared, and shall notify the plaintiff by mail of the date. Where the plaintiff has appeared by attorney the clerk shall place such cause upon the trial calendar for a day to be fixed by the attorney in a notice to be filed with the clerk, such date, however, to be not less than three days from the filing of the notice unless otherwise directed by the court.

RULE VII.

Where the defendant does not appear by attorney, he must at the time of answering give his address in writing to the clerk.

RULE VIII.

If the summons, or the summons and complaint, is not filed in the office of the clerk as provided by subdivision 3 of section 22 or by section 23 of the Municipal Court Code, the defendant may within the time limited for joining issue, on complying with subdivision 3 of section 78 of the Municipal Court Code, file the copy of the summons, or of the summons and complaint served upon him, together with an affidavit of such service. Upon the request of the defendant the clerk must thereupon dismiss the action and in a proper case tax costs on such dismissal, or the defendant may have other appropriate relief.

RULES OF MUNICIPAL COURT OF NEW YORK CITY.

RULE IX.

There shall be in each district a calendar of causes reserved generally on which calendar the clerk, unless otherwise directed by the court, shall place any cause after the same shall have been three times on the trial calendar. Any cause may be placed on such calendar by consent, or upon stipulation of the parties. Causes may be restored to the trial calendar on three days' notice, or on consent of the parties, for a day to be fixed by the court. Before an action shall be dismissed by the court pursuant to section 126 of the Municipal Court Code the clerk shall give such notice to the parties as the court may direct.

RULE X.

The defendant's time to move or answer pursuant to subdivision five of section 78 of the Municipal Court Code shall not be extended by an ex parte order for more than three days, and when said time shall have been extended by stipulation or order for three days or more, no further time shall be granted by order, except upon notice to the adverse party of the application for such order.

RULE XI.

A consent giving the court further time to render judgment or decide a motion as provided in section 119 of the Municipal Court Code must be in writing or noted upon the minutes of the trial.

RULE XII.

(a) Motions may be brought on for hearing on not less than three days' notice unless otherwise directed by the court.

(b) Ex parte applications may be made to and granted by any justice. The affidavit shall state whether any previous application has been made for such order, and if made, to what justice and what order or decision was made thereon and what new facts, if any, are claimed to be shown.

RULE XIII.

All papers in actions or proceedings shall be submitted to the clerk of the district in which such actions or proceedings are pending and it shall be the duty of the clerk to forward such papers promptly to the justice to whom they are to be submitted.

RULE XIV.

The endorsement of the name and address of the attorney on the summons, pleading or any other paper filed in an action shall be deemed an appearance within the meaning of section 164 of the Municipal Court Code.

RULE XV.

All copies of papers which are to be included on the return on appeal and prepared by the appellant as provided by rule four of the rules of the Appellate Term, for the hearing of appeals from the City Court of the city of New York and from the Municipal Court in the Boroughs of Manhattan and the Bronx, shall be furnished by the appellant to the clerk at the time of filing the written notice provided for in section 161, subdivision one of the Municipal Court Code.

RULES OF MUNICIPAL COURT OF NEW YORK CITY.

RULE XVI.

In case of the death or disability or prolonged absence from the city of a justice the case on appeal may be settled by the justice presiding in part one in the district in which the judgment was entered with the same force and effect as if he had tried the case.

RULE XVII.

Precepts in summary proceedings must be filed at least one day before the return day thereof, unless by direction of the court they are made returnable on the same day as issued, or the day after.

RULE XVIII.

It shall be the duty of the secretary of the Board of Justices to safely keep in his possession, as public records, all papers, documents or records which he is required by law or by the rules or resolutions of the Board of Justices to keep, which records shall be open for public inspection.

RULE XIX.

The office of the clerk shall open at 8:45 o'clock in the forenoon of each day and shall remain open for the transaction of business until 4 o'clock in the afternoon, excepting Saturdays, when the office shall close at noon, and the months of July and August, during which months the office shall close at 2 o'clock in the afternoon. The clerks and other employees shall report for duty promptly at the places to which they are assigned at 8:45 o'clock in the forenoon of each day and shall be in attendance until the close of the office or such later time as may be required to complete the business of the day, or as the court may from time to time direct.

RULE XX.

(a) The duties of the deputy clerks, assistant clerks, and other employees shall be designated by the clerk in conformity with the statutes and the rules of this court and subject to the approval of the justices of the district to which they are assigned or a majority of them.

(b) The attendants shall while on duty wear such uniforms and badges as may be prescribed by the Board of Justices. The interpreter shall wear an official badge during the sessions of the court.

RULES OF MUNICIPAL COURT OF NEW YORK CITY.

(c) The stenographer shall be in attendance during the sessions of the court and at such other times and places as the justice to whom he is assigned may direct.

(d) It shall be the duty of the attendants to maintain order in and about the court and the offices thereof and perform such other duties in connection with the work of the court as the justices shall require.

(e) The clerk shall each month, at such time and in such manner as required by law and the rules of the finance department of the city of New York, pay all moneys received by him for the use of or on behalf of the city during the preceding month to the Comptroller of the city of New York. A summary of such receipts and a detailed statement of the business of the court for the preceding month shall be filed with the secretary of the Board of Justices not later than the fifth day of the following month.

(f) The clerk in each district shall keep account of the moneys received by him and from day to day shall deposit such moneys in such bank as the Comptroller of the city of New York may designate.

RULE XXI.

The clerk in each district shall keep the following books and make therein the entries hereinbelow directed:

(a) Books to be known as the current docket books. Each page in each book shall be numbered in a series of consecutive numbers for each year and shall be devoted to one action. On the page so numbered the clerk shall enter the title of the action with the names of the plaintiff and defendant and attorneys in full, and in chronological order the dates of filing the summons and pleadings, and the verdict, judgment, or other disposition of the action as of the date of rendering thereof; also all orders in the action, and the date of the appeal, if any, together with the disposition thereof. Specific entries shall be made of the judgment, the costs and disbursements as taxed and the prospective disbursements together with the execution, if issued, or transcript, if given, and any other matter affecting the judgment. All entries shall be made in the action on the same page of the docket, except in actions where the entries are so voluminous as to require one or more additional pages, in which case the entries shall be continued under the same number upon other pages of that, or a subsequent docket book, references thereto being noted at the end of the first and all additional pages.

(b) An alphabetical index of all actions entered in the current docket books during any year shall be indexed in the name of the plaintiff, or where there is more than one plaintiff in the name of the plaintiff whose name first appears on the summons. The serial number of the action as it appears in the current docket book shall be entered opposite the name indexed.

(c) An alphabetical index of all judgments entered in the current docket books, on which an execution is issuable. The judgments shall be indexed in the name of the judgment debtor; or where there is more than one judgment debtor, in the name of each judgment debtor. The name or names of the judgment creditor or creditors shall be entered opposite the name of each judgment debtor. The serial number and year of the action in which the judgment was rendered shall be entered opposite the name indexed.

RULES OF MUNICIPAL COURT OF NEW YORK CITY.

(d) A docket book of summary proceedings in which shall be entered the date of the precept, the time of its return, the date of filing of other pleadings, the particulars of the final order, the date of the issuing of a warrant and to whom the same was issued, the return thereof and the particulars of such return. Such docket book shall contain an index of each proceeding to be entered in the name of the petitioner. The requirements as to indexing and numbering for actions shall not apply to summary proceedings.

RULE XXII.

It shall be the duty of the clerk to enter upon the general calendar provided for by section 95 of the Municipal Court Code the date on which each cause is placed upon said general calendar and the date upon which it shall first be placed on the trial calendar, together with the serial number of the cause.

RULE XXIII.

The clerk shall upon receipt of the first paper of an action to be filed in his office stamp the same upon the front page with one of a series of consecutive numbers and the proper year and immediately make an entry in the current docket book as provided by rule twenty-one. All papers thereafter to be filed in the action shall bear the same number and year as the first paper filed as aforesaid. Each number shall constitute a part of the title of such action. After the action shall have received a number the clerk is authorized to refuse to receive or file any paper upon which the number and year assigned thereto does not plainly appear. Whenever a paper appertaining to any action begun prior to the first day of September, 1915, is filed with the clerk, the clerk shall upon receipt of such paper stamp the same on the front page with a number, and the year, and shall make such entries in the current docket book for that year as if such paper were the first paper filed in the action, and the clerk shall stamp or indorse that number upon every paper in said action theretofore filed in his office, and shall make the proper entries in the docket book in the same manner as if such docketing had been begun with the first paper in such action.

RULE XXIV.

Whenever a cause of action and all papers relating thereto are transferred from one district to another, the clerk in the district to which the action has been transferred shall stamp the same with a serial number and the year, as if it were the first paper filed in his office and shall make proper entries in the current docket book, as if such docketing had been begun with the first paper in such action. Where an action shall be transferred from one district to another for trial only, the clerk of the district to which the cause shall have been transferred for trial shall not stamp the papers with any serial number nor make any entries in the current docket book, but shall make an appropriate minute upon the general or trial calendar and shall after the conclusion of the trial upon the rendering of the verdict or receipt of the justice's decision forthwith remit all the papers in the action to the clerk of the district from which the same has been transferred.

RULES OF MUNICIPAL COURT OF NEW YORK CITY.

RULE XXV.

The notice of the filing of an appeal as provided by section 157 of the Municipal Court Code shall be given by the clerk immediately upon the filing thereof by mailing a prepaid postal card, to the attorney for the respondent, addressed to his office, or where the respondent has not appeared by attorney, to the respondent at his address. A minute of the mailing of such notice shall be entered in the current docket book.

RULE XXVI.

a. The stenographer's minutes of the trial shall be transcribed and typewritten on such paper and in such manner so as to conform with the rules in that respect which may from time to time be adopted by the Appellate Terms for the First and Second Departments, respectively.

(b) The fees of the stenographer for a transcript of his minutes pursuant to section 177 of the Municipal Court Code shall be deposited with the clerk of the district where the action or proceeding is pending, who upon filing of the transcript shall pay the amount deposited to the stenographer. The deposit must be made by the appellant within five days after the filing of the notice of appeal as provided by section 157 of the Municipal Court Code, and within ten days after such deposit the stenographer must file the transcript of his minutes with the clerk.

RULE XXVII.

Where a demand for a transfer of an action to the proper district has been filed in accordance with subdivision 2 of section 17 of the Municipal Court Code the application for the transfer must be made to the court on notice to the plaintiff.

RULE XXVIII.

Where two or more defendants are joined in an action the plaintiff shall file the summons or the summons and complaint with proof of service upon the first defendant served as required by subdivision 3 of section 22 of the Municipal Court Code and shall file proof of service upon the other defendants within two days after service upon each of them.

RULES OF MUNICIPAL COURT OF NEW YORK CITY.

RULE XXIX.

Where the clerk is required to enter judgment forthwith upon the defendant's failure to answer pursuant to section 80 of the Municipal Court Code, the plaintiff may at any time before entry of judgment file with the clerk a request in writing not to enter judgment against one or more defendants specified in said request. Upon the filing of such a request entry of judgment shall be postponed until the filing of a further request to enter judgment.

RULE XXX.

Where the clerk upon defendant's failure to answer must ascertain the amount due to the plaintiff before entry of judgment as required by section 80 of the Municipal Court Code, the plaintiff shall file a statement setting forth the facts constituting the cause of action. The statement must be made by the affidavit of the person specified in section 525 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

RULE XXXI.

Where a notice of special appearance is filed pursuant to subdivision 8 of section 78 of the Municipal Court Code the hearing shall be brought on in the manner provided by section 95 of said code for bringing a cause on for trial.

RULE XXXII.

The notice of trial required by section 95 of the Municipal Court Code to be filed with the clerk, must be so filed at least three days before the date fixed for trial.

RULE XXXIII.

Where both parties appear by attorney, copies of all pleadings, notices, demands and other papers in an action, which are required to be filed with the clerk, shall be served by the attorney filing the same upon the attorney for the adverse party, with notice of the date of filing, within one day of the date of such filing.

RULE XXXIV.

The security for costs which plaintiff may be required to give, as prescribed in title 3 of chapter 21 of the Code of Civil Procedure, shall be in such amount as the court or a justice thereof may direct, but in no case less than twenty-five dollars. An order to give additional security may be made by the court on notice, from time to time, as provided in section 3276 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

ARBITRATION AND CONCILIATION RULES.

ARBITRATION AND CONCILIATION RULES IN THE MUNICIPAL COURT OF THE CITY OF NEW YORK.

Pursuant to sub-division six of section six and sub-division six of section eight of the Municipal Court Code the Board of Justices of the Municipal Court of the City of New York hereby establish a system of arbitration and adopt the following rules:

RULE I.

The parties to any controversy, except infants and incompetents, may submit the same for arbitration to a Justice of this court or to any other person upon whom they shall agree.

RULE II.

The persons desiring an arbitration shall sign a consent which shall contain the name of the arbitrator, a brief recital of the nature of the controversy to be determined and a statement that they will abide by these rules. The consent must be filed with the clerk of one of the districts, which district shall be the proper district for all further proceedings, and a copy thereof shall be given by the parties to the arbitrator.

RULE III.

The arbitrator shall forthwith proceed to hear the controversy. He shall not be bound by the rules of evidence, but may receive such evidence as seems to him equitable and proper. Either party may be represented by counsel, but no record of the proceedings before the arbitrator shall be kept. No expense shall be incurred by him except upon the consent in writing of the parties.

RULE IV.

After the first hearing neither party may withdraw from the arbitration unless both parties consent to, or the arbitrator directs a discontinuance of the proceeding.

RULE V.

The arbitrator shall make his award in writing and file the same forthwith, together with his opinion, if any, with the clerk of the proper district. Unless both parties file a request in writing not to enter judgment, the clerk shall within two days after the filing of the award enter judgment in accordance therewith, provided the award has been filed within thirty days from the date of filing the consent. The time within which the clerk shall enter judgment may be extended by a stipulation in writing for a further period of not to exceed thirty days.

RULE VI.

The clerk in each district shall keep a docket wherein proper entries of all proceedings shall be made.

ARBITRATION AND CONCILIATION RULES.

RULE VII.

No fees, or disbursements of any kind shall be demanded or received, except as hereinabove provided.

Forms.—The consent, award and judgment must be in substantially the following form, the blanks being properly filled:

Consent.—Municipal Court of the City of New York. Borough of ....., ..... District.

We, ..... residing at ..... and ..... residing at ..... hereby designate ..... as arbitrator to hear and determine the following controversy existing between us, viz:

We agree that the arbitrator proceed in accordance with the rules of the Municipal Court of the City of New York and do hereby declare that we know said rules and that we will abide by them.

Dated ....., 191..

Award.—I, ....., the arbitrator appointed pursuant to a consent signed by ..... and ..... and filed in the office of the clerk of the Municipal Court for the ..... District, Borough of ..... on the ..... day of ....., 191.. to hear and determine the controversy therein specified, hereby certify that I have heard the parties to said controversy and the evidence submitted by them and find and decide that

Judgment.—Upon the consent filed on the ..... day of ....., 191.. and the award of ..... arbitrator, filed on the ..... day of ....., 191.., judgment is entered x in favor of ..... against ..... for the sum of ..... dollars ($....).

Dated ....., 191..

Clerk.

x (or insert such other judgment in accordance with the award).

Pursuant to subdivision six of section six and subdivision five of section eight of the Municipal Court Code, the Board of Justices of the Municipal Court of the City of New York hereby establish a system of conciliation and adopt the following rules

MUNICIPAL COURT RULES OF CITY OF NEW YORK.

RULE I.

Any person having a claim which in his opinion may be adjusted without resort to an action at law may apply to the clerk in any district for the issuance of a notice of conciliation.

RULE II.

The clerk shall immediately fix a date for hearing and inform the applicant of such date when the request for the notice is presented and shall forthwith mail the notice to the adverse party at the address given by the applicant. At least three days notice shall be given, exclusive of the day of mailing. The hearing shall be had in any district which the applicant may specify.

RULE III.

Hearings of conciliation shall be had in each district on such day or days of each week as the justices of each district may designate. Where there is more than one part of the court established, the hearing shall be had at Part I.

RULE IV.

The cases in conciliation shall be heard informally. The justice hearing the case shall endeavor to effect an amicable and equitable adjustment between the parties. He may, in his discretion, permit either party to be assisted by counsel, but no record of the proceedings before him shall be kept. He shall not be bound by the rules of evidence, but may receive such evidence as seems to him equitable.

RULE V.

The Justice shall direct the clerk to make an entry in the docket hereinafter referred to, of the terms of the settlement or of the failure thereof. No judgment or order enforceable by process of law shall be rendered or made by the Justice.

RULE VI.

The Justice before whom the hearing in conciliation was had shall not take part in any trial between the same parties involving the same controversy.

RULE VII.

The clerk of each district shall keep a docket wherein proper entries of all proceedings shall be made. Such record may not be offered in evidence or referred to upon any subsequent trial of the controversy.

ARBITRATION AND CONCILIATION RULES.

RULE VIII.

If the hearing is to be had in a district other than wherein the notice has been issued, the clerk issuing the notice shall forthwith notify in writing the clerk of the district in which the hearing is set, of the names of the parties, and the dates of mailing the notice and of the hearing.

RULE IX.

Parties appearing voluntarily may submit their controversy to a Justice for conciliation without the issue of a notice, but otherwise subject to these rules.

RULE X.

No fees or disbursements of any kind shall be demanded or received.

Form.—The notice of conciliation shall be in substantially the following form, the blanks being properly filled:

Municipal Court of the City of New York, Borough of ..... District.

.....
Clerk.

Dated New York, ....., 191..

RULES OF APPELLATE TERM, FIRST DEPARTMENT.

RULES OF THE APPELLATE TERM OF THE SUPREME COURT IN THE FIRST DEPARTMENT.

RULES FOR THE HEARING OF APPEALS FROM THE CITY COURT OF THE CITY OF NEW YORK AND FROM THE MUNICIPAL COURT IN THE BOROUGH OF MANHATTAN AND THE BRONX.

RULE I.

Terms.— There shall be a term of the Supreme Court for the hearing of appeals from the City Court and the Municipal Court of the City of New York, in the Boroughs of Manhattan and The Bronx which shall commence on the first Monday of October, November, December, January, February, March, April, May and June in each year and shall continue from day to day during each of said months until all appeals ready for hearing are heard and disposed of. This term of the court shall hold its sessions in the Court House in the County of New York, and shall be held by three Justices of the Supreme Court, duly designated to hold said term, and shall be known as the Appellate Term.

RULE II.

Appeals.— The clerk of such term of the Supreme Court shall make up a calendar of all appeals to be heard each term and publish the same in the Law Journal at least eight days before the commencement of the term.

All appeals from the City Court in which the return duly printed as required by the General Rules of Practice has been duly filed with the clerk of such term at least ten days before the first day of the term, with ten printed copies thereof and an admission of service or an affidavit showing the service of three printed copies upon the attorney for the respondent, shall be placed upon such calendar.

All appeals from the Municipal Court in which the return made up as required by Rule IV of this court has been filed with the clerk of such term at least ten days before the commencement thereof shall be placed upon such calendar.

Appeals shall be placed upon the calendar in the order in which the same are filed and shall continue thereon until disposed of. An appeal may be brought to a hearing upon notice by either party of not less than eight days, which notice must be filed as provided by Rule V of this court. If, after being regularly placed upon the calendar, neither party brings it to a hearing until after the same has been on the calendar for at least two terms, the court must dismiss the appeal unless it directs the same to be continued for cause shown.

If the appellant does not appear upon the call of the calendar, the judgment or order appealed from shall be affirmed. If the appellant appears and the respondent fails to appear, the appellant may either argue or submit his case, but judgment of reversal by default will not be allowed.

RULES OF APPELLATE TERM, SECOND DEPARTMENT.

RULES OF THE APPELLATE TERM OF THE SUPREME COURT IN THE SECOND JUDICIAL DEPARTMENT.

(Amended Feb. 2, 1916.)

RELATING TO THE HEARING OF APPEALS FROM THE MUNICIPAL COURT AND THE MAKING AND HEARING OF MOTIONS IN SAID APPELLATE TERM.

RULE I.

Calendar of Appeals.—The clerk of said Appellate Term shall, at least eight days before the first day of an appointed term thereof, prepare a calendar of all the appeals to that court in which the returns, conformable in all respects with section 161 of the New York City Municipal Court Code and with Rule III, have been filed ten days prior to the commencement of such term. Such appeals shall be placed upon said calendar according to the date of the filing of the returns, respectively, shall be brought on for hearing in the manner provided in Rule IV, and shall be continued on said calendar until disposed of.

RULE II.

Motion to Dismiss for Want of Return.—If the appellant fails to procure the return on appeal to be made and filed as prescribed in section 161 of said Municipal Court Code, the respondent may move to dismiss the appeal, and such appeal shall be dismissed unless the justices assigned to hear the same shall, for good reason shown, extend the time. (As amended Feb. 2, 1916.)

RULE III.

Returns, Points, etc.—The stenographer's minutes, attached to the return, and the points on appeal, shall be printed or typewritten upon white paper of the quality and weight prescribed in section 796 of the Code of Civil Procedure, shall be of uniform size, namely, ten and one-half inches in length and eight inches in width; the stenographer's minutes shall be numbered at the bottom of the page, fastened at the left hand edge, bound with suitable cover, and appropriately indexed. Such points shall be fastened on the left hand edge thereof and the number of the appeal shall be indicated thereon, and on the upper right hand corner of the points submitted to the court shall appear the name of the counsel arguing or submitting the same.

All returns on appeal, including the evidence, the exhibits and all papers relating thereto, all points, briefs and all motion papers for submission to the court must be flat and so delivered to the clerk of the Appellate Term: all motion papers for submission to the Appellate Term, or to a justice thereof, must comply with the foregoing conditions as to quality and weight. The exhibits offered by each party shall be copied in typewriting and annexed to the return in the order of their admission in evidence, and the originals thereof shall also be returned separate, attached in the order in which they are numbered or lettered and placed flat in an appropriate envelope, plainly marked, and enclosed in the return envelope. The opinion of the Municipal Court Justice, if any, must be included in the return.

Returns on appeal from orders must be accompanied by a certificate from the clerk of the Municipal Court that the return contains the pleadings, if any, all affidavits and other papers recited in the order appealed from. (As amended Feb. 2, 1916.)

RULE IV.

Noticing Appeals for Hearing.—After the filing of the return therein an appeal may be brought to a hearing upon notice of either party of not less than eight days, which notice, with proof of service thereof, must be filed with the clerk of the Appellate Term on or before the Monday preceding the first day of the term. If the parties to an appeal shall fail to bring the same to a hearing for at least two terms after the same had been regularly placed on the calendar, the court must dismiss such appeal unless it directs its continuance for good cause shown.

If the appellant does not appear upon the call of the calendar the judgment or order appealed from shall be affirmed. If the appellant appears and the respondent fails to appear, the appellant may either argue or submit his case, but judgment of reversal by default will not be allowed.

RULE V.

Hearing of Appeals; Points and Filing Same.—The appellant shall, on or before the Monday preceding the first day of the term at which the appeal is noticed for argument, file with the clerk of the Appellate Term three original copies of his points to be used on the hearing and shall also, on or before the same day, serve a copy of said points on the respondent or his attorney. Upon failure to file and serve said points the appeal may, when called in its regular order on the calendar for argument, be dismissed, or the hearing thereof adjourned to the next term, as the court may determine. Not later than twelve o'clock noon on the Friday preceding the first day of the term, the respondent must serve a copy of his points upon the appellant or his attorney and file with the clerk three original copies thereof, to be used upon such argument and hearing. No further time for filing points will be granted and no other points will be received unless the court shall, by its own motion, direct further points to be submitted.

No appeal will be heard or received on submission unless it has been noticed for argument and proof of service thereof has been filed as provided in Rule IV. and all appeals must be heard or submitted when regularly called for argument, unless the court, for cause shown, shall adjourn the hearing until a subsequent day. No appeal shall be submitted without argument unless the points have been filed and served as hereinbefore provided, and in the argument of an appeal not more than fifteen minutes shall be occupied by counsel on either side except by permission of the court. (As amended Feb. 2, 1916.)

RULES OF APPELLATE TERM, SECOND DEPARTMENT.

RULE VI.

Judgments, Orders and Resettlements.—The judgment or order of the Appellate Term shall be entered in the office of the clerk of the county embracing the district of the Municipal Court whence the appeal comes, and the return, with a certified copy of the judgment or order attached thereto, and all papers on which the appeal was heard, shall be remitted to the Municipal Court in the district from which the appeal was taken, as provided in section 163 of the Municipal Court Code. If, however, a motion for reargument or an application for leave to appeal to the Appellate Division is made, the return on such appeal shall be retained by the clerk of the Appellate Term until the motion is decided, and if a new trial has been ordered and the day fixed for such new trial shall intervene the submission and decision of such motion, then the day fixed for such new trial shall be adjourned for three weeks from that day.

Except when the Appellate Term shall otherwise direct, all decisions, either in cases upon appeal or on motion, will, when announced, be accompanied by an order duly signed.

A motion for resettlement of an order must be made within ten days after its entry and upon two days' notice to the adverse party or his attorney.

RULE VII.

Motions Generally.—Five days' notice of motion shall be given of all motions made in the Appellate Term, and all motions noticed for the first day of the term, whether upon an order to show cause or on regular notice of motion, with proof of service thereof, and a note of issue, must be filed with the clerk of the Appellate Term on the Thursday preceding the commencement of the term. The motion calendar will be published on the Saturday preceding the commencement of the term, but no motion will be placed thereon except upon compliance with this rule and Rule III so far as applicable. Briefs of counsel and the answering affidavits, if any, must be filed with the clerk on or before twelve o'clock noon on the Saturday preceding the first day of the term. All motions, including those made under Rule II may be made returnable any day of the term, must be submitted without argument, and when relating to a pending appeal the calendar number of such appeal shall be indicated on the first page thereof, to the right of the title of the action. (As amended Feb. 2, 1916.)

RULE VIII.

Motion for Re-arguments and Applications for Leave to Appeal.—Motions for reargument and applications for leave to appeal to the Appellate Division in the Second Judicial Department from a judgment or an order of the Appellate Term, based upon affiavits setting forth concisely the matters claimed to have been overlooked or misapprehended by the court, a concise statement of the grounds of alleged error, and the reasons why said motion should be granted or such application be allowed, with appropriate reference to the authorities relied upon, may be made and submitted to the justices who heard such appeal, after five days' notice thereof to the adverse party, provided the motion papers be served within ten days after the entry of the order determining said appeal; all papers to be used on such motion, together with a copy of the opinion, if any, and briefs of counsel, shall be delivered to the clerk of the court within fifteen days after such determination and thereupon deemed submitted, without argument.

An appeal to the Appellate Division from an order granting a new trial will not be allowed unless the party so applying files with his notice of application for such leave to appeal a stipulation that if the order appealed from be affirmed or the appeal therefrom be dismissed, judgment absolute may be rendered against him.

Motions for leave to appeal to the Appellate Term from an order of the Municipal Court pursuant to the provisions of paragraph VII of section 154 of the Municipal Court Code, may be made to the justices of the Appellate Term or one of them, provided such application has first been made to and denied by the justice of the Municipal Court making the order sought to be reviewed. The motion must be made upon the record in the court below, a copy of the opinion, if any, of the justice making the order, and a concise statement of the ground of the alleged error. The motion may be made after five days' notice thereof to the adverse party, provided the motion papers be served within ten days after the order of the justice of the Municipal Court denying leave to appeal was made. The motion papers shall be delivered to the clerk of the Appellate Term within fifteen days after the making of the order by the justice of the Municipal Court denying leave to appeal, except that after the last Monday of June the same may be delivered to the clerk of the Appellate Term at any time prior to the Monday preceding the beginning of the next succeeding Appellate Term.

A party seeking a stay pending a motion for reargument, or asking leave to appeal to the Appellate Term, or applying for allowance of an appeal to the Appellate Division as hereinbefore provided, must give to the adverse party five days' notice of such application, and the motion papers shall show proof of such service.

All papers in motions provided for by this rule shall be delivered to the clerk of the Appellate Term and thereupon be deemed submitted, without argument, and the clerk shall bring the same to the attention of the court, or one of the justices thereof, as the provision for such motion may require.

In motions for reargument or for leave to appeal to the Appellate Division an endorsement must be made upon the motion papers, stating the term of the court at which the case was argued or submitted.

RULES OF APPELLATE TERM, SECOND DEPARTMENT.

CALENDAR RULES ADOPTED BY THE APPELLATE TERM.

RULE I.

The regular day calendar of appeals from orders and judgments will be called on the first and succeeding days of each term at one o'clock P. M. (As amended Feb. 2, 1916.)

RULE II.

If an appeal upon the calendar is affected by a motion, the motion papers and the note of issue must be endorsed with the calendar number of such appeal.

RULE III.

Briefs of counsel, when reference therein is made to the testimony given upon the trial, must give the number of the folio or the page in the record. If the appellant's brief fails to comply with this rule, the appeal may be dismissed. If the respondent's brief is deficient in this respect, the appeal may be considered on the appellant's brief alone.

Adopted February 2, 1916.

RULES OF COURT OF CLAIMS.

RULES OF THE COURT OF CLAIMS.<sup>1</sup>

Adopted November 8, 1916; in effect January 1, 1917.

RULE I.

Amendments.—Claims, counterclaims and replies may be amended upon order of the court or a judge thereof.

The order granting the amendment must set forth verbatim the amended part or parts of the pleading and by the necessary references to the original pleading must indicate where the changes in the original pleading are made.

The amended pleading must recite on its face the date when the order permitting the amendment was granted.

Except when the order permitting the amendment is made during the course of the trial of a claim or counterclaim, or unless the order permitting the amendment otherwise directs, the party securing the order must file in the clerk's office at Albany within ten days after the order permitting the amendment is granted an original and twelve copies of the entire pleading as amended, and he must within the same time serve upon the adverse party a duplicate original thereof.

RULE II.

Answers.—The state is not required to answer a claim and all allegations in the claim are treated as denied.

RULE III.

Appeal.<sup>2</sup>—Except as otherwise directed by these rules, the practice on appeal shall be the same as that in the supreme court and court of appeals.

RULE IV.

The successful party on appeal must file in the clerk's office of the court of claims at Albany the original printed case on appeal together with a certified copy of the order of the appellate court remitting the proceedings to the court of claims within ten days after said order is filed in the clerk's office of said appellate court, together with (1) an original and two copies of his proposed order making the order or judgment of the appellate court the order or judgment of the court of claims, and (2) an original and two copies of his proposed judgment of the court of claims

<sup>1</sup> Sec. 265 of the code of civil procedure provides as follows: "The court may establish rules for its government, and the regulation of practice therein; prescribe the forms and methods of procedure before it, vacate or modify judgments, and grant new trials, and except as otherwise provided in said rules and regulations, or the code of civil procedure, the practice shall be the same as in the supreme court. Rules of the board of claims or former court of claims, now in force, shall continue to be the rules of the court of claims until changed by such court."

<sup>2</sup> See sections 275 to 278, inclusive, of the code of civil procedure relative to appeals from orders and judgments of the court of claims.

RULES OF APPELLATE TERM, FIRST DEPARTMENT.

the service of such notice, a copy of the moving papers and a statement in such affidavit setting forth the reasons why a stay should be granted, an application for a stay will be entertained. Application for such order must be made to the justices of the Appellate Term who heard the appeal, or one of them, by filing the same with the clerk of the Appellate Term, by whom it will be brought to the attention of the court.

NOTES.

The motion may be, and usually is, in the alternative either for re-argument or leave to appeal.

When a re-argument of an appeal from an order or judgment of the City Court is granted, the clerk of the Appellate Term places the case upon the calendar of the next term after the filing of the order. No new notice of argument need be served or filed. The case will be called in the regular order, must be submitted without oral argument and will be referred by the justices sitting in that term to the justices who heard the appeal in the first instance, unless it is a case where a re-argument is ordered to be heard de novo, in which event, it will be heard by the justices then sitting as though it was on the calendar for the first time. Copies of the briefs used upon the original hearing may be handed up at the call of the calendar or filed with the clerk prior thereto. They need not be re-served upon the opposing party. If, however, the moving party intends to raise any new point not referred to in his original briefs or to cite new authorities a copy of such supplemental brief must be served upon his adversary and handed up on the call of the calendar and such opposing party will be giving leave to reply thereto.

The same practice prevails when a re-argument is granted upon an appeal from an order or judgment of the Municipal Court.

The return upon appeal must be sent back from the Municipal Court to the clerk of the Appellate Term who refiles it and places it upon the calendar. If the order granting a re-argument does not so direct, an ex parte order may be obtained directing the clerk of the Municipal Court to file the return with the clerk of the Appellate Term for the purpose of a re-argument being had.

In the case of Gartland v. N. Y. Zoological Society, Law Journal, May 7, 1909, not reported, it was held that the time to appeal from the determination of the Appellate Term in a City Court case was given by Section 3193 of the Code of Civil Procedure, and in a Municipal Court by Section 1351 of the Code of Civil Procedure. Such appeal must therefore be taken within 20 days from an order or judgment of the City Court and within 30 days from an order or judgment of the Municipal Court, after service of a copy of the order granting leave with notice of its entry.

If the motion for leave to appeal or for re-argument be made returnable promptly an application for an ex parte order staying proceedings pending the hearing and determination of the motion will be entertained or an order to show cause why leave to appeal or a re-argument should not be granted may be obtained with a temporary stay incorporated therein, provided such order is made returnable within five (5) days. The application for the order should be handed to the clerk, who will procure it to be signed by one of the justices who heard the appeal and who are alone empowered to grant a stay. Stern v. Barrett Chemical Co., 108 N. Y. Supp. 811. No other justices or branch of the Supreme Court, unless it be the Appellate Division, has authority to grant a stay upon such a motion, i. e., a stay of proceedings until the hearing and determination of a motion. The stay terminates with the entry of the order without regard to service of a copy of the order or notice of entry thereof. Tuska v. Jarvis, 61 Misc., 224; Smith v. Spalding, 30 How. Pr., 339, 442.

If leave to appeal is granted, a stay pending the hearing of the appeal in the Appellate Division will be granted, and if a re-argument is granted a stay will be granted pending the hearing of the re-argument. If leave to appeal is denied, no stay will be granted pending a motion made in the Appellate Division for leave to appeal and an application for such a stay must be made in that court.

RULE VIII.

Motions Generally — Practice.—Motions may be noticed for any day of the term and must be submitted without argument. Five days' notice of motion must be given, except motions for leave to appeal to this court under Rule VI and to dismiss an appeal. A notice of such motion, whether founded upon an order to show cause or a regular notice of motion, with proof of service thereof, and the opposing affidavits must be filed with the clerk of the Appellate Term at or before 12 o'clock upon the day on which the same is returnable.

All decisions will, when announced, be accompanied by an order duly signed, unless the court shall otherwise direct. Motions for resettlement of orders must be made upon two days' notice.

Dated July 7, 1915.

NOTES.

In all motions, the motion papers and proof of service must be filed with the clerk of the Appellate Term before 12 M. of the day the same is returnable.

All papers must be endorsed with the county clerk's number of the clerk of the county embracing the court from which the appeal is taken.

The opposing party has until 12 o'clock noon of the return day in which to file opposing affidavits, and briefs may be submitted by either party up to that time. The decision of the court upon motions is embodied in an order which is filed and entered as soon as the motion is decided. No appeal lies from such an order. German v. Levy, 108 N. Y. Supp. 1107, affirmed 126 App. Div. 83.

If a party has served motion papers, but has failed to file them with proof of service, the opposing party upon submitting an affidavit to that effect, and a copy of the papers served upon him, may have the motion dismissed, with costs.

Motions for stays pending appeals must be made returnable before the Appellate Term, and five (5) days' notice must be given. The same relief may be obtained under an order to show cause, which may be made returnable on two (2) days' notice. In a proper case a temporary stay, pending the hearing of the motion, will also be granted. The trial of an action in the City or Municipal Courts may be stayed by the Appellate Term, pending the hearing of an appeal from an order of either Court. Fleischman v. Mengis, 118 N. Y. Supp. 671; Amorisia v. Rand, 88 N. Y. Supp. 356.

In such motions, a copy of the pleadings, the order and of the affidavits used upon the motion in the Lower Court, both for and against the motion, should accompany the moving papers to enable the Appellate Term to determine whether there exists probable cause for review. If that is not done, or if the moving papers fail to show merit in the appeal, the motion will be denied.

If the order handed down upon the decision of a motion is not a proper order, the party desiring to have it corrected should move promptly for a re-settlement of the order. This motion may be made upon two days' notice. A copy of the order as made, together with the proposed order should be served upon the other party, with a notice to the effect that the proposed order will be submitted to the court on the day named therein for signature. The proposed order should contain a statement that such order is intended to take the place of the original order entered on the            day of            , etc.

CALENDAR RULES.

The calendar rules of the Appellate Term, First Department, are hereby amended so as to read as follows:

RULE I.

The calendar of appeals from orders and judgments of the City Court will be called in the forenoon of the first day of the term at 10 o'clock A. M. The calendar of appeals from orders and judgments of the Municipal Court will be called on the second day of the term at 10 o'clock A. M.

RULE II.

In motion for leave to appeal or for re-argument, an indorsement must be made upon the motion papers stating the term of the court at which the case was argued or submitted. If an appeal upon the calendar is affected by a motion, the motion papers must be indorsed with the calendar number of such appeal.

RULE III.

The points on appeal from judgments and orders of the City Court shall be printed as provided for by Rule 43 of the General

RULES OF APPELLATE TERM, FIRST DEPARTMENT.

Rules of Practice. The points on appeals from the Municipal Court shall be printed or typewritten upon white paper of uniform size, viz., ten and one-half inches in length and eight inches in width, and fastened on the left-hand edge thereof. Upon the right-hand corner of the points submitted to the court shall appear the name of counsel arguing or submitting the same. Upon the left-hand corner of the points submitted shall appear the calendar number of the case on appeal. All points, briefs and motion papers must be filed flat. The county clerk's number of the clerk of the county embracing the court from which the appeal is taken must be indorsed on all motion papers.

In appeals from judgments and orders of the City Court ten (10) copies of the points or briefs must be filed, and three (3) copies upon appeals from the Municipal Court must be filed.

Briefs of counsel, when reference therein is made to the testimony given upon the trial, must give the number of the folio in the printed case, if an appeal from the City Court, or the number of the page and the line thereof in the record, if an appeal from the Municipal Court.

If the appellant's brief fails to comply with this rule, the appeal may be dismissed. If the respondent's brief is deficient in this respect, the appeal may be considered on the appellant's brief alone. (Adopted July 12, 1915.)

RULE IV.

After submission or argument of cases and submission of briefs no communications will be accepted from counsel except to correct errors or for citation of an authority. (Adopted May 14, 1916.)

RULES OF APPELLATE TERM, SECOND DEPARTMENT.

RULES OF THE APPELLATE TERM OF THE SUPREME COURT IN THE SECOND JUDICIAL DEPARTMENT.

(Amended Feb. 2, 1916.)

RELATING TO THE HEARING OF APPEALS FROM THE MUNICIPAL COURT AND THE MAKING AND HEARING OF MOTIONS IN SAID APPELLATE TERM.

RULE I.

Calendar of Appeals.—The clerk of said Appellate Term shall, at least eight days before the first day of an appointed term thereof, prepare a calendar of all the appeals to that court in which the returns, conformable in all respects with section 161 of the New York City Municipal Court Code and with Rule III, have been filed ten days prior to the commencement of such term. Such appeals shall be placed upon said calendar according to the date of the filing of the returns, respectively, shall be brought on for hearing in the manner provided in Rule IV, and shall be continued on said calendar until disposed of.

RULE II.

Motion to Dismiss for Want of Return.—If the appellant fails to procure the return on appeal to be made and filed as prescribed in section 161 of said Municipal Court Code, the respondent may move to dismiss the appeal, and such appeal shall be dismissed unless the justices assigned to hear the same shall, for good reason shown, extend the time. (As amended Feb. 2, 1916.)

RULE III.

Returns, Points, etc.—The stenographer's minutes, attached to the return, and the points on appeal, shall be printed or typewritten upon white paper of the quality and weight prescribed in section 796 of the Code of Civil Procedure, shall be of uniform size, namely, ten and one-half inches in length and eight inches in width; the stenographer's minutes shall be numbered at the bottom of the page, fastened at the left hand edge, bound with suitable cover, and appropriately indexed. Such points shall be fastened on the left hand edge thereof and the number of the appeal shall be indicated thereon, and on the upper right hand corner of the points submitted to the court shall appear the name of the counsel arguing or submitting the same.

All returns on appeal, including the evidence, the exhibits and all papers relating thereto, all points, briefs and all motion papers for submission to the court must be flat and so delivered to the clerk of the Appellate Term; all motion papers for submission to the Appellate Term, or to a justice thereof, must comply with the foregoing conditions as to quality and weight. The exhibits offered by each party shall be copied in typewriting and annexed to the return in the order of their admission in evidence, and the originals thereof shall also be returned separate, attached in the order in which they are numbered or lettered and placed flat in an appropriate envelope, plainly marked, and enclosed in the return envelope. The opinion of the Municipal Court Justice, if any, must be included in the return.

Returns on appeal from orders must be accompanied by a certificate from the clerk of the Municipal Court that the return contains the pleadings, if any, all affidavits and other papers recited in the order appealed from. (As amended Feb. 2, 1916.)

RULE IV.

Noticing Appeals for Hearing.—After the filing of the return therein an appeal may be brought to a hearing upon notice of either party of not less than eight days, which notice, with proof of service thereof, must be filed with the clerk of the Appellate Term on or before the Monday preceding the first day of the term. If the parties to an appeal shall fail to bring the same to a hearing for at least two terms after the same had been regularly placed on the calendar, the court must dismiss such appeal unless it directs its continuance for good cause shown.

If the appellant does not appear upon the call of the calendar the judgment or order appealed from shall be affirmed. If the appellant appears and the respondent fails to appear, the appellant may either argue or submit his case, but judgment of reversal by default will not be allowed.

RULE V.

Hearing of Appeals; Points and Filing Same.—The appellant shall, on or before the Monday preceding the first day of the term at which the appeal is noticed for argument, file with the clerk of the Appellate Term three original copies of his points to be used on the hearing and shall also, on or before the same day, serve a copy of said points on the respondent or his attorney. Upon failure to file and serve said points the appeal may, when called in its regular order on the calendar for argument, be dismissed, or the hearing thereof adjourned to the next term, as the court may determine. Not later than twelve o'clock noon on the Friday preceding the first day of the term, the respondent must serve a copy of his points upon the appellant or his attorney and file with the clerk three original copies thereof, to be used upon such argument and hearing. No further time for filing points will be granted and no other points will be received unless the court shall, by its own motion, direct further points to be submitted.

No appeal will be heard or received on submission unless it has been noticed for argument and proof of service thereof has been filed as provided in Rule IV. and all appeals must be heard or submitted when regularly called for argument, unless the court, for cause shown, shall adjourn the hearing until a subsequent day. No appeal shall be submitted without argument unless the points have been filed and served as hereinbefore provided, and in the argument of an appeal not more than fifteen minutes shall be occupied by counsel on either side except by permission of the court. (As amended Feb. 2, 1916.)

RULES OF APPELLATE TERM, SECOND DEPARTMENT.

RULE VI.

Judgments, Orders and Resettlements.— The judgment or order of the Appellate Term shall be entered in the office of the clerk of the county embracing the district of the Municipal Court whence the appeal comes, and the return, with a certified copy of the judgment or order attached thereto, and all papers on which the appeal was heard, shall be remitted to the Municipal Court in the district from which the appeal was taken, as provided in section 163 of the Municipal Court Code. If, however, a motion for reargument or an application for leave to appeal to the Appellate Division is made, the return on such appeal shall be retained by the clerk of the Appellate Term until the motion is decided, and if a new trial has been ordered and the day fixed for such new trial shall intervene the submission and decision of such motion, then the day fixed for such new trial shall be adjourned for three weeks from that day.

Except when the Appellate Term shall otherwise direct, all decisions, either in cases upon appeal or on motion, will, when announced, be accompanied by an order duly signed.

A motion for resettlement of an order must be made within ten days after its entry and upon two days' notice to the adverse party or his attorney.

RULE VII.

Motions Generally.— Five days' notice of motion shall be given of all motions made in the Appellate Term, and all motions noticed for the first day of the term, whether upon an order to show cause or on regular notice of motion, with proof of service thereof, and a note of issue, must be filed with the clerk of the Appellate Term on the Thursday preceding the commencement of the term. The motion calendar will be published on the Saturday preceding the commencement of the term, but no motion will be placed thereon except upon compliance with this rule and Rule III so far as applicable. Briefs of counsel and the answering affidavits, if any, must be filed with the clerk on or before twelve o'clock noon on the Saturday preceding the first day of the term. All motions, including those made under Rule II may be made returnable any day of the term, must be submitted without argument, and when relating to a pending appeal the calendar number of such appeal shall be indicated on the first page thereof, to the right of the title of the action. (As amended Feb. 2, 1916.)

RULE VIII.

Motion for Re-arguments and Applications for Leave to Appeal.— Motions for reargument and applications for leave to appeal to the Appellate Division in the Second Judicial Department from a judgment or an order of the Appellate Term, based upon affiavits setting forth concisely the matters claimed to have been overlooked or misapprehended by the court, a concise statement of the grounds of alleged error, and the reasons why said motion should be granted or such application be allowed, with appropriate reference to the authorities relied upon, may be made and submitted to the justices who heard such appeal, after five days' notice thereof to the adverse party, provided the motion papers be served within ten days after the entry of the order determining said appeal; all papers to be used on such motion, together with a copy of the opinion, if any, and briefs of counsel, shall be delivered to the clerk of the court within fifteen days after such determination and thereupon deemed submitted, without argument.

An appeal to the Appellate Division from an order granting a new trial will not be allowed unless the party so applying files with his notice of application for such leave to appeal a stipulation that if the order appealed from be affirmed or the appeal therefrom be dismissed, judgment absolute may be rendered against him.

Motions for leave to appeal to the Appellate Term from an order of the Municipal Court pursuant to the provisions of paragraph VII of section 154 of the Municipal Court Code, may be made to the justices of the Appellate Term or one of them, provided such application has first been made to and denied by the justice of the Municipal Court making the order sought to be reviewed. The motion must be made upon the record in the court below, a copy of the opinion, if any, of the justice making the order, and a concise statement of the ground of the alleged error. The motion may be made after five days' notice thereof to the adverse party, provided the motion papers be served within ten days after the order of the justice of the Municipal Court denying leave to appeal was made. The motion papers shall be delivered to the clerk of the Appellate Term within fifteen days after the making of the order by the justice of the Municipal Court denying leave to appeal, except that after the last Monday of June the same may be delivered to the clerk of the Appellate Term at any time prior to the Monday preceding the beginning of the next succeeding Appellate Term.

A party seeking a stay pending a motion for reargument, or asking leave to appeal to the Appellate Term, or applying for allowance of an appeal to the Appellate Division as hereinbefore provided, must give to the adverse party five days' notice of such application, and the motion papers shall show proof of such service.

All papers in motions provided for by this rule shall be delivered to the clerk of the Appellate Term and thereupon be deemed submitted, without argument, and the clerk shall bring the same to the attention of the court, or one of the justices thereof, as the provision for such motion may require.

In motions for reargument or for leave to appeal to the Appellate Division an endorsement must be made upon the motion papers, stating the term of the court at which the case was argued or submitted.

CALENDAR RULES ADOPTED BY THE APPELLATE TERM.

RULE I.

The regular day calendar of appeals from orders and judgments will be called on the first and succeeding days of each term at one o'clock P. M. (As amended Feb. 2, 1916.)

RULE II.

If an appeal upon the calendar is affected by a motion, the motion papers and the note of issue must be endorsed with the calendar number of such appeal.

RULE III.

Briefs of counsel, when reference therein is made to the testimony given upon the trial, must give the number of the folio or the page in the record. If the appellant's brief fails to comply with this rule, the appeal may be dismissed. If the respondent's brief is deficient in this respect, the appeal may be considered on the appellant's brief alone.

Adopted February 2, 1916.

RULES OF COURT OF CLAIMS.

RULES OF THE COURT OF CLAIMS.<sup>1</sup>

Adopted November 8, 1916; in effect January 1, 1917.

RULE I.

Amendments.—Claims, counterclaims and replies may be amended upon order of the court or a judge thereof.

The order granting the amendment must set forth verbatim the amended part or parts of the pleading and by the necessary references to the original pleading must indicate where the changes in the original pleading are made.

The amended pleading must recite on its face the date when the order permitting the amendment was granted.

Except when the order permitting the amendment is made during the course of the trial of a claim or counterclaim, or unless the order permitting the amendment otherwise directs, the party securing the order must file in the clerk's office at Albany within ten days after the order permitting the amendment is granted an original and twelve copies of the entire pleading as amended, and he must within the same time serve upon the adverse party a duplicate original thereof.

RULE II.

Answers.—The state is not required to answer a claim and all allegations in the claim are treated as denied.

RULE III.

Appeal.<sup>2</sup>—Except as otherwise directed by these rules, the practice on appeal shall be the same as that in the supreme court and court of appeals.

RULE IV.

The successful party on appeal must file in the clerk's office of the court of claims at Albany the original printed case on appeal together with a certified copy of the order of the appellate court remitting the proceedings to the court of claims within ten days after said order is filed in the clerk's office of said appellate court, together with (1) an original and two copies of his proposed order making the order or judgment of the appellate court the order or judgment of the court of claims, and (2) an original and two copies of his proposed judgment of the court of claims

<sup>1</sup> Sec. 265 of the code of civil procedure provides as follows: "The court may establish rules for its government, and the regulation of practice therein: prescribe the forms and methods of procedure before it, vacate or modify judgments, and grant new trials, and except as otherwise provided in said rules and regulations, or the code of civil procedure, the practice shall be the same as in the supreme court. Rules of the board of claims or former court of claims, now in force, shall continue to be the rules of the court of claims until changed by such court."

<sup>2</sup> See sections 275 to 278, inclusive, of the code of civil procedure relative to appeals from orders and judgments of the court of claims.

RULES OF COURT OF CLAIMS.

based on said order. If the successful party on appeal fails to comply with this rule, the adverse party may make application to the court of claims for the entry of the appropriate orders and judgments.

RULE V.

When costs on appeal are allowed by the appellate court, the successful party on appeal must within the time stated in Rule 4 file in the clerk's office of the court of claims at Albany his proposed bill of costs, and at the same time serve upon the adverse party a copy thereof, together with notice of taxation of costs, which shall be not less than five nor more than ten days thereafter.

When costs on appeal are allowed by the appellate court, the same may be stipulated by the parties, and if not so stipulated shall be taxed by the clerk of the court of claims in like manner as costs are taxed in the supreme court.

RULE VI.

Attorney, when party represented by.—Whenever under these rules a party to a claim is directed to do an act, or service of any paper or notice is directed to be made upon any party to a claim, if said party is represented by an attorney said act must be done by said attorney and said service must be made upon said attorney.

RULE VII.

Briefs.—Whenever either party desires to submit a brief or the court directs the submission thereof, the party submitting the same must serve a copy upon the adverse party within the time prescribed by the court for that purpose, or if the time is not so prescribed, within twenty days after the completion of the trial or the hearing of the application, in connection with which the brief is submitted. If either party desires to submit a reply brief, the party submitting the same must serve upon the adverse party a copy of said reply brief within ten days after the service upon him of the brief to which his brief is a reply.

Whenever either party to a claim serves upon the adverse party, pursuant to this rule, any brief, he must at the same time send to the clerk's office at Albany four copies thereof. The clerk shall upon the receipt thereof send one copy to each of the judges hearing the claim and shall file the remaining copy or copies in his office.

All briefs must recite on their face when and where the claim was tried, or the application made, and before which judge or judges.

RULE VIII.

Calendar of claims.<sup>3</sup>—The district calendar shall be made up for each of the districts mentioned below of the claims arising within the counties named:

RULE IX.

The clerk shall prepare a calendar for each regular term of the court as directed by section 284 of the code of civil procedure of all claims which are filed in his office at Albany at least thirty days before the commencement of the term for which the calendar is made up; and he shall prepare a calendar of claims for each special term of the court as directed in writing by the presiding judge.

No claim shall be added to the calendar except by written order of the court (1) upon the written consent of both parties, or (2) upon written notice, stating the reasons for the application, served upon the adverse party at least eight days before the opening of the term of court for which the calendar is made up. Copies of the application papers must be sent to the clerk's office at Albany at the same time that they are served upon the adverse party.

Whenever any claim is added to the calendar for a district other than the one in which said claim arose, such addition shall be in force only during the term at which the claim is added to the calendar, and at the end of said term, if said claim has not been disposed of, it shall resume its regular place on the calendar for the district in which it arose.

RULES OF COURT OF CLAIMS.

RULE X.

Unless the court otherwise directs, the first day calendar shall consist of such claims as shall be announced as ready for trial by either party upon the formal call of the calendar on the opening day of the term. From time to time during the continuance of said term, the court may in its discretion add to such original day calendar other claims upon the general calendar. The representative of the attorney-general's office in charge at said term of court shall immediately notify the attorneys for the respective claimants of such addition of claims to the day calendar.

RULE XI.

Claim.<sup>4</sup>—The claim must state concisely the facts constituting the same, the nature and extent of the interest, and the post-office address, of each claimant therein.

It must state whether or not the claim, or any part thereof, has been assigned, and if assigned the name and post-office address of each person interested in the claim, and the nature and extent of such interest.

It must state whether or not it has been submitted to any other tribunal or officer for audit or determination, and if so to what tribunal or officer, and the determination of such tribunal or officer therein.

In all cases where a notice of intention to file a claim is required by law, the claimant, before filing said claim in the clerk's office at Albany, must attach to the original and to the twelve copies thereof a copy of said notice of intention, and the claim must state the date of filing of such notice both in the office of the clerk of the court of claims and in the office of the attorney-general.<sup>5</sup>

Where the claim is for the temporary or permanent appropriation of property, it must contain a specific description of the property, giving its location and quantity.

There must be included in each claim, or attached thereto as a part thereof, a schedule showing in detail each item claimed, and the amount of such item.

If the claim is filed under a special statute, such statute must be set out in full in the claim.

The claim must be signed at the end thereof by the claimant's attorney, giving the attorney's post-office address.

<sup>5</sup> Section 270 of the code of civil procedure provides in part as follows: "In all cases of canal claims a copy of each such claim and of notice of claim which is or may hereafter be required to be filed with the court of claims shall be filed with the superintendent of public works * * *."

RULES OF COURT OF CLAIMS.

It must be verified in the same manner as pleadings in the supreme court.

The original may be either typewritten or printed, but where the amount claimed exceeds $500 the copies must be printed.

RULE XII.

A claim shall be filed by delivering it at the clerk's office in Albany to the clerk or in his absence to some person in charge of the office, or upon the receipt thereof at the clerk's office in Albany by mail or by express.* At the time of filing the original claim or within ten days thereafter the claimant must file in the clerk's office at Albany twelve copies thereof.

RULE XIII.

Clerk.—The duties of the clerk, unless otherwise ordered in writing by the court, shall be as follows: 1. He shall receive and file all papers in a claim which comply with the statutes and rules relating thereto. 2. He shall number each claim in the order of its filing, and give each amended or supplemental claim and other papers in the claim the same number as the original claim. 3. He shall deliver three copies of each claim to the attorney-general and four to the superintendent of public works, and shall retain the remaining copies for the use of the court. 4. He shall notify the claimant or his attorney of the date of filing a claim and of its number. 5. He shall mail a copy of the calendar at least five days before the beginning of the term to each claimant whose claim appears thereon, or to his attorney. 6. He shall cause to be entered in appropriate books all papers which are required to be recorded and shall have the care and custody of such books and of all papers filed in his office. 7. He shall perform such other duties as may be prescribed by the court or not inconsistent therewith by any judge of the court.

RULE XIV.

Counterclaim.—Where a counterclaim is necessary the attorney-general must plead the counterclaim in conformity with the provisions relating to claims so far as applicable. A counterclaim must be verified by the attorney-general or by one of his deputies.

Unless otherwise permitted by the written order of the court or a judge thereof, the attorney-general must, at least ten days before the beginning of the term at which the claim is to be tried, file in the clerk's office at Albany an original and five copies of the counterclaim and must at the same time that he files said counterclaim serve a duplicate original thereof upon the claimant.

RULE XV.

Date of issue.—The date of issue is the date of filing the claim in the clerk's office at Albany.

* See footnote 5, on page 218.

RULES OF COURT OF CLAIMS.

RULE XVI.

Disbursements for appropriation maps.—An allowance will be made in the judgment in appropriation claims for the actual expense incurred by the claimant in securing copies of the official appropriation maps required to be attached to appropriation claims under the rules only when such expense is proven or stipulated in open court and included in the award.

RULE XVII.

Discontinuance.—Where a counterclaim is pleaded the claimant cannot discontinue except as permitted by the written order of the court or a judge thereof.

RULE XVIII.

Dismissal of claim or counterclaim.—An application may be made to the court to dismiss a claim or a counterclaim in whole or in part on the ground (1) that said claim or counterclaim, or a part thereof, does not state facts sufficient to constitute a cause of action, or (2) that the court does not have jurisdiction of said claim or counterclaim, or a part thereof, either with respect to one or more of the parties thereto or with respect to the subject matter thereof. Unless said application is made during the trial of said claim or counterclaim, it will not be entertained by the court except on eight days' written notice to the adverse party stating the grounds therefor, unless the adverse party waives or modifies this requirement.

RULE XIX.

Exhibits.—Each party must, before submitting to the court an exhibit, mark conspicuously on said exhibit the number of the claim and claimant's name.

In all litigated claims each party must within five days after the claim is finally submitted, file in the clerk's office at Albany five copies of a list of all exhibits submitted by him to the court. Such list must sufficiently describe said exhibits so as to permit the identification thereof and must give the official number or symbol attached to each exhibit by the court stenographer. It must recite on its face when and where the claim was tried and before which judge or judges, and shall be signed at the end thereof by the attorney for the party submitting the same. The clerk shall send one copy of said list to each of the judges hearing the claim and shall file the remaining copies in his office.

Each party shall retain and be responsible for his own exhibits, but the clerk of the court may at any time require the exhibits, or any of them, to be filed in the clerk's office at Albany for the use of the court or of either party to the claim. Upon the issuing of a certificate of no appeal by the attorney-general in any claim, or after the expiration of the time for taking an appeal therein, the clerk may return to the party the exhibits sent by said party to the clerk's office.

RULE XX.

Guardian ad litem.—A guardian ad litem may be appointed by the court, or one of the judges thereof, as provided by the rules of practice of the supreme court.

RULE XXI.

Judgments.<sup>7</sup>—The successful party must within five days after receipt from the clerk of a notification of the award of the court submit to the clerk an original and two copies of his proposed judgment. If said party fails to do so, the adverse party may submit such proposed judgment.

Unless otherwise ordered by the court or a judge thereof, the judgment in appropriation claims shall not be entered until the attorney-general files in the clerk's office at Albany his written approval of title to the property appropriated by the state, including his direction as to the claimant or claimants in whose name judgment should be entered. In all other cases judgment shall be entered by the clerk as soon as the proposed judgment is submitted to him pursuant to this rule, or in default thereof as soon as practicable thereafter.

RULE XXII.

Maps.—In appropriation claims, the claimant, before filing the claim in the clerk's office at Albany, must attach to the original and to the twelve copies thereof a duplicate of the official appropriation map or maps filed in the office of the state engineer and covering the property for which the claim is filed.

In other claims affecting real property, and in negligence claims, a rough sketch or drawing showing the location of the premises affected, or the place where the claimant alleges that the accident occurred, must be so attached.

RULE XXIII.

Notice of intention to file a claim.—In addition to the requirements prescribed by section 264 of the code of civil procedure for a notice of intention to file a claim, every notice of intention must state on its face the post office address of each claimant therein and the post office address of the attorney for each claimant.

RULE XXIV.

Number of claim.—The number given to the claim by the clerk when the same is filed in his office must be indicated on

---

<sup>7</sup> For suggested forms for judgments and for the procedure necessary to secure payment of judgments, see the appendix to these rules.

RULES OF COURT OF CLAIMS.

the face of all subsequent papers in the same proceedings filed in the clerk's office or submitted to the court by the party filing or submitting the same.

RULE XXV.

Orders.— Whenever either of the parties to a claim shall apply to the court or a judge thereof for an order, it shall be the duty of the party making the application (1) to present to the judge or judges to whom the application is made his proposed order in writing and (2) to send to the clerk's office at Albany three copies of said proposed order. When said order, signed by the judge or judges to whom it is presented, is filed in the clerk's office, the clerk shall send to the respective parties certified copies thereof.

Except when an order is applied for during the trial of a claim, no application shall be made to the court or a judge thereof for any order except on eight days' written notice to the adverse party, stating the grounds therefor, unless the adverse party waives or modifies this requirement.

RULE XXVI.

Reply.— A counterclaim is admitted unless a reply is filed and served as prescribed by these rules. A reply must be verified in the same manner as pleadings in the supreme court.

Unless otherwise permitted by the written order of the court or a judge thereof, the claimant must, within twenty days after the service upon him by the attorney-general of a counterclaim, file in the clerk's office at Albany an original and twelve copies of his reply and must at the same time that he files said reply serve a duplicate original thereof upon the attorney-general.

RULE XXVII.

Size of papers.— Where a claim or other paper in a case is typewritten the size of the paper used shall be substantially eight inches by thirteen inches and when printed substantially eight inches by ten and one-half inches.

RULE XXVIII.

Submission of claim on agreed statement of facts.— Whenever a claim is submitted to the court on an agreed statement of facts, the claimant must within five days thereafter file in the clerk's office at Albany a copy of said statement which must be signed at the end thereof by both parties, together with a memorandum stating when and where the claim was submitted and to which judge or judges. Each party must within the same time file in the clerk's office at Albany a list of all papers submitted by said party to the court, which list must sufficiently describe said papers so as to permit the identification thereof.

Notice of intention to file claim

To the Clerk of the Court of Claims:

To the Attorney-General of the State of New York:<sup>9</sup>

Please take notice that the undersigned, John Doe, intends to file a claim against the State of New York, pursuant to section 264 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

The post-office address of the claimant herein is.....

The attorney for the claimant herein is Richard Roe. Esq., and his post-office address is.....

The time when and the place where such claim arose and the nature of the same are as follows:

JOHN DOE,
Claimant.

RICHARD ROE,
Attorney for claimant.

<sup>8</sup> This appendix is not a part of the rules and has not been adopted by the court. The forms are not official forms and their use is not mandatory except to the extent that they incorporate provisions required by the rules. (See Rule 1, paragraph 3, and Rule 11.) They are obviously intended to cover only the ordinary situations, and claimants must modify them if necessary to meet the actual facts involved in their particular claims.

No attempt has been made to suggest a form for claims arising on or out of contracts because the facts in such claims vary to such an extent that no general form could be suggested which would be of much assistance. A claim on contract which meets the requirements of a complaint in the supreme court is sufficient provided, of course, it incorporates the special provisions required by Rule 11.

ARBITRATION AND CONCILIATION RULES.

ARBITRATION AND CONCILIATION RULES IN THE MUNICIPAL COURT OF THE CITY OF NEW YORK.

Pursuant to sub-division six of section six and sub-division six of section eight of the Municipal Court Code the Board of Justices of the Municipal Court of the City of New York hereby establish a system of arbitration and adopt the following rules:

RULE I.

The parties to any controversy, except infants and incompetents, may submit the same for arbitration to a Justice of this court or to any other person upon whom they shall agree.

RULE II.

The persons desiring an arbitration shall sign a consent which shall contain the name of the arbitrator, a brief recital of the nature of the controversy to be determined and a statement that they will abide by these rules. The consent must be filed with the clerk of one of the districts, which district shall be the proper district for all further proceedings, and a copy thereof shall be given by the parties to the arbitrator.

RULE III.

The arbitrator shall forthwith proceed to hear the controversy. He shall not be bound by the rules of evidence, but may receive such evidence as seems to him equitable and proper. Either party may be represented by counsel, but no record of the proceedings before the arbitrator shall be kept. No expense shall be incurred by him except upon the consent in writing of the parties.

RULE IV.

After the first hearing neither party may withdraw from the arbitration unless both parties consent to, or the arbitrator directs a discontinuance of the proceeding.

RULE V.

The arbitrator shall make his award in writing and file the same forthwith, together with his opinion, if any, with the clerk of the proper district. Unless both parties file a request in writing not to enter judgment, the clerk shall within two days after the filing of the award enter judgment in accordance therewith, provided the award has been filed within thirty days from the date of filing the consent. The time within which the clerk shall enter judgment may be extended by a stipulation in writing for a further period of not to exceed thirty days.

RULE VI.

The clerk in each district shall keep a docket wherein proper entries of all proceedings shall be made.

ARBITRATION AND CONCILIATION RULES.

RULE VII.

No fees or disbursements of any kind shall be demanded or received, except as hereinabove provided.

Forms.—The consent, award and judgment must be in substantially the following form, the blanks being properly filled:

Consent.—Municipal Court of the City of New York. Borough of ..... District.

We, ..... residing at ..... and ..... residing at ..... hereby designate ..... as arbitrator to hear and determine the following controversy existing between us, viz:

We agree that the arbitrator proceed in accordance with the rules of the Municipal Court of the City of New York and do hereby declare that we know said rules and that we will abide by them.

Dated ....., 191..

Award.—I, ....., the arbitrator appointed pursuant to a consent signed by ..... and ..... and filed in the office of the clerk of the Municipal Court for the ..... District, Borough of ....., on the ..... day of ....., 191.. to hear and determine the controversy therein specified, hereby certify that I have heard the parties to said controversy and the evidence submitted by them and find and decide that

Dated New York, ....., 191..

Arbitrator.

Judgment.—Upon the consent filed on the ..... day of ....., 191.. and the award of ..... arbitrator, filed on the ..... day of ....., 191.., judgment is entered x in favor of ..... against ..... for the sum of ..... dollars ($....).

Dated ....., 191..

Clerk.

x (or insert such other judgment in accordance with the award).

Pursuant to subdivision six of section six and subdivision five of section eight of the Municipal Court Code, the Board of Justices of the Municipal Court of the City of New York hereby establish a system of conciliation and adopt the following rules

MUNICIPAL COURT RULES OF CITY OF NEW YORK.

RULE I.

Any person having a claim which in his opinion may be adjusted without resort to an action at law may apply to the clerk in any district for the issuance of a notice of conciliation.

RULE II.

The clerk shall immediately fix a date for hearing and inform the applicant of such date when the request for the notice is presented and shall forthwith mail the notice to the adverse party at the address given by the applicant. At least three days notice shall be given, exclusive of the day of mailing. The hearing shall be had in any district which the applicant may specify.

RULE III.

Hearings of conciliation shall be had in each district on such day or days of each week as the justices of each district may designate. Where there is more than one part of the court established, the hearing shall be had at Part I.

RULE IV.

The cases in conciliation shall be heard informally. The justice hearing the case shall endeavor to effect an amicable and equitable adjustment between the parties. He may, in his discretion, permit either party to be assisted by counsel, but no record of the proceedings before him shall be kept. He shall not be bound by the rules of evidence, but may receive such evidence as seems to him equitable.

RULE V.

The Justice shall direct the clerk to make an entry in the docket hereinafter referred to, of the terms of the settlement or of the failure thereof. No judgment or order enforceable by process of law shall be rendered or made by the Justice.

RULE VI.

The Justice before whom the hearing in conciliation was had shall not take part in any trial between the same parties involving the same controversy.

RULE VII.

The clerk of each district shall keep a docket wherein proper entries of all proceedings shall be made. Such record may not be offered in evidence or referred to upon any subsequent trial of the controversy.

ARBITRATION AND CONCILIATION RULES.

RULE VIII.

If the hearing is to be had in a district other than wherein the notice has been issued, the clerk issuing the notice shall forthwith notify in writing the clerk of the district in which the hearing is set, of the names of the parties, and the dates of mailing the notice and of the hearing.

RULE IX.

Parties appearing voluntarily may submit their controversy to a Justice for conciliation without the issue of a notice, but otherwise subject to these rules.

RULE X.

No fees or disbursements of any kind shall be demanded or received.

Form.—The notice of conciliation shall be in substantially the following form, the blanks being properly filled:

Municipal Court of the City of New York, Borough of ..... District.
To .....

..... residing at ..... having presented a claim against you for ..... amounting to ..... Dollars, adjustment of the controversy.

.....
Clerk.

Dated New York, ....., 191..

RULES OF APPELLATE TERM, FIRST DEPARTMENT.

RULES OF THE APPELLATE TERM OF THE SUPREME COURT IN THE FIRST DEPARTMENT.

RULES FOR THE HEARING OF APPEALS FROM THE CITY COURT OF THE CITY OF NEW YORK AND FROM THE MUNICIPAL COURT IN THE BOROUGH OF MANHATTAN AND THE BRONX.

RULE I.

Terms.—There shall be a term of the Supreme Court for the hearing of appeals from the City Court and the Municipal Court of the City of New York, in the Boroughs of Manhattan and The Bronx which shall commence on the first Monday of October, November, December, January, February, March, April, May and June in each year and shall continue from day to day during each of said months until all appeals ready for hearing are heard and disposed of. This term of the court shall hold its sessions in the Court House in the County of New York, and shall be held by three Justices of the Supreme Court, duly designated to hold said term, and shall be known as the Appellate Term.

RULE II.

Appeals.—The clerk of such term of the Supreme Court shall make up a calendar of all appeals to be heard each term and publish the same in the Law Journal at least eight days before the commencement of the term.

All appeals from the City Court in which the return duly printed as required by the General Rules of Practice has been duly filed with the clerk of such term at least ten days before the first day of the term, with ten printed copies thereof and an admission of service or an affidavit showing the service of three printed copies upon the attorney for the respondent, shall be placed upon such calendar.

All appeals from the Municipal Court in which the return made up as required by Rule IV of this court has been filed with the clerk of such term at least ten days before the commencement thereof shall be placed upon such calendar.

Appeals shall be placed upon the calendar in the order in which the same are filed and shall continue thereon until disposed of. An appeal may be brought to a hearing upon notice by either party of not less than eight days, which notice must be filed as provided by Rule V of this court. If, after being regularly placed upon the calendar, neither party brings it to a hearing until after the same has been on the calendar for at least two terms, the court must dismiss the appeal unless it directs the same to be continued for cause shown.

If the appellant does not appear upon the call of the calendar, the judgment or order appealed from shall be affirmed. If the appellant appears and the respondent fails to appear, the appellant may either argue or submit his case, but judgment of reversal by default will not be allowed.

RULES OF COURT OF CLAIMS.

RULE XVI.

Disbursements for appropriation maps.—An allowance will be made in the judgment in appropriation claims for the actual expense incurred by the claimant in securing copies of the official appropriation maps required to be attached to appropriation claims under the rules only when such expense is proven or stipulated in open court and included in the award.

RULE XVII.

Discontinuance.—Where a counterclaim is pleaded the claimant cannot discontinue except as permitted by the written order of the court or a judge thereof.

RULE XVIII.

Dismissal of claim or counterclaim.—An application may be made to the court to dismiss a claim or a counterclaim in whole or in part on the ground (1) that said claim or counterclaim, or a part thereof, does not state facts sufficient to constitute a cause of action, or (2) that the court does not have jurisdiction of said claim or counterclaim, or a part thereof, either with respect to one or more of the parties thereto or with respect to the subject matter thereof. Unless said application is made during the trial of said claim or counterclaim, it will not be entertained by the court except on eight days' written notice to the adverse party stating the grounds therefor, unless the adverse party waives or modifies this requirement.

RULE XIX.

Exhibits.—Each party must, before submitting to the court an exhibit, mark conspicuously on said exhibit the number of the claim and claimant's name.

In all litigated claims each party must within five days after the claim is finally submitted, file in the clerk's office at Albany five copies of a list of all exhibits submitted by him to the court. Such list must sufficiently describe said exhibits so as to permit the identification thereof and must give the official number or symbol attached to each exhibit by the court stenographer. It must recite on its face when and where the claim was tried and before which judge or judges, and shall be signed at the end thereof by the attorney for the party submitting the same. The clerk shall send one copy of said list to each of the judges hearing the claim and shall file the remaining copies in his office.

Each party shall retain and be responsible for his own exhibits, but the clerk of the court may at any time require the exhibits, or any of them, to be filed in the clerk's office at Albany for the use of the court or of either party to the claim. Upon the issuing of a certificate of no appeal by the attorney-general in any claim, or after the expiration of the time for taking an appeal therein, the clerk may return to the party the exhibits sent by said party to the clerk's office.

RULE XX.

Guardian ad litem.—A guardian ad litem may be appointed by the court, or one of the judges thereof, as provided by the rules of practice of the supreme court.

RULE XXI.

Judgments.—The successful party must within five days after receipt from the clerk of a notification of the award of the court submit to the clerk an original and two copies of his proposed judgment. If said party fails to do so, the adverse party may submit such proposed judgment.

Unless otherwise ordered by the court or a judge thereof, the judgment in appropriation claims shall not be entered until the attorney-general files in the clerk's office at Albany his written approval of title to the property appropriated by the state, including his direction as to the claimant or claimants in whose name judgment should be entered. In all other cases judgment shall be entered by the clerk as soon as the proposed judgment is submitted to him pursuant to this rule, or in default thereof as soon as practicable thereafter.

RULE XXII.

Maps.—In appropriation claims, the claimant, before filing the claim in the clerk's office at Albany, must attach to the original and to the twelve copies thereof a duplicate of the official appropriation map or maps filed in the office of the state engineer and covering the property for which the claim is filed.

In other claims affecting real property, and in negligence claims, a rough sketch or drawing showing the location of the premises affected, or the place where the claimant alleges that the accident occurred, must be so attached.

RULE XXIII.

Notice of intention to file a claim.—In addition to the requirements prescribed by section 264 of the code of civil procedure for a notice of intention to file a claim, every notice of intention must state on its face the post office address of each claimant therein and the post office address of the attorney for each claimant.

RULE XXIV.

Number of claim.—The number given to the claim by the clerk when the same is filed in his office must be indicated on

---

RULES OF COURT OF CLAIMS.

the face of all subsequent papers in the same proceedings filed in the clerk's office or submitted to the court by the party filing or submitting the same.

RULE XXV.

Orders.— Whenever either of the parties to a claim shall apply to the court or a judge thereof for an order, it shall be the duty of the party making the application (1) to present to the judge or judges to whom the application is made his proposed order in writing and (2) to send to the clerk's office at Albany three copies of said proposed order. When said order, signed by the judge or judges to whom it is presented, is filed in the clerk's office, the clerk shall send to the respective parties certified copies thereof.

Except when an order is applied for during the trial of a claim, no application shall be made to the court or a judge thereof for any order except on eight days' written notice to the adverse party, stating the grounds therefor, unless the adverse party waives or modifies this requirement.

RULE XXVI.

Reply.— A counterclaim is admitted unless a reply is filed and served as prescribed by these rules. A reply must be verified in the same manner as pleadings in the supreme court.

Unless otherwise permitted by the written order of the court or a judge thereof, the claimant must, within twenty days after the service upon him by the attorney-general of a counterclaim, file in the clerk's office at Albany an original and twelve copies of his reply and must at the same time that he files said reply serve a duplicate original thereof upon the attorney-general.

RULE XXVII.

Size of papers.— Where a claim or other paper in a case is typewritten the size of the paper used shall be substantially eight inches by thirteen inches and when printed substantially eight inches by ten and one-half inches.

RULE XXVIII.

Submission of claim on agreed statement of facts.— Whenever a claim is submitted to the court on an agreed statement of facts; the claimant must within five days thereafter file in the clerk's office at Albany a copy of said statement which must be signed at the end thereof by both parties, together with a memorandum stating when and where the claim was submitted and to which judge or judges. Each party must within the same time file in the clerk's office at Albany a list of all papers submitted by said party to the court, which list must sufficiently describe said papers so as to permit the identification thereof.

APPENDIX TO RULES OF COURT OF CLAIMS.

This claim for the sum of ..... ($.....) for damages resulting from the permanent appropriation on the ..... day of ....., 191... (see note 1<sup>14</sup>), of the premises described below, situated in the ..... for the Barge canal, pursuant to chapter 147 of the Laws of 1903, as amended (see note 2<sup>14</sup>), filed the ..... day of ....., 191..., and numbered ....., came on to be heard before this court at a session thereof held in the city of ..... on the ..... day of ....., 191...

The court having heard the proofs and allegations of the parties and having duly made and filed its findings of fact and conclusions of law, it is (see note 3<sup>14</sup>)

Ordered and adjudged, That ....., the above named claimant, recover herein against the State of New York the sum of ..... ($.....), with interest thereon from the ..... day of ....., 191..., the date of said appropriation, to the ..... day of ....., 191... (see note 4<sup>14</sup>) the date of entry of this judgment, to wit: (see note 4<sup>14</sup>) ..... ($.....), together with the sum of $....., the cost of procuring maps, amounting in all to the sum of (see note 4<sup>14</sup>) ..... ($.....) for the permanent appropriation of the following described premises and in full settlement of said claim:

Contract No. ...., Parcel No. ....

(Insert here the exact description of the premises appropriated as given in the official appropriation map served on the claimant) .....

Notes on the Drafting of Judgments in Appropriation Claims.

NOTE 1. Insert here the date when the notice of appropriation was served upon claimant.

NOTE 2. If the land was appropriated for the Cayuga and Seneca canal, the statutory reference should be to Laws 1909, ch. 391, as amended; and if for barge canal terminals, to Laws 1911, ch. 746, as amended.

---

<sup>14</sup> See the notes on the drafting of judgments in appropriation claims which follow this form.

APPENDIX TO RULES OF COURT OF CLAIMS.

If the land was appropriated for other than barge canal purposes, this part of the judgment should of course be changed to conform to the facts. For instance, provision is made for the appropriation of land for the state reservation at Sagatoga Springs by Laws 1916, ch. 295, §§ 600-604 (see Laws 1909, ch. 569; Laws 1911, ch. 394; Laws 1914, ch. 252), and for the appropriation of land within the Adirondack or Catskill parks or adjacent thereto by Laws 1916, ch. 451 (see Laws 1909, ch. 24, §§ 46-49; Laws 1912, ch. 444).

NOTE 3. Where no proof is offered by the state in opposition to the claim, this paragraph of the judgment should read as follows:

The court having heard the proofs and allegations of the claimant and having determined the legal liability of the state, and the claimant having offered to accept the sum of..... ($.....) with interest thereon from the ..... day of ....., 191...., together with the sum of $....., the cost of procuring maps, in full settlement of said claim, and no proof having been offered by the state in opposition thereto, it is

NOTE 4. In submitting judgments to the clerk's office pursuant to Rule 21, this space should be left blank. The clerk, "unless otherwise ordered by the court or a judge thereof," is not authorized to enter judgment in permanent appropriation claims until the attorney-general has filed in the clerk's office his written approval of title, etc., to the land appropriated. (See Rule 21.) The clerk's office will fill in the date of the entry of the judgment, will compute the interest down to the date of the entry of the judgment, or as otherwise directed by the court, and will insert in the judgment the amount of interest and the total amount of the judgment. See section 269 of the code of civil procedure relative to the allowance by the state comptroller of interest on judgments.

GENERAL NOTE. The suggested form of judgment is obviously intended to cover only the ordinary situation. When any orders have been granted after the filing of the claim (particularly any orders granted at the trial itself) which have any relation to the award or to the judgment, the party obtaining these orders must not only see that they are entered in the clerk's office at Albany (see Rule 25) but he must also insert descriptive recitals of these orders in the proposed judgment which he is required to submit to the clerk pursuant to Rule 21. The most frequent orders of this character are those amending the claim or award (either as to parties or subject matter) or consolidating claims for the purposes of the trial.

Parties are requested to submit their proposed judgments to the clerk's office without backers and they are also requested not to fasten the sheets together with any permanent fasteners.

FORM F.

Judgment in Claims other than Appropriation Claims. STATE OF NEW YORK — COURT OF CLAIMS.

JOHN DOE against THE STATE OF NEW YORK.	}	Claim No. ....
---	---	----------------

....., attorney for claimant.
....., Deputy Attorney-General, for the State of New York.

This claim for the sum of ..... ($.....) for the (see note 1<sup>15</sup>) ....., filed on the ..... day of ....., 191..., and numbered ....., came on to be heard before this court at a session thereof held in the city of ..... on the ..... day of ....., 191...

The court having heard the proofs and allegations of the parties and having duly made and filed its findings of fact and conclusions of law, it is (see note 2<sup>15</sup>)

Ordered and adjudged, That ....., the above named claimant, recover herein against the State of New York the sum of ..... ($.....) in full settlement of said claim.

.....,
Clerk of the Court of Claims.

Notes on the Drafting of Judgments in Claims other than Appropriation Claims.

NOTE 1. Insert here a brief recital showing the nature of the claim and giving the location of the premises affected or the place where the claim accrued.

In all canal claims the judgment must show on its face whether the damage was suffered in connection with the old Erie canal or in connection with the barge canal improvement work. This provision is necessary in order to enable the state comptroller to determine from what canal fund the judgment should be paid.

NOTE 2. Where no proof is offered by the state in opposition to the claim, this paragraph of the judgment should read as follows:

The court having heard the proofs and allegations of the claimant and having determined the legal liability of the state, and the claimant having offered to accept the sum of ..... ($.....) in full settlement of said claim, and no proof having been offered by the state in opposition thereto, it is

<sup>15</sup> See the notes on the drafting of judgments in other than appropriation claims which follow this form.

APPENDIX TO RULES OF COURT OF CLAIMS.

GENERAL NOTE. See the general note on page 229 giving additional directions which are applicable to judgments in claims other than appropriation claims as well as to judgments in appropriation claims.

If the award gives interest, leave blank spaces in the judgment for the filling in of the interest dates and the amount of interest. The clerk's office will fill in these dates and will compute the interest.

II. Procedure to secure payment of judgments.

(See section 269 of the code of civil procedure.)

A. In claims other than appropriation claims.

The claimant must file in the state comptroller's office at Albany the following papers:

1. The certified copy of the judgment which is served upon him by the clerk of the court of claims pursuant to section 269 of the code of civil procedure.

2. The certificate of no appeal which the claimant must secure from the attorney-general. Obviously, if the state intends to appeal, this certificate will not be issued.

Upon the receipt by the state comptroller of the above papers, or upon application to him, he will send to the claimant blank forms of the following papers which also have to be executed and filed in the state comptroller's office:

3. Waiver of attorney's lien which must be executed by the attorney of record for the claimant.

4. Satisfaction of judgment which must be executed by the claimant.

5. Receipt for payment of the judgment which must be executed by the claimant.

B. In permanent appropriation claims.

In addition to the above papers which claimant must file in the state comptroller's office at Albany, judgments in permanent appropriation claims will not be paid until the attorney-general has filed with the state comptroller "a satisfactory abstract of title and certificate of search as to incumbrances showing the person demanding such damages to be legally entitled thereto." (See section 269 of the code of civil procedure.) It must also be remembered that "unless otherwise ordered by the court or a judge thereof" (see Rule 21), the clerk of the court of claims is not authorized to enter judgment in permanent appropriation claims until the attorney-general has filed in the clerk's office at Albany "his written approval of title to the property appropriated by the state, including his direction as to the claimant or claimants in whose name judgment should be entered." (See Rule 21.)

THE Code of Civil Procedure

of the
STATE OF NEW YORK.

---

AN ACT

Relating to Courts, Officers of Justice, and Civil Proceedings.

PASSED June 2, 1876; three-fifths being present.

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows.

CHAPTER I.

General Provisions relating to Courts, and the Members and Officers thereof.

TITLE I.—The Courts of the State; their General Powers and Attributes and General Regulations pertaining to the Exercise thereof.

TITLE II.—Provisions of General Application, relating to the Judges, and certain other Officers of the Courts.

TITLE I.

The courts of the State; their general powers and attributes,
and general regulations pertaining to the exercise thereof.

- Article 1. Enumeration and classification.
2. General powers and attributes of the courts.
3. Miscellaneous provisions relating to the sittings of the courts.

ARTICLE FIRST.

Enumeration and classification.

- Sec. 1. Courts.
2. Courts of record enumerated.
3. Courts not of record.
4. General provisions as to jurisdiction, etc.

§ 1. [Am'd, 1909.] Courts.

The courts referred to in this act, are enumerated in sections two and three of the judiciary law.

Amended by L. 1909, ch. 65, § 3. See note 26 of notes of Board of Statutory Consolidation at end of Code.

§§ 2-3. [Repealed by L. 1909, ch. 35. See Consolidated Laws, tit. Judiciary Law, §§ 2-3.]

§ 4. [Am'd, 1877.] General provision as to jurisdiction, etc.

Each of those courts shall continue to exercise the jurisdiction and powers now vested in it by law, according to the course and practice of the court, except as otherwise prescribed in this act.

Co. Ploc. § 10, and part of § 469.

ARTICLE SECOND.General powers and attributes of the courts.*

- Sec. 5. The sitting of courts to be public.
 6. Courts not to sit on Sunday, except in special cases
 7. General powers of courts of record.
 8. Criminal contempts defined.
 9. Punishment for criminal contempts.
 10. Such contempts in view of court; how punished, etc.
 11. Requisites of commitment.
 12. Preceding sections limited
 13. Indictment, if offence is indictable.
 14. Contempts; punishable civilly.
 15. No punishment for non-payment of interlocutory costs.
 16. Id.; money due upon a contract.
 17. Rules of courts of record, how made and revised.
 18. Rules to be published.
 19. Courts to order calendar printed.
 20. Expense to be a county charge.
 21. Certain papers may be destroyed.
 22. Writs, etc., in name of the people, and in English; abbreviations.
 23. Id.; teste and return.
 24. Id.; to be subscribed or indorsed; when error, etc., not to vitiate.
 25. No discontinuance by reason of vacancy, etc.
 26. In New-York and Brooklyn, continuance of proceedings commenced before judges.
 27. Provisions respecting the seals of courts.
 28. Seals of counties.
 29. [Repealed.]
 30. New seals.

§§ 5-6. [Repealed by L. 1909, ch. 35. See Consolidated Laws, tit. Judiciary Law, §§ 4-5.]

§ 7. General powers of courts of record.

A court of record has power:

1. To issue a subpoena, requiring the attendance of a person found in the State, to testify in a cause pending in that court; subject, however, to the limitations prescribed by law, with respect to the portion of the State in which the process of a local court of record may be served.

2. To administer an oath to a witness, in the exercise of the powers and duties of the court.

3. To devise and make new process and forms of proceedings, necessary to carry into effect the powers and jurisdiction possessed by it.

2 R. S. 276, § 1 (3 R. S., 5th ed., 468; 2 Edm. 287).

§§ 8-12. [Repealed by L. 1909, ch. 35. See Consolidated Laws, tit. Judiciary Law, §§ 750-752, 754.]

§ 13. [Repealed by L. 1909, ch. 88. See Penal Law, § 602.]

§§ 15-16. [Repealed by L. 1909, ch. 14. See Consolidated Laws, tit. Civil Rights Law, §§ 20-21.]

§§ 17-19. [Repealed by L. 1909, ch. 35. See Consolidated Laws, tit. Judiciary Law, §§ 52, 90, 93-95, 154, 193, 328 and 329.]

§ 20. [Repealed by L. 1909, chs. 16 and 58. See Consolidated Laws, tits. County Law, § 240, State Finance Law, § 46.]

§ 21. [Repealed by L. 1909, ch. 35. See Consolidated Laws, tit. Judiciary Law, § 87.]

§ 22. Writs, etc., in name of the people, and in English; abbreviations.

Except where it is otherwise specially prescribed by law, a writ or other process must be in the name of the people of the State, and each writ, process, record, pleading or other proceeding in a court, or before an officer, must be in the English language, and, unless it is oral, made out on paper or parchment, in a fair legible character, in words at length, and not abbreviated. But the proper and known names of process, and technical words, may be expressed in appropriate language, as now is, and heretofore has been customary; such abbreviations as are now commonly employed in the English language may be used; and numbers may be expressed by Arabic figures, or Roman numerals, in the customary manner.

2 R. S. 275, §§ 8 and 9 (3 R. S., 5th ed., 467; 2 Edm. 285), consolidated.

§ 23. Id.; teste and return.

A writ or other process issued out of a court of record, must be tested, except where it is otherwise specially prescribed by law, in the name of a judge of the court, on any day; must be returnable within the time prescribed by law; or, if no time is prescribed by law, within the time fixed by the court, and therein specified for that purpose; and when returnable, must, together with the return thereto, be filed with the clerk, unless otherwise specially prescribed by law.

2 R. S. 279, § 9; L. 1847, ch. 280, § 57; L. 1847, ch. 470, § 43.

§ 24. Id.; to be subscribed or indorsed; when error, etc., not to vitiate.

A writ or other process, issued out of a court of record, must, before the delivery thereof to an officer to be executed, be subscribed or indorsed with the name of the officer by whom, or by whose direction it was granted, or the attorney for the party, or the person at whose instance it was issued. A writ or other process thus subscribed or indorsed, is not void or voidable, by reason of having no seal or a wrong seal thereon, or of any mistake or omission in the teste thereof, or in the name of the clerk, unless it was issued by special order of the court.

Id.

§ 25. [Am'd, 1877.] No discontinuance by reason of vacancy, etc.

An action or special proceeding, civil or criminal, in a court of record, is not discontinued by a vacancy or change in the judges of the court, or by the re-election or re-appointment of a judge; but it must be continued, heard and determined, by the court, as constituted at the time of the hearing or determination. After a judge is out of office, he may settle a case or exceptions, or make any return of proceedings, had before him while he was in office, and may be compelled so to do, by the court in which the action or special proceeding is pending.

2 R. S. 277, § 2.

§ 26. [Am'd, 1910.] When one judge may continue proceedings commenced before another.

In the counties within the first and second judicial districts, a special proceeding instituted before a judge of a court of record, or a proceeding commenced before a judge of the court, out of court, in an action or special proceeding pending in a court of record may be continued from time to time, before one or more other judges of the same court, with like effect, as if it had been instituted or commenced before the judge, who last hears the same. (See § 771, post.)

Am'd, L. 1910, ch. 562. In effect Sept. 1, 1910.

§ 27. [Repealed by L. 1909, chs. 35 and 65. See Consolidated Laws, tits. Judiciary Law, §§ 28, 158 and 194, County Law, § 245; and also Code Civ. Pro., § 2507.]

§ 28. [Repealed by L. 1909, ch. 16. See Consolidated Laws, tit. County Law, § 245.]

§ 29. [Repealed by L. 1892, ch. 677.]

§ 30. [Repealed by L. 1909, ch. 35. See Consolidated Laws, tits. Judiciary Law, § 29, County Law, § 245.]

 41. Adjournment of term to another place when parties so stipulate.
 42. Place for holding courts in city of New-York, how changed.
 43. When court-house is unfit to hold court, another place to be appointed.
 44. No action or special proceeding abated, etc., by failure or adjournment of court.
 45. Trial once commenced may be continued beyond term.

§ 31. [Repealed by L. 1909, ch. 16. See Consolidated Laws, tit. County Law, § 42. See also New York charter, § 62.]

§§ 32-33. [Repealed by L. 1909, ch. 88. See Penal Law, § 1790.]

§ 34. [Am'd, 1893, 1909.] Trial of causes at adjourned term.

Causes may be noticed for trial for any term of a court of record adjourned as provided in section seven of the judiciary law, as if it was held by original appointment.

Amended by L. 1893, ch. 946, and L. 1909, ch. 65. Former section repealed by L. 1909, ch. 35. See Consolidated Laws, tit. Judiciary Law, §§ 7, 534, 540. See note 27 of notes of Board of Statutory Consolidation at end of code.

§ 37. Causes tried elsewhere than at court-house.

The parties to an action or special proceeding, pending in a court of record, may, with the consent of the judge who is to try or hear it, without a jury, stipulate in writing, that it shall be tried or heard and determined, elsewhere than at the court-house. The stipulation must specify the place of trial or hearing, and must be filed in the office of the clerk; and the trial or hearing must be brought on upon the usual notice, unless otherwise provided in the stipulation.

L. 1847, ch. 470, § 41. See § 239.

§ 38. Governor may change place for holding courts of record.

of appeals, or that the next ensuing term of any other court of record, appointed to be held elsewhere than in the city of New-York, should be held at a place, other than that where it is appointed to be held, he may, by proclamation, appoint a different place within its district for the holding thereof; and at any time thereafter he may revoke the appointment, and appoint another place, or leave the term to be held at the place where it would have been held, but for his appointment.

2 R. S. 290, § 87. This section has not been expressly repealed but has been embodied in the Judiciary Law. See Consolidated Laws, tit. Judiciary Law, § 8.

§ 39. Such appointments, etc., to be recorded and published.

Such an appointment or revocation must be under the hand of the governor, and filed in the office of the secretary of State; it must be published in such newspapers and for such time, as the governor directs.

Id., § 88. Partly repealed by L. 1909, ch. 58. See Consolidated Laws, tit. State Finance Law, § 46. Balance of section not expressly repealed but is embodied in Judiciary Law, § 8.

§ 40. [Repealed by L. 1909, ch. 35. See Consolidated Laws, tit. Judiciary Law, § 9.]

§ 41. [Am'd, 1891, 1909.] Adjournment of term to another place when parties so stipulate.

A court of record may in its discretion, where the parties to an action file a stipulation that the same be tried at a place within the county where said action is triable, other than the court-house, adjourn the term to such place for the trial of said action. Notice of such an adjournment must be given, as the court directs by the order.

L. 1883, ch. 159, first clause of § 3 (4 Edm. 532); and L. 1866, ch. 174, § 2 (6 Edm. 705); consolidated and am'd; L. 1891, ch. 159. Amended by L. 1909, ch. 65. Also partly repealed by L. 1909, ch. 35. See Consolidated Laws, tit. Judiciary Law, § 10. See note 28 of notes of Board of Statutory Consolidation at end of code.

§ 44. No action or special proceeding abated, etc., by failure or adjournment of court.

When a term of * court fails or is adjourned, or the time or place of holding the same is changed, as prescribed in this chapter, an action, special proceeding, writ, process, recognizance, or other proceeding, civil or criminal, returnable, or to be heard or tried, at that term, is not abated, discontinued, or rendered void thereby; but all persons are bound to appear, and all proceedings must be had, at the time and place to which the term is adjourned or changed, or, if it fails, at the next term, with like effect as if the term was held, as originally appointed.

2 R. S. 204, § 22; 2 R. S. 277, §§ 3, 5 and 6; 2 R. S. 291, § 91; L. 1823, ch. 159, § 3 (4 Edm. 532); L. 1847, ch. 280, § 28 (4 Edm. 564); L. 1866, ch. 174, § 3 (6 Edm. 706).

* The word "a" omitted by error in engrossing.

§ 45. Trial once commenced may be continued beyond term.

Where the trial or hearing of an issue of fact, joined in an action or special proceeding, civil or criminal, has been commenced at a term of a court of record, it may notwithstanding the expiration of the time appointed for the term to continue, be continued to the completion thereof; including, if the cause is tried by a jury, all proceedings taken therein until the actual discharge of the jury; or, if it is tried by the court without a jury, until it is finally submitted for a decision upon the merits.

L. 1875, ch. 3, § 1, am'd. This section supersedes L. 1846, ch. 2; and L. 1859, ch. 208, § 1 (5 Edm. 248).

§ 131. Service of papers on prisoner.

A sheriff or jailor, upon whom a paper in an action or special proceeding, directed to a prisoner in his custody, is lawfully served, or to whom such a paper is delivered for a prisoner, must, within two days thereafter, deliver the same to the prisoner, with a note thereon of the time of the service thereof upon, or the receipt thereof by him. For a neglect or violation of this section, the sheriff or jailor, guilty thereof, is liable to the prisoner for all damage occasioned thereby.

Id., § 32, am'd. See post, § 709.

§ 132. Sheriff to permit access for that purpose.

Subject to reasonable regulations, which the sheriff may establish for that purpose, a sheriff, jailor, or other officer, who has the custody of a prisoner, must permit such access to him as is necessary, for the personal service of a paper in an action or special proceeding, to which the prisoner is a party, and which must be personally served.

§ 133. Prisoners under United States process.

A sheriff must receive into his jail and keep a prisoner, committed to the same, by virtue of civil process issued by a court of record, instituted under the authority of the United States, until he is discharged by the due course of the laws of the United States, in the same manner as if he was committed by virtue of a mandate in a civil action, issued from a court of the State. The sheriff may receive, to his own use, the money payable by the United States for the use of the jail.

2 R. S. 443, § 96 (3 R. S., 3th ed., 743; 2 Edm. 462).

§ 134. Sheriff answerable for their custody.

A sheriff or jailor, to whose jail a prisoner is committed, as prescribed in the last section, is answerable for his safe keeping, in the courts of the United States, according to the laws thereof.

Id., § 97.

§ 51. [This section not expressly repealed by the judiciary law but has been embodied in section 19 thereof.]

§ 52. [Am'd, 1899.] Substitution of one officer for another in special proceeding.

In case of the death, sickness, resignation, removal from office, absence from the county, or other disability of an officer before whom or in whose court a special proceeding has been instituted, where no express provision is made by law for the continuance thereof, it may be continued before the officer's successor, or any other officer residing in the same county, before whom it might have been originally instituted; or, if there is no such officer in the same county or in case such officer be disqualified, then before an officer in an adjoining county, who would originally have had jurisdiction of the subject matter, if it had occurred or existed in the latter county; and in case such special proceeding be pending in a county court and the county judge of the county be disqualified to hear and decide the same, then in such case all further proceedings therein may be had in the county court of any adjoining county, which court shall have jurisdiction to hear, try and determine the same and to enforce its order.

§ 53. Proceedings before substituted officer.

At the time and place specified in a notice or order, for a party to appear, or for any other proceeding to be taken, or at the time and place specified in the notice to be given, as prescribed in this section, the officer substituted as prescribed in the last section, or in any other provision of law, to continue a special proceeding instituted before another, may act, with respect to the special proceeding, as if it had been originally instituted before him. But a proceeding shall not be taken before a substituted officer, at a time or place, other than that specified in the original notice or order, until notice of the substitution, and of the time and place appointed for the proceeding to be taken, has been given, either by personal service or by publication, in such manner and for such time as the substituted officer directs, to each party who may be effected* thereby, and who has not appeared before either officer. Where, after a hearing has been commenced, it is adjourned to the next judicial day, each day to which it is so adjourned, is regarded, for the purposes of this section, as the day specified in the original notice or order, or in the notice to appear before the substituted officer, as the case requires.

2 R. S. 284, §§ 52 and 53, consolidated and am'd.

§ 54. [Repealed by L. 1909, chs. 23 and 35. See Consolidated Laws, tits. Executive Law, § 29, Judiciary Law, § 23.]

§ 55. Party may appear in person or by attorney.

A party to a civil action, who is of full age, may prosecute or defend the same in person or by attorney, at his election, unless he has been judicially declared to be incompetent to manage his affairs. Each provision of this act, relating to the conduct of an action, wherein the attorney for the party is mentioned, includes

---

§§ 58-59 [Repealed by L. 1909, ch. 35. See Consolidated Laws, tit., Judiciary Law, §§ 53, 264, 466.]

§ 60. [Am'd, 1909.] Service of paper upon attorney residing in adjoining state.

Service of a paper, which might be made upon him at his residence, if he was a resident of the State, may be made upon a person regularly admitted to practice as an attorney and counselor, in the courts of record of this State, whose office for the transaction of law business is within the State, but who resides in an adjoining State, by depositing the paper in a post-office in the city or town where his office is located, properly inclosed in a postpaid wrapper, directed to him at his office. A service thus made is equivalent to personal service upon him.

§ 65. [Am'd, 1913.] Death or disability of an attorney; proceedings thereupon.

If an attorney dies, is removed or suspended, or otherwise becomes disabled to act, at any time before judgment in an action, no further proceeding shall be taken in the action against the party for whom he appeared, until thirty days after notice to appoint another attorney has been given to that party, either personally, or in such manner as the court directs. If after such notice, given as herein provided, no attorney appears for the party notified within the time specified in this section, the party serving the notice may proceed with the cause, and take a dismissal of the complaint, or a verdict, decision or judgment, as the case requires, and it is not necessary to give any further notice.

CHAPTER II.

Powers, Duties, and Liabilities of a Sheriff, or other Ministerial Officer, in the Execution of the Process or Other Mandate of a Court or Judge, in a Civil Case.

TITLE I.—Provisions relating to the Execution of Civil Mandates generally.

TITLE II.—Provisions relating to the Execution, by a Sheriff, of a Mandate against the Person.

TITLE III.—Application of the foregoing Provisions to the Proceedings of a Coroner.

TITLE IV.—Powers, Duties and Liabilities of an Incoming and Outgoing Sheriff respectively, Touching the Matters included in this Chapter.

TITLE I.

Provisions relating to the execution of civil mandates generally.

Sec. 100. Sheriff to furnish certain minute.

101. Copy of process, etc., to be delivered when served.

102. Sheriff to execute process, etc.; may return by mail.

103. Liability for neglect in special proceedings.

104. Sheriff may command the power of the county, to overcome resistance.

105. Names of resisters to be certified.

106. Punishment for refusing to assist.

107. Governor may order out military.

108. Trial of claim of title by third person, to property seized by sheriff.

109. Expenses, how paid.

§ 100. Sheriff to furnish certain minute.

A sheriff, to whom a mandate of any description, is delivered to be executed, must, without compensation, give to the person delivering the same, if required, a minute in writing, signed by the sheriff, specifying the names of the parties, the general nature of the mandate, and the day and hour of receiving the same.

2 R. S. 440, § 75 (3 R. S., 5th ed., 738; 2 Edm. 458), am'd.

§ 101. [Am'd, 1877.] Copy of process, etc., to be delivered when served.

A sheriff or other officer, serving a mandate, must, upon the request of the person served, deliver to him a copy thereof, without compensation.

Id., § 76.

§ 102. [Am'd, 1877.] Sheriff to execute process, etc.; may return by mail.

A sheriff, or other officer, to whom a mandate is directed and delivered, must execute the same according to the command thereof, and make return thereon of his proceedings, under his hand. For a violation of this provision, he is liable to the party aggrieved, for the damages sustained by him: in addition to any fine, or other punishment or proceeding, authorized by law. A mandate directed and delivered to a sheriff may be returned, by depositing the same in the post-office, properly inclosed in a post-paid wrapper, addressed to the clerk, at the place where his office is situated; unless the officer, making the return in the name of the sheriff, resides in the place where the clerk's office is situated.

2 R. S. 440, § 77; L. 1850, ch. 225, § 3 (4 Edm. 699).

§ 103. [Am'd, 1877.] Liability for neglect in special proceedings.

A sheriff, or other officer, to whom is delivered for service or execution, a mandate, authorized by law to be issued, by a judge or other officer, in a special proceeding, who wilfully neglects to execute the same, may be fined by the judge, in a sum not exceeding twenty-five dollars, and is liable to the party aggrieved for his damages sustained thereby.

2 R. S. 551, § 3 (2 Edm. 571).

§§ 104-105. [Repealed by L. 1909, ch. 35. See Consolidated Laws, tit. Judiciary Law, §§ 400-401.]

§ 106. [Repealed by L. 1909, ch. 88. See Penal Law, § 1848.]

§ 108. [Am'd, 1895.] Trial of claim of title by third person, to property seized by sheriff.

Where it is specially prescribed by law, that a sheriff must, or may, in his discretion, impanel a jury to try the validity of a claim of title to or of the right of possession of goods or effects seized by him by virtue of a mandate in an action, interposed by a person not a party to the action, the trial must be conducted in the following manner, except as otherwise specially prescribed by law.

1. The sheriff must from time to time notify as many persons to attend as it is necessary in order to form a jury of twelve persons qualified to serve as trial jurors in the county court of the county, or in the city and county of New York, in the supreme court, to try the validity of the claim.

2. Upon the trial, witnesses may be examined in behalf of the claimant and of the party at whose instance the property claimed was taken by the sheriff. For the purpose of compelling a witness to attend and testify, the sheriff, upon the application of either party to the inquisition, must issue a subpoena, as prescribed in section 854 of this act, and with like effect; except that a warrant to apprehend or commit a witness, in a case specified in section 855 or section 856 of this act may be issued by a judge of the court in which the action is brought, or by the county judge.

3. The sheriff or under sheriff must preside upon the trial. A witness, produced by either party, must be sworn by the presiding officer, and examined orally in the presence of the jury. A witness who testifies falsely upon such an examination is guilty of perjury in a like case and is punishable in like manner as upon the trial of a civil action.

L. 1895, ch. 946.

§ 109. [Am'd, 1895.] Expenses, how paid.

Upon such a trial there are no costs; but the fees of the sheriff; jurors and witnesses must be taxed, by a judge of the court or the county judge of the county, and must be paid as follows:

1. If the jury by their verdict find the title or the right of possession to the property claimed to be in the claimant, by the party at whose instance the property was taken by the sheriff.

2. If they find adversely to the claimant with respect to all the property claimed, by the claimant.

3. If they find the title or right of possession to only a part of the property claimed, to be in the claimant; each party must pay his own witnesses' fees, and the sheriff's and jurors' fees must be paid, one-half by each party to the inquisition.

Before notifying the jurors, the sheriff may, in his discretion, require each of the parties to the controversy to deposit with him such reasonable sum, as may be necessary to cover his legal fees, and the jurors' fees. The sheriff must return to each party the balance of the sum so deposited by him, after deducting his fees, lawfully chargeable to that party, as prescribed in this section.

L. 1895, ch. 946. See 2 R. S. 4. § 12; §§ 657-8, 1418-9.

TITLE II.

Provisions relating to the execution, by a sheriff, of a mandate against the person.

- Article 1. Arresting, conveying to jail, and committing a prisoner.
 2. Jails; jail discipline; and regulations concerning the confinement and care of prisoners.
 3. Temporary jails, and temporary removal of prisoners from jail.
 4. Jail liberties; escapes.
 5. Action upon and assignment of a bond for jail liberties.

ARTICLE FIRST.

Arresting, conveying to jail, and committing a prisoner.

- Sec. 110. Prisoner, how kept; support of.
 111. Imprisonment on execution.
 112. Id.; in other counties.
 113. Charges for food, etc., when prohibited.
 114. Also for waiting for prisoner.
 115. Rates of charges for lodging, etc.
 116. Prisoner may send for necessaries.
 117. Charges for rent, etc., prohibited.
 118. Prisoner, how conveyed to jail through another county.
 119. Officer or prisoner not liable to arrest.

§ 110. [Am'd, 1909.] Prisoner, how kept; support of.

A person arrested, by virtue of an order of arrest, in an action or special proceeding brought in a court of record; or of an execution issued upon a judgment rendered in a court of record; or surrendered in exoneration of his bail; must be safely kept in custody, in the manner prescribed by law, and, except as otherwise prescribed in the next section and in subdivision nineteen of section two hundred and forty of the county law, at his own expense, until he satisfies the judgment rendered against him, or is discharged according to law.

2 R. S. 376, §§ 76 and 77 (3 R. S., 5th ed., 659; 2 Edm. 391), consolidated and extended. Amended by L. 1909, ch. 65, § 3. See note 30 of notes of Board of Statutory Consolidation at end of code.

§ 111. [Am'd, 1886.] Imprisonment on execution.

No person shall be imprisoned within the prison walls of any jail for a longer period than three months under an execution or any other mandate against the person to enforce the recovery of a sum of money less than five hundred dollars in amount or under a commitment upon a fine for contempt of court in the non-payment of alimony or counsel fees in a divorce case where the amount so to be paid is less than the sum of five hundred dollars; and where the amount in either of said cases is five hundred dollars or over, such imprisonment shall not continue for a longer period than six months. It shall be the duty of the sheriff in whose custody any such person is held to discharge such person at the expiration of said respective periods without any formal application being made therefor. No person shall be imprisoned within the jail liberties of any jail for a longer period than six months upon any execution or other mandate against the person, and no action shall be commenced against the sheriff upon a bond given for the jail liberties by such person to secure the benefit of such liberties, as provided in articles fourth and fifth of this title for an escape made after the expiration of six months' imprisonment as aforesaid. Notwithstanding such a discharge in either of the above cases, the judgment creditor in the execution, or the person at whose instance the said mandate was issued, has the same remedy against the property of the person imprisoned which he had before such execution or mandate was issued; but the prisoner shall not be again imprisoned upon a like process issued in the same action or arrested in any action upon any judgment under which the same may have been granted. Except in a case hereinbefore specified nothing in this section shall effect a commitment for contempt of court.

§ 118. Prisoner, how conveyed to jail through another county.

A sheriff or other officer, who has lawfully arrested a prisoner, may convey his prisoner through one or more other counties, in the ordinary route of travel, from the place where the prisoner was arrested, to the place where he is to be delivered or confined.

2 R. S. 426, § 6.

§ 119. [Repealed by L. 1909, ch. 14. See Consolidated Laws, tit. Civil Rights Law, § 22.]

ARTICLE SECOND.Jails; jail discipline; and regulations concerning the confinement and care of prisoners.

- Sec. 120. Jail in New York city.
 121. Jails in other counties.
 122. Either of several jails may be used.
 123. Civil and criminal prisoners to be kept separate.
 124. Males and females to be kept separate.
 125. Penalties.
 126. Jail physician.
 127. Issue of new execution when sick prisoner escapes.
 128. Sale of liquor in jails.
 129. Permit, when granted.
 130. Penalties for violation.
 131. Service of papers on prisoner.
 132. Sheriff to permit access for that purpose.
 133. Prisoners under United States process.
 134. Sheriff answerable for their custody.

§ 126. [Except part relating to county of New York repealed by L. 1909, ch. 47. See Consolidated Laws, tit. Prison Law, § 348. For remainder of section see Greater New York Charter.]

§ 127. [Am'd, 1895, 1909.] Issue of new execution when sick prisoner escapes.

If a prisoner actually escapes, while going to, remaining at, or returning from a hospital to which he has been ordered removed pursuant to section three hundred and fifty-five of the prison law, a new execution may be issued against his person, if he was in custody by virtue of an execution; or, if he was in custody by virtue of an order of arrest, a new order of arrest may be granted, upon proof by affidavit of the facts specified in this section, without other proof and without an undertaking.

§ 131. Service of papers on prisoner.

A sheriff or jailor, upon whom a paper in an action or special proceeding, directed to a prisoner in his custody, is lawfully served, or to whom such a paper is delivered for a prisoner, must, within two days thereafter, deliver the same to the prisoner, with a note thereon of the time of the service thereof upon, or the receipt thereof by him. For a neglect or violation of this section, the sheriff or jailor, guilty thereof, is liable to the prisoner for all damage occasioned thereby.

Id., § 32, am'd. See post, § 799.

§ 132. Sheriff to permit access for that purpose.

Subject to reasonable regulations, which the sheriff may establish for that purpose, a sheriff, jailor, or other officer, who has the custody of a prisoner, must permit such access to him as is necessary, for the personal service of a paper in an action or special proceeding, to which the prisoner is a party, and which must be personally served.

§ 133. Prisoners under United States process.

A sheriff must receive into his jail and keep a prisoner, committed to the same, by virtue of civil process issued by a court of record, instituted under the authority of the United States, until he is discharged by the due course of the laws of the United States, in the same manner as if he was committed by virtue of a mandate in a civil action, issued from a court of the State. The sheriff may receive, to his own use, the money payable by the United States for the use of the jail.

2 R. S. 443, § 96 (3 R. S., 3th ed., 743; 2 Edm. 462).

§ 134. Sheriff answerable for their custody.

A sheriff or jailor, to whose jail a prisoner is committed, as prescribed in the last section, is answerable for his safe keeping, in the courts of the United States, according to the laws thereof.

Id., § 97.

ARTICLE THIRD.

Temporary jails, and temporary removal of prisoners from jail.

- Sec. 135. When jail becomes unfit, etc., another to be designated.
 136. Designation, how annulled.
 137. Copy of designation to be served on the sheriff, etc.
 138. Prisoners already upon jail liberties when other jail designated.
 139. Jail liberties to prisoner, who becomes entitled thereto, before removal.
 140. Id.; to prisoners removed.
 141. When designation to be revoked, etc.
 142. Copy of revocation to be served on sheriff; sheriff's duty thereon.

§§ 135-137. [Repealed by L. 1909, ch. 47. See Consolidated Laws, tit. Prison Law, §§ 351-353.]

§ 138. [Am'd, 1909.] Prisoners already upon jail liberties when other jail designated.

If a prisoner has been admitted to the liberties of the jail of the county, for which a designation is made pursuant to section three hundred and fifty-one of the prison law, he must, notwithstanding, remain within those liberties, but he may be removed by the sheriff, to whom he has given bond for the liberties, to the jail or other place so designated, and confined therein, in a case where the sheriff might confine him in the jail of his own county.

2 R. S. 428, 430, § 18. Amended by L. 1909, ch. 65, § 3. See note 32 of notes of Board of Statutory Consolidation at end of code.

§ 139. Jail liberties to prisoner, who becomes entitled thereto, before removal.

If a person, who is arrested, before or after the designation, by the sheriff of the county for which the designation is made, becomes entitled, after the designation, and before his removal, to the liberties of the jail, he must be admitted to the liberties of the jail of that county, as if the designation had not been made; but he may be removed by the sheriff to the jail, or other place, so designated, and confined therein, in a case where the sheriff might confine him in the jail of his own county.

Id., § 19, am'd.

§ 140. [Am'd, 1909.] Id.; to prisoners removed.

If a person confined in or removed to the jail of a contiguous county, designated as prescribed in article thirteen of the Prison Law, becomes entitled to the liberties of the jail, the sheriff of that county must admit him to the jail liberties, as if he had been originally arrested by that sheriff, on a mandate directed to him.

Id., § 20. Amended by L. 1909, ch. 65, § 3, and ch. 240, § 84. See note 32 of notes of Board of Statutory Consolidation at end of code.

§ 141. [Am'd, 1909.] When designation to be revoked.

When a jail is erected for the county, for whose use the designation pursuant to section three hundred and fifty-one of the prison law was made, or its jail is rendered fit and safe for the confinement of prisoners, or the reason for the designation of another jail or place has otherwise ceased to be operative, the designation must be revoked, as prescribed in this article and section three hundred and fifty-two of the prison law.

Id., § 21. Amended by L. 1909, ch. 65, § 3, and ch. 240, § 84. See note 32 of notes of Board of Statutory Consolidation at end of code.

§ 142. Copy of revocation to be served on sheriff; sheriff's duty thereon.

The county clerk must immediately serve a copy of the revocation, duly certified by him under his official seal, upon the sheriff of the same county; who must remove the prisoners belonging to his custody, and confined without his county, to his proper jail. If a prisoner has been admitted to the jail liberties in the other county, he must also be removed; and he is entitled to the liberties of the jail of the county, to which he is removed, without a new bond, as if he had been originally admitted to the jail liberties in that county; and the bond given by him applies accordingly to those liberties.

Id., § 29, am'd.

§ 149. [Am'd, 1886, 1904.] Who admitted to liberties.

A person in the custody of a sheriff, by virtue of an order of arrest; or of an execution in a civil action; or in consequence of a surrender in exoneration of his bail; is entitled to be admitted to the liberties of the jail, upon delivering to the sheriff an approved undertaking as prescribed in the next section.

Id., § 40: L. 1886, ch. 648. See ante, § 15. L. 1904, ch. 384. In effect April 26, 1904.

The undertaking must be executed by the prisoner, and one or more sufficient sureties, residents, and householders or freeholders of the county, in a penalty at least twice the sum, in which the sheriff was required to hold the defendant to bail, if he is in custody under an order of arrest, or has been surrendered in exoneration of his bail, before judgment; or directed to be collected by the execution, if he is in custody under an execution; or remaining uncollected upon a judgment against him, if he has been surrendered after judgment; conditioned, that the person so in custody shall remain a prisoner, and shall not, at any time, or in any manner, escape or go without the liberties of the jail, until discharged by due course of law. Upon the giving and the approval by the court or a judge thereof, or a county judge, of such an undertaking, the prisoner shall be released from the custody of the sheriff and the sheriff shall thereupon be exonerated from liability. But after the allowance of the undertaking as hereinafter prescribed, the same, must be delivered by the clerk, on request, to the party at whose instance the prisoner was in custody. Within two days after the approval by the court, judge, or county judge, the undertaking must be filed by the sheriff with the clerk, and a copy delivered to the party at whose instance the prisoner was in custody, or to his attorney, who shall within three days thereafter serve upon the surety or sureties, or the attorney for the prisoner, a notice that he does not accept him, or them, as bail; otherwise he is deemed to have accepted them. Within three days after the receipt of such notice, the surety or sureties, or the attorney for the prisoner, may serve upon the party, or attorney for the party, at whose instance the prisoner was in custody, notice of justification of the same or other bail before the court of* a judge thereof, or a county judge, at a specified time and place; the time to be not less than five days nor more than ten days thereafter, and the place to be within the county where one of the bail resides or where the defendant was arrested. Except as otherwise expressly prescribed in this article, the provisions regulating the substitution of new sureties or a new undertaking, and the examination and qualification of the new sureties, and the allowance of the undertaking after justification, contained in article third of title first of chapter seventh of this act, shall govern. If the bail shall not be allowed, the court, judge or county judge shall remand the prisoner to the custody of the sheriff.

Id., §§ 41 and 42; L. 1886, ch. 648; L. 1904, ch. 384. As to deposit, see § 573. In effect April 26, 1904.

§ 151. [Am'd, 1886, 1904.] From whom undertaking to be held.

An undertaking so taken is held for the indemnity of the party at whose instance the prisoner executing it is confined.

2 R. S. 434, § 43; L. 1904, ch. 384. In effect April 26, 1904.

§ 152. [Am'd, 1886.] Prisoner to be committed when surety is insufficient.

If the party at whose instance the prisoner is in custody discovers that a surety therein is insufficient, he may, upon proof of the fact, by affidavit or otherwise, apply to the court or to a judge thereof, on whose process or mandate such prisoner is in custody, or to the county judge of the county where such prisoner is confined, and the court, or a judge thereof, or such county judge, may make an order committing such prisoner to close confinement in the jail until another undertaking with good and sufficient sureties is offered.

Id., § 44; L. 1886, ch. 648.

§ 153. [Am'd, 1886.] Surrender of prisoner by his sureties.

One or more of the sureties, in an undertaking given for the liberties of a jail, may surrender the principal, at any time before judgment is rendered against them in an action on the undertaking; but they are not exonerated thereby, from a liability incurred before making the surrender.

2 R. S. 434, § 45, am'd; L. 1886, ch. 648.

§ 154. [Am'd, 1886.] How surrender made.

The surrender must be made as follows: The surety or sureties making it must take the principal to the keeper of the jail, who must, upon his or their written requisition to that effect, take the principal into his custody, and indorse upon the undertaking given for the liberties, an acknowledgment of the surrender; and also, if required, give the surety or sureties a certificate, acknowledging the surrender.

Id., § 46; L. 1886, ch. 648.

§ 155. [Am'd, 1886.] What deemed and what not deemed an escape.

The going at large, within the liberties of the jail in which he is in custody, of a prisoner who has executed such an undertaking, or of a prisoner who would be entitled to the liberties upon executing such an undertaking, is not an escape. But the going at large, beyond the liberties, by a prisoner, without the assent of the party at whose instance he is in custody, is an escape; and the sheriff in whose custody he was, or his sureties, has the same authority to pursue and retake him, as if he had escaped from the jail. Such an escape forfeits the undertaking for the liberties, if any; subject to the provisions of the next article of this title.

Id., § 47; L. 1886, ch. 648.

§ 156. [Am'd, 1877.] When court may order indicted prisoner to be produced.

Where a person, who has been indicted for a criminal offence, is held by a sheriff, by virtue of a mandate in a civil action or special proceeding, the court, in which the indictment is pending may make an order, requiring the sheriff to bring him before the court; whereupon the court may make such disposition of the prisoner, as to it seems proper. The sheriff's fees and expenses, in so doing, are a county charge of the county wherein the court is sitting.

L. 1871, ch. 208, § 1 (9 Edm. 67).

§ 157. Prisoner committed for contempt.

A prisoner, committed to jail upon process for contempt, or committed for misconduct in a case prescribed by law, must be actually confined and detained within the jail, until he is discharged by due course of law, or is removed to another jail or place of confinement, in a case prescribed by law. A sheriff or keeper of a jail, who suffers such a prisoner to go or be at large out of his jail; except by virtue of a writ of habeas corpus, or by the special direction of the court committing him, or in a case specially prescribed by law; is liable to the party aggrieved, for his damages sustained thereby, and is guilty of a misdemeanor. If the commitment was for the non-payment of a sum of money, the amount thereof, with interest, is the measure of damages.

2 R. S. 437, § 61, am'd.

§ 158. [Am'd, 1886, 1904.] Sheriff's liability for escape.

Where a prisoner, in a sheriff's custody, goes or is at large beyond the liberties of the jail, without the assent of the party at whose instance he is in custody, the sheriff is answerable therefor, until an undertaking provided for in section one hundred and fifty of this article has been given and approved, as follows:

1. If the prisoner was in custody by virtue of an order of arrest, or in consequence of a surrender in exoneration of his bail, before judgment, the sheriff is answerable to the extent of the damages sustained by the plaintiff.

2. If the prisoner was in custody by virtue of any other mandate, or in consequence of a surrender in exoneration of his bail, after judgment, the sheriff is answerable for the debt, damages, or sum of money, for which the prisoner was committed.

3. Upon the giving and approval of the undertaking in this article mentioned, no action for an escape shall be maintained against the sheriff.

2 R. S. 437, §§ 62 and 63; L. 1886, ch. 648; L. 1904, ch. 384. In effect April 26, 1904.

§ 159. [Repealed by L. 1909, ch. 88. See Penal Law, § 1839.]

ARTICLE FIFTH.

Action upon and assignment of a bond for jail liberties.

Sec. 160. Defence in action by sheriff on bond.

161. Judgment against sheriff to be evidence against sureties, etc.

162. Summary judgment for sheriff.

163. Requisites of application therefor.

164. Such judgment when stayed. Id.; when vacated.

165. Judgment against sheriff is evidence of damages.

166. Assignment of undertaking.

167. Recovery of damages for breach of condition.

168. Effect of commencement of action as a bar.

169. Defence to action.

170. Stay of proceedings against sheriff, how authorized.

171. Defence of sheriff in action for escape.

§ 160. [Am'd, 1886.] Defence in action by sheriff on undertaking.

In an action brought on an undertaking for the jail liberties, it is a defence, that the prisoner voluntarily returned to the liberties of the jail from which he escaped, or was recaptured by, or surrendered to the sheriff, from whose custody he escaped, before the commencement of the action. The defendants may make that or any other defence to the action, which might be made by the sheriff, to an action against him for the escape.

2 R. S. 435, § 48; L. 1886, ch. 648.

§ 161. Judgment against sheriff to be evidence against sureties, etc.

But if judgment has been rendered against the sheriff, in an action brought for the escape, and due notice of the pendency of the action was given to the prisoner and his sureties, to enable them to defend the same, the judgment against the sheriff is conclusive evidence of his right to recover against the prisoner and his sureties, to whom the notice was given, as to any matter which was or might have been controverted, in the action against the sheriff.

§ 162. [Am'd, 1886.] Summary judgment for sheriff.

In an action brought by a sheriff on an undertaking for the jail liberties, if it appears to the court, upon a motion made in behalf of the sheriff, that judgment has been rendered against him, for the escape of the prisoner, and that due notice of the pendency of the action against him, was given to the prisoner and his sureties, to enable them to defend the same, the court must order a summary judgment for the plaintiff; and judgment must be entered accordingly, with costs.

Id., § 50; L. 1886, ch. 648.

§ 163. Requisites of application therefor.

But to entitle a sheriff to move for such a judgment, he must have served a copy of his complaint, and given twenty days' notice of the motion.

Id., § 51.

§ 164. Such judgment when stayed. Id.; when vacated.

If it appears, on the hearing of the motion, that the defendants have a meritorious defence, which was not controverted in the action against the sheriff and which by law could not have been so controverted, the court may stay proceedings on the judgment, with such limitations and upon such terms, as it deems just, until a trial in the action; but the judgment must stand as a security for the sheriff. If the defence is established, the court must vacate the judgment, and render judgment for the defendant.

2 R. S. 435, §§ 52 and 53, am'd.

§ 165. [Am'd, 1886.] Judgment against sheriff is evidence of damages.

In an action brought by a sheriff on an undertaking for the jail liberties, a judgment against him for the escape of the prisoner, is evidence of the damages sustained by him, as if it had been collected; and he may recover his reasonable attorney's and counsel fees, and other expenses in defending the action against him, as part of his damages.

Id., § 54; L. 1886, ch. 648.

§ 166. [Am'd, 1886.] Assignment of undertaking.

If an undertaking for the jail liberties is forfeited before the same is duly allowed, the party at whose instance the prisoner was confined, or, in case of his death, his executor or administrator, may elect to bring an action on the undertaking.

Id., § 55; L. 1886, ch. 648.

§ 167. [Am'd, 1886, 1904.] Recovery of damages for breach of condition.

The person so electing may maintain an action on the undertaking, where an action might have been heretofore maintained by the sheriff, and he may recover the same damages for the breach of the condition, which he might heretofore have recovered in an action against the sheriff for the escape.

Id., § 56; L. 1886, ch. 648; L. 1904, ch. 384. In effect April 26, 1904.

§ 168. [Am'd, 1886.] Effect of commencement of action as a bar.

The commencement of such an action shall be deemed an election and is a bar to an action, by or on behalf of such person, against the sheriff or other officer accepting such an undertaking, for an escape by the prisoner executing the undertaking, amounting to a breach of the condition thereof, unless the escape was with the assent of the sheriff or other officer.

Id., § 57; L. 1886, ch. 648.

§ 169. [Am'd, 1886, 1904.] Defence to actions.

In an action brought as provided for in the last three sections, the defendant may make any defence, which he might heretofore have made, if the action was brought by the sheriff.

Id., § 58; L. 1886, ch. 648; L. 1904, ch. 384. In effect April 26, 1904.

§ 170. [Am'd, 1886.] Stay of proceedings against sheriff, how authorized.

If the person so entitled to bring an action on the undertaking for the jail liberties, in lieu of making such election, brings an action against the sheriff for the escape, the court may, except where the escape was made with the sheriff's assent, stay proceedings upon a judgment recovered against the sheriff, with such limitations and upon such terms as it deems just, until he has had a reasonable time to prosecute the undertaking, and collect a judgment recovered thereon.

Id., §§ 59 and 60; L. 1886, ch. 648.

§ 171. [Am'd, 1904.] Defence of sheriff in action for escape.

In an action against a sheriff or other officer, for the escape of a prisoner, it is a defense, that the escape was without the assent of the defendant, and that at the commencement of the action, he had the prisoner within the liberties, either by his voluntary return or by recapture, or that an undertaking required to be given by sections one hundred and forty-nine and one hundred and fifty of this act, was given and approved.

2 R. S. 435, § 64; L. 1904, ch. 384. In effect April 26, 1904.

TITLE III.*Application of the foregoing provisions to the proceedings of a coroner.

Sec. 172. Duties of coroner when sheriff is a party.

173. Any one of the coroners may act.

174. Arrest of sheriff by coroner.

175. Sheriff; how confined.

176. Place of confinement to be deemed a jail.

177. Sheriff how admitted to jail liberties; liability of coroner for escape.

178. Coroner may prosecute, etc., bond for liberties.

179. Duties of coroner where sheriff is plaintiff.

180. Such prisoner entitled to jail liberties, etc.

181. Escape of such prisoner.

181a. Duties of county treasurer in Erie county.

§ 172. Duties of coroner when sheriff is a party.

In an action or special proceeding, to which the sheriff of a county is a party, a coroner of the same county has all the power, and is subject to all the duties of a sheriff, in a cause to which the sheriff is not a party; except as otherwise specially prescribed by law.

2 R. S. 441, § 84 (3 R. S., 5th ed., 741; 2 Edm. 460).

§ 173. Any one of the coroners may act.

A mandate in a civil action or special proceeding which must or may be executed by the coroners, or by a coroner of a county, must be directed either to a particular coroner, or generally to the coroners of that county. Where such a mandate is directed generally to the coroners of a county, or requires them to do any act, it may be executed, and a return thereto may be made and signed, by one of them; but such an act or return does not affect the others.

Id., part of § 84, and § 85.

§ 174. [Am'd, 1886.] Arrest of sheriff by coroner.

Where a mandate, requiring the arrest of the sheriff of the county, is directed to a coroner, he must execute the same in the manner prescribed by law, with respect to the execution of a similar mandate by a sheriff; and he is authorized to take an undertaking on the arrest, or an undertaking for the jail liberties, in a like case, and in like manner, and with like effect, as where such an undertaking may be taken by a sheriff.

Id., § 86; L. 1886, ch. 648.

§ 175. Sheriff; how confined.

Where the actual confinement of a sheriff by a coroner, on a mandate, is required or authorized by law, he must be confined by the coroner, in a house situated within the liberties of the jail of the county, other than the sheriff's house, or the jail, in the same manner as a sheriff is required by law to confine a prisoner in the jail.

Id., § 87.

§ 176. Place of confinement to be deemed a jail.

That house thereupon becomes the jail of the county, for the use of the coroner; and each provision of law relating to the jail, or to an escape from the jail, applies thereto, while the sheriff is confined therein.

Id., §§ 88 and 89.

§ 177. [Am'd, 1886.] Sheriff how admitted to jail liberties; liability of coroner for escape.

A sheriff so arrested must be admitted to the liberties of the jail of the county, in a like case, and upon executing a like undertaking to the coroner, as prescribed by law for a prisoner in the sheriff's custody. For an escape of the sheriff from the liberties, the coroner is liable, in the same manner, and to the same extent, as a sheriff for a similar escape; and he may make the same defence as a sheriff.

2 R. S. 441, § 90; L. 1886, ch. 648.

§ 178. [Am'd, 1886.] Rights of coroner to prosecute, upon undertaking.

The coroner may prosecute an undertaking for the liberties taken by him, and is entitled to all the rights, and subject to all the liabilities, prescribed by law with respect to a similar undertaking taken by a sheriff. The undertaking may be assigned by him, to the party at whose instance the sheriff was arrested; and the same proceedings may be had thereupon, as upon an undertaking taken and assigned by a sheriff in a similar case.

Id., § 91; L. 1886, ch. 648.

§ 179. Duties of coroner where sheriff is plaintiff.

A person arrested by a coroner, in an action or special proceeding, in which the sheriff of the county is plaintiff, must be confined in the jail of the county, in a case where such a confinement is required or authorized by law; but the coroner is not liable for an escape of the prisoner from the jail, after he has been confined therein. A person so confined must be kept and treated, in all respects, like a prisoner confined by the sheriff.

Id., § 92, and part of § 93.

§ 180. [Am'd, 1886.] Such prisoner entitled to jail liberties, etc.

A person so arrested by a coroner is entitled to be discharged, or to the liberties of the jail, as the case requires, upon giving an undertaking to the coroner, in the like manner, and in a like case, in which a person arrested by a sheriff would be entitled to be so discharged, or to the liberties. The undertaking so given must be in all respects similar to that required to be given to a sheriff: and it has the like effect, and may be assigned and proceeded upon in like manner.

Id., part of § 93, and § 94; L. 1886, ch. 648.

§ 181. Escape of such prisoner.

A coroner is answerable for an escape of a prisoner, admitted by him to the liberties of the jail, in the same manner and to the same extent, as a sheriff, and may interpose a like defence.

Id., § 95.

§ 181-a. [Added, 1902.] Duties of county treasurer in Erie county.

In the county of Erie the powers imposed and the duties conferred upon coroners by the provisions of this title shall be exercised and performed by the county treasurer of such county, and such county treasurer shall, in the exercise and performance thereof, be subject to the same liabilities and responsibilities as are prescribed in this title in the case of coroners.

L. 1902, ch. 575 In effect April 14, 1902.

§ 190. [Am'd, 1895, 1917.] The jurisdiction of the court of appeals in civil actions.

From and after the thirty-first day of May, nineteen hundred and seventeen, the jurisdiction of the court of appeals shall, in civil actions and proceedings, be confined to the review upon appeal of an actual determination made by an appellate division of the supreme court in either of the following cases, and no others:

1. An appeal may be taken as of right to said court from a judgment or order entered upon the decision of an appellate division of the supreme court which finally determines an action or special proceeding where is directly involved the construction of the constitution of the state or of the United States, or where one or more of the justices of the appellate division dissents from the decision of the court, or where the judgment or order is one of reversal or modification.

2. An appeal may also be taken as of right to said court from an order of the appellate division granting a new trial on exceptions, where the appellants stipulate that, upon affirmance, judgment absolute shall be rendered against them.

3. An appeal may also be taken from a determination of the appellate division of the supreme court in any department, other than from a judgment or order which finally determines an action or special proceeding, where the appellate division allows the same, and certifies that one or more questions of law have arisen which, in its opinion, ought to be reviewed by the court of appeals, in which case the appeal brings up for review the question or questions so certified, and no other; and the court of appeals shall certify to the appellate division its determination upon such questions.

4. An appeal may also be taken from a judgment or order entered upon the decision of an appellate division of the supreme court which finally determines an action or special proceeding, but which is not appealable as of right under subdivision one of this section, where the appellate division shall certify that in its opinion a question of law is involved which ought to be reviewed by the court of appeals, or where, in case of the refusal so to certify, an appeal is allowed by the court of appeals. Such an appeal shall be allowed when required in the interest of substantial justice.

The provisions of this section shall not apply to an appeal taken to the court of appeals prior to the first day of June, nineteen hundred and seventeen, but an appeal so taken shall be heard and determined under existing provisions of law.

Co. Proc., § 11. Am'd by L. 1895, ch. 946; L. 1917, ch. 290, in effect June 1, 1917.

§ 191. [Am'd, 1895, 1896, 1898, 1900, 1917.] Limitations, exceptions and conditions.

The jurisdiction conferred by the last section is subject to the following limitations, exceptions and conditions:

1. No appeal shall be taken to said court, in any civil action or proceeding commenced in any court other than the supreme court, court of claims, county court, or a surrogate's court, unless the appellate division of the supreme court allows the appeal by an order made at the term which rendered the determination, or at the next term after judgment is entered thereupon and shall certify that in its opinion a question of law is involved which ought to be reviewed by the court of appeals. (See § 2261.)

2. The jurisdiction of the court is limited to the review of questions of law.

3. No unanimous decision of the appellate division of the supreme court that there is evidence supporting or tending to sustain a finding of fact or a verdict not directed by the court, shall be reviewed by the court of appeals. (See § 1337.)

§ 194. Remittitur; when judgment absolute to be rendered, and proceedings thereupon.

The judgment or order of the court of appeals must be remitted to the court below, to be enforced according to law. Upon an appeal from an order granting a new trial, on a case or exceptions, if the court of appeals determines that no error was committed in granting the new trial, it must render judgment absolute upon the right of the appellant; and after its judgment has been remitted to the court below, an assessment of damages, or any other proceeding, requisite to render the judgment effectual, may be had in the latter court.

Co. Proc., parts of §§ 11 and 12.

§ 195. Second and subsequent appeals.

Upon a second and each subsequent appeal, including a case where a former appeal has been dismissed for a defect or irregularity, the time of filing the return, upon the first appeal, determines the place of the cause upon the calendar.

§ 268. [Am'd 1906, 1911, 1915.] Sessions; duty of sheriff.

The court shall hold at least eight sessions each year, and unless otherwise ordered by the court shall be held as follows: On the fourth Monday of January at the city of Albany; on the third Monday of February at the city of Syracuse; on the fourth Monday of March at the city of Utica; on the fourth Monday of April at the city of Albany; on the fourth Monday of May at the city of Rochester; on the third Monday of June at the city of Buffalo; on the fourth Monday of September at the city of Albany; on the fourth Monday of November at the city of Albany, and it may also hold adjourned or special sessions at such other times and places in the state as it may determine. It may also hold a session and take testimony where the claimant resides or where the claim is alleged to have arisen, or in the vicinity, and may view any premises affected by the proceedings, and in case of any appropriation of land by the state, the value of which shall exceed five hundred dollars, it shall be the duty of the court, or the judge or judges hearing the claim, to view the premises affected by the appropriation. The sheriff of any county, except Albany, shall furnish for the use of the court suitable rooms in the court house of his county for any session ordered to be held thereat and shall if required attend said session. His fees for attendance shall be paid out of the contingent fund of the court at the same rate as for attending a term of the supreme court in that county.

A session of the court may be conducted and testimony and proof taken and arguments heard thereat, by one or more judges to be designated by the presiding judge; but no determination or judgment of the court shall be rendered except upon the concurrence of at least two of the judges of the court. Not more than three judges shall sit in any case.

Adjourned or special sessions of the board of claims heretofore designated to be hereafter held, shall be held as sessions of the court of claims unless such court shall cancel such designation.

Am'd by L. 1906, ch. 692; L. 1911, ch. 856; L. 1915, chs. 1, 100. In effect Mar. 19, 1915.

§ 268-a. [Added, 1917.] Disposition of adverse and conflicting claims.

If there are adverse and conflicting claims to the lands, structures, waters, franchises or any other property whatsoever lawfully appropriated by the state or an apparent lien or incumbrance on the property so appropriated or on any interest therein, or to the award therefor, unless the holders of such adverse or conflicting claims or the owner of such lien or incumbrance shall consent that their respective interests may be determined by the court of claims, or if the owners of any property so appropriated or of any interests therein are indeterminable or unknown, the court shall direct the comptroller to deposit the amount awarded in any bank, in which moneys belonging to the fund from which such compensation is payable may be deposited, to the account of such award, to be paid and distributed to the persons entitled to the same as ordered by the supreme court on application of any person.

Added by L. 1917, ch. 730. In effect June 5, 1917.

§ 269. [Am'd, 1901, 1909.] Judgments.

The determination of the court upon a claim shall be by a judgment to be entered in a book to be kept by the clerk for that purpose, and signed and certified by him. Within ten days preme court in another county, on such terms, and under such regulations as it deems just; and thereupon the issue must be tried accordingly. After the trial, the clerk of the county, in which it has taken place, must certify the minutes thereof; which must be filed with the clerk of the court, in which the action or special proceeding is pending. The subsequent proceedings in the last mentioned court must be the same, as if the issue had been tried therein.

§ 263. [Am'd, 1904, 1906, 1911, 1915.] Court of claims.

The board of claims is hereby abolished and the court of claims re-established. Such court shall consist of three judges, to be known as judges of the court of claims, who shall be appointed by the governor, by and with the advice and consent of the senate. The judges first appointed shall be appointed for terms of three, six and nine years, respectively, from the first day of January of the calendar year in which such appointments shall be made. Thereafter the full term of office of each judge shall be nine years. Whenever the term of office of a judge shall expire, or his office become vacant from any cause, his successor shall be appointed for the unexpired term. Notwithstanding the provisions of section five of the public officers law, a judge of the court of claims shall hold over and continue to discharge the duties of his office, after the expiration of the term for which he shall have been chosen, until his successor shall be chosen and qualified, but after the expiration of such term the office shall be deemed vacant for the purpose of choosing his successor. By an order to be filed in the office of the secretary of state, the governor shall designate one of the judges as presiding judge, who shall act as such during his term, and thereafter upon the appointment of his successor, the governor shall designate such successor or any other judge of the court as presiding judge, who shall act as such during his term. The office of commissioner of claims is hereby abolished, but the commissioners now in office shall continue to have the powers and duties of commissioners of claims until the appointment and qualification of judges of the court of claims, except that after this section as amended takes effect and until the appointment and qualification of judges of the court of claims they shall not hear, try or determine any claim, or entertain a motion or make an order affecting the substantial rights or* a party. During the period of three months after the first appointment and qualification of judges hereunder, such commissioners shall have power to determine and dispose of questions, claims and matters which shall have been finally submitted to and heard by such board on or before January twenty-third, nineteen hundred and fifteen, in the same manner and with the same effect as if such board had not been abolished. Such commissioners shall for their services rendered during such period of three months receive compensation at the rate of five hundred dollars per month. A judge of the court of claims, appointed under the provisions of this section, as amended, must be an attorney and counselor-at-law admitted to practice in the courts of this state, of at least ten years' experience in practice. A judge shall not during his term of office practice the profession of law, or act as referee in any action or proceeding in any court of this state. A judge shall not hold any other office or public trust to which any salary or compensation is attached, nor serve as a member of any political committee. Except as herein otherwise provided, the judges appointed under this section shall have jurisdiction to hear and determine all matters pending in the court of claims at the time they shall take office, and all matters pending in the board of claims at the time when this section, as amended takes effect, shall be heard and determined by the court of claims. But if any matter or claim be left undisposed of by the commissioners of claims, the court of claims shall have jurisdiction thereon. Whenever in this act or in any other statute, heretofore enacted or enacted at the legislative session of the year nineteen hundred and fifteen, reference is made to the board of claims or any officer thereof, the same shall be deemed to refer to and mean the court of claims or an officer thereof. A determination of the board of claims, heretofore rendered shall have the same force and effect and be subjected to the same procedure as provided in this article for a judgment.

L. 1904, ch. 16; L. 1906, ch. 692; L. 1911, ch. 856; L. 1915, ch. 1, in effect Jan. 28, 1915.

L. 1915, ch. 100, § 2, provides: "The provisions of section two hundred and sixty-three of the code of civil procedure, as amended by chapter one of the laws of nineteen hundred and fifteen in relation to the qualification of judges of the court of claims, shall not prevent a judge of such court from serving as a member of a constitutional convention and receiving the salary or compensation attached to such office."

§ 264. [Am'd, 1905, 1906, 1908, 1912, 1915, 1917.] Jurisdiction.

The court of claims possesses all of the powers and jurisdiction of the former board of claims. It also has jurisdiction to hear and determine a private claim against the state, including a claim of an executor or administrator of a decedent who left him or her surviving a husband, wife or next of kin, for damages for a wrongful act, neglect or default, on the part of the state by which the decedent's death was caused, which shall have accrued within two years before the filing of such claim and the state hereby consents, in all such claims, to have its liability determined. It may also hear and determine any claim on the part of the state against the claimant, or against his assignor at the time of the assignment, and must render judgment for such sum as should be paid by or to the state. But the court has no jurisdiction of a claim submitted by law to any other tribunal or officer for audit or determination except where the claim is founded upon express contract and such claim, or some part thereof, has been rejected by such tribunal or officer. In no case shall any liability be implied against the state, and no award shall be made on any claim against the state except upon such legal evidence as would establish liability against an individual or corporation in a court of law or equity. No claim other than for the appropriation of land shall be maintained against the state unless the claimant shall within six months after such claim shall have accrued, file in the office of the clerk of the board of claims and with the attorney-general a written notice of intention to file a claim against the state, stating the time when, and the place where such claim arose and in detail the nature of the same, which notice shall be signed and verified by the claimant before an officer authorized to administer oaths. The attorney-general may require any person filing such a notice of claim for any cause whatever against the state to be sworn before him or one of his deputies designated by him for that purpose within the county of the claimant's residence, relating to such claim, and when so sworn, to answer orally as to any facts relative to the justness of such claim. Whenever any claim for the appropriation of property is pending or has been determined in the court of claims and the attorney-general is required by law to examine the title of the claimant thereto, prior to the payment of an award, the attorney-general may require such claimant to be sworn before him or one of his deputies designated by him for that purpose within the county of the claimant's residence, or if the claimant be a corporation within the county where its principal place of business in this state is located, or if the claimant be a nonresident within the county where the property is situated, relating to such title, and when so sworn, to answer orally as to any facts relative to the title of such property. The attorney-general may also require such claimant to file with him an affidavit stating any material facts relating to such title. Wilful false swearing before the attorney-general or deputy attorney-general is perjury and punishable as such. Provided further, that nothing herein contained shall be construed to allow the court to hear any claim which as between citizens of the state would be barred by lapse of time or of any claim heretofore accrued and of which the said court or board has had jurisdiction and which was barred by lapse of time at the date when this section, as amended, takes effect. Provided further, that the court shall have jurisdiction, and may hear and determine all claims accrued and actually filed at any time prior to September first, nineteen hundred and twelve, and filed within two years from the time they accrued, though no notice of intention to file was given, as required by this section, if such claims when filed were not barred by lapse of time and the court or board had jurisdiction and authority to hear and determine the same except for the lack of such notice; and such jurisdiction shall attach without refileing or previous notice.

§ 265. [Am'd, 1906, 1915.] Rules and procedure.

The court may establish rules for its government, and the regulation of practice therein; prescribe the forms and methods of procedure before it, vacate or modify judgments, and grant new trials, and except as otherwise provided in said rules and regulations, or the code of civil procedure, the practice shall be the same as in the supreme court. Rules of the board of claims or former court of claims, now in force, shall continue to be the rules of the court of claims until changed by such court.

§ 265-a. [Added, 1918.] Perpetuating testimony.

At any time after a claim shall have been filed against the state, testimony in relation thereto may be perpetuated, upon the application of the attorney-general or of a claimant to the court of claims or a judge thereof, in accordance with rules and regulations which the court of claims is hereby authorized to establish for the purpose, or, in the absence thereof, in substantial accordance with chapter nine, title three, articles one and two of the code of civil procedure; provided, however, that at any time after the state shall have lawfully appropriated lands, structures, waters, franchises or any other property whatsoever, the attorney-general or a claimant may apply to a justice of the supreme court for the perpetuation of testimony pursuant to chapter fourteen, title one, article ten of the code of civil procedure and upon such application it shall not be necessary to show that the property for one year next preceding the date of the petition has been in the possession of the state, or in the possession of the state and those from whom the state derives title, either as sole owner or as joint tenant or as tenant in common. The court of claims or the judge thereof or the justice of the supreme court to which or to whom any such application is made may direct the depositions to be taken before the court of claims or before one or more judges thereof or before an official referee acting pursuant to either chapter two hundred and twenty-nine of the laws of nineteen hundred and eleven or section one hundred and fifteen of the judiciary law.

Added by L. 1918, ch. 180, in effect Apr. 10, 1918.

§ 266. [Am'd, 1906, 1909, 1911, 1915.] Officers.

The court of claims shall appoint and may at pleasure remove, a clerk, a stenographer, and an attendant, who shall also act as messenger; and they shall perform such duties as the court may prescribe. Before entering upon the duties of his office, the clerk shall make and file in the office of the comptroller, a bond for the faithful performance of his duties in an amount and with sufficient sureties to be approved by at least two of the judges, which approval shall be endorsed on said bond. The court may also appoint such other employees as may be needed. The clerk and stenographer appointed by the board of claims are continued as such officers and employees of the court of claims until the appointment and qualification of their successors.

§ 267. Seal of Court.

The court shall adopt and procure an official seal, with suitable device and inscription. A description of such seal, with an impression thereof, shall be filed in the office of the secretary of state. The expenses of procuring such seal shall be paid out of the contingent fund of the court.

3. An action to recover one or more chattels, and the judgment is in favor of the plaintiff for a chattel or chattels, the aggregate value of which exceeds two thousand dollars.

Any party to such action, at any time after the entry of such judgment, may apply to the said city court to have such judgment vacated, and thereupon the said city court may in its discretion vacate such judgment. Any case, wherein a judgment has been so vacated, may be removed to the supreme court in the first judicial district, as provided in section three hundred and nineteen-a.

Added by L. 1913, ch. 211. In effect April 4, 1913.

§ 320. [Am'd 1877, 1907.] Justices; their general duties.

The court consists of ten justices, one of whom is the chief justice of the court. Each justice must perform his share of the labors and duties appertaining to the office. One of the justices must attend at the chambers of the court, from ten o'clock in the morning until four o'clock in the afternoon of each day, except Sunday, a public holiday, or a day upon which the inhabitants of the city of New York generally refrain from business. Each justice, while in the rooms of the court, and not actually engaged in the performance of other official duties, must act upon any application for his official action, properly made to him. The justice, assigned to a trial term or a special term, must remain in attendance, until the day calendar is disposed of, or for such other time as is reasonable.

§ 321. How suspended from office.

Where it appears presumptively, to the satisfaction of the governor, that a justice of the court has been guilty of corruption, or other gross misconduct in office; or habitually neglects to perform his share of the labors and duties appertaining to the office; or is incapable of properly discharging the same; the governor may, in his discretion, make an order, suspending that justice from the exercise of the duties of his office, and directing that his compensation cease. Such an order must recite the grounds upon which it is made; and it remains in force, unless it is sooner revoked by the governor, until the final adjournment of the next session of the legislature; or, if the legislature is then in session, until the final adjournment of that session.

L. 1849, ch. 144, § 9.

The justices of the court, or a majority of them, must, from time to time, as a vacancy occurs in the office of chief justice, designate one of their number to be chief justice. A certificate of the designation, under the hands of the justices making the same, must be filed in the office of the clerk of the court. The person so designated shall be chief justice during his term of office. The chief justice has the like authority, within the jurisdiction of the court, as a presiding justice of the supreme court.

L. 1872, ch. 629, § 4, am'd; L. 1902, ch. 515. In effect Sept. 1, 1902.

after the entry of the judgment, the clerk shall serve a certified copy thereof on the claimant or his attorney and also upon the attorney-general. If the claim arises in a case where the state seeks to appropriate or has appropriated land for a public use, the judgment shall contain a description of such land. A transcript of a judgment in favor of the state, certified by the clerk of the court, may be filed and docketed in the clerk's office of any county; and upon being so docketed shall become and be a lien upon the property of the claimant in that county, to the same extent and enforceable by execution in the same manner, as a judgment of the supreme court. A final judgment against the claimant on any claim prosecuted as provided in this article shall forever bar any further claim or demand against the state arising out of the matters involved in the controversy. Interest shall be allowed on each judgment of the court of claims from the date thereof until the twentieth day after the comptroller is authorized to issue his warrant for the payment thereof or until payment, if payment be made sooner. But no such judgment shall be paid until there shall be filed with the comptroller a copy thereof duly certified by the clerk of the court of claims together with a certificate of the attorney-general that no appeal from such judgment has been or will be taken by the state, and a release and waiver by the attorney for the claimant of any lien for services upon said claimant's cause of action, claim, award, verdict, report, decision or judgment in favor of said claimant, which said attorney may have thereon under and by virtue of section four hundred and seventy-five of the judiciary law; and where damages are awarded for the permanent appropriation of land for a public use, there shall also be filed with the comptroller, a satisfactory abstract of title and certificate of search as to incumbrances, showing the person demanding such damages to be legally entitled thereto. The provisions of this section as to limitation of interest shall not apply, however, to judgments paid from the various trust funds or sinking funds of the state, which funds shall be entitled to interest until the twentieth day after an appropriation is available for the reimbursement thereof or until payment, if payment be sooner made.

Am'd by L. 1901, ch. 440; L. 1909, ch. 63, § 3. See note 37 of notes of Board of Statutory Consolidation at end of code.

§ 270. [Am'd, 1905.] Duty of attorney-general and superintendent of public works.

The attorney-general shall represent the state in all proceedings relating to claims. In all cases of canal claims a copy of each such claim and of notice of claim which is or may hereafter be required to be filed with the court of claims shall be filed with the superintendent of public works who on request from the attorney-general, shall furnish such assistance as he may require in subpoenaing witnesses and preparing the cases for trial. The attorney-general may designate a clerk in his office to assist in the preparation of cases for trial and to attend a term of the court. And no claims brought against the state on account of the canal shall be settled or compromised for any amount without the written consent thereto by the superintendent of public works or his duly authorized representative.

L. 1905, ch. 370. In effect May 4, 1905.

§ 271. Record of proceedings; report.

The court shall keep a record of its proceedings, and, at the commencement of each session of the legislature, and at such other times during the session as it may deem proper, or as the senate or assembly may request, report to the legislature the claims upon which it has finally acted, with a statement of the judgment rendered in each case.

§ 272. Expense of procuring testimony on commission.

When testimony is taken on commission at the instance of the claimant, the expense thereof including the fees of the commissioner, shall be paid by the claimant; and when taken at the instance of the state, such fees and all expenses incurred by the attorney-general shall be paid out of the contingent fund of the court.

§ 273. Annual report to comptroller.

On the first day of January in each year, the clerk shall report, to the comptroller, under oath, a detailed statement of his disbursements made under the direction of the court from its contingent fund during the preceding year.

§ 274. [Am'd, 1909.] Costs not to be taxed.

Costs, witnesses' fees and disbursements shall not be taxed, nor shall counsel or attorneys' fees be allowed by the court to any party. The said court of claims, whenever the appraised value of the premises appropriated shall be less than two hundred dollars, shall in their award make a reasonable allowance for the expense of procuring the abstract of title and certificate of search as to incumbrances, which the statutes require shall be furnished the comptroller before payment of any damages which may be awarded for the permanent appropriation of land or water.

Am'd by L. 1909, ch. 65, § 3. New matter in L. 1884, ch. 336, § 3. See note 37a of notes of Board of Statutory Consolidation at end of code.

§ 275. Appeals.

Either party may appeal from an order or judgment of the court of claims to the appellate division of the supreme court of the third department. The appeal from a judgment may be taken upon questions of law or of fact, or both, or for an alleged excess or insufficiency of the judgment. Upon such appeal, the court may affirm, reverse, or modify the judgment, or dismiss the appeal, or grant a new trial. The provisions of this code relating to appeals in the supreme court apply, so far as practicable, to appeals from orders or judgments of the court of claims, except as modified in this article.

§ 276. Time and manner of taking appeal.

An appeal must be taken within thirty days after the entry and service of the order, or the service by the clerk of a certified copy of the judgment, by serving upon the claimant or his attorney, or upon the attorney-general, and upon the clerk, in like manner as in the supreme court, a written notice to the effect that the appellant appeals from the order or from the judgment or from a specified part thereof, and briefly stating the grounds of the appeal.

§ 277. Case on appeal.

With the notice of appeal from a judgment, the appellant shall serve upon the adverse party a case containing so much of the evidence as the appellant may deem necessary to present the questions raised by the appeal. Within ten days after the service of the case, the respondent may propose and serve amendments thereto, and the case may be settled upon five days' notice by any judge of the court. Notice of the settlement may be served by either party, within ten days after service of the proposed amendments. The court or a judge thereof may extend the time for serving a case or amendments.

§ 278. Preference on appeals.

An appeal taken after the calendar for a term of the appellate court is prepared may be placed thereon upon the application of the attorney-general at any time during the then current term, and brought on for hearing as a preferred cause upon a notice of fourteen days.

§ 279. [Am'd, 1906, 1910, 1911, 1915.] Salaries and expenses of judges.

Each judge of the court of claims shall receive an annual compensation of eight thousand dollars, payable monthly, and all actual and necessary traveling and other expenses and disbursements incurred or made by them in the discharge of their official duties elsewhere than in Albany, payable monthly, by the state treasurer on the audit and warrant of the comptroller.

§ 280. [Am'd, 1907, 1911, 1915, 1917.] Salaries of officers of court of claims.

Each officer of the court of claims shall receive an annual salary, payable monthly, and other compensation as follows:

1. The clerk, three thousand six hundred dollars.
2. The court stenographers, who shall also be deputy clerks, three thousand dollars and five cents a folio for copies of minutes and testimony furnished at the request of the claimant.
3. The stenographer to the judges, who shall also act as relief court stenographer, three thousand dollars.

4. The clerk and court stenographers and the stenographer to the judges, and relief court stenographer and court stenographers shall be paid their actual expenses while in the discharge of their respective duties, elsewhere than in the city of Albany, to be audited by the court and paid from the contingent fund. No charge shall be made against the state by the clerk or the stenographers for copies of minutes, testimony or papers, furnished to the attorney-general or to the court, or filed in the office of the clerk.

§ 281. [Added, 1901.] Interpleader, consolidation and new parties.

Jurisdiction and powers are also conferred upon the court of claims in its discretion, to order other parties, known or unknown, to be brought in and made parties to any action or proceeding pending in said court or substituted whenever it appears or is made to appear to the court, necessary to a complete determination of the controversy, or the determination of a liability; to consolidate claims or actions, to order interpleader, in the same manner and to like extent and with like effect in matters over which said court of claims have or shall have jurisdiction, as is conferred upon other courts by sections four hundred and fifty-two, seven hundred and fifty-six, eight hundred and seventeen, eight hundred and twenty and twenty-five hundred and eighteen of this code. Said parties may be brought in by order instead of by citation or summons, which order may be served personally or by publication in like manner as is provided for the service of a citation in surrogate's court; and in the case provided in this section the said court may render judgment for or against any of the parties in said action or proceeding as may be just and equitable.

Added by L. 1901, ch. 286, in effect April 5, 1901.

§ 282. [Added, 1915; am'd 1917.] Additional judges.

The number of judges to constitute the court of claims may be increased to not more than five as provided by this section. An additional judge of the court of claims heretofore appointed pursuant to this section is continued in office until February first, nineteen hundred and eighteen. If the presiding judge of such court shall prior to February first, nineteen hundred and eighteen, or at any time thereafter certify to the governor in writing that the accumulation of business in the court of claims requires for the disposal thereof an additional judge or judges, specifying the number, not more than two, and the term for which such additional judge or judges should be appointed, not exceeding three years, the governor may appoint, by and with the advice and consent of the senate, such additional judge or judges, for such term, each of whom shall be an attorney and counselor-at-law, admitted to practice in the courts of this state of at least ten years' experience in practice. If a vacancy shall occur otherwise than by expiration of term in the office of any additional judge, his successor shall be appointed by the governor, by and with the advice and consent of the senate, for the unexpired term of his predecessor in office. An additional judge appointed pursuant to this section shall, during his term of office, receive the same compensation and be allowed his expenses, payable at the same time and in the same manner as a judge of the court of claims. Except as herein provided the provisions of section two hundred and sixty-three relating to judges of the court of claims shall apply to any such additional judge.

Added by L. 1915, ch. 1; amended by L. 1917, ch. 255, in effect Apr. 24, 1917.

§ 283. [Added, 1916.] Determination of appropriation cases; assignment of judges.

At least two of the judges of the court of claims shall be designated by the presiding judge thereof to devote their entire time, or so much thereof as shall be necessary, to the hearing and determination of claims filed against the state arising out of the appropriation of lands, structures, waters, franchises or other property in connection with the improvement of the Erie, Champlain and Oswego canals as provided by chapter one hundred and forty-seven of the laws of nineteen hundred and three, and acts amendatory thereof and supplemental thereto, the Cayuga and Seneca canals as provided by chapter three hundred and ninety-one of the laws of nineteen hundred and nine, and acts amendatory thereof and supplemental thereto, and for the purpose of furnishing proper terminals and facilities for barge canal traffic as provided for by chapter seven hundred and forty-six of the laws of nineteen hundred and eleven, and acts amendatory thereof and supplemental thereto. Such designations of judges may be changed in the discretion of the presiding judge, provided at least two of such judges be at all times assigned to the hearing and determination of such claims. Nothing in this section contained, however, shall be construed to limit the power of the judges so designated, or either of them, from hearing and determining claims other than such appropriation cases whenever and to the extent that it appears to the satisfaction of such judges, or either of them, that such appropriation cases do not require their attention or that of either of them.

Added by L. 1916, ch. 343, in effect April 27, 1916.

§ 284. [Added, 1916.] Calendar practice.

A calendar shall be prepared by the clerk of the court of claims for each regular session thereof. Such calendar shall be comprised of all pending claims in the district where such session is to be held and the claims shall appear therein in the order of the date of the filing thereof respectively. The attorney-general may notice any of such claims for trial at any such term by serving upon the attorney for the claimant a notice of trial at least fourteen days before the commencement of such term. When any claim of the character mentioned in the last preceding section is reached for trial by the court, if the claimant fails to appear, or if he appears but is not ready to proceed to the trial thereof, the court, in its discretion, may proceed forthwith to take proofs and testimony therein offered by the state or otherwise, and may make an award in accordance therewith and cause a judgment to be entered thereon. If, in such a case, the court shall decide not to proceed forthwith to take such proofs and testimony, interest shall not accrue or be allowed upon such claim between such date and the entry of judgment in such case, unless, in the exercise of its discretion, for good cause shown, the court shall otherwise determine.

When any claim other than one of those mentioned in the last preceding section is noticed for trial as herein provided, if the claimant fails to appear, the court, upon the motion of the attorney-general, may dismiss the same, in which event such default shall not be opened nor shall such claim be restored to the calendar except upon the motion of the attorney for the claimant, based upon affidavits showing a reasonable and satisfactory excuse for such default and that such claim is a meritorious one. Such notice of motion and the affidavits upon which the same is based shall be served upon the attorney-general at least eight days before such application, unless a shorter time shall be ordered by the court. Whenever any interest-bearing claim, other than one of those mentioned in the last preceding section, shall have been dismissed and thereafter restored to the calendar as herein provided, no interest shall accrue or be allowed thereon between the date of such dismissal and the entry of judgment in such case.

Added by L. 1916, ch. 343, in effect April 27, 1916.

§ 315. [Am'd, 1895, 1911.] Jurisdiction.

The jurisdiction of the city court of the city of New York, extends to the following cases:

1. An action against a natural person, or against a foreign or domestic corporation, wherein the complaint demands judgment for a sum of money only, or to recover one or more chattels, with or without damages for the taking or detention thereof.
2. An action to foreclose or enforce a lien upon real property in the city of New York, created as prescribed by statute, in favor of a person, who has performed labor upon, or furnished materials to be used in the construction, alteration or repair of a building, vault, wharf, fence, or other structure, or who has graded, filled in, or otherwise improved, a lot of land, or the sidewalk or street in front of or adjoining a lot of land.
3. An action to foreclose or enclose* a lien, for a sum not exceeding five thousand dollars, exclusive of interest, upon one or more chattels.
4. The taking and entry of a judgment, upon the confession of one or more defendants, where the sum, for which judgment is confessed, does not exceed five thousand dollars, exclusive of interest from the time of making the statement, upon which the judgment is entered.

Am'd by L. 1895, ch. 946; L. 1911, ch. 509, in effect Sept. 1, 1911.

* So in original.

§ 316. [Am'd, 1911.] The last section limited.

The jurisdiction conferred by the last section is subject to the following limitations and regulations:

1. In an action wherein the complaint demands judgment for a sum of money only, the sum, for which judgment is rendered in favor of the plaintiff, cannot exceed five thousand dollars, exclusive of interest, and costs as taxed; except where it is brought upon a bond or undertaking given in an action or special proceeding in the same court, or before a justice thereof; or to recover damages for a breach of promise of marriage; or where it is a marine cause, as that expression is defined in the next section. Where the action is brought upon a bond or other contract, the judgment must be for the sum actually due, without regard to a penalty therein contained; and where the money is payable in instalments, successive actions may be brought for the instalments, as they become due.

2. In an action to recover one or more chattels, a judgment cannot be rendered in favor of the plaintiff, for a chattel or chattels, the aggregate value of which exceeds five thousand dollars.

3. [Repealed, Laws 1889, ch. 441.]

Am'd by L. 1911, ch. 569, in effect Sept. 1, 1911.

§ 317. [Am'd, 1895.] Jurisdiction in special causes.

The city court of the city of New York possesses the same jurisdiction in the following actions as the supreme court of the State:

1. An action in favor of a person, belonging to a vessel in the merchant service, against the owner, master, or commander thereof, for the reasonable value of services, or for the breach of a contract to pay for services, rendered or to be rendered on board of the vessel, during a voyage, wholly or partly performed, or intended to be performed by it.

2. An action in favor of or against a person, belonging to or on board of a vessel in the merchant service to recover damages for an assault, battery, or false imprisonment, committed on board the vessel, upon the high seas, or in a place without the United States.

But this section does not confer upon the city court authority to proceed, as a court of admiralty or maritime jurisdiction.

L. 1895, ch. 946; L. 1872, ch. 629, § 3, subd. 13, and 14; and 2 R. S., § 106.

§ 318. [Am'd, 1911.] Power to naturalize aliens.

The court shall have power to naturalize aliens.

L. 1852, ch. 389, part of § 10. Am'd by L. 1911, ch. 569, in effect Sept. 1, 1911.

§ 319. [Am'd, 1895.] Removal of action to supreme court from city court.

The supreme court, at a term held in the first judicial district, may, by an order made at any time after joinder of an issue of fact, and before the trial thereof, remove to itself an action brought in the city court, for the purpose of changing the place of trial thereof. Where an order for removal is made, as prescribed in this section, the place of trial must be changed by the same order to another county, and the subsequent proceedings therein must be the same as if the action had been originally brought in the supreme court. The provisions of sections 344, 345 and 346 of this act apply to an application to remove such an action, and to the proceedings upon and subsequent to the removal, as if the city court were specified in those sections in place of the county court, and a justice thereof in place of the county judge.

L. 1895, ch. 946.

§ 319-a. [Added, 1913.] Removal of cause in certain cases from city court to supreme court. .

The supreme court, at a term held in the first judicial district, must, on the motion of any party, by an order made at any time before the entry of judgment, remove to itself an action brought in the city court of the city of New York in the following cases:

1. An action to foreclose or enforce a lien, for a sum exceeding two thousand dollars, exclusive of interest, upon one or more chattels.

2. An action wherein the complaint demands judgment for a sum of money only, exceeding two thousand dollars, exclusive of interest and costs as taxed; except where the action is brought upon a bond or undertaking given in an action or special proceeding in the same court, or before a justice thereof; or to recover damages for a breach of promise of marriage; or where it is a marine cause, as that expression is defined in section three hundred and seventeen of this code.

3. An action to recover one or more chattels the aggregate value of which exceeds two thousand dollars.

Upon the entry of the order of removal in the office of the clerk of the county of New York, the city court shall proceed no further therein, and the clerk of the city court must forthwith deliver to the clerk of the county of New York all papers filed therein, and certified copies of all minutes and entries relating thereto, which must be filed, entered or recorded, as the case requires, in the office of the clerk of the county of New York, and thereupon the supreme court shall proceed in said action as though said action had been commenced in said supreme court, and all proceedings had in the city court prior to the entry of said order of removal shall be of like force and effect as though had in the supreme court.

Added by L. 1913, ch. 210. In effect April 4, 1913.

§ 319-b. [Added, 1913.] Vacation of judgment in certain cases.

Whenever judgment has been or shall be entered in the city court of the city of New York in any one or more of the following cases, to-wit:

1. An action to foreclose or enforce a lien, for a sum exceeding two thousand dollars, exclusive of interest, upon one or more chattels;

2. An action wherein the complaint demands judgment for a sum of money only, and the judgment is in favor of the plaintiff, and exceeds two thousand dollars, exclusive of interest and costs as taxed; except where the action is brought upon a bond or undertaking given in an action or special proceeding in the same court or before a justice thereof; or to recover damages for a breach of promise of marriage; or where it is a marine cause, as that expression is defined in section three hundred and seventeen of this code.

3. An action to recover one or more chattels, and the judgment is in favor of the plaintiff for a chattel or chattels, the aggregate value of which exceeds two thousand dollars.

Any party to such action, at any time after the entry of such judgment, may apply to the said city court to have such judgment vacated, and thereupon the said city court may in its discretion vacate such judgment. Any case, wherein a judgment has been so vacated, may be removed to the supreme court in the first judicial district, as provided in section three hundred and nineteen-a.

Added by L. 1913, ch. 211. In effect April 4, 1913.

§ 320. [Am'd 1877, 1907.] Justices; their general duties.

The court consists of ten justices, one of whom is the chief justice of the court. Each justice must perform his share of the labors and duties appertaining to the office. One of the justices must attend at the chambers of the court, from ten o'clock in the morning until four o'clock in the afternoon of each day, except Sunday, a public holiday, or a day upon which the inhabitants of the city of New York generally refrain from business. Each justice, while in the rooms of the court, and not actually engaged in the performance of other official duties, must act upon any application for his official action, properly made to him. The justice, assigned to a trial term or a special term, must remain in attendance, until the day calendar is disposed of, or for such other time as is reasonable.

L. 1849, ch. 144, §§ 1 and 8; L. 1852, ch. 389, § 1; L. 1870, ch. 580, § 2 and L. 1872, ch. 629, § 4. See, also, 2 R. L., § 108; am'd 1907, ch. 707. In effect Aug. 12, 1907.

§ 321. How suspended from office.

Where it appears presumptively, to the satisfaction of the governor, that a justice of the court has been guilty of corruption, or other gross misconduct in office; or habitually neglects to perform his share of the labors and duties appertaining to the office; or is incapable of properly discharging the same; the governor may, in his discretion, make an order, suspending that justice from the exercise of the duties of his office, and directing that his compensation cease. Such an order must recite the grounds upon which it is made; and it remains in force, unless it is sooner revoked by the governor, until the final adjournment of the next session of the legislature; or, if the legislature is then in session, until the final adjournment of that session.

L. 1849, ch. 144, § 9.

The justices of the court, or a majority of them, must, from time to time, as a vacancy occurs in the office of chief justice, designate one of their number to be chief justice. A certificate of the designation, under the hands of the justices making the same, must be filed in the office of the clerk of the court. The person so designated shall be chief justice during his term of office. The chief justice has the like authority, within the jurisdiction of the court, as a presiding justice of the supreme court.

L. 1872, ch. 629, § 4, am'd; L. 1902, ch. 515. In effect Sept. 1, 1902.

§ 323. [Am'd, 1909.] Justices may make rules.

The justices of the court, or a majority of them, may, from time to time, establish rules of practice for the court, not inconsistent with this act, or with the general rules of practice, established as prescribed in section ninety-four of the judiciary law. The latter govern the practice in the court, as far as they are applicable thereto.

L. 1875, ch. 479, § 56. Am'd by L. 1909, ch. 65, § 3. See note 38 of notes of Board of Statutory Consolidation at end of code.

§ 324. [Am'd, 1902.] Court when open; justices to designate terms; routine of business, et cetera.

The court is always open for the transaction of any business, for which notice is not required to be given to an adverse party. The justices of the court, or a majority of them, from time to time must appoint, and may alter, the times of holding special and trial terms of the court. They must prescribe the duration of the terms; designate the trial terms at which jurors are required to attend; and assign the justice to preside and attend at each of the terms so appointed. In case of the inability of a justice to preside or attend, another justice may preside or attend in his place. Each trial and special term must be held by one justice. Two or more special or trial terms may be appointed to be held at the same time.

L. 1872, ch. 629, § 4. Am'd, L. 1902, ch. 515. In effect Sept. 1, 1902.

§ 325. Terms where held; publication of appointments.

Each term so appointed must be held at the city-hall in the city of New-York, except that auxiliary or additional parts, for the transaction of any business specified in the appointment, may be held elsewhere within the city of New-York, as designated in the appointment. An appointment must be published in two newspapers, published in the city of New-York, at least once in each week, for three successive weeks, before a term is held in pursuance thereof.

L. 1875, ch. 479, § 38.

§ 326. Justices may take oaths, acknowledgments, etc.

Each of the justices may, within the city of New-York, administer an oath, or take a deposition, or the acknowledgment or proof of the execution of a written instrument, and certify the same, in like manner and with like authority and effect, as a justice of the supreme court.

L. 1874, ch. 545, § 8, am'd.

§ 327. [Am'd, 1895.] Orders, etc., how made.

In an action brought in the court, an order cannot be made, or a warrant of attachment granted, by an officer, other than a justice of the court; and each provision of this act, which empowers an officer, other than a judge of the court in which an action is brought, to make an order therein, must be construed as being exclusive of an action brought in the city court.

L. 1895, ch. 940.

The court has a clerk who is appointed, and may be removed, by the justices thereof, or a majority of them for cause upon charges and after a hearing after notice, and who shall receive a salary of six thousand dollars per annum. The justices of the court or a majority of them must appoint, and may remove, six deputy clerks and not more than twenty-one assistants, and a stenographer and typewriter operator for the purpose of copying their minutes and opinions and doing such other confidential work which may be required by said justices or the clerk of the court. The clerk is responsible for the faithful discharge of his duty by each deputy clerk, and each assistant and the stenographer and typewriter operator. Each deputy clerk, each assistant, and the stenographer and typewriter operator, is entitled to a salary, fixed and to be paid as prescribed by law.

L. 1891, ch. 154; L. 1896, ch. 662; L. 1907, chs. 707, 708; L. 1910, ch. 579; L. 1911, ch. 328; L. 1912, ch. 466, in effect Sept. 1, 1912.

§ 329. [Am'd, 1907.] General duties of deputy clerk.

The deputy clerk has all the powers, and may perform all the duties of the clerk, when the office of clerk is vacant, or at the clerk's office, when the clerk is absent therefrom, or at a term or sitting of the court which the deputy clerk attends.

Substituted for part of L. 1857, ch. 295; § 6; Am'd L. 1907, ch. 708. In effect Aug. 12, 1907.

§ 330. [Am'd, 1877.] Special deputy-clerks.

The clerk may designate as many of his assistants, as the justices of the court, or a majority of them deem necessary, as special deputy-clerks. Each special deputy-clerk possesses, in the absence of the clerk and a deputy-clerk, the same powers as the clerk, at any sitting or term of the court which he attends, with respect to the business transacted thereat.

§ 331. [Am'd, 1877.] Clerk to account monthly for fees, and pay over the same.

The clerk must receive, for the use of the city of New-York, the fees allowed by law. He shall not perform any service, for which a fee is allowed by law, until the fee therefor is paid to him. He must, on the first day of each month, or within three days thereafter, render to the comptroller of the city, an account, under oath, of all fees received, directly or indirectly, during the preceding month, by him, or by a deputy-clerk, or either of his assistants, for any official service; and he must, at the same time, pay the same into the treasury of the city of New-York. When the return and payment are so made, the clerk is entitled to receive his compensation, for the period included in the return. He is not entitled to compensation for a period, for which he has not made his return and payment.

L. 1849, ch. 144, § 5, am'd.

§ 332. [Am'd, 1906, 1907, 1918.] Stenographers.

The justices of the court or a majority of them may appoint ten stenographers of the court, and may at pleasure remove either of them. The justices of the court, or a majority of them, must, from time to time assign each of the stenographers to duty at the trial or special term. Each stenographer is entitled to a salary fixed and to be paid as prescribed by law and must attend the term to which he is assigned.

From L. 1876, ch. 413, §§ 1 and 4. Am'd by L. 1906, ch. 61; L. 1907, chs. 707, 708; L. 1918, ch. 88, in effect Mar. 26, 1918.

§ 333. [Am'd, 1877, 1907, 1909.] Official oath; interpreters.

The justices of the court or a majority of them, from time to time, must appoint, and may at pleasure remove, three official interpreters of the court, who are entitled to a salary, fixed and to be paid as prescribed by law. Before entering upon their official duties, the clerk, deputy clerks, assistant clerks, stenographers, interpreters and attendants must subscribe and file in the office of the clerk of the city of New York, the constitutional oath of office. Each interpreter must attend any trial or special term of the court, where his services are required; and the justice therein presiding shall regulate his attendance thereat.

Id. Am'd by L. 1907, chs. 707, 708; L. 1909, ch. 387. In effect Sept. 1, 1909.

§ 335. [Am'd, 1907, 1912.] The justices must appoint attendants.

The justices of the court or a majority of them must appoint, and may at pleasure remove, as many attendants upon the court as they deem necessary, not exceeding twenty-five. The justices of the court, or a majority of them, may regulate their attendance. Each attendant is entitled to a salary fixed, and to be paid as prescribed by law.

From L. 1876, ch. 413, §§ 1 and 4. Am'd by L. 1907, ch. 708; L. 1912, ch. 465. In effect Sept. 1, 1912.

§ 336. Clerks, interpreter and attendants not to receive fees.

The clerk, the deputy-clerk, an assistant to the clerk, the official interpreter, or an attendant shall not receive any fee or compensation, except his salary, for any official service performed by him.

L. 1872, ch. 438, § 3, am'd.

§ 337. [Am'd, 1877.] Suspension of an officer of the court.

A justice of the court may, by an instrument under his hand, suspend a stenographer, or an officer specified in the last section, for a period not exceeding ten days from the filing thereof. Such an instrument must express the cause of the suspension; it must be filed in the office of the clerk of the city and county of New York; and it may be revoked, at any time before the expiration of the period of suspension, by an instrument filed in like manner, under the hand of the justice who executed the first instrument, or the hands of a majority of the justices of the court. Where such an instrument has been revoked, the officer shall not be again suspended for the same cause.

Substituted for L. 1849, ch. 144, § 10.

§ 338. [Am'd, 1910.] What mandates may be executed without the city.

A mandate of the court can be executed only within the city of New York, except as follows:

1. An execution upon a judgment rendered therein, for a sum exceeding twenty-five dollars, may be issued out of the court, tested in the name of the chief justice thereof, to the sheriff of any county, wherein the judgment has been duly docketed.

2. A subpoena may be served within either of the counties of Richmond, Kings, Queens, or Westchester.

3. A warrant to apprehend a witness for a failure to obey a subpoena, may be executed by the sheriff of the city and county of New-York, or a marshal of that city, within either of those counties.

4. An order duly made, in an action or special proceeding pending in the court, requiring the performance of an act by a party thereto, or by an officer, may be served upon a person bound to obey the order, and his obedience thereto may be required in any part of the State.

5. An order to show cause, why a person should not be punished for a contempt of the court, may be served by any person in any part of the State.

6. A warrant to apprehend, and bring before the court, a person charged with such contempt, may be executed by the sheriff of the city and county of New York, or a marshal of that city, in any part of the State.

L. 1875, ch. 479, § 40. Am'd L. 1910, ch. 583; In effect June 22, 1910.

§ 339. [Am'd, 1895.] Direction and execution of mandates.

In an action brought in the court, an order of arrest, a warrant of attachment, an execution, or a requisition to replevy a chattel, must be directed to and executed by the sheriff. Any other mandate, which must have been directed to and executed by the sheriff of the city and county of New York, if it issued out of the supreme court, may, where it issues out of the city court, be directed to and executed either by that sheriff, or a marshal of that city, named therein. A marshal is entitled to the same fees as the sheriff, upon a mandate directed to him, or upon the service of a summons; and each provision of law, relating to the execution of a mandate by the sheriff, and the power and control of the court over the sheriff executing the same, applies to the marshal. The return of a marshal to such a mandate, or his certificate of the execution thereof, or of the service of any paper served by him, has the same force and effect, as the like return and certificate of a sheriff.

L. 1865, ch. 400, §§ 2 and 3; and L. 1872, ch. 629, § 8, as affected by L. 1875, ch. 625, and 2 R. L., § 114; L. 1895, ch. 946.

§ 339-a. [Added, 1912.] Destruction of useless records.

The justices of the city court, or a majority of them, may, upon petition of the clerk of such court, by order made at any term thereof, direct the clerk of the court to destroy any records or papers deposited or filed in his office which the justices of the court or a majority of them conclude to be no longer necessary for any purpose whatsoever.

Added by L. 1912, ch. 515. In effect Sept. 1, 1912.

- 361. Stenographers.

§ 340. [Am'd, 1895, 1909, 1910.] Jurisdiction.

The jurisdiction of each county court extends to the following actions and special proceedings, in addition to the jurisdiction, power, and authority, conferred upon a county court, in a particular case, by special statutory provision:

1. To an action for the partition of real property; for dower; for the foreclosure, redemption, or satisfaction of a mortgage upon real property; or to procure a judgment requiring a specific performance of a contract, relating to real property; where the real property, to which the action relates, is situated within the county; or to foreclose a lien upon a chattel, in a case specified in section two hundred and six of the lien law, where the lien does not exceed one thousand dollars in amount, and the chattel is found within the county.

2. To an action in favor of the executor, administrator or assignee of a judgment creditor, or in a proper case, in favor of the judgment creditor, to recover a judgment for money remaining due upon a judgment rendered in the same court.

3. To an action for any other cause, where the defendant is, or if there are two or more defendants, where all of them are, at the time of the commencement of the action, residents of the county, and wherein the complaint demands judgment for a sum of money only, not exceeding two thousand dollars; or to recover one or more chattels, the aggregate value of which does not exceed one thousand dollars, with or without damages for the taking or detention thereof.

4. To the custody of the person and the care of the property, concurrently with the supreme court, of a resident of the county, who is incompetent to manage his affairs, by reason of lunacy, imbecility, or habitual drunkenness; or imbecility arising from old age or loss of memory and understanding or other cause; and to every special proceeding, which the supreme court has jurisdiction to entertain, for the appointment of a committee of the person or of the property of such an incompetent person or for the sale or other disposition of the real property situated within the county of a person, wherever resident, who is so incompetent for either of the reasons aforesaid, or who is an infant; or for the sale or other disposition of the real property, situated within the county, of a domestic religious corporation.

L. 1895, ch. 946; Co. Proc., § 30, part of subd. 1, as am'd 1870, ch. 467, § 1. Am'd by L. 1909, ch. 65, § 3; L. 1910, ch. 123. In effect Sept. 1, 1910. See note 38a of notes of Board of Statutory Consolidation at end of code.

§ 341. [Am'd, 1899, 1911, 1914.] Domestic corporations, etc., when deemed resident, etc.

For the purpose of determining the jurisdiction of a county court, in either of the cases specified in the last section, a domestic corporation or joint-stock association, whose principal place of business is established, by or pursuant to a statute, or by its articles of association, or whose principal place of business or any part of its plant or plants, shops, factories or offices is actually located within the county, or in case of a railroad corporation where any portion of the road operated by it is within the county, it is deemed a resident of the county; and personal service of a summons, made within the county, as prescribed in this act, or personal service of a mandate, whereby a special proceeding is commenced, made within the county, as prescribed in this act for personal service of a summons, is sufficient service thereof upon a domestic corporation wherever it is located. Provided, however, that a city which shall include within its boundaries more than one county shall not for the purpose of conferring jurisdiction on a county court be deemed a domestic corporation resident of any county so included.

Am'd by L. 1899, ch. 320; L. 1911, ch. 68 and L. 1914, ch. 350, in effect April 15, 1914.

§ 342. [Am'd, 1877.] Action, etc., wherein county judge is incapable to act.

If the county judge is, for any cause, incapable to act in an action or special proceeding, pending in the county court, or before him, he must make, and file in the office of the clerk, a certificate of the fact; and thereupon the special county judge, if any, and if not disqualified, must act as county judge in that action or special proceeding. Upon the filing of the certificate, where there is no special county judge, or the special county judge is disqualified, the action or special proceeding is removed to the supreme court, if it is then pending in the county court; if it is pending before the county judge, it may be continued before any justice of the supreme court within the same judicial district. The supreme court, upon the application of either party, made upon notice, and upon proof that the county judge is incapable to act in an action or special proceeding pending in the county court, may, and if the special county judge is also incapable to act, must, make an order removing it to the supreme court. Thereupon the subsequent proceedings in the supreme court must be the same as if it had originally been brought in that court, except that an objection to the jurisdiction may be taken, which might have been taken in the county court.

See last clause, subd. 13 of § 30, Co. Proc., as am'd 1876, ch. 431.

§ 343. Supreme court may remove action, and change place of trial.

The supreme court may, by an order, made at any time after joinder of an issue of fact, and before the trial thereof, remove to itself an action, brought in a county court, under subdivision second or subdivision third of the last section but two, for the purpose of changing the place of trial thereof. Where an order for removal is made, as prescribed in this section, the place of trial of the action must be changed by the same order to another county; and the subsequent proceedings therein must be the same, as if the action had been originally brought in the supreme court.

See last clause, subd. 1 of same section

§ 344. Effect of order of removal; appeal, etc.

An order of removal, made as prescribed in either of the last two sections, takes effect upon the entry thereof in the office of the county clerk. Where the order directs that the action be tried in another county, the clerk with whom it is entered, must forthwith deliver to the clerk of that county, all papers filed therein, and certified copies of all minutes and entries relating thereto; which must be filed, entered, or recorded, as the case requires, in the office of the last mentioned clerk. The provisions of section 271 of this act apply to an appeal taken from such an order.

§ 345. Stay of proceedings.

An order to stay proceedings, for the purpose of affording an opportunity to make the application for removal, may be made by the county judge, or by a judge authorized to make such an order in the supreme court, and with like effect and under like circumstances.

§ 346. Removal of action not to impair process, etc.

The removal of an action or special proceeding, as prescribed in this title, does not invalidate, or in any manner impair, a process, provisional remedy, or other proceeding, or a bond, undertaking, or recognizance in the action or special proceeding so removed; each of which continues to have the same validity and effect, as if the removal had not been made. Where bail was given, the surrender of the defendant in the supreme court has the same effect, as a surrender in the county court would have had, if the action or special proceeding had remained therein.

§ 347. County court may send its process to any county.

A county court has power, in an action or special proceeding of which it has jurisdiction, to send its process and other mandates into any county of the State, for service or execution, and to enforce obedience thereto, with like power and authority as the supreme court.

§ 348. When jurisdiction, etc., co-extensive with supreme court.

Where a county court has jurisdiction of an action or a special proceeding, it possesses the same jurisdiction, power and authority in and over the same, and in the course of the proceedings therein, which the supreme court possesses in a like case; and it may render any judgment, or grant either party any relief, which the supreme court might render or grant in a like case, and may enforce its mandates in like manner as the supreme court. And the county judge possesses the same power and authority, in the action or special proceeding, which a justice of the supreme court possesses, in a like action or special proceeding, brought in the supreme court.

§ 349. Power of county judge in special proceedings.

The county judge also possesses the same power and authority, in a special proceeding, which can be lawfully instituted before him, out of court, which a justice of the supreme court possesses in a like special proceeding, instituted before him in like manner.

§ 350. Fines and penalties; how remitted.

Upon the application of a person, who has been fined by a court, or of a person whose recognizance has become forfeited, or of his surety, the county court of the county in which the term of the court was held, where the fine was imposed, or the recognizance taken, may, except as otherwise prescribed in the next section, upon good cause shown, and upon such terms as it deems just, make an order, remitting the fine, wholly or partly, or the forfeiture of the recognizance, or part of the penalty thereof; or it may discharge the recognizance. If a fine so remitted has been paid, the county treasurer, or other officer, in whose hands the money remains, must pay the same, or the part remitted, according to the order.

2 R. S. 486, § 37.

§ 351. [Am'd, 1895.] Restrictions upon power to remit.

The last section does not authorize a county court to remit any part of a fine exceeding two hundred and fifty dollars imposed by the supreme court upon conviction for a criminal offense; or a fine to any amount imposed by a court upon an officer or other person, for an actual contempt of court, or for disobedience to its process, or other mandate; or to remit or discharge a recognizance taken in its county for the appearance of a person in another county. In the latter case, the power of remitting or discharging the recognizance is vested in the county court of the county, in which the person is bound to appear.

Id., § 38, am'd; L. 1895, ch. 946.

§ 352. Notice of application, etc.; costs to be paid on remission.

An application for an order, as prescribed in the last section but one, cannot be heard, until such notice thereof as the court deems reasonable, has been given to the district-attorney of the county, and until he has had an opportunity to examine the matter, and prepare to resist the application. And upon granting such an order, the court must always impose, as a condition thereof, the payment of the costs and expenses, if any, incurred in an action or special proceeding for the collection of the fine, or the penalty of the recognizance.

Id., §§ 39 and 41.

§ 353. Fines imposed by justices of the peace; how remitted.

Where a person has been fined by a court of special sessions, or by a justice of the peace, upon a conviction for an offence, and has been committed to jail for non-payment of the fine, the county court of the county may make an order, remitting the fine, wholly or partly, and discharging him from his imprisonment. The power conferred by this section must be exercised in the manner prescribed, and subject to the provisions contained, in the last three sections.

Id., § 42.

§ 354. Who may make orders.

In an action or special proceeding in a county court, an order may be made without notice, or an order to stay proceedings may be made upon notice, by a justice of the supreme court, or by the county judge of the county where the attorney for the applicant resides, in a case where the county judge, in whose court the action or special proceeding is brought, may make the same, out of court; and with like effect.

See L. 1847, ch. 280, § 34.

§ 355. [Am'd, 1877, 1909.] County court sessions and terms.

The county court is always open for the transaction of any business, for which notice is not required to be given to an adverse party, except where it is specially prescribed by law, that the business must be done at a stated term.

See Co. Proc., § 31, and L. 1847, ch. 470, part of § 24. Am'd by L. 1909, ch. 65. Also partly repealed by L. 1909, ch. 35. See Consolidated Laws, tit. Judiciary Law, §§ 190-191. See note 39 of notes of Board of Statutory Consolidation at end of code.

CHAPTER IV.

Limitation of the Time of Enforcing a Civil Remedy.

TITLE I.—Actions for the Recovery of Real Property.

TITLE II.—Actions other than for the Recovery of Real Property.

TITLE III.—General Provisions.

TITLE I.

Actions for the recovery of real property.

Sec. 362. When the people will not sue.

363. Action by grantee from the State.

364. Action after annulling letters patent.

365, 366. Seizin within twenty years, when necessary, etc.

367. Action after entry.

368. Possession, when presumed; occupation presumed to be under legal title.

369. Adverse possession under written instrument, or judgment.

370. Id.; what constitutes it.

371. Adverse possession under claim of title not written.

372. Id., what constitutes it.

373. Relation of landlord and tenant, as affecting adverse possession.

374. Right not affected by descent cast.

375. Certain disabilities excluded from time to commence action.

§ 362. When the people will not sue.

The people of the State will not sue a person for or with respect to real property, or the issues or profits thereof, by reason of the right or title of the people to the same, unless either,

1. The cause of action accrued within forty years before the action is commenced; or,

2. The people, or those from whom they claim, have received the rents and profits of the real property, or of some part thereof, within the same period of time.

Co. Proc., § 75, am'd.

§ 363. Action by grantee from the State.

An action shall not be brought for or with respect to real property, by a person claiming by virtue of letters patent or a grant, from the people of the State, unless it might have been maintained by the people, as prescribed in this title, if the patent or grant had not been issued or made.

Id., § 76.

§ 364. Action after annulling letters patent.

Where letters patent or a grant of real property, issued or made by the people of the State, are declared void by the determination of a competent court, rendered upon an allegation of a fraudulent suggestion or concealment, or of a forfeiture, or mistake, or ignorance of a material fact, or wrongful detaining, or defective title; an action of ejectment, to recover the premises in question, may be commenced, either by the people, or by a subsequent patentee or grantee of the same premises, his heirs, or assigns, within twenty years after the determination is made; but not after that period.

Id., § 77.

§ 365. Seizin within twenty years, when necessary, etc.

An action to recover real property, or the possession thereof, cannot be maintained by a party, other than the people, unless the plaintiff, his ancestor, predecessor, or grantor, was seized or possessed of the premises in question, within twenty years before the commencement of the action.

Co. Proc., § 78.

§ 366. The same.

A defence or counterclaim, founded upon the title to real property, or to rents or services out of the same, is not effectual, unless the person making it, or under whose title it is made, or his ancestor, predecessor, or grantor, was seized or possessed of the premises in question, within twenty years before the committing of the act, with respect to which it is made.

Id., § 79, am'd.

§ 367. Action after entry.

An entry upon real property is not sufficient or valid as a claim, unless an action is commenced thereupon, within one year after the making thereof, and within twenty years after the time, when the right to make it descended or accrued.

Id., § 80.

§ 368. Possession, when presumed; occupation presumed to be under legal title.

In an action to recover real property, or the possession thereof, the person who establishes a legal title to the premises is presumed to have been possessed thereof, within the time required by law; and the occupation of the premises, by another person, is deemed to have been under and in subordination to the legal title, unless the premises have been held and possessed adversely to the legal title, for twenty years before the commencement of the action.

Id., § 81.

§ 369. Adverse possession under written instrument or judgment.

Where the occupant, or those under whom he claims, entered into the possession of the premises, under claim of title, exclusive of any other right, founding the claim upon a written instrument, as being a conveyance of the premises in question, or upon the decree or judgment of a competent court; and there has been a continued occupation and possession of the premises, included in the instrument, decree, or judgment, or of some part thereof, for twenty years, under the same claim; the premises so included are deemed to have been held adversely; except that where they consist of a tract, divided into lots, the possession of one lot is not deemed a possession of any other lot.

Id., § 82.

§ 370. Id.; what constitutes it.

For the purpose of constituting an adverse possession, by a person claiming a title, founded upon a written instrument, or a judgment or decree, land is deemed to have been possessed and occupied in either of the following cases:

1. Where it has been usually cultivated or improved.
2. Where it has been protected by a substantial inclosure.

3. Where, although not inclosed, it has been used for the supply of fuel, or of fencing timber, either for the purposes of husbandry, or for the ordinary use of the occupant.

Where a known farm or a single lot has been partly improved, the portion of the farm or lot that has been left not cleared, or not inclosed, according to the usual course and custom of the adjoining country, is deemed to have been occupied for the same length of time, as the part improved and cultivated.

Co. Proc., § 88, am'd.

§ 371. Adverse possession under claim of title not written.

Where there has been an actual continued occupation of premises, under a claim of title, exclusive of any other right, but not founded upon a written instrument, or a judgment or decree, the premises so actually occupied, and no others, are deemed to have been held adversely.

Id., § 84.

§ 372. Id.; what constitutes it.

For the purpose of constituting an adverse possession, by a person claiming title, not founded upon a written instrument, or a judgment or decree, land is deemed to have been possessed and occupied in either of the following cases, and no others:

1. Where it has been protected by a substantial inclosure.
2. Where it has been usually cultivated or improved.

Id., § 85.

§ 373. Relation of landlord and tenant, as affecting adverse possession.

Where the relation of landlord and tenant has existed between any persons the possession of the tenant is deemed the possession of the landlord, until the expiration of twenty years after the termination of the tenancy; or, where there has been no written lease, until the expiration of twenty years after the last payment of rent; notwithstanding that the tenant has acquired another title, or has claimed to hold adversely to his landlord. But this presumption shall not be made, after the periods prescribed in this section.

Id., § 86.

§ 374. Right not affected by descent cast.

The right of a person to the possession of real property is not impaired or affected, by a descent being cast, in consequence of the death of a person in possession of the property.

Id., § 87.

§ 375. Certain disabilities excluded from time to commence action.

If a person, who might maintain an action to recover real property, or the possession thereof, or make an entry, or interpose a defence or counterclaim, founded on the title to real property, or to rents or services out of the same, is when his title first descends, or his cause of action or right of entry first accrues, either:

1. Within the age of twenty-one years; or,
2. Insane; or,
3. Imprisoned on a criminal charge, or in execution upon conviction of a criminal offence, for a term less than for life:

The time of such a disability is not a part of the time, limited in this title, for commencing the action, or making the entry, or interposing the defence or counterclaim; except that the time so limited cannot be extended more than ten years, after the disability ceases, or after the death of the person so disabled.

Co. Proc., § 88.

TITLE II.*Actions other than for the recovery of real property.

Sec. 376. When satisfaction of judgment presumed.

377. Effect of return of execution.

378. How presumption raised.

379. Limitation of action to redeem from a mortgage.

380. Other periods of limitation.

381. Within twenty years.

382. Within six years.

383. Within three years.

384. Within two years.

385. Within one year.

386. When cause of action accrues on a current account.

387. Action for penalty, etc., by any person who will sue.

388. Actions not before provided for.

389. Actions by the people subject to the same limitations.

390. Actions against a non-resident, upon a demand barred by the law of his residence.

390a. Limitation of time to enforce a cause of action arising in another state.

391. When person liable, etc., dies without the state.

392. Cause of action accruing between the death of a testator or intestate, and the grant of letters.

393. No limitation of action on bank notes, etc.

394. Action against directors, etc., of banks.

395. Acknowledgment or new promise must be in writing.

396. Exceptions, as to persons under disabilities.

397. Defence or counterclaim.

§ 376. [Am'd, 1894.] When satisfaction of judgment presumed.

A final judgment or decree for a sum of money, or directing the payment of a sum of money, heretofore rendered in a surrogate's court of the State, or heretofore or hereafter rendered, in a court of record within the United States, or elsewhere, or hereafter docketed pursuant to the provisions of section thirty hundred and seventeen of this act, is presumed to be paid and satisfied, after the expiration of twenty years from the time, when the party recovering it was first entitled to a mandate to enforce it. This presumption is conclusive, except as against a person, who, within twenty years from that time, makes a payment or acknowledges an indebtedness of some part of the amount recovered by the judgment or decree, or his heir or personal representative, or a person whom he otherwise represents. Such an acknowledgment must be in writing, and signed by the person to be charged thereby.

L. 1894, ch. 307.

§ 377. Effect of return of execution.

If the proof of payment, under the last section, consists of the return of an execution partly satisfied, the adverse party may show, in full avoidance of the effect thereof, that the alleged partial satisfaction did not proceed from a payment made, or a sale of property claimed, by him or by a person whom he represents.

§ 378. How presumption raised.

A person may avail himself of the presumption created by the last section but one, under an allegation that the action was not commenced, or that the proceeding was not taken, within the time therein limited.

§ 379. Limitation of action to redeem from a mortgage.

An action to redeem real property from a mortgage, with or without an account of rents and profits, may be maintained by the mortgagor, or those claiming under him, against the mortgagee in possession, or those claiming under him, unless he or they have continuously maintained an adverse possession of the mortgaged premises, for twenty years after the breach of a condition of the mortgage, or the non-fulfilment of a covenant therein contained.

§ 380. Other periods of limitation.

The following actions must be commenced within the following periods, after the cause of action has accrued.

Co. Proc., part of § 74, and § 89.

§ 381. [Am'd, 1877.] Within twenty years.

Within twenty years:

An action upon a sealed instrument.

But where the action is brought for breach of a covenant of seizin, or against incumbrances, the cause of action is, for the purposes of this section only, deemed to have accrued upon an eviction, and not before.

Id., part of § 90.

§ 382. [Am'd, 1877, ch. 416 and 422.] Within six years.

Within six years:

1. An action upon a contract obligation or liability express or implied; except a judgment or sealed instrument.

2. An action to recover upon a liability created by statute; except a penalty or forfeiture.

3. An action to recover damages for an injury to property, or a personal injury; except in a case where a different period is expressly prescribed in this chapter. (See § 383, subd. 5; § 384, subd. 1.).

4. An action to recover a chattel.

5. An action to procure a judgment, other than for a sum of money, on the ground of fraud, in a case which, on the thirty-first day of December, 1846, was cognizable by the court of chancery. The cause of action, in such a case, is not deemed to have accrued, until the discovery, by the plaintiff, or the person under whom he claims, of the facts constituting the fraud.

6. An action to establish a will. Where the will has been lost, concealed, or destroyed, the cause of action is not deemed to have accrued, until the discovery, by the plaintiff, or the person under whom he claims, of the facts upon which its validity depends.

7. [Am'd, 1894.] An action upon a judgment or decree, rendered in a court not of record, except where a transcript shall be filed, pursuant to section thirty hundred and seventeen of this act, and, also, except a decree heretofore rendered in a surrogate's court of the State. The cause of action, in such a case, is deemed to have accrued when final judgment was rendered.

L. 1894, ch. 307.

§ 383. [Am'd, 1877.] Within three years.

Within three years:

1. An action against a sheriff, coroner, constable, or other officer, for the non-payment of money collected upon an execution.

2. An action against a constable, upon any other liability incurred by him, by doing an act in his official capacity, or by the omission of an official duty; except an escape.

3. An action upon a statute, for a penalty or forfeiture, where the action is given to the person aggrieved, or to that person and the people of the State, except where the statute imposing it prescribes a different limitation.

4. An action against an executor, administrator, or receiver, or against the trustee of an insolvent debtor, appointed, as prescribed by law, in a special proceeding instituted in a court or before a judge, brought to recover a chattel, or damages for taking, detaining, or injuring personal property, by the defendant, or the person whom he represents.

5. An action to recover damages for a personal injury, resulting from negligence.

Substitute for Co. Proc., § 92; L. 1886, ch. 572; L. 1889, ch. 440; L. 1902, ch. 600, § 2.

§ 384. [Am'd, 1896, 1900.] Within two years.

Within two years:

1. An action to recover damages for libel, slander, assault battery, seduction, criminal conversation, false imprisonment, malicious prosecution or malpractice.

2. An action upon a statute, for a forfeiture or penalty to the people of the State.

Co. Proc., § 93, am'd. See post, § 1902. L. 1896, ch. 335; L. 1900, ch. 117. In effect Sept. 1, 1900.

§ 385. Within one year.

Within one year:

1. An action against a sheriff or coroner, upon a liability incurred by him, by doing an act in his official capacity, or by the omission of an official duty; except the non-payment of money collected upon an execution.

2. An action against any other officer, for the escape of a prisoner, arrested or imprisoned by virtue of a civil mandate.

Substitute for Co. Proc., § 94. See 1 R. S. 772, § 8; L. 1902, ch. 600, § 2.

§ 386. When cause of action accrues on a current account.

In an action brought to recover a balance due upon a mutual, open, and current account, where there have been reciprocal demands between the parties, the cause of action is deemed to have accrued from the time of the last item, proved in the account on either side.

Co. Proc., § 95.

§ 387. Action for penalty, etc., by any person who will sue.

An action upon a statute for a penalty or forfeiture, given wholly or partly to any person who will prosecute for the same, must be commenced within one year after the commission of the offence; and if the action is not commenced within the year by a private person, it may be commenced within two years thereafter, in behalf of the people of the State, by the attorney-general, or the district-attorney of the county where the offence was committed.

Id., § 96.

§ 388. Actions not before provided for.

An action, the limitation of which is not specially prescribed in this or the last title, must be commenced within ten years after the cause of action accrues.

Id., § 97. See § 1972.

§ 389. Actions by the people subject to the same limitations.

The limitations, prescribed in this title, apply alike to actions brought in the name of the people of the State, or for their benefit, and to actions by private persons.

Co. Proc., § 96.

§ 390. [Am'd. 1916.] Action against a nonresident, upon a demand barred by the law of his residence.

Where a cause of action, which does not involve the title to or possession of real property within the state, accrues against a person, who is not then a resident of the state, an action cannot be brought thereon in a court of the state, against him or his personal representative, after the expiration of the time, limited, by the laws of his residence, for bringing a like action, provided that if the limitation of the time fixed by the laws of his residence for bringing such action be less than the time fixed by the laws of this state for a like action, the limitation fixed by the laws of this state shall apply. This section shall not apply to a case in which a person is entitled, when this section as amended takes effect, to commence such action, where he commences the same before the expiration of six months after this section as amended takes effect; in which case the provisions of law applicable thereto immediately before this section as amended takes effect shall continue to be so applicable, notwithstanding the repeal thereof.

Am'd by L. 1916, ch. 536, in effect May 15, 1916.

§ 390-a. [Added, 1902.] Limitation of time to enforce a cause of action arising in another state.

Where a cause of action arises outside of this state, an action cannot be brought, in a court of this state, to enforce said cause of action, after the expiration of the time limited by the laws of the state or country where the cause of action arose, for bringing an action upon said cause of action, except where the cause of action originally accrued in favor of a resident of this state. Nothing in this act contained shall affect any pending action or proceeding.

L. 1902, ch. 193. In effect Sept. 1, 1902.

§ 391. [Am'd, 1877.] When person liable, etc., dies without the State.

If a person, against whom a cause of action exists, dies without the State, the time which elapses between his death, and the expiration of eighteen months after the issuing, within the State, of letters testamentary or letters of administration, is not a part of the time limited for the commencement of an action therefor, against his executor or administrator.

§ 392. [Am'd, 1877.] Cause of action accruing between the death of a testator or intestate, and the grant of letters.

For the purpose of computing the time, within which an action must be commenced in a court of the State, by an executor or administrator, to recover personal property, taken after the death of a testator or intestate, and before the issuing of letters testamentary or letters of administration; or to recover damages for taking, detaining, or injuring personal property within the same period; the letters are deemed to have been issued, within six years after the death of the testator or intestate. But where an action is barred by this section, any of the next of kin, legatees, or creditors, who, at the time of the transaction upon which it might have been founded, was within the age of twenty-one years, or insane, or imprisoned on a criminal charge, may, within five years after the cessation of such a disability, maintain an action to recover damages by reason thereof: in which he may recover such sum, or the value of such property, as he would have received upon the final distribution of the estate, if an action had been seasonably commenced by the executor or administrator.

§ 393. No limitation of action on bank notes, etc.

This chapter does not affect an action to enforce the payment of a bill, note, or other evidence of debt issued by a moneyed corporation, or issued or put in circulation as money.

Co. Proc., § 108.

§ 394. [Am'd, 1877, 1897.] Action against directors, etc., of banks.

This chapter does not affect an action against a director or stockholder of a moneyed corporation, or banking association, to recover a penalty or forfeiture imposed, or to enforce a liability created by the common law or by statute; but such an action must be brought within three years after the cause of action has accrued.

Co. Proc., § 109, am'd; L. 1897, ch. 281. In effect September 1, 1897.

§ 395. Acknowledgment or new promise must be in writing.

An acknowledgment or promise contained in a writing, signed by the party to be charged thereby, is the only competent evidence of a new or continuing contract, whereby to take a case out of the operation of this title. But this section does not alter the effect of a payment of principal or interest.

Id., § 110.

§ 396. Exceptions, as to persons under disabilities.

If a person, entitled to maintain an action specified in this title, except for a penalty or forfeiture, or against a sheriff or other officer for an escape, is, at the time when the cause of action accrues, either:

1. Within the age of twenty-one years; or,
2. Insane; or,
3. Imprisoned on a criminal charge, or in execution upon conviction of a criminal offence, for a term less than for life;

The time of such a disability is not a part of the time limited in this title for commencing the action; except that the time so limited cannot be extended more than five years by any such disability, except infancy; or in any case, more than one year after the disability ceases.

Id., § 101.

§ 397. Defence or counterclaim.

A cause of action, upon which an action cannot be maintained, as prescribed in this title, cannot be effectually interposed as a defence or counterclaim.

TITLE III.*General provisions.

- Sec. 398. When action deemed to be commenced.
399. Attempt to commence action in a court of record.
400. Id.; in a court not of record.
401. Exception, when defendant is without the State.
402. Id.; when a person entitled, etc., dies before limitation expires.
403. Id.; when a person liable, etc., dies within the State.
404. In suits by aliens, time of disability in case of war to be deducted.
405. Provision where judgment has been reversed.
406. Stay by injunction, etc., to be deducted.
407. Certain actions by a principal, for misconduct of an agent, etc.
408. Disability must exist when right accrues.
409. If several disabilities, no limitation until all removed.
410. Provision when the action cannot be maintained without a demand.
411. Provision in case of submission to arbitration.
412. Provision when action is discontinued, etc., after answer.
413. How objection taken, under this chapter.
414. Cases to which this chapter applies.
415. Mode of computing periods of limitation.

§ 398. [Am'd, 1877.] When action deemed to be commenced.

An action is commenced against a defendant, within the meaning of any provision of this act, which limits the time for commencing an action, when the summons is served on him; or on a co-defendant who is a joint contractor, or otherwise united in interest with him.

Ca. Proc., § 99, am'd.

§ 399. Attempt to commence action in a court of record.

An attempt to commence an action, in a court of record, is equivalent to the commencement thereof against each defendant, within the meaning of each provision of this act, which limits the time for commencing an action, when the summons is delivered, with the intent that it shall be actually served, to the sheriff, or, where the sheriff is a party, to a coroner of the county, in which that defendant, or one of two or more co-defendants, who are joint contractors, or otherwise united in interest with him, resides or last resided; or, if the defendant is a corporation, to a like officer of the county, in which it is established by law, or wherein its general business is or was last transacted, or wherein it keeps, or last kept, an office for the transaction of business. But in order to entitle a plaintiff to the benefit of this section, the delivery of the summons to an officer must be followed, within sixty days after the expiration of the time limited for the actual commencement of the action, by personal service thereof upon the defendant sought to be charged, or by the first publication of the summons, as against that defendant, pursuant to an order for service upon him in that manner.

Id., part of § 99, am'd.

§ 400. Id.; in a court not of record.

The last section, excluding the provision requiring a publication or service of the summons within sixty days, applies to an attempt to commence an action, in a court not of record, where the summons is delivered to an officer authorized to serve the same, within the city or town, wherein the person resides or the corporation is located, as specified in that section; provided that actual service thereof is made with due diligence.

*§ 401. [Am'd, 1888, 1896.] Exception, when defendant is without the State.

If, when the cause of action accrues against a person, he is without the State, the action may be commenced within the time limited therefor, after his return into the State. If, after a cause of action has accrued against a person, he departs from the State, and remains continuously absent therefrom for the space of one year or more, or if, without the knowledge of the person entitled to maintain the action, he resides within the State under a false name, the time of his absence or of such residence within the State under such false name is not a part of the time, limited for the commencement of the action. But this section does not apply, while a designation, made as prescribed in section four hundred and thirty, or in subdivision second of section four hundred and thirty-two, of this act, remains in force.

Co. Proc., § 100, am'd; L. 1888, ch. 498; L. 1896, ch. 665. In effect Sept. 1, 1896. See ante, § 390.

§ 402. Id.; when a person entitled, etc., dies before limitation expires.

If a person, entitled to maintain an action, dies before the expiration of the time limited for the commencement thereof, and the cause of action survives, an action may be commenced by his representative, after the expiration of that time, and within one year after his death.

Id., § 102, am'd.

§ 403. [Am'd, 1891, 1896.] Id.; when a person liable, dies within the State.

The term of eighteen months after the death, within this state, of a person against whom a cause of action exists, or of a person who shall have died within sixty days after an attempt shall have been made to commence an action against him pursuant to the provisions of section three hundred and ninety-nine of this act, is not a part of the time limited for the commencement of an action against his executor or administrator. If letters testamentary or letters of administration upon his estate are not issued, within this state, at least six months before the expiration of the time to bring the action, as extended by the foregoing provision of this section, the term of one year after such letters are issued is not a part of the time limited for the commencement of such an action. The time during which an action is pending in a court of record between a person or persons and an executor or administrator, wherein the person or persons claim to recover from the executor or administrator any money or other property claimed by said executor or administrator to belong to the estate of the decedent, or is embraced in the inventory of the assets of said decedent's estate, is not a part of the time limited for the commencement of an action against an executor or administrator, for a claim against the estate of the decedent until the final determination of the action brought to recover said or other property claimed by said executor or administrator to belong to said decedent's estate:

1. Where the claim against the estate of the decedent is liquidated by the recovery of a judgment thereon against an executor or administrator in an action in a court of record or under section twenty-seven hundred and eighteen of this code, after trial on the merits.

2. Where a legatee brings an action, or institutes a proceeding, against an executor or administrator with the will annexed, to enforce the payment of a legacy.

L. 1891, ch. 70; L. 1896, ch. 897. In effect May 26, 1896.

§ 404. In suits by aliens, time of disability in case of war to be deducted.

Where a person is disabled to sue in the courts of the State, by reason of either party being an alien subject or citizen of a country, at war with the United States, the time of the continuance of the disability is not a part of the time limited for the commencement of the action.

Co. Proc., § 103, am'd.

§ 405. Provision where judgment has been reversed.

If an action is commenced within the time limited therefor, and a judgment therein is reversed on appeal, without awarding a new trial, or the action is terminated in any other manner than by a voluntary discontinuance, a dismissal of the complaint for neglect to prosecute the action, or a final judgment upon the merits; the plaintiff, or, if he dies, and the cause of action survives, his representative, may commence a new action for the same cause, after the expiration of the time so limited, and within one year after such a reversal or termination.

Id., § 104.

§ 406. Stay by injunction, etc., to be deducted.

Where the commencement of an action has been stayed by injunction, or other order of a court or judge, or by statutory prohibition, the time of the continuance of the stay is not a part of the time, limited for the commencement of the action.

Id., § 105, am'd. See § 1923.

§ 407. Certain actions by a principal, for misconduct of an agent, etc.

Where an injury results from the act or omission of a deputy or agent, the time, within which an action to recover damages by reason thereof, must be commenced by the principal, against the deputy or agent, must be computed from the time, when a judgment against the principal, for the act or omission, is first recovered by the aggrieved person; and a subsequent reversal or setting aside of the judgment does not extend the time.

§ 408. Disability must exist when right accrues.

A person cannot avail himself of a disability, unless it existed when his right of action or of entry accrued.

Co. Proc., § 106, am'd.

§ 409. If several disabilities, no limitation until all removed.

Where two or more disabilities co-exist, when the right of action or of entry accrues, the limitation does not attach, until all are removed.

Id., § 107, am'd.

§ 410. Provision when the action cannot be maintained without a demand.

Where a right exists, but a demand is necessary to entitle a person to maintain an action, the time, within which the action must be commenced, must be computed from the time, when the right to make the demand is complete; except in one of the following cases:

1. Where the right grows out of the receipt or detention of money or property, by an agent, trustee, attorney, or other person acting in a fiduciary capacity, the time must be computed from the time, when the person, having the right to make the demand, has actual knowledge of the facts, upon which that right depends.

2. Where there was a deposit of money, not to be repaid at a fixed time, but only upon a special demand, or a delivery of personal property, not to be returned, specifically or in kind, at a fixed time or upon a fixed contingency, the time must be computed from the demand.

§ 411. Provision in case of submission to arbitration.

Where the persons, who might be adverse parties in an action, have entered into a written agreement to submit to arbitration, or to refer the cause of action, or a controversy in which it might be available, or have entered into a written submission thereof to arbitrators; and before an award, or other determination thereupon, the agreement or submission is revoked, so as to render it ineffectual, by the death of either party thereto, or by the act of the person against whom the action might have been brought; or the execution thereof, or the remedy upon an award or other determination thereunder, is stayed by injunction, or other order procured by him from a competent court or judge: the time which has elapsed, between the entering into the written submission or agreement, and the revocation thereof or the expiration of the stay, is not a part of the time, limited for the commencement of the action.

§ 412. Provision when action is discontinued, etc., after answer.

Where a defendant in an action has interposed an answer, in support of which he would be entitled to rely, at the trial, upon a defence or counterclaim then existing in his favor, the remedy upon which at the time of the commencement of the action, was not barred by the provisions of this chapter; and the complaint is dismissed, or the action is discontinued, or abates in consequence of the plaintiff's death; the time which intervened, between the commencement and the termination of the action, is not a part of the time, limited for the commencement of an action by the defendant, to recover for the cause of action so interposed as a defence, or to interpose the same defence in another action brought by the same plaintiff, or a person deriving title from or under him.

§ 413. How objection taken, under this chapter.

The objection, that the action was not commenced within the time limited, can be taken only by answer. The corresponding objection to a defence or counterclaim can be taken only by reply; except where a reply is not required, in order to enable the plaintiff to raise an issue of fact, upon an allegation contained in the answer.

Co. Proc., part of § 74.

§ 414. Cases to which this chapter applies.

The provisions of this chapter apply, and constitute the only rules of limitation applicable, to a civil action or special proceeding, except in one of the following cases:

1. A case, where a different limitation is specially prescribed by law, or a shorter limitation is prescribed by the written contract of the parties.

2. A cause of action or a defence which accrued before the first day of July, 1848. The statutes then in force govern, with respect to such a cause of action or defence.

3. A case, not included in the last subdivision, in which a person is entitled, when this act takes effect, to commence an action, or to institute a special proceeding, or to take any proceeding therein, or to pursue a remedy upon a judgment, where he commences, institutes, or otherwise resorts to the same, before the expiration of two years after this act takes effect; in either of which cases, the provisions of law applicable thereto, immediately before this act takes effect, continue to be so applicable, notwithstanding the repeal thereof.

4. A case, where the time to commence an action has expired, when this act takes effect.

The word, "action", contained in this chapter, is to be construed, when it is necessary so to do, as including a special proceeding, or any proceeding therein, or in an action.

§ 415. Mode of computing periods of limitation.

The periods of limitation, prescribed by this chapter, except as otherwise specially prescribed therein, must be computed from the time of the accruing of the right to relief by action, special proceeding, defence, or otherwise, as the case requires, to the time when the claim to that relief is actually interposed by the party, as a plaintiff or a defendant, in the particular action or special proceeding.

CHAPTER V.

Commencement of and Parties to an Action.

TITLE I.—Commencement of an Action.

TITLE II.—Parties to an Action.

TITLE I.

Commencement of an action.

- Article 1. The summons and accompanying papers; personal service thereof; appearance of the defendant.
 2. Substitutes for personal service in special cases.

ARTICLE FIRST.

The summons and accompanying papers; personal service thereof; appearance of the defendant.

- Sec. 416. Action to be commenced by summons; time when court acquires jurisdiction.
 417. Requisites of summons.
 418. Form of summons.
 419. Service of copy complaint or notice with summons; consequence of failure.
 420. Cases where such service must be made.
 421. Appearance of defendant.
 422. When defendant must answer before time to appear expires.
 423. Notice of no personal claim; effect of service thereof.
 424. Effect of voluntary appearance.
 425. Summons; when and by whom served. Sheriff's duty.
 426. How personal service of summons made upon a natural person.
 427, 428. Id.; in certain cases of infancy, or lunacy, etc., not judicially declared.
 429. Id.; when delivery of copy to lunatic dispensed with.
 430. Designation, by a resident, of a person upon whom to serve a summons during his absence; effect and revocation thereof.
 431. How personal service of summons made upon a domestic corporation.
 432. Id.; upon a foreign corporation.
 433. Service of process, etc., to commence a special proceeding.
 434. Proof of service of summons, etc.; how made.

§ 416. Action to be commenced by summons; time when court acquires jurisdiction.

A civil action is commenced by the service of a summons. But from the time of the granting of a provisional remedy, the court acquires jurisdiction, and has control of all the subsequent proceedings. Nevertheless, jurisdiction thus acquired is conditional, and liable to be divested, in a case where the jurisdiction of the court is made dependent, by a special provision of law, upon some act, to be done after the granting of the provisional remedy.

Co. Proc., part of § 127, and id., § 139.

§ 417. [Am'd, 1870.] Requisites of summons.

The summons must contain the title of the action, specifying the court in which the action is brought, the names of the parties to the action, and, if it is brought in the supreme court, the name of the county in which the plaintiff desires the trial; and it must be subscribed by the plaintiff's attorney; who must add to his signature his office address, specifying a place within the State where there is a post-office. If in a city, he must add the street, and the street number, if any, or other suitable designation of the particular locality.

Co. Proc., § 128, remodelled. See ante, § 55.

§ 418. [Am'd, 1877.] Form of summons.

The summons, exclusive of the title of the action and the subscription, must be substantially in the following form, the blanks being properly filled:

"To the above named defendant: You are hereby summoned to answer the complaint in this action, and to serve a copy of your answer on the plaintiff's attorney within twenty days after the service of this summons, exclusive of the day of service; and in case of your failure to appear or answer, judgment will be taken against you by default, for the relief demanded in the complaint. Dated . . ."

The summons is deemed the mandate of the court.

See Co. Proc., § 129.

§ 419. [Am'd, 1870.] Service of copy complaint or notice with summons; consequence of failure.

A copy of the complaint may be served with the summons. If a copy of the complaint is not served with the summons, the plaintiff cannot take judgment by default without application to the court, unless either the defendant appears, or by a notice is served with the summons, stating the sum of money for which judgment will be taken, and the case is one embraced in the next section.

Id. See post, § 1212, and §§ 422, 479.

§ 420. [Am'd, 1877.] Cases where such service must be made.

Judgment may be taken without application to the court, where the complaint sets forth one or more causes of action, each consisting of the breach of an express contract to pay, absolutely or upon a contingency, a sum or sums of money, fixed by the terms of the contract, or capable of being ascertained therefrom, by computation only; or an express or implied contract to pay money received or disbursed, or the value of property delivered, or of services rendered by, to, or for the use of, the defendant or a third person; and thereupon demands judgment for a sum of money only. This section includes a case, where the breach of the contract, set forth in the complaint, is only partial; or where the complaint shows that the amount of the plaintiff's demand has been reduced by payment, counterclaim, or other credit.

Id. See post, § 1212.

§ 421. Appearance of defendant.

The defendant's appearance must be made by serving upon the plaintiff's attorney, within twenty days after service of the summons, exclusive of the day of service, a notice of appearance, or a copy of a demurrer or of an answer. A notice or pleading, so served, must be subscribed by the defendant's attorney, who must add to his signature his office address, with the particulars prescribed in section 417 of this act, concerning the office address of the plaintiff's attorney.

See Rule 9.

§ 422. [Am'd, 1877.] When defendant must answer before time to appear expires.

A defendant, upon whom the plaintiff has served, with the summons, a copy of the complaint, must serve a copy of his demurrer or answer upon the plaintiff's attorney, before the expiration of the time, within which the summons requires him to answer. If a copy of the complaint is not so served, a notice of appearance entitles him only to notice of the subsequent proceedings, unless within the same time he demands the service of a copy of the complaint as prescribed in section four hundred and seventy-nine of this act.

See Co. Proc., §§ 180 and 148. See §§ 419, 479.

§ 423. [Am'd, 1877.] Notice of no personal claim; effect of service thereof.

Where a personal claim is not made against a defendant, a notice, subscribed by the plaintiff's attorney, setting forth the general object of the action, a brief description of the property affected by it, if it affects specific real or personal property, and that a personal claim is not made against him, may be served with the summons. If the defendant so served, unreasonably defends the action, costs may be awarded against him.

* Id., § 181.

§ 424. Effect of voluntary appearance.

A voluntary general appearance of the defendant is equivalent to personal service of the summons upon him.

Id., part of § 189.

§ 425. Summons; when and by whom served. Sheriff's duty.

The summons may be served by any person, other than a party to the action, except where it is otherwise specially prescribed by law. The plaintiff's attorney may, by an indorsement on the summons, fix a time within which the service thereof must be made: in that case, the service cannot be made afterwards. Where a summons is delivered for service to the sheriff of the county, wherein the defendant is found, the sheriff must serve it, and return it, with proof of service, to the plaintiff's attorney, with reasonable diligence.

Id., § 133, am'd. See § 1895.

§ 426. [Am'd, 1879, 1913.] How personal service of summons made upon a natural person.

Personal service of the summons upon a defendant, being a natural person, must be made by delivering a copy thereof, within the State, as follows:

1. If the defendant is an infant, under the age of fourteen years, to his father, mother or guardian; or, if there is none within the state, to the person having the care and control of him, or with whom he resides, or in whose service he is employed. If the defendant is an infant over the age of fourteen years, to the infant in person, and also to his father, mother or guardian; or, if there is none within the state, to the person having the care and control of him, or with whom he resides, or in whose service he is employed. Where the defendant is an infant under the age of fourteen years, the court shall, in the defendant's interest, make an order, requiring a copy of the summons to be also delivered, in behalf of the defendant, to a person designated in the order, and that service of the summons shall not be deemed complete until it is so delivered. Where the defendant is an infant over the age of fourteen years a similar order may be made by the court in its discretion, with or without application therefor.

Subd. am'd by L. 1913, ch. 279. In effect Sept. 1, 1913.

2. If the defendant is a person judicially declared to be incompetent to manage his affairs, in consequence of lunacy, idiocy, or habitual drunkenness, and for whom a committee has been appointed, to the committee, and also to the defendant in person.

3. If the action is against a sheriff, for a cause specified in section one hundred and fifty-eight of this act, by delivering it to the defendant in person, or to his under-sheriff in person, or at the office of the sheriff during the hours when it is required by law to be kept open, to a deputy-sheriff or a clerk in the employment of the sheriff, or other person in charge of the office.

4. In any other case, to the defendant in person.

Ca. Proc., § 184, subd. 2, 3, and 4. See §§ 427-9, 1755, post. Am'd by L. 1879, ch. 542.

§ 427. [Am'd, 1913.] Id.; in certain cases of infancy, or lunacy, etc., not judicially declared.

If the court has, in its opinion, reasonable ground to believe, that the defendant, by reason of habitual drunkenness, or for any other cause, is mentally incapable adequately to protect his rights, although not judicially declared to be incompetent to manage his affairs, the court may, in its discretion, with or without an application therefor, and, in the defendant's interest, make an order, requiring a copy of the summons to be also delivered, in behalf of the defendant, to a person designated in the order, and that service of the summons shall not be deemed complete, until it is so delivered.

Am'd L. 1913, ch. 279. In effect Sept. 1, 1913.

§ 428. The same.

In a case specified in subdivision first or second of section four hundred and twenty-six of this act, where the court has, in its opinion, reasonable ground to believe that the interest of the person, other than the defendant, to whom a copy of the summons has been delivered, is adverse to that of the defendant, or that, for any reason, he is not a fit person to protect the rights of the defendant, it may likewise make an order, as prescribed in the last section. In a case specified in subdivision second, the court may, as a part of the same order, or by a separate order, made in like manner and upon like ground, at any stage of the action, appoint a special guardian ad litem to conduct the defence for the incompetent defendant, to the exclusion of the committee, and with the same powers, and subject to the same liabilities, as a committee of the property.

§ 429. Id.; when delivery of copy to lunatic dispensed with.

Where the defendant has been judicially declared to be incompetent to manage his affairs, in consequence of lunacy, and it appears satisfactorily to the court, by affidavit, that the delivery of a copy of the summons to him, in person, will tend to aggravate his disorder, or to lessen the probability of his recovery.

the court may make an order, dispensing with such delivery. In that case a delivery of a copy of the summons, to a committee duly appointed for him, is sufficient personal service upon the defendant.

§ 430. [Am'd, 1899.] Designation, by a resident, of a person upon whom to serve a summons during his absence: effect and revocation thereof.

A resident of the state, of full age, may execute, under his hand, and acknowledge, in the manner required by law to entitle a deed to be recorded, a written designation of another resident of the state, as a person upon whom to serve a summons, or any process or other paper for the commencement of a civil special proceeding, in any court or before any officer, during the absence from the state of New York of the person making the designation; and may file the same, with the written consent of the person so designated, executed and acknowledged in the same manner, in the office of the clerk of the county, where the person making the designation resides. The designation must specify the occupation, or other proper addition, and the residence of the person making it, and also of the person designated; and it remains in force during the period specified therein, if any; or, if no period is specified for that purpose, for three years after the filing thereof. But it is revoked earlier, by the death or legal incompetency of either of the parties thereto; or by the filing of a revocation thereof, or of the consent, executed and acknowledged in like manner. The clerk must file and record such a designation, consent, or revocation; and must note, upon the record of the original designation, the filing and recording of a revocation. While the designation remains in force, as prescribed in this section, a summons, or any process or other paper for the commencement of a civil special proceeding, against the person making it, in any court or before any officer, may be served upon the person so designated, in like manner and with like effect, as if it were served personally upon the person making the designation, notwithstanding the return of the latter to the state of New York.

L. 1899, ch. 524. In effect Sept. 1, 1899.

§ 431. How personal service of summons made upon a domestic corporation.

Personal service of the summons upon a defendant, being a domestic corporation, must be made by delivering a copy thereof, within the State, as follows:

1. If the action is against the mayor, aldermen, and commonalty of the city of New-York, to the mayor, comptroller, or counsel to the corporation.

2. If the action is against any other city, to the mayor, treasurer, counsel, attorney, or clerk; or, if the city lacks either of those officers, to the officer performing corresponding functions, under another name.

3. In any other case, to the president or other head of the corporation, the secretary or clerk to the corporation, the cashier, the treasurer, or a director or managing agent.

§ 432. [Am'd, 1877, 1903, 1909.] Id.; upon a foreign corporation.

Personal service of the summons upon a defendant, being a foreign corporation, must be made by delivering a copy thereof, within the state, as follows:

1. [Am'd, 1903.] To the president, vice-president, treasurer, assistant treasurer, secretary or assistant secretary; or, if the corporation lacks either of those officers, to the officer performing corresponding functions, under another name.

2. [Am'd, 1909.] To a person designated for the purpose as provided in section sixteen of the general corporation law.

3. If such a designation is not in force, or if neither the person designated, nor an officer specified in subdivision first of this section, can be found with due diligence, and the corporation has property within the state, or the cause of action arose therein; to the cashier, a director, or a managing agent of the corporation, within the state.

4. [Added, 1909.] If the person designated as provided in section sixteen of the general corporation law dies or removes from the place where the corporation has its principal place of business within the state and the corporation does not within thirty days after such death or removal designate in like manner another person upon whom process against it may be served within the state, process against the corporation in an action upon any liability incurred within this state or if the corporation has property within the state may after such death, removal or revocation and before another designation is made be served upon the secretary of state.

Co. Proc., § 134, part of subd. 1, and L. 1855, ch. 279, §§ 1-3; L. 1903, ch. 311. Am'd by L. 1909, ch. 65. Also partly repealed by L. 1909, ch. 28. See Consolidated Laws, tit. General Corporation Law, § 16, and Code Civ. Proc., § 931a. See note 40 of notes of Board of Statutory Consolidation at end of Code.

§ 433. Service of process, etc., to commence a special proceeding.

The provisions of this article, relating to the mode of service of a summons, apply likewise to the service of any process or other paper, whereby a special proceeding is commenced in a court, or before an officer, except a proceeding to punish for contempt, and except where special provision for the service thereof is otherwise made by law.

See L. 1855, ch. 279, § 4 (3 Edm. 685). See §§ 425, 2000.

§ 434. Proof of service of summons, etc.; how made.

Proof of service, as prescribed in this article, must be made by affidavit, except as follows:

If the service was made by the sheriff, it may be proved by his certificate thereof.

2. If the defendant served is an adult, who has not been judicially declared to be incompetent to manage his affairs, the service may be proved by a written admission, signed by him, and either acknowledged by him, and certified in like manner as a deed to be recorded in the county, or accompanied with the affidavit of a person, other than the plaintiff, showing that the signature is genuine.

A certificate, admission, or affidavit of service of a summons, must state the time and place of service. A written admission of the service of a summons, or of a paper accompanying the same, imports, unless otherwise expressly stated therein, or otherwise plainly to be inferred from its contents, that a copy of the paper was delivered to the person signing the admission.

Substitute for portions of Co. Proc., § 138. See Rule 18.

ARTICLE SECOND.

Substitutes for personal service in special cases.

- Sec. 435. Order for service of summons upon defendant residing in this State, upon what proof to be made.
436. How service must be made.
437. Papers to be filed; proof of service.
438. Cases in which service of summons by publication, etc., may be ordered.
439. Papers upon which order for publication may be made.
440. By whom order may be made; contents of order.
441. When publication must be commenced; when service deemed complete.
442. Papers to be filed; notice to defendant.

444. Proof of service.
445. Defendant, when allowed to defend.

§ 435. [Am'd, 1880, 1913.] Order for service of summons upon defendant residing in this State, upon what proof to be made.

Where a summons is issued in any court of record, an order for the service thereof upon a defendant, whether a domestic corporation, other than a municipal corporation, a joint-stock or other unincorporated association or a natural person, residing within the state may be made by the court, or a judge thereof, or the county judge of the county where the action is triable upon satisfactory proof, by the affidavit of a person, not a party to the action, or by the return of the sheriff of the county where such defendant resides, or has its principal office or place of business, that proper and diligent effort has been made to serve the summons upon the defendant and that none of the persons mentioned in subdivision three of section four hundred and thirty-one, nor the president or treasurer of such association, can be found; or if the defendant is a natural person, that the place of his sojourn cannot be ascertained, or if he is within the state, that he avoids service, so that personal service cannot be made.

Part of L. 1853, ch. 511 (4 Edm. 589). Am'd L. 1880, ch. 535; L. 1913, ch. 230. In effect Sept. 1, 1913. See § 638, post.

§ 436. [Am'd, 1896, 1913.] How service must be made.

The order must direct that the service of the summons be made, by leaving a copy thereof, and of the order, if the defendant is a domestic corporation or joint-stock or other unincorporated association at its principal office or place of business, or if a natural person at the residence of the defendant, with a person of proper age, if upon reasonable application, admittance can be obtained, and such person found who will receive it; or, if admittance cannot be so obtained, nor such a person found, by affixing the same to the outer or other door of the defendant's said place of business or office, or of his residence, and by depositing another copy thereof, properly enclosed in a post-paid wrapper, addressed to the defendant at its said principal office or place of business, or to him at his place of residence, in the post-office at the place where he resides, or where said office, place of business or residence is located, or upon proof being made by affidavit that no such residence can be found, service of the summons may be made in such manner as the court may direct.

Part of L. 1853, ch. 511. Am'd L. 1896, ch. 562; L. 1913, ch. 230. In effect Sept. 1, 1913.

§ 437. Papers to be filed; proof of service.

The order, and the papers upon which it was granted, must be filed, and the service must be made, within ten days after the order is granted; otherwise the order becomes inoperative. On filing an affidavit, showing service according to the order the summons is deemed served, and the same proceedings may be taken thereupon, as if it had been served by publication, pursuant to an order for that purpose, made as prescribed in the next section.

§ 438. [Am'd, 1879, 1884, 1899, 1909, 1913, 1914.] Cases in which service of summons by publication, etc., may be ordered.

An order directing the service of a summons upon a defendant, by publication, may be made in either of the following cases:

1. Where the defendant to be served is a foreign corporation; or, is an unincorporated association consisting of seven or more persons, having a president and treasurer, neither of whom is a resident of this state; or, being a domestic corporation, where after diligent effort, service cannot be made within the state upon the president or other head of the corporation, the secretary or clerk to the corporation, the cashier, the treasurer or a director or managing agent; or, being a natural person, is not a resident of the state; or, where, after diligent inquiry, the defendant remains unknown to the plaintiff, or the plaintiff is unable to ascertain whether the defendant is or is not a resident of the state.

2. Where the defendant, being a resident of the state, has departed therefrom, with intent to defraud his creditors, or to avoid the service of a summons; or keeps himself concealed therein, with like intent.

3. Where the defendant, being an adult, and a resident of the state, has been continuously without the state of New York more than six months next before the granting of the order, and has not made a designation of a person, upon whom to serve a summons in his behalf, as prescribed in section four hundred and thirty of this act; or a designation so made no longer remains in force; or service upon the person so designated cannot be made within the state, after diligent effort.

4. Where the complaint demands judgment annulling a marriage, or for a divorce, or a separation.

5. Where the complaint demands judgment, that the defendant be excluded from a vested or contingent interest in or lien upon, specific real or personal property within the state; or that such an interest or lien in favor of either party be enforced, regulated, defined, or limited; or otherwise affecting the title to such property.

6. Where the defendant is a resident of the state or a domestic corporation; and an attempt was made to commence the action against the defendant, as required in chapter fourth of this act, before the expiration of the limitation applicable thereto as fixed in that chapter; and the limitation would have expired, within sixty days next preceding the application, if time had not been extended by the attempt to commence the action.

7. Where the action is against the stockholders of a corporation, or joint-stock company, and is authorized by law of the state, and the defendant is a stockholder thereof. When a copy of the summons is required by subdivision first or subdivision second of section four hundred and twenty-six of this act, or by section four hundred and twenty-nine of this act, to be delivered to a person other than the defendant, an order, directing the service of the summons upon such person by publication, may be made as prescribed in this section, as if such person was the defendant in the action, and upon a verified complaint and the same proof with respect to such person, as is required in the next succeeding section with respect to a defendant. And sections four hundred and forty to four hundred and forty-four both inclusive, apply to the proceedings in like manner as if such person was a defendant.

§ 439. [Am'd, 1879.] Papers upon which order for publication may be made.

The order must be founded upon a verified complaint, showing a sufficient cause of action against the defendant to be served, and proof by affidavit of the additional facts required by the last section; and also, where the application is made upon the ground that the defendant is a foreign corporation, or not a resident of the State, or in a case specified in subdivision fourth, fifth, or seventh of the last section, that the plaintiff has been or will be unable, with due diligence, to make personal service of the summons.

See Co. Proc., § 135.

§ 440. [Am'd, 1889, 1914, 1917, 1918.] By whom order may be made; contents of order.

The order may be made by the court or by a judge thereof or the county judge of the county where the action is triable. It must direct that service of the summons, upon the defendant named or described in the order, be made by publication thereof in two newspapers, designated in the order as most likely to give notice to the defendant, for a specified time, which the judge deems reasonable, not less than once a week for six successive weeks. It must also contain, either a direction that, on or before the day of the first publication, the plaintiff deposit in a post-office, branch post-office or post-office station, one or more sets of copies of the summons, complaint and order, each contained in a securely closed post-paid wrapper, directed to the defendant, at a place specified in the order, or a statement that the court or judge, being satisfied, by the affidavits upon which the order was granted, that the plaintiff cannot, with reasonable diligence, ascertain a place or places, where the defendant would probably receive matter transmitted through the post-office, dispenses with the deposit of any papers therein. When it appears by the affidavits upon which the order was granted that the defendant is within a country with which the United States of America is at war, or in a place with which by reason of the existence of a state of war the United States of America does not maintain postal communication, the order may dispense with the mailing of any papers to such defendant, and in lieu thereof shall direct that such papers be mailed to such officer as may have been appointed by the president of the United States of America to take possession of the property of alien enemies, at Washington, District of Columbia, on behalf of such defendant.

§ 441. [Am'd, 1877, 1914.] When publication must be commenced; when service deemed complete.

The first publication in each newspaper designated in the order, or personal service upon the defendant without the State in lieu thereof, must be made within three months after the order is granted. For the purpose of reckoning the time within which the defendant must appear or answer, service by publication is complete upon the day of the last publication, pursuant to the order.

Am'd by L. 1877, ch. 416, and L. 1914, ch. 346, in effect Sept. 1, 1914.

§ 442. [Am'd, 1877.] Papers to be filed; notice to defendant.

Where service is made by publication, the summons, complaint, and order, and the papers upon which the order was made, must be filed with the clerk, on or before the day of the first publication; and a notice, subscribed by the plaintiff's attorney, and directed only to the defendant or defendants to be thus served, substantially in the following form, the blanks being properly filled up, must be subjoined to, and published with the summons:

See post, §§ 1541, 1774.

"To : The foregoing summons is served upon you, by publication, pursuant to an order of " (naming the judge and his official title), " dated the day of , 18 , and filed with the complaint, in the office of the clerk of at ."

§ 443. [Am'd, 1877, 1914, 1916.] Service without state.

1. Where service is made without the State under an order for publication of the summons, the papers specified in the last section must be previously filed; and a notice must be served with the summons, in all respects like the notice required by the last section, except that the words, " without the State of New York ", must be substituted for the words, " by publication ".

2. In all cases when publication is ordered, personal service of a copy of the summons and complaint and such notice, out of the state, is equivalent to publication and deposit in the post-office.

3. In the cases specified in subdivision five of section four hundred and thirty-eight the summons may be served without an order, upon a defendant without the state in the same manner as if such service were made within the state, except that a copy of the complaint shall be annexed to and served with the summons.

4. Service without the state is complete ten days after proof thereof is filed.

5. When the summons is served personally without the state the affidavit of service must show that the person making it is a resident or citizen of the state of New York, or a sheriff, or under sheriff, deputy sheriff, constable of the county or other political subdivision in which the service is made, or an officer authorized by the laws of this state to take acknowledgments of deeds to be recorded in this state, an attorney and counsellor at law duly qualified to practice in the state where such service is made or by a United States marshal.

When such affidavit is made by a resident or citizen of the state of New York, his place of residence, and street number, if any, shall be stated therein. The affidavit of service made without the state shall contain the official designation of the person making it and shall have annexed thereto a certificate of the proper official showing that the person before whom the affidavit was sworn to was, at the time of administering the oath, qualified to act.

Subd. am'd by L. 1916, ch. 439, in effect Sept. 1, 1916.

6. A judgment shall be conclusive upon a defendant on whom the summons is personally served without the state, with respect to the property which is the subject of the action, or which is attached therein, to the same extent as if the service upon him were made within the state.

Am'd by L. 1877, ch. 416, and L. 1914, ch. 346, in effect Sept. 1, 1914.

§ 444. Proof of service.

Proof of the publication of the summons and notice must be made by the affidavit of the printer or publisher, or his foreman or principal clerk. Proof of deposit in the post-office, or of delivery, of a paper required to be deposited or delivered by the provisions of this article, must be made by the affidavit of the person, who deposited or delivered it.

Co. Proc., § 138, subd. 3.

§ 445. [Am'd, 1877, 1914.] Defendant when allowed to defend.

Where the summons is served, pursuant to an order made as prescribed in this article, in any other manner than personally without the state, and the defendant so served does not appear; he or his representatives, on application and sufficient cause shown, at any time before final judgment, must be allowed to defend the action; and, except in an action for divorce, or wherein the contrary is expressly prescribed by law, such defendant, or his representatives, must, in like manner, upon good cause shown, and upon just terms, be allowed to defend, after final judgment, at any time within one year after personal service of written notice thereof; or, if such a notice has not been served, within seven years after the filing of the judgment-roll. If the defence is successful, and the judgment, or any part thereof, has been collected or otherwise enforced, such restitution may thereupon be compelled, as the court directs; but the title to property, sold, to a purchaser in good faith, pursuant to a direction contained in the judgment, or by virtue of an execution issued upon the same, shall not be affected thereby.

Id., part of § 135. See § 1557, subd. 1. Am'd by L. 1877, ch. 416, and L. 1914, ch. 346, in effect Sept. 1, 1914.

TITLE II.

Parties to an action.

Article 1. Parties generally.

2. Parties severally liable.

3. Parties prosecuting and defending as poor persons.

4. Infant plaintiffs and defendants.

ARTICLE FIRST.

Parties generally.

Sec. 446. Who may be joined as plaintiffs.

447. Id.; as defendants.

448. Parties united in interest, when to be joined; when one or more may sue or defend for the whole.

449. Party in interest to sue. Trustee, etc., may sue alone.

450. When married woman is a party.

451. When defendant or his name is unknown.

452. When court to decide controversy or to order other parties to be brought in.

453. Supplemental summons.

§ 446. Who may be joined as plaintiffs.

All persons having an interest in the subject of the action, and in obtaining the judgment demanded, may be joined as plaintiffs, except as otherwise expressly prescribed in this act.

Ca. Proc., § 117.

§ 447. [Am'd, 1901, 1911.] Idem; as defendants.

Any person may be made a defendant who has or claims an interest in the controversy adverse to the plaintiff or who is a necessary party defendant for the complete determination or settlement of a question involved therein, except as otherwise expressly prescribed in this act. In any action brought affecting real estate upon which the people of the state of New York have or claim to have a lien under the transfer tax act, the said people of the state of New York may be made a party defendant in the same manner as a private person, but where the people of the state of New York are made a party defendant, as herein provided, the complaint shall set forth, in addition to the matters required to be set forth by the code of civil procedure, the name or names of the decedent or decedents against whose estate there is an unpaid transfer tax, the place of residence of decedent at the time of death, the heirs at law and next of kin of decedent and if decedent left none that fact shall be stated, whether decedent died testate or intestate, and whether the estate of decedent has been administered, and if so where; and if not administered, such facts shall be stated; and also that the people of the state of New York are made a party defendant for no other reason than the lien of said transfer tax. Upon failure to state such facts, the complaint shall be dismissed as to the people of the state of New York. In such a case the summons must be served on the attorney-general, who may appear in behalf of the people.

Id., part of § 118; L. 1901, ch. 600; L. 1911, ch. 24, in effect Sept. 1, 1911.

§ 448. Parties united in interest, when to be joined: when one or more may sue or defend for the whole.

Of the parties to the action, those who are united in interest must be joined as plaintiffs or defendants, except as otherwise expressly prescribed in this act. But if the consent of any one, who ought to be joined as a plaintiff, cannot be obtained, he may be made a defendant, the reason therefor being stated in the complaint. And where the question is one of a common or general interest of many persons; or where the persons, who might be made parties, are very numerous, and it may be impracticable to bring them all before the court, one or more may sue or defend for the benefit of all.

* See § 19.9, post.

Id., § 119, am'd.

§ 449. [Am'd, 1877.] Party in interest to sue. Trustee, etc., may sue alone.

Every action must be prosecuted in the name of the real party in interest, except that an executor or administrator, a trustee of an express trust, or a person expressly authorized by statute, may sue, without joining with him the person for whose benefit the action is prosecuted. A person, with whom or in whose name, a contract is made for the benefit of another, is a trustee of an express trust, within the meaning of this section.

Id., part of § 111, and all of § 113.

§ 450. [Am'd, 1877, 1879, 1890, 1909.] When married woman is a party.

In an action or special proceeding a married woman appears, prosecutes or defends alone or joined with other parties as if she was single. It is not necessary or proper to join her husband with her as a party in any action or special proceeding affecting her separate property. The husband is not a necessary or proper party to an action or special proceeding to recover damages to the person, estate or character of his wife. The husband is not a necessary or proper party to an action or special proceeding to recover damages to the person, estate or character of another on account of the wrongful acts of his wife committed without his instigation.

L. 1890, ch. 248. Am'd by L. 1900, ch. 65. Also partly repealed by L. 1909, ch. 19. See Consolidated Laws, tit. Domestic Relations Law, § 51. See note 41 of notes of Board of Statutory Consolidation at end of code.

§ 451. [Am'd, 1879.] When defendant or his name is unknown.

Where the plaintiff is ignorant of the name or part of the name of a defendant, he may designate that defendant, in the summons; and in any other process or proceeding in the action, by a fictitious name, or by as much of his name as is known, adding a description, identifying the person intended. Where the plaintiff demands judgment against an unknown person, he may designate that person as unknown, adding a description, tending to identify him. In either case the person intended is thereupon regarded as a defendant in the action, and as sufficiently described therein, for all purposes including service of the summons, as prescribed in article second of the last title. When the name, or the remainder of the name, or the person, becomes known, an order must be made by the court, upon such notice and such terms as it prescribes, that the proceedings already taken be deemed amended, by the insertion of the true name, in place of the fictitious name or part of name, or the designation as an unknown person; and that all subsequent proceedings be taken under the true name.

Substitute for Co. Proc., § 175, and portion of § 135.

§ 452. [Am'd, 1901.] When court to decide controversy, or to order other parties to be brought in.

The court may determine the controversy, as between the parties before it, where it can do so without prejudice to the rights of others, or by saving their rights; but where a complete determination of the controversy cannot be had without the presence of other parties, the court must direct them to be brought in. And where a person, not a party to the action, has an interest in the subject thereof, or in real property, the title to which may in any manner be affected by the judgment, or in real property for injury to which the complaint demands relief, and makes application to the court to be made a party, it must direct him to be brought in by the proper amendment.

Co. Proc., part of § 122, am'd; L. 1901, ch. 512. In effect Sept. 1, 1901.

§ 453. [Am'd, 1877.] Supplemental summons.

Where the court directs a new defendant to be brought in, and the order is not made upon his own application, a supplemental summons must be issued, directed to him, and in the same form as an original summons; except that, in the body thereof, it must require the defendant to answer the original or the amended complaint, and the supplemental complaint, or either of them as the case requires. And each provision of this chapter, relating to personal service, or a substitute for personal service of an original summons, applies to such a supplemental summons.

ARTICLE SECOND.

Parties severally liable.

- Sec. 454. When persons liable for the same demand may be sued together.
455. Defendant so sued may apply for any relief.
456. Proceedings in action against defendants severally liable.
457. Application of this article to defendants jointly liable.

§ 454. [Am'd, 1877.] When persons liable for the same demand may be sued together.

Two or more persons, severally liable upon the same written instrument, including the parties to a bill of exchange or a promissory note, whether the action is brought upon the instrument, or by a party thereto to recover against other parties liable over to him; may, all or any of them, be included as defendants in the same action, at the option of the plaintiff.

Co. Proc., § 120. See § 1204, post.

§ 455. Defendant so sued may apply for any relief.

The joinder of a person, as defendant in an action, with another person, as prescribed in the last section, does not affect his right to any order or other relief, to which he would have been entitled, if he had been separately sued in the action.

L. 1841, ch. 282, § 1 (4 Edm. 457).

§ 456. Proceedings in action against defendants severally liable.

Where a summons, issued against two or more defendants, alleged to be severally liable, is served upon some, but not upon all of them, the plaintiff may proceed against those upon whom it is served, as if they were the only defendants named therein. Where it is served upon all of them, the plaintiff may take judgment against one or more of them, where he would be entitled to judgment, if the action was against him or them alone. Where judgment is so taken, the clerk must, upon the plaintiff's application, enter an order, directing that the action be severed, and that the plaintiff may proceed against the other defendants. In any subsequent proceeding, the plaintiff may use, together with a certified copy of such an order, a copy of a paper constituting a part of the judgment-roll, with like effect as if it was the original.

Substitute for Co. Proc., § 136, subd. 2 and 3.

§ 457. Application of this article to defendants jointly liable.

The last three sections do not affect a defence or other objection of a defendant, growing out of the failure to join in the action two or more persons jointly liable; and, as regards the other parties to the action, persons jointly liable are regarded as one party, for every purpose contemplated by those sections.

See L. 1832, ch. 276, § 2 (4 Edm. 453), and L. 1835, ch. 211, § 1 (4 Edm. 455).

ARTICLE THIRD.

Parties prosecuting and defending as poor persons.

- Sec. 458. Who may petition for leave to prosecute as a poor person.
459. Contents of petition.
460. When and how leave granted.
461. Not liable for costs and fees.
462. When leave may be annulled.
463. When defendant may petition to defend as a poor person.
464. Contents of petition.
465. Proceedings thereon.
466. Appeal, when party prosecutes or defends as a poor person.
467. Costs in favor of petitioner.

§ 458. [Am'd, 1891.] Who may petition for leave to prosecute as a poor person.

A poor person, whether an adult or infant, not being of ability to sue, who alleges that he has a cause of action against another person, may apply by petition to the court in which the action is pending, or in which it is intended to be brought, for leave to prosecute as a poor person, and to have an attorney and counsel assigned to conduct his action.

2 R. S. 444, § 1 (2 Edm. 463); L. 1891, ch. 170.

§ 459. [Am'd, 1891.] Contents of petition.

The petition must state:

1. The nature of the action brought or intended to be brought.
2. That the applicant is not worth one hundred dollars besides the wearing apparel and furniture necessary for himself and his family, and the subject-matter of the action.

It must be verified by the applicant's affidavit, unless the applicant is an infant under the age of fourteen years, and in that case by the affidavit of his guardian appointed in said action, and supported by a certificate of a counselor at law to the effect that he has examined the case and is of the opinion that the applicant has a good cause of action.

Id., § 2; L. 1891, ch. 170. See § 460.

§ 460. When and how leave granted.

The court to which the petition is presented, if satisfied of the truth of the facts alleged, and that the applicant has a good cause of action, may, by order, admit him to prosecute as a poor person, and assign to him an attorney and counsel to prosecute his action, who must act therein without compensation.

Id., § 3.

§ 461. Not liable for costs and fees.

A person so admitted, may prosecute his action, without paying fees to any officer; and he shall not be prevented from prosecuting the same, by reason of his being liable for the costs of a former action, brought by him against the same defendant. If judgment is rendered against him, or his complaint is dismissed, costs shall not be awarded against him.

2 R. S. 445, § 4.

§ 462. When leave may be annulled.

If the person so admitted is guilty of improper conduct in the prosecution of his action, or of wilful or unnecessary delay, the court may, in its discretion, annul the order admitting him to prosecute as a poor person; and he shall thereafter be deprived of all the privileges conferred thereby.

Id., § 5.

§ 463. When defendant may petition to defend as a poor person.

A defendant in an action involving his right, title, or interest, in or to real or personal property, may petition the court, in which the action is pending, for leave to defend the action as a poor person, and to have an attorney and counsel assigned to conduct his defence.

§ 464. Contents of petition.

The petition must contain the same matters, respecting the ability of the petitioner, required to be contained in a petition for leave to prosecute as a poor person; and it must be supported by a similar certificate, relating to the defence.

§ 465. Proceedings thereon.

The provisions of this article, relating to the order, to be made upon an application for leave to prosecute as a poor person, and the proceedings subsequent thereto, apply to the order and subsequent proceedings, upon an application for leave to defend as a poor person.

§ 466. Appeal when party prosecutes or defends as a poor person.

An order, made as prescribed in this article, does not authorize the petitioner to take or maintain an appeal, as a poor person; but where an appeal is taken by the adverse party, the order is applicable, in favor of the petitioner, as respondent in the appeal.

§ 467. Costs in favor of petitioner.

Where costs are awarded in favor of a person, who had been admitted to prosecute or defend as a poor person, as prescribed in this article, they must be paid over to his attorney, when collected from the adverse party, and distributed among the attorney and counsel assigned to the poor person, as the court directs.

ARTICLE FOURTH.Infant plaintiffs and defendants.*

Sec. 468. Right of infant to bring action.

469. Guardian for infant plaintiff must be appointed.

470. Application therefor.

471. Application for appointment of guardian for infant defendant.

472. Guardian, how appointed. Clerk, when to act.

473. Guardian for absent infant defendant.

474. Guardian not to receive property until security given.

475. Security.

476. Last two sections not to apply to general guardian.

477. Liability of defendant's guardian for costs.

§ 468. Right of infant to bring action.

Where an infant has a right of action, he is entitled to maintain an action thereon; and the same shall not be deferred or delayed, on account of his infancy.

§ 469. [Am'd, 1891.] Guardian for infant plaintiff must be appointed.

Before a summons is issued, in the name of an infant plaintiff, a competent and responsible person must be appointed, to appear as his guardian for the purpose of the action, who shall be responsible for the costs thereof, except where such infant prosecutes as a poor person as provided for under section 459 of this act, in which case security for costs shall not be required.

In effect September 1, 1891; not applicable to actions or proceedings commenced prior to such date; L. 1891, ch. 170. See § 3249.

§ 470. Application therefor.

The guardian must be appointed upon the application of the infant, if he is of the age of fourteen years, or upwards; or, if he is under that age, upon the application of his general or testamentary guardian, if he has one, or of a relative or friend. If the application is made by a relative or friend, notice thereof must be given to his general or testamentary guardian, if he has one; or, if he has none, to the person with whom the infant resides.

Co. Proc., § 116, subd. 1.

§ 471. [Am'd, 1879.] Application for appointment of guardian for infant defendant.

An infant defendant must also appear by guardian, who must be a competent and responsible person, appointed upon the application of the infant, if he is of the age of fourteen years, or upwards, and applies within twenty days after personal service of the summons, or after service thereof is complete, as prescribed in section 441 of this act; or if he is under that age, or neglects so to apply, upon the application of any other party to the action, or of a relative or friend of the infant. Where the application is made by a person other than the infant, notice thereof must be given to his general or testamentary guardian, if he has one within the State; or, if he has none, to the infant himself, if he is of the age of fourteen years, or upwards, and within the State; or, if he is under that age, and within the State, to the person with whom he resides.

§ 472. [Am'd, 1879.] Guardian, how appointed. Clerk, when to act.

The court in which the action is brought, or a judge thereof, or if the action is brought in the supreme court, the county judge of the county where the action is triable, may appoint a guardian ad litem for an infant, either plaintiff or defendant, as prescribed in this article. The clerk must act in that capacity for an infant defendant where the court or the judge appoints him. No person, other than the clerk, shall be appointed a guardian ad litem, unless his written consent, duly acknowledged, is produced to the court or judge making the appointment.

Predicated on Co. Proc., § 115; 2 R. S. 446, § 4. See § 1535.

§ 473. [Am'd, 1889.] Guardian for absent infant defendant.

Where an infant defendant resides out of the State or resides within the State, and is temporarily absent therefrom, the court may, in its discretion, make an order designating a person to be his guardian ad litem, unless he, or some one in his behalf, procures such a guardian to be appointed, as prescribed in the last two sections, within a specified time after service of a copy of the order. The court must give special directions in the order, respecting the service thereof, which may be upon the infant. The summons may be served by delivering a copy to the guardian so appointed, with like effect as where a summons is served without the State upon an adult defendant, pursuant to an order for that purpose, granted as prescribed in section four hundred and thirty-eight of this act; except that the time to appear or answer is twenty days after the service of the summons, exclusive of the day of service.

Based on Co. Proc., part of § 116; L. 1889, ch. 494.

§ 474. Guardian not to receive property until security given.

Except in a case where it is otherwise specially prescribed by law, a guardian, appointed for an infant, as prescribed in this article, shall not be permitted to receive money or property of the infant, other than costs and expenses allowed to the guardian by the court, until he has given sufficient security, approved by a judge of the court, or a county judge, to account for and apply the same, under the direction of the court.

Co. Proc., § 420, am'd.

§ 475. Security.

The security must be a bond to the infant, in such penalty as the judge directs, not less than twice the sum, or the value of the property, to be received, executed by the guardian and at least two sureties, approved by the judge, and filed in the office of the clerk. The infant, or any other party to the action, may afterwards apply for an order, directing a new bond to be given, with an increased penalty; or the court may so direct, of its own motion.

2 R. S. 446, § 5 (2 Edm. 465).

§ 476. Last two sections not to apply to general guardian.

The last two sections do not apply to the general guardian of the infant, who has been appointed his guardian ad litem, as prescribed in this article; but the court may, at any time, require the general guardian to give additional security for the faithful discharge of his trust, before receiving money or property of the infant, under a judgment or order in the action.

§ 477. Liability of defendant's guardian for costs.

A person appointed guardian, as prescribed in this article, for an infant defendant in an action, is not liable for the costs of the action, unless specially charged therewith by the order of the court, for personal misconduct.

2 R. S. 447, § 12 (2 Edm. 466).

§ 477-a. [Added, 1916.] Appointment of guardians ad litem and special guardians by supreme court without application.

The supreme court may appoint a guardian ad litem or special guardian for an infant or an incompetent person, at any stage in any action or proceeding, when it appears to the court necessary for the proper protection of the rights and interests of such infant or incompetent person and fix the fees and compensation of such guardians, except when it is otherwise expressly provided by law.

Added by L. 1916, ch. 440, in effect Sept. 1, 1916.

Co. Proc., § 141.

§ 479. [Am'd, 1877.] Copy complaint, when to be served.

If a copy of the complaint is not delivered to a defendant, at the time of the delivery of a copy of the summons to him, either within or without the State, his attorney may, at any time within twenty days after the service of the summons is complete, serve upon the plaintiff's attorney a written demand of a copy of the complaint, which must be served within twenty days thereafter. The demand may be incorporated into the notice of appearance. But where the same attorney appears for two or more defendants, only one copy of the complaint need be served upon him; and if, after service of a copy of the complaint upon him, as attorney for a defendant, he appears for another defendant, the last defendant must answer the complaint within twenty days after he appears in the action.

Substitute for part of § 130, Co. Proc. See post, § 824. See §§ 419, 422.

§ 480. Consequence of failure.

If the plaintiff's attorney fails to serve a copy of the complaint, as prescribed in the last section, the defendant may apply to the court for a dismissal of the complaint.

§ 481. [Am'd, 1904, 1905.] Complaint; what to contain.

The complaint must contain:

1. The title of the action, specifying the name of the court in which it is brought; if it is brought in the supreme court, the name of the county, which the plaintiff designates as the place of trial; and the names of all the parties to the action, plaintiff and defendant.

2. [Am'd, 1904, 1905.] A plain and concise statement of the facts constituting each cause of action without unnecessary repetition.

3. A demand of the judgment to which the plaintiff supposes himself entitled.

Co. Proc., § 142, am'd; L. 1904, ch. 500; L. 1905, ch. 431. In effect May 16, 1905.

§ 482. [Am'd, 1877.] When interlocutory and final judgment may be demanded.

In an action triable by the court, without a jury, the plaintiff may, in a proper case, demand an interlocutory judgment, and also a final judgment, distinguishing them clearly.

§ 483. Causes of action to be separately stated.

Where the complaint sets forth two or more causes of action, the statement of the facts constituting each cause of action must be separate and numbered.

From Co. Proc., § 167, am'd.

§ 484. [Am'd, 1877, 1900, 1906, 1907, 1909.] What causes of action may be joined in the same complaint.

The plaintiff may unite in the same complaint, two or more causes of action, whether they are such as were formerly denominated legal or equitable, or both, where they are brought to recover as follows:

1. Upon contract, express or implied.
2. For personal injuries, except libel, slander, criminal conversation or seduction.
3. For libel or slander.
4. For injuries to real property.
5. Real property, in ejectment, with or without damages for the withholding thereof. (See § 1496.)
6. For injuries to personal property.
7. Chattels, with or without damages for the taking or detention thereof. (See § 1689.)
8. Upon claims against a trustee, by virtue of a contract, or by operation of law.
9. Upon claims arising out of the same transaction, or transactions connected with the same subject of action, and not included within one of the foregoing subdivisions of this section. (See § 1815.)
10. For penalties incurred under the forest, fish and game law.
11. For penalties incurred under the agricultural law.
12. For penalties incurred under the public health law.

But it must appear, upon the face of the complaint, that all the causes of action, so united, belong to one of the foregoing subdivisions of this section: that they are consistent with each other: and, except as otherwise prescribed by law, that they affect all the parties to the action: and it must appear upon the face of the complaint, that they do not require different places of trial.

Substitute for part of § 167. Co. Proc. L. 1900, ch. 590; L. 1906, ch. 29; L. 1907, ch. 26; L. 1909, ch. 65. See note 42 of notes of Board of Statutory Consolidation at end of code.

§ 486. [Stricken out in 1877.]

ARTICLE SECOND.

Demurrer.

Sec. 487. Defendant must demur or answer.

488. When he may demur.

489. [Stricken out.]

490. Demurrer to complaint must specify grounds of objection.

491. [Stricken out.]

492. Demurrer to all or part of the complaint; demurrer to part, and answer to part.

493. Defendant may demur to reply.

494. When plaintiff may demur to answer.

495. Demurrer to counterclaim, when defendant demands an affirmative judgment.

496. Demurrer to counterclaim must specify grounds of objection.

497. Amendments in certain cases after decision of demurrer.

498. When objection may be taken by answer.

499. Objection; when deemed waived.

§ 487. Defendant must demur or answer.

The only pleading, on the part of the defendant, is either a demurrer or an answer.

Co. Proc., part of § 143.

§ 488. [Am'd, 1877.] When he may demur.

The defendant may demur to the complaint, where one or more of the following objections thereto appear upon the face thereof:

1. That the court has not jurisdiction of the person of the defendant.

2. That the court has not jurisdiction of the subject of the action.

3. That the plaintiff has not legal capacity to sue.

4. That there is another action pending between the same parties, for the same cause.

5. That there is a misjoinder of parties plaintiff.

6. That there is a defect of parties, plaintiff or defendant.

7. That causes of action have been improperly united.

8. That the complaint does not state facts sufficient to constitute a cause of action.

Id., § 144, am'd by adding subd. 5.

§ 489. [Stricken out in 1877.]

§ 490. [Am'd, 1877.] Demurrer to complaint must specify grounds of objection.

The demurrer must distinctly specify the objections to the complaint; otherwise it may be disregarded. An objection, taken under subdivision first, second, fourth, or eighth of section four hundred and eighty-eight of this act, may be stated in the language of the subdivision; an objection, taken under either of the other subdivisions, must point out specifically the particular defect relied upon.

First sentence Co. Proc., part of § 145.

§ 491. [Stricken out in 1877.]

§ 492. Demurrer to all or part of the complaint; demurrer to part, and answer to part.

The defendant may demur to the whole complaint, or to one or more separate causes of action, stated therein. In the latter case, he may answer the causes of action not demurred to.

Co. Proc., § 145, 2d sentence, consolidated with id., § 151.

§ 493. Defendant may demur to reply.

The defendant may also demur to the reply, or to a separate traverse to, or avoidance of, a defence or counterclaim, contained in the reply, on the ground that it is insufficient in law, upon the face thereof.

Substitute for Co. Proc., § 153.

§ 494. When plaintiff may demur to answer.

The plaintiff may demur to a counterclaim or a defence consisting of new matter, contained in the answer, on the ground that it is insufficient in law, upon the face thereof.

Id., part of § 153.

§ 495. [Am'd, 1877.] Demurrer to counterclaim, when defendant demands an affirmative judgment.

The plaintiff may also demur to a counterclaim, upon which the defendant demands an affirmative judgment, where one or more of the following objections thereto, appear on the face of the counterclaim:

1. That the court has not jurisdiction of the subject thereof.
2. That the defendant has not legal capacity to recover upon the same.
3. That there is another action pending between the same parties, for the same cause.
4. That the counterclaim is not of the character specified in section 501 of this act.
5. That the counterclaim does not state facts sufficient to constitute a cause of action.

§ 496. [Am'd, 1877.] Demurrer to counterclaim must specify grounds of objection.

A demurrer, taken under the last section, must distinctly specify the objections to the counterclaim; otherwise it may be disregarded. The mode of specifying the objections is the same, as where a demurrer is taken to a complaint.

§ 497. [Am'd, 1877.] Amendments in certain cases after decision of demurrer.

Upon the decision of a demurrer, either at a general or special term, or in the court of appeals, the court may, in its discretion, allow the party in fault to plead anew or amend, upon such terms as are just. If a demurrer to a complaint is allowed, because two or more causes of action have been improperly united, the court may, in its discretion, and upon such terms as are just, direct that the action be divided into as many actions, as are necessary for the proper determination of the causes of action therein stated.

Co. Proc., part of § 172.

§ 498. [Am'd, 1877.] When objection may be taken by answer.

Where any of the matters enumerated in section four hundred and eighty-eight of this act as grounds of demurrer, do not appear on the face of the complaint, the objection may be taken by answer.

Id., § 147.

§ 489. Objection; when deemed waived.

If such an objection is not taken, either by demurrer or answer, the defendant is deemed to have waived it; except the objection to the jurisdiction of the court, or the objection that the complaint does not state facts sufficient to constitute a cause of action.

Co. Proc., § 148.

ARTICLE THIRD.Answer.*

Sec. 500. Answer; what to contain.

501. Counterclaim defined.

502. Rules respecting the allowance of counterclaims.

503. Judgment, when demand and counterclaim are equal or unequal.

504. Id.; for affirmative relief.

505. Counterclaim, when defendant is sued in a representative capacity.

506. Id.; when plaintiff is an executor or administrator.

507. Defendant may interpose several defences or counterclaims; rules relating thereto.

508. Partial defences.

509. When defendant to demand affirmative judgment.

510. [Stricken out.]

511. When pleadings admit part of plaintiff's claim to be just, action may be severed, etc.

512. Judgment, where counterclaim only is interposed for less than plaintiff's claim.

513. Dilatory defences to be verified.

§ 500. [Am'd, 1877, 1904, 1905.] Answer; what to contain.

The answer of the defendant must contain:

1. A general or specific denial of each material allegation of the complaint controverted by the defendant, or of any knowledge or information thereof sufficient to form a belief.

2. [Am'd, 1904, 1905.] A statement of any new matter constituting a defense or counter-claim, in ordinary and concise language without repetition.

Co. Proc., § 149. See § 522. L. 1904, ch. 500; L. 1905, ch. 431. In effect May 16, 1905.

§ 501. [Am'd, 1877.] Counterclaim defined.

The counterclaim, specified in the last section, must tend, in some way, to diminish or defeat the plaintiff's recovery, and must be one of the following causes of action against the plaintiff, or, in a proper case, against the person whom he represents, and in favor of the defendant, or of one or more defendants, between whom and the plaintiff a separate judgment may be had in the action:

1. A cause of action arising out of the contract or transaction, set forth in the complaint as the foundation of the plaintiff's claim, or connected with the subject of the action.

2. In an action on contract, any other cause of action on contract, existing at the commencement of the action.

Substitute for first part of Co. Proc., § 150.

§ 502. [Am'd, 1877.] Rules respecting the allowance of counterclaims.

But the counterclaim, specified in subdivision second of the last section, is subject to the following rules:

1. If the action is founded upon a contract, which has been assigned by the party thereto, other than a negotiable promissory note or bill of exchange, a demand, existing against the party thereto, or an assignee of the contract, at the time of the assignment thereof, and belonging to the defendant, in good faith, before notice of the assignment, must be allowed as a counterclaim, to the amount of the plaintiff's demand, if it might have been so allowed against the party, or the assignee, while the contract belonged to him.

2. If the action is upon a negotiable promissory note or bill of exchange, which has been assigned to the plaintiff after it became due, a demand, existing against a person who assigned or transferred it, after it became due, must be allowed as a counterclaim, to the amount of the plaintiff's demand, if it might have been so allowed against the assignor, while the note or bill belonged to him.

3. If the plaintiff is a trustee for another, or if the action is in the name of a plaintiff, who has no actual interest in the contract upon which it is founded, a demand against the plaintiff shall not be allowed as a counterclaim; but so much of a demand existing against the person whom he represents, or for whose benefit the action is brought, as will satisfy the plaintiff's demand, must be allowed as a counterclaim, if it might have been so allowed in an action brought by the person beneficially interested.

Founded upon 2 R. S. 354, § 18, subds. 8, 9 and 10, and part of subd. 7.

§ 503. [Am'd, 1877.] Judgment, when demand and counterclaim are equal or unequal.

Where a counterclaim is established, which equals the plaintiff's demand, the judgment must be in favor of the defendant. Where it is less than the plaintiff's demand, the plaintiff must have judgment for the residue only. Where it exceeds the plaintiff's demand, the defendant must have judgment for the excess, or so much thereof as is due from the plaintiff. Where part of the excess is not due from the plaintiff, the judgment does not prejudice the defendant's right to recover, from another person, so much thereof as the judgment does not cancel.

Id., §§ 21, 22 (2 Edm. 367).

§ 504. Id.; for affirmative relief.

In a case not specified in the last section, where a counterclaim is established, which entitles the defendant to an affirmative judgment, demanded in the answer, judgment must be rendered for the defendant accordingly.

Co. Proc., last clause of § 263.

§ 505. Counterclaim, when defendant is sued in a representative capacity.

In an action against an executor or an administrator, or other person sued in a representative capacity, the defendant may set forth, as a counterclaim, a demand belonging to the decedent, or other person whom he represents, where the person so represented would have been entitled to set forth the same, in an action against him.

2 R. S. 355, § 25.

§ 506. Id.; when plaintiff is an executor or administrator.

In an action brought by an executor or administrator, in his representative capacity, a demand against the decedent, belonging, at the time of his death, to the defendant, may be set forth by the defendant as a counterclaim, as if the action had been brought by the decedent in his life-time; and, if a balance is found to be due to the defendant, judgment must be rendered therefor against the plaintiff, in his representative capacity. Execution can be issued upon such a judgment, only in a case where it could be issued upon a judgment, in an action against the executor or administrator.

Id., §§ 23 and 24. See § 1825.

§ 507. [Am'd, 1879.] Defendant may interpose several defences or counterclaims; rules relating thereto.

A defendant may set forth, in his answer, as many defences or counterclaims, or both, as he has, whether they are such as were formerly denominated legal or equitable. Each defence or counterclaim must be separately stated, and numbered. Unless it is interposed as an answer to the entire complaint, it must distinctly refer to the cause of action which it is intended to answer.

Co. Proc., part of § 150, am'd.

§ 508. [Am'd, 1877.] Partial defences.

A partial defence may be set forth, as prescribed in the last section; but it must be expressly stated to be a partial defence to the entire complaint, or to one or more separate causes of action, therein set forth. Upon a demurrer thereto, the question is, whether it is sufficient for that purpose. Matter tending only to mitigate or reduce damages, in an action to recover damages for the breach of a promise to marry, or for a personal injury, or an injury to property, is a partial defence, within the meaning of this section.

See post, § 536.

§ 509. [Am'd, 1877.] When defendant to demand affirmative judgment.

Where the defendant deems himself entitled to an affirmative judgment against the plaintiff, by reason of a counterclaim interposed by him, he must demand the judgment in his answer.

§ 510. [Stricken out in 1877.]

§ 511. [Am'd, 1879.] When pleadings admit part of plaintiff's claim to be just, action may be severed, etc.

Where the answer of the defendant, expressly or by not denying, admits a part of the plaintiff's claim to be just, the court, upon the plaintiff's motion, may, in its discretion, order that the action be severed; that a judgment be entered for the plaintiff for the part so admitted; and if the plaintiff so elects, that the action be continued, with like effect, as to the subsequent proceedings, as if it had been originally brought for the remainder of the claim. The order must prescribe the time and manner of the plaintiff's election. If the plaintiff elects to continue the action, his right to costs upon the judgment is the same, as if it was taken in an action brought for only that part of the claim. If the plaintiff does not elect to continue the action, costs must be awarded, as upon final judgment in any other case.

Substitute for concluding paragraph of § 244, Co. Proc.

§ 512. Judgment, where counterclaim only is interposed for less than plaintiff's claim.

In an action upon contract, where the complaint demands judgment for a sum of money only, if the defendant, by his answer, does not deny the plaintiff's claim, but sets up a counterclaim amounting to less than the plaintiff's claim, the plaintiff, upon filing with the clerk an admission of the counterclaim, may take judgment for the excess, as upon a default for want of an answer. The admission must be made a part of the judgment-roll.

Co. Proc., part of § 246, am'd.

§ 513. Dilatory defences to be verified.

A defence which does not involve the merits of the action, shall not be pleaded, unless it is verified as prescribed in title second of this chapter.

From 2 R. S. 852, § 7 (2 Edm. 864).

ARTICLE FOURTH.

Reply.

Sec. 514. Reply; what to contain.

515. Judgment upon failure to reply.

516. Cases where the court may require a reply.

517. Plaintiff may set forth several avoidances in reply.

§ 514. [Am'd, 1877, 1904, 1905.] Reply; what to contain.

Where the answer contains a counterclaim, the plaintiff, if he does not demur, may reply to the counterclaim. The reply must contain a general or specific denial of each material allegation of the counterclaim controverted by the plaintiff, or of any knowledge or information thereof sufficient to form a belief; and it may set forth in ordinary and concise language, without repetition, new matter not inconsistent with the complaint, constituting a defense to the counterclaim.

Co. Proc., part of § 153. See § 522. L. 1904, ch. 500; L. 1905, ch. 431. In effect May 16, 1905.

§ 515. Judgment upon failure to reply.

If the plaintiff fails to reply or demur to the counterclaim, the defendant may apply, upon notice, for judgment thereupon; and, if the case requires it, a reference may be ordered, or a writ of inquiry may be issued, as prescribed in chapter eleventh of this act, where the plaintiff applies for judgment.

Id., § 154, am'd. See post, § 1219.

§ 516. Cases where the court may require a reply.

Where an answer contains new matter, constituting a defence by way of avoidance, the court may, in its discretion, on the defendant's application, direct the plaintiff to reply to the new matter. In that case, the reply, and the proceedings upon failure to reply, are subject to the same rules as in the case of a counterclaim.

Id., concluding paragraph of § 153.

§ 517. [Am'd, 1877.] Plaintiff may set forth several avoidances in reply.

A reply may contain two or more distinct avoidances of the same defence or counterclaim; but they must be separately stated and numbered.

TITLE II.

Provisions generally applicable to pleadings.

- Sec. 518. Application and effect of this chapter.
519. Pleadings to be liberally construed.
520. Pleadings to be subscribed; within what time to be served.
521. When defendant to serve copy answer on co-defendant.
522. Allegation not denied; when to be deemed true.
523. When pleading must be verified; and when verification may be omitted.
524. Form and construction of certain allegations and denials in verified pleading.
525. Verification; how and by whom made.
526. Form of affidavit of verification.
527. When verification may be confined to a counterclaim.
528. Remedy for defective verification, or want of verification.
529. When defendant not excused from verifying answer to charge of fraud.
530. Private statute; how pleaded.
531. Account; how pleaded. Bill of particulars.
532. Judgment; how pleaded.
533. Conditions precedent; how pleaded.
534. Instrument for payment of money; how pleaded.
535. Pleadings in libel and slander.
536. Pleading mitigating circumstances, in action for a wrong.
537. Frivolous pleadings; how disposed of.
538. Sham defences to be stricken out.
539. Material variances; how provided for.
540. Immaterial variances; how provided for.
541. What to be deemed a failure of proof.
542. Amendments of course.
543. Amended pleading to be served; answer thereto.
544. Supplemental pleadings.
545. Motion to strike out irrelevant, etc., matter.
546. Indefinite or uncertain allegations.
547. Motions for judgment upon pleadings.

§ 518. Application and effect of this chapter.

This chapter prescribes the form of pleadings in an action, and the rules by which the sufficiency thereof is determined, except where special provision is otherwise made by law.

Substitute for Co. Proc., § 140.

§ 519. Pleadings to be liberally construed.

The allegations of a pleading must be liberally construed, with a view to substantial justice between the parties.

Co. Proc., § 159.

§ 520. Pleadings to be subscribed; within what time to be served.

A pleading must be subscribed by the attorney for the party. A copy of each pleading, subsequent to the complaint, must be served on the attorney for the adverse party, within twenty days after service of a copy of the preceding pleading.

Part of Co. Proc., § 156. See ante, § 55.

§ 521. [Am'd, 1884.] When defendant to serve copy answer on co-defendant.

Where the judgment may determine the ultimate rights of two or more defendants, as between themselves, a defendant who requires such a determination must demand it in his answer, and must at least twenty days before the trial serve a copy of his answer upon the attorney for each of the defendants to be affected by the determination, and personally, or as the court or judge may direct, upon defendants, so to be affected who have not duly appeared therein by attorney. The controversy between the defendants shall not delay a judgment, to which the plaintiff is entitled, unless the court otherwise directs.

See § 1204, post.

§ 522. Allegation not denied; when to be deemed true.

Each material allegation of the complaint, not controverted by the answer, and each material allegation of new matter in the answer, not controverted by the reply, where a reply is required, must, for the purposes of the action, be taken as true. But an allegation of new matter in the answer, to which a reply is not required, or of new matter in a reply, is to be deemed controverted by the adverse party, by traverse or avoidance, as the case requires.

Co. Proc., § 168; L. 1884, ch. 400. See §§ 500, 514.

§ 523. When pleading must be verified; and when verification may be omitted.

Where a pleading is verified, each subsequent pleading, except a demurrer, or the general answer of an infant by his guardian ad litem, must also be verified. But the verification may be omitted, in a case where it is not otherwise specially prescribed by law, where the party pleading would be privileged from testifying, as a witness, concerning an allegation or denial contained in the pleading. A pleading cannot be used, in a criminal prosecution against the party, as proof of a fact admitted or alleged therein.

Id., part of § 156, am'd. See §§ 1757, subd. 1; 1938.

§ 524. Form and construction of certain allegations and denials in verified pleading.

The allegations or denials in a verified pleading must, in form, be stated to be made by the party pleading. Unless they are therein stated to be made upon the information and belief of the party, they must be regarded, for all purposes, including a criminal prosecution, as having been made upon the knowledge of the person verifying the pleading. An allegation that the party has not sufficient knowledge or information, to form a belief, with respect to a matter, must, for the same purposes, be regarded as an allegation that the person verifying the pleading has not such knowledge or information.

§ 525. Verification; how and by whom made.

The verification must be made by the affidavit of the party, or, if there are two or more parties united in interest, and pleading together, by at least one of them, who is acquainted with the facts, except as follows:

1. Where the party is a domestic corporation, the verification must be made by an officer thereof.

2. Where the people of the State are, or a public officer, in their behalf, is the party, the verification may be made by any person acquainted with the facts.

3. [Am'd, 1870.] Where the party is a foreign corporation; or where the party is not within the county where the attorney resides, or if the latter is not a resident of the State, the county where he has his office, and capable of making the affidavit; or if there are two or more parties united in interest, and pleading together, where neither of them, acquainted with the facts is within that county, and capable of making the affidavit; or where the action or defence is founded upon a written instrument for the payment of money only, which is in the possession of the agent or the attorney; or where all the material allegations of the pleading are within the personal knowledge of the agent or the attorney; in either case the verification may be made by the agent or the attorney for the party.

From Co. Proc., § 157, am'd.

§ 526. Form of affidavit of verification.

The affidavit of verification must be to the effect, that the pleading is true to the knowledge of the deponent, except as to the matters therein stated to be alleged on information and belief, and that as to those matters he believes it to be true. Where it is made by a person, other than the party, he must set forth, in the affidavit, the grounds of his belief, as to all matters not stated upon his knowledge, and the reason why it is not made by the party.

Id., § 157.

§ 527. When verification may be confined to a counterclaim.

Where the complaint is not verified, and the answer sets up a counterclaim, and also a defence by way of denial or avoidance, the affidavit of verification may be made to refer exclusively to the counterclaim. In that case, the last three sections are applicable to the affidavit and the counterclaim, as if the latter was a separate pleading.

§ 528. Remedy for defective verification, or want of verification.

The remedy for a defective verification of a pleading is to treat the same as an unverified pleading. Where the copy of a pleading is served without a copy of a sufficient verification, in a case where the adverse party is entitled to a verified pleading, he may treat it as a nullity, provided he gives notice, with due diligence, to the attorney of the adverse party, that he elects so to do.

§ 529. When defendant not excused from verifying answer to charge of fraud.

A defendant is not excused from verifying his answer to a complaint, charging him with having confessed or suffered a judgment, or executed a conveyance, assignment, or other instrument, or transferred or delivered money, or personal property, with intent to hinder, delay, or defraud his creditors; or with being a party or privy to such a transaction by another person, with like intent towards the creditors of that person; or with any fraud whatever, affecting a right or the property of another.

Substance of 2 R. S. 174, § 41 (2 Edm. 181), and L. 1833, ch. 14, § 1 (4 Edm. 581).

§ 530. [Am'd, 1877.] Private statute; how pleaded.

In pleading a private statute, or a right derived therefrom, it is sufficient to designate the statute by its chapter, year of passage, and title, or in some other manner with convenient certainty, without setting forth any of the contents thereof.

Co. Proc., § 163, am'd.

§ 531. [Am'd, 1904.] Account, how pleaded. Bill of particulars.

It is not necessary for a party to set forth, in a pleading, the items of an account therein alleged; but in that case, he must deliver to the adverse party, within ten days after a written demand thereof, a copy of the account, which, if the pleading is verified, must be verified by his affidavit, to the effect, that he believes it to be true; or, if the facts are within the personal knowledge of the agent or attorney for the party, or the party is not within the county where the attorney resides, or capable of making the affidavit, by the affidavit of the agent or attorney. If he fails so to do, he is precluded from giving evidence of the account. The court, or a judge authorized to make an order in the action, may direct the party to deliver a further account, where the one delivered is defective. Upon application in any case, the court, or a judge authorized to make an order in the action, may, upon notice, direct a bill of the particulars of the claim of either party to be delivered to the adverse party, and in case of default the court shall preclude him from giving evidence of the part or parts of his affirmative allegation of which particulars have not been delivered.

Co. Proc., § 158, am'd; L. 1904, ch. 500. In effect April 29, 1904.

§ 532. Judgment; how pleaded.

In pleading a judgment, or other determination, of a court or officer of special jurisdiction, it is not necessary to state the facts conferring jurisdiction; but the judgment or determination may be stated to have been duly given or made. If that allegation is controverted, the party pleading must, on the trial, establish the facts conferring jurisdiction.

Id., § 161.

§ 533. Conditions precedent; how pleaded.

In pleading the performance of a condition precedent in a contract, it is not necessary to state the facts constituting performance; but the party may state, generally, that he, or the person whom he represents, duly performed all the conditions on his part. If that allegation is controverted, he must, on the trial, establish performance.

Id., part of § 162.

§ 534. Instrument for payment of money; how pleaded.

Where a cause of action, defence, or counterclaim, is founded upon an instrument for the payment of money only, the party may set forth a copy of the instrument, and state that there is due to him thereon, from the adverse party, a specified sum, which he claims. Such an allegation is equivalent to setting forth the instrument, according to its legal effect.

Id., part of § 162, am'd. See § 1917.

§ 535. Pleadings in libel and slander.

It is not necessary, in an action for libel or slander, to state, in the complaint, any extrinsic fact, for the purpose of showing the application to the plaintiff, of the defamatory matter; but the plaintiff may state, generally, that it was published or spoken concerning him; and, if that allegation is controverted, the plaintiff must establish it on the trial. In such an action, the defendant may prove mitigating circumstances, notwithstanding that he has pleaded or attempted to prove a justification

Id., § 164.

§ 536. [Am'd, 1877.] Pleading mitigating circumstances in action for a wrong.

In an action to recover damages for the breach of a promise to marry, or for a personal injury, or an injury to property, the defendant may prove, at the trial, facts, not amounting to a total defence, tending to mitigate or otherwise reduce the plaintiff's damages, if they are set forth in the answer, either with or without one or more defences to the entire cause of action. A defendant, in default for want of an answer, may, upon a reference or inquiry to ascertain the amount of the plaintiff's damages, prove facts of that description.

§ 537. [Am'd, 1879.] Frivolous pleadings; how disposed of.

If a demurrer, answer or reply is frivolous, the party prejudiced thereby, upon a previous notice to the adverse party, of not less than five days, may apply to the court or to a judge of the court for judgment thereupon, and judgment may be given accordingly. If the application is denied, an appeal cannot be taken from the determination, and the denial of the application does not prejudice any of the subsequent proceedings of either party. Costs, as upon a motion, may be awarded upon an application pursuant to this section.

Co. Proc., § 247. See § 547.

§ 538. Sham defences to be stricken out.

A sham answer or a sham defence may be stricken out by the court, upon motion, and upon such terms as the court deems just.

Id., § 152, am'd.

§ 539. Material variances; how provided for.

A variance, between an allegation in a pleading and the proof, is not material, unless it has actually misled the adverse party, to his prejudice, in maintaining his action or defence, upon the merits. If a party insists that he has been misled, that fact, and the particulars in which he has been misled, must be proved to the satisfaction of the court. Thereupon the court may, in its discretion, order the pleading to be amended, upon such terms as it deems just.

Id., § 169.

§ 540. Immaterial variances; how provided for.

Where the variance is not material, as prescribed in the last section, the court may direct the fact to be found according to the evidence, or may order an immediate amendment, without costs.

Id., § 170.

§ 541. What to be deemed a failure of proof.

Where, however, the allegation to which the proof is directed, is unproved, not in some particular or particulars only, but in its entire scope and meaning, it is not a case of variance, within the last two sections, but a failure of proof.

Id., § 171.

§ 542. [Am'd, 1897.] Amendments of course.

Within twenty days after a pleading, or the answer, demurrer or reply thereto, is served, or at any time before the period for answering it expires, the pleading may be once amended by the party, of course, without costs and without prejudice to the proceedings already had. But if it is made to appear to the court that the pleading was amended for the purpose of delay, and that the adverse party will thereby lose the benefit of a term, for which the cause is or may be noticed, the amended pleading may be stricken out, or the pleading may be restored to its original form, and such terms imposed as the court deems just.

Co. Proc., part of § 172, remodelled; L. 1897, ch. 470. In effect Sept. 1, 1897.

§ 543. Amended pleading to be served; answer thereto.

Where a pleading is amended, as prescribed in the last section, a copy thereof must be served upon the attorney for the adverse party. A failure to demur to, or answer the amended pleading, within twenty days thereafter, has the same effect as a like failure to demur to, or answer the original pleading.

Id., part of § 172, and of § 146.

§ 544. [Am'd, 1877.] Supplemental pleadings.

Upon the application of either party, the court may, and, in a proper case, must, upon such terms as are just, permit him to make a supplemental complaint, answer or reply, alleging material facts which occurred after his former pleading, or of which he was ignorant when it was made; including the judgment or decree of a competent court, rendered after the commencement of the action, determining the matters in controversy, or a part thereof. The party may apply for leave to make a supplemental pleading, either in addition to, or in place of, the former pleading. In the former event, if the application is granted, a provisional remedy, or other proceeding already taken in the action, is not affected by the supplemental pleading; but the right of the adverse party to have it vacated or set aside, depends upon the cases presented by the original and supplemental pleadings.

Id., § 177, am'd.

§ 545. [Am'd, 1877.] Motion to strike out irrelevant, etc., matter.

Irrelevant, redundant, or scandalous matter, contained in a pleading, may be stricken out, upon the motion of a person aggrieved thereby. Where scandalous matter is thus stricken out, the attorney whose name is subscribed to the pleading may be directed to pay the costs of the motion, and his failure to pay them may be punished as a contempt of the court.

Id., § 160, am'd. See Rule 22.

§ 546. [Am'd, 1877.] Indefinite or uncertain allegations.

Where one or more denials or allegations, contained in a pleading, are so indefinite or uncertain that the precise meaning or application thereof is not apparent, the court may require the pleading to be made definite and certain by amendment.

Id., part of § 160, am'd. See Rule 22.

§ 547. [Added, 1908.] Motions for judgment upon pleadings.

If either party is entitled to judgment upon the pleadings, the court may upon motion at any time after issue joined give judgment accordingly.

Added, L. 1908, ch. 166. In effect Sept. 1, 1908.

CHAPTER VII.

General Provisional Remedies in an Action.

TITLE I.— Arrest, Pending the Action, and Proceedings Thereupon.

TITLE II.— Injunction.

TITLE III.— Attachment of Property.

TITLE IV.— Other Provisional Remedies; General and Miscellaneous Provisions.

TITLE I.

Arrest, pending the action, and proceedings thereupon.

- Article 1. Cases where an order of arrest may be granted, and persons liable to arrest.
2. Granting, executing, and vacating or modifying the order of arrest.
  3. Discharging the defendant upon bail or deposit; justification of the bail and disposition of the deposit.
  4. Charging and discharging bail.

ARTICLE FIRST.*

Cases where an order of arrest may be granted, and persons liable to arrest.

- Sec. 548. No person to be arrested in civil proceedings, without a statutory provision. Ne exeat abolished.
- 549. When the right to arrest depends upon the nature of the action.
- 550. When the right to arrest depends partly upon extrinsic facts.
- 551. Order, when and where granted; when of right, and when discretionary.
- 552. Foreign judgment not to affect right to arrest.
- 553. Women not to be arrested, except, etc.
- 554. Idiot, lunatic, or infant under fourteen, if arrested, to be discharged.
- 555. Person sued in a representative capacity, not to be arrested.

§ 548. [Repealed by L. 1909, ch. 14. See Consolidated Laws, tit. Civil Rights Law, § 23.]

§ 549. [Am'd, 1877 and 1886.] When the right to arrest depends upon the nature of the action.

A defendant may be arrested in an action, as prescribed in this title, where the action is brought for either of the following causes:

1. To recover a fine or penalty.
2. To recover damages for a personal injury; an injury to property, including the wrongful taking, detention or conversion of personal property; breach of a promise to marry; misconduct or neglect in office, or in a professional employment; fraud; or deceit, or to recover a chattel where it is alleged in the complaint that the chattel or a part thereof has been concealed, removed or disposed of so that it cannot be found or taken by the sheriff and with intent that it should not be so found or taken, or to deprive the plaintiff of the benefit thereof; or to recover for money received, or to recover property or damages for the conversion or misapplication of property where it is alleged in the complaint that the money was received or the property was embezzled or fraudulently misapplied by a public officer or by an attorney, solicitor or counselor, or by an officer or agent of a corporation or banking association in the course of his employment, or by a factor, agent, broker, or other person in a fiduciary capacity. Where such allegation is made, the plaintiff cannot recover unless he proves the same on the trial of the action; and a judgment for the defendant is not a bar to the new action to recover the money or chattel.

* See Laws 1886, ch. 672.

3. To recover money, funds, credits, or property, held or owned by the State, or held, or owned, officially or otherwise, for or in behalf of a public or governmental interest, by a municipal or other public corporation, board, officer, custodian agency, or agent, of the State or of a city, county, town, village, or other division, subdivision, department, or portion of the State, which the defendant has, without right, obtained, received, converted, or disposed of, or to recover damages for so obtaining, receiving, paying, converting, or disposing of the same.

4. [Added, 1879; am'd, 1886.] In an action upon contract express or implied, other than a promise to marry, where it is alleged in the complaint that the defendant was guilty of a fraud in contracting or incurring the liability, or that he has since the making of the contract, or in contemplation of making of the same, removed or disposed of his property with intent to defraud his creditors, or is about to remove or dispose of the same with like intent; but where such allegation is made, the plaintiff cannot recover unless he proves the fraud on the trial of the action; and a judgment for the defendant is not a bar to a new action to recover upon the contract only.

Co. Proc., § 179, am'd; L. 1886, ch. 672.

§ 550. [Am'd, 1877 and 1886.] When the right to arrest depends partly upon extrinsic facts.

A defendant may also be arrested in an action wherein the judgment demanded requires the performance of an act, the neglect or refusal to perform which would be punishable by the court as a contempt, where the defendant is not a resident of the State, or, being a resident, is about to depart therefrom, by reason of which non-residence or departure there is danger that a judgment or an order requiring the performance of the act will be rendered ineffectual.

Substitute for part of § 179, Co. Proc.; L. 1886, ch. 672.

§ 551. [Am'd, 1877 and 1886.] Order when and where granted; when of right, and when discretionary.

In a case specified in the last section, the order of arrest can be granted only by the court, is always in its discretion, and may be granted or served, either before or after final judgment, unless an appeal from the judgment is pending, upon which security has been given, sufficient to stay the execution thereof. In either of the cases specified in section five hundred and forty-nine, the order cannot be served after final judgment; but it may be granted, where a proper case therefor is presented, at any time before final judgment.

L. 1886, ch. 672.

§ 552. Foreign judgment not to affect right to arrest.

The recovery of judgment in a court, not of the State, for the same cause of action; or, where the action is founded upon fraud or deceit, for the price or value of the property obtained thereby; does not affect the right of the plaintiff to arrest the defendant, as prescribed in this title.

§ 553. [Am'd, 1877.] Woman not to be arrested, except, etc.

A woman cannot be arrested, as prescribed in this title, except in a case where the order can be granted only by the court; or where it appears, that the action is to recover damages for a wilful injury to person, character, or property.

Last sentence of Co. Proc., § 179.

§ 554. [Am'd, 1877.] Idiot, lunatic, or infant under fourteen, if arrested, to be discharged.

A lunatic, an idiot, or an infant under the age of fourteen years, if arrested, may be discharged from arrest, as a privileged person, in the discretion of the court. The application for his discharge may be made, in his behalf, by a relative, or by any other person whom the court or judge permits to represent him, for the purpose.

§ 555. Person sued in a representative capacity, not to be arrested.

A person prosecuted in a representative capacity, as heir, executor, administrator, legatee, devisee, next of kin, assignee, or trustee, cannot be arrested, as prescribed in this title, except for his personal act.

Modelled upon 2 R. S. 848, § 9 (2 Edm. 859).

ARTICLE SECOND.

Granting, executing, and vacating or modifying the order of arrest.

Sec. 556. Order required for arrest; how granted.

557. Proof necessary to procure order.

558. When order may be granted; effect of complaint subsequently made.

559. Security, upon order of arrest made by a judge.

560. Id.; upon order of arrest granted by the court.

561. Contents of the order; to whom directed; when to be executed.

562. Copies of papers to be delivered to defendant; originals to be filed.

563. Arrest; how made.

564. General provision as to privilege from arrest; discharge of privileged person.

565. Privilege of officers of courts.

566. Defendant arrested to have twenty days to answer.

567. When application to be made to vacate order of arrest, etc.

568. How and to whom application must be made; opposing it by new proofs.

569-571. [Repealed.]

572. Supersedeas, unless defendant is charged in execution, etc.

§ 556. [Am'd, 1877.] Order required for arrest; how granted.

An order for the arrest of the defendant, except as otherwise prescribed in section five hundred and fifty-one of this act, must be obtained from a judge of the court in which the action is brought, or from any county judge.

Co. Proc., § 180. See §§ 606, 633 and 1949, post.

§ 557. [Am'd, 1879.] Proof necessary to procure order.

The order may be granted, in a case specified in section five hundred and forty-nine of this act, where it appears by the affidavit of the plaintiff or any other person, that a sufficient cause of action exists against the defendant, as prescribed in that section. It may be granted, in a case specified in section five hundred and fifty of this act, upon the like proof that a sufficient cause of action exists against the defendant, as prescribed in that section, and of the other matters, extrinsic to the cause of action, specified in that section. The affidavit may also contain any statement, tending to determine the amount of bail to be required.

Id., § 181, with modifications.

§ 558. [Am'd, 1879, 1886.] When order may be granted; effect of complaint subsequently made.

Subject to the provisions of the last preceding section, the order may be granted at any time, after the commencement of the action. It may also be granted to accompany the summons, but at any time after the filing or service of the complaint, the order of arrest must be vacated on motion, if the complaint fails to set forth a sufficient cause of action, as required by section five hundred and forty-nine of this act, but where the order is applied for after the filing or service of the complaint, the court before granting the same may without notice direct the service of an amended complaint so as to conform to the allegations required in subdivisions two and four of section five hundred and forty-nine of this act.

Id., § 183; L. 1886, ch. 672.

§ 559. [Am'd, 1879.] Security, upon order of arrest made by judge.

Except where the action is brought for a cause specified in subdivision third of section five hundred and forty-nine of this act, or in a case where it is specially prescribed by law that security may be dispensed with, or the security to be given is specially regulated by law, the judge, before he grants the order, must require a written undertaking on the part of the plaintiff, with two sufficient sureties, to the effect that, if the defendant recovers judgment, or if it is finally decided that the plaintiff was not entitled to the order of arrest, the plaintiff will pay all costs which may be awarded to the defendant, and all damages which he may sustain by reason of the arrest, not exceeding the sum specified in the undertaking, which must be at least equal to one-tenth of the amount of bail required by the order, and not less than two hundred and fifty dollars.

Co. Proc., part of § 182.

§ 560. Id.; upon order of arrest granted by the court.

Where the order can be granted only by the court, an undertaking on the part of the plaintiff may be dispensed with. If it is required, its form, and the security to be given thereupon, must be such as the court prescribes.

Covers case of a no exeat.

§ 561. [Am'd, 1877.] Contents of the order; to whom directed; when to be executed.

The order must be subscribed by the plaintiff's attorney, and, except where it is granted by the court, by the judge. It may be directed, either to the sheriff of a particular county, or, generally, to the sheriff of any county. It must require the sheriff forthwith to arrest the defendant, if he is found within his county; to hold him to bail in a specified sum; and to return the order, with his proceedings thereunder, as prescribed by law. The plaintiff's attorney may, at his option, by an indorsement upon the order, or, where it was granted by the court, upon the copy thereof, delivered to the sheriff, fix a time within which the defendant must be arrested. In that case, he cannot be arrested afterwards, under the same order.

Co. Proc., part of § 183, am'd. See § 590. See also Rule 12.

§ 562. [Am'd, 1879.] Copies of papers to be delivered to defendant; originals to be filed.

The order of arrest, or, where it was granted by the court, a certified copy thereof, subscribed by the plaintiff's attorney; and, in either case, the papers upon which the order was granted, with the undertaking, if any; must be delivered to the sheriff, who, upon arresting the defendant, must deliver to him a copy thereof. The papers, upon which the order was granted, with the undertaking, if any, must be filed, with the order of arrest, or a certified copy thereof, at the time prescribed for filing the same, in section five hundred and ninety of this act.

Id., § 184, am'd by the addition of the last sentence. See § 590. See also Rule 4.

§ 563. Arrest; how made.

The sheriff must execute the order by arresting the defendant, if he is found within his county, and keeping him in custody, until discharged by law.

Id., first clause of § 185.

§ 564. [Am'd, 1895.] General provision as to privilege from arrest; discharge of privileged person.

This title does not abridge or affect a privilege from arrest given by law, or a right of action for a breach thereof. A privileged person is entitled to be discharged from arrest, where other provision is not made therefor by law, by the court, or a judge thereof; or by the county judge of a county where the arrest was made. The order must be made, upon proof, by affidavit, of the facts entitling the applicant to the discharge; and the arrest and discharge are not a bar to a new arrest, after the privilege has ceased. The court or judge may make the order without notice, or may require notice to be given to the sheriff, or to the plaintiff, or to both.

L. 1895, ch. 946.

§ 565. [Repealed by L. 1909, ch. 14. See Consolidated Laws, tit. Civil Rights Law, § 24.]

§ 566. Defendant arrested to have twenty days to answer.

Except where an order of arrest can be granted only by the court, a defendant, arrested before answer, has twenty days, after the arrest, in which to answer the complaint; and judgment must be stayed accordingly.

Substituted for part of Co. Proc., § 183.

§ 567. [Am'd, 1877.] When application to be made to vacate order of arrest, etc.

Except where an order of arrest can be granted only by the court, a defendant, arrested as prescribed in this title, may, at any time before final judgment, or, if he was arrested within twenty days before final judgment, at any time within twenty days after the arrest, apply to vacate the order of arrest; or to reduce the amount of bail; or to increase the security given by the plaintiff; or for one or more of those forms of relief, together, or in the alternative. In a case where the order of arrest can be granted only by the court, a like application may be made, at any time within twenty days after the arrest; and an application to increase the security given by the plaintiff, may be made at any time before final judgment.

Id.

§ 568. [Am'd, 1877.] How and to whom application must be made; opposing it by new proofs.

An application, specified in the last section, may be founded only upon the papers upon which the order was granted; in which case, it must be made to the court, or, if the order was granted by a judge out of court, to the same judge, in court or out of court, and with or without notice, as he deems proper; and the application must be heard upon those papers only. Or it may be founded upon proof, by affidavit, on the part of the defendant; in which case, it must be made to the court, or, if the order was granted by a judge out of court, to any judge of the court, upon notice, and it may be opposed by new proof, by affidavit, on the part of the plaintiff, tending to sustain any ground of arrest recited in the order, and no other, unless the defendant relies upon a discharge in bankruptcy, or upon a discharge or exoneration, granted in insolvent proceedings; in which case, the plaintiff may show any matter in avoidance thereof, which he might show upon the trial.

Substitute for Co. Proc., § 205.

§ 569. [Repealed, 1877.]

§ 570. [Repealed, 1877.]

§ 571. [Repealed, 1877.]

§ 572. [Am'd, 1877, 1882 and 1886.] Supersedes, unless defendant is charged in execution, etc.

Except in a case where an order of arrest can be granted only by the court if the plaintiff unreasonably delay the trial of the action or neglects to enter judgment therein within ten days after it is in his power to do so, or neglects to issue execution against the person of the defendant within ten days after the return of the execution against the property, and in any event neglects to issue the same within three months after the entry of the judgment, or whenever it shall appear to the satisfaction of the court that the plaintiff in an action, or a judgment creditor in a judgment, delays the enforcement of his remedies therein by collusion, or for the purpose of allowing the debtor to remain in prison under the mandate in any other action, before the issuing of the mandate in favor of such creditor, so as to produce a continued and extended imprisonment by virtue of the separate mandates in the different actions, the defendant must upon his application, made upon notice to the plaintiff, be discharged from custody if he has already been taken under the mandate against him in such action; or if he has not yet been imprisoned therein, be relieved from imprisonment by virtue of such mandate, by the court in which the action was commenced, unless reasonable cause is shown why the application should not be granted. A defendant discharged as prescribed in this section shall not be arrested upon an execution issued upon the judgment in the action.

Co. Proc., part of § 288, am'd; L. 1886, ch. 672.

ARTICLE THIRD.

Discharging the defendant upon bail or deposit; justification of the bail and disposition of the deposit.

- Sec. 573. Defendant to be discharged on bail or deposit.
 574. When defendant may elect to give bail, etc., or bond for liberties.
 575. Undertaking of the bail; what to contain.
 576. Examination of persons offered as bail.
 577. Filing, etc., of papers; plaintiff's acceptance or rejection of bail.
 578. Notice of jurisdiction; new undertaking, if other bail is given.
 579. Qualifications of bail.
 580. Justification of bail.
 581. Allowance of bail.
 582. Deposit of money with sheriff.
 583. Payment of deposit into court by sheriff.
 584. Substituting bail for deposit.
 585. How deposit disposed of.
 586. When deposit to be paid to a third person.
 587. Sheriff, when liable to bail; his discharge from liability.
 588. Proceedings on judgment against sheriff.
 589. Bail liable to sheriff.
 590. Filing papers if bail not given.

§ 573. Defendant to be discharged on bail or deposit.

The defendant, at any time before he is in contempt, where the order can be granted only by the court, or, in any other case, at any time before execution against his person, must be discharged from arrest, either upon giving bail, or upon depositing the sum specified in the order of arrest. The defendant may give bail, or make the deposit, immediately upon his arrest, at any hour of the day or night; and he must have reasonable opportunity to see* for and to procure bail, before being committed to jail.

Co. Proc., § 186, am'd. See post, § 1706.

§ 574. When defendant may elect to give bail, etc., or bond for liberties.

Where the defendant is actually confined in the jail, by virtue of an order of arrest, and final or interlocutory judgment has been rendered against him in the action, but an execution against his person has not been issued, he may elect, either to give a bond for the liberties of the jail, or to give bail or make a deposit, as prescribed in this article.

§ 575. Undertaking of the bail; what to contain.

The defendant may give bail, by delivering to the sheriff a written undertaking, in the sum specified in the order of arrest, executed by two or more sufficient bail, stating their places of residence and occupations, to the following effect:

1. If the order of arrest could be granted only by the court, that the defendant will obey the direction of** court, or of an appellate court, contained in an order or a judgment, requiring him to perform the act specified in the order; or, in default of his so doing, that he will, at all times, render himself amenable to proceedings to punish him for the omission.

2. If the action is to recover a chattel, that the defendant will deliver it to the plaintiff, if delivery thereof is adjudged in the action, and will pay any sum recovered against him in the action.

* Error in engrossing for "seek."

** Word "the" omitted by error in engrossing.

3. In any other case, that the defendant will, at all times, render himself amenable to any mandate, which may be issued to enforce a final judgment against him in the action.

Substitute for Co. Proc., § 187.

§ 576. [Am'd, 1879.] Examination of persons offered as bail.

It is not necessary that the undertaking should be approved or accompanied with an affidavit of justification of the bail. But the officer, taking the acknowledgment of the undertaking, must, if the sheriff so requires, examine under oath, to a reasonable extent, the persons offering to become bail, concerning their property and their circumstances. The examination must be reduced to writing, subscribed by the bail, and attached to the undertaking.

From 2 R. S. 380, § 20 (2 Edm. 395).

§ 577. [Am'd, 1879.] Filing, etc., of papers; plaintiff's acceptance or rejection of bail.

Within three days after bail is given, the sheriff must deliver to the plaintiff's attorney copies, certified by him, of the order of arrest, return and undertaking. The plaintiff's attorney, within ten days thereafter, must serve upon the sheriff a notice that he does not accept the bail; otherwise he is deemed to have accepted them, and the sheriff is exonerated from liability.

Co. Proc., § 192, am'd.

§ 578. Notice of justification; new undertaking, if other bail is given.

Within ten days after the receipt of the notice, the sheriff or the defendant may serve upon the plaintiff's attorney, notice of the justification of the same or other bail, specifying the place of residence and occupation of each of the latter, before a judge of the court, or a county judge, at a specified time and place; the time to be not less than five nor more than ten days thereafter, and the place to be within the county where one of the bail resides, or where the defendant was arrested. If other bail are given, a new undertaking must be executed, as prescribed in section 575 of this act.

Id., § 193, am'd.

§ 579. Qualifications of bail.

The qualifications of bail are as follows:

1. Each of them must be a resident of, and a householder or freeholder within the State.

2. Each of them must be worth the sum specified in the order of arrest, exclusive of property exempt from execution; but the judge, on justification, may allow more than two bail to justify, severally, in sums less than that specified in the order, if the whole justification is equivalent to that of two sufficient bail.

Id., § 194, am'd.

§ 580. Justification of bail.

For the purpose of justification, each of the bail must attend before the judge, at the time and place mentioned in the notice, and be examined on oath, on the part of the plaintiff, touching his sufficiency, in such manner as the judge, in his discretion, thinks proper. The judge may, in his discretion, adjourn the examination from day to day, until it is completed; but such an adjournment must always be to the next judicial day, unless by consent of parties. If required by the plaintiff's attorney, the examination must be reduced to writing, and subscribed by the bail.

Co. Proc., § 195, am'd.

§ 581. Allowance of bail.

If the judge finds the bail sufficient, he must annex the examination to the undertaking, indorse his allowance thereon, and cause them to be filed with the clerk. The sheriff is thereupon exonerated from liability.

Id., § 196, am'd. See post, § 1705.

§ 582. [Am'd, 1904.] Deposit of money with sheriff.

A defendant, or other person arrested or attached on civil process, who is entitled to release on bail, or to jail liberties on giving the undertaking required by section one hundred and fifty of this act, may instead of giving bail, or such undertaking, deposit with the sheriff the sum specified in, or endorsed upon such process, or which might be required in such undertaking. The sheriff must thereupon give the prisoner a certificate of the deposit and discharge him from custody. A deposit so made in lieu of an undertaking for jail liberties must be applied, under direction of the court, in satisfaction of any judgment for escape of the prisoner from such liberties and in payment of any expense incurred in the defense of an action for such escape, and thereafter the surplus, if any, and in case there has been no such escape, the whole, of such deposit must be refunded to the prisoner or his representative, and in case of a deposit in lieu of bail on attachment against the person, it shall abide the disposition of the court, or a judge thereof, or a county judge.

Id., § 197, am'd; L. 1904, ch. 384. In effect April 26, 1904.

§ 583. Payment of deposit into court by sheriff.

The sheriff must, within four days after the deposit, pay it into court. He must take, from the officer receiving it, two certificates of the payment, one of which he must deliver to the plaintiff, and the other to the defendant. For a default in making the payment, the official bond of the sheriff may be prosecuted, as in any other case of delinquency.

Id., § 198.

§ 584. Substituting bail for deposit.

If money is deposited, as prescribed in the last two sections, bail may be given, and may justify upon notice, at any time before the expiration of the right to be discharged on bail. Thereupon the judge, before whom the justification is had, must direct, in the order of allowance, that the money deposited be refunded to the defendant or his representative, and it must be refunded accordingly.

Id., § 199, am'd.

§ 585. How deposit disposed of.

If money deposited is not refunded, as prescribed in the last section, it is, in a case where the order of arrest could be granted only by the court, subject to the direction of the court, as justice requires, before and after the judgment. In any other case, if it remains on deposit, when final judgment is rendered for the plaintiff, it must be applied, under the direction of the court, in satisfaction of the judgment, and the surplus, if any, must be refunded to the defendant, or his representative. If the final judgment is for the defendant, or the action abates or is discontinued, the sum deposited, and remaining unapplied, must be refunded to the defendant or his representative.

Substitute for Co. Proc., § 200.

§ 586. When deposit to be paid to a third person.

At any time before the deposit is paid into court, the defendant may deliver to the sheriff a written direction, to pay it to a third person, therein specified, in the event that the defendant becomes entitled to a return thereof; but without expressing any other contingency. The direction must be acknowledged or proved, and certified, in like manner as a deed to be recorded; and the sheriff must deliver it to the officer who receives the deposit, who must note the substance thereof, with the entries of the deposit, in his books, and upon the two certificates of payment into court. The money thus deposited is deemed the property of the third person, subject to the plaintiff's interest therein, and subject to the rights of a creditor of the defendant, where the direction was given for the purpose of hindering, delaying, or defrauding creditors. The money, or the residue thereof, must be paid to the third person, where, by the provisions of the last two sections, it is required to be refunded to the defendant, or his representative.

§ 587. [Am'd, 1877.] Sheriff, when liable as bail; his discharge from liability.

If, after the defendant is arrested, he escapes or is rescued, or the bail, if any, given by him, do not justify, when they are not accepted, or if the sheriff fails to pay the deposit into court as required by section 583 of this act, the sheriff is liable as bail. But the sheriff may, except in an action to recover a chattel, discharge himself from liability, by the giving and justification of bail, as follows:

1. If the case is one where the order could be granted only by the court, at any time before the court directs the performance of the act specified in the order.

2. In any other case, at any time before an execution is issued against the person of the defendant, upon a judgment in the action.

Co. Proc., § 201, am'd.

§ 588. Proceedings on judgment against sheriff.

If judgment is recovered against the sheriff, upon his liability as bail, and an execution thereon is returned wholly or partly unsatisfied, the official bond of the sheriff may be prosecuted, as in any other case of delinquency.

Id., § 202.

§ 589. Bail liable to sheriff.

The bail taken upon the arrest, unless they justify, or other bail are given and justify, are liable to the sheriff for all damages, which he sustains by reason of the omission.

Id., § 203.

§ 590. [Am'd, 1879.] Filing papers if bail not given.

Within ten days after the defendant is arrested, if he does not give bail, or if he gives bail, within ten days after the justification of the bail, the sheriff must file with the clerk the order of arrest, or, where it was granted by the court, the certified copy thereof delivered to him, with his return thereupon indorsed, the papers upon which the order of arrest was granted, and the undertaking given on the part of the plaintiff. Where an order of arrest, directing the arrest of two or more defendants, has been executed as to one or more, but not as to all of them, the sheriff may file a copy of the order of arrest, instead of the original.

See §§ 561, 562. See also Rule 4.

ARTICLE FOURTH.

Charging and discharging bail.

- Sec. 591. When defendant may be surrendered.
592. How surrender to be made; exoneration of bail thereupon.
593. Bail may arrest defendant.
594. Voluntary surrender; exoneration of bail thereupon.
595. Rights, etc., of sheriff who is liable as bail.
596. Bail; how proceeded against.
597. Certain executions necessary before action against bail.
598. Duty of sheriff on such executions.
599. Defences in action against bail.
600. Relief of bail where principal is imprisoned on criminal charge.
601. Bail exonerated by death, etc.

§ 591. When defendant may be surrendered.

Except in an action to recover a chattel, the bail may surrender the defendant in their own exoneration, or the defendant may surrender himself in exoneration of the bail, before the expiration of the time to answer, in an action against them. The surrender must be made to the sheriff of the county, where the defendant was arrested.

Co. Proc., § 188, first and last clauses, am'd.

§ 592. How surrender to be made; exoneration of bail thereupon.

Where the bail surrender the defendant, the surrender must be made in the following manner:

1. They must take the defendant to the sheriff, and require him, in writing, to take the defendant into his custody.

2. A certified copy of the undertaking of the bail must be delivered to the sheriff, who must detain the defendant in his custody thereupon, as upon the original mandate, and must, by a certificate in writing, acknowledge the surrender. Upon the application of the bail, made upon notice to the plaintiff's attorney, and upon production of the sheriff's certificate and a copy of the undertaking, a judge of the court, or the county judge of the county where the action is triable, may make an order, directing that the bail be exonerated. On filing the order and the papers used on the application therefor, the bail are exonerated accordingly.

Id., part of § 188, am'd.

§ 593. [Am'd, 1877.] Bail may arrest defendant.

For the purpose of surrendering the defendant, the bail, at any place or at any time before they are finally charged, may themselves arrest him, or, by a written authority, indorsed on a certified copy of the undertaking, may empower another person to do so, and one or more of the bail may thus arrest and surrender the defendant, although the others do not join with him or them, for that purpose.

Id., § 189, am'd.

§ 594. Voluntary surrender; exoneration of bail thereupon.

Where the defendant surrenders himself in exoneration of his bail, he must present himself to the sheriff, and require the sheriff, in writing, to take him into custody, in exoneration of his bail. The sheriff must detain him accordingly, as prescribed in subdivision second of section 592 of this act; and, if requested by the bail, at any time after the surrender, the sheriff must, by a certificate in writing, acknowledge the surrender. An order for exoneration of the bail may be procured, as prescribed in section 592 of this act.

§ 595. Rights, etc., of sheriff who is liable for bail.

Where the sheriff is liable as bail, he has all the rights and privileges, and is subject to all the duties and liabilities of bail; and bail given by him, in order to discharge himself from liability, must be regarded as the bail of the defendant in the action. But this section does not apply to an action to recover a chattel; or to a case where a defence arises to an action against the bail, in consequence of an act or omission of the sheriff.

§ 596. Bail; how proceeded against.

In case of failure to comply with the undertaking, the bail may be proceeded against by action, and not otherwise.

Co. Proc., § 190.

§ 597. Certain executions necessary before action against bail.

An action may be brought, as prescribed in the last section, in a case where the order of arrest could be granted only by the court, at any time after the bail have failed to comply with their undertaking. Where the undertaking was given in an action to recover a chattel, an action may be brought thereupon, at any time after the return, wholly or partly unsatisfied, of an execution for the delivery of the possession of the chattel, with respect to which the order of arrest was granted. In any other case, an action cannot be brought, as prescribed in the last section, until the following requisites have been complied with:

1. An execution, against the property of the defendant, must have been issued to the sheriff of the county in which he was arrested, and returned by that sheriff, wholly or partly unsatisfied.

2. An execution, against the person of the defendant, must have been issued to the same sheriff, and by him returned, not less than fifteen days after its receipt, to the effect that the defendant could not be found within his county.

2 R. S. 382, § 31 (2 Edm. 397), am'd.

§ 598. Duty of sheriff on such executions.

The sheriff must diligently endeavor to enforce an execution issued and delivered to him, as prescribed in the last section, notwithstanding any direction he may receive from the plaintiff, or his attorney.

Id., § 32.

§ 599. Defences in action against bail.

In an action against bail, it is a defence, that an execution, against the property, or against the person, of the defendant in the original action, was not issued, as prescribed in section five hundred and ninety-seven of this act; or that it was not issued in sufficient time to enable the sheriff to enforce it; or that a direction was given, or other fraudulent or collusive means were used, by the plaintiff or his attorney, to prevent the service thereof.

Id., § 33, am'd.

§ 600. Relief of bail where principal is imprisoned on criminal charge.

If the defendant in the original action, after his discharge upon bail, is imprisoned, either within or without the State, upon a criminal charge, or a conviction of a criminal offence, the court, in which an action against the bail is pending, may, before the expiration of the time to answer, and upon notice to the adverse party, make such an order for the relief of the bail, as justice requires.

L. 1845, ch. 281, § 4 (4 Edm. 554), substitute for Co. Proc., § 191

§ 601. Bail exonerated by death, etc.

Except in an action to recover a chattel, the bail must be exonerated where either of the following events occurs, before the expiration of the time to answer in an action against them:

1. The death of the original defendant.
2. His legal discharge from the obligation to render himself amenable to the process, direction, or proceedings, with respect to which the undertaking of the bail was made.
3. His surrender to the sheriff of the county where he was arrested, as prescribed in this article.

Where either event occurs, after the commencement of the action against the bail, the court may, in its discretion, impose the payment of the plaintiff's costs and expenses, incurred after the return of the execution against the person, as a condition of allowing the exoneration. And the court may, by an order, made upon notice to the adverse party, grant such further time as it deems just, after answer, for the surrender of the original defendant. In that case, his surrender, within the time so granted, has the same effect, as if it had been made before answer.

Substitute for 2 R. S. 38C, §§ 16 and 84, and Co. Proc., § 191.

TITLE II.

Injunction.

Article 1. Cases where an injunction may be granted; granting and service of an injunction order.

2. Security.

3. Vacating or modifying an injunction order.

ARTICLE FIRST.

Cases where an injunction may be granted; granting and service of an injunction order.

Sec. 602. Writ of injunction abolished, and order substituted.

603. Injunction, when the right thereto depends upon the nature of the action.

604. Id.; when the right thereto depends upon extrinsic facts.

605. Restrictions upon injunction to restrain State officers.

606. By whom injunction granted in other cases.

607. Proof necessary to procure injunction.

608. At what time the order may be granted.

609. When notice required or not required. Injunction pending an application.

610. Order must recite grounds; service of order.

§ 602. Writ of injunction abolished, and order substituted.

The writ of injunction has been abolished. A temporary injunction may be granted by order, as prescribed in this article.

Part of Co. Proc., § 218, am'd.

§ 603. Injunction, when the right thereto depends upon the nature of the action.

Where it appears, from the complaint, that the plaintiff demands and is entitled to a judgment against the defendant, restraining the commission or continuance of an act, the commission or continuance of which, during the pendency of the action, would produce injury to the plaintiff, an injunction order may be granted to restrain it. The case, provided for in this section, is described in this act, as a case, where the right to an injunction depends upon the nature of the action.

Co. Proc., § 219, first clause, am'd.

§ 604. [Am'd, 1877.] Id.; when the right thereto depends upon extrinsic facts.

In either of the following cases, an injunction order may also be granted in an action:

1. Where it appears, by affidavit, that the defendant, during the pendency of the action, is doing, or procuring, or suffering to be done, or threatens, or is about to do, or to procure, or suffer to be done, an act, in violation of the plaintiff's rights, respecting the subject of the action, and tending to render the judgment ineffectual, an injunction order may be granted to restrain him therefrom.

2. Where it appears, by affidavit, that the defendant, during the pendency of the action, threatens, or is about to remove, or to dispose of his property, with intent to defraud the plaintiff, an injunction order may be granted, to restrain the removal or disposition.

Substituted for the remainder of Co. Proc., § 219.

§ 605. [Am'd, 1895.] Restrictions upon injunction to restrain State officers.

Where a duty is imposed by statute upon a State officer, or board of State officers, an injunction order to restrain him or them, or a person employed by him or them, from the performance of that duty, or to prevent the execution of the statute, shall not be granted, except by the supreme court, at a term thereof, sitting in the department in which the officer or board is located, or the duty is required to be performed; and upon notice of the application therefor to the officer, board, or other person to be restrained.

L. 1895, ch. 946.

§ 606. [Am'd, 1913.] By whom injunction granted in other cases.

Except where it is otherwise specially prescribed by law, an injunction order may be granted by the court in which the action is brought, or by a judge thereof, or by any county judge; and where it is granted by a judge, it may be enforced as the order of the court. An injunction order which may be modified or vacated by the appellate division may also be granted or continued by the appellate division, or a justice thereof, pending appeal to that court or to the court of appeals from an order or judgment denying or vacating an injunction.

Co. Proc., part of § 218. See §§ 1787, 1802, 1809. Am'd, L. 1913, ch. 112. In effect Sept. 1, 1913.

§ 607. [Am'd, 1877.] Proof necessary to procure injunction.

The order may be granted, where it appears to the court or judge, by the affidavit of the plaintiff, or any other person, that sufficient grounds exist therefor.

Id., part of § 220, am'd.

§ 608. [Am'd, 1877.] At what time the order may be granted.

The order may be granted to accompany the summons, or at any time after the commencement of the action and before final judgment.

Id., remainder of § 220.

§ 609. When notice required or not required. Injunction pending an application.

The order may be granted, upon or without notice, in the discretion of the court or judge, unless the defendant has answered, in which case, it can be granted only upon notice, or an order to show cause. Where an application for an injunction is made upon notice, or an order to show cause, either before or after answer, the court or judge may enjoin the defendant, until the hearing and decision of the application.

Id., §§ 221 and 223, consolidated.

§ 610. Order must recite grounds; service of order.

The injunction order must briefly recite the grounds for the injunction. Where it is granted by the court, it must be served by delivering a certified copy thereof; where it is granted by a judge, it must be served by showing the original order, and delivering a copy thereof. Service of the order, upon a corporation, may be made as prescribed in this act, for making personal service of a summons upon a corporation. Copies of the papers, upon which the order was granted, must be delivered with the copy of the order.

As to service on corporations, see ante, §§ 431 and 432. See also Rules 4, 13.

ARTICLE SECOND.

Security.

- Sec. 611. Security, on staying proceedings in an action, before trial.
 612. Id.; after trial, and before judgment.
 613. Id.; after judgment.
 614. Money deposited may be paid over.
 615. Undertaking to be cancelled thereupon.
 616. Security on staying proceedings after verdict, in ejectment or dower.
 617. Id.; damages to include waste.
 618. Deposit may be dispensed with.
 619. Undertaking and deposit; when dispensed with.
 620. Security in other cases.
 621. Special cases excepted.
 622. [Repealed.]
 623. Damages; how ascertained.
 624. Damages sustained by a third person.
 625. Action on the undertaking.

§ 611. Security, on staying proceedings in an action, before trial.

An injunction order shall not be granted, to stay the trial of an action, in which the complaint demands judgment for a sum of money only, after issue has been joined therein, unless the party applying therefor gives an undertaking to the party enjoined, with sufficient sureties, to the effect, that he will pay to the party enjoined, or his representative, all damages and costs, which may be recovered by him in the action stayed by the injunction, not exceeding a sum, specified in the undertaking; and, also, all damages and costs that may be awarded to him, in the action in which the injunction order is granted.

2 R. S. 188, § 139 (2 Edm. 196).

§ 612. Id.; after trial, and before judgment.

An injunction order shall not be granted, to stay proceedings in an action specified in the last section, after verdict, report, or decision, and before final judgment thereupon, unless a sum of money, sufficient to cover the sum awarded by the verdict, report, or decision, and the costs of the action, is first paid, by the party applying for the injunction into the court, in which his action is commenced, or an undertaking for the payment thereof, with interest, is given, as prescribed in this article.

Id., § 140, am'd.

§ 613. [Am'd, 1877.] Id.; after judgment.

An injunction order shall not be granted, to stay proceedings upon a judgment for a sum of money, unless the following requisites are complied with, by the party applying therefor:

1. The full amount of the judgment, including interest and costs, must be paid by him, into the court in which his action is commenced: or an undertaking in lieu thereof must be given, as prescribed in this article.

2. He must also give an undertaking, with sufficient sureties, to pay to the party enjoined, all damages and costs, which may be awarded to him by the court, in the action in which the injunction order is granted; not exceeding a sum, specified in the undertaking.

Id., § 141.

§ 614. Money deposited may be paid over.

Money paid into court, as prescribed in the last two sections may be paid over, by the direction of the court, to the party whose proceedings are stayed, upon his giving an undertaking to the people of the State, with sufficient sureties, in a sum fixed by the court, to pay the money and interest, or any part thereof, as directed in the order or judgment of the court.

2 B. S. 183 (2 Edm. 196), § 142, am'd.

§ 615. Undertaking to be cancelled thereupon.

Where money so paid into court has been paid over to the party whose proceedings are stayed, if the final decision of the action, in which the injunction order is granted, is against the party obtaining it, the court must give such directions, as justice requires, with respect to cancelling the undertaking given by the successful party; making perpetual the injunction staying collection of the judgment; and requiring the judgment to be discharged of record.

Id., § 143.

§ 616. Security on staying proceedings after verdict, in ejectment or dower.

An injunction order shall not be granted, to stay proceedings in an action of ejectment, or for dower, after verdict, report, or decision, unless the party applying therefor gives an undertaking, with sufficient sureties, to pay to the party enjoined, or his representative, all damages and costs, not exceeding a sum specified in the undertaking, which may be awarded to him, in the action wherein the injunction was granted.

Id., § 144, am'd.

§ 617. Id.; damages to include waste.

Where an undertaking is given, as prescribed in the last section, the damages to be paid, upon the vacating of the injunction order, or the decision of the action against the party obtaining it, include, not only the reasonable rents and profits of the real property, recovered by the verdict, report, or decision, but all waste committed upon the property, after the granting of the injunction.

Id., § 145. See § 623, post.

§ 618. Deposit may be dispensed with.

In a case where money is required by the foregoing sections of this article, to be paid into court, the court or judge may dispense with the payment, and may require the party to give, in lieu thereof, an undertaking, with two or more sureties, to pay the sum specified, with interest, as directed by the court. If an undertaking is required, in addition to the deposit, both undertakings may be contained in the same instrument, at the election of the party applying for the injunction.

Id., § 146, am'd.

§ 619. Undertaking and deposit; when dispensed with.

The foregoing sections of this article do not apply to a case, where an injunction order is applied for, to stay proceedings in another action, on the ground that a judgment, verdict, report, or decision therein was obtained by actual fraud. In that case, the court or judge granting the injunction order may dispense with the deposit of money, or the execution of an undertaking, except as prescribed in the next section.

2 R. S. 188 (2 Edm. 196), § 147, am'd.

§ 620. [Am'd, 1877.] Security in other cases.

Where special provision is not otherwise made by law for the security to be given upon an injunction order, the party applying therefor must give an undertaking, executed by him, or by one or more sureties, as the court or judge directs, to the effect that the plaintiff will pay to the party enjoined, such damages, not exceeding a sum, specified in the undertaking, as he may sustain by reason of the injunction, if the court finally decides that the plaintiff was not entitled thereto.

Co. Proc., the first sentence of § 222.

§ 621. Special cases excepted.

The foregoing provisions of this article do not affect any special statutory provision, whereby security upon granting an injunction order may be dispensed with, in a particular case, or the security to be given in a particular case is otherwise regulated.

§ 622. [Repealed, 1877.]

§ 623. [Am'd, 1877.] Damages, how ascertained.

The damages, sustained by reason of an injunction, may be ascertained and determined by the court, or by a referee, appointed by the court, or by a writ of inquiry, or otherwise, as the court shall direct; and the decision of the court thereupon, or an order confirming the report of the referee, is conclusive, as to the amount of those damages, upon all the persons who have executed the undertaking, unless it is reversed upon appeal. The court may, in its discretion, direct that the sureties have notice of the hearing, or of an appeal, and may prescribe the time and manner of giving them notice.

Co. Proc., last sentences of §§ 222 and 224, and part of § 145, 2 R. S. 190.

§ 624. Damages sustained by a third person.

Where the defendant enjoined was an officer of a corporation, or joint-stock association, or a bailee, agent, trustee, or other representative of another, and the damages, sustained by him, are less than the sum specified in the undertaking, the court or the referee may also separately ascertain and determine the damages sustained, by reason of the injunction, by the corporation, association, or person, whom the defendant represents, to an amount not exceeding the surplus of the sum specified in the undertaking; and those damages may be recovered in a separate action, brought as prescribed in the next section.

§ 625. Action on the undertaking.

Where the damages have been ascertained by the decision of the court, or the confirmation of a referee's report, as prescribed in the last two sections, any person, entitled to the benefit of an undertaking, executed pursuant to the provisions of this title, may bring an action thereon, without further leave of the court.

ARTICLE THIRD.

Vacating or modifying an injunction order.

Sec. 626. Application to vacate or modify, without notice.

627. Id.; upon notice.

628. When prior motion not to prejudice subsequent application.

629. New undertaking may be required.

630. Verified answer to have the effect only of an affidavit.

631-634. [Repealed.]

§ 626. [Am'd, 1895.] Application to vacate or modify, without notice.

Where the injunction order was granted without notice, the party enjoined may apply, upon the papers upon which it was granted, for an order vacating or modifying the injunction order. Such an application may be made, without notice, to the judge or justice who granted the order, or who held the term of the court where it was granted; or to a term of the appellate division of the supreme court. It cannot be made without notice, to any other judge, justice or term, unless the applicant produces proof, by affidavit, that, by reason of the absence or other disability of the judge or justice who granted the order, the application cannot be made to him; and that the applicant will be exposed to great injury, by the delay required for an application upon notice. The affidavit must be filed with the clerk; and a copy thereof, and of the order vacating or modifying the injunction order, must be served upon the plaintiff's attorney, before that order takes effect.

L. 1895, ch. 946.

§ 627. [Am'd, 1879.] Id.; upon notice.

Where the injunction order was granted without notice, or where it was granted upon notice, with leave to apply to vacate or modify it, the party enjoined may apply, upon notice, to the judge who granted it, or to the court, at a term where a contested motion in the action may be heard, for an order, vacating or modifying the injunction order. Such an application may be founded upon the papers upon which the injunction was granted; or upon proof, by affidavit, on the part of the defendant; or both. Where it is founded upon proof on the part of the defendant, it may be opposed by new proof, by affidavit, on the part of the plaintiff, tending to sustain the injunction.

Co. Proc., §§ 225 and 226, am'd. See § 630, post.

§ 628. When prior motion not to prejudice subsequent application.

The granting or denial of an application, made as prescribed in the last section, founded only upon the papers upon which the injunction order was granted, does not prejudice a subsequent application, seasonably made, founded upon proof, by affidavit, on the part of the defendant. And the granting or denial of either application does not prejudice a subsequent application, seasonably made, founded upon the failure of a complaint, which had not been made at the time of the former application, to set forth a cause of action, sufficient to entitle the plaintiff to the injunction order, upon one or more grounds, recited therein.

§ 629. [Am'd, 1883 and 1884.] New undertaking may be required.

Upon the hearing of an application, upon notice, to vacate or modify an injunction order, the court or judge may require a new undertaking, in the same or in a different sum, to be given by the plaintiff, with the like sureties, and to the like effect, as upon granting an original order. The persons executing the new undertaking become liable thereon, as if they had executed it upon the granting of the original order. The persons who executed the original undertaking remain liable thereon, until the new undertaking is given and approved, and no longer. Upon such hearing the court or judge may where the alleged wrong or injury is not irreparable and is capable of being adequately compensated for in money, vacate the injunction order upon the defendant's executing an undertaking in such form and amount and with such sureties as the court or judge shall direct, conditioned to indemnify the plaintiff against any loss sustained by reason of vacating such injunction order.

L. 1884, ch. 401.

§ 630. Verified answer to have the effect only of an affidavit.

TITLE III.

Attachment of property.

- Article 1. Cases where a warrant of attachment may be granted; and proceedings upon granting the same.
2. Executing the warrant, pending the action.
  3. Vacating or modifying the warrant; discharging the attachment.
  4. Regulations where there are two or more warrants against the same defendant.
  5. Proceedings after judgment; right of parties and duties of the sheriff, after the warrant is vacated or annulled, or the attachment discharged.

ARTICLE FIRST.

Cases where a warrant of attachment may be granted; and proceedings upon granting the same.

Sec. 635. In what actions.

636. What must be shown to procure the warrant.
637. Warrant in action against public officer, etc., for peculation.
638. When and by whom the warrant may be granted.
639. Affidavits to be filed.
640. Security on obtaining warrant.
641. Contents of warrant; to whom directed.
642. Validity of undertaking.

§ 635. [Am'd, 1895, 1916.] In what actions.

A warrant of attachment against the property of one or more defendants in an action, may be granted upon the application of the plaintiff, as specified in the next section, where the action is to recover a sum of money only, as damages for one or more of the following causes:

1. Breach of contract, express or implied, other than a contract to marry.
2. Wrongful conversion of personal property.
3. An injury to person or property, in consequence of negligence, fraud or other wrongful act.
4. A wrongful act, neglect or default by which the decedent's death was caused, when the cause of action arose in this state before or after the passage of this act and the action is brought by an executor or administrator against a natural person who, or a corporation which, would have been liable to an action in favor of the decedent by reason thereof if death had not ensued as prescribed by section nineteen hundred and two of this act.

Am'd by L. 1895, ch. 578; L. 1916, ch. 441, in effect May 9, 1916.

§ 636. [Am'd, 1895, 1899.] What must be shown to procure the warrant.

To entitle the plaintiff to such a warrant, he must show, by affidavit, to the satisfaction of the judge granting the same, as follows:

1. That one of the causes of action specified in the last section exists against the defendant. If the action is to recover damages for breach of contract, the affidavit must show that the plaintiff is entitled to recover a sum stated therein, over and above all counterclaims known to him.
2. That the defendant is either a foreign corporation or not a resident of the state; or, if he is a natural person and a resident of the state, that he has departed therefrom, with intent to defraud his creditors, or to avoid the service of a summons, or keeps himself concealed therein with the like intent; or, if the defendant is a natural person or a domestic corporation, that he or it has removed, or is about to remove, property from the state with intent to defraud his or its creditors; or has assigned, disposed of, or secreted, or is about to assign, dispose of or secrete property with the like intent; or where, for the purpose of procuring credit, or the extension of credit, the defendant has made a false statement in writing, under his own hand or signature, or under the hand or signature of a duly authorized agent, made with his knowledge and acquiescence as to his financial responsibility or standing; or, where the defendant, being an adult and a resident of the state, has been continuously without the state of New York for more than six months next before the granting of the order of publication of the summons against him, and has not made a designation of a person upon whom to serve a summons in his behalf, as prescribed in section four hundred and thirty of this act; or a designation so made no longer remains in force; or service upon the person so designated cannot be made within the state, after diligent effort.

L. 1895, ch. 578; L. 1899, ch. 598, in effect May 16, 1899.

§ 637. [Am'd, 1894.] Warrant in action against public officer, etc., for peculation.

A warrant of attachment, against the property of one or more defendants in an action, may also be granted, upon the application of the plaintiff, where the complaint demands judgment for a sum of money only; and it appears, by affidavit, that the action is brought to recover money, funds, credits, or other property, held or owned by the state, or held or owned, officially or otherwise, for or in behalf of a public governmental interest, by a municipal or other public corporation, board, officer, custodian, agency, or agent, of the state, or of a city, county, town, village, or other division, subdivision, department, or portion of the state, which the defendant has, without right, obtained, received, converted, or disposed of; or in the obtaining, reception, payment, conversion, or disposition of which, without right, he has aided or abetted; or to recover damages for so obtaining, receiving, paying, converting, or disposing of the same; or the aiding or abetting thereof; or in an action in favor of a private person or corporation, brought to recover damages for an injury to personal property where the liability arose, in whole or in part, in consequence of the false statements of the defendant as to his responsibility or credit, in writing, under the hand or signature of the defendant or his authorized agent, made with his knowledge and acquiescence. In order to entitle the plaintiff to a warrant of attachment, in the case specified in this section, he must show, by affidavit, to the satisfaction of the judge granting it, that a sufficient cause of action exists against the defendant for a sum stated in the affidavit.

L. 1894, ch. 736.

§ 638. [Am'd, 1877.] When and by whom the warrant may be granted.

The warrant may be granted by a judge of the court, or by any county judge, to accompany the summons, or at any time after the commencement of the action, and before final judgment therein. Personal service of the summons must be made upon the defendant, against whose property the warrant is granted, within thirty days after the granting thereof; or else before the expiration of the same time, service of the summons by publication must be commenced, or service thereof must be made without the state, pursuant to an order obtained therefor, as prescribed in this act; and if publication has been, or is thereafter commenced, the service must be made complete, by the continuance thereof.

Substitute for Co. Proc., § 228, and the latter part of § 227. See §§ 435-7, ante.

§ 639. [Am'd, 1877.] Affidavits to be filed.

The plaintiff procuring the warrant must, within ten days after the granting thereof, cause the affidavits, upon which it was granted, to be filed in the office of the clerk.

Co. Proc., last sentence of § 229.

§ 640. Security on obtaining warrant.

The judge, before granting the warrant, must require a written undertaking, on the part of the plaintiff, with sufficient sureties, to the effect, that if the defendant recovers judgment, or if the warrant is vacated, the plaintiff will pay all costs, which may be awarded to the defendant, and all damages, which he may sustain by reason of the attachment, not exceeding the sum specified in the undertaking, which must be at least two hundred and fifty dollars. But this section does not apply to a case, where the action is brought for a cause specified in section 637 of this act, or where it is specially prescribed by law that security may be dispensed with, or where the security to be given is specially regulated by law.

Id., § 230, am'd. See § 811, post.

§ 641. Contents of warrant; to whom directed.

The warrant must be subscribed by the judge and the plaintiff's attorney, and must briefly recite the ground of the attachment. It may be directed, either to the sheriff of a particular county, or, generally, to the sheriff of any county. It must require the sheriff to attach and safely keep, so much of the property, within his county, which the defendant has, or which he may have, at any time before final judgment in the action, as will satisfy the plaintiff's demand, with costs and expenses. The amount of the plaintiff's demand must be specified in the warrant, as stated in the affidavit. Warrants may be issued at the same time, to sheriffs of different counties.

Id., § 231, am'd and enlarged. See ante, § 55. See also Rule 13.

§ 642. Validity of undertaking.

It is not a defence to an action upon an undertaking, given upon granting a warrant of attachment, that the warrant was granted improperly, for want of jurisdiction, or for any other cause.

ARTICLE SECOND.

Executing the warrant, pending the action.

§ 643. [Repealed, 1877.]

§ 644. Sheriff must attach property of defendant.

The sheriff must immediately execute the warrant, by levying upon so much of the personal and real property of the defendant, within his county, not exempt from levy and sale by virtue of an execution, as will satisfy the plaintiff's demand, with the costs and expenses. He must take into his custody all books of account, vouchers, and other papers, relating to the personal property attached, and all evidences of the defendant's title to the real property attached, which he must safely keep, to be disposed of, as prescribed in this title. The sheriff, to whom a warrant of attachment is delivered, may levy, from time to time, and as often as is necessary, until the amount, for which it was issued, has been secured, or final judgment has been rendered in the action, notwithstanding the expiration of his term of office.

Co. Proc., part of § 232, and 2 R. S. 4, § 7 (2 Edm. 4), am'd.

§ 645. What interest in real property may be attached.

The real property, which may be levied upon by virtue of a warrant of attachment, includes any interest in real property, either vested or not vested which is capable of being aliened by the defendant. (See §§ 1253, 1874.)

§ 646. Attachment of unpaid subscription to foreign corporation.

Under a warrant of attachment against a foreign corporation, other than a corporation created by or under the laws of the United States, the sheriff may levy upon the sum remaining unpaid upon a subscription to the capital stock of the corporation, made by a person within the county; or upon one or more shares of stock therein, held by such a person, or transferred by him, for the purpose of avoiding payment thereof.

Substitute for part of L. 1845, ch. 234, § 1 (3 Edm. 680).

§ 647. [Am'd, 1911.] Interest in shares or bonds.

The rights or shares which the defendant has in the stock of an association or corporation, or in a bond negotiable or otherwise, together with the interest and profits thereon, may be levied upon; and the sheriff's certificate of the sale thereof entitles the purchaser to the same rights and privileges, with respect thereto, which the defendant had when they were so attached.

Co. Pr. c., § 234, and final clause of § 237. Am'd by L. 1911, ch. 419, in effect Sept. 1, 1911.

§ 648. [Am'd, 1877, 1907.] Id.; bond, note, etc.

The attachment may also be levied upon a cause of action arising upon contract; including a bond, promissory note, or other instrument for the payment of money only, negotiable or otherwise, whether past due, or yet to become due, executed by a foreign or domestic government, state, county, public officer, association, municipal or other corporation, or by a private person, either within or without the State; which belongs to the defendant, and is found within the county. The levy of the attachment thereupon is deemed a levy upon, and a seizure and attachment of, the debt represented thereby. The attachment may also be levied upon a right or interest, present or future to any of the property or estate of a deceased person which may belong to the defendant and which could be legally assigned by him as legatee or distributee, whether the same exists by reason of the provisions of a last will and testament admitted to probate at the time the attachment is granted, or by operation of the law in case of the intestacy of the deceased. Levy of the attachment thereupon is deemed a levy upon, and a seizure and attachment of, the rights and interests of the defendant at the time of such levy, subject to the rights of the executor, administrator or trustee of such estate to administer the same according to law.

Am'd by L. 1907, ch. 318. In effect Sept. 1, 1907.

§ 649. [Am'd, 1889, 1907.] How property to be attached.

A levy under a warrant of attachment must be made as follows:

1. Upon real property, by filing with the clerk of the county, where it is situated, a notice of the attachment, stating the names of the parties to the action, the amount of the plaintiff's claim, as stated in the warrant, and a description of the particular property levied upon. The notice must be subscribed by the plaintiff's attorney, adding the office address; and must be recorded and indexed by the clerk, in the same book, in like manner, and with like effect, as a notice of the pendency of an action.

2. Upon the personal property, capable of manual delivery, including a bond, promissory note, or other instrument for the payment of money, by taking the same into the sheriff's actual custody. He must thereupon, without delay, deliver to the person from whose possession the property is taken, if any, a copy of the warrant, and of the affidavits upon which it was granted.

3. [Am'd, 1907.] Upon other personal property, by leaving a certified copy of the warrant, and a notice showing the property attached, with the person holding the same; or, if it consists of a demand, other than as specified in the last subdivision with the person against whom it exists; or, if it consists of a right or share in the stock of an association or corporation, or interests or profits thereon, with the president, or other head of the association or corporation, or the secretary, cashier, or managing agent thereof, or if it consists of a right or interest in an estate of a deceased person arising under the provisions of a will or under the provisions of law in case of intestacy, with the executor or trustee under the will, or the administrator of the estate.

4. [Added, 1889.] Upon property discovered in any action brought as prescribed in subdivision two of section six hundred and fifty-five of this act, by entering in the proper clerk's office, the judgment rendered in said action, and thereafter levying on said property in the manner prescribed in subdivisions one, two and three of this section.

Substitute for Co. Proc., § 225; L. 1889, ch. 504; L. 1907, ch. 318. In effect Sept. 1, 1907. See §§ 1370, 707, 708.

§ 650. Certificate of defendant's interest to be furnished.

Upon the application of a sheriff, holding a warrant of attachment, the president or other head of an association or corporation, or the secretary, cashier, or managing agent thereof, or a debtor of the defendant, or a person holding property, including a bond, promissory note, or other instrument for the payment of money, belonging to the defendant, must furnish to the sheriff a certificate, under his hand, specifying the rights or number of shares of the defendant, in the stock of the association or corporation, with all dividends declared or incumbrances thereon; or the amount, nature, and description of the property, held for the benefit of the defendant, or of the defendant's interest in property so held, or of the debt or demand owing to the defendant, as the case requires.

Substitute for part of § 236, Co. Proc.

§ 651. Person refusing certificate may be examined.

If a person, to whom application is made, as prescribed in the last section, refuses to give such a certificate; or if it is made to appear, by affidavit, to the satisfaction of the court, or a judge thereof, or the county judge of the county to which the warrant is issued, that there is reason to suspect that a certificate given by him is untrue, or that it fails fully to set forth the facts, required to be shown thereby; the court or judge may make an order, directing him to attend, at a specified time, and at a place within the county to which the warrant is issued, and submit to an examination under oath, concerning the same. The order may, in the discretion of the court or judge, direct an appearance before a referee named therein.

Substitute for remainder of § 236, Co. Proc.

§ 652. [Am'd, 1895.] Rights of owner or master of vessels by which goods have been shipped.

Except as otherwise prescribed in the next section, the owner or master of a vessel, on board of which goods of a defendant against whom a warrant of attachment is issued, have been shipped for transportation, without reshipment and transshipment in the State, to a port or place without the State, may transport and deliver them according to their destination, notwithstanding the warrant; unless the plaintiff, his agent or attorney, executes to the owner or the master of the vessel, a written undertaking, with sufficient sureties, in a sum specified therein, to pay him all expenses, damages, and charges, which may be incurred by him, or to which he may be subjected, for unlading the goods from the vessel, and for all necessary detention of the vessel, for that purpose. The undertaking must be approved, with respect to its form, the sum specified therein and the sufficiency of the sureties, by a judge or justice of the court, or the county judge of the county wherein the vessel is situated, or in the city and county of New-York, by a justice of the supreme court.

L. 1895, ch. 946.

§ 653. Foregoing section not to apply in certain cases.

The last section does not apply, where the owner or master before the shipment of the goods, had actual information of the granting of the warrant, or where he has, in any wise connived at or been privy to, the shipment thereof, for the purpose of screening them from legal process, or of hindering, delaying, or defrauding creditors.

§ 654. Sheriff must make inventory.

The sheriff must, immediately after levying under a warrant of attachment, make, with the assistance of two disinterested freeholders, a description of the real property, and a just and true inventory of the personal property, upon which it was levied, and of the books, vouchers, and other papers taken into his custody, stating therein the estimated value of each parcel of real property attached, or of the interest of the defendant therein, and of each article of personal property, enumerating such of the latter as are perishable. The inventory must be signed by the sheriff and the appraisers; and must, within five days after the levy, be filed in the office of the clerk of the county, where the property is attached.

The first clause of 2 R. S. 4, § 8 (2 Edm. 4), am'd.

§ 655. [Am'd, 1889.] Sheriff may maintain actions.

The sheriff must, subject to the direction of the court or judge, collect and receive all debts, effects, and things in action, attached by him. He may maintain any action or special proceeding, in his name, or in the name of the defendant, which is necessary, for that purpose, or to reduce to his actual possession an article of personal property, capable of manual delivery, but of which he has been unable to obtain possession. And he may discontinue such an action or special proceeding, at such time and on such terms, as the court or judge directs.

2. Where the summons was served without the State, or by publication, pursuant to an order obtained for that purpose, as prescribed in chapter fifth of this act; and where the defendant has not appeared in the action (otherwise than specially) but has made default and before entering final judgment, the sheriff may, in aid of such attachment, maintain an action against the attachment debtor, and any other person or persons, or against any other person or persons, to compel the discovery of any thing in action, or other property belonging to the attachment debtor; and of any money, thing in action, or other property due to him, or held in trust for him, or to prevent the transfer thereof, or the payment or delivery thereof, to him or any other person, and the sheriff may, in aid of such attachment, also maintain any other action against the attachment debtor and any other person or persons, or against any other person or persons, which may now be maintained by a judgment creditor in a court of equity, either before the return of an execution in aid thereof, or after the return of an execution unsatisfied. The judgment in any of the above-mentioned actions must provide and direct that the said property shall be applied by the sheriff, to the satisfaction of any judgment which the plaintiff may obtain in the attachment action.

Co. Proc., part of § 232, am'd; L. 1889, ch. 504.

§ 656. [Am'd, 1877.] Perishable goods and animals to be sold.

If property attached, other than a vessel, is perishable, the court or judge may, by an order made with or without notice, as the urgency of the case in its or his opinion requires, direct the sheriff to sell it at public auction, and thereupon the sheriff must sell it accordingly. If it consists of live animals, the same proceedings may be had, but such notice shall be given to the parties to the action, of the application for the order as the court or judge prescribes. The order directing the sale must prescribe the time and place of the sale, and notice thereof must be given in such manner, and for such time as is prescribed in the order. The sheriff must retain in his hands the proceeds of the sale, after deducting his expenses as allowed by the court or judge.

Co. Proc., § 233; and 2 R. S. 4, part of § 9 (2 Edm. 5), am'd.

§ 657. [Am'd, 1904.] Claim of property; how tried.

If goods or effects, other than a vessel, attached as the property of the defendant, are claimed by or in behalf of another person, as his property, an affidavit may be made and delivered to the sheriff, in behalf of such person, at any time while such goods or effects or the proceeds thereof are in the sheriff's possession, stating that he makes such a claim; specifying in whole or in part the property to which it relates, and in all cases stating the value of the property claimed and the damages, if any, over and above such value, which the claimant will suffer in case such levy is not released. In that case, the sheriff may, in his discretion, empanel a jury to try the validity of the claim.

2 R. S. 4, § 10 (2 Edm. 5). See §§ 108 and 109, ante. L. 1904, ch. 541. In effect Sept. 1, 1904.

§ 658. [Am'd, 1895, 1904.] Proceedings if claimant succeeds.

If, by their inquisition, the jury finds the property of the goods or effects to have been in the claimant, at the time of the levy, they must also determine its value, and the damages above such value as specified in the last section. Thereupon the officer must forthwith deliver such goods or effects to him or his agent; unless the plaintiff gives an undertaking with at least two sufficient sureties, to the effect that the sureties will indemnify him to the amount therein specified, not less than twice the value of the goods and effects and damages as determined by the jury, and two hundred and fifty dollars in addition thereto, against all damages, costs and expense, in an action to be brought against him by any person, by the claimant, his assignee, or other representative, by reason of the levy upon, detention, or sale of any of the goods or effects, by virtue of the attachment. If the undertaking is given, the officer must detain the goods or effects, as the property of the defendant. Where an undertaking is given to indemnify the sheriff, he must, within two days after the giving of said undertaking, cause the same to be filed in the office of the court out of which the attachment was issued, and serve upon the claimant or his agent, and the attaching creditor or attorney, whose name is subscribed to the warrant of attachment, a copy of said undertaking, with a notice of the justification of the sureties thereon. The justification must take place before a judge of the court out of which the attachment was issued, at a time to be specified in the notice, which must not be less than two nor more than five days after the serving of the said notice. For the purpose of justification, each of the sureties upon the undertaking must attend before the judge at the time and place mentioned in the notice, and be examined on oath on the part of the claimant, or his agent or attorney, touching his sufficiency, in such manner as the judge, in his discretion, thinks proper. The examination may be adjourned from day to day until it is completed, but such adjournment must always be to the next judicial day. If required by the claimant, his assignee or other representative, the examination must be reduced to writing and subscribed by the sureties. If the judge finds the sureties sufficient he must annex the examination to the undertaking, endorse his allowance thereon, and cause the said undertaking, together with the examination of the sureties, to be filed with the clerk of the court. Thereupon the sheriff is released and discharged from all liability, by reason of the taking and detention of the property seized. When any such undertaking shall have been approved and filed, as hereinbefore provided, the clerk of the court in which the same shall be filed shall immediately index the same in the general index book in his office under the title of the suit in which the attachment is issued.

§ 658-a. [Added, 1904.] Discharge of personal property from attachments.

If goods or effects, other than a vessel, attached as the property of the defendant, or any portion thereof, are claimed by or in behalf of another person, such claimant may, within five days after the levy of the attachment, apply to the judge who granted the warrant, or to the court, for an order to discharge the attachment, as to the whole or a part of the property attached. Upon such an application the claimant must give to the sheriff an undertaking with at least two sufficient sureties who must justify in double the value of the property claimed, as appraised in the inventory of the property attached. The undertaking must be conditioned to the effect that in an action to be brought on the undertaking, the claimant will establish that he was the owner of such goods or effects at the time of the levy thereon; and that in case of his failure to do so, he will pay to the sheriff the full value of the property so claimed with interest from the date thereof together with the costs of the action. Sections six hundred and ninety and six hundred and ninety-one shall apply to an undertaking given as prescribed in this section. Upon such an undertaking being given and after justification of the sureties if required, the court or judge must make an order discharging the property so claimed from the attachment, upon payment by the claimant of the sheriff's fees and necessary disbursements. Thereupon and upon such payment, the sheriff must discharge the same accordingly, notwithstanding that the plaintiff may have given an undertaking as provided in section six hundred and fifty-eight. The court or judge may, upon the application of the plaintiff or of the claimant at any time before the warrant is vacated or annulled, upon notice to all parties in interest, direct the sheriff to commence an action upon the undertaking, upon such terms and conditions and under such regulations as it or he deems just. In such an action, the claimant may show, in bar of a recovery, that he was the owner of the said property attached. If judgment passes against the claimant the plaintiff is entitled to recover the value of the said property with interest from the date of the undertaking with the costs of the action. Neither the giving of the undertaking as prescribed in this section, nor the recovery of any judgment thereon, shall affect in any manner, the right, if any, of the defendant in the attachment action in or to the property discharged from the attachment, nor shall this section be construed as affecting or impairing any other right or remedy which any person might otherwise have in respect to the property attached.

L. 1904, ch. 293. In effect Sept. 1, 1904.

§ 659. Finding, not to prejudice right of claimant.

If the property is found to be in the defendant, the finding does not prejudice the right of the claimant to bring an action, to recover the goods or effects, or the value thereof.

§ 660. Proceedings on claim to domestic vessel.

Where a vessel, belonging to a port or place in the United States, or a share or interest therein, is attached, the court or judge, on the application, within thirty days thereafter, of a person claiming title thereto, or of his agent, must appoint three indifferent persons to make a valuation thereof.

2 R. S. 5, § 13 (2 Edm. 5).

§ 661. [Am'd, 1877.] Appraisers to be sworn; valuation to be returned.

A valuation of a vessel, or of a share, or interest therein, made as prescribed in this article, must be in writing, and subscribed by the appraisers; each of whom must take and subscribe an affidavit, annexed thereto, to the effect, that the valuation is, in all respects, just and fair, and that the value of the vessel, share, or interest, is truly stated therein, according to the deponent's belief. The valuation must be immediately returned to the court or judge; and, after an undertaking is given, or after the expiration of the time to give an undertaking, as prescribed in the next section, it must be delivered to the sheriff.

§ 662. Undertaking to be given.

Within two days after the valuation is returned, the claimant or his agent may execute an undertaking to the sheriff, with sufficient sureties, approved by the court or judge, who must justify in twice the appraised value, to the effect, that, in an action to be brought on the undertaking, the claimant will establish that he was the owner of the vessel, share, or interest, at the time of the levy thereupon; and that, in case of his failure to do so, he will pay the amount of the valuation, with interest from the date of the undertaking, to the sheriff; or, if the warrant is vacated or annulled, to the defendant, or his personal representative.

2 R. S. 5, § 14.

§ 663. Vessel; when to be discharged.

Upon such an undertaking being executed and delivered to the sheriff, the court or judge must make an order, directing the vessel or share to be discharged from the attachment. Thereupon the sheriff must discharge the same accordingly.

Id. § 15.

§ 664. When undertaking to be sued.

The court or judge may, upon the application of either party, at any time before the warrant is vacated or annulled, direct the sheriff to commence an action upon the undertaking, upon such terms and conditions, and under such regulations, between him and the applicant, as it or he deems just. And if the warrant of attachment is vacated or annulled, the defendant in the attachment, his assignee or personal representative, may commence and maintain an action upon the undertaking, or may be substituted, in place of the sheriff, in an action pending thereupon.

Substitute for 2 R. S. 5, § 16.

§ 665. Defence in such an action; plaintiff's recovery.

In such an action, the claimant may show, in bar of a recovery, that he was the owner of the vessel, share, or interest, at the time when it was attached. If judgment passes against him, the plaintiff is entitled to recover the amount of the valuation, with interest from the date of the undertaking.

Id., § 17, am'd.

§ 666. Foreign vessel; how valued.

Where a foreign vessel, or a share or interest therein, is attached, it must be valued, as prescribed in sections 660 and 661 of this act, upon the application of a person, who makes affidavit, to the effect that he is the owner thereof, or that he is the agent of a person, naming him and his residence, whom he believes to be the owner of the vessel, share, or interest attached.

Id., § 18.

§ 667. Notice thereof.

Such notice of the application must be given to the plaintiff, as the court or judge deems reasonable.

Id., § 19.

§ 668. Plaintiff to give undertaking with sureties.

Within three days after the valuation is returned, the plaintiff must give, to the person in whose behalf the claim is made, an undertaking, with sufficient sureties, approved by the court or judge, who must justify in twice the appraised value, to the effect that they will pay such damages as may be recovered for seizing the vessel, share, or interest, in an action brought against the sheriff, or the plaintiff in the attachment, within three months from the approval of the undertaking, if it appears therein that the vessel, share, or interest belonged, at the time of attaching it, to the person in whose behalf the claim is made.

Id., § 20.

§ 669. Vessel; when to be discharged.

Unless such an undertaking is given, the court or judge must grant an order discharging the vessel, share, or interest so claimed, from the attachment; whereupon the sheriff must discharge the same accordingly.

Id., § 21.

§ 670. Terms on which debtor may claim vessel.

If, after such an undertaking is given by the plaintiff, the warrant is vacated or annulled, or the attachment is discharged as to the vessel, share, or interest, the defendant or his agent is entitled to claim the same, or the proceeds thereof, if it has been sold, only upon his showing, to the satisfaction of the court or judge, that the undertaking has been discharged; or giving to the plaintiff an undertaking, with sufficient sureties, approved by the court or judge, who must justify in twice the appraised value, to the effect, that they will indemnify the plaintiff against all charges and expenses, in consequence of the undertaking.

2 R. S. 5, § 23, am'd.

§ 671. When vessel to be sold.

If the undertaking of the plaintiff is not discharged, or he is not indemnified, as prescribed in this article, within one month after the defendant becomes entitled to claim the vessel, share, or interest, as so prescribed, it may be sold by the sheriff, in whose custody it is, upon an order of the court or judge; and the proceeds of the sale must be paid to the persons who executed the undertaking, for their indemnity.

Id., § 24.

§ 672. The same.

If a claim is not made, by or in behalf of an owner of a domestic vessel, or of a share or interest therein, within thirty days after it is attached, or if the proper undertaking is not executed by the claimant; or if a claim is not made, within that time, by or in behalf of the owner of a foreign vessel, or of a share or interest therein; the vessel, share, or interest, may be sold by the sheriff, under an order of the court or judge, upon the application of the plaintiff, if, in the opinion of the court or judge, a sale is necessary.

Id., § 25.

§ 673. The same.

Where a share or interest in a vessel, foreign or domestic, is attached, if the proper claim to it is not made, by or in behalf of an owner thereof, within thirty days thereafter, it may be sold by the sheriff, under an order of the court or judge, upon the application of a joint owner, or his agent.

Id., § 26.

§ 674. [Am'd, 1877.] Sheriff to keep property.

The sheriff must keep the property attached by him, or the proceeds of property sold, or of a demand collected by him, to answer any judgment that may be obtained against the defendant in the action.

Co. Proc., part of § 232.

§ 675. Sheriff may be directed to pay money into court.

But the court, upon the application of either party to the action, may direct the sheriff, either before or after the expiration of his term of office, to pay into court the proceeds of a demand collected, or property sold; or to deposit them in a designated bank or trust company, to be drawn out only upon the order of the court.

§ 676. [Am'd, 1877.] When he may be directed to release or deliver property.

Where the proceeds of the property sold, and of the demands collected by the sheriff, exceed the amount of the plaintiff's demand, with the costs and expenses, and of all other warrants of attachment or executions in the sheriff's hands, chargeable upon the same; the court, or the judge who granted the warrant, upon the application of the defendant, or of an assignee of, or purchaser from the defendant, and upon notice to the plaintiff, and the plaintiffs in the other warrants or executions, may, at any time during the pendency of the action, make an order directing the sheriff to pay over the surplus to the applicant, and to release from the attachment the remaining real and personal property attached.

§ 677. [Am'd, 1889.] Plaintiff may bring action in name of himself and the sheriff.

The plaintiff, by leave of the court or judge, procured as prescribed in the next section, may bring and maintain, in the name of himself and the sheriff jointly, by his own attorney, and at his own expense, any action which, by the provisions of this title, may be brought by the sheriff, to recover property attached, or the value thereof, or a demand attached, or upon an undertaking given as prescribed in this title, by a person other than the plaintiff; the plaintiff, in his own name and the sheriff's jointly, may also bring and maintain any action which, by the provisions of subdivision two of section six hundred and fifty-five of article second of this title, may be brought by the sheriff. The sheriff must receive the proceeds of such an action, but he is not liable for the costs or expenses thereof. Costs may be awarded, in such an action, against the plaintiff in the warrant, but not against the sheriff.

Substitute for Co. Proc., § 238; L. 1889, ch. 504.

§ 678. How leave to bring such action procured.

The court or judge must grant leave to bring such an action, where it appears, that due notice of the application therefor has been given to the sheriff; but, before doing so, the court or judge may require that notice of the application be given to the plaintiff, in any other warrant against the same defendant. And such terms, conditions, and regulations may be imposed, in the order granting leave, as the court or judge thinks proper, for the due protection of the rights and interests of all persons, interested in the disposition of the proceeds of the action.

Id.

§ 679. Plaintiff may be joined with sheriff, after action commenced.

Leave may, in like manner and with like effect, be granted to the plaintiff in the warrant, to be joined with the sheriff, in an action brought by the sheriff, in a case where he might have procured leave to bring the action, as prescribed in the last two sections. Upon an application therefor, the court or judge may, in a proper case, require the plaintiff to provide for the expenses in the action, already incurred by the sheriff. The application must be denied, in case of an unreasonable delay in making it or where an application was made, before the action was brought, and the plaintiff neglected or refused, without a good excuse therefor, to comply with the terms, conditions or regulations, then imposed.

§ 680. Judge to direct as to management of such an action, etc.

The court or judge may, upon the application of the sheriff, or of the defendant in the warrant, during the pendency of an action, brought as prescribed in the last three sections, direct as to the conduct, discontinuance, or settlement of the same, and as to the application or disposition of the money or property recovered therein, as justice requires.

§ 681. Return of inventory; how enforced.

Upon the application of either party, and proof of the neglect of the sheriff, the court or judge may, by order, require the sheriff to return an inventory. Disobedience to such an order may be punished, as a contempt of the court.

2 R. S. 13, § 66 (2 Edm. 14). See post, § 712.

ARTICLE THIRD.

Vacating or modifying the warrant; discharging the attachment.

Sec. 682. Motion to vacate or modify warrant, or increase security.

683. How motion must be made; opposing it by new proofs.

684-685. [Repealed.]

686. When prior motion not to prejudice subsequent motion.

687. Defendant may apply for discharge of attachment.

688. Undertaking to be given.

689. Application by one of several defendants.

690. Sureties to justify if required.

691. Sheriff may retain property until justification.

692. Foregoing provisions applicable to vessels.

693. Partners may apply to discharge attachment.

694. Undertaking to be given.

695. Court or judge may ascertain value.

696. When plaintiff entitled to notice of any application, etc.

§ 682. [Am'd, 1877.] Motion to vacate or modify warrant, or increase security.

The defendant, or a person who has acquired a lien upon, or interest in, his property, after it was attached, may, at any time before the actual application of the attached property, or the proceeds thereof, to the payment of a judgment recovered in the action, apply to vacate or modify the warrant, or to increase the security, given by the plaintiff, or for one or more of those forms of relief, together, or in the alternative.

Substitute for part of § 241, Co. Proc.

§ 683. How motion must be made; opposing it by new proofs.

An application, specified in the last section, may be founded only upon the papers upon which the warrant was granted; in which case, it must be made to the court, or, if the warrant was granted by a judge out of court, to the same judge, in court or out of court, and with or without notice, as he deems proper. Or it may be founded upon proof, by affidavit on the part of the defendant: in which case, it must be made to the court, or, if the warrant was granted by a judge out of court, to any judge of the court, upon notice; and it may be opposed by new proof, by affidavit, on the part of the plaintiff, tending to sustain any ground for the attachment, recited in the warrant, and no other, unless the defendant relies upon a discharge in bankruptcy, or upon a discharge or exoneration, granted in insolvent proceedings; in which case, the plaintiff may show any matter, in avoidance thereof, which he might show upon the trial.

§ 685. [Repealed, 1877.]

§ 686. [Am'd, 1877.] When prior motion not to prejudice subsequent motion.

The denial of such an application does not prejudice a subsequent application, seasonably made, founded upon the failure of a complaint which had not been filed or served at the time of the former application, to set forth any of the causes of action mentioned in section 635 and section 637 of this act.

See § 558, ante.

§ 687. [Am'd, 1906.] Defendant may apply for discharge of attachment.

The defendant may, at any time after he has appeared in the action, apply to the judge who granted the warrant, or to the court, for an order to discharge the attachment, as to the whole or a part of the property attached.

Substitute for a portion of Co. Proc. § 240; L. 1906, ch. 507. In effect Sept. 1, 1906.

§ 688. [Am'd, 1906.] Undertaking to be given.

Upon such an application, the defendant must give an undertaking, with at least two sufficient sureties, to the effect that he will, on demand, pay to the plaintiff the amount of any judgment which may be recovered in the action against him, not exceeding a sum specified in the undertaking, with interest. The sum so specified must be, at least equal to the amount of the plaintiff's demand, as specified in his affidavit; or, at the option of the defendant, equal to the appraised value, according to the inventory, of the property attached; or, if the application is to discharge the attachment, as to a part only of the property attached, to the appraised value of that portion. Upon such application being made after final judgment, the defendant must give the security required to perfect an appeal to the court of appeals from a final judgment, of the same amount or to the same effect, and to stay the execution thereof.

Substitute for the first two sentences of the Co. Proc. § 241; L. 1906, ch. 507. In effect Sept. 1, 1906.

§ 689. Application by one of several defendants.

Where there are two or more defendants, and an application is made, as prescribed in the last two sections, by one or more, but not by all of them, the undertaking must provide for the payment of any judgment, which may be recovered against any of the defendants in the action, unless the applicant makes proof, by affidavit, to the satisfaction of the court or judge, that the property, with respect to which the application is made, belongs to him separately; in which case, the undertaking must provide for the payment of any judgment, which may be recovered in the action against the applicant, either alone, or jointly with any other defendant. Where an application is made, as prescribed in this section, at least two days' notice thereof, with a copy of the affidavit, must be served upon the plaintiff's attorney, who may oppose the application by proof, by affidavit, that one or more of the other defendants own, or have an interest in the property.

§ 690. [Am'd, 1877.] Sureties to justify if required.

An undertaking, given as prescribed in the last two sections, must be forthwith filed with the clerk. A copy thereof, with a notice of the filing, must be forthwith served upon the plaintiff's attorney; who may, within three days thereafter, give notice to the sheriff, that he excepts to the sufficiency of the sureties. Thereupon the sureties must justify, upon the like notice, and in like manner, as bail upon an arrest; or a new undertaking must be given, with new sureties, who must justify in like manner. If the plaintiff does not except, as prescribed in this section, he is deemed to have waived all objection to the sureties.

Co. Proc., part of § 241, am'd.

§ 691. Sheriff may retain property until justification.

The sheriff is responsible for the sufficiency of the sureties; and he may retain possession of the property attached, and the proceeds thereof, until the objection to them is waived, as prescribed in the last section, or they, or the new sureties, justify.

Id., part of the same section.

§ 692. Foregoing provisions applicable to vessels.

The last five sections are applicable, where a vessel, or a share or interest therein, is attached. If it is necessary, to enable the defendant to discharge the attachment, the court or judge may, by order, stay any proceeding specified in article second of this title, or extend the time to do any act therein specified.

§ 693. [Am'd, 1912.] Partners may apply to discharge attachment.

If a warrant of attachment is levied upon the interest of one or more partners, in the property of a partnership, the other partners, or any of them, may at any time before final judgment, apply to the judge who granted the warrant, or to the court, upon an affidavit showing the facts, for an order to discharge the attachment, as to that interest.

Am'd by L. 1912, ch. 389, in effect Apr. 15, 1912.

§ 694. [Am'd, 1877, 1912.] Undertaking to be given.

Upon such an application, the applicant must give an undertaking, with at least two sufficient sureties, to the effect that they will pay to the sheriff, on demand, if judgment is recovered against the defendant whose interest in a partnership is so levied upon, an amount not exceeding a sum, specified in the undertaking, which must not be less than the value of the interest of the defendant, in the property seized by virtue of the attachment, as fixed by the court or judge. If the value, in the opinion of the court or judge, is uncertain, the sum shall be such as the court or judge determines.

Am'd by L. 1912, ch. 389, in effect Apr. 15, 1912.

§ 695. Court or judge may ascertain value.

For the purpose of fixing the sum, or determining the sufficiency of the sureties, the court or judge may receive affidavits or oral testimony, or may direct a reference.

§ 696. When plaintiff entitled to notice of any application, etc.

The court or judge may direct, that the plaintiff have notice of an application for a discharge of property, as prescribed in this article, or of the hearing under an order of reference, made as prescribed in the last section; and if the applicant does not appear, where notice has been given, the application may be dismissed or denied.

ARTICLE FOURTH.

Regulations where there are two or more warrants against the same defendant.

Sec. 697. Preferences of two or more warrants.

698. Rule as to levy under a junior warrant.

699-700. [Repealed.]

701. Undertaking, by junior attaching creditor, to prevent release of foreign vessel.

702. Rule as to subsequent attachment of foreign vessel.

703. Rights of junior plaintiff in action by senior plaintiff and sheriff jointly.

704. Junior plaintiff may be allowed to commence action jointly with sheriff.

705. Rights of third and other subsequent attaching creditors.

§ 697. Preferences of two or more warrants.

Where two or more warrants of attachment, against the same defendant, are delivered to the sheriff of the same county, to be executed, their respective preferences, and the rules, where a levy, or a levy and sale, have been made under a junior warrant, are the same, as where two or more executions, against the property of the same defendant, are delivered to the sheriff of the same county, to be executed.

See 2 R. S. 366, §§ 14 and 15 (2 Edm. 379).

§ 698. Rule as to levy under a junior warrant.

Where a domestic vessel, or share or interest therein, has been attached, and afterwards released, as prescribed in this title; or where the personal property of a partnership, of which the defendant was a member, has been attached, and the attachment afterwards discharged, upon the application of another partner, as prescribed in this title; another warrant, against the same defendant, shall not be levied on the same property, by the sheriff of the same or of any other county, until after the first warrant has been vacated or annulled. But, except as thus prescribed, where a second warrant, against the same defendant, is delivered to the same sheriff, he must execute it, by a levy upon property within his county, and he must thereupon take the same proceedings, as if the levy was made under the first warrant.

See ante, §§ 682 and 694.

§ 699. [Repealed, 1877.]

§ 700. [Repealed, 1877.]

§ 701. Undertaking by junior attaching creditor to prevent release of foreign vessel.

Where a foreign vessel, or a share or interest therein, has been attached and valued, as prescribed in article second of this title, and the plaintiff, in the first warrant of attachment, fails to give an undertaking to prevent the release thereof, the court or judge may grant to the plaintiff in a second warrant, then in the sheriff's hands for execution, an extension, of not more than three days thereafter, within which to furnish an undertaking, in all respects like the one to be furnished by the first plaintiff. And if he furnishes it, within that time, he has the same rights and privileges, and is subject to the same duties and liabilities, with respect to the vessel and its proceeds, and the subsequent proceedings relating thereto, as if his was the first warrant.

§ 702. Rule as to subsequent attachment of foreign vessel.

If a foreign vessel, or a share or interest therein, has been attached, and afterwards released, by reason of the failure of the plaintiff, in the first or the second warrant, to give an undertaking to prevent the release, it shall not be again attached, under a warrant against the same defendant, which has been delivered to the sheriff of the same county, before the expiration of the time within which the undertaking should have been furnished. But it may be again attached, under a subsequent warrant against the same defendant; in which case, the plaintiff therein, and the plaintiff in each warrant subsequently delivered to the sheriff, have the same rights, and privileges, and are subject to the same duties and liabilities, with respect to the vessel and its proceeds, and the subsequent proceedings relating thereto, as if the warrant, under which it was attached, was the first warrant.

§ 703. Rights of junior plaintiff in action by senior plaintiff and sheriff jointly.

Where the plaintiff in a warrant of attachment has commenced an action, in the name of himself and the sheriff jointly, as prescribed in this title, a plaintiff in a junior warrant may apply to the court or judge, to direct as to the conduct, discontinuance, or settlement of the same, or to impose terms, conditions, and regulations as to the continuance thereof, in the interest of the applicant; and such order may be made thereupon, as justice requires. If the first warrant is vacated, or the attachment thereunder is released or discharged, without affecting the cause of action prosecuted by the plaintiff therein and the sheriff jointly, the plaintiff in the warrant next in order, may upon his own application, be substituted as joint plaintiff with the sheriff, by an order, made as upon an application for leave to bring such an action.

See §§ 677-680, ante.

§ 704. Junior plaintiff may be allowed to commence action jointly with sheriff.

A plaintiff in a second warrant may apply to the court or judge, upon notice to the plaintiff in the first warrant, and to the sheriff, for leave to bring and maintain, in the name of himself and the sheriff jointly, any action, which might be brought in the name of the senior plaintiff and the sheriff. If it appears that the plaintiff in the first warrant neglects or refuses to be joined with the sheriff in such an action, or to comply with the terms, conditions, and regulations, imposed, either upon granting him an order for that purpose, or upon the hearing of an application, made as prescribed in this section, the court or judge may grant to the plaintiff in the second warrant, leave to bring and maintain such an action, in the name of himself and the sheriff jointly, with like effect, as if his was the first warrant.

§ 705. Rights of third and other subsequent attaching creditors.

Where there are more than two warrants of attachment, against the same defendant, the plaintiffs in the third and each subsequent warrant have, according to their respective priorities, the same rights and privileges, as against the plaintiffs in all senior warrants, which the plaintiff in the second warrant has, as against the plaintiff in the first, and are subject to the same duties and liabilities; except that a second extension of the time, within which to furnish an undertaking to prevent the release of a foreign vessel, or a share or interest therein, shall not be granted. And the plaintiffs in two or more junior warrants of attachment, may, by agreement among themselves, take jointly, and for their common benefit, any proceeding, permitted by this title to be taken, by the plaintiff in a second or subsequent warrant of attachment; provided that it does not interfere with the preferential or other right of an intermediate plaintiff.

ARTICLE FIFTH.

Proceedings after judgment; rights of parties and duties of the sheriff after the warrant is vacated or annulled, or the attachment discharged.

- 706. Execution to issue to sheriff who has levied.
- 707. When judgment enforceable only against attached property.
- 708. Judgment in the principal action; how satisfied.
- 709. When attachment discharged, etc., property to be restored to defendant.
- 710. Additional provision for his relief.
- 711. Cancelling notice attaching real property.
- 712. When sheriff to return warrant and his proceedings.

§ 706. Execution to issue to sheriff who has levied.

Where a levy, under a warrant of attachment in an action, has been made, an execution against property, upon a final judgment in favor of the plaintiff therein, recovered after the expiration of the term of office of the sheriff, who made the levy, must nevertheless be directed to and executed by that sheriff, unless another person is designated by law to complete the unfinished business pertaining to his office; or, in that case, to the person so designated.

§ 707. [Am'd, 1877.] When judgment enforceable only against attached property.

Where a defendant, who has not appeared, is a non-resident of the State, or a foreign corporation, and the summons was served without the State, or by publication, pursuant to an order obtained for that purpose, as prescribed in chapter fifth of this act, the judgment can be enforced only against the property which has been levied upon, by virtue of the warrant of attachment, at the time when the judgment is entered. But this section does not declare the effect of such a judgment, with respect to the application of any statute of limitation.

§ 708. [Am'd, 1877, 1912.] Judgment in the principal action; how satisfied.

Where an execution against property is issued upon a judgment for the plaintiff, in an action in which a warrant of attachment has been levied, the sheriff must satisfy it, as follows:

1. He must pay over to the plaintiff all money attached by him, and the proceeds of all sales of perishable property, or of any vessel or share or interest therein, or animals, sold by him, or of any debts, or other things in action collected or sold by him; or so much thereof as is necessary to satisfy the judgment.

2. If any balance remains due, he must sell, under the execution, the other personal property attached, or so much thereof as is necessary; including rights or shares in the stock of an association or corporation, or a bond or other instrument for the payment of money, executed and issued, with the interest coupons annexed, if any, by a government, state, county, public officer, or municipal or other corporation, which is in terms negotiable, or otherwise, whether past due, or yet to become due; but not including any other debt or thing in action. If the proceeds of that property are insufficient to satisfy the judgment, and the execution requires him to satisfy it out of any other personal property of the defendant, he must sell the personal property, upon which he has levied by virtue of the execution. If the proceeds of the personal property, applicable to the execution, are insufficient to satisfy the judgment, the sheriff must sell, under the execution, all the right, title, and interest, which the defendant had in the real property attached, at the time when the notice was filed, or at any time afterwards, before resorting to any other real property.

3. If personal property attached, belonging to the defendant, has passed out of the hands of the sheriff, without having been sold or converted into money, and the attachment has not been discharged as to that property, he must, if practicable, regain possession thereof; and, for that purpose, he has all the authority which he had, to seize the same under the warrant. A person, who wilfully conceals or withholds such property from him, is liable to double damages, at the suit of the party aggrieved.

4. Until the judgment is paid, he may collect the debts and other things in action attached, and prosecute any undertaking, which he has taken in the course of the proceedings, and apply the proceeds thereof to the payment of the judgment.

5. At any time after levying the attachment, the court, upon the petition of the plaintiff, accompanied with an affidavit, specifying fully all the proceedings of the sheriff, since the levy under the warrant, the property attached, and the disposition thereof; and the affidavit of the sheriff, showing that he has used diligence, in endeavoring to collect the debts and other things in action attached, and that a portion thereof remains uncollected; may direct the sheriff to sell the remaining portion, upon such terms, and in such manner, as it thinks proper. Notice of the application must be given to the defendant's attorney, if the defendant appeared in the action. If the summons was not personally served on the defendant, and he did not appear, the court may make such order as to the service of notice, as it thinks proper; or may grant the application without notice.

Ca. Proc., § 237, am'd. Am'd by L. 1912, ch. 40, in effect Sept. 1, 1912.

§ 709. [Am'd, 1877.] When attachment discharged, etc., property to be restored to defendant.

Where a warrant of attachment is vacated, or annulled, or an attachment is discharged, upon the application of the defendant, the sheriff must, except in a case where it is otherwise specially prescribed by law, deliver over to the defendant, or to the person entitled thereto, upon reasonable demand, and upon payment of all costs, charges, and expenses, legally chargeable by the sheriff, all the attached personal property remaining in his hands, or that portion thereof, as to which the attachment is discharged; or the proceeds thereof, if it has been sold by him.

Id., last sentence of § 237, and part of §§ 239 and 240. See § 8342, subd. 12.

§ 710. Additional provision for his relief.

Where the sheriff is required by this title, to deliver attached property, or the proceeds thereof, to the defendant, he must also deliver to him, unless otherwise specially directed by the court or judge, all books of account, vouchers, evidences of debt, muni-ments of title, or other papers, relating to the property, either real or personal, or to its proceeds; together with all undertakings, relating thereto, which he has taken in the course of the proceedings, and which have not been fully satisfied; except an undertaking, given by the defendant, upon the discharge of property. He must also deliver a written assignment, duly acknowledged, of each undertaking, so delivered, and of each other instrument, to which the defendant is thus entitled, an assignment of which is necessary to perfect or protect the defendant's title thereto. The defendant must also, but upon his own application only, be substituted in place of the sheriff, or the sheriff and the plaintiff jointly, in an action brought as prescribed in this title; but the court or judge may impose, as a condition of granting the order of substitution, such terms as justice requires, with respect to indemnity and payment of expenses. The defendant's right, without respect to property attached and not disposed of, and an undertaking, or other instrument, to which he is thus entitled, are the same as those of the sheriff, while the warrant was still in force, except where his rights are specially defined or regulated by law.

§ 711. Cancelling notice attaching real property.

At any time after the warrant of attachment has been vacated or annulled, or the attachment has been discharged as to real property attached, the court may, in its discretion, upon the application of any person aggrieved, and upon such notice as it deems just, direct, that any notice, filed for the purpose of attaching the property, be cancelled of record, by the clerk of the county where it is filed and recorded. The cancellation must be made by a note, to that effect, on the margin of the record, referring to the order; and, unless the order is entered in the same clerk's office, a certified copy thereof must, at the same time, be filed therein.

Co. Proc., part of § 132, am'd and enlarged.

§ 712. When sheriff to return warrant and his proceedings.

Where a warrant of attachment has been vacated or annulled, the sheriff must forthwith file, in the clerk's office, the warrant, with a return of his proceedings thereon. Upon the application of either party, and proof of the sheriff's neglect, the court may direct him so to do, forthwith, or within a specified time.

Id., § 242, am'd, and consolidated with so much of 2 R. S. 18, § 66 (2 Edm. 14), as relates to the return of the warrant.

ARTICLE FIRST.ReceiversSec. 713. Receiver; when appointed.

714. Appointment of receiver; notice of application.

715. Security.

716. Certain receivers may hold real property.

§ 713. [Am'd, 1895.] Receiver; when appointed.

In addition to the cases, where the appointment of a receiver is specially provided for by law, a receiver of property, which is the subject of an action, in the supreme court or a county court, may be appointed by the court, in either of the following cases:

1. Before final judgment, on the application of a party who establishes an apparent right to, or interest in, the property, where it is in the possession of an adverse party, and there is danger that it will be removed beyond the jurisdiction of the court, or lost, materially injured, or destroyed.

2. By or after the final judgment, to carry the judgment into effect, or to dispose of the property, according to its directions.

3. After final judgment, to preserve the property, during the pendency of an appeal.

The word, "property," as used in this section, includes the rents, profits, or other income, and the increase, of real or personal property.

L. 1895, ch. 940.

§ 714. [Am'd, 1879, 1903.] Appointment of receiver; notice of application.

Notice of an application, for the appointment of a receiver in an action, before judgment therein, must be given to the adverse party, unless he has failed to appear in the action, and the time limited for his appearance has expired. But where an order has been made, as prescribed in section four hundred and thirty-eight of this act, the court may, in its discretion, appoint a temporary receiver, to receive and preserve the property, without notice, or upon a notice given by publication or otherwise, as he thinks proper. But where the action is for the foreclosure of a mortgage, which mortgage provides that a receiver may be appointed without notice, notice shall not be required.

See § 827, post; L. 1902, ch. 217. In effect Sept. 1, 1902.

§ 715. [Am'd, 1896.] Security.

A receiver, appointed in an action or special proceeding, must, before entering upon his duties, execute and file with the proper clerk, a bond to the people, with at least two sufficient sureties, in a penalty fixed by the court, judge, or referee, making the appointment, conditioned for the faithful discharge of his duties as receiver; and the execution of any such bond by any fidelity or surety company authorized by the laws of this state to transact business, shall be equivalent to the execution of said bond by two sureties. And the court, or, where the order was made out of court, the judge making the order, by or pursuant to which the receiver was appointed, or his successor in office, may, at any time, remove the receiver, or direct him to give a new bond, with new sureties, with the like condition. But the foregoing provisions of this section do not apply to a case where special provision is made by law, for the security to be given by a receiver, or for increasing the same, or for removing a receiver. A receiver who, having executed and filed a bond as provided for in this section, before presenting his accounts as receiver, must give notice to the surety or sureties on his official bond, of his intention to present his accounts, not less than eight days before the day set for the hearing on said accounting. The same notice must be given to such surety or sureties where the accounting is ordered on the petition of a person or persons other than the receiver, and in no case shall the receiver's accounts be passed, settled or allowed, unless the said notice provided for in this section shall have first been given to the surety or sureties on the official bond of such receiver.

See post, §§ 810-816; also §§ 729-730. In effect March 11, 1896. L. 1896, ch. 94.

§ 716. [Am'd, 1895, 1909.] Certain receivers may hold real property.

A receiver, appointed by or pursuant to an order or a judgment, in an action in the supreme court or a county court, may take and hold real property, upon such trusts and for such purposes as the court directs, subject to the direction of the court, from time to time, respecting the disposition thereof.

L. 1895, ch. 946; L. 1845, ch. 112, § 1 (4 Edm. 552), am'd. Am'd by L. 1909, ch. 65. Also partly repealed by L. 1909, ch. 28. See Consolidated Laws, tit. General Corporation Law, § 243. See note 43 of notes of Board of Statutory Consolidation at end of code.

ARTICLE SECOND.

Deposit, delivery or conveyance of property.

Sec. 717. Court may order a deposit or delivery of property in certain cases.
718. When sheriff may take and convey, etc., property.

§ 717. [Am'd, 1877.] Court may order a deposit or delivery of property in certain cases.

Where it is admitted, by the pleading or examination of a party, that he has, in his possession or under his control, money, or other personal property capable of delivery, which, being the subject of the action or special proceeding, is held by him as trustee for another party, or which belongs or is due to another party, the court may, in its discretion, grant an order, upon notice, that it be paid into, or deposited in court, or delivered to that party, with or without security, subject to the further direction of the court.

Co. Proc., part of § 244, am'd. See post, §§ 743-754.

§ 718. When sheriff may take and convey, etc., property.

Where the court has directed a deposit or delivery, as prescribed in the last section; or where a judgment directs a party to make a deposit or delivery, or to convey real property; if the direction is disobeyed, the court, besides punishing the disobedience as a contempt, may, by order, require the sheriff to take, and deposit or deliver the money or other personal property, or to convey the real property, in conformity with the direction of the court.

Id., § 244, the last sentence but one am'd.

ARTICLE THIRD.

General and miscellaneous provisions.

Sec. 719. Arrest, injunction, and attachment; when not to be granted together.

720. Counterclaim, provisional remedies.

§ 719. [Am'd, 1879.] Arrest, injunction, and attachment; when not to be granted together.

Where application for an order of arrest, an injunction, and a warrant of attachment, or two of them, is made, in the same action, against the same defendant; and it satisfactorily appears that, under the particular circumstances of the case, two or all of them are not necessary for the plaintiff's security, the court or judge may, in its or his discretion, require the plaintiff to elect between them. Where an application is made to obtain, vacate, modify, or set aside an order of arrest, injunction order, or warrant of attachment, the court or judge must finally decide the same, within twenty days after it is submitted for decision.

§ 720. [Am'd, 1879.] Counterclaim, provisional remedies.

Where the defendant interposes a counterclaim, and thereupon demands an affirmative judgment against the plaintiff, his right to a provisional remedy is the same as in an action brought by him against the plaintiff, for the cause of action stated in the counterclaim, and demanding the same judgment. And for the purpose of applying to such a case the provisions of this act, the defendant is deemed the plaintiff, the plaintiff is deemed the defendant, and the counterclaim so set forth in the answer is deemed the complaint.

Miscellaneous Interlocutory Proceedings, and Regulations of Practice.

TITLE I.—Mistakes, Omissions, Defects, and Irregularities.

TITLE II.—Tender, and other Offers and Requests to the Adverse Party.

TITLE III.—Payment of Money into Court, and Care and Disposition Thereof.

TITLE IV.—Proceedings upon the Death or Disability of a Party, or the Transfer of his Interest.

TITLE V.—Motions and Orders Generally.

TITLE VI.—Miscellaneous Practice Regulations.

TITLE I.

Mistakes, omissions, defects, and irregularities.

Sec. 721. Defects cured by verdict, etc., and by judgment.

722. Such defects to be supplied.

723. Amendments by the court; disregarding immaterial errors, etc.

724. Relief against omissions, etc.; amendments to conform proceedings.

725. Returns by officers, etc.

726. Papers lost or withheld; how supplied.

727. Order of court; when necessary to amend.

728. Disregarding defects in affidavits.

729. Certain bonds, etc., when sufficient.

730. Amending defects in bonds, etc.

§ 721. [Am'd, 1879.] Defects cured by verdict, etc., and by judgment.

In a court of record, where a verdict, report or decision has been rendered, the judgment shall not be stayed, nor shall any judgment of a court of record be impaired or affected, by reason of either of the following imperfections, omissions, defects, matters, or things, in the process, pleadings or other proceedings:

1. For want of a summons, or other writ.

2. For any fault or defect in process; or for misconceiving a process, or awarding it to a wrong officer.

3. For an imperfect or insufficient return of a sheriff or other officer; or because an officer has not subscribed a return, actually made by him.

4. For a variance between the summons and complaint.

5. For a misleading, insufficient pleading, or jeofail.

6. For want of a warrant of attorney by either party.

7. For the appearance, by attorney, of an infant party, if the verdict, report, or decision, or the judgment, is in his favor.

8. For omitting to allege any matter, without proof of which the verdict, report, or decision ought not to have been rendered.

9. For a mistake in the name of a party or other person; or in a sum of money; or in the description of property; or in reciting or stating a day, month, or year; where the correct name, sum, description, or date has been once rightly stated, in any of the pleadings or other proceedings.

10. For a mistake in the name of a juror or officer.

11. For an informality in entering judgment, or making up the judgment-roll.

12. For an omission on the part of a referee to be sworn; or for any other default or negligence of the clerk, or any other officer of the court, or of a party, his attorney or counsel, by which the adverse party has not been prejudiced.

2 R. S. 424, 425, § 7 (2 Edm. 442, 443), am'd.

§ 722. Such defects to be supplied.

Each of the omissions, imperfections, defects, and variances, specified in the last section, and any other of like nature, not being against the right and justice of the matter, and not altering the issue between the parties, or the trial, must, when necessary, be supplied, and the proceeding amended, by the court wherein the judgment is rendered, or by an appellate court.

Id., § 8.

§ 723. [Am'd, 1877, 1900.] Amendments by the court; disregarding immaterial errors, etc.

The court may, upon the trial, or at any other stage of the action, before or after judgment, in furtherance of justice, and on such terms as it deems just, amend any process, pleading, or other proceeding, by adding or striking out the name of a person as a party, or by correcting a mistake in the name of a party, or a mistake in any other respect, or by inserting an allegation material to the case; or, where the amendment does not change substantially the claim or defence, by conforming the pleading or other proceedings to the facts proved. And, in every stage of the action, the court must disregard an error or defect, in the pleadings or other proceedings, which does not affect the substantial rights of the adverse party. When amending a pleading or permitting the service of an amended or supplemental pleading in a case which is on the general calendar of issues of fact, the court may direct that the case retain the place upon such calendar which it occupied before the amendment or new pleading was allowed, and that the proceedings had upon the amended or supplemental pleadings shall not affect the place of the case upon such calendar, or render necessary the service of a new notice of trial.

(Ct. Proc., § 173, and the first clause of § 176; the second clause of the latter section being included in § 721, ante. L. 1900, ch. 591. In effect September 1, 1900.

§ 724. Relief against omissions, etc.; amendments to conform proceedings.

The court may likewise, in its discretion, and upon such terms as justice requires, at any time within one year after notice thereof, relieve a party from a judgment, order, or other proceeding, taken against him through his mistake, inadvertence, surprise, or excusable neglect; and may supply an omission in any proceeding. Where a proceeding, taken by a party, fails to conform to a provision of this act, the court may, in like manner, and upon like terms, permit an amendment thereof, to conform it to the provision.

Id., § 112, am'd. See §§ 781, 782, 784, 1282.

§ 725. Returns by officers, etc.

A court, to which a return is made by a sheriff or other officer, or by a subordinate court or other tribunal, may, in its discretion, direct the return to be amended, in matter of form, either before or after judgment.

2 R. S. 424 (2 Edm. 442).

§ 726. Papers lost or withheld; how supplied.

Where an original pleading or paper is lost, or withheld by any person, the court may authorize a copy to be filed and used, instead of the original.

Co. Proc., § 422.

§ 727. Order of court; when necessary to amend.

A process, pleading, or record, shall not be altered, by the clerk or any other officer of the court, or by any other person, without the direction of the court, or of another court of competent authority; except in a case where a party, or his attorney, is specially authorized by law to amend a pleading.

2 R. S. 425 (2 Edm. 443), am'd.

§ 728. Disregarding defects in affidavits.

The want of a title, or a defect in the title, of an affidavit, does not impair it, if it intelligibly refers to the action or special proceeding, in which it is made.

Co. Proc., § 406.

§ 729. Certain bonds, etc., when sufficient.

A bond or undertaking, required by statute to be given by a person, to entitle him to a right or privilege, or to take a proceeding, is sufficient, if it conforms substantially to the form therefor, prescribed by the statute, and does not vary therefrom, to the prejudice of the rights of the party, to whom, or for whose benefit, it is given.

2 R. S. 556 (2 Edm. 576), am'd.

§ 730. Amending defects in bonds, etc.

Where such a bond or undertaking is defective, the court, officer, or body, that would be authorized to receive it, or to entertain a proceeding in consequence thereof, if it was perfect, may, on the application of the persons who executed it, amend it accordingly; and it shall thereupon be valid, from the time of its execution.

Id., § 34, am'd.

TITLE II.

Tender, and other offers and requests to the adverse party.

- Sec. 731. Tender after suit.
- 732. Amount to be paid into court.
- 733. Effect of sufficient tender.
- 734. When to be deducted from recovery, etc.
- 735. Requiring admission of genuineness of paper.
- 736. Offer to liquidate damages conditionally.
- 737. Effect of refusal of offer.
- 738. Defendant's offer to compromise; proceedings thereon.
- 739. Plaintiff's offer to compromise counterclaim; proceedings thereon.
- 740. Offer and acceptance, by whom subscribed.
- 741-742. [Repealed.]

§ 731. Tender after suit.

Where the complaint demands judgment for a sum of money only; and the action is brought to recover a sum certain, or which may be reduced to certainty by calculation; or to recover damages for a casual or involuntary personal injury, or a like injury to property; the defendant, or his attorney, may, at any time before the trial, tender to the plaintiff, or his attorney, such a sum of money, as he conceives to be sufficient to make amends for the injury, or to pay the plaintiff's demand; together with the costs of the action, to that time.

2 R. S. 553, § 20 (2 Edm. 574), am'd.

§ 732. [Am'd, 1877.] Amount to be paid into court.

A tender, made as prescribed in the last section, does not avail the defendant, unless the money is accepted, or is paid into court, and notice thereof in writing served upon the plaintiff's attorney before the trial and within ten days after the tender. If the plaintiff takes out the amount paid in, he accepts the tender.

§ 733. Effect of sufficient tender.

If it appears, upon the trial, that the sum so tendered was sufficient to pay the plaintiff's demand, or to make amends for the injury, and also to pay the costs of the action, to the time of the tender, the plaintiff cannot recover costs or interest, from the time of the tender, but must pay the defendant's costs from that time.

2 R. S. 554, §§ 21 and 22 (2 Edm. 574), consolidated. See Co. Proc., § 385; post, § 738.

§ 734. When to be deducted from recovery, etc.

If the plaintiff proceeds in the action, after accepting the tender, the sum accepted must be deducted from the recovery, and judgment rendered for the residue, if any; and, if the tender and acceptance do not appear in the pleadings, a memorandum thereof must be annexed to the judgment-roll. The plaintiff's right to recover costs, and his liability to pay costs to the defendant, are determined by the amount of the residue.

Id., § 23.

§ 735. Requiring admission of genuineness of paper.

The attorney for a party may, at any time before the trial, exhibit to the attorney for the adverse party, a paper, material to the action, and request a written admission of its genuineness.

If the admission is not given, within four days after the request, and the paper is proved or admitted on the trial, the expenses, incurred by the party exhibiting it, in order to prove its genuineness, must be ascertained at the trial, and paid by the party refusing the admission; unless it appears, to the satisfaction of the court, that there was a good reason for the refusal.

Co. Proc., part of § 388.

§ 736. Offer to liquidate damages conditionally.

In an action to recover damages for breach of a contract, the defendant's attorney may, with the answer, serve upon the plaintiff's attorney, a written offer, that, if the defendant fails in his defence, the damages may be assessed at a specified sum. If the plaintiff serves notice, that he accepts the offer, with or before the notice of trial, and damages are awarded to him on the trial, they must be assessed accordingly.

Id., § 386.

§ 737. [Am'd, 1877.] Effect of refusal of offer.

If the plaintiff does not accept the offer, he cannot prove it, upon the trial. But if the damages, awarded to him, do not exceed the sum offered, the defendant is entitled to recover the expenses, necessarily incurred by him in preparing for the trial of the question of damages. The expenses must be ascertained, and the amount thereof determined by the judge, or the referee, by or before whom the cause is tried.

Id., § 387.

§ 738. [Am'd, 1877.] Defendant's offer to compromise; proceedings thereon.

The defendant may, before the trial, serve upon the plaintiff's attorney, a written offer, to allow judgment to be taken against him, for a sum, or property, or to the effect, therein specified, with costs. If there are two or more defendants, and the action can be severed, a like offer may be made by one or more defendants, against whom a separate judgment may be taken. If the plaintiff, within ten days thereafter, serves upon the defendant's attorney, a written notice that he accepts the offer, he may file the summons, complaint, and offer, with proof of acceptance, and thereupon the clerk must enter judgment accordingly. If notice of acceptance is not thus given, the offer cannot be given in evidence upon the trial; but, if the plaintiff fails to obtain a more favorable judgment, he cannot recover costs from the time of the offer, but must pay costs from that time.

Id., part of § 385.

§ 739. [Am'd, 1877.] Plaintiff's offer to compromise counterclaim; proceedings thereon.

Where the defendant sets up a counterclaim, to an amount greater than the plaintiff's claim, or sufficient to reduce the plaintiff's recovery below fifty dollars, the plaintiff may serve, upon the defendant's attorney, a written offer, to allow judgment to be taken against him, for a specified sum, with costs, or against the defendant for a specified sum; and against the plaintiff for costs. If the defendant, within ten days thereafter, serves, upon the plaintiff's attorney, notice that he accepts the offer, either party may file the summons, complaint, answer, and offer, or copies thereof, and proof of acceptance; and thereupon the clerk must enter judgment accordingly. If notice of acceptance is not thus given, the offer cannot be given in evidence, upon the trial; but, if the recovery is not more favorable to the defendant than that so offered, he will not be entitled to recover costs from the time of the offer, but must pay costs from that time.

Co. Proc., remainder of § 385, am'd.

§ 740. Offer and acceptance, by whom subscribed.

Unless an offer or an acceptance, made as prescribed in either of the last four sections, is subscribed by the party making it, his attorney must subscribe it, and annex thereto his affidavit, to the effect, that he is duly authorized to make it, in behalf of the party.

§ 741. [Repealed, 1877.]

§ 742. [Repealed, 1877.]

TITLE III.Payment of money into court, and care and disposition thereof.

Sec. 743. Party bringing money into court is discharged.

744. Comptroller to supervise administration of funds, etc.; enforcing judgments, etc.

744-a. Comptroller may examine books, etc., of banks, etc.; payment of money to county treasurers, etc.

745. Transfer of moneys and securities to county treasurers.

746. Funds; where and how deposited or invested.

747. Power of each court to direct payment or reinvestment of its funds.

748. Application of preceding section.

749. Powers of certain officers, touching securities, etc.

750. Provision relating to death, removal, etc., of officer.

751. Funds or property not to be surrendered without order.

752. Custodian's books of account.

753. Annual reports to comptroller.

754. These provisions applicable in New-York to the chamberlain.

§ 743. Party bringing money into court is discharged.

A party bringing money into court, pursuant to the direction of the court, is discharged thereby from all further liability, to the extent of the money so paid in.

2 R. S. 171, § 21 (2 Edm. 177).

§ 744. [Repealed by L. 1909, chs. 16 and 58. See Consolidated Laws, tit. County Law, § 240, State Finance Law, § 4.]

§ 744-a. [Added, 1908; am'd, 1916.] Comptroller may examine books, etc., of banks, etc.; payment of money, etc., to county treasurers, etc.

The comptroller may examine the books, accounts and vouchers of every bank and trust company or other depository or of any public official in the state, in anywise relating to moneys and securities paid into court, under an order of any court of record or directed to be paid into court by statute; and where the same has not been paid to the chamberlain of the city of New York or to any county treasurer of the state, the comptroller upon application duly made shall be entitled to an order directing the payment and transfer of all such money and securities, from any such bank, trust company, depository or public official to the treasurer of the proper county, and in the city of New York to the city chamberlain.

Added by L. 1908, ch. 182; am'd by L. 1916, ch. 442, in effect May 9, 1916.

§ 745. [Am'd, 1908.] Transfer of moneys and securities to county treasurers.

All moneys and securities paid, transferred, or deposited into court, must be paid or transferred, either directly or by the officer who is required by law first to receive it, to the county treasurer of the county, where the action is triable, or to such other county treasurer as the court specially directs. Where money is paid, or a security is delivered to an officer, other than the county treasurer, he must pay or transfer it to the county treasurer within two days after he receives it. In the city of New York he must pay it to the chamberlain within two days after he receives it. A bond, mortgage or other security, or a certificate or transfer of stock, taken upon the investment of money paid into court, must be taken to the county treasurer of the county where the fund belongs, in his name of office; or to such other county treasurer as the court specially directs.

Substance of so much of L. 1848, ch. 277, § 1 (4 Edm. 593), as properly belongs to this title, and is not obsolete; and the first two sentences of Rule 82. See, also, 2 R. S. 171, 172, part 3, ch. 1, tit. 2, §§ 17, 18, and 24 (3 Edm. 177 et seq.); also L. 1847, ch. 280, § 71 (3 R. S., 5th ed 285; 4 Edm. 575). Am'd, L. 1908, ch. 183. In effect Sept. 1, 1908.

§ 746. [Am'd, 1892, 1909.] Funds; where and how deposited or invested.

All funds or moneys paid into court shall be deposited in such savings bank, trust company, bank, banking association or with such banker, as shall be designated by the comptroller, as soon as received by the custodian thereof. But the money must be deposited in the county where the fund belongs, where it can be done conveniently and safely and with advantage to the parties interested.

L. 1892, ch. 651. Am'd by L. 1909, ch. 65. Partly repealed by L. 1909, ch. 10; L. 1914, ch. 369. See Consolidated Laws, tit. Banking Law, § 44: See note 44 of notes of Board of Statutory Consolidation at end of code.

§ 747. [Am'd, 1892, 1908, 1916, 1917.] Power of each court to direct payment or reinvestment of its funds.

Each court may direct that money paid into that court in any action or proceeding brought therein, or any bond, mortgage or other security which represents property belonging to any suit or party interested therein, may, after having been deposited with the county treasurer or city chamberlain as required by section seven hundred and forty-five of this act, be paid out, transferred, invested or reinvested in any manner or form that appears to it best for the interests of the owners thereof. But such directions must be embodied in an order or decree of said court, founded upon proper and sufficient evidence satisfactory to the court that such disposition of the property is best for the interests of the owners thereof or parties interested therein. When the whole of an original deposit of money, or the whole of a distributive share thereof, or any security or other property is directed to be paid or transferred out of court, the order must direct the payment of all accrued interest or other income belonging to the party or parties to whom said deposit or distributive share or security is ordered to be paid, transferred or delivered.

Am'd by L. 1892, ch. 651; L. 1908, ch. 183; L. 1916, ch. 443; L. 1917, ch. 731, in effect Sept. 1, 1917.

§ 748. [Am'd, 1892.] Application of preceding section.

The provisions of the last preceding section shall apply to all courts of record of the state.

L. 1892, ch. 651.

§ 749. [Am'd, 1877.] Powers of certain officers, touching securities, etc.

A county treasurer, or other officer, or a guardian, committee, or other trustee, in whose name is taken a bond, mortgage, or other security, or public stock, representing money, paid into court, in an action; or to whom stock or a security, or an account deed, voucher, receipt, or other paper, representing or relating to such money, is transferred, delivered, made, or given, pursuant to law, is vested with title for the purposes of the trust, and may bring an action upon or in relation to the same, in his official or representative character.

§ 750. Provision relating to death, removal, etc., of officer.

On the expiration of the official term of a county treasurer, or where a vacancy occurs in his office, by death or otherwise, all public stock, bonds, mortgages, and other securities held by him, as prescribed in this title, vest in his successor in office: and all money deposited, as prescribed in this title, in a bank, trust company or other depository, to his credit, vests in, and must be carried to, the account of his successor in office.

2 R. S. 172, §§ 26 and 27 (2 Edm. 178), consolidated and abridged.

§ 751. [Am'd, 1892, 1917.] Funds or property not to be surrendered without order.

No money, security or other property which shall have been placed in the custody of the court shall be surrendered without the production of a properly certified copy of an order of the court, in whose custody said money, security or other property shall have been placed, duly made and entered, directing such disposition.

Am'd by L. 1892, ch. 651; L. 1917, ch. 731, in effect Sept. 1, 1917.

§ 752. [Am'd, 1892, 1909.] Custodian's books of account.

Every officer having charge of moneys, securities or other property in the custody of the court, shall keep a book or books in which he shall make an exact account thereof. Such book or books shall state the name of the court, the title of the case, the date of receipt, from whom received, the amount of money, if any, and a description of the securities or other property received, if any, and each addition of interest; also the date and description of each order for payment and the dates and amounts of payments thereunder and to whom paid; also an account of each change of investment, if any.

L. 1892, ch. 651. Am'd by L. 1909, ch. 65. Also partly repealed by L. 1909, ch. 10; L. 1914, ch. 369. See Consolidated Laws, tit. Banking Law, § 45. See note 45 of notes of Board of Statutory Consolidation at end of code.

§ 753. [Am'd, 1892, 1917.] Annual reports to comptroller.

Every treasurer or financial officer who has in charge or possession or under his control, or who keeps a record of money, bonds, stocks, mortgages or any other securities or property as prescribed in this title, must, once in each year, make a report to the comptroller at the time and in the form and manner which he may prescribe, containing a true statement of his accounts for the preceding year or from the time of the last report. This report must be verified by the oath of such officer, and must be accompanied by the certificate of the proper officer of each bank or trust company, stating the exact amount on deposit with such corporation. Every savings bank, bank or trust company having in its possession, pursuant to an order of a court of record, money, bonds, stocks, mortgages or any other securities or property which were not first deposited in compliance with the provisions of section seven hundred and forty-five of this act.

must, once in each year, make a report to the comptroller at such time as he shall prescribe, stating separately for each case the name of the court, the title of the action or proceeding, the date of the receipt, from whom received, for whom received, the amount of money, if any, a description of the securities or other property, each addition of interest and each change of investment, the amount so held at the date of the report, the date and description of each order directing payment and the dates and amounts of payments thereunder and to whom made. Every officer, or bank or trust company mentioned in this section, shall furnish any additional report to the comptroller or to the court at such time and in such detail as may be required.

[§§ 8 and 9, L. 1892, ch. 651, do not amend the Code of Civ. Proc., but relate to same subject as the Code section amended by that act, and are inserted here for convenience of attorneys.

§ 8. The comptroller is authorized to employ such special clerk or clerks as he may deem necessary, to carry out the provisions of this act; and he shall cause an examination of the accounts of the officers referred to in this act to be made at least once in each year, and shall enforce the provisions thereof.

§ 9. Whenever any sum of money, paid into court, shall have remained in the hands of any county treasurer, or of the chamberlain of the city of New York, for the period of twenty years, it shall be paid over by such officer with all accumulations of interest thereon, after deducting his legal fees, to the treasurer of the state of New York. The said treasurer shall pay such sum to the owner or owners thereof upon the presentation to him of the warrant of the comptroller therefor. The comptroller shall draw his warrant for such sum upon the presentation to him of an order of the court made in accordance with section seven hundred and fifty-one of the Code of Civil Procedure and upon due notice to said comptroller.]

§ 754. These provisions applicable in New York to the chamberlain.

Each provision of this title, relating to a county treasurer, applies to the chamberlain of the city of New York, with respect to money paid into court, in an action triable in the city and county of New York, or with respect to money, or a bond, mortgage or other security, or public stock, representing money paid into court; except where special provision, with respect to the same, is otherwise made by law.

TITLE IV.*Proceedings upon the death or disability of a party or the transfer of his interest.

- Sec. 755. Action; when not to abate.
756. Proceedings upon transfer of interest, or devolution of liability.
757. Id.; when sole party dies and action survives.
758. Id.; when one of several parties dies.
759, 760. Id.; when part of cause of action survives.
761. When court may order action abated.
762. Special cases excepted.
763. Death of party after verdict, etc.
764. Action for a wrong not to abate after verdict, etc.
765. No verdict, etc., can be taken after a party's death.
766. Death, etc., of public officer or trustee.

§ 755. [Am'd, 1891.] Action; when not to abate.

An action does not abate by any event, if the cause of action survives or continues. A special proceeding does not abate by any event, if the right to the relief sought in such special proceeding survives or continues, but this provision as to special proceeding applies only to cases where a party dies after this act takes effect.

L. 1891, ch. 284.

§ 756. Proceedings upon transfer of interest, or devolution of liability.

In case of a transfer of interest, or devolution of liability, the action may be continued, by or against the original party; unless the court directs the person, to whom the interest is transferred, or upon whom the liability is devolved, to be substituted in the action, or joined with the original party, as the case requires.

Co. Proc., § 121, the third sentence.

§ 757. [Am'd, 1879, 1891.] Id.; when sole party dies and action survives.

In case of the death of a sole plaintiff or a sole defendant, if the cause of action survives or continues, the court must, upon a motion, allow or compel the action to be continued, by or against his representative or successor in interest. In case of the death of a sole party to a special proceeding after this act takes effect, if the right to the relief sought in such proceeding survives or continues, the court must, upon a motion, allow or compel such proceeding to be continued by or against his representative or successor in interest. This provision as to a special proceeding does not apply where provision for such continuance has been otherwise made by law.

L. 1891, ch. 294. See 2 R. S. 448, § 2.

§ 758. [Am'd, 1877.] Id.; when one of several parties dies.

In case of the death of one of two or more plaintiffs, or one of two or more defendants, if the entire cause of action survives to or against the others, the action may proceed in favor of or against the survivors. But the estate of a person or party jointly liable upon contract with others shall not be discharged by his death, and the court may make an order to bring in the proper representative of the decedent, when it is necessary so to do, for the proper disposition of the matter; and, where the liability is several as well as joint, may order a severance of the action so that it may proceed separately against the representative of the decedent, and against the surviving defendant or defendants.

2 R. S. 386, § 1 (2 Edm. 401).

§ 759. Id.; when part of cause of action survives.

In case of the death of one of two or more plaintiffs, or one of two or more defendants, if part only of the cause of action, or part or some of two or more distinct causes of action, survives to or against the others, the action may proceed, without bringing in the successor to the rights or liabilities of the deceased party; and the judgment shall not affect him, or his interest in the subject of the action. But where it appears proper so to do, the court may require or compel the successor, or a person who claims to be the successor, to be brought in as a party, upon his own application or upon the application of a party to the action.

Substitute for 2 R. S. 184, 185, portions of §§ 108, 109, 115, 117, 120, and 121.

§ 760. [Am'd, 1879.] The same.

In a case specified in the foregoing sections of this title, where such a person applies in his own behalf, the court may direct that he be made a party, by amendment of the pleadings, or otherwise as the case requires. Where an application is made by the plaintiff, to bring in such a person as defendant, the court may direct that a supplemental summons issue, and that supplemental pleadings be made. Where an application is made by a defendant to bring in such a person, the court may, and where the protection of the applicant's rights requires it, must, permit the defendant to commence a cross action for that purpose. The cross action must be brought in the same court, unless the order otherwise specially directs. If it directs that the action be commenced in another court, the latter court may, by order at any time after the cross action is commenced, remove to itself the original action, with like effect as if it had been brought therein. Unless the court otherwise directs, the original action and the cross action must be tried, and judgment rendered therein, as if they were one action.

Id. (2 Edm. 191).

§ 761. When court may order action abated.

At any time after the death of the plaintiff, or after the marriage of the plaintiff, where it affects the rights of either party, the court may, in its discretion, upon notice to such persons as it directs, and upon the application of the adverse party, or of a person whose interest is affected, direct that the action abate, unless it is continued by the proper parties, within a time specified in the order, not less than six months, nor more than one year, after the granting thereof.

Co. Proc., § 121, fifth sentence, am'd. See § 1736.

§ 762. Special cases excepted.

The foregoing provisions of this title do not apply to a case, where special provision is otherwise made by law.

§ 763. Death of party after verdict, etc.

If either party to an action dies, after an accepted offer to allow judgment to be taken, or after a verdict, report, or decision, or an interlocutory judgment, but before final judgment is entered, the court must enter final judgment, in the names of the original parties; unless the offer, verdict, report, or decision, or the interlocutory judgment, is set aside.

2 R. S. 387, § 4, am'd.

§ 764. [Am'd, 1904.] Action for a wrong not to abate after verdict, etc.

An action commenced by a father to recover damages for the seduction of his minor daughter does not abate by his death, but survives to the mother of such daughter, who may recover both actual and exemplary damages therein to the same extent as though the original party plaintiff had lived. After verdict, report or decision in an action to recover damages for a personal injury, the action does not abate by the death of a party, but the subsequent proceedings are the same as in a case where the cause of action survives. And in case said verdict, report or decision is reversed upon questions of law only, said action does not abate by the death of the party against whom the same was rendered.

L. 1904, ch. 379. In effect Sept. 1, 1904.

§ 765. No verdict, etc., can be taken after a party's death.

This title does not authorize the entry of a judgment against a party, who dies before a verdict, report, or decision is actually rendered against him. In that case, the verdict, report, or decision is absolutely void.

2 R. S. 387, § 5 (2 Edm. 402), am'd.

§ 766. Death, etc., of public officer or trustee.

Where an action or special proceeding is authorized or directed by law, to be brought by or in the name of a public officer, or by a receiver, or other trustee, appointed by virtue of a statute, his death or removal does not abate the action or special proceeding; but the same may be continued by his successor, who must, upon his application, or that of a party interested, be substituted for that purpose, by the order of the court, a copy of which must be annexed to the judgment-roll.

2 R. S. 388, § 14; and L. 1832, ch. 295, § 3 (3 Edm. 674), consolidated.

TITLE V.*Motions and orders generally.

Sec. 767. Definition and form of an order.

768. An application for an order is a motion.

769. Motions in supreme court; where to be heard.

770. Motions in New York city.

771. In absence of judge, motion may be transferred to another judge.

772. 773. What judges may make orders out of court, without notice.

774. Review of order made by a judge of another court.

775. When stay of proceedings not to exceed twenty days.

776. Subsequent application for order after denial, etc., of prior application.

777. Id.; as to application for judgment.

778. Penalty for violating last two sections.

779. Costs of a motion; how collected.

§ 767. [Am'd, 1911, 1912.] Definition and form of an order.

A direction of a court or judge, made, as prescribed in this act, in an action or special proceeding, must be in writing, unless otherwise specified in the particular case. Such a direction, unless it is contained in a judgment, is an order. In determining a motion, the court shall cause its determination, together with a recital of the papers read on the motion on either side to be indorsed on or appended to the back of the motion papers and shall sign the same and such indorsement and signature shall constitute the order of the court; but nothing herein contained shall prevent the court, upon the application of either party, from resettling such order in the form of the written order heretofore in use. Upon such resettlement of the order, where the right to appeal depends upon whether or not such order was made in the exercise of discretion, or whether or not the decision upon which it is based involves a question of law, such order shall so state the ground upon which it was made.

Co. Proc., § 400, am'd. Am'd by L. 1911, ch. 368; L. 1912, ch. 66, in effect Sept. 1, 1912.

§ 768. [Am'd, 1900, 1911.] An application for an order is a motion.

Such application or motion must be made to a court, or to a judge or justice thereof. When the defendants have made default in appearing in an action or proceeding, any application or motion therein may be made to the court or to a judge or justice thereof out of court. Where any of the defendants in an action or proceedings have appeared, all motions or applications thereafter made in such action, or proceedings, except a motion made for an extension of time on two days' notice under rule twenty-four of the general rules of practice which may be made to a judge, and except where it is otherwise authorized by law, must be made to the court, unless such defendants consent to the making of such motion or application to a judge or justice out of court. Except in the first judicial department an order which is authorized by statute to be made at chambers may be made by the court. Any proceeding which is required by statute to be instituted by petition may also be instituted by an affidavit setting forth the matter which it is required that the petition shall contain, accompanying a notice of an application for the relief which would properly be prayed for in the petition; and in like manner a proceeding which is required by statute to be instituted by affidavit may be instituted by petition. The party making a motion may, in the notice thereof, specify one or more kinds of relief in the alternative or otherwise, and the adverse party must, where 'at least eight days' notice of the motion shall be given, at least one day prior to the time at which the motion is noticed to be heard, serve upon the attorney for the moving party copies of the affidavits and papers which he expects to read in opposition to the motion; he may, at least three days prior to the time at which the motion is noticed to be heard, serve upon the attorney for the moving party a notice, with or without affidavits or other papers in support thereof, specifying any kind or kinds of relief in the alternative or otherwise to which he claims to be entitled in the action whether the relief so asked for be responsive or not to the relief asked for by the moving party. Upon the hearing of a motion relief shall not be denied to any party because of defects or insufficiencies in the moving papers which can be cured upon the hearing or before the entry of the order thereon, but the court or judge shall direct that such defects or insufficiencies be cured or supplied forthwith, and shall proceed to hear and consider the motion, or may direct the motion to stand over to be heard at a subsequent time or place. In either case it may award against the party in whose moving papers or application such defect or insufficiency appears, costs in favor of the adverse party. Whenever a motion is made to set aside or vacate an order, judgment or decree or any paper filed or proceeding taken, because of technical defects therein, or because of defects or insufficiencies in the papers or proceedings upon which it was made or entered and such defects or insufficiencies can, without prejudice to intervening rights, be cured or supplied, it shall be the duty of the court to direct upon the hearing of such motion, that such defects or insufficiencies in the order, judgment or decree, or in the papers or proceedings, be cured or supplied nunc pro tunc, awarding against the party in whose order, judgment or decree, or in whose papers or proceedings such defects or insufficiencies appear, costs in favor of the adverse party. The pleadings in an action shall at all times when a motion is made therein be deemed to be before the court although not specifically referred to in the notice of motion.

Id., § 401, subd. 1, L. 1900, ch. 147; L. 1911, ch. 763, in effect Sept. 1, 1911.

§ 769. [Am'd, 1879.] Motions in supreme court; where to be heard.

A motion, upon notice, in an action in the supreme court must be made within the judicial district in which the action is triable, or in a county adjoining that in which it is triable; except that where it is triable in the first judicial district,* the motion must be made in that district; and a motion upon notice, cannot be made in that district in an action triable elsewhere. But this section does not apply to a case where it is specially prescribed by law that a motion may be made in the county, where the applicant, or other person to be affected thereby, or the attorney, resides.

* The words, "the motion must be made in that district," omitted by error in engrossing.

Id., § 401, subd. 4, am'd.

§ 770. Motions in New York city.

In the first judicial district, a motion which elsewhere must be made in court, may be made to a judge out of court, except for a new trial on the merits.

Id., subd. 2.

§ 771. In absence of judge, motion may be transferred to another judge.

Where notice of a motion is given, or an order to show cause is returnable, before a judge, out of court, who, at the time fixed for the motion, is or will be absent, or unable, for any other cause, to hear it, the motion may be transferred, by his order, made before or at that time, or by the written stipulation of the attorneys for the parties, to another judge, before whom it might have been originally made.

Co. Proc., § 404, am'd. See § 26, ante.

§ 772. [Am'd, 1895.] What judges may make orders out of court, without notice.

Where an order, in an action, may be made by a judge of the court, out of court, and without notice, and the particular judge is not specially designated by law, it may be made by any judge of the court, in any part of the State; or, except to stay proceedings after verdict, report, or decision, by a justice of the supreme court, or by the county judge of the county where the action is triable, or in which the attorney for the applicant resides. Where such an order grants a provisional remedy, it can be vacated only in the mode specially prescribed by law; in any other case, it may be vacated or modified, without notice, by the judge who made it, or, upon notice, by him, or by the court.

Id., § 401, subd. 3; and Id., § 324, consolidated and am'd. See ante, § 241; L. 1895, ch. 946,

§ 773. The same.

The limitation, contained in the last section, of the county judges who may make an order, does not apply to a case where it is prescribed in this act, in general words, that a particular order may be made by a county judge, or by any county judge.

§ 774. [Am'd, 1877.] Review of order, made by a judge of another court.

An order, made by a judge of a court, other than the court in which the action is pending, may be reviewed in the same manner, as if it was made by a judge of the court, in which the action is pending.

Co. Proc., § 403, last clause, am'd. See § 327, ante. Am'd by L. 1877, ch. 416.

§ 775. [Am'd, 1877.] When stay of proceedings not to exceed twenty days.

An order to stay proceedings in an action, for a longer time than twenty days, shall not be made by a judge, out of court, except to stay proceedings under an order or judgment' appealed from, or where it is made upon notice of the application, to the adverse party, or in cases where special provision is otherwise made by law.

Id., § 401, subd. 6. See Rule 67.

§ 776. Subsequent application for order after denial, etc., of prior application.

If an application for an order, made to a judge of the court, or to a county judge, is wholly or partly refused, or granted conditionally, or on terms; a subsequent application, in reference to the same matter, and in the same stage of the proceedings, shall be made only to the same judge, or to the court. If it is made to another judge, out of court, an order granted thereupon must be vacated by the judge who made it; or, if he is absent, or otherwise unable to hear the application, by any judge of the court, upon proof, by affidavit, of the facts.

2 R. S. 281, § 27 (2 Edm. 297); and Id. 173, §§ 32, 33 and 34 (2 Edm. 179).

§ 777. Id.; as to application for judgment.

Where an application is made to the court for judgment, it cannot be withdrawn, without the express permission of the court; and a subsequent application for judgment shall not be made, at a term held by another judge, except where the first application is so withdrawn; or where the directions, given thereupon, require an act to be done, before judgment can be rendered; or where the fact of the former application is stated, and the proceedings thereupon, and subsequent thereto, are fully set forth, in the papers upon which the application is made.

§ 778. Penalty for violating last two sections.

A person making an application, forbidden by the last two sections, with knowledge of the previous application, shall be punished by the court, for a contempt.

2 R. S. 281, § 28.

§ 779. [Am'd, 1879, 1882 and 1884.] Costs of a motion; how collected.

Where costs of a motion, or any other sum of money, directed by an order to be paid, are not paid within the time fixed for that purpose by the order, or if no time is so fixed within ten days after the service of a copy of the order, an execution against the personal property only of the party required to pay the same, may be issued by any party or person to whom the said costs or sum of money is made payable by said order, or in case permission of the court shall be first obtained by any party or person having an interest in compelling payment thereof, which execution shall be in the same form, as nearly as may be, as an execution upon a judgment, omitting the recitals and directions relating to real property; and all proceedings on the part of the party required to pay the same, except to review or vacate the order, are stayed without further direction of the court, until the payment thereof. But the adverse party may, at his election, waive the stay of proceedings. Where the order directs that the costs of a motion abide the event of the action, or where costs of a motion, awarded by an order, have not been collected when final judgment is entered, they may be taxed as part of the costs of the action or set off against costs awarded to the adverse party, as the case requires. But nothing herein contained shall be so construed as to relieve a party or person from punishment as for contempt of court for disobedience to an order in any case when the remedy of enforcement by such proceedings now exist.

See Code of Proc., as am'd in 1876; L. 1884, ch. 181; § 8233, post.

TITLE VI.*Miscellaneous practice regulations.

- Article 1. General regulations respecting time.
 2. Preferred and deferred causes.
 3. Service of papers.
 4. Discovery of books and papers.
 5. General regulations respecting bonds and undertakings.
 6. Other matters.

ARTICLE FIRST.General regulations respecting time.*

- Sec. 780. Notice of motion, to be eight days.
 781. How time enlarged, before its expiration.
 782. Copy of affidavit must be served.
 783. Relief, after time has expired.
 784. When time cannot be extended.
 785. Qualification of last section.
 786. Orders in certain actions; how published.
 787. Time for publication of notice; how computed.
 788. [Repealed.]

§ 780. Notice of motion, to be eight days.

Where special provision is not otherwise made by law, or by the general rules of practice, if notice of a motion, or of any other proceeding in an action, before a court or a judge, is necessary, it must, if personally served, be served at least eight days before the time appointed for the hearing; unless the court or a judge thereof, or a county judge of the county where the action is triable or in which the attorney for the applicant resides, upon an affidavit showing grounds therefor, makes an order to show cause, why the application should not be granted; and, in the order, directs that service thereof, less than eight days before it is returnable, be sufficient.

See L. 1890, ch. 219. See also Rules 37, 67.

§ 781. How time enlarged, before its expiration.

Where the time, within which a proceeding in an action, after its commencement, must be taken, has begun to run, and has not expired, it may be enlarged, upon an affidavit showing grounds therefor, by the court, or by a judge authorized to make an order in the action.

Co. Proc., part of § 405, am'd.

§ 782. Copy of affidavit must be served.

In a case specified in the last two sections, the affidavit, upon which the order was granted, or a copy thereof, must be served with a copy of the order; otherwise, the order may be disregarded.

Id.

§ 783. Relief, after time has expired.

After the expiration of the time, within which a pleading must be made, or any other proceeding in an action, after its commencement, must be taken, the court, upon good cause shown, may, in its discretion, and upon such terms as justice requires, relieve the party from the consequences of an omission to do the act, and allow it to be done; except as otherwise specially prescribed by law.

Substitute for part of Co. Proc., § 174.

§ 784. When time cannot be extended.

A court, or a judge, is not authorized to extend the time, fixed by law, within which to commence an action; or to take an appeal; or to apply to continue an action, where a party thereto has died, or has incurred a disability; or the time fixed by the court, within which a supplemental complaint must be made, in order to continue an action; or an action is to abate, unless it is continued by the proper parties. A court, or a judge, cannot allow either of those acts to be done, after the expiration of the time fixed by law, or by the order, as the case may be, for doing it; except in a case specified in the next section.

See Co. Proc., § 405.

§ 785. [Am'd, 1877.] Qualification of last section.

Where a party entitled to appeal from a judgment or order, or to move to set aside a final judgment for error in fact, dies either before or after this chapter takes effect, and before the expiration of the time within which the appeal may be taken, or the motion made, the court may allow the appeal to be taken, or the motion to be made, by the heir, devisee, or personal representative of the decedent, at any time within four months after his death.

§ 786. Orders in certain actions; how published.

Where an action is brought for the collective benefit of the creditors of a person, or of an estate, or for the benefit of a person or persons, other than the plaintiff, who will come in and contribute to the expense of the action, notice of a direction of the court, contained in a judgment or order, requiring the creditors, or other person or persons to exhibit their demands, or otherwise to come in, must be published, once in each week, for at least three successive weeks, and as much longer as the court directs. in the newspaper, published at Albany, in which legal notices are required to be published, and in a newspaper, published in the county where the act is required to be done.

2 R. S. 183, § 106 (2 Edm. 190).

§ 787. Time for publication of notice; how computed.

The period of publication of a legal notice, in an action or special proceeding, brought in a court, either of record or not of record, or before a judge of such a court, must be computed, so as to exclude the first day of publication, and include the day, on which the act or event, of which notice is given, is to happen, or which completes the full period of publication.

Co. Proc., § 425.

§ 788. [Repealed, 1892, ch. 677.]

ARTICLE SECOND.Preferred and deferred causes.

Sec. 789. Preference of certain actions by the people

790. Id.; of criminal actions.

791. Id.; among civil actions.

792. Id.; in mandamus or prohibition.

793. When an order is necessary.

794-5. [Repealed.]

§ 789. Preference of certain actions by the people.

A trial, motion, appeal, or hearing, in an action by the people to recover money, funds, credits, or other property, held or owned by the State, or held or owned, officially or otherwise, for, or in behalf of, a public or governmental interest, by a municipal or other public corporation, or by a board, officer, custodian, agency or agent of the State, or of a city, county, town, village, or other division, subdivision, department, or portion of the State, which the defendant has, without right, obtained, received, converted, or disposed of; or to recover damages, or other compensation, for so obtaining, receiving, paying, converting, or disposing of the same; or the aiding or abetting thereof; is entitled, on the application of the attorney-general, to a preference over any other business, at a term or sitting of any court of the State, irrespective of its place upon the calendar.

L. 1875, ch. 49, § 5.

§ 790. Id.; of criminal actions.

A criminal action, including an appeal or other proceeding in a criminal cause, is entitled, under the direction of the court, to preference in the trial or hearing thereof, over all civil actions and special proceedings, except as prescribed in the last section.

See post, §§ 1541, 1774.

§ 791. [Am'd, 1877, 1879, 1882, 1887, 1898, 1899, 1900, 1902, 1906.] Id.; among civil actions.

Civil causes are entitled to preference among themselves, in the trial or hearing thereof, in the following order, next after the causes specified in the last section but one:

1. [Am'd, 1879, 1898, 1906.] An action or special proceeding brought by or against the people of the state, or brought by the people of the state on the relation of a party, or brought by or against any state officer or board of state officers as such; where the attorney of the said people, state officer or board of state officers or attorney for the plaintiffs in such action or special proceeding, has given notice, at the time of the service of the notice of trial or argument, of the particular day in the term at which he will move it. If the action or special proceeding is not moved by said attorney for trial or argument on that day, or as soon thereafter in the same term as the court can hear it, the other party may then move the trial or argument; otherwise it shall not be moved out of its order at that term except by the special order of the court.

L. 1898, ch. 136; L. 1906, ch. 51. In effect Sept. 1, 1906.

2. [Am'd, 1882, 1898.] An action or special proceeding in which The City of New York, or a board of officers, exercising powers conferred by a statute for the protection of public health or public or private property, or for the prevention or punishment of violations of a statute relating to either of those subjects, or the commissioners of pilots in The City of New York, are parties; where a notice, similar to the notice prescribed in the last subdivision, has been served by their attorney, at the time of service of the notice of trial or argument. The provisions of the last subdivision, relating to moving the trial or argument, apply to a cause within this subdivision.

L. 1898, ch. 136. In effect Sept. 1, 1898.

3. In the court of appeals or the supreme court, an appeal taken by either party, in an action or special proceeding other than as specified in subdivision first of this section, where the people of the State, or a board of State officers, are sole parties, or a State officer is sole party, plaintiff or defendant.

3a. [Added, 1899.] In the court of appeals or the supreme court, an appeal taken by either party in an action or special proceeding from a judgment or order declaring a legislative enactment unconstitutional, is entitled on motion of the appellant, to a preference over any business irrespective of its place upon the calendar, except as to preferences provided for in sections seven hundred eighty-nine, seven hundred ninety and the preceding subdivisions of this section.

L. 1899, ch. 585. In effect Sept. 1, 1899.

4. In the court of appeals, an action, a party to which has died, pending the action, where the pendency of the action prevents a final settlement of the estate of the deceased party.

5. [Am'd, 1895, 1899, 1900, 1906.] In any court, an action or special proceeding in which an executor or an administrator, or testamentary trustee, or an infant, or a trustee of a fund for the support and maintenance of an infant, or a receiver appointed by the court, or by the comptroller of the currency of the United States, or a trustee in bankruptcy, or a general assignee for the benefit of creditors, or the committee of a lunatic or an idiot, or a creditor of a deceased insolvent debtor suing for the benefit of himself and other creditors interested in the estate or property of such deceased debtor where a right of action is given by express provision of law, is the sole plaintiff or sole defendant: an action or special proceeding for the construction of, or an adjudication upon or to determine the validity of the probate of a will, in which the administrator, with the will annexed, or the executor of the will is joined, as plaintiff or defendant, with one or more other parties, and an appeal from the judgments or decision in any of the foregoing actions or proceedings and in the court of appeals or the supreme court, an appeal from the decree or decision of a surrogate's court, determining a will to be valid and admitting it to probate, or determining an instrument offered for probate as a will to be invalid or not entitled to probate as such, or granting general letters of administration or directing the distribution of a fund or payment of money by an executor or an administrator in pursuance of an order or decree made on an intermediate, final or judicial accounting or otherwise by an administrator or an executor.

L. 1899, ch. 585; L. 1900, ch. 144; L. 1906, ch. 6. In effect Sept. 1, 1906.

6. [Am'd, 1895.] An action for dower where the plaintiff makes proof by affidavit, to the satisfaction of the court, or a judge thereof, that she has no sufficient means of support aside from the estate in controversy, an action for the partition of real property.

7. [Am'd, 1882.] An action against a corporation or joint-stock association, issuing bank notes or any kind of paper credits, to circulate as money; or by or against a receiver of such a corporation or association; an action in which a county or town is sole plaintiff or defendant.

8. [Am'd, 1879.] An action against a corporation, founded upon a note or other evidence of debt for the absolute payment of money. An action upon an undertaking given upon an appeal to the court of appeals or to stay the execution on an appeal to the court of appeals.

9. [Am'd, 1887.] In an action against a sheriff, in his official capacity, or an action by a sheriff or late sheriff, to recover for a breach of the obligation of a bond or bonds, or an instrument or instruments of indemnity, or an undertaking or undertakings given to him in his official capacity.

10. A cause entitled to preference, by the general rules of practice, or by the special order of the court, in the particular case.

11. [Added, 1898.] In any court an action for libel or slander.

L. 1898, ch. 136. In effect Sept. 1, 1898.

12. [Added, 1899.] In the court of appeals, all appeals from judgments of affirmance rendered by the appellate division of the supreme court in cases enumerated in subdivision two of section one hundred and ninety-one of this act, where the decision of the appellate division has been unanimous and an appeal has been taken or allowed as in said subdivision of said section provided.

L. 1899, ch. 335. In effect Sept. 1, 1899.

13. [Added, 1902.] An action for absolute divorce in which an order has been made granting temporary alimony.

L. 1902, ch. 357. In effect Sept. 1, 1902.

Where an issue of law and an issue of fact, or two or more other questions of different natures, come before the same term of the court for trial or hearing, the preference given by this section affects only the order in which the issues or questions of the same nature are to be disposed of.

§ 792. [Am'd, 1895.] Id.; in mandamus or prohibition.

Where a writ of mandamus or of prohibition has been issued from the appellate division of the supreme court, to a special term, or a judge of the same court, the cause may, in the discretion of the court, or, where an appeal is taken therein to the court of appeals, in the discretion of that court, be preferred over any of the causes specified in the last section.

L. 1895, ch. 946.

§ 793. [Am'd, 1895, 1896, 1900, 1904, 1915.] Where an order is necessary.

Where the right to a preference depends upon facts which do not appear in the pleadings or other papers upon which the cause is to be tried or heard, the party desiring a preference must procure an order therefor from the court, or a judge thereof, upon notice to the adverse party. A copy of the order must be served with or before the notice of trial or argument. Such an order is not appealable, but it may be vacated by the judge or judges holding the term at which the preferred cause is noticed for trial or hearing, or by such other justice, or at such other term of court, or at such other time as shall be prescribed by the general or special rules of practice. But a preliminary order is not requisite in a case embraced within subdivision first or second of the last section but one, and the order in a case embraced within subdivision six thereof may be made ex parte, and is conclusive. Where no order is required, a claim for preference, specifying the provision of law under which the claim is made, may be inserted in the note of issue to be filed with the clerk, and it shall then be the duty of such clerk to place such cause in its proper place among the preferred causes at the head of the calendar; except that in the counties of New York, Bronx, Kings, Queens and Erie, and the seventh judicial district, no action or special proceeding shall be placed as a preferred cause upon the calendar of any circuit court or trial term or special term of any court as herein provided, but the party desiring a preference of any cause shall serve upon the opposite party, with his notice of trial, a notice that an application will be made to the court at the opening thereof, or to such justice or other term of court or at such other time as shall be prescribed by the general or special rules of practice, for leave to move the same as a preferred cause, and if the right to a preference depends upon facts which do not appear in the pleadings or other papers upon which the case is to be tried the notice must be accompanied by an affidavit showing such facts. In said counties of New York, Bronx, Kings, Queens and Erie and in the seventh judicial district, the application for a preference shall be made at the opening of the court, or to such justices or other term of court, or at such other time as shall be prescribed by the general or special rules of practice, and if it shall appear that the cause is entitled to a preference and is intended to be moved for trial at or for the term for which the application is made, the court or justice must designate a day certain, during that term, on which day the said cause shall then be heard; if there be two or more causes so designated for trial for the same day, the said causes shall be heard in the order of their date of issue.

§ 795. [Repealed Jan. 1, 1896; L. 1895, ch. 946.]

ARTICLE THIRD.

Service of papers.

Sec. 796. Paper may be served personally.

797. Other modes of service.

798. Double time when served through the post-office.

799. When paper to be served on attorney; when service not required.

800. When service may be made on clerk, for non-resident.

801. Service through branch post-office in New York city.

801-a. Service in certain actions when name of deceased person is stated as defendant.

802. This article not applicable to service of summons or certain other process.

§ 796. [Am'd, 1888.] Paper may be served personally.

A notice or other paper in an action may be served on a party or an attorney, either by delivering it to him personally, or in the manner prescribed in the next section. All papers so served or required to be filed in an action, shall be plainly and legibly written or printed in black ink upon durable paper of good material, and, if imprinted by type-writer, such paper shall be of linen quality, equal in weight to sixteen pounds to the double cap ream, of seventeen by twenty-eight inches in size, and service or filing of papers printed or written upon such paper with such ink shall be deemed a compliance with the terms of this section. The transcribed minutes of a stenographer, taken in any civil or criminal action, or in any hearing or special proceeding, civil or criminal, shall be written or type-written on paper of the size hereinafter specified; and all cases, briefs, points or other papers required or used on an appeal from any judgment, determination or order of any court or board shall be printed (when required to be printed by the rules of any court) on paper of a uniform size, as follows: The paper must be ten and one-half inches by eight inches, and bound on the edge of the greatest length.

Co. Proc., § 408, am'd; L. 1888, ch. 496. See Rule 19.

§ 797. [Am'd, 1897.] Other modes of service.

Where the service is not personal, it may be made as follows:

1. Upon a party or an attorney, through the post-office, by depositing the paper, properly inclosed in a post-paid wrapper, in the post-office or in any post-office box regularly maintained by the government of the United States and under the care of the post-office of the party, or the attorney serving it, directed to the person to be served at the address, within the state, designated by him for that purpose, upon the preceding papers in the action; or, where he has not made such a designation, at his place of residence, or the place where he keeps an office, according to the best information which can conveniently be obtained concerning the same.

2. Upon an attorney, during his absence from his office, by leaving the paper with his partner or clerk therein, or with a person having charge thereof.

3. Upon an attorney, if there is no person in charge of his office, and the service is made between six o'clock in the morning and nine o'clock in the evening, either by leaving it, in a conspicuous place in his office, or by depositing it, inclosed in a sealed wrapper, directed to him in his office letter-box; or, if the office is not open, so as to admit of leaving the paper therein, and there is no office letter-box, by leaving it at his residence, within the state, with a person of suitable age and discretion.

4. Upon a party, by leaving the paper at his residence within the state, between six o'clock in the morning and nine o'clock in the evening, with a person of suitable age and discretion.

Substitute for Co. Proc., §§ 409, 410, 411; L. 1897, ch. 40. In effect Sept. 1, 1897.

§ 798 [Am'd, 1909, 1910.] Time added when served through the post-office.

Where it is prescribed in this act, or in the general rules of practice, that a notice must be given, or a paper must be served, within a specified time, before an act is to be done; or that the adverse party has a specified time, after notice or service, within which to do an act; if service is made through the post-office, three days shall be added to the time specified except that service of notice of trial may be made, through the post-office, not less than sixteen days before the day of trial, including day of service.

Co. Proc., § 412, am'd. Am'd by L. 1909, ch. 423; L. 1910, ch. 577. In effect Sept. 1, 1910.

§ 799. When paper to be served on attorney; when service not required.

Where a party has appeared, a notice or other paper, required to be served in an action, must be served upon his attorney. If a defendant has not appeared, service of a notice or other paper, in the ordinary proceedings in the action, need not be made upon him, unless he is actually confined in jail, for want of bail.

Id., §§ 414 and 417, consolidated.

§ 800. When service may be made on clerk, for non-resident.

Where a party to an action, who has appeared in person, resides without the State, or his residence cannot, with reasonable diligence, be ascertained, and he has not designated an address, within the State, upon the preceding papers, service of a paper upon him may be made, by serving it on the clerk.

Id., § 415.

§ 801. Service through branch post-office in New-York city.

In the city of New-York, where a paper is served, or a return is made, through the post-office, the deposit of the package in a branch post-office has the same effect, as a deposit in the general or principal post-office of that city.

§ 801-a. [Added, 1909.] Service in certain actions when name of deceased person is stated as defendant.

In case any action or proceeding shall be brought, founded in whole or in part upon any transaction growing out of a business conducted as provided by subdivision three of section twenty and section twenty-one of the partnership law, and the name of the deceased person is stated as a defendant, the process and papers therein may be served on any person or persons using such name with like effect as though such person or persons had been named as defendant by his or their own respective names, and with the same effect as though all such persons were served with process, and the process and all papers may be amended by substituting the name or names of the person or persons using the name of such deceased, and no action or proceeding shall fail, abate or be in any manner hindered by the name of such deceased being so used.

Added by L. 1909, ch. 65. Derivation — L. 1880, ch. 561, § 5. See note 3 of notes of Board of Statutory Consolidation at end of code.

§ 802. [Am'd, 1909.] This article not applicable to service of summons, or certain other process.

This article except the last section does not apply to the service of a summons, or other process; or of a paper to bring a party into contempt; or to a case where the mode of service is specially prescribed by law.

Id., § 418 and part of id., § 408. Am'd by L. 1909, ch. 65, § 3. See note 46 of notes of Board of Statutory Consolidation at end of code.

ARTICLE FOURTH.

(See 43 Hun. 95.)

Discovery of books and papers.

- Sec. 803. Court may direct discovery of books, etc.
804. Rules to prescribe the cases, etc.
805. Petition for discovery, and order thereupon.
806. Order, when and by whom vacated.
807. Proceedings upon the return of the order.
808. Penalty for disobedience.
809. Effect of papers, etc., produced.

§ 803. [Am'd, 1909, 1913.] The court may direct discovery of books, et cetera.

A court of record, other than a justices' court in a city, has power to compel a party to an action pending therein, to produce and discover, or to give to the other party, an inspection and copy, or permission to take a copy or photograph of a book, document, or other paper, or to make discovery of any article or property, in his possession or under his control, relating to the merits of the action, or of the defense therein.

2 R. S. 199, § 21, consolidated with Co. Proc., § 388. Am'd by L. 1909, ch. 173; L. 1913, ch. 86. In effect Sept. 1, 1913.

§ 804. Rules to prescribe the cases, etc.

The general rules of practice must prescribe the cases in which a discovery or inspection may be so compelled, and the proceedings for that purpose, where the same are not prescribed in this act.

Id., § 22, am'd. See Rules 14-16.

§ 805. Petition for discovery, and order thereupon.

To entitle a party to procure such a discovery or inspection, he must present a petition, praying therefor, and verified by affidavit, to the court, or to a judge, authorized to make an order in the action; upon which an order may be made, directing the party, against whom the discovery or inspection is sought, to allow it, or, in default thereof, to show cause before the court, at a time and place, and upon a notice, therein specified, why the prayer of the petition should not be granted; and, if necessary or proper, that his proceedings be stayed until the hearing of the application, although the stay exceeds twenty days.

Id., §§ 23 and 25.

§ 806. Order, when and by whom vacated.

An order, made as prescribed in the last section, may be vacated, by the judge who granted it, or by the court, upon satisfactory proof, by affidavit:

1. That it ought not to have been granted, or that it has been complied with; or,

2. That the party required to make the discovery, or permit the inspection, has not the possession or control of the book, document, or other paper, directed to be produced or inspected.

Id., § 24.

§ 807. Proceedings upon the return of the order.

Upon the return of the order to show cause, the court may make such an order, with respect to the discovery or inspection prayed for, as justice requires. Where either is directed, a referee may be appointed by the order, to direct and superintend it; whose certificate, unless set aside by the court, is presumptive, and, except in proceedings for contempt, conclusive evidence of compliance or non-compliance with the terms of the order. A fixed sum, not exceeding twenty dollars, may be added to the costs of the motion, for the fees of the referee.

Substitute for 2 R. S. 200, § 26, and part of Co. Proc., § 388.

§ 808. Penalty for disobedience.

Where an order, made as prescribed in the last section, directs a discovery or inspection, the party in whose behalf it was made, may, upon proof, by affidavit, that the adverse party has failed to obey it, and upon notice to him, apply to the court, for an order to punish him for the failure. Upon the hearing of the application, the court may, upon the payment of such a sum, for the expenses of the applicant, as the court fixes, and upon compliance with such other terms, as it deems just to impose, permit the party in default to comply with the order for a discovery and inspection; and, for that purpose, it may direct that the application to punish him stand over to a future time. Upon the final hearing of the application to punish the party in default, the court, in a proper case, may direct that his complaint be dismissed, or his answer or reply be stricken out, and that judgment be rendered accordingly; or it may make an order, striking out one or more causes of action, defences, counterclaims, or replies, interposed by him; or that he be debarred from maintaining a particular claim or defence, in relation to which the discovery or inspection was sought. Where the party has failed to obey an order, allowing an inspection by the adverse party, and requiring him to furnish a copy, or permit a copy to be taken, the court may also direct that the book, document, or other paper, be excluded from being given in evidence; or it may punish the party for a contempt; or both.

Substitute for 2 R. S. 200, § 26, and part of Co. Proc., § 388.

§ 809. Effect of papers, etc., produced.

A book, document, or other paper, produced under an order made as prescribed in this article, has the same effect, when used by the party requiring it, as if it was produced upon notice, according to the practice of the court.

2 R. S. 200, § 27 (2 Edm. 208).

ARTICLE FIFTH.General regulations respecting bonds and undertakings.*

- Sec. 810. Bonds, undertakings, etc., must be acknowledged.
811. Party need not join with his sureties; when one surety is sufficient.
812. Form of bond or undertaking; affidavit of sureties; approval by court or judge.
813. When several sureties may justify each in a smaller sum.
813-a. Further protection for undertakings in certain cases.
814. Bonds, etc., to the people or a public officer for the benefit of a suitor.
815. Bonds, etc., not affected by change of parties.
816. Id.; to be filed.

§ 810. [Am'd, 1877.] Bonds, undertakings, etc., must be acknowledged.

A bond or undertaking, given in an action or special proceeding, as prescribed in this act, must be acknowledged or proved, and certified, in like manner as a deed to be recorded.

See Rule 5.

§ 811. [Am'd, 1895.] Party need not join with his sureties; when one surety is sufficient.

Where a provision of this act requires a bond or undertaking, with sureties, to be given by, or in behalf of, a party or other person, he need not join with the sureties in the execution thereof, unless the provision requires him to execute the same; and the execution thereof by one surety is sufficient, although the word "sureties," is used, unless the provision expressly requires two or more sureties; and the execution of any such bond or undertaking by any fidelity or surety company authorized by the laws of this State to transact business, shall be equivalent to the execution of said bond or undertaking by two sureties, and such company, if excepted to, shall justify through its officers or attorney in the manner required by law of fidelity and surety companies. Any such company may execute any such bond or undertaking as surety by the hand of its officers, or attorney, duly authorized thereto by resolution of its board of directors, a certified copy of which resolution, under the seal of said company, shall be filed with each bond or undertaking.

L. 1895, ch. 510.

§ 812. [Am'd, 1895, 1899, 1901.] Form of bond or undertaking; affidavit of sureties; approval by court or judge.

A bond or undertaking, executed by a surety or sureties, as prescribed in this act, must where two or more persons execute it, be joint and several in form; and, except when executed by a fidelity or surety company, or when otherwise expressly prescribed by law, it must be accompanied with the affidavit of each surety, subjoined thereto, to the effect that he is a resident of and a householder or a freeholder within the state, and is worth the penalty of the bond, or twice the sum specified in the undertaking, over all the debts and liabilities which he owes or has incurred, and exclusive of property exempt by law from levy and sale under an execution. A bond or undertaking given by a party without a surety must be accompanied by his affidavit to the same effect. The bond or undertaking, except as otherwise expressly prescribed by law, must be approved by the court before which the proceeding is taken, or a judge thereof, or the judge before whom the proceeding is taken. The approval must be endorsed upon the bond or undertaking. The surety or sureties or the representatives of any surety or sureties upon the bond heretofore or hereafter executed, of any trustee, committee, guardian, assignee, receiver, executor, administrator or other fiduciary, shall be entitled as a matter of right to be, and shall be, discharged from liability as hereinafter provided, and to that end may on notice to the principal named in such bond apply to the court that accepted such bond or to the court of which the judge that accepted such bond was a member or to any judge thereof, praying to be relieved from liability as such surety or sureties for the act or omission of such principal occurring after the date of the order relieving such surety or sureties hereinafter provided for and that such principal be required to account and give new sureties. Such notice of such application may be served on said principal personally within or without the state, or, not less than five days prior to the date on which such application is to be made, unless it satisfactorily appears to the court, or a judge thereof, that personal notice cannot be given with due diligence within the state, in which case notice may be given in such manner as the court or a judge thereof directs. Pending the hearing of such application the court or judge may restrain such principal from acting except to preserve the trust estate until further order. Upon the hearing of such application if the principal does not file a new bond in the usual form to the satisfaction of the court or judge the court or judge must make an order requiring the principal to file a new bond within such reasonable time not exceeding five days as the court or judge in such order fixes. If such new bond shall be filed upon such hearing or within the time fixed by said order the court or judge must thereupon make a decree or order requiring the principal to account for all his acts and proceedings to and including the date of such order and to file such account within a time fixed, not exceeding twenty days, and releasing the surety or sureties making such application from liability upon the bond for any act or default of the principal subsequent to the date of such decree or order. If the principal fail so to file such new bond within the time specified, a decree or order must be made revoking the appointment of such principal or removing him and requiring him to so account and file such account within twenty days. If the principal fail to file his account as in this section provided such surety or sureties, or representatives thereof, may make and file such account with like force and effect as though made and filed by such principal, and upon the settlement thereof credit shall be given for all commissions, costs, disbursements, and allowances to which the principal would be entitled were he accounting, and allowance shall be made to such surety or sureties or representative for the expense incurred in so filing such account and procuring the settlement thereof. And after the filing of an account as required, or permitted, in this section the court or judge must upon the petition of the principal or surety or sureties or the representatives of any such surety or sureties, issue an order requiring all persons interested in the estate or trust funds to attend a settlement of such account at a time and place therein specified and upon the trust fund or estate being found or made good and paid over or properly secured, the surety or sureties shall be discharged from any and all further liability and the court or judge shall settle, determine and enforce the rights and liabilities of all parties to the proceedings in like manner and to the same extent as in actions for an accounting in the supreme court. And upon demand made in writing by the principal such surety or sureties, or representatives thereof, shall return any compensation that has been paid for the unexpired portion of such suretyship.

§ 813. [Am'd, 1894.] When several sureties may justify each in a smaller sum.

But where the penalty of the bond, or twice the sum specified in the undertaking is five thousand dollars or upwards, the court or judge may, in its or his discretion, allow the sum in which a surety is required to justify to be made up by the justification of two or more sureties each in a smaller sum. But in that case a surety cannot justify, in a sum less than five thousand dollars, and when two or more sureties are required by law to justify, the same person cannot so contribute to make up the sum for more than one of them. It shall be lawful for any party of whom a bond or undertaking is required to agree with his sureties for the deposit of any or all moneys for which such sureties are or may be held responsible with a trust company authorized by law to receive deposits, if such deposit is otherwise proper, and for the safe-keeping of any or all other depositable assets for which such sureties may be held responsible, with a safe-deposit company authorized by law to do business as such, in such a manner as to prevent the withdrawal of such moneys and assets, or any part thereof, except with the written consent of such sureties, or an order of the court made on such notice to them, as it may direct.

L. 1894, ch. 200.

§ 813-a. [Added, 1913.] Further protection for undertakings in certain cases.

Where an undertaking has been or shall be given in any action or proceeding the court may in its discretion, if justice so requires, order further or other security to be given in addition to such security. Upon cause shown the court may permit an examination or re-examination of any surety upon any such undertaking. Upon such examination or re-examination, if justice so requires, the court may require a new surety or sureties to be furnished or further or other security to be given in addition to the security already given. The court may enforce such order by any disposition of the action or proceeding that may be proper.

Added by L. 1913, ch. 83. In effect Sept. 1, 1913.

§ 814. [Am'd, 1895.] Bonds, etc., to the people or a public officer for the benefit of a suitor.

Where a bond or undertaking has been given, as prescribed by law, in the course of an action or a special proceeding, to the people or to a public officer, for the benefit of a party or other person interested, and provision is not specially made by law for the prosecution thereof; the party or other person, so interested, may maintain an action in his own name, for a breach of the condition of the bond, or of the terms of the undertaking; upon procuring an order, granting him leave so to do. The order may be made by the court, in which the action is or was pending: the city court of the city of New-York, or a county court, if the bond or undertaking was given in a special proceeding, pending before a judge of that court; or, in any other case, by the supreme court. Notice of the application therefor must be given, as directed by the court or judge, to the persons interested in the disposition of the proceeds.

L. 1895, ch. 946.

§ 815. Bonds, etc., not affected by change of parties.

A bond or undertaking, given in an action or special proceeding, as prescribed in this act, continues in force, after the substitution of a new party in place of an original party, or any other change of parties; and has thereafter the same force and effect, as if then given anew, in conformity to the change of parties.

§ 816. Id.; to be filed.

A bond or undertaking, required to be given by this act, must be filed with the clerk of the court; except where, in a special case, a different disposition thereof is directed by the court, or prescribed in this act.

Co. Proc., § 423, am'd. See Rule 4.

ARTICLE SIXTH.*Sec. 817. Consolidating causes in same court.

818. Id.; in different courts.

819. Id.; by plaintiff.

820. Interpleader by order in certain cases.

820-a. Suit by debtor, demanding judgment of interpleader.

821. Dismissal of complaint for neglect to serve summons.

822. Id.; for neglect to proceed.

823. Feigned issues abolished, and order for trial substituted.

824. Summons and pleadings, to be filed within ten days after service.

825. Papers in special proceedings; where to be filed.

826. Publication, where no newspaper, etc., in county.

827. Special references in certain cases.

§ 817. Consolidating causes in same court.

Where two or more actions, in favor of the same plaintiff against the same defendant, for causes of action which may be joined, are pending in the same court, the court may, in its discretion, by order, consolidate any or all of them, into one action.

2 R. S. 383, § 36 (2 Edm. 398).

§ 818. Id.; in different courts.

Where one of the actions is pending in the supreme court, and another is pending in another court, the supreme court may, by order, remove to itself the action in the other court, and consolidate it with that in the supreme court.

Id., § 37.

§ 819. Id.; by plaintiff.

Where separate actions are commenced against two or more joint and several debtors, in the same court, and for the same cause of action, the plaintiff may, in any stage of the proceedings, consolidate them into one action.

Id., § 38.

§ 820. [Am'd, 1894.] Interpleader by order in certain cases.

A defendant against whom an action to recover upon a contract, or an action of ejectment, or an action to recover a chattel, is pending, may, at any time before answer, upon proof, by affidavit, that a person, not a party to the action, makes a demand against him for the same debt or property, without collusion with him, apply to the court, upon notice to that person and the adverse party, for an order to substitute that person in his place, and to discharge him from liability to either, on his paying into court the amount of the debt, or delivering the possession of the property, or its value, to such person as the court directs; or upon it appearing that the defendant disputes, in whole or in part, the liability as asserted against him by different claimants, or that he has some interest in the subject-matter of the controversy which he desires to assert, his application may be for an order joining the other claimant or claimants as co-defendants with him in the action. The court may, in its discretion, make such order, upon such terms as to costs and payments into court of the amount of the debt, or part thereof, or delivery of the possession of the property, or its value or part thereof, as may be just, and thereupon the entire controversy may be determined in the action.

L. 1894, ch. 240. See Banking Law, § 115.

§ 820-a. [Added, 1908.] Suit by debtor, demanding judgment of interpleader.

When any sum of money shall be due and payable under or on account of a contract, and the whole, or any part thereof, exceeding fifty dollars in amount, shall be claimed or demanded by adverse claimants thereto, the debtor may bring suit in any court having jurisdiction thereof, and of the parties, demanding judgment of interpleader, and that the debtor be permitted to pay the amount of the debt into court, and that such debtor upon such payment into court be discharged from any further liability to any of the parties to the action. When service of the summons and complaint shall have been made upon all such claimants, the plaintiff may make application, by petition or upon affidavits for an order permitting and directing the plaintiff to pay the amount of the debt into court, and that the plaintiff, upon the payment into court of the amount of the debt as required by the order, be discharged from any further liability to any of the defendants in such action, and the court, upon satisfactory proof by affidavit or otherwise, as the court may require, of the facts alleged in the complaint, and that the whole or part of the debt is claimed adversely by the defendants without any collusion on the part of the plaintiff, and that the amount thereof is not in dispute may make such an order, upon such terms as to costs and disbursements payable out of the money so adversely claimed as to the court may seem just, and upon the payment into court of the amount of such debt, and complying with the terms of such order, the plaintiff shall stand discharged from any further liability to any of the defendants in said action upon account of such debt and contract. Notice of such application, together with copies of the papers upon which the same is made, shall be personally served on each of the defendants, at least five, and not more than fifteen days before the return day thereof.

Added, L. 1908, ch. 225. In effect Sept. 1, 1908.

§ 821. [Am'd, 1877.] Dismissal of complaint for neglect to serve summons.

Where, in an action against two or more defendants, the plaintiff unreasonably neglects to serve the summons upon one or more of them, without whose presence a complete determination of the controversy cannot be had, the court may, in its discretion, upon the application of a defendant, who has appeared in the action, dismiss the complaint as against him, and render judgment accordingly.

Substitute for Co. Proc., part of § 274.

§ 822. [Am'd, 1879.] Id.; for neglect to proceed.

Where the plaintiff unreasonably neglects to proceed in the action against the defendant, or one or more defendants against whom a separate judgment may be taken, the court may in its discretion, upon the application of the defendant or defendants, or any of them, against whom he so neglects to proceed, dismiss the complaint as against the moving party or parties, and render judgment accordingly.

Id. See Rule 36.

§ 823. Feigned issues abolished, and order for trial substituted.

Feigned issues have been abolished. In a case where neither party can, as of right, require a trial by jury of an issue of fact arising upon the pleadings, or where a question of fact, not in issue upon the pleadings, is to be tried, an order for the trial thereof by a jury may be made, stating, distinctly and plainly, the questions of fact to be tried. Such an order is the only authority necessary for the trial.

Co. Proc., § 72. See Rule 31.

§ 824. Summons and pleadings, to be filed within ten days after service.

The summons, and each pleading in an action, must be filed with the clerk, by the party in whose behalf it is served, within ten days after the service thereof. If the party fails so to file it, the adverse party, on proof of the failure, is entitled, without notice, to an order from the judge, that it be filed within a time specified in the order, or be deemed abandoned.

Id., § 416.

§ 825. Papers in special proceedings; where to be filed.

A return or other paper in a special proceeding, where no other disposition thereof is prescribed by law, must be filed, and an order therein must be entered, with the clerk of the county in which the special proceeding is taken, if it is before a county officer, or a judge of a court established in a city; if before a justice of the supreme court, with the clerk of a county designated by the justice; or, if no designation is made by him, of a county where one of the parties resides.

L. 1847, ch. 470, § 20, am'd.

§ 826. [Am'd, 1877, 1917.] Publication, where no newspaper, etc., in county or city.

1. Where a notice, or other proceeding, is required by law to be published in a newspaper published in a county, and no newspaper is published therein, or to be published oftener than any newspaper is regularly published therein, the publication may be made in a newspaper of an adjoining county, except where special provision is otherwise made by law.

2. Where a notice or other proceeding is required by law to be published in a newspaper in a county which contains a city having no newspaper, or to be published in a newspaper in such city, the publication, if so required to be made in the county, may be made either in the county or in a city, outside the county, adjoining such city in which no newspaper is published; or, if so required to be made in the city in which no newspaper is published, the publication may be made in such adjoining city of another county.

2 R. S. 552, § 10. Am'd by L. 1877, ch. 416; L. 1917, ch. 248, in effect Sept. 1, 1917.

§ 827. [Am'd, 1877.] Special references in certain cases.

Where a provision of this act authorizes the court to approve an undertaking, or the sureties thereto; or to make an examination or inquiry; or to appoint an appraiser, receiver, or trustee; it may direct a reference to one or more persons designated in the order, either to make the approval, examination, inquiry or appointment, or to report the facts to the court, for its action thereupon. And where, according to the practice of the court of chancery, on the 31st day of December, 1846, a matter was referable to the clerk, or to a master in chancery, a court having authority to act thereupon, may direct a reference to one or more persons, designated in the order, with the powers which were possessed by the clerk, or the master in chancery, except where it is otherwise specially prescribed by law.

Modelled upon first sentence of L. 1847, ch. 230, § 77.

CHAPTER IX.

Evidence.

TITLE I. - General Regulations respecting Evidence, and the Competency and Mode of Examination of a Witness.

TITLE II. - Compelling the Attendance and Testimony of a Witness.

TITLE III. - Depositions.

TITLE IV. - Documentary Evidence.

TITLE V. - Miscellaneous Provisions.

TITLE I.

General regulations respecting evidence, and the competency and mode of examination of a witness.

Article 1. Competency of a witness; evidence in particular cases.
2. Administration of an oath or affirmation.

ARTICLE FIRST.

Competency of a witness; evidence in particular cases.

- S. c. 828. No witness to be excluded by reason of interest, etc.
829. When party, etc., cannot be examined.
830. Testimony of party or witness since deceased or insane or who, being a nonresident, has departed from the state, together with all exhibits or documents proved during such testimony.
831. When husband and wife not competent witnesses. When competent.
832. Conviction for crime not to exclude witness; how conviction proved.
833. Clergymen, etc., not to disclose confessions.
834. Physicians not to disclose professional information.
835. Attorneys and counsellors not to disclose communications.
836. Application of the last three sections.
837. When witness not excused from testifying.
838. Evidence of party may be rebutted.
839. Admission by member of corporation.
840. Seal, presumptive evidence of consideration.
841. Presumption of death in certain cases.
841a. Testimony of surveyor and proof of standard of measurement.
841b. Trial and burden of proof of contributory negligence.
841b. Recitals as to heirship in deeds.

§ 828. No witness to be excluded by reason of interest, etc.

Except as otherwise specially prescribed in this title, a person shall not be excluded or excused from being a witness, by reason of his or her interest in the event of an action or special proceeding; or because he or she is a party thereto; or the husband or wife of a party thereto, or of a person in whose behalf an action or special proceeding is brought, prosecuted, opposed, or defended.

Co. Proc., § 398; and L. 1867. ch. 887. § 1.

§ 829. [Am'd, 1877, 1881.] When party, etc., cannot be examined.

Upon the trial of an action, or the hearing upon the merits of a special proceeding, a party or a person interested in the event, or a person from, through or under whom such a party or interested person derives his interest or title, by assignment or otherwise shall not be examined as a witness in his own behalf or interest, or in behalf of the party succeeding to his title or interest against the executor, administrator or survivor of a deceased person, or the committee of a lunatic, or a person deriving his title or interest from, through or under a deceased person or lunatic, by assignment or otherwise, concerning a personal transaction or communication between the witness and the deceased person or lunatic, except where the executor, administrator, survivor, committee or person so deriving title or interest is examined in his own behalf, or the testimony of the lunatic or deceased person is given in evidence concerning the same transaction or communication. A person shall not be deemed interested for the purpose of this section, by reason of being a stockholder or officer of any banking corporation which is a party to the action or proceeding, or interested in the event thereof.

Substitute for Co. Proc., § 399. Am'd by L. 1877, ch. 416; L. 1881, ch. 703, in effect Aug. 19, 1881.

§ 830. [Am'd, 1893, 1896, 1899, 1911, 1918.] Testimony and exhibits upon former trial and hearing; when to be read or given in evidence at another trial or hearing.

Where a party or witness has died or become insane or, being a nonresident of this state has departed from the state or, being a resident of the state has departed therefrom by reason of military or naval service under the state or United States, since or during the trial of an action now or hereafter pending, or since or during the hearing upon the merits of a special proceeding now or hereafter pending, the testimony of the decedent or insane person or of such absentee, or of any person who is rendered incompetent by the provisions of the last section, taken or read in evidence at the former trial or hearing, or at the same trial or hearing, either in court or before the same or a new referee, together with all exhibits and documents read in evidence in connection with, or as a part of the giving of such testimony, may be given or read in evidence at a new trial or hearing or at a continuation of the same trial or hearing either in court or before the same or a new referee, or upon any subsequent trial or hearing, either in court or before the same or a new referee, of the same subject matter in the same or another action or special proceeding between the same parties to such former trial or hearing or their legal representatives, by either party to such new trial or hearing, or to such continuation of the same trial or hearing either in court or before the same or a new referee, or to such subsequent action or special proceeding either in court or before the same or a new referee, subject to any other legal objection to the competency of the witness, or to any other legal objection to his testimony or any question put to him, or to any other legal objection to such exhibits and documents. Such testimony, exhibits and documents proven by oath to have been so previously taken or read in evidence may be so given or read in evidence; or the original stenographic notes of such testimony taken by a stenographer who has since died or become incompetent may be so read in evidence by any person whose competency to read the same accurately is established to the satisfaction of the court or officer presiding at the trial of such action or special proceeding.

§ 831. [Am'd, 1877, 1879, 1880, 1887, 1915.] When husband and wife not competent witnesses; when competent.

A husband or wife is not competent to testify against the other, upon the trial of an action, or the hearing upon the merits of a special proceeding, founded upon an allegation of adultery, except to prove the marriage or disprove the allegation of adultery. However, if upon such trial or such hearing the party against whom the allegation of adultery is made produces evidence tending to prove any of the defenses thereto mentioned in section seventeen hundred and fifty-eight of this act, the other party is competent to testify in disproof of any such defense. A husband or wife shall not be compelled, or without consent of the other if living, allowed to disclose a confidential communication made by one to the other during marriage. In an action for criminal conversation, the plaintiff's wife is not a competent witness for the plaintiff, but she is a competent witness for the defendant, as to any matter in controversy; except that she cannot, without the plaintiff's consent, disclose any confidential communication had or made between herself and the plaintiff.

L. 1867, ch. 887, §§ 2 and 3 (7 Edm. 198), am'd; L. 1877, ch. 416; L. 1879, ch. 542; L. 1880, ch. 149; L. 1887, ch. 103; L. 1915, ch. 181, in effect April 3, 1915.

§ 832. [Am'd, 1879.] Conviction for crime not to exclude witness; how conviction proved.

A person, who has been convicted of a crime or misdemeanor is notwithstanding a competent witness in a civil or criminal action or special proceeding; but the conviction may be proved, for the purpose of affecting the weight of his testimony, either by the record, or by his cross-examination, upon which he must answer any question, relevant to that inquiry; and the party cross-examining him is not concluded, by his answer to such a question.

See § 2008, post. See Penal Code, § 714.

§ 833. Clergymen, etc., not to disclose confessions.

A clergyman, or other minister of any religion, shall not be allowed to disclose a confession made to him, in his professional character, in the course of discipline, enjoined by the rules or practice of the religious body, to which he belongs.

2 R. S. 406, § 72, am'd.

§ 834. [Am'd, 1904, 1905.] Physicians or professional registered nurses not to disclose professional information.

A person duly authorized to practice physic or surgery, or a professional or registered nurse, shall not be allowed to disclose any information which he acquired in attending a patient, in a professional capacity, and which was necessary to enable him to act in that capacity; unless, where the patient is a child under the age of sixteen, the information so acquired indicates that the patient has been the victim or subject of a crime, in which case the physician or nurses may be required to testify fully in relation thereto upon any examination, trial or other proceeding in which the commission of such crime is a subject of inquiry.

Id., § 73; L. 1904, ch. 331; L. 1905, ch. 331. In effect Sept. 1, 1905.

§ 835. [Am'd, 1896.] Attorneys and counsellors not to disclose communications.

An attorney or counsellor at law shall not be allowed to disclose a communication, made by his client to him, or his advice given thereon, in the course of his professional employment, nor shall any clerk, stenographer or other person employed by such attorney or counsellor be allowed to disclose any such communication or advice given thereon.

L. 1896, ch. 564. In effect Sept. 1, 1896.

§ 836. [Am'd, 1893, 1899, 1904.] Application of the last three sections.

The last three sections apply to any examination of a person as a witness unless the provisions thereof are expressly waived upon the trial or examination by the person confessing, the patient or the client. But a physician or surgeon or a professional or registered nurse, may upon a trial or examination disclose any information as to the mental or physical condition of a patient who is deceased, which he acquired in attending such patient professionally, except confidential communications and such facts as would tend to disgrace the memory of the patient, when the provisions of section eight hundred and thirty-four have been expressly waived on such trial or examination by the personal representatives of the deceased patient, or if the validity of the last will and testament of such deceased patient is in question, by the executor or executors named in said will, or the surviving husband, widow or any heir-at-law or any of the next of kin, of such deceased, or any other party in interest. But nothing herein contained shall be construed to disqualify an attorney in the probate of a will heretofore executed or offered for probate or hereafter to be executed or offered for probate from becoming a witness, as to its preparation and execution in case such attorney is one of the subscribing witnesses thereto. In an action for the recovery of damages for a personal injury the testimony of a physician or surgeon, or of a professional or registered nurse attached to any hospital, dispensary or other charitable institution as to information which he acquired in attending a patient in a professional capacity, at such hospital, dispensary, or other charitable institution shall be taken before a referee appointed by a judge of the court in which such action is pending; provided, however, that any judge of such court at any time in his discretion may, notwithstanding such deposition, order that a subpoena issue for the attendance and examination of such physician or surgeon or professional or registered nurse, upon the trial of the action. In such case a copy of the order shall be served, together with the subpoena. Sections eight hundred and seventy-two, eight hundred and seventy-three, eight hundred and seventy-four, eight hundred and seventy-five, eight hundred and seventy-six, eight hundred and seventy-nine, eight hundred and eighty, eight hundred and eighty-four and eight hundred and eighty-six of this code apply to the examination of a physician or surgeon or a professional or registered nurse, as prescribed in this section. The waivers herein provided for must be made in open court, on the trial of the action, or proceeding, and a paper executed by a party prior to the trial, providing for such waiver shall be insufficient as such a waiver. But the attorneys for the respective parties, may prior to the trial, stipulate for such waiver, and the same shall be sufficient thereof.

L. 1893, ch. 295; L. 1899, ch. 53; L. 1904, ch. 331. In effect Sept. 1, 1904.

§ 837. When witness not excused from testifying.

A competent witness shall not be excused from answering a relevant question, on the ground only that the answer may tend to establish the fact, that he owes a debt, or is otherwise subject to a civil suit. But this provision does not require a witness to give an answer, which will tend to accuse himself of a crime or misdemeanor or to expose him to a penalty or forfeiture; nor does it vary any other rule, respecting the examination of a witness.

2 R. S. 405, § 71 (2 Edm.) 422.

§ 838. Evidence of party may be rebutted.

The testimony of a party, taken at the instance of the adverse party, orally or by deposition, may be rebutted by other evidence.

Co. Proc., § 393.

§ 839. [Am'd, 1903.] Admission by member of corporation.

The admission of a member of an aggregate corporation, who is not a party, shall not be received as evidence against the corporation unless it was made concerning and while engaged in a transaction in which he was the authorized agent of the corporation; or unless it was made while a member of such corporation and testifying as a witness concerning a transaction of the corporation, when the official record of such testimony shall be received.

2 R. S. 407, § 80; L. 1903, ch. 384. In effect May 6, 1903.

§ 840. [Am'd, 1877.] Seal, presumptive evidence of consideration.

A seal upon an executory instrument, hereafter executed, is only presumptive evidence of a sufficient consideration, which may be rebutted, as if the instrument was not sealed.

Substitute for 2 R. S. 406, § 77.

§ 841. [Am'd, 1891, 1918.] Presumption of death in certain cases.

A person possessed of personal property in this state or upon whose life an estate in real property depends, who remains without the United States, or absents himself in the state or elsewhere for seven years together, is presumed to be dead in an action or special proceeding concerning such property or the administration of the estate of such person, unless it is affirmatively proved that he was alive within that time. And where in any action of partition in this state any portion of the proceeds of the sale of real property is or has been paid into court, or paid to the treasurer of any county for any unknown heirs, and has remained unclaimed for twenty-five years, after such payment by any person entitled thereto, the lapse of twenty-five years after such payment raises the presumption of the death of such unknown heirs at the time of the sale of such real property and before such payment, and after the lapse of twenty-five years after such payment it shall be presumed that there were no such unknown heirs living at the time of such sale or payment, and in any action or proceeding taken for the purpose of distributing and paying over such proceeds, all such unknown heirs are presumed and they shall be presumed to have been dead at the time of such sale and before such payment into court, or to the treasurer of any county.

1 R. S. 749, § 6. Am'd by L. 1891, ch. 364; L. 1918, ch. 318. In effect Sept. 1, 1918.

§ 841-a. [Added, 1909.] Testimony of surveyor and proof of standard of measurement.

No surveyor shall give evidence in any cause depending in any of the courts of this state, or before arbitrators, respecting the survey or measurement of lands which he may have made, unless if required, either such surveyor shall make oath, or it shall otherwise be shown that the chain or measure used by him was conformable to the standards of the state which were the standards of the state at the time such survey was made. An official certificate of any state, county, city, village or town sealer elected or appointed pursuant to the laws of this state, or the oath of such surveyor, that such chain or measure conformed to the state standard which shall have been furnished any such sealer pursuant to the provisions of the laws of this state, shall be prima facie evidence of such conformity, and an official certificate made by any such sealer that the implement used in measuring such chain or other measure was the one provided under such laws for such purposes, shall be prima facie evidence of that fact.

Added by L. 1909, ch. 65, Derivation — L. 1851, ch. 134, § 33, as am'd by L. 1893, ch. 101, § 1. See note 4 of notes of Board of Statutory Consolidation at end of code.

§ 841-b. [Added, 1913.] Trial and burden of proof of contributory negligence.

On the trial of any action to recover damages for causing death the contributory negligence of the person killed shall be a defense, to be pleaded and proven by the defendant.

Added by L. 1913, ch. 228. In effect Sept. 1, 1913.

§ 841-b. [Added, 1913.] Recitals as to heirship in deeds.

Hereafter, in any proceeding, suit or action pending or hereafter brought, in any of the courts of this state, any deed, mortgage, lease, release, power of attorney, or other instrument more than thirty years old, executed for the purpose of transferring the title to or interest in lands, tenements or hereditaments situated within this state, which contains recitals that the grantors, grantees, or either, or both, are the heirs-at-law of a prior owner of the title or interest described in said instrument, shall be presumptive evidence of said heirship as therein recited, if such instrument be duly acknowledged or witnessed and proved in any manner required or permitted at the date of the execution thereof, and be duly recorded in any county where any part of the lands described therein shall be located, or duly recorded in the office of the secretary of state of the state of New York.

ARTICLE SECOND.

Administration of an oath or affirmation.

Sec. 842. Before whom oaths and affidavits may be taken.

843. Id.; in special cases.

844. Id.; without the State.

845. General mode of swearing.

846. When kissing the gospels dispensed with.

847. When affirmation to be made.

848. Other modes of swearing.

849. Swearing persons not Christians.

850. Court may examine witness.

851. Swearing falsely in any form, perjury.

§ 842. [Am'd, 1911, 1915.] Before whom oaths and affidavits may be taken.

An oath or affidavit, required or authorized by law, except an oath to a juror or a witness upon a trial, an oath of office, and an oath or acknowledgment required by law to be taken before a particular officer, may be taken before a judge, clerk, deputy clerk, or special deputy clerk, of a court, a notary public, mayor, justice of the peace, a city magistrate of any of the cities of this state, or police justice thereof, surrogate, special county judge, special surrogate, county clerk, deputy county clerk, special deputy county clerk, or commissioner of deeds, within the district in which the officer is authorized to act, except that a justice of the peace may take such oath or affidavit anywhere in county containing the town or city in which he is authorized to act; and when certified by the officer, to have been taken before him, may be used in any court, or before any officer or other person.

2 R. S. 284, § 49, am'd; am'd by L. 1911, ch. 670; L. 1915, ch. 146, in effect Sept. 1, 1915.

§ 843. [Am'd, 1877.] Id.; in special cases.

Where an officer, person, board, or committee, has been heretofore, or is hereafter authorized by law, to take or hear testimony or to hear or receive an affidavit, or to take a deposition, in relation to a matter, concerning which he or it has a duty to perform, the officer or person, or a member of the board or committee, may administer an oath, for that purpose. Where an officer, person, board, or committee, to whom or to which application is made to do an act in an official capacity, requires information or proof, to enable him or it to decide upon the propriety of doing the act, he or it may receive an affidavit for that purpose.

Id. 552, § 11.

§ 844. Id.; without the State.

An oath or affidavit required, or which may be received, in an action, special proceeding, or other matter, may be taken, without the State, except where it is otherwise specially prescribed by law, before an officer authorized by the laws of the State, to take and certify the acknowledgment and proof of deeds, to be recorded in the State; and, when certified by him to have been taken before him, and accompanied with the like certificates, as to his official character and the genuineness of his signature, as are required to entitle a deed acknowledged before him to be recorded within the State, may be used, as if taken and certified in this State, by an officer authorized by law to take and certify the same.

§ 845. [Am'd, 1899.] General mode of swearing.

Except as otherwise specially prescribed in this article, when an oath is administered, the witness shall lay his hand on the gospels and express assent to the oath, and it shall be according to the present practice except that the witness need not kiss the gospels.

2 R. S. 407, § 82; L. 1899, ch. 340. In effect Sept. 1, 1899.

§ 846. [Am'd, 1899.] When kissing the gospels dispensed with.

The oath must be administered in the following form, to a person who so desires, the laying of the hand upon the gospels being omitted: "You do swear, in the presence of the ever-living God." While so swearing, he may or may not hold up his hand, at his option.

2 R. S. 407, § 83; L. 1899, ch. 340. In effect Sept. 1, 1899.

§ 847. When affirmation to be made.

A solemn declaration or affirmation, in the following form, must be administered to a person who declares that he has conscientious scruples against taking an oath, or swearing in any form: "You do solemnly, sincerely, and truly, declare and affirm."

Id., § 84.

§ 848. [Am'd, 1877, 1899.] Other modes of swearing.

If the court or officer, before which or whom a person is offered as a witness, is satisfied, that any peculiar mode of swearing, in lieu of, or in addition to laying the hand upon the gospels, is, in his opinion, more solemn and obligatory, the court or officer may, in its or his discretion, adopt that mode of swearing the witness.

Id., § 85; L. 1899, ch. 340. In effect Sept. 1, 1899.

§ 849. Swearing persons not Christians.

A person believing in a religion, other than the Christian, may be sworn according to the peculiar ceremonies, if any, of his religion, instead of as prescribed in section 845 or section 846 of this act.

Id. 408, § 86.

§ 850. Court may examine witness.

The court or officer may examine an infant, or a person apparently of weak intellect, produced before it or him, as a witness, to ascertain his capacity and the extent of his knowledge; and may inquire of a person, produced as a witness, what peculiar ceremonies in swearing he deems most obligatory.

Id., § 89, am'd.

869. When personal attendance not required by subpoena duces tecum.

§ 852. Mode of serving subpoena issued out of a court.

A subpoena, issued out of the court, to compel the attendance of a witness, and, where the subpoena so requires, to compel him to bring with him a book or paper, must be served as follows:

1. The original subpoena must be exhibited to the witness.
2. A copy of the subpoena, or a ticket containing its substance, must be delivered to him.
3. The fees, allowed by law, for traveling to, and returning from, the place where he is required to attend, and for one day's attendance, must be paid or tendered to him.

2 R. S. 400, § 42, with amendments.

§ 853. Penalty for disobedience.

A person so subpoenaed, who fails, without reasonable excuse, to obey the subpoena, or a person who fails, without reasonable excuse, to obey an order, duly served upon him, made by the court, or a judge, in an action, before or after final judgment therein, requiring him to attend, and be examined, or so to attend, and bring with him a book or paper, is liable, in addition to punishment for contempt, for the damages sustained by the party aggrieved in consequence of the failure, and fifty dollars in addition thereto. Those sums may be recovered in one action, or in separate actions. If he is a party to the action in which he was subpoenaed, the court may, as an additional punishment, strike out his pleading.

Id., § 43, am'd.

§ 854. [Am'd, 1900.] Subpoena to be issued by judge, etc.

When a judge, or an arbitrator, referee, or other person, or a board or committee, or a committee of either house of the legislature, or a joint committee thereof, duly empowered by resolution or act to sit and take testimony during the session thereof, or after the adjournment thereof, has been heretofore or is hereafter expressly authorized by law to hear, try, or determine a matter, or to do any other act in an official capacity, in relation to which proof may be taken, or the attendance of a person as a witness may be required; or to require a person to attend, either before him or it, or before another judge, or officer, or a person designated in a commission issued by a court of another State or country, to give testimony, or to have his deposition taken, or to be examined; a subpoena may be issued, by and under the hand of the judge, arbitrator, referee, or other person, or the chairman or a majority of the board or committee, requiring the person to attend; and also, in a proper case, to bring with him a book or a paper. The subpoena must be served, as prescribed in section eight hundred and fifty-two of this act. This section does not apply to a matter arising, or an act to be done, in an action in a court of record.

2 R. S. 401. § 44, am'd L. 1900, ch. 587. In effect April 23, 1900. See L. 1907, ch. 545.

§ 855. [Am'd, 1879.] Penalty for disobeying subpoena. Warrant for witness.

A person who is duly subpoenaed, as prescribed in the last section, must obey the subpoena. If he fails so to do, without a reasonable excuse, he is liable, in addition to any other punishment which may be lawfully inflicted therefor, for the damages sustained by the person aggrieved, in consequence of the failure, and fifty dollars in addition thereto, to be recovered as prescribed in section eight hundred and fifty-three of this act. If he fails to attend, the person issuing the subpoena, if he is a judge of a court of record or not of record, or if not, then any judge of such a court, upon proof by affidavit of the failure to attend, must issue a warrant to the sheriff of the county commanding him to apprehend the defaulting witness, and bring him before the officer, person, or body, before whom or which his attendance was required.

Id., §§ 45 and 46, consolidated.

§ 856. [Am'd, 1879.] When witness to be imprisoned.

If the person subpoenaed and attending or brought as prescribed in the last section, before an officer or other person or a body refuses without reasonable cause to be examined, or to answer a legal and pertinent question, or to produce a book or paper, which he was directed to bring by the terms of the subpoena, or to subscribe his deposition after it has been correctly reduced to writing, the person issuing the subpoena, if he is a judge of a court of record, or not of record, may forthwith, or if he is not, then any judge of such court may upon proof by affidavit of the facts by warrant commit the offender to jail, there to remain, until he submits to do the act which he was so required to do or is discharged according to law.

Id., § 47, am'd verbally. See § 876, post.

§ 857. Contents of warrant.

A warrant of commitment, issued as prescribed in the last section, must specify particularly the cause of the commitment; and, if the witness is committed for refusing to answer a question, the question must be inserted in the warrant.

Id., § 48. See § 876, post.

§ 858. To whom directed; how executed.

A warrant to apprehend or commit a person, issued as prescribed in this title, must be directed to the sheriff of the county where the person is, and must be executed by him, in the same manner, as a similar mandate issued, by a court of record, in an action.

Id. 402, § 49. See § 876, post.

§ 859. Qualification of preceding sections.

The foregoing sections of this title do not apply to a subpoena issued by a justice of the peace; or to a witness subpoenaed to attend a court held by a justice of the peace; or to a case where special provision is otherwise made by law, for compelling the attendance of a witness.

2 R. S. 402, § 50.

§ 860. [Repealed by L. 1909, ch. 14. See Consolidated Laws, tit. Civil Rights Law, § 25.]

§ 861. [Am'd, 1909.] When to be discharged from arrest.

The court, from which a subpoena, served in good faith, was issued, or by which an order was made, requiring a person to attend, for the purpose of being examined; or a judge thereof, upon proof, by affidavit, of the facts, must make an order, directing the discharge of a witness or other person, from an arrest made in violation of section twenty-six of the civil rights law.

Id., § 52, am'd. Am'd by L. 1909, ch. 65, § 3. See note 47 of notes of Board of Statutory Consolidation at end of code.

§ 862. [Am'd, 1895, 1909.] By whom witnesses may be discharged.

A justice of the supreme court, in any part of the State, or a county judge, has the like authority as a judge of the court, to make an order for a discharge, in a case specified in the last section. Upon satisfactory proof, by affidavit, of the facts, he must also make an order, directing the discharge of a person arrested, in violation of section twenty-six of the civil rights law, where a subpoena, served in good faith upon the person arrested, was issued as prescribed in section eight hundred and fifty-four of this act.

Am'd by L. 1895, ch. 946; L. 1909, ch. 65, § 3. See note 48 of notes of Board of Statutory Consolidation at end of code.

§§ 863-864. [Repealed by L. 1909, ch. 14. See Consolidated Laws, tit. Civil Rights Law, §§ 25-26.]

§ 865. Application of foregoing provisions to judgments.

The foregoing provisions of this title, relating to a person required, by an order of a court, to attend, apply, where such an attendance is required by the terms of a judgment.

§ 866. [Am'd, 1895, 1904.] Records not to be removed by virtue of subpoena.

The record of a conveyance of real property, or any other record or document, whereof a transcript duly certified may by law be read in evidence, shall not be removed, by virtue of a subpoena duces tecum, from the office in which it is kept, except temporarily, by the clerk having it in custody, to a term or sitting of the court of which he is clerk, or by the officer, having it in custody, to a term or sitting of a court, or a trial before a referee, held in the city or town where the office is situated; but the records kept by the register of the county of New York and the register of the county of Kings shall not be removed except by an order of court made as in this section provided. Where any such record is required at any other place, or any record kept by the register of the county of New York or the register of the county of Kings, is required at a term or sitting of a court or a trial before a referee, it may be removed, by order of the supreme court, or a county court, made in court, and entered in the minutes; specifying that the production of the original instead of the transcript, is necessary.

L. 1895, ch. 946; L. 1904, ch. 84. In effect March 18, 1904.

§ 867. [Am'd, 1879.] Production, etc., of book of account.

A person shall not be compelled to produce, upon a trial or hearing, a book of account, otherwise than by an order requiring him to produce it, or a subpoena duces tecum. Such a subpoena must be served at least five days before the day when he is required to attend. At any time after service of such a subpoena or order, the witness may obtain, upon such a notice as the judge, referee, or other officer prescribes, an order relieving him wholly or partly from the obligations imposed upon him by the subpoena or the order for production, upon such terms as justice requires touching the inspection of the book or any portion thereof, or taking a copy thereof or extracts therefrom, or otherwise. An order may be made, as prescribed in this section, by a judge of the court, or in a special proceeding pending out of court before an officer, by the officer, or, in either case, by a referee duly appointed in the cause, and authorized to hear testimony. A justice of the peace, or other judge of a court not of record, may make such an order in an action brought in his court, at any time after the commencement thereof.

§ 867a. [Added, 1915.] Subpoena duces tecum relating to hospital records.

Where a subpoena duces tecum shall be served upon a public hospital, or superintendent or officer thereof, requiring the production of any books of such hospital, showing certain entries or records therein, or any other record or data relating to the physical condition or treatment of a patient, a transcript of such entries or records or data duly certified by the superintendent of such hospital or his assistant and delivered to the court or tribunal requiring it shall be deemed sufficient compliance with such subpoena, unless otherwise ordered by the court, and any such transcript authenticated and produced as herein provided, shall be deemed evidence as if the original of such books, entries or records were produced.

Added by L. 1915, ch. 325, in effect Sept. 1, 1915.

§ 868. Books' etc., of corporation, how produced.

The production, upon a trial, of a book or paper, belonging to or under the control of a corporation, may be compelled, in like manner as if it was in the hands, or under the control, of a natural person. For that purpose, a subpoena duces tecum, or an order, made as prescribed in the last section, as the case requires, must be directed to the president, or other head of the corporation, or to the officer thereof, in whose custody the book or paper is.

§ 869. When personal attendance not required by subpoena duces tecum.

In a case specified in the last section, or where a subpoena duces tecum, or an order, made as prescribed in section 866 or section 867 of this act, requires a public officer to attend, and bring a book or paper under his control, the subpoena or order is deemed to be sufficiently obeyed, if the book or paper is produced by a subordinate officer or employee of the corporation, or in the public office, who possesses the requisite knowledge to identify it, and to testify respecting the purposes for which it is used. If the personal attendance of a particular officer of the corporation or public officer is required, a subpoena, without a duces tecum clause, must also be served upon him.

TITLE III.

Depositions.

- Article 1. Depositions, taken and to be used within the State.
 2. Depositions, taken without the State, for use within the State.
 3. Depositions, taken within the State, for use without the State.

ARTICLE FIRST.

Depositions, taken and to be used within the State.

- Sec. 870. Deposition of a party or person who expects to be a party.
 871. Deposition of a witness not a party.
 872. Application; contents of affidavit.
 873. Order for examination.
 874. Punishment for disobeying order.
 875. Service of order, etc.
 876. Examination of adverse party.
 877. Party confined in prison.
 878. [Repealed.]
 879. Deposition by consent.
 880. Rules for examination of party or expected party. Manner of taking and returning depositions. Refusal of persons examined to answer.
 881. When to be read in evidence.
 882. Proof of witness's inability to attend.
 883. Effect of deposition.
 884. Original affidavits, evidence.
 885. Deposition to be used on motion.
 886. Where witness may be compelled to attend.

§ 870. [Am'd, 1878, 1904, 1909.] Deposition of a party or person who expects to be a party.

The deposition of a party to an action pending in a court of record, or of a person who expects to be a party to an action about to be brought in such a court may be taken at his own instance or at the instance of an adverse party, or by a plaintiff or codefendant at any time before or during the trial as prescribed in this article.

See L. 1878, ch. 200; Co. Proc., part of §§ 300, 391, 392 and 397; L. 1904, ch. 696; L. 1909, ch. 65, § 3; see note 49 of notes of Board of Statutory Consolidation at end of code.

§ 871. [Am'd, 1877, 1909.] Deposition of a witness not a party.

The deposition of a person not a party, whose testimony is material and necessary to a party to an action, pending in a court of record, or to a person who expects to be a party to an action about to be brought in such a court, by a person other than the person to be examined, may also be taken, as prescribed in this article.

2 K. S. 391, portions of §§ 1, 2, 33 and 34 (2 Edm. 407, 414, 415). Am'd by L. 1909, ch. 65, § 3. See note 49 of notes of Board of Statutory Consolidation at end of code.

§ 872. [Am'd, 1877, 1879, 1880, 1893, 1895, 1911, 1913.] Application; contents of affidavit.

The person desiring to take a deposition as prescribed in this article, may present to a judge of the court in which the action is pending; or, if it is pending in the supreme court, to a county judge; or, if an action is not pending, but is expected to be brought, to a judge of the supreme court, or to a county judge; an affidavit, setting forth as follows:

1. The names and residences of all the parties to the action, and whether or not they have appeared, and if either of them has appeared by attorney, the name, and the residence or office address of the attorney; or, if no action is pending, the names and residences of the expected parties thereto.

2. If an action is pending, the nature of the action, and the substance of the judgment demanded, and if the application is made by the defendant before answer, or by either party after answer, the nature of the defense.

3. If no action is pending, the nature of the controversy which is expected to be the subject thereof.

4. The name and residence of the person to be examined, and that the testimony of such person is material and necessary for the party making such application, or the prosecution or defense of such action, and if the action is to recover damages for personal injuries, that the defendant is ignorant of the nature and extent of such personal injuries, and, at the option of the applicant the place where he is sojourning, or where he regularly transacts business.

See Rule 82.

5. If an action is pending, that the person to be examined is about to depart from the State; or that he is so sick or infirm, as to afford reasonable ground to believe that he will not be able to attend the trial; or that any other special circumstances exist, which render it proper that he should be examined as prescribed in this article. But this subdivision does not apply to a case, where the person to be examined is a party to the action.

See 101 App. Div. 466.

6. If no action is pending, that the person expected to be the adverse party is of full age, and a resident of the State, or sojourning within the State; or that he has an office within the State, where he regularly transacts business in person, specifying the place, and, if it is in a city, the street and street number, or other designation of the particular locality; or, if two or more persons are expected to be adverse parties, that each is of full age, and so resident or sojourning, or has an office; also the circumstances which render it necessary for the protection of the applicant's rights, that the witness's testimony should be perpetuated.

7. Any other fact necessary to show that the case comes within one of the two last sections. And if the party sought to be examined is a corporation, joint stock or other unincorporated association, the affidavit shall state the name of the officers, directors, or managing agents thereof, or any of them whose testimony is necessary and material, or the books and papers as to the contents of which an examination or inspection is desired, and the order to be made in respect thereto shall direct the examination of such persons and the production of such books and papers, and on such examination the books or papers, or any part or parts thereof, may be offered and received in evidence in addition to the use thereof by the witness to refresh his memory.

§ 873. [Am'd, 1877, 1879, 1884, 1893, 1894.] Order for examination.

The judge to whom such an affidavit is presented must grant an order for the examination, if an action is pending; if no action is pending he must grant it if there be reasonable ground to believe that an action will be brought, as stated in the affidavit, and that the application is made in good faith to preserve the expected testimony; otherwise he must dismiss the application. Where the person to be examined is a party to a pending action, or is expected to be a party to an action to be brought, the order may, in the discretion of the judge, designate and limit the particular matters as to which he shall be examined. In every action to recover damages for personal injuries, the court or judge, in granting an order for the examination of the plaintiff before trial may, if the defendant apply therefor, direct that the plaintiff submit to a physical examination by one or more physicians or surgeons, to be designated by the court or judge, and such examination shall be had and made under such restrictions and directions as to the court or judge shall seem proper. In any action brought to recover damages for personal injuries, where the defendant shall present to the court or judge satisfactory evidence that he is ignorant of the nature and extent of the injuries complained of, the court or judge shall order that such physical examination be made; and if the party to be examined shall be a female she shall be entitled to have such examination before physicians or surgeons of her own sex. The order must require the party or persons to be examined to appear before the judge, or before a referee named in the order, for the purpose of taking the examination, at a time and place therein specified. The order must also direct the time of service of a copy thereof; which must be made within the State, not more than twenty, nor less than five days, before the time fixed for the examination, unless special circumstances, making a different time of service necessary, are shown in the affidavit, and that fact is recited in the order.

§ 874. [Am'd, 1877 and 1882.] Punishment for disobeying order.

Witness fees, at the rate prescribed by law in an action in the supreme court, must be paid or tendered when the order is served upon the party or other person required to attend. If the party or person so served fails to obey the order, his attendance may be compelled, and he may be punished in like manner, and the proceedings thereon are the same, as if he failed to obey a subpoena, issued from the court, in which the action is pending; or, if no action is pending, from the court of which the judge is a member.

§ 875. [Am'd, 1879.] Service of order, etc.

A copy of the order, and of the affidavit upon which it was granted, must be served upon the attorney for each party to the action, in like manner as a paper in the action; or, if a party has not appeared in the action, they must be served upon him, as directed by the order. If no action is pending, they must be personally served upon each of the persons, named therein as expected adverse parties.

§ 876. [Am'd, 1879.] Examination of adverse party.

Upon proof, by affidavit, that service of a copy of the order and of the affidavit has been duly made, as directed in the order, the judge or the referee must proceed to take the deposition of the witness, at the time and place specified in the order. He may, from time to time, adjourn the examination to another day, and to another place, within the same county. Sections eight hundred and fifty-six, eight hundred and fifty-seven and eight hundred and fifty-eight of this act apply to the examination of a party or a person expected to be an adverse party, taken as prescribed in this article.

2 R. S. 392, § 5, and id. 399, § 36.

§ 877. [Repealed in 1877, re-enacted in 1882.] Party confined in prison.

Where the party or other person to be examined is confined in a prison or jail within the State, under a sentence for a felony, that fact must be stated in the affidavit, and his deposition may be taken as prescribed in the foregoing sections, as if he was not so confined, except that in such a case, the granting or refusing the order, and, if granted, the appointment of a referee to take the testimony, is always in the discretion of the judge. The order must require the production of the prisoner by the person in charge of the prison or jail at the prison or jail; but it may prescribe such regulations and restrictions with respect thereto as the judge deems proper.

§ 878. (Repealed, 1877.)

§ 879. [Am'd, 1882.] Deposition by consent.

The parties to an action may stipulate, in writing, that the deposition of a competent witness, to be used therein, may be taken before a judge or referee, at a time and place specified in the stipulation, either orally, or upon interrogatories, to be agreed upon in like manner. The witness may be subpoenaed to attend the examination, as upon a trial; and the judge or referee may take his deposition, as if an order had been made by the court, directing it to be so taken. But this section does not apply to a case specified in section eight hundred and seventy-seven of this act.

L. 1847, ch. 280, §§ 78 and 79, amended.

§ 880. [Am'd, 1879.] Rules for examination of party or expected party. Manner of taking and returning depositions. Refusal of persons examined to answer.

The examination of a party, or an expected party, is subject to the same rules as if he was examined upon the trial. The judge or referee, upon every other examination taken as prescribed in this article, must insert therein every answer or declaration of the person examined, which either party requires to be inserted. The deposition, when completed, must be carefully read to and subscribed by the person examined; must be certified by the judge or referee taking it; and, within ten days thereafter, must be filed in the office of the clerk; or, if no action is pending, in the office of the clerk of the county in which it was taken; together with the stipulation or order, under which it was taken; the affidavit upon which the order was granted; and proof of the service of a copy of the order and of the affidavit. If, upon an examination before a referee, the person examined refuses to answer any question, the referee must report the fact to the court or judge, who must determine whether the question is relevant, and whether the witness is bound to answer it.

2 R. S. 392, § 6, and part of § 5 (2 Edm. 408); and id. 399, § 37 (2 Edm. 415).

§ 881. [Am'd, 1911.] When to be read in evidence.

The deposition, or a certified copy thereof, may be read in evidence by either party, at the trial of, or upon the assessment of damages, by writ of inquiry, or upon a reference, or otherwise, in the action or in any special proceeding specified in the original affidavit or stipulation, or in any other action or special proceeding thereafter brought between the same parties, or between any parties claiming under them or either of them, or, if no action or special proceeding is then pending, in an action or special proceeding thereafter brought between the persons named in the original affidavit as expected parties, or between persons claiming under them or either of them, including the case where one of the parties is the executor of the will or administrator of the estate of the witness and is given a cause of action by reason of section nineteen hundred and two of this act. And except in the cases prescribed to the contrary in section eight hundred and eighty-two of this act, the said deposition, or a certified copy thereof, may be read in evidence by either party to the action or special proceeding in which it is taken, and as between the defendant in said action and the legal representatives and privies in interest and estate of the plaintiff, and as between the plaintiff and the legal representatives and privies in interest and estate of the defendant, and as between the legal representatives and privies in interest and estate of the defendant and the legal representatives and privies in interest and estate of the plaintiff.

2 R. S. 392, part of § 7, and id. 399, part of § 39; am'd by L. 1911, ch. 859, in effect Sept. 1, 1911.

§ 882. [Am'd, 1882.] Proof of witness's inability to attend.

But such a deposition, except that of a party, taken at the instance of an adverse party, or a deposition taken in pursuance of a stipulation, as prescribed in this article, shall not be so read in evidence until it has been satisfactorily proved that the witness is dead, or is unable personally to attend by reason of his insanity, sickness or other infirmity, or that he is confined in a prison or jail; or that he has been and is absent from the State, so that his attendance could not, with reasonable diligence, be compelled by subpoena.

2 R. S. 392, 399, remainder of §§ 7 and 39.

§ 883. Effect of deposition.

A deposition, so read in evidence has the same effect, and no other, as the oral testimony of the witness would have; and an objection to the competency or credibility of the witness, or to the relevancy or substantial competency of a question put to him, or of an answer given by him; may be made as if the witness was then personally examined and without being noted upon the deposition.

Id., §§ 9 and 40, am'd.

§ 884. Original affidavits, evidence.

The original affidavits, filed with such a deposition, or certified copies thereof, are presumptive evidence of the facts therein contained, to show a compliance with the provisions of this article.

Id., § 38.

§ 885. [Am'd, 1877, 1901, 1909.] Deposition to be used on motion.

Where a party intends to make or oppose a motion in a court of record and it is necessary for him to have the affidavit or deposition of a person not a party, to use upon the motion, the court or a judge authorized to make an order in the case may in its or his discretion make an order appointing a referee to take the deposition of that person. The order must be founded upon proof by affidavit that the applicant intends to make the motion, or that notice of a motion has been given which the applicant intends to oppose. The affidavit must specify the nature of the action and must show that the affidavit or deposition is necessary thereon and that such person has refused to make an affidavit of the facts which the applicant verily believes are within his knowledge. If the defendant has appeared in the action and the application is made on the part of the plaintiff at least one day's notice of such application must be given to the attorney of the defendant, and if the application is made on the part of the defendant similar notice must be given to the attorney of the plaintiff. The person to be examined may be subpoenaed and compelled to attend as upon the trial and may be cross examined by the party on whose attorney the notice has been served. The deposition must be taken by question and answer and be subscribed by the witness, and must be delivered to the attorney for the party who procured the order, unless such order provides for a different disposition thereof.

Substitute for Co. Proc., § 401, subd. 7; L. 1901, ch. 526; L. 1909, ch. 65, § 3. See note 49 of notes of Board of Statutory Consolidation at end of code.

§ 886. Where witness may be compelled to attend.

Where a person to be examined, as prescribed in this article, is a resident of the State, he shall not be required to attend in any county, other than that in which he resides, or where he has an office for the regular transaction of business, in person. Where he is not a resident, he shall not be required to attend in any other county, than that wherein he is served with a subpoena, unless, for special reasons, stated in the affidavit, the order otherwise directs.

Co. Proc., § 391, last clause, with amendments.

§ 887. [Am'd, 1879.] When commission to issue.

In a case specified in the next section, where it appears, by affidavit, on the application of either party, that the testimony of one or more witnesses, not within the State, is material to the applicant; a commission may be issued, to one or more competent persons, named therein; authorizing them, or any one of them, to examine the witness or witnesses named therein, under oath, upon the interrogatories annexed to the commission; to take and certify the deposition of each witness; and to return the same, and the commission, according to the directions given in or with the commission. The applicant, or any other party to the action, may be thus examined.

From L. 1862, ch. 375, § 1, am'd.

§ 888. [Am'd, 1895.] The same.

Such a commission may be issued, in either of the following cases:

1. Where a party to an action, brought in a court of record, is in default for want of an appearance or pleading, and the testimony is required upon the assessment of damages, by a writ of inquiry, or upon a reference; or otherwise, to enable the court to render the proper final judgment.

2. Where final judgment has been rendered against the adverse party in an action brought in a court of record; and the testimony is required in order to carry the judgment into effect.

3. Where an appeal from a final judgment, rendered in the supreme court, the city court of the city of New-York, or a county court, or a motion for a new trial in either of those courts, is pending, and the testimony will be material and necessary to the applicant, in the prosecution or defence of the action, if a new trial is granted.

* See L. 1862, ch. 410, § 1264; post, § 3171.

4. Where the application is made before the joinder of issue, in an action brought in either of the courts specified in the last subdivision; and there is reason to apprehend that before issue is joined, and an application for a commission can thereafter be made, the witness will die, or become unable to give his testimony, or remove, so that his testimony cannot be taken.

5. Where an issue of fact has been joined, in an action pending in a court of record, and the testimony is material to the applicant, in the prosecution or defence thereof.

6. In special proceedings.

L. 1895, ch. 946.

§ 889. How and upon what terms granted.

In a case specified in subdivision third of the last section, if the appeal has been taken to another court, the application must be made to the court in which the judgment was rendered; and an order, directing the commission to be issued, may be granted or refused, in the discretion of that court. In a case specified in either of the other subdivisions of that section, the application may be made to the court, or a judge thereof, or, in the supreme court, to the county judge of the county, where the action is triable; and it must be granted, upon satisfactory proof of the facts authorizing it, unless the court or judge has reason to believe, that the application is not made in good faith, or unless an order for an open commission, or for taking depositions, is made as prescribed in this article. Notice of the application must be given to the adverse party, unless he is in default for want of an appearance. Upon granting the order, the court or judge may, in any case, impose such terms as justice requires.

From L. 1862, ch. 375, § 1, and 2 R. S. 393, §§ 11 and 12, with amendments. See also L. 1847, ch. 470, § 15 (4 Edm. 583).

§ 890. Order made by judge.

Where the order is made by a judge, out of court, it must be entered in the office of the clerk. It shall be granted, only in a case, where the court would grant it, and upon the same terms; and it is subject to the control of the court.

§ 891. Interrogatories: how settled.

Unless the interrogatories, to be annexed to the commission, are settled by consent of the parties, they must be settled, upon notice, by a judge of the court, or, in the supreme court, by the county judge of the county, where the action is triable, as prescribed in the general rules of practice.

2 R. S. 393, § 14, as am'd by L. 1875, ch. 420.

§ 892. Id.; to be annexed; directions for return.

The interrogatories, when settled, must be annexed to the commission. Either party must be allowed to insert therein any question, pertinent to the issue, which he proposes. Unless the parties stipulate in writing, or the order granting the commission prescribes, how it shall be returned, the judge must indorse, upon the commission, the proper direction for that purpose. Unless the court or judge thinks proper to direct it to be returned by an agent, it must be returned through the post-office.

Id., § 15, with amendments.

§ 893. [Am'd, 1895.] Commission to examine wholly or partly upon oral questions.

Where an issue of fact, joined in an action, is pending in the supreme court, the city court of the city of New-York, or a county court, the parties may stipulate, in writing, or the court to which, or the judge to whom an application for a commission is made, may in its or his discretion, direct, in the order, that a commission issue without written interrogatories, and that the depositions be taken upon oral questions; or that a commission issue, to take the deposition of one or more witnesses, designated in the order, partly upon oral questions and partly upon written interrogatories, or to take the deposition of one or more witnesses, designated in the order, upon oral questions, and one or more witnesses, designated in the order, upon written interrogatories.

L. 1895, ch. 946.

§ 894. When open commission may issue, or depositions may be taken.

Where an issue of fact, joined in an action, is pending in either of the courts specified in the last section, the parties may stipulate, in writing, or the court, or a judge thereof, or, in the supreme court, the county judge of the county where the action is triable, may, in its or his discretion, upon the application of either party, and upon satisfactory proof, by affidavit, that one or more witnesses, not within the State, are material and necessary in the prosecution or defence of the action, make an order, upon such terms as it or he deems proper, directing that an open commission issue, or that depositions be taken, as prescribed in the following sections of this article.

§ 895. [Am'd, 1879, 1897.] Depositions where adverse party is an infant or committee.

The last two sections are not applicable, where the adverse party is an infant, or the committee of a person judicially declared to be incapable of managing his affairs, by reason of lunacy, idiocy or habitual drunkenness. Nor can the applicant be examined in his own behalf, as prescribed in those sections, except by consent of the parties.

L. 1897, ch. 606. In effect May 19, 1897.

§ 896. Notice of examination upon oral questions.

Where a commission is issued, to take testimony without written interrogatories, as prescribed in section 893 or section 894 of this act, notice of the time and place of the examination of a witness, by virtue thereof, naming the witness, must be served as prescribed in section 899 of this act.

See § 899, post.

§ 897. Open commission.

An open commission must be directed to one or more persons, named therein, and must authorize them, or any one of them, to examine any witness who may be produced by either party, on or before a day specified therein, upon oral questions to be put to the witness, when he is produced; to take and certify the deposition of each witness so examined; and to return the same, and the commission, immediately after the expiration of the time limited for the production of witnesses, according to the directions, given in or with the commission.

§ 898. Order directing depositions to be taken.

An order, directing that depositions be taken, must specify the time within which they must be taken, and the manner in which they must be returned. It may also contain such additional directions, not inconsistent with the next section, with respect to the time and manner of giving notice, as the court or judge deems proper. The order must be entered in the clerk's office; and a certified copy thereof must be annexed to each deposition, or set of depositions, returned as prescribed in the following sections of this article.

From L. 1853, ch. 387, § 4, am'd.

§ 899. Before whom depositions may be taken; notice of taking.

A deposition may be taken, pursuant to such an order, before a person mutually agreed upon by the parties, or a chancellor, or a judge of a court of record, or the mayor or other chief magistrate of a city, or a justice of the peace of the state or territory, where the witness is; who is not counsel or attorney for either party, and would not be disqualified, by reason of affinity or consanguinity to a party, or interest in the event, from serving as a juror upon the trial of the action, within the State. Written notice of the time and place of taking a deposition, specifying the name of the witness, and the person before whom it will be taken, must be served by the party, at whose instance it is taken, upon the attorney for the adverse party. The time for serving such a notice must be, at least, five judicial days before the deposition is taken; and one judicial day, in addition, for each fifty miles, by the usual route of travel, between the residence of the attorney for the adverse party, and the place where the deposition is to be taken.

L. 1853, ch. 387, part of § 4, and § 5, am'd.

§ 900. How depositions taken.

Upon the examination of a witness, without written interrogatories, by virtue of a commission, or of an order to take depositions, the commissioner, or the person before whom the deposition is taken, must take down, or cause to be taken down, as prescribed in the next section, the substance of the witness's testimony; unless he is directed, in the commission or the order, or required by the person appearing for either party, to insert in the deposition any or all of the questions or answers, word for word. Unless the commission or order otherwise directs, the person, appearing for either party, may ask any question, which he deems proper, and the witness's answer must be taken accordingly, the objections thereto being reserved, without being specified at the time of examination. A copy of this section must be annexed to each commission to take testimony without written interrogatories, and to each certified copy of an order to take a deposition.

§ 901. Commission or order to take depositions; how executed and returned.

The person, to whom a commission is directed, or before whom a deposition is taken, unless otherwise expressly directed in the commission, or in the order for taking the depositions, must execute the commission, or the order, as follows:

1. He must publicly administer, to each witness examined, an oath or affirmation to testify the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth, as to the matters respecting which the witness is to be examined.

2. He must reduce the examination of each witness to writing, or cause it to be reduced to writing, by a disinterested person. After it has been carefully read, to or by the witness, it must be subscribed by the witness.

3. If an exhibit is produced and proved, the exhibit, or, if the witness, or other person having it in his custody, does not surrender it, a copy thereof, must be annexed to the deposition to which it relates, subscribed by the witness proving it, and numbered or otherwise identified, in writing thereupon, by the commissioner, or person taking the deposition, who must subscribe his name thereto.

4. The commissioner, or person taking the deposition, must subscribe his name to each half sheet of the deposition; he must annex all the depositions and exhibits to the commission, or to a certified copy of the order for taking the deposition, with the certificate specified in the next section; and he must close them up under his seal, and address the packet to the clerk of the court, at his official residence.

5. If there is a direction, on the commission, or in the order, to return the same through the post-office, he must immediately deposit the packet, so addressed, in the post-office, and pay the postage thereon.

6. If there is a direction on the commission, or in the order, to return the same by an agent of the party, at whose instance it was issued or granted, the packet so addressed must be delivered to the agent.

7. Where a commission is directed to two or more persons, one or more of them may execute it, as prescribed in this and the next section.

A copy of this and of the next section must be annexed to each commission, or order to take depositions, authorized by this article.

2 R. S. 394, § 16, and L. 1853, ch. 387, §§ 6, 7 and 8.

§ 902. Certificate of execution.

The commissioner or other person, before whom one or more depositions are taken, must subscribe, and annex to each deposition, a certificate, substantially in the following form, the blanks being properly filled up:

"State" (or "territory") "of" " " } ss.:
 "County" (or "parish") "of" " " }
 "I, , do certify that , the witness, personally appeared before me on the day of , at o'clock in the noon, at the , in the state" (or "territory") "of
 , and after being sworn" (or "affirmed," as the case may be).
 "to testify the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth, did depose to the matters contained in the foregoing deposition, and did, in my presence, subscribe the same, and indorse the exhibits annexed thereto. And I further certify that I have subscribed my name to each half-sheet thereof, and to each exhibit.
 And I further certify that appeared in behalf of the , and that appeared in behalf of the ."

From L. 1853, ch. 387, § 7.

§ 903. Certificate, a sufficient return.

The certificate, specified in the last section, is a sufficient return to a commission.

§ 904. Return by agent.

If the packet, specified in section 901 of this act, is delivered to an agent, he must deliver it to the clerk, to whom it is addressed, or to a judge of the court, either of whom must receive and open it, upon the agent making affidavit, that he received it from the hands of the commissioner, or the person who took the deposition, and that it has not been opened or altered, since he so received it.

2 R. S. 394, § 17.

§ 905. If agent is sick or dead.

If the agent is dead, or, from sickness or other casualty, is unable to deliver the packet personally, as prescribed in the last section, it must be received, by the clerk or judge, from the hands of any other person, upon the latter making an affidavit, that he received it from the agent; that the agent is dead, or otherwise unable to deliver it; that it has not been opened or altered since he received it; and that he believes that it has not been opened or altered, since it came from the hands of the commissioner, or the person who took the deposition.

Id., § 18.

§ 906. Filing deposition, etc., so returned.

The clerk or judge, who receives and opens the packet, as prescribed in the last two sections, must indorse thereupon, and sign, a note of the time of the receipt and opening thereof, and immediately file it in the office of the clerk; together with the affidavit of the person, who delivered it to him.

Id., § 19, am'd.

§ 907. The same.

If the packet is transmitted through the post-office, the clerk, to whom it is addressed, must receive it from the post-office, open it, indorse thereupon, and sign, a like note of the time of the receipt and opening thereof, and immediately file it in his office.

Id., § 20.

§ 908. Commission, etc., by consent.

A commission may issue, or an order to take depositions may be made, by consent, in a case where either may be directed by the court or a judge, as prescribed in this article. On filing a stipulation to that effect, signed by the attorneys for the parties, the clerk must enter an order accordingly; and thereupon the attorney for the party, procuring the order, may insert in the commission, or indorse upon or annex to it, or the order, the necessary directions for the execution and return thereof, according to the stipulation.

Id., § 21, remodelled.

§ 909. Where return to be kept; parties may inspect it, etc.

A commission, or copy of an order to take depositions, with the certificates, returns, depositions, and exhibits thereto annexed, must remain on file in the office of the clerk, unless otherwise provided by the stipulation of the parties, or unless the court, by a special order, directs them to be filed in the office of another clerk. They are always open to the inspection of the parties either of whom is entitled to a copy of them, or of any part thereof, on payment of the fees allowed by law.

2 R. S. 394, § 22.

§ 910. When deposition may be suppressed.

Where it appears, by affidavit, that a deposition has been improperly or irregularly taken or returned; or that the personal attendance of the witness, upon the trial, could have been procured, with due diligence, by a subpoena; or that the attorney for either party has practiced any fraud, or unfair or overreaching conduct, to the prejudice of the adverse party, in the course of the proceedings; an order, for the suppression of the deposition, may be made by the court, upon the application of the party aggrieved, upon notice to the adverse party.

L. 1853, ch. 387, § 14, am'd.

§ 911. Deposition, etc., evidence.

A deposition, taken and returned as prescribed in this article, or an exemplified copy thereof, if the original is filed in another county, may, unless it is suppressed as prescribed in the last section, be read in evidence by either party. It has the same effect, and no other, as the oral testimony of the witness would have; and an objection to the competency or credibility of the witness, or to the relevancy, or substantial competency, of a question put to him, or of an answer given by him, may be made, as if the witness was then personally examined, and without being noted upon the deposition.

Id., § 18, and 2 R. S. 396, § 23, with amendments. See 4 T. & C. 668.

§ 912. [Am'd, 1895.] When interrogatories and deposition may be in a foreign language.

Upon an application, made in the supreme court, the city court of the city of New-York, or a county court, for a commission to be issued to a foreign country, if it satisfactorily appears, by affidavit, that the witness does not understand the English language, the order for the commission may, in the discretion of the court or judge, direct that written interrogatories annexed thereto, by way of direct or cross-examination be framed in the English language, and also in a foreign language; that only the interrogatories framed in the foreign language be put to the witness; and that his answers be taken, and the certificates be made out, in the same language. Where such an order is made, it must provide for the payment, by the applicant, to the adverse party, of a reasonable sum, fixed therein, for the expense of procuring the interrogatories, in his behalf, to be translated. The judge, who settles the interrogatories, must settle them in the foreign language, and in the English language; and, for that purpose, he may call in the assistance of one or more experts, whose compensation must be fixed by the judge, and paid by the applicant. When the deposition is read in evidence, it, and the interrogatories, must be interpreted into the English language, as if the witness, being unable to speak the English language, was personally present and testifying.

L. 1895, ch. 946.

§ 913. Letters rogatory.

Letters rogatory may be issued from either of the courts specified in the last section, in its discretion, in a case where a commission may be issued, as prescribed in this article, upon satisfactory proof, by affidavit, that there is good reason to believe, that the ends of justice will be better promoted thereby, than by the issuing of a commission, notwithstanding that a commission can be executed, in the country to which they are sent. Letters rogatory can be issued only to examine one or more witnesses, upon written interrogatories, annexed thereto; which must be framed and settled, and the depositions must be returned, as prescribed in this article, with respect to the interrogatories annexed to a commission, and the depositions taken thereunder.

§ 914. [Am'd, 1899.] In what cases deposition may be taken.

A party to an action, suit, or special proceeding, civil or criminal, pending in a court without the state, either in the United States, or in a foreign country, may obtain, by the special proceeding prescribed in this article, the testimony of a witness, and, in connection therewith, the production of books and papers, within the state, to be used in the action, suit or special proceeding.

2 R. S. 297, § 29 (2 Edm. 414), as am'd by L. 1897, ch. 68, § 1 (7 Edm. 52); L. 1899, ch. 502. In effect Sept. 1, 1899.

§ 915. [Am'd, 1899.] Subpoena to witness.

Where a commission to take testimony, within the state, has been issued from the court in which the action, suit, or special proceeding is pending; or where a notice has been given, or any other proceeding has been taken, for the purpose of taking the testimony, within the state, pursuant to the laws of the state or country, wherein the court is located, or pursuant to the laws of the United States, if it is a court of the United States, the supreme court, or the county court, or a judge of either court, shall, in a proper case, on the presentation of a verified petition issue a subpoena to the witness, commanding him to appear before the commissioner, named in the commission; or before a commissioner, within the state, for the state, territory, or foreign country, in which the notice was given, or the proceeding taken; or before the officer designated in the commission, notice, or other paper, by his title of office; at a time and place specified in the subpoena, to testify, in the action, suit, or special proceeding. If the witness shall fail to obey the subpoena, or refuse to have an oath administered, or to testify, or to produce a book or paper pursuant to a subpoena, or to subscribe his deposition, the court or judge issuing the subpoena shall, if it is determined that a contempt has been committed, prescribe the punishment as in the case of a recalcitrant witness in the supreme court. The general rules of practice must prescribe rules for such proceedings.

Id., 298, § 30, and part of § 31, as am'd by L. 1897, ch. 68, § 1 (7 Edm. 52), am'd; L. 1899, ch. 502. In effect Sept. 1, 1899.

§ 919. [Am'd, 1899.] Taking and return of deposition.

The officer, or commissioner, before whom a witness appears, in a case specified in this article, must take down his testimony, in writing, and must annex thereto copies of all books and papers produced or such parts thereof as shall be required; and must certify and transmit it to the court in which the action, suit, or special proceeding is pending, as the practice of that court requires.

L. 1899, ch. 502. In effect Sept. 1, 1899.

§ 920. [Repealed May 3, 1899; L. 1899, ch. 502. In effect Sept. 1, 1899.]

TITLE IV.

Documentary evidence.

- Article 1. Documentary evidence, as a substitute for oral testimony.
 2. Proof of a document, executed or remaining within the State.
 3. Proof of a document, remaining in a court or public office of the United States, or executed or remaining without the State.

ARTICLE FIRST.

Documentary evidence, as a substitute for oral testimony.

- Sec. 921. Certain official certificates, evidence.
 922. Certificate, etc., on file, evidence.
 923. Notary's certificate, evidence.
 924. Notary's protest and memorandum; when evidence.
 925. Proof of presentment, etc., of foreign bills.
 926. Affidavit of printer, etc., evidence.
 927. Id.: of service of notice.
 928. Marriage certificate, evidence.
 929. Book of foreign corporation; when evidence.
 930. When a copy thereof is evidence.
 931. How copy to be verified.
 931a. Copy of designation of person upon whom to make service, as evidence.
 931b. Recital in order, resolution or record of public officers, board or body presumptive evidence of certain facts.
 931c. Extracts from books and records of comptroller's office as evidence.

§ 921. Certain official certificates, evidence.

Where the officer, to whom the legal custody of a paper belongs, certifies, under his hand and official seal, that he has made diligent examination, in his office, for the paper, and that it cannot be found, the certificate is presumptive evidence of the facts so certified, as if the officer personally testified to the same.

2 R. S. 552, § 12 (2 Edm. 573). See post, § 961.

§ 922. Certificate, etc., on file, evidence.

Where a public officer is required or authorized, by special provision of law, to make a certificate or an affidavit, touching an act performed by him, or to a fact ascertained by him, in the course of his official duty; and to file or deposit it in a public office of the State; the certificate or affidavit, so filed or deposited, or an exemplified copy thereof, is presumptive evidence of the facts therein alleged, except where the effect thereof is declared or regulated, by special provision of law.

§ 923. [Am'd, 1877.] Notary's certificate, evidence.

The certificate of a notary public of the State, under his hand and seal of office, of the presentment by him for acceptance or payment, or of the protest, for non-acceptance or non-payment, of a promissory note or bill of exchange, or of the service of notice thereof on a party to the note or bill; specifying the mode of giving the notice, the reputed place of residence of the party to whom it was given, and the post-office nearest thereto: is presumptive evidence of the facts certified, unless the party against whom it is offered, has served upon the adverse party, with his pleading, or within ten days after joinder of an issue of fact, an original affidavit, to the effect, that he has not received notice of non-acceptance, or of non-payment of the note or bill. A verified answer is not sufficient as an affidavit, within the meaning of this section.

L. 1823. ch. 271, § 8 (4 Edm. 619).

§ 924. Notary's protest and memorandum; when evidence.

In case of the death or insanity of a notary public of the State, or of his absence or removal, so that his personal attendance, or his testimony, cannot be procured, in any mode prescribed by law, his original protest, under his hand and official seal, the genuineness thereof being first duly proved, is presumptive evidence of a demand of acceptance, or of payment, therein stated; and a note or memorandum, personally made or signed by him, at the foot of a protest, or in a regular register of official acts, kept by him, is presumptive evidence that a notice of non-acceptance or non-payment was sent or delivered, at the time, and in the manner, stated in the note or memorandum.

2 R. S. 283-284, §§ 46 and 47 (2 Edm. 294), consolidated.

§ 925. Proof of presentment, etc., of foreign bills.

Proof of the presentment, for acceptance or payment, of a promissory note or bill of exchange, payable in another state, or in a territory, or foreign country, or of a protest of the note or bill, for non-acceptance or non-payment, or of the service of notice thereof, on a party to the note or bill, may be made, in any manner authorized by the laws of the state, territory, or country where it was payable.

L. 1865, ch. 309, second and third sentences of § 1 (6 Edm. 467), am'd.

§ 926. [Am'd, 1877.] Affidavit of printer, etc., evidence.

The affidavit of the printer or publisher of a newspaper, published within the State, or of his foreman or principal clerk, showing the publication of a notice or other advertisement, authorized or required, by a law of the State, to be published in that newspaper, annexed to a printed copy of the notice or other advertisement, may be read in evidence; and is presumptive evidence of the publication, and, also, of the matters stated therein, showing that the deponent is authorized to make the affidavit. But this section does not apply to a case, where the affidavit is required by law to be filed, unless it has been duly filed; or to a case, where the mode of proving a publication is otherwise specially prescribed by law.

L. 1835, ch. 159, § 1 (4 Edm. 638), am'd.

§ 927. [Am'd, 1902.] Affidavit of service of notice.

Where it is necessary, upon the trial of an action, to prove the service, posting or affixing, of a notice, an affidavit, showing the service, posting or affixing, to have been made by the person making the affidavit, is presumptive evidence of the service, posting or affixing, upon first proving that he is dead or insane, or that his personal attendance cannot be compelled, with due diligence.

L. 1858, ch. 244, § 1 (4 Edm. 645), am'd by adding the last clause; L. 1902, ch. 98. In effect Sept. 1, 1902.

§ 928. [Am'd, 1879.] Marriage certificate, evidence.

An original certificate of a marriage, within the State, made by the minister or magistrate by whom it was solemnized; the original entry thereof made, pursuant to law, in the office of the clerk of a city or a town, within the State; or a copy of the certificate, or of the entry, duly certified, is presumptive evidence of the marriage.

R. S. 141, § 17 (2 Edm. 146).

§ 929. Book of foreign corporation; when evidence.

Where a party wishes to prove an act or transaction of a foreign corporation, the book or books of the corporation may be used for that purpose, as presumptive evidence, whether any or all of the parties are or are not members of the corporation.

Substitute for L. 1863, ch. 206, part of § 1, as am'd by L. 1869, ch. 589.

§ 930. When a copy thereof is evidence.

If an original book is not produced at the trial, as prescribed in the last section, a copy thereof, or of an entry therein, verified as prescribed in the next section, may be used, with like effect as the original book; provided that the party, intending to use the copy, gives the adverse party at least ten days' notice of his intention, specifying briefly the nature of the evidence proposed to be given. But this and the next section do not apply, where the foreign corporation is a party to the action, and seeks to prove its own act or transaction, in its own behalf.

L. 1863, ch. 206, parts of §§ 1 and 2, am'd.

§ 931. How copy to be verified.

The copy must be verified by the deposition, taken as prescribed by law, or the oral testimony, taken at the trial, of the person who made it, or of a person who has examined and compared it with the original book, or the entry therein. The witness must testify that the copy produced is correct; that he made it, or compared it with the original; and that he then knew that the original book so copied, or containing the entry, was the book of the corporation; or that it was then acknowledged to him to be such, by an officer or receiver of the corporation, or a person having the custody thereof, naming the person who made the acknowledgment; and he must specify where, and in whose custody, the original was then kept.

Id., part of § 1.

§ 931a. [Added, 1909.] 'Copy of designation of person upon whom to make service, as evidence.

An exemplified copy of a designation of a person upon whom to make service filed by a foreign corporation as provided in section sixteen of the general corporation law accompanied with a certificate that it has not been revoked, is presumptive evidence of the execution thereof, and conclusive evidence of the authority of the officer executing it.

Added by L. 1909, ch. 65. Derivation — Code Civil Procedure, § 432, subd. 2, pt. For remainder of section see Code of Civil Procedure, § 432, and General Corporation Law, § 16. See note 5 of notes of Board of Statutory Consolidation at end of code.

§ 931b. [Added, 1909.] Recital in order, resolution or record of public officers, board or body presumptive evidence of certain facts.

A recital in any order, resolution or other record of any proceeding of a meeting referred to in section forty-one of the general construction law that such meeting had been held or adjourned as provided in said section or that it had been held upon notice to the members, as therein provided, shall be presumptive evidence thereof.

Added by L. 1909, ch. 65. Derivation — Statutory Construction Law, § 19, pt. For remainder of section see General Construction Law, § 41. See note 6 of notes of Board of Statutory Consolidation at end of code.

§ 931c. [Added, 1909.] Extracts from books and records of comptroller's office as evidence.

The state comptroller is hereby authorized to furnish extracts from the books and records of his office in reference to any lot, piece or parcel of land, certifying that such extract contains all that is stated in such book or record relating to such lot, piece or parcel of land, and such certified extract may be read in evidence in all courts and proceedings with the same effect as the original book or record.

Added by L. 1909, ch. 425. In effect May 21, 1909.

ARTICLE SECOND.

Proof of a document, executed or remaining within the state.

Sec. 932. Statutes, etc.; how proved.

933. Copies of records and papers in certain offices, presumptive evidence.

934. Id.; of papers filed with town clerk.

935. Conveyance, when acknowledged, or record, or transcript of record, evidence.

936. Such evidence may be rebutted.

937. What instruments may be acknowledged.

938. Justice's docket and transcript evidence before him.

939. Transcript from justice's docket, evidence generally.

940. Other proof of proceedings before justice.

941. Ordinances, etc., of cities, villages, etc.

941a. Proof of colonial statutes.

§ 932. [Am'd, 1895.] Statutes, etc., how proved.

A statute or joint resolution, passed by the legislature of the State, may be read in evidence from a newspaper, designated as prescribed by law, to publish the same, until six months after the close of the session at which it was passed; and, at any time, from a volume printed under the direction of the secretary of State. To entitle any copy of a law published, other than those published under the direction of the secretary of State, to be read in evidence, there shall be contained in the same book or pamphlet, a printed certificate of the secretary of State, that such copy is a correct transcript of the text of the original laws. For such certificate the secretary of State shall collect such a fee as he shall deem just and reasonable.

L. 1895, ch. 594; 1 R. S. 184, §§ 8 and 12 (1 Edm. 184), consolidated and am'd.

§ 933. [Am'd, 1879.] Copies of records and papers in certain offices, presumptive evidence.

A copy of a paper filed, kept, entered, or recorded, pursuant to law, in a public office of the State, the officer having charge of which has, pursuant to law, an official seal; or with the clerk of a court of the State; or with the clerk or secretary of either house of the legislature, or of any other public body or public board created by authority of a law of the State, and having, pursuant to law, a seal; or a transcript from a record, kept, pursuant to law, in such a public office, or by such a clerk or secretary, is evidence, as if the original was produced. But, to entitle it to be used in evidence, it must be certified by the clerk of the court, under his hand and the seal of the court; or by the officer having the custody of the original, or his deputy, or clerk, appointed pursuant to law, under his official seal, and the hand of the person certifying; or by the presiding officer, secretary, or clerk of the public body or board, appointed pursuant to law, under his hand, and, except where it is certified by the clerk or secretary of either house of the legislature, under the official seal of the body or board.

§ 934. Id.; of papers filed with town clerk.

A copy of a paper filed, pursuant to law, in the office of a town clerk, or a transcript from a record kept therein, pursuant to law, certified by the town clerk, is evidence, with like effect as the original.

R. S. 350, § 16 (1 Edm. 323).

§ 935. Conveyance, when acknowledged, or record, or transcript of record, evidence.

A conveyance, acknowledged or proved, and certified, in the manner prescribed by law, to entitle it to be recorded in the county where it is offered, is evidence, without further proof thereof. Except as otherwise specially prescribed by law, the record of a conveyance, duly recorded, within the State, or a transcript thereof, duly certified, is evidence, with like effect as the original conveyance.

1 R. S. 759, ch. 8, § 16, and first sentence of § 17 (1 Edm. 710). am'd.

§ 936. Such evidence may be rebutted.

The certificate of the acknowledgment, or of the proof of a conveyance, or the record, or the transcript of the record, of such a conveyance, is not conclusive; and it may be rebutted, and the effect thereof may be contested, by a party affected thereby. If it appears that the proof was taken upon the oath of an interested or incompetent witness, the conveyance, or the record or transcript thereof, shall not be received in evidence, until its execution is established by other competent proof.

Id., remainder of § 17.

§ 937. What instruments may be acknowledged.

Any instrument, except a promissory note, a bill of exchange, or a last will, may be acknowledged, or proved, and certified, in the manner prescribed by law for taking and certifying the acknowledgment or proof of a conveyance of real property; and thereupon it is evidence, as if it was a conveyance of real property.

L. 1838, ch. 271, § 9 (4 Edm. 620).

§ 938. Justice's docket and transcript evidence before him.

The docket-book of a justice of the peace, within the State, or a transcript thereof, certified by him, is evidence before him, of any matter required by law to be entered by him therein.

2 R. S. 269, § 245 (2 Edm. 278).

§ 939. Transcript from justice's docket, evidence generally.

A transcript from the docket-book of a justice of the peace, within the State, subscribed by him, and authenticated, by a certificate of the clerk of the county in which the justice resides, under his hand and official seal, to the effect, that the person, subscribing the transcript, was, at the date of the judgment therein mentioned, a justice of the peace of that county; and that the clerk is acquainted with his handwriting, and verily believes that the signature to the transcript is genuine; is evidence of any matter stated in the transcript, which is required by law to be entered by the justice in his docket-book.

Id., §§ 246 and 247, consolidated.

§ 940. [Am'd, 1877.] Other proof of proceedings before justice.

The proceedings in an action brought, or a special proceeding instituted, before a justice of the peace, within the State, may also be proved by the oath of the justice. In case of his death or absence, they may be proved by the original minutes of the proceedings, kept by him, pursuant to law, accompanied with proof of his handwriting; or by a copy of the minutes, sworn to, by a competent witness, as having been compared with the original entries, with proof that those entries were in the handwriting of the justice.

2 R. S. 269, § 248.

§ 941. [Am'd, 1844.] Ordinances, etc., of cities, villages, etc.

An act, ordinance, resolution, by-law, rule or proceeding of the common council of a city, or of the board of trustees of an incorporated village, or of a local board of health of a city, town or incorporated village or of a board of supervisors, within the state, may be read in evidence, either from a copy thereof, certified by the city clerk, village clerk, clerk of the common council, clerk or secretary of the local board of health, or clerk of the board of supervisors; or from a volume printed by authority of the common council of the city, or the board of trustees of the village or the local board of health of the city, town or village, or the board of supervisors.

L. 1894, ch. 208.

§ 941a. [Added, 1909.] Proof of colonial statutes.

A statute contained in the compilation of the colonial statutes transmitted to the legislature by the commissioners of statutory revision, pursuant to chapter one hundred and twenty-five of the laws of eighteen hundred and ninety-one, shall be evidence in any action or proceeding, and of the same force and effect as though the original was produced, if it appears from such publication that such statute was copied from the original.

Added by L. 1909, ch. 65. Derivation — L. 1891, ch. 125, § 5, pt., as am'd by L. 1897, ch. 403, § 1. See note 7 of notes of Board of Statutory Consolidation at end of code.

ARTICLE THIRD.

Proof of a document, remaining in a court or public office of the United States, or executed or remaining without the state.

Sec. 942. Printed copies of laws of another State, etc.

943. Copies of records of United States courts.

944. Copies of documents on file in departments of United States presumptive evidence.

945. Record of bill of sale, etc., of vessels.

946. Conveyance of land without the State.

947. Exemplification of record of conveyance of land without the State.

948. Transcript of docket, etc., of justice of adjoining State.

949. Id.; how authenticated.

950. Other proof.

951. Proof may be rebutted.

952. Copies of records of courts of foreign countries; how authenticated.

953. Other proof.

954. This article does not declare effect of record, etc.

955. Public records in New York county.

956. Documents from foreign countries; how authenticated.

§ 942. Printed copies of laws of another State, etc.

A printed copy of a statute, or other written law, of another state, or of a territory, or of a foreign country, or a printed copy of a proclamation, edict, decree, or ordinance, by the executive power thereof, contained in a book or publication, purporting or proved to have been published by the authority thereof, or proved to be commonly admitted, as evidence of the existing law, in the judicial tribunals thereof, is presumptive evidence of the statute. law, proclamation, edict, decree, or ordinance. The unwritten or common law of another State, or of a territory, or of a foreign country, may be proved, as a fact, by oral evidence. The books of reports of cases, adjudged in the courts thereof, must also be admitted, as presumptive evidence of the unwritten or common law thereof.

Co. Proc., § 426, as am'd in 1869. See, also, L. 1848, ch. 312 (4 Edm. 643).

§ 943. Copies of records of United States courts.

A copy of the record, or any other proceeding, of a court of the United States, is evidence, when certified by the clerk or officer, in whose custody it is required by law to be.

L. 1845, ch. 303, § 1 (4 Edm. 641), am'd.

§ 944. [Am'd, 1879, 1890, 1907.] Copies of documents on file in departments of U. S. presumptive evidence.

A copy of a record or other paper, remaining in a department of the government of the United States, is evidence, when certified by the head, or acting chief officer, for the time being, of that department; or when certified by the officer in whose charge it is, pursuant to a statute of the United States, or otherwise in accordance with a statute of the United States, relating to certifying the same. A certificate of the director or other officer in charge of the census of the United States, attested by the secretary of the interior, stating the population of any part of the United States, or giving the result of said census otherwise shall be received as prima facie evidence of such facts. The record of the observations of the weather, taken under the direction of the signal service of the United States, when certified by the officer in charge thereof, at the place where they were taken and are kept, is prima facie evidence of the matters of fact stated therein. The records of the observation of the weather taken at the arsenal in Central park under the direction of the meteorological and astronomical observatory of the city of New York, when duly certified by the official in charge thereof, or his deputy, shall be presumptive evidence of the facts set forth therein, and shall be received in evidence on the trial of any action in all the courts of this state.

L. 1846, ch. 240, § 1 (4 Edm. 641), am'd and L. 1879, ch. 299; L. 1899, ch. 99; L. 1907, ch. 252. In effect May 20, 1907.

§ 945. Record of bill of sale, etc., of vessels.

The record of a bill of sale, mortgage, hypothecation, or conveyance of a vessel, belonging to a port or place, within the United States, recorded in the office of the collector of customs, where the vessel is registered or enrolled, which was acknowledged or proved, before it was recorded, in like manner as a deed to be recorded within the State; or a transcript of such a record, duly certified by the collector; is evidence, with the like effect as the original.

L. 1862, ch. 251 (4 Edm. 646), as am'd by L. 1865, ch. 512.

§ 946. Conveyance of land without the State.

A conveyance of real property, situated without the State, acknowledged or proved, and certified, in like manner as a deed to be recorded within the county wherein it is offered in evidence, is evidence, without further proof thereof, as if it related to real property situated within the State. A conveyance of real property, situated within another state, or a territory of the United States, which has been duly authenticated, according to the laws of that state or territory, so as to be read in evidence in the courts thereof, is evidence in like manner.

1 R. S. 761, § 27 (1 Edm. 712), am'd.

§ 947. Exemplification of record of conveyance of land without the State.

An exemplification of the record of a conveyance of real property situated without the State, and within the United States, which has been recorded in the state or territory, where the real property is situated, pursuant to the laws thereof, when certified under the hand and seal of the officer, having the custody of the record, is, if the original cannot be produced, presumptive evidence of the conveyance, and of the due execution thereof.

Analogous to L. 1864, ch. 311 (6 Edm. 254).

§ 948. Transcript of docket, etc., of justice of adjoining state.

A transcript from the docket-book of a justice of the peace, within an adjoining state, of a judgment rendered by him; a transcript of his minutes of the proceedings in the cause, previous to the judgment; or of an execution issued thereon; or of the return of an execution; when subscribed by the justice, and authenticated as prescribed in the next section, is presumptive evidence of his jurisdiction in the cause, and of the matters shown by the transcript.

From L. 1836, ch. 439, § 1 (4 Edm. 639).

§ 949. Id.; how authenticated.

Such a transcript must be authenticated by a certificate of the justice, annexed thereto, to the effect, that it is in all respects correct, and that he had jurisdiction of the cause; and also by a certificate of the clerk or prothonotary of the county, in which the justice resided at the time of rendering the judgment, under his hand and seal of the court of common pleas, or other county court of the county, to the effect that the person, subscribing the certificate attached to the transcript, was, at the date of the judgment, a justice of the peace of that county; and that the signature thereto is in his own handwriting.

Id., § 2.

§ 950. Other proof.

The judgment and other proceedings, and the justice's authority to render the judgment, may also be proved, by the production of the docket, or of a copy of the judgment or other proceedings; and the oral testimony of the justice, to the truth and correctness thereof, and to his authority to render the judgment.

L. 1836, ch. 489, § 8.

§ 951. Proof may be rebutted.

The last three sections do not prevent the introduction of evidence, to controvert any of the proof, in relation to the validity of a judgment therein specified.

Id., § 4.

§ 952. Copies of records of courts of foreign countries; how authenticated.

A copy of a record, or other judicial proceeding, of a court of a foreign country, is evidence, when authenticated as follows:

1. By the attestation of the clerk of the court, with the seal of the court affixed, or of the officer in whose custody the record is legally kept, under the seal of his office.

2. By a certificate of the chief-judge or presiding magistrate of the court, to the effect, that the person, so attesting the record, is the clerk of the court; or that he is the officer, in whose custody the record is required by law to be kept; and that his signature to the attestation is genuine.

3. By the certificate, under the great or principal seal of the government, under whose authority the court is held, of the secretary of State, or other officer having the custody of that seal, to the effect, that the court is duly constituted, specifying generally the nature of its jurisdiction; and that the signature of the chief-judge or presiding magistrate, to the certificate specified in the last subdivision, is genuine.

From 2 R. S. 396, § 26 (2 Edm. 413), am'd.

§ 953. Other proof.

A copy of a record, or other judicial proceeding, of a court of a foreign country, attested by the seal of the court, in which it remains, must also be admitted in evidence, upon due proof of the following facts:

1. That the copy offered has been compared by the witness with the original, and is an exact transcript of the whole of the original.

2. That the original was, when the copy was made, in the custody of the clerk of the court, or other officer legally having charge of it.

3. That the attestation is genuine.

Id., § 27.

§ 954. [Am'd, 1877.] This article does not declare effect of record, etc.

Nothing in this article is to be construed, as declaring the effect of a record or other judicial proceeding of a foreign country, authenticated, so as to be evidence.

Id., § 28, last clause.

§ 955. [Inserted, 1892; am'd, 1904.] Public records in New York county.

All maps, surveys and official records, shall have been on record or on file in the office of either the register of the city and county of New York, or the surrogate of said city, or any of the courts of record of said city, or the clerk of the city and county of New York, or any county within the city of New York, or any of the departments of said city as enumerated in section thirty-four of the New York city consolidation act, or in the office of the registers, surrogates, commissioners of public works or kindred department, or park department, for a period of twenty years or upwards prior to such trial, shall be presumptive evidence of their contents, and shall be receivable in evidence as such upon any trial in any of the courts of this state in any controversy pending therein, between any parties.

L. 1892, ch. 522; L. 1904, ch. 444. In effect Sept. 1, 1904.

§ 956. [Am'd, 1877, 1912.] Documents from foreign countries; how authenticated.

A copy of a patent, record or other document remaining of record or on file in a public office of a foreign country, certified according to the form in use in that country, is evidence when authenticated, as follows:

1. By the certificate under the hand and official seal of a commissioner appointed by the governor to take the proof or acknowledgment of deeds in that country, to the effect that the patent, record or document is of record or on file in the public office, and that the copy thereof is correct and certified in due form; and

2. By a certificate under the hand and official seal of the secretary of State, annexed to that of the commissioner, to the same effect as prescribed by law for the authentication of the certificate of such a commissioner, upon a conveyance to be recorded within the State. The certificate of the commissioner, thus authenticated, is presumptive evidence that the copy of the patent, record or document is certified according to the form in use in the foreign country; or

3. By a certificate under the hand and official seal of a consular officer of the United States to the effect that the patent, record or document is of record or on file in the public office and certified according to the form in use in the foreign country, and a copy of a patent, record or other document so authenticated is presumptive evidence that the same is certified according to the form in use in the foreign country.

L. 1875, ch. 136, portions of §§ 1, 2, 8 and 9. Am'd by L. 1912, ch. 97. In effect Apr. 3, 1912.

TITLE V.*Miscellaneous provisions.

Sec. 957. Form of certificate to copies, etc.

958. Certificate must be sealed.

959. Qualification of last section.

960. Evidence, in actions for recovery of, injury to, etc., unoccupied lands and timber thereon.

961. Surrogates to search files, and to certify, etc.

961a. Determining age of child.

961b. Proof of written instruments where there are subscribing witnesses.

961c. Proof of payments by a municipal corporation or officer thereof.

961d. Proof of instrument by submitting disputed and genuine handwriting.

961e. Proof of lost execution or writ under which sheriff's sale of real property was made.

961f. Evidence of weather conditions.

962. Saving clause.

§ 957. Form of certificate to copies, etc.

Where a transcript, exemplification, or certified copy of a record or other paper, is declared by law to be evidence, and special provision is not made for the form of the certificate, in the particular case, the person, authorized to certify, must state, in his certificate, that it has been compared by him with the original, and that it is a correct transcript therefrom, and of the whole of the original.

2 R. S. 403, § 59 (2 Edm. 420), am'd.

§ 958. Certificate must be sealed.

If the officer, or the court, body, or board, in whose custody an original paper, specified in the last section, is required to be, by the laws of the State, or of another state, or of the United States, or of a territory thereof, or of a foreign country, has, pursuant to those laws, an official seal, the certificate must be attested by that seal. If the certificate is made by the clerk of a county, within the State, it must be attested by the seal of the county.

Id., remainder of § 59, am'd.

§ 959. [Am'd, 1877.] Qualification of last section.

The last section does not require the seal of a court to be affixed to a certified copy of an order, or of a paper filed therein, or entry made, where the copy is used in the same court, or before an officer thereof; or, in the supreme court, where it is used in a circuit court, or a court of oyer and terminer.

Id., § 60, with the addition of the words "or a court of oyer and terminer."

§ 960. [Added, 1898; am'd, 1906.] Evidence, in actions for recovery of, injury to, etc., unoccupied lands and timber thereon.

In all actions to recover the possession of, or otherwise to determine the title to, or, for trespass upon or injury to unoccupied lands, timber, trees or underwood thereon, except an action in which any county or any state or county officer, board or commission is a party defendant, the plaintiff may show an unbroken chain of title or conveyance of the land to himself for thirty years next preceding the commencement of the action, or if an action for trespass, next preceding the commission of the trespass or injury, and such proof shall be presumptive evidence of ownership at the times respectively, of the commencement of such action or commission of such trespass or injury, but such presumption may be rebutted by the defendant by showing ownership of said lands at the times respectively, of the commencement of said action or the commission of said trespass or injury, in some person other than the plaintiff.

L. 1898, ch. 32; L. 1906, ch. 509. In effect Sept. 1, 1906.

§ 961. [Am'd, 1909, 1915.] Searching records in the surrogate's offices and certifying in regard thereto.

A surrogate's clerk must, upon request, and upon payment of, or offer to pay, the fees allowed by law, or, if no fees are expressly allowed by law, fees at the rate allowed to a county clerk for a similar service, diligently search the files, papers, records and dockets in the surrogate's office; and either make one or more transcripts therefrom, and certify to the correctness thereof, and to the search, or certify that a document or paper cannot be found in such office.

L. 1847, ch. 470, § 40 (4 Edm. 588), am'd. See ante, § 921. Am'd by L. 1909, chs. 65 and 240, § 84. Also partly repealed by L. 1909, chs. 16, 35, 88 and 51. See Consolidated Laws, tit., County Law, § 161, Judiciary Law, § 255, Penal Law, § 1874, Public Officers Law, § 66. See note 50 of notes of Board of Statutory Consolidation at end of code. Am'd by L. 1915, ch. 207, in effect Sept. 1, 1915.

§ 961a. [Added, 1909.] Determining age of child.

Whenever in any proceeding or trial it becomes necessary to determine the age of a child, such child may be produced and exhibited to enable the magistrate, court or jury to determine its age by a personal inspection; and such court or magistrate may direct an examination by one or more physicians, whose opinion shall also be competent evidence upon the question of such age.

Added by L. 1909, ch. 65. Derivation — L. 1882, ch. 340, § 1. See note 8 of notes of Board of Statutory Consolidation at end of code.

§ 961b. [Added, 1909.] Proof of written instruments where there are subscribing witnesses.

Except in the case of written instruments to the validity of which a subscribing witness, or subscribing witnesses, is, or are necessary, whenever, upon the trial of any action, or upon the hearing of any judicial proceeding, a written instrument is offered in evidence, to which there is a subscribing witness, it shall not be necessary to call such subscribing witness, but such instrument may be proved in the same manner as it might be proved if there were no subscribing witness thereto.

Added by L. 1909, ch. 65. Derivation — L. 1883, ch. 195, § 1. See note 9 of notes of Board of Statutory Consolidation at end of code.

§ 961c. [Added, 1909.] Proof of payments by a municipal corporation or officer thereof.

In any action or proceeding now pending or hereafter to be brought in any of the courts of this state, the payment of any sum of money by a municipal corporation, or an officer thereof, may be proved by a receipt purporting upon its face to be given therefor, and to entitle such receipt to be read in evidence, no further or other proof shall be necessary than that it is produced from the files of the office of the chief financial officer of such municipal corporation, or from the files of the office of the person or department charged with the duty of making the payment. Every such receipt so read in evidence shall be presumptive proof of the fact of the payment to the person by or in whose behalf it purports to be signed of the sum of money and for the purpose therein expressed. But no such receipt shall be entitled to be read in evidence by virtue of the provisions of this section, unless it was given at least six years before the commencement of the action or proceeding in which it shall be offered as evidence. And the date or time appearing upon its face shall be presumptive proof that it was given at such date or time. Nothing in this section contained shall be held to prevent any party to such an action or proceeding from proving affirmatively that the payment so appearing to have been made has not in fact been made.

Added by L. 1909, ch. 65. Derivation — L. 1884, ch. 376, §§ 1, 2. See note 10 of notes of Board of Statutory Consolidation at end of code.

§ 961d. [Added, 1909.] Proof of instrument by submitting disputed and genuine handwriting.

Comparison of a disputed writing with any writing proved to the satisfaction of the court to be the genuine handwriting of any person, claimed on the trial to have made or executed the disputed instrument, or writing shall be permitted and submitted to the court and jury in like manner.

Added by L. 1909, ch. 65. Derivation — L. 1880, ch. 36, § 1, as am'd by L. 1888, ch. 555, § 1. See note 11 of notes of Board of Statutory Consolidation at end of code.

§ 961e. [Added, 1909.] Proof of lost execution or writ under which sheriff's sale of real property was made.

Whenever, upon the trial of an action it shall appear that at least twenty years theretofore real property has been sold by a sheriff for enforcement of the valid lien thereon of a duly docketed judgment, and that a certificate of the sale has been duly made by the sheriff and filed, and that a conveyance in completion of the purchase has been executed and recorded, but that the execution or writ by virtue of which the sale has so been made can not be found in the office of the clerk with whom the same should have been filed, then and in such case the recital of or reference to such execution or writ contained in the said certificate, or in the said conveyance, or in the record thereof shall be prima facie evidence of the said execution or writ and of the issue of the same as against any party whose claim of title is not shown to have been accompanied or supported by peaceable possession of the premises in controversy for at least three years immediately preceding the commencement of the action.

Added by L. 1909, ch. 65. Derivation — L. 1890, ch. 158, § 1. See note 12 of notes of Board of Statutory Consolidation at end of code.

§ 961f. [Added, 1909.] Evidence of weather conditions.

Any record of the observations in regard to the conditions of the weather, or in regard to the amount and conditions of the precipitation, taken under the direction of the New York state weather bureau, or any copy thereof, when certified in the form of and pursuant to law by the officer in charge thereof at the place where such record is duly filed, that the same is a true copy of such record, may be read in evidence in any court of this state, and shall be prima facie evidence of the facts and circumstances therein stated.

Added by L. 1909, ch. 65. Derivation — L. 1897, ch. 622, § 1. See note 13 of notes of Board of Statutory Consolidation at end of code.

§ 962. Saving clause.

Nothing in title fourth of this chapter prevents the proof of a fact, act, record, proceeding, document, or other paper or writing, according to the rules of the common law, or by any other competent proof.

§ R. S. 397, part of § 28 (2 Edm. 413). and L. 1846, ch. 240, § 2 (4 Edm. 642).

CHAPTER X.

Trials ; Including Jurors and Juries.

TITLE I.—Trials Generally ; Including Exceptions and Motion for a New Trial.

TITLE II.—Trials without a Jury.

TITLE III.—Trial Jurors, Except in New-York and Kings Counties ; Mode of Selecting Them, and of Procuring Their Attendance.

TITLE IV.—Trial Jurors in New-York and Kings Counties ; Mode of Selecting Them, and of Procuring Their Attendance.

TITLE V.—Trial by Jury.

TITLE VI.—Miscellaneous Provisions ; Including Those Relating to Embracery, and Other Acts of Misconduct.

TITLE I.

Trials generally ; including exceptions and motion for a new trial.

- Article 1. Issues, and the mode of trial thereof.
 2. The place of trial.
 3. Exceptions, case, and motion for a new trial.

ARTICLE FIRST.

Issues, and the mode of trial thereof.

- Sec. 963. Issues defined ; different kinds of issues.
 964. When issues of law arise ; when issues of fact arise.
 965. Issues to be judicially examined by a trial.
 966. Order of trial, where issues of law and of fact arise in the same action.
 967. But court may direct the order, etc., of disposition of the issues.
 968. What issues of fact are triable by a jury.
 969. What issues are triable by the court.
 970. Order for trial by jury, of specific questions of fact, when of right.
 971. Id. ; when discretionary.
 972. Trial of the remainder of the issues.
 973. Separate trial of one or more issues.
 974. Counterclaim to be deemed an action, within the foregoing sections.
 975. Immaterial issues need not be tried.
 976. What issues to be tried before one judge ; regulation of trial in the supreme court.
 977. Notice of trial and note of issue. Calendar to be prepared.
 978. Issues how arranged. Order of disposition at a jury term.
 979. Id. ; when a jury does not attend.
 980. Either party may bring issue to trial.
 981. What papers to be furnished on trial, and by whom.

§ 963. Issues defined ; different kinds of issues.

The issues, treated of in this chapter, are those only which are presented by the pleadings. An issue arises where a fact, or a conclusion of law, is maintained by one party, and controverted by the other. Issues are of two kinds:

1. Of law ; and
2. Of fact.

§ 964. When issues of law arise; when issues of fact arise.

An issue of law arises only upon a demurrer. An issue of fact arises, in either of the following cases:

1. Upon a denial, contained in the answer, of a material allegation of the complaint; or upon an allegation, contained in the answer, that the defendant has not sufficient knowledge or information to form a belief, with respect to a material allegation of the complaint.

2. Upon a similar denial or allegation, contained in the reply, with respect to a material allegation of the answer.

3. Upon a material allegation of new matter, contained in the answer, not requiring a reply; unless an issue of law is joined thereupon.

4. Upon a material allegation of new matter, contained in the reply; unless an issue of law is joined thereupon.

Substitute for Co. Proc., §§ 249 and 250.

§ 965. [Am'd, 1879.] Issues to be judicially examined by a trial.

An issue, either of law or of fact, must be tried as prescribed in this chapter, unless it is disposed of as prescribed in chapter sixth of this act.

Substitute for Co. Proc., § 252. See §§ 537, 547.

§ 966. [Am'd, 1877.] Order of trial, where issues of law and of fact arise in the same action.

Where an issue of law and an issue of fact arise in one action, the issue of law must be first disposed of, except as otherwise prescribed in the next section.

Substitute for Co. Proc., § 251.

§ 967. [Am'd, 1877.] But court may direct the order, etc., of disposition of the issues.

A separate trial, between the plaintiff and one or more defendants, of some or all of the issues of fact, or one trial of some or all of the issues of law, or a change in the order of disposition of the issues, may be directed by the court, in its discretion. Such a direction may be given, in an order, made upon notice; or, except where an application for such an order has been denied, it may be given, by the judge holding the term, where those issues are regularly upon the calendar for trial, either with or without the entry of an order.

Includes part of Co. Proc., § 251, and part of § 258.

§ 968. [Am'd, 1877.] What issues of fact are triable by a jury.

In each of the following actions, an issue of fact must be tried by a jury unless a jury trial is waived, or a reference is directed:

1. An action in which the complaint demands judgment for a sum of money only.

2. An action of ejectment; for dower; for waste; for a nuisance; or to recover a chattel.

Substitute for Co. Proc., § 253.

§ 969. What issues are triable by the court.

An issue of law, in any action, and an issue of fact, in an action not specified in the last section, or wherein provision for a trial by a jury is not expressly made by law, must be tried by the court, unless a reference or a jury trial is directed.

Co. Proc., portions of §§ 253 and 254. See Rule 40.

§ 970. [Am'd, 1892.] Order for trial by jury, of specific questions of fact, when of right.

Where a party is entitled by the constitution, or by express provision of law, to a trial by jury, of one or more issues of fact, in an action not specified in section nine hundred and sixty-eight of this act, he may apply, upon notice, to the court for an order, directing all the questions arising upon those issues, to be distinctly and plainly stated for trial accordingly. Upon the hearing of the application, the court must cause the issues, to the trial of which by a jury the party is entitled, to be distinctly and plainly stated. The subsequent proceedings are the same, as where questions arising upon the issues, are stated for trial by a jury, in a case where neither party can, as of right, require such a trial; except that the finding of the jury upon such questions so stated, is conclusive in the action unless the verdict is set aside, or a new trial is granted.

L. 1892, ch. 188. See Rule 31.

§ 971. [Am'd, 1877.] Id.; when discretionary.

In an action, where a party is not entitled, as of right, to a trial by a jury, the court may, in its discretion, upon the application of either party, or without application, direct that one or more questions of fact, arising upon the issues, be tried by a jury, and may cause those questions to be distinctly and plainly stated for trial accordingly.

§ 972. [Am'd, 1877.] Trial of the remainder of the issues.

If the questions, directed to be tried by a jury, as prescribed in the last two sections, do not embrace all the issues of fact in the action, the remaining issues of fact must be tried by the court, or by a referee.

Substitute for part of Co. Proc., § 254.

§ 973. [Added, 1907.] Separate trial of one or more issues.

The court in its discretion may order one or more issues to be separately tried prior to any trial of the other issues in the case.

L. 1907, ch. 526. In effect Sept. 1, 1907.

§ 974. [Am'd, 1877.] Counterclaim to be deemed an action, within the foregoing sections.

Where the defendant interposes a counterclaim, and thereupon demands an affirmative judgment against the plaintiff, the mode of trial of an issue of fact, arising thereupon, is the same, as if it arose in an action, brought by the defendant, against the plaintiff, for the cause of action stated in the counterclaim, and demanding the same judgment.

§ 975. Immaterial issues need not be tried.

An issue, the disposition of which is not necessary to enable the court to render the appropriate judgment, is not required to be tried.

§ 976. [Am'd, 1895, 1900, 1909.] What issues to be tried before one judge; regulation of trial in the supreme court.

An issue of law, or an issue of fact, triable by a jury or by the court, must be tried at a term held by one judge only. In the supreme court, an issue of fact triable by jury must be tried at a trial term thereof, and an issue of fact triable by the court may be tried at a trial term or a special term of the supreme court as prescribed in the general rules of practice. An issue of law may be brought on and tried at any term of court as a contested motion.

Am'd by L. 1895, ch. 946; L. 1900, ch. 569; L. 1909, ch. 498. In effect Sept. 1, 1909.

§ 977. [Am'd, 1877, 1882, 1896, 1898, 1899, 1903, 1904, 1907, 1909, 1911, 1912, 1915.] Notice of trial and note of issue; calendar to be prepared.

At any time after the joinder of issue, and at least fourteen days before the commencement of the term, either party may serve a notice of trial. The party serving the notice must file with the clerk a note of issue, stating the title of the action, the names of the attorneys, the time when the last pleading was served, the nature of the issue, whether of fact or of law; and, if, an issue of fact, whether it is triable by jury, or by the court, without a jury, and the particular nature of the same and the object of the action. The note of issue must be filed at least twelve days before the commencement of the term. The clerk must thereupon enter the cause upon the calendar according to the date of issue. The clerk must prepare the calendar and have the necessary copies ready for distribution at least five days before the commencement of the term. In the counties of New York, Kings, Bronx, Queens, Nassau, Richmond, Albany, Erie, Niagara, Monroe, Onondaga, Schenectady, and Westchester, where a party has served a notice of trial, and filed a note of issue, for a term at which the case is not tried, it is not necessary for him to serve a new notice of trial, or file a new note of issue, for a succeeding term; and the action must remain on the calendar until it is disposed of.

Co. Proc., part of § 256, as am'd by L. 1876, ch. 431, § 9; L. 1896, ch. 565; L. 1898, ch. 70; L. 1899, ch. 18; L. 1903, ch. 51; L. 1904, ch. 474; L. 1907, ch. 211. Am'd by L. 1909, ch. 65; L. 1911, ch. 218; L. 1912, ch. 96; L. 1915, ch. 60. In effect March 11, 1915. See also Consolidated Laws, Jt. Judiciary Law, § 83. See note 51 of notes of Board of Statutory Consolidation at end of code.

§ 978. [Am'd, 1877.] Issues how arranged. Order of disposition at a jury term.

The issues on the calendar must be arranged by the clerk in the following order:

1. Issues of fact.
2. Issues of law.

Where a jury is in attendance, the issues must be disposed of in the same order; unless, for the convenience of parties, or the dispatch of business, the judge holding the term otherwise directs.

Substitute for Co. Proc., § 257; am'ts.

§ 979. Id.; when a jury does not attend.

Where a jury is not in attendance, issues of law have a preference over issues of fact; unless the judge holding the term otherwise directs.

See concluding sentence Co. Proc., § 255.

§ 980. [Am'd, 1877.] Either party may bring issue to trial.

Either party, who has served the notice, may bring the issue to trial; and, in the absence of the adverse party, unless the judge holding the term, for good cause, otherwise directs, may proceed with the cause, and take a dismissal of the complaint, or a verdict, decision, or judgment, as the case requires. An inquest, for want of an affidavit of merits, cannot be taken where the answer is verified.

Co. Proc., § 258, am'd; L. 1876, ch. 431, § 10. See Rule 28.

§ 981. What papers to be furnished on trial, and by whom.

Where the issue is brought to trial by the plaintiff, he must furnish the court with copies of the summons and pleadings, and of the offer, if any has been made. Where the issue is brought to trial by the defendant, and the plaintiff does not furnish those papers, they must be furnished by the defendant.

Co. Proc., § 259, am'd. See Rule 19.

ARTICLE SECOND.

The place of trial.

Sec. 982. Certain actions to be tried, where the subject thereof is situated.

982-a. Actions relating to real property situate without the state.

983. Other actions, where the cause thereof arose.

984. Other actions, according to the residence of the parties.

985. Place of trial, if proper county not designated.

986. Defendant may demand change; proceedings thereupon.

987. When court may change the place of trial.

988. Effect of changing the place of trial.

989. Effect of order changing place of trial.

990. Issues of law, where triable.

991. This article applicable only to the supreme court

§ 982. Certain actions to be tried, where the subject thereof is situated.

Each of the following actions must be tried in the county, in which the subject of the action, or some part thereof, is situated: an action of ejectment; for the partition of real property; for dower; to foreclose a mortgage upon real property, or upon a chattel real; to compel the determination of a claim to real property; for waste; for a nuisance; or to procure a judgment, directing a conveyance of real property; and every other action to recover, or to procure a judgment, establishing, determining, defining, forfeiting, annulling, or otherwise affecting, an estate, right, title, lien, or other interest, in real property, or a chattel real. But where all the real property, to which the action relates, is situated without the State, the action must be tried, as prescribed in section 984 of this act.

Substitute for part of Co. Proc., § 123,

§ 982-a. [Added, 1913.] Actions relating to real property situate without the state.

An action may be maintained in the courts of this state to recover damages for injuries to real estate situate without the state, or for breach of contracts or of covenants relating thereto, whenever such an action could be maintained in relation to personal property without the state. The action must be tried in the county in which the parties or some one thereof resides, or if no party resides within the state, in any county.

Added by L. 1913, ch. 76. In effect Sept. 1, 1913.

§ 983. [Am'd, 1877.] Other actions, where the cause thereof arose.

An action, for either of the following causes, must be tried in the county, where the cause of action, or some part thereof, arose:

1. To recover a penalty or forfeiture, imposed by statute, except that, where the offence, for which it is imposed, was committed on a lake, river, or other stream of water, situated in two or more counties, the action may be tried in any county, bordering on the lake, river, or stream, and opposite to the place where the offence was committed. But in an action where the people of the State are a party to recover a penalty for trespass upon the lands of the Forest Preserve, the action may be tried in a county adjoining the county where the cause of action arose.

Last sentence in effect Sept. 1, 1890, L. 1890, ch. 179.

2. Against a public officer, or a person specially appointed to execute his duties, for an act done, in virtue of his office, or for an omission to perform a duty, incident to his office; or against a person, who, by the command or in the aid of a public officer, has done anything touching his duties.

3. To recover a chattel distrained, or damages for distraining a chattel.

§ 984. Other actions, according to the residence of the parties.

An action, not specified in the last two sections, must be tried in the county, in which one of the parties resided, at the commencement thereof. If neither of the parties then resided in the State, it may be tried in any county, which the plaintiff designates, for that purpose, in the title of the complaint.

Co. Proc., § 125.

§ 985. Place of trial, if proper county not designated.

If the county, designated in the complaint, as the place of trial, is not the proper county, the action may notwithstanding be tried therein; unless the place of trial is changed to the proper county, upon the demand of the defendant, followed by the consent of the plaintiff, or the order of the court.

Substitute for Co. Proc., part of § 126.

§ 986. Defendant may demand change; proceedings thereupon.

Where the defendant demands that the action be tried in the proper county, his attorney must serve upon the plaintiff's attorney, with the answer, or before service of the answer, a written demand accordingly. The demand must specify the county, where the defendant requires the action to be tried. If the plaintiff's attorney does not serve his written consent to the change, as proposed by the defendant, within five days after service of the demand, the defendant's attorney may, within ten days thereafter, serve notice of a motion to change the place of trial.

Id. See Rule 48.

§ 987. When court may change the place of trial.

The court may, by order, change the place of trial, in either of the following cases:

1. Where the county, designated for that purpose in the complaint, is not the proper county.
2. Where there is reason to believe, that an impartial trial cannot be had in the proper county.
3. Where the convenience of witnesses, and the ends of justice, will be promoted by the change.

Co. Proc., part of § 126.

§ 988. [Am'd, 1877.] Effect of changing the place of trial.

Where the place of trial is changed to another county, the subsequent proceedings shall be had in the county to which the change is made, the same as if it had been designated in the complaint, as the place of trial; except as otherwise directed by the court, or provided by the written consent of the parties, filed with the clerk. And the clerk of the county, from which it is changed, must forthwith deliver to the clerk of the county, to which it is changed, all papers filed in the action, and certified copies of all minutes and entries relating thereto, which must be filed, entered, or recorded, as the case requires, in the office of the last named clerk.

Id., § 126, last sentence, am'd. See Rule 2.

§ 989. [Am'd, 1877.] Effect of order changing place of trial.

An order to change the place of trial takes effect, upon the entry thereof, in the office of the clerk of the county, from which the place of trial is changed. But for the purposes of the place of hearing a motion to set it aside, or an appeal therefrom, the place of trial is deemed unchanged.

§ 990. [Am'd, 1879, 1913.] Issues of law and certain issues of fact; where triable.

An issue of law, or an issue of fact triable by the court without a jury, arising in a county where no special terms distinct from trial terms are appointed to be held for the trial of such cases, may be tried at a special term in any county within the judicial district embracing the county wherein the action is triable; but after the trial, the decision and all other papers relating to the trial must be filed, and the judgment rendered must be entered, in the last named county.

Am'd by L. 1879, ch. 542; L. 1913, ch. 446. In effect Sept. 1, 1913.

§ 991. This article applicable only to the supreme court. This article is applicable to an action in the supreme court only.

ARTICLE THIRD.

Exceptions, case, and motions for a new trial.

- Sec. 992. What rulings may be excepted to.
993. Decision of the court or referee.
994. When and how exceptions may be taken, after close of trial by court or referee.
995. Id., during the trial, or upon trial by jury.
996. Ruling excepted to; how reviewed.
997. Case, when necessary; how made and settled.
998. When appeal, etc., may be heard without a case.
999. Motion for new trial upon judge's minutes; appeal from order thereupon.
1000. When and how exceptions, taken upon a jury trial, heard by the appellate division.
1001. Motion for new trial by the appellate division, when trial was by court or referee.
1002. When motion for new trial to be made at special term. Restrictions thereupon.
1003. Application of this article to trials of specific questions by jury; special provisions applicable thereto.
1004. Motion for new hearing, after trial of specific questions by a referee.
1005. Final judgment, etc., not stayed, by motion for a new trial. Motion may be heard afterwards.
1006. When exception not to prejudice motion for new trial.
1007. Notes of stenographer may be treated as minutes of the judge.

§ 992. What rulings may be excepted to.

An exception may be taken to the ruling of the court or of a referee, upon a question of law, arising upon the trial of an issue of fact. Except as prescribed in section 1180 of this act, an exception cannot be taken to a ruling, upon a question of fact. For the purposes of this article, a trial by a jury is regarded as continuing, until the verdict is rendered.

§ 993. [Added, 1903.] Decision of the court or referee.

Upon the trial of an issue of fact by a referee or by a court without a jury, a finding of fact without any evidence tending to sustain it, is a ruling upon a question of law within the meaning of the last section. The appellate division of the supreme court shall, on appeal from a judgment entered on the report of a referee, or the decision of a court on such trial, review all questions of fact and of law, and may either modify or affirm the judgment or order appealed from, award a new trial, or grant to either party the judgment which the facts warrant.

L. 1903, ch. 85. See § 1022.

§ 994. When and how exceptions may be taken, after close of trial by court or referee.

Where an issue of fact is tried by a referee, or by the court, without a jury, an exception to a ruling, upon a question of law, made after the cause is finally submitted must be taken, by filing a notice of the exception in the clerk's office, and serving a copy thereof upon the attorney for the adverse party. The exception may be so taken, at any time before the expiration of ten days after service, upon the attorney for the exceptant, of a copy of the decision of the court, or report of the referee, and a written notice of the entry of judgment thereupon. If the notice of exception is filed before the entry of final judgment, it must be inserted in the judgment-roll; if afterwards, it must be annexed to the judgment-roll. In either case, it constitutes a part of the papers, upon which an appeal from the judgment must be heard.

Parts of Co. Proc., §§ 268 and 272, modified and am'd. See § 998.

§ 995. Id.; during the trial, or upon trial by jury.

In any other case, an exception must be taken, at the time when the ruling is made, unless it is taken to the charge given to the jury; in which case, it must be taken before the jury have rendered their verdict. It must, at the time when it is taken, be reduced to writing by the exceptant, or entered in the minutes.

From 2 R. S. 422, § 73, and Id., § 74, as modified by Co. Proc., § 264, am'd.

§ 996. Ruling excepted to; how reviewed.

A ruling, to which an exception is taken, as prescribed in the last four sections, can be reviewed only upon an appeal from the judgment, rendered after the trial; except in a case, where it is expressly prescribed by law, that a motion for a new trial may be made thereupon.

§ 997. [Am'd, 1895.] Case, when necessary; how made and settled.

When a party intends to appeal from a judgment, rendered after the trial of an issue of fact, or to move for a new trial of such an issue, he must, except as otherwise prescribed by law, make a case, and procure the same to be settled and signed, by the judge, justice or the referee, by or before whom the action was tried, as prescribed in the general rules of practice; or, in a case of the death or disability of the judge, justice or referee, in such manner as the court directs. The case must contain so much of the evidence, and other proceedings upon the trial, as is material to the questions to be raised thereby, and also the exceptions taken by the party making the case; (and in a case where a special question is submitted to the jury, or the jury have assessed damages, such exceptions taken by any party to the action as shall be necessary to determine whether there should be a new trial in case the judgment should be reversed). If it afterwards becomes necessary to separate the exceptions, the separation may be made, and the exceptions may be stated, with so much of the evidence and other proceedings, as is material to the questions raised by them, in a case, prepared and settled, as directed in the general rules of practice; or in the absence of directions therein, by the court, upon motion. It is not necessary to state, in a case, that a finding upon the facts, or a ruling upon the law, was made, where the finding or ruling appears in a referee's report, or in the decision of the court, upon a trial by the court, without a jury.

Substituted for part of Co. Proc., §§ 264 and 268, and of § 272, with amendments; L. 1895, ch. 946.

§ 998. When appeal, etc., may be heard without a case.

It is not necessary to make a case, for the purpose of moving for a new trial, upon the minutes of the judge, who presided at a trial by a jury; or upon an allegation of irregularity, or surprise; or where a party intends to appeal from a judgment entered upon a referee's report, or a decision of the court upon a trial, without a jury, and to rely only upon exceptions, taken as prescribed in section 994 of this act.

§ 999. [Am'd, 1889.] Motion for new trial upon judge's minutes; appeal from order thereupon.

The judge, presiding at a trial by a jury, may, in his discretion, entertain a motion, made upon his minutes, at the same term, to set aside the verdict or a direction dismissing the complaint and grant a new trial upon exceptions; or because the verdict is for excessive or insufficient damages, or otherwise contrary to the evidence, or contrary to law. If an appeal is taken from the order, made upon the motion, it must be heard upon a case prepared and settled in the usual manner.

Co. Proc., part of § 264, am'd. See § 1003, post.

§ 1000. [Am'd, 1895.] When and how exceptions, taken upon a jury trial, heard by the appellate division.

Upon the application of a party who has taken one or more exceptions, the judge, presiding at a trial by jury, may, in his discretion, at any time during the same term, direct an order to be entered, that the exceptions so taken be heard, in the first instance, by the appellate division of the supreme court; and that judgment be suspended, in the mean time. At any time before the hearing of the exceptions, the order may be revoked or modified, upon notice, in court or out of court, by the judge who made it; or it may be set aside for irregularity, by the court, at any term thereof. Unless it is so revoked or set aside, the exceptions must be heard upon a motion for a new trial, which must be decided by the appellate division. The motion is deemed to have been made, when the order was granted; and either party may notice it for hearing at a term of the appellate division, upon the exceptions.

L. 1895, ch. 946.

§ 1001. [Am'd, 1895.] Motion for new trial by the appellate division, when trial was by court or referee.

Where the decision or report, rendered upon the trial of an issue of fact by the court, without a jury, or by a referee, directs an interlocutory judgment to be entered; and further proceedings must be taken, before the court, or a judge thereof, or a referee, before a final judgment can be entered, a motion for a new trial, upon one or more exceptions, may be made at a term of the appellate division of the supreme court, after the entry of the interlocutory judgment, and before the commencement of the hearing directed therein. The time within which the party must except, for that purpose, to a ruling of law, made upon such a trial, by the judge or the referee, after the close of the testimony, is ten days after service of a copy of the decision or report, and notice of the entry of the interlocutory judgment thereupon.

L. 1895, ch. 946.

§ 1002. When motion for new trial to be made at special term. Restrictions thereupon.

In a case, not specified in the last three sections, a motion for a new trial must, in the first instance, be heard and decided at the special term. But where it is founded upon an allegation of error, in a finding of fact, or ruling upon the law, made by the judge upon the trial, it cannot be made unless notice therefor be given before the expiration of the time within which an appeal can be taken from the judgment, and it cannot be heard at a special term held by another judge; unless the judge, who presided at the trial, is dead, or his term of office has expired, or he is disqualified for any reason, or he specially directs the motion to be heard before another judge. And a trial by a referee cannot be reviewed, by a motion for a new trial, founded upon such an allegation, except in a case specified in the last section.

§ 1003. [Am'd, 1895.] Application of this article to trials of specific questions by jury; special provisions applicable thereto.

The provisions of this article, relating to the proceedings to review a trial by a jury, are applicable to the trial, by a jury, of one or more specific questions of fact, arising upon the issues, in an action triable by the court. But, except in a case specified in section 970 of this act, a new trial may be granted, as to some of the questions so tried, and refused as to the others; and an error, in the admission or exclusion of evidence, or in any other ruling or direction of the judge, upon the trial, may, in the discretion of the court which reviews it, be disregarded, if that court is of opinion, that substantial justice does not require that a new trial should be granted. Where the judge, who presided at the trial, neither entertains a motion for a new trial, nor directs exceptions, taken at the trial, to be heard at a term of the appellate division of the supreme court, a motion for a new trial can be made only at the term, where the motion for final judgment is made, or the remaining issues of fact are tried, as the case requires.

L. 1895, ch. 946. See ante, § 990.

§ 1004. Motion for new hearing, after trial of specific questions by a referee.

In an action triable by the court, where a reference has been made, to report upon one or more specific questions of fact, involved in the issue, a motion for a new hearing may be made at a special term, at any time before the hearing of a motion for final judgment, or the trial of the remaining issues of fact. The motion must be made upon affidavits, unless the court, or a judge thereof, directs a case to be prepared and settled.

§ 1005. Final judgment, etc., not stayed, by motion for a new trial. Motion may be heard afterwards.

The entry of final judgment, and the subsequent proceedings to collect or otherwise enforce it, are not stayed by an exception, the preparation or settlement of a case, or a motion for a new trial, unless an order for such a stay is procured and served, and the entry, collection, or other enforcement of a judgment does not prejudice a subsequent motion for a new trial. Where a new trial is granted, the court may direct and enforce restitution, as where a judgment is reversed upon appeal.

L. 1832, ch. 128, § 1 (4 Edm. 529), am'd.

§ 1006. When exception not to prejudice motion for new trial.

The taking of an exception, upon a trial by a jury, or the statement thereof in a case, as prescribed in this article, does not prejudice a motion for a new trial, on the ground that the verdict was contrary to evidence; but such a motion may be made, before or after the hearing of the exception; or, in the discretion of the court before which the exception is heard, at the time of the hearing.

2 R. S. 422, § 76 (2 Edm. 440), am'd.

§ 1007. [Am'd 1883, 1884, 1909.] Notes of stenographer may be treated as minutes of the judge.

The notes of an official stenographer, or assistant-stenographer, taken at a trial, when written out at length, may be treated, in the discretion of the judge, as minutes of the judge upon the trial, for the purposes of this article.

See §§ 83-87, ante. Am'd by L. 1909, ch. 63. Also partly repealed by L. 1909, ch. 35. See Consolidated Laws, tit. Judiciary Law, § 305. See note 52 of notes of Board of Statutory Consolidation at end of code.

TITLE II.

Trials without a jury.

- Sec. 1008. If trial by jury waived, action must be tried by the court.
1009. Trial by jury; how waived.
1010. Decision upon trial by the court, when to be filed; consequence of failure.
1011. Reference by consent; when and how made.
1012. Qualification of the last section.
1013. Compulsory reference for the trial of issues; in what cases it may be made.
1014. Proceedings where the reference is for trial of part of the issues.
1015. Compulsory reference upon questions incidentally arising.
1016. Referee to be sworn.
1017. Witnesses may be subpoenaed.
1018. General powers of a referee upon a trial.
1019. Referee's report; when to be made; consequence of failure.
1020. Double or other increased damages.
1021. Decision of court or report of referee, upon trial of demurrer.
1022. Id.; upon trial of the whole issue of fact.
1023. Parties may require court or referee to determine particular questions.
1024. Qualifications of a referee.
1025. Several referees may be appointed.
1026. Proceedings regulated where there are several referees.

§ 1008. [Am'd, 1877.] If trial by jury waived, action must be tried by the court.

In an action triable by a jury, if the parties waive the trial, by a jury, of the issue* of fact, the action must be tried by the court, without a jury; unless a reference is directed, in a case prescribed by law. (1) But such an action, other than to recover damages for breach of a contract, cannot be tried by the court, without a jury, unless the judge, presiding at the term where it is brought on for trial, assents to such a trial. (2) His refusal so to assent annuls a waiver, made as prescribed in subdivision second, third, or fourth of the next section.

(1) Corresponds to Co. Proc., §§ 253, 254. (2) From Co. Proc., § 266.

§ 1009. Trial by jury; how waived.

A party may waive his right to the trial of the issue of fact, by a jury, in any of the following modes:

1. By failing to appear at the trial.
2. By filing with the clerk a written waiver, signed by the attorney for the party.
3. By an oral consent in open court, entered in the minutes.
4. By moving the trial of the action, without a jury, or, if the adverse party so moves it, by failing to claim a trial by a jury, before the production of any evidence upon the trial.

Co. Proc., remainder of § 266, am'd.

§ 1010. Decision upon trial by the court, when to be filed; consequence of failure.

Upon a trial, by the court, of an issue of fact or of law, its decision, in writing, must be filed, in the clerk's office, within twenty days after the final adjournment of the term, where the issue was tried. If it is not so filed, either party may move, at a special term, for a new trial upon that ground. If the decision has not been filed, when the motion is heard, the court must make an order for a new trial, either absolutely, or unless it is filed, within a time specified in the order. If an order for a new trial is made, or a contingent order for a new trial becomes absolute, the costs of the former trial abide the event.

---

* Error in engrossing for "issue."

Co. Proc., part of § 267, am'd.

§ 1011. [Am'd, 1879.] Reference by consent; when and how made.

Except in a case specified in the next section, the whole issue, or any of the issues in an action, either of fact or of law, must be referred, upon the consent of the parties, manifested by a written stipulation, signed by their attorneys, and filed with the clerk. Where the stipulation does not name the referee, he may be designated by the court, on motion of either party. Where the stipulation names the referee, the clerk must enter an order, of course, referring the issue or issues for trial, to that person only. If the referee named in a stipulation refuses to serve, or if a new trial of an action tried by a referee so named is granted, the court must appoint another referee, unless the stipulation expressly provides otherwise.

Id., § 270, and part of § 273, with amendment.

§ 1012. [Am'd, 1898.] Qualification of the last section.

But a reference shall not be made, of course, upon the consent of the parties, in an action to annul the marriage, or for a divorce or a separation; or an action against a corporation, to obtain a dissolution thereof, the appointment of a receiver of its property, or the distribution of its property, unless it is brought by the attorney-general; or an action wherein a defendant, to be affected by the result of the trial, is an infant. In a case specified in this section, where the parties consent to a reference, the court may, in its discretion, grant or refuse a reference; and, where a reference is granted, the court must designate the referee. If the referee, thus designated, refuses to serve, or if a new trial of an action tried by a referee, so designated, is granted, the court must, upon the application of either party, appoint another referee.

Id., § 273; L. 1898, ch. 317. In effect Sept. 1, 1898. See Rule 79.

§ 1013. Compulsory reference for the trial of issues; in what cases it may be made.

The court may, of its own motion, or upon the application of either party, without the consent of the other, direct a trial of the issues of fact, by a referee, where the trial will require the examination of a long account, on either side, and will not require the decision of difficult questions of law. In an action, triable by the court, without a jury, a reference may be made, as prescribed in this section, to decide the whole issue, or any of the issues; or to report the referee's finding, upon one or more specific questions of fact, involved in the issue.

Id., part of § 271, am'd.

Applies to City Court of New York, L. 1896, ch. 954, § 2.

§ 1014. Proceedings where the reference is for trial of part of the issues.

Where a reference is made, as prescribed in the last section, to report upon a specific question of fact, involved in the issue, and the determination of one or more other issues is necessary, in order to enable the court to render judgment, they must be tried, either before or after the filing of the report, as the court directs, and either by a jury, or by the court, without a jury, as the case requires. Where they are tried by a jury, application for judgment must be made upon the verdict and the report.

Substitute for part of Co. Proc., § 272.

§ 1015. Compulsory reference upon questions incidentally arising.

The court may likewise, of its own motion, or upon the application of either party, without the consent of the other, direct a reference to take an account, and report to the court thereon, either with or without the testimony, after interlocutory or final judgment, or where it is necessary to do so, for the information of the court; and also to determine and report upon a question of fact, arising in any stage of the action, upon a motion, or otherwise, except upon the pleadings.

Co. Proc., § 271, subd. 2 and 3. See § 1232, post.

§ 1016. Referee to be sworn.

A referee, appointed as prescribed in either of the foregoing sections of this title, must, before proceeding to hear the testimony, be sworn faithfully and fairly to try the issues, or to determine the questions referred to him, as the case requires, and to make a just and true report, according to the best of his understanding. The oath may be administered by an officer specified in section 842 of this act. But where all the parties, whose interest will be affected by the result, are of age, and present, in person or by attorney, they may expressly waive the referee's oath. The waiver may be made by written stipulation, or orally. If it is oral, it must be entered in the referee's minutes.

2 B. S. 384, § 44 (2 Edm. 390), am'd.

§ 1017. Witnesses may be subpoenaed.

A witness may be subpoenaed to attend before a referee, appointed as prescribed in either of the foregoing sections of this title, to testify, and, in a proper case, to bring with him a book, document, or other paper, as upon a trial by the court.

Id., § 45, am'd.

§ 1018. General powers of a referee upon a trial.

The trial, by a referee, of an issue of fact, or of an issue of law, must be brought on upon like notice, and conducted in like manner, and the papers to be furnished thereupon are the same, and are furnished in like manner, as where the trial is by the court, without a jury. The referee exercises, upon such a trial, the same powers as the court, to grant adjournments, to preserve order, and punish the violation thereof. Upon the trial of an issue of fact, the referee exercises also the same power as the court, to allow amendments to the summons, or to the pleadings; to compel the attendance of a witness by attachment; and to punish a witness for a contempt of court, for non-attendance, or refusal to be sworn, or to testify. Upon the trial of an issue of law, the referee exercises the same power as the court, to permit a party in fault to plead anew or amend; to direct the action to be divided into two or more actions; to award costs, and otherwise to dispose of any question, arising upon the decision of the issue referred to him. The powers, conferred by this section, are exercised in like manner, and upon like terms, as similar powers are exercised by the court, upon a trial.

First three sentences from the first three sentences of Co. Proc., § 272; the remainder is new. The last sentence but one refers to § 497, ante.

§ 1019. [Am'd, 1882.] Referee's report; when to be made; consequence of failure.

Upon the trial, by a referee, of an issue of fact, or an issue of law, or where a reference is made as prescribed in section one thousand and fifteen of this act, his written report must be either filed with the clerk, or delivered to the attorney for one of the parties, within sixty days from the time when the cause or matter is finally submitted; otherwise either party may before it is filed or delivered, serve a notice, upon the attorney for the adverse party, that he elects to end the reference. In such a case, the action must thenceforth proceed, as if the reference had not been directed; and the referee is not entitled to any fees.

Co. Proc., last sentence of § 273.

§ 1020. Double or other increased damages.

Where the* double, treble, or other increased damages are given by statute, the decision of the court, or the report of the referee, must specify the sum awarded as single damages, and direct judgment for the increased damages.

See § 1184, post.

§ 1021. [Am'd, 1895.] Decision of court or report of referee, upon trial of demurrer.

The decision of the court, or the report of a referee, upon the trial of a demurrer, or upon the trial of the issues of fact or law, where a nonsuit is granted, must direct the final or interlocutory judgment to be entered thereupon, and in any such case it shall not be necessary for the court or referee to make any finding of fact. Where it directs an interlocutory judgment, with leave to the party in fault to plead anew or amend, or permitting the action to be divided into two or more actions, and no other issue remains to be disposed of, it may also direct the final judgment to be entered if the party in fault fails to comply with any of the directions given or terms imposed.

Substituted for Co. Proc., part of § 267; L. 1895, ch. 946.

§ 1022. [Am'd, 1895, 1903.] Decision of court or report of referee upon trial of the whole issue of fact.

The decision of the court or the report of a referee upon the trial of the whole issues of fact must state separately the facts found and the conclusions of law, and direct the judgment to be entered thereon, which decision so filed shall form part of the judgment roll. In an action where the costs are in the discretion of the court the decision or report must award or deny costs, and if it awards costs it must designate the party to whom the costs to be taxed are awarded.

L. 1895, ch. 946; L. 1903, ch. 85. See § 993.

§ 1023. [Added, 1904.] Parties may require court or referee to determine particular questions.

Before the cause is finally submitted to the court or the referee, or within such time afterwards, and before the decision or report is rendered, as the court or referee allows, the attorney for either party may submit, in writing, a statement of the facts, which he deems established by the evidence, and of the rulings upon questions of law, which he desires the court or the referee to make. The statement must be in the form of distinct propositions of law, or of fact, or both, separately stated; each of which must be numbered, and so prepared, with respect to its length, and the subject and phraseology thereof, that the court or referee may conveniently pass upon it. At or before the time, when the decision or report is rendered, the court or the referee must note, in the margin of the statement, the manner in which each proposition has been disposed of, and must either file, or return to the attorney, the statement thus noted; but an omission so to do does not affect the validity of the decision or report. An exception may be taken to a refusal of the court or referee to find any request thus submitted.

* This word inserted by error in engrossing.

L. 1904, ch. 491. In effect Sept. 1, 1904.

§ 1024. [Am'd, 1905.] Qualifications of a referee.

A referee, appointed by the court, must be free from all just objection; and no person shall be so appointed, to whom all the parties object, except in an action to annul a marriage, or for a divorce, or a separation. A judge cannot be appointed a referee, in an action brought in a court, of which he is a judge, except by the written consent of the parties; and, in that case, he cannot receive any compensation as referee. No person shall be appointed a commissioner of estimate and appraisement in condemnation or street opening proceedings or referee, in the first or second judicial districts, in an action or special proceeding, who holds the position of clerk, private secretary, secretary, or stenographer to any justice or judge of a court of record, or to any board of justices or judges of such a court in any department where such justice or judge is engaged in the discharge of the duties of his office.

Co. Proc., part of § 273; L. 1905, ch. 485. In effect Sept. 1, 1905.

§ 1025. Several referees may be appointed.

Where the court is authorized to appoint a referee, it may, in its discretion, appoint either one or three. And where a reference is made by consent of the parties, they may select any number of referees, not exceeding five.

Substitute for Co. Proc., part of § 273.

§ 1026. Proceedings regulated where there are several referees.

Where the reference is to more than one referee, all must meet together, and hear all the allegations and proofs of the parties; but a majority may appoint a time and place for the trial, decide any question which arises upon the trial, sign a report, or settle a case. Either of them may administer an oath to a witness; and a majority of those present, at a time and place appointed for the trial, may adjourn the trial to a future day.

 1070. Copy of order for foreign jury to be delivered to sheriff.
 1071. Mode of obtaining a foreign jury.

§ 1063. [Am'd, 1895.] What courts may order a special jury to be struck.

Where it appears to the court, that a fair and impartial trial of an issue of fact, triable by a jury, joined in an action, pending in the supreme court, cannot be had without a struck jury, or that the importance or intricacy of the case requires such a jury, the court must make an order, upon notice, directing a special jury to be struck, for the trial of the issue. The order must specify the term, and it may specify a particular day in the term, when the jurors must attend.

2 R. S. 418, § 46 (2 Edm. 435), as am'd by L. 1857, ch. 530, further am'd; L. 1895, ch. 946.

§ 1064. [Am'd, 1895.] Party obtaining order to give eight days' notice.

Unless the order specifies, or directs the officer, who is to strike the jury, to fix a time for the parties to attend, the party obtaining it must give at least eight days' notice of the time when he will attend, before the clerk of the county in which the action is triable, or, if it is triable in the city and county of New-York, or the county of Kings, before the commissioner of jurors, for the purpose of having the jury struck.

L. 1895, ch. 946.

§ 1065. [Am'd, 1877.] Mode of striking jury.

At the time appointed, the clerk, or, in his absence, the deputy-clerk, or the commissioner, as the case requires, must attend at his office, with the original lists or books, filed or kept in his office, as required by law, containing the names of the persons who are then liable to serve as trial jurors; and, in the presence of the parties, or their attorneys or counsel, must strike a trial jury, as follows:

1. The clerk, deputy-clerk, or commissioner, must select from the lists or books, the names of forty-eight persons, whom he deems most indifferent between the parties, and best qualified to try the issue; and must make and certify a list of those names.

2. The party, on whose application the special jury was directed to be struck, or his attorney or counsel, may then first strike from the list one name; the adverse party or his attorney or counsel may then strike therefrom one name; and so alternately, until each party has stricken out twelve names.

3. If either party fails to attend, at the time and place of striking the jury, or neglects to strike out a name, the clerk, deputy-clerk, or commissioner, must strike for him.

4. The clerk, deputy-clerk, or commissioner, must thereupon make out a list of the names of the twenty-four persons not stricken out, and must certify that it is a correct list of the persons drawn to serve as jurors, pursuant to the order of the court. He must immediately deliver the list so certified, and a certified copy of the order, to the sheriff of the county. If the list, from any ward or town, cannot be found, the clerk must make a new list from the ballots then in use for jurors for that ward or town, and must use that list, upon striking the jury, in place of the original list.

2 B. S. 418, § 48, as am'd by L. 1876, ch. 69.

§ 1066. Jurors so drawn to be notified to attend.

The sheriff must notify the persons whose names are contained in the list; and must return the names of those notified, to the term, at which they are required to attend, as prescribed by law for notifying and returning ordinary trial jurors.

Id., § 49. See L. 1858, ch. 322, § 36, as modified by L. 1873, ch. 166, § 1.

§ 1067. [Am'd, 1895.] Jury to be formed as in other cases.

From the persons so notified and attending, a jury must be formed for the trial, and the issue must be tried, as prescribed in this chapter with respect to an ordinary jury trial. The court has the same power to excuse or discharge a juror, and to cause additional jurors to be drawn, or talesmen to attend as upon an ordinary jury trial. But the court may, in its discretion, set aside an additional juror so drawn, or a talesman, upon the objection of either party, without a formal challenge, but neither party shall have more than two peremptory challenges.

L. 1895, ch. 946.

§ 1068. [Am'd, 1884.] Provision where clerk or commissioner of jurors is interested.

If it appears to the court, to which an application for a special jury is made, that the clerk, or the commissioner of jurors, as the case may be, is interested in the action; or is related to either of the parties; or is not indifferent between them; the court must appoint two disinterested persons to strike the jury; and the court may, in its discretion, in any case appoint two such persons to strike such jury. The persons so appointed possess, for the purposes of the action, all the powers conferred, by this article, upon the clerk, or the commissioner of jurors.

Id., § 51; L. 1884, ch. 460.

§ 1069. Party applying for special jury to pay expenses.
The expense of striking a special jury must be paid by the party applying for it, and shall not be taxed in the costs of the action.

L., § 52.

1070. Copy of order for foreign jury to be delivered sheriff.

Where an order for a trial by a foreign jury is made, a certified copy thereof must be delivered to the sheriff of the county, in which it is to be drawn; who must give notice thereof to the clerk of that county, and also, in the city and county of New-York, or the county of Kings, to the commissioner of jurors, at least twenty days before the first day of the term, at which the foreign jury is required to attend.

2 R. S. 410, § 10 (2 Edm. 427).

§ 1071. Mode of obtaining a foreign jury.

The clerk, or, in the county of Kings, the commissioner, to whom the notice is given, must draw the names of twenty-four persons, in the same manner, and in presence of the same officers, as prescribed by law, with respect to ordinary trial jurors; except that notice of the drawing need not be published. A certified list of the names drawn must be delivered to the sheriff, who must notify each person drawn, and make a return, as in an ordinary case.

Id., § 11.

TITLE V.

Trial by jury.

Article 1. Formation of the jury.
2. The verdict.

ARTICLE FIRST.

Formation of the jury.

- Sec. 1163. Clerk to prepare ballots of jurors for trial.
- 1164. Clerk to draw ballots.
- 1165. Mode of drawing ballots.
- 1166. Persons drawn, etc., to form the jury.
- 1167. Ballots drawn, when to be deposited in a second box.
- 1168. Id.; when to be returned to the first box.
- 1169. Ballots of absentees, etc., to be returned to first box.
- 1170. New jury may be drawn while first is empanelled.
- 1171. When talesmen to be procured, or jurors drawn from third box.
- 1172. When talesmen to be procured.
- 1173. If sheriff is a party, court may appoint a person to act for him.
- 1174. Duty of sheriff and of talesmen.
- 1175. Jury competent, although containing only part or none of original panel.
- 1176. Peremptory challenges in a civil action.
- 1177. No challenge allowed because officer drawing is a party, etc.
- 1178. No challenge allowed because officer notifying is a party, etc.
- 1179. Challenges in penal actions.
- 1180. Challenges how tried. Exceptions to and review of the determination of the court, in reference thereto.

§ 1163. Clerk to prepare ballots of jurors for trial.

At the opening of a term of a court of record at which issues of fact are to be tried by jury, the clerk must cause ballots, uniform, as nearly as may be, in appearance, to be prepared, by writing the name of each person, returned to the term as a trial juror, with his proper additions, on a separate piece of paper. He must roll up or fold each ballot, in the same manner, as early as may be, so as to resemble the others, and so that the name is not visible. The ballots must be deposited in a sufficient box, from which they must be drawn, as prescribed in this article.

§ R. S. 420, § 59 (2 Edm. 438).

§ 1164. Clerk to draw ballots.

When an issue of fact, to be tried by a jury, is brought to trial, the clerk, under the direction of the court, must openly draw, out of the box, as many of the ballots, one after another, as are sufficient to form a jury.

.. § 60.

1165. Mode of drawing ballots.

Before the first ballot is drawn, the box must be closed and well shaken, so as thoroughly to mix the ballots; and the clerk must draw each ballot, without seeing the name written on any of them, through an aperture, made in the lid of the box, large enough only to admit his hand conveniently.

§ 61.

§ 1166. [Am'd, 1883.] Persons drawn, etc., to form the jury.

The first twelve persons who appear, as their names are drawn and called, and are approved as indifferent between the parties, and not discharged or excused, must be sworn, and constitute the jury to try the issue. Persons shall be disqualified from sitting as jurors if related by consanguinity or affinity to a party to the issue in the same cases in which judges are disqualified. The party related to the juror must raise the objection before the case is opened; but any other party to the issue may raise the objection within six months from the date of verdict.

2 R. S. 420, § 61; L. 1883, ch. 234.

§ 1167. Ballots drawn, when to be deposited in a second box.

The ballots, containing the names of the jurors so sworn, must be then deposited in another box, and there kept, apart from the other ballots, until that jury is discharged.

Id., § 62.

§ 1168. Id.; when to be returned to the first box.

After that jury is discharged, the ballots containing their names must be again rolled up or folded, as prescribed in section 1163 of this act, and returned to the box from which they were first taken; and the same course must be pursued, as often as an issue is brought to trial by a jury.

Id., § 63.

§ 1169. Ballots of absentees, etc., to be returned to first box.

The ballot, containing the name of a juror, who is absent, when his name is drawn or called, or is set aside, or excused from serving on that trial, must be again rolled up or folded, in the same manner as before, and returned to the box, containing the undrawn ballots, as soon as the jury is sworn.

Id., § 67.

§ 1170. New jury may be drawn while first is empanelled.

If an issue is brought to trial by a jury, while a jury is empanelled in another cause, at the same term, and not then discharged, the court may order a jury, for the trial of that issue, to be drawn, out of the box containing the ballots then undrawn; but, in any other case, the ballots, containing the names of all the trial jurors, returned at, and attending the term, must be placed together in the same box, before a jury is drawn therefrom.

Id., § 64.

§ 1171. [Am'd, 1879, 1909.] When talesmen to be procured, or jurors drawn from third box.

If a sufficient number of jurors, duly drawn and notified, do not attend, or cannot be obtained to form a trial jury, the court may, in any county except Westchester, direct the sheriff to require the attendance of such a number of talesmen, from the bystanders, or from the county at large, qualified to serve as trial jurors, as it deems sufficient for the purpose. In Westchester county, the court must direct the sheriff to draw a sufficient number of ballots from the first box, specified in section five hundred and eight of the judiciary law; if there is not a sufficient number of ballots remaining therein, to draw the residue from the second box, specified in section five hundred and twenty-three of the judiciary law. In any other county, except New York and Kings, it may, in its discretion, instead of directing him to require talesmen to attend, direct him to draw a sufficient number of ballots from the third box, specified in section five hundred and twenty-four of the judiciary law. In either case, the sheriff must notify the persons thus drawn to attend forthwith, or upon a day fixed by the court. If, for any reason, a sufficient number of jurors to try the issue is not obtained, from the persons notified, under an order made as prescribed in this section, the court may make another order, or successive orders, until a sufficient number is obtained; and in making each order, the court may exercise the same discretion, as in making the first order.

2 R. S. 520. § 54. am'd. Am'd by L. 1909, ch. 65, § 3. See note 54 of notes of Board of Statutory Consolidation at end of code.

§ 1172. When talesmen to be procured.

In any county, except New-York, Kings, or Westchester, the court may also direct the sheriff to require the attendance of such number of qualified talesmen, for the trial of an issue of fact, as it deems sufficient, where, by reason of one or more juries being empanelled, or for any other reason, no ballot remains undrawn; or where, in consequence of jurors being set aside, a juror cannot be obtained, for the trial of that issue, from the list of those returned.

Part of id., § 65.

§ 1173. If sheriff is a party, court may appoint a person to act for him.

If, in a case specified in the last two sections, the sheriff is a party to the issue, the court must appoint a disinterested person, to act in place of the sheriff. For that purpose, the person so appointed possesses all the powers, and is subject to all the duties and liabilities of the sheriff, with respect to the matters specified in those sections.

Part of same section, am'd.

§ 1174. [Am'd, 1909.] Duty of sheriff and of talesmen.

The sheriff, or person appointed by the court, must notify the requisite number of persons to attend, and make return thereof, as prescribed in section five hundred and thirty-six of the judiciary law; except that each person must be required to attend forthwith. Each person so notified must attend forthwith, and, unless excused by the court or set aside, must serve as a juror at the trial. For a neglect or refusal so to do, he may be punished in the same manner as a trial juror, regularly drawn and returned, as prescribed in the judiciary law; and he is subject to the same exceptions and challenges, as any other trial juror.

§ 55. Am'd by L. 1909, ch. 65, § 3. See note 55 of notes of Board of Statutory Consolidation at end of code.

§ 1175. [Am'd, 1877.] Jury competent, although composed only of part or none of original panel.

It is not a valid objection to a jury, procured as prescribed in the last four sections, that it contains none of the jurors originally returned to the term, or is only partially composed of

Part of id., § 65, extended.

§ 1176. [Am'd, 1894.] Peremptory challenges in a civil action.

Upon the trial of an issue of fact, joined in a civil action in a court of record, each party may peremptorily challenge not more than six and in a court not of record each party may peremptorily challenge not more than three of the persons drawn as jurors for the trial.

L. 1894, ch. 434.

§ 1177. No challenge allowed because officer drawing is a party, etc.

It is not a good cause of challenge, to the panel or array of trial jurors, in an action in a court of record, that the officer who drew them is a party to, or interested in the action, or counsel or attorney for, or related to, a party

2 R. S. 420, § 56 (2 Edm. 437).

§ 1178. No challenge allowed because officer notifying is a party, etc.

It is not a good cause of challenge to the panel or array of trial jurors, in an action in a court of record, that they were notified to attend by an officer, who is a party to, or interested in, the action, or related to a party; unless it is alleged in the challenge, and is established, that one or more of the jurors drawn were not notified, and that the omission was intentional.

Id., § 57.

§ 1179. [Am'd, 1903.] Challenges in penal actions.

In an action, in a court of record, or not of record, wherein a city, town or county is a party, it is not a good cause of challenge to a trial juror, or to an officer who notified the trial jurors, that the juror or the officer is a resident of, or liable to pay taxes, in the city, town or county, which is a party to such action.

Id., § 58. See, also, 2 R. S. 551, § 2 (2 Edm. 571); L. 1903, ch. 294. In effect Sept. 1, 1903.

§ 1180. [Am'd, 1877, 1901, 1911.] Challenges how tried. Exceptions to and review of the determination of the court, in reference thereto.

An objection to the qualifications of a juror is available only upon a challenge. A challenge of a juror, or a challenge to the panel or array of jurors, must be tried and determined by the court only. Either party may except to the determination, and it may be reviewed, upon a question of fact, or a question of law, or both, as where an issue of fact presented by the pleadings is tried by the court; except that where one or more exceptions are taken to the rulings of the court, made after the jury is empanelled, an exception to the determination of a challenge must be heard at the same time; and the case must contain the matter necessary to present it, upon the facts, or the law, or both. The fact that a juror is in the employ of a party to the action; or, if a party to the action is a corporation, that he is an employee thereof or a shareholder or a stockholder therein; or in actions for damages for injuries to person or property, that he is a shareholder, stockholder, director, officer or employee, or in any manner interested, in any insurance company issuing policies for protection against liability for damages for injury to person or property, shall constitute a good ground for a challenge to the favor as to such juror.

L. 1873, ch. 427, § 1 (9 Edm. 609). am'd. See § 992; L. 1901, ch. 243; L. 1911, ch. 206, in effect Sept. 1, 1911.

ARTICLE SECOND.

The verdict.

Sec. 1181. Discharge of jury failing to agree.

1182. Plaintiff cannot submit to nonsuit after jury retires.

1183. In an action to recover money, jury to assess damages.

1184. How double, treble, or increased damages, found and awarded.

1185. When verdict to be taken, subject to the opinion of the court.

1186. General and special verdict defined.

1187. General or special verdict, when rendered; special finding with general verdict.

1188. Special finding controls general verdict.

1189. Entry of verdict; subsequent proceedings.

§ 1181. Discharge of jury failing to agree.

Where a jury is empanelled to try an issue, to make an inquiry, or to assess damages, in an action in a court of record, or not of record, or in a special proceeding before an officer, if the jurors cannot agree, after being kept together, for such a time as is deemed reasonable, by the court before which, or the officer before whom, they were empanelled the court or officer may discharge them, and issue a precept for a new jury, or order another jury to be drawn, as the case requires; and the same proceedings must be had before the new jury, as if it was the jury first empanelled.

2 R. S. 554, § 26 (2 Edm. 575).

§ 1182. Plaintiff cannot submit to nonsuit after jury retires.

It is not necessary, in an action in a court of record, to call the plaintiff, when the jurors are about to deliver their verdict; and the plaintiff, in such an action, cannot submit to a nonsuit, after the cause has been committed to the jury, to consider the verdict.

§ 1183. In action to recover money, jury to assess damages.

In an action to recover a sum of money only, if a verdict is found, either in favor of the plaintiff, or in favor of a defendant, who has set up a counterclaim for a sum of money, the jury must assess the amount of damages. The jury may also, under the direction of the court, assess the amount of the damages, where the court directs judgment for the plaintiff, on the pleadings.

Co. Proc., part of § 263. The remainder of that section is covered by §§ 503 and 504, ante.

§ 1184. How double, treble, or increased damages, found and awarded.

Where double, treble, or other increased damages are given by statute, single damages only are to be found by the jury; except in a case where the statute prescribes a different rule. The sum found must be increased by the court, and judgment rendered accordingly.

Embodies the rule in 8 Johns. 648, and 26 Wend. 420.

§ 1185. [Am'd, 1879.] When verdict to be taken, subject to the opinion of the court.

Where, upon the trial of an issue by a jury, the case presents only questions of law, the judge may direct the jury to render a verdict, subject to the opinion of the court. Notwithstanding that such a verdict has been rendered, the judge holding the trial term may, at the same term, set aside the verdict, and direct judgment to be entered for either party, with like effect and like manner, as if such a direction had been given at the trial. An exception to such a direction may be taken as prescribed in section nine hundred and ninety-four of this act.

Co. Proc., part of § 265, am'd. See § 1234, post.

§ 1186. General and special verdict defined.

A general verdict is one, by which the jury pronounces, generally, upon all or any of the issues, in favor either of the plaintiff or of the defendant. A special verdict is one, by which the jury finds the facts only, leaving the court to determine, which party is entitled to judgment thereupon.

Id., § 260.

§ 1187. [Am'd, 1895, 1904.] General or special verdict, when rendered; special finding with general verdict.

In an action to recover a sum of money only, or real property, or a chattel, the jury may render a general or special verdict, in its discretion. In any other action, except where one or more specific questions of fact, stated under the direction of the court, are tried by a jury, the court may direct the jury to find a special verdict, upon all or any of the issues. Where the jury finds a general verdict, the court may instruct it to find also specially, upon one or more questions of fact, stated in writing. The special verdict or special finding must be in writing; it must be filed with the clerk, and entered in the minutes. When a motion is made to nonsuit the plaintiffs or for the direction of a verdict, the court may, pending the decision of such motion, submit any question of fact raised by the pleadings to the jury or require the jury to assess the damage. After the jury shall have rendered a special verdict upon such submission or shall have assessed the damage, the court may then pass upon the motion to nonsuit or direct such general verdict as either party may be entitled to. On an appeal from the judgment entered upon such nonsuit or general verdict, such special verdict, or general verdict, shall form a part of the record, and the appellate division or the court of appeals may direct such judgment thereon as either party may be entitled to.

Id., last paragraph of § 261; L. 1895, ch. 946; L. 1904, ch. 131. In effect March 28, 1904.

§ 1188. Special finding controls general verdict.

Where a special finding is inconsistent with a general verdict, the former controls the latter, and the court must render judgment accordingly.

Id., § 262.

§ 1189. [Am'd, 1877.] Entry of verdict; subsequent proceedings.

When the jury renders a verdict, or finds upon one or more specific questions of fact, stated under the direction of the court, the clerk must make an entry, in his minutes, specifying the time and place of the trial; the names of the jurors and witnesses; the verdict, or the questions and findings thereupon, as the case requires; and the direction, if any, which the court gives, with respect to the subsequent proceedings. Upon the application of the party in whose favor a general verdict is rendered, the clerk must enter judgment, in conformity to the verdict, unless a different direction is given by the court, or it is otherwise specially prescribed by law.

Co. Proc., part of § 264.

TITLE VI.

Miscellaneous provisions; including those relating to embracery, and other acts of.

Sec. 1190. Trials by jury to be as herein provided.

1191. Venire not necessary.

1192. Jurors not to be questioned for their verdict.

1193. Penalty where juror takes gift, etc.

1194. Embracery; penalty therefor.

1195. Penalty for juror's non-attendance in special proceeding.

1196. Sheriff, etc., to keep jury in special proceeding; penalty.

1197. Notice of imposition of fine.

1198. Special return of delinquency and fine to county court.

1199. Collection or remission of fine.

§ 1190. [Am'd, 1907, 1909.] Trials by jury to be as herein provided.

A trial by a jury, of an issue of fact, joined in a civil action, in a court of record, must be had, as prescribed in this chapter; except in a case where it is otherwise specially prescribed by law. The court may, upon the application of either party, exclude from the court-room the jurors sitting in an action during the argument of a motion for non-suit, dismissal of the complaint or direction of a verdict.

Judgments.

TITLE I.—Judgment in an Action.

TITLE II.—Judgments Taken Without Process.

TITLE III.—Vacating or Setting Aside a Judgment, for Irregularity or Error in Fact.

TITLE I.

Judgment in an action.

Article 1. General provisions.

2. Mode of taking, entering, and enforcing a judgment.

3. Docketing a judgment; effect thereof, as a lien upon real property; suspending and discharging the lien; satisfaction and assignment of a judgment.

ARTICLE FIRST.

General provisions.

Sec. 1200. Definition of judgment.

1201. [Repealed.]

1202. When judgment may be entered.

1203. Application for judgment.

1204. Judgment may be for or against any of the parties.

1205. When a several judgment may be taken.

1206. Judgment for or against a married woman.

1207. When judgment for plaintiff not to exceed judgment demanded.

1208. Rate of damages.

1209. Effect of judgment dismissing the complaint.

1210. Judgment against a dead person.

1211. Judgment to bear interest.

§ 1200. [Am'd, 1877.] Definition of judgment.

A judgment is either interlocutory or the final determination of the rights of the parties in the action.

Co. Proc., § 245. am'd.

§ 1201. [Repealed, 1877.]

§ 1202. When judgment may be entered.

Judgment may be entered in term or vacation.

L. 1840, ch. 386, § 23 (4 Edm. 691).

§ 1203. [Am'd, 1900.] Application for judgment.

Judgment must be entered, in the first instance, pursuant to the direction of the court, at a term held by one judge; except where special provision is otherwise made by law. If notice of an application for judgment is not required, and an order for judgment is made by a judge out of court, the judgment may be entered with the same force and effect as if granted in court.

Substitute for Co. Proc., § 278. L. 1900, ch. 147. In effect Sept. 1, 1900.

§ 1204. Judgment may be for or against any of the parties.

Judgment may be given for or against one or more plaintiffs, and for or against one or more defendants. It may determine the ultimate rights of the parties on the same side, as between themselves; and it may grant, to a defendant, any affirmative relief, to which he is entitled.

Co. Proc., first sentence of § 274. See §§ 454 and 456, ante.

§ 1205. When a several judgment may be taken.

Where the action is against two or more defendants, and a several judgment is proper, the court may, in its discretion, render judgment, or require the plaintiff to take judgment, against one or more of the defendants; and direct that the action be severed, and proceed against the others, as the only defendants therein.

Id., second sentence of § 274, am'd.

§ 1206. [Repealed by L. 1909, ch. 19. See Consolidated Laws, tit. Domestic Relations Law, § 51.]

§ 1207. When judgment for plaintiff not to exceed judgment demanded.

Where there is no answer, the judgment shall not be more favorable to the plaintiff, than that demanded in the complaint. Where there is an answer, the court may permit the plaintiff to take any judgment, consistent with the case made by the complaint, and embraced within the issue.

Co. Proc., § 275.

§ 1208. Rate of damages.

Where either party is entitled to recover damages, he may recover any rate of damages, which he might have heretofore recovered, for the same cause of action.

Id. § 276, am'd.

§ 1209. [Am'd, 1877.] Effect of judgment dismissing the complaint.

A final judgment, dismissing the complaint, either before or after a trial, rendered in an action hereafter commenced, does not prevent a new action for the same cause of action, unless it expressly declares, or it appears by the judgment-roll, that it is rendered upon the merits. (See §§ 1525, 1646.)

§ 1210. Judgment against a dead person.

Where a judgment for a sum of money, or directing the payment of money, is entered against a party, after his death, in a case where it may be so taken, by special provision of law, a memorandum of the party's death must be entered, with the judgment, in the judgment-book, indorsed on the judgment-roll, and noted on the margin of the docket of the judgment. Such a judgment does not become a lien upon the real property, or chattels real, of the decedent; but it establishes a debt, to be paid in the course of administration.

2 B. C. 359, § 7 (2 Edm. 372), with amendments.

§ 1211. Judgment to bear interest.

A judgment for a sum of money, rendered in a court of record, or not of record, or a judgment rendered in a court of record, directing the payment of money, bears interest from the time when it is entered. But where a judgment directs that money paid out shall be refunded or repaid, the direction includes interest from the time when the money was paid, unless the contrary is expressed.

From L. 1844, ch. 324, § 1 (4 Edm. 628), as am'd by L. 1869, ch. 807, § 1 (7 Edm. 477).

 1239. Time of filing judgment-roll to be noted.
 1240. When a judgment may be enforced by execution.
 1241. When a judgment may be enforced by punishment for disobeying it.
 1242. Real property; how sold. Effect of conveyance.
 1243. Security upon sale by referee.
 1244. Conveyance to state name of party.

§ 1212. [Am'd, 1879.] Judgment by default in certain actions on contract; how taken.

In an action specified in section four hundred and twenty of this act, where the summons was personally served upon the defendant, and the copy of the complaint, or a notice stating the sum of money for which judgment will be taken, was served with the summons, or where the defendant has appeared, but has made default in pleading, the plaintiff may take judgment by default, as follows:

1. If the defendant has made default in appearing, the plaintiff must file proof of the service of the summons, and of a copy of the complaint or the notice; and also proof, by affidavit, that the defendant has not appeared. Whereupon the clerk must enter final judgment in his favor.

2. If the defendant had seasonably appeared, but has made default in pleading, the plaintiff must file proof of the service of the summons and of the appearance or of the appearance only; and also proof, by affidavit, of the default. Whereupon, the clerk must enter final judgment in his favor.

If the defendant has made default in appearing or pleading, and the case is not one where the clerk can enter final judgment, as prescribed in either of the foregoing subdivisions of this section, the plaintiff must apply to the court for judgment, as prescribed in section 1214 of this act.

Substituted for Co. Proc., § 246, part of subd. 1.

§ 1213. Amount of judgment in such cases; how determined.

Where final judgment may be entered by the clerk, as prescribed in the last section, the amount thereof must be determined as follows:

1. If the complaint is verified, the judgment must be entered for the sum, for which the complaint demands judgment; or, at the plaintiff's option, for a smaller sum; and if a computation of interest is necessary, it may be made by the clerk.

2. If the complaint is not verified, the clerk must assess the amount due to the plaintiff, by computing the sum due upon an instrument for the payment of money only, the non-payment of which constitutes a cause of action, stated in the complaint; and by ascertaining, by the examination of the plaintiff, upon oath, or by other competent proof, the amount due to him for any other cause of action stated in the complaint. If an instrument, specified in this subdivision, has been lost, so that it cannot be produced to the clerk, he must take proof of its loss and of its contents. Either party may require the clerk to reduce to writing and file the assessment, and the oral proof, if any, taken thereupon.

Id.

§ 1214. [Am'd, 1877, 1900.] Application to court for judgment by default; when necessary.

Where the summons was personally served upon the defendant, within the State, and he has made default in appearing, or where the defendant has appeared, but has made default in pleading; and the case is not one where the clerk can enter final judgment, as prescribed in the last two sections, the plaintiff may apply to the court, or to a judge or justice thereof out of court, for judgment. Upon the application he must file, if the default was in appearing, proof of service of the summons; or, if the default was in pleading, proof of appearance, and also, a copy of the complaint was demanded, proof of service thereof, upon the defendant's attorney; and in either case, proof of affidavit, of the default which entitles him to judgment. If one or more of the defendants have appeared, and one or more defendants have failed to appear, then the application for judgment must be made to the court, unless the defendants who have appeared consent to the making of such application to a judge or justice out of court.

Substituted for the first sentence of Co. Proc., § 246, subd. 2; L. 1900, ch.

In effect Sept. 1, 1900. See Rule 26.

215. [Am'd, 1877, 1901.] Proceedings on such an application.

The court, or a judge or justice thereof, must thereupon render judgment to which the plaintiff is entitled. It, or they, may, with or without a jury, or with a jury if one is present in court, make a statement or assessment, or take an account, or proof of a fact, for the purpose of enabling it, or them, to render the judgment, and carry it into effect; or it, or they, may in its, or their, discretion, direct a reference, or a writ of inquiry, for either purpose, except that where the action is brought to recover damages for a personal injury or an injury to property, the damages must be ascertained by means of a writ of inquiry. Where a reference or writ of inquiry is directed, the court, or a judge or justice thereof, may direct that the report or inquisition be returned to the court, or a judge or justice thereof, for its, or their, further action; or it, or they, may in its, or their, discretion, except where special provision is otherwise made by law, omit that direction; in which case final judgment may be entered by the clerk, in accordance with the report of the referee, or for the damages ascertained by the inquisition, without any further application.

Co. Proc., § 246, second and third sentences of subd. 2, am'd. See § 1220; L. 1901, ch. 511. In effect April 24, 1901.

§ 1216. [Am'd, 1895, 1901.] Application for judgment in case of service by publication, etc.

Where the summons was served upon the defendant without the state, or otherwise than personally, if the defendant does not demand a copy of the complaint, or plead, as the case requires, within twenty days after the service is complete, the plaintiff may apply to the court, or a judge or justice thereof, for the judgment demanded in the complaint. Upon such an application, he must file proof that the service is complete, and proof, by affidavit, of the defendant's default. The court, or a judge or justice thereof, must require proof of the cause of action, set forth in the complaint to be made, either before such court, or such judge or justice, or before a referee appointed for that purpose; except that where the action is brought to recover damages for a personal injury, or an injury to property, the damages must be ascertained by means of a writ of inquiry as prescribed in the last section. If the defendant is an* non-resident, or a foreign corporation, the court, or a judge or justice to whom such application is made, must require the plaintiff, or his agent or attorney, to be examined on oath, respecting any payments to the plaintiff, or to any one for his use, on account of his demand, and must render the judgment to which the plaintiff is entitled. But before rendering judgment, the court, or a judge or justice thereof, to whom the application is made, may, in any case, in its, or their, discretion, require the plaintiff to file an undertaking, to abide the order of the court touching the restitution of any estate or effects which may be directed by the judgment to be transferred or delivered, or the restitution of any money that may be collected under or by virtue of the judgment, in case the defendant or his representative applies and is admitted to defend the action, and succeeds in his defense.

L. 1895, ch. 582; L. 1901, ch. 511. In effect April 24, 1901.

§ 1217. Attachment and undertaking for restitution, required in certain actions.

A judgment shall not be rendered for a sum of money only, upon an application made pursuant to the last section, except in an action specified in section 635 of this act. Where the defendant is a non-resident, or a foreign corporation, and has not appeared, the plaintiff, upon the application for judgment in such an action, must produce and file the following papers:

1. Proof, by affidavit, that a warrant of attachment, granted in the action, has been levied upon property of the defendant.
2. A description of the property, so attached, verified by affidavit; with a statement of the value thereof, according to the inventory.

3. The undertaking mentioned in section 1216, if one has been required.

From Rule 34, and Co. Proc., § 246, part of subd. 3, am'd.

§ 1218. [Am'd, 1879.] When judgment cannot be taken against an infant defendant.

A judgment by default shall not be taken against an infant defendant, until twenty days have expired, since the appointment of a guardian ad litem for him.

See Co. Proc., § 115, and ante, § 471. See § 1858, post.

§ 1219. When a defendant in default is entitled to notice.

A defendant, against whom judgment is taken, pursuant to the foregoing sections of this article, is entitled to notice, as follows:

1. [Am'd, 1879.] If he has appeared generally but has made default in pleading, he is entitled to at least five days' notice of the time and place of an assessment by the clerk, and to at least eight days' notice of the time and place of an application to the court for judgment.

2. In a case where an application for judgment must be made to the court, the defendant may serve upon the plaintiff's attorney, at any time before the application for judgment, a written demand of notice of the execution of any reference, or writ of inquiry, which may be granted upon the application. Such a demand is not an appearance in the action. It must be subscribed by the defendant, in person, or by an attorney or agent, who must add to his signature his office address, with the particulars, prescribed in section 417 of this act, concerning the office address of the plaintiff's attorney. Thereupon at least five days' notice of the time and place of the execution of the reference, or writ of inquiry, must be given to the defendant, by service thereof upon the person, whose name is subscribed to the demand, in the manner prescribed in this act, for service of a paper upon an attorney in an action.

See Co. Proc., § 246, subds. 1 and 2.

§ 1220. When action may be severed, if issues of law and issues of fact presented.

Where an issue of law and an issue of fact arise, with respect to different causes of action, set forth in the complaint, and final judgment can be taken, with respect to one or more of the causes of action, without prejudice to either party in maintaining the action, or a defence or counterclaim, with respect to the other causes of action, or in the recovery of final judgment upon the whole issue, the court may, in its discretion, and at any stage of the action, direct that the action be divided into two or more issues, as the case requires.

1221. [Am'd, 1877.] Judgment how taken, after trial of issues of law and issues of fact, in the same action.

Where one or more issues of law, and one or more issues of fact arise in the same action, and all the issues have been tried, judgment upon the whole issue must be taken, as follows:

Where an application must be made to the court for judgment upon the issue last tried, the application must be for judgment upon the whole issue; and judgment must be rendered accordingly.

Where the action is triable by a jury, and the issue last tried is tried at a term of the court, the application for judgment upon the whole issue, may be entertained, in the discretion of the court, at that term and with or without notice; if not so ordered, it must be heard as a motion.

3. Where the issue last tried is tried before a referee, his report must award the proper judgment upon the whole issue, unless otherwise prescribed in the order of reference.

§ 1222. [Am'd, 1879.] Final judgment, how taken after issue of law only.

Final judgment upon an issue of law, where no issue of fact remains to be tried, and final judgment has not been directed as prescribed in section ten hundred and twenty-one of this act, may be entered upon application to the court or by the clerk in an action specified in section four hundred and twenty of this act.

Co. Proc., part of § 269, am'd.

§ 1223. [Am'd, 1877.] Proceedings upon application under the last two sections.

Upon an application, by either party, to the court, for final judgment, after the decision of an issue of law, as prescribed in the last two sections, the court has the powers specified in section 1215 of this act, upon an application for judgment by the plaintiff. Where final judgment may be awarded in a referee's report, as prescribed in section twelve hundred and twenty-one of this act, the referee may make a computation, or an assessment, or take an account, or proof of a fact, for the purpose of enabling him to award the proper judgment, or enabling the court to carry it into effect; and he may ascertain and fix the damages, as a jury may do, upon the execution of a writ of inquiry.

Id.

§ 1224. [Am'd, 1895.] Id.; upon interlocutory judgment, etc., affirmed at a term of the appellate division of the supreme court.

When an order or judgment is wholly or partly affirmed upon an appeal to the appellate division of the supreme court, and no issue of fact remains to be tried, the appellate division may, in its discretion, render final judgment, unless it permits the appellant to amend or plead over.

§ 193, ch. 946.

§ 1225. Judgment after trial by jury of specific questions of fact.

In an action triable by the court, where one or more specific questions of fact, arising upon the issues, have been tried by a jury, judgment may be taken, upon the application of either party, as follows:

1. If all the issues of fact in the action are determined by the findings of the jury, or the remaining issues of fact have been determined by the decision of the court, or the report of a referee, an application for judgment, upon the whole issue, may be made as upon a motion.

2. If one or more issues of fact remain to be tried, judgment may be rendered upon the whole issue, at the term of the court where, or by direction of the referee by whom they are tried.

See §§ 970-972, ante.

§ 1226. Id.; after reference to determine specific questions of fact.

Where a reference has been made, to report upon one or more specific questions of fact, arising upon the issue, and the remaining issues have been tried, judgment must be taken, upon the application of either party, as prescribed in section 1221 of this act.

Co. Proc., part of § 77, am'd. See §§ 972 and 1221, ante.

§ 1227. [Am'd, 1895.] Id.; upon motion for new trial, heard by the appellate division of the supreme court.

Where a motion for a new trial, made at the first instance at a term of the appellate division of the supreme court, is denied, judgment may be taken, as if the motion for a new trial had not been made, after the expiration of four days from the entry of the order, and the service, upon the attorney for the adverse party, of a copy thereof, and notice of the entry; but not before.

L. 1895, ch. 94e.

§ 1228. [Am'd, 1879.] Id.; upon trial by court or referee of the whole issue of fact.

Where the whole issue is an issue of fact, which was tried by a referee, the report stands as a decision of the court. Except where it is otherwise expressly prescribed by law, judgment upon such a report, or upon the decision of the court, upon the trial of the whole issue of fact without a jury, may be entered by the clerk, as directed therein, upon filing the decision or report.

Co. Proc., parts of §§ 267 and 272, am'd.

§ 1229. In matrimonial causes, judgment can be rendered only by the court.

In an action to annul a marriage, or for a divorce or separation, judgment cannot be taken, of course, upon a referee's report, as prescribed in the last section, or where the reference was made, as prescribed in section 1215 of this act. Where a reference is made in such an action, the testimony, and the other proceedings upon the reference, must be certified to the court, by the referee, with his report; and judgment must be rendered by the court.

1230. [Am'd, 1877.] Final judgment upon decision or report awarding interlocutory judgment, etc.

In a case, not provided for in the foregoing sections of this title, where the decision, upon a trial by the court, without a jury, or the report, upon the trial by a referee, directs an interlocutory judgment to be entered, and the party afterwards becomes entitled to a final judgment, an application for the latter may be made, as upon a motion. And where a judgment requires appointment of a referee, to do any act thereunder, the referee must be appointed by the judgment, or by the court, upon motion, except as otherwise prescribed in the next section.

1231. Id.; how final judgment entered and settled in such cases.

In an action triable by the court, an interlocutory judgment, entered upon a default in appearing or pleading, or pursuant to a motion contained in a decision or report, may state the substance of the final judgment, to which the party will be entitled. It may also direct, that the final judgment be settled by a judge, or referee. In that case, final judgment shall not be entered, until the settlement thereof, subscribed by the judge or referee, is filed. Where an interlocutory judgment awards costs, they may be awarded generally, without specifying the amount thereof.

Where the final judgment is directed to be settled, and the costs have not been taxed when the settlement thereof is filed, a blank for the amount of the costs must be left in the settlement; and the costs must be taxed, and the blank filled up accordingly, by the clerk, when the final judgment is entered.

§ 1232. Interlocutory reference or inquisition; how reviewed.

Where a reference, or writ of inquiry, directed as prescribed in section 1015, or section 1215 of this act, has been executed, either party may apply for an order, directing a new hearing, or a new writ of inquiry, upon proof, by affidavit, that error was committed, to his prejudice, upon the hearing, or in the report, or upon the execution of the writ, or in the inquisition. In a proper case, the application may be granted, after judgment has been entered. In that case, the judgment may be set aside, either then or after the new hearing, or the execution of the new writ, as justice requires.

§ 1233. Motion for judgment upon a special verdict, etc.

A motion for judgment, upon a special verdict, may be made by either party; and must, in the first instance, be heard and decided, at a term held by one judge.

Co. Proc., part of § 265. See § 1189, ante.

§ 1234. [Am'd, 1895.] Id.; upon verdict subject to opinion of court.

A motion for judgment, upon a verdict subject to the opinion of the court, may be made by either party; and must be heard and decided at a term of the appellate division of the supreme court.

Id. See § 1185, ante. L. 1895, ch. 946.

§ 1235. Interest on verdict, etc., to be included in recovery.

Where final judgment is rendered for a sum of money, awarded by a verdict, report, or decision, interest upon the sum awarded, from the time when the verdict was rendered, or the report or decision was made, to the time of entering judgment, must be computed by the clerk, added to the sum awarded, and included in the amount of the judgment.

Id., § 310, am'd

§ 1236. [Am'd, 1897.] Entry of judgment.

Every interlocutory judgment or final judgment shall be signed by the clerk and filed in his office, and such signing and filing shall constitute the entry of the judgment. The clerk shall, in addition to the docket-books required to be kept by law, keep a book, styled the "judgment-book," in which he shall record all judgments entered in his office.

L. 1897, ch. 188. In effect April 6, 1897. See L. 1897, ch. 187.

§ 1237. [Am'd, 1877, 1879, 1913.] Judgment-roll to be filed; of what it consists.

The clerk, upon entering final judgment, must immediately file the judgment-roll, which must consist, except where special provision is otherwise made by law, of the following papers: the summons; the pleadings, or copies thereof; the final judgment, and the interlocutory judgment, if any, or copies thereof; and each paper on file, or a copy thereof, and a copy of each order, which in any way involves the merits, or necessarily affects the judgment. If judgment is taken by default, the judgment-roll must also contain the papers required to be filed, upon so taking judgment, or upon making application therefor; together with any report, decision or writ of inquiry, and return thereto. If judgment is taken after a trial, the judgment-roll must contain the verdict, report, or decision; each offer, if any, made as prescribed in this act, and the exceptions or case then on file.

Upon an appeal to the court of appeals from a judgment or order of the appellate division of the supreme court, the opinion of the appellate division, if any, shall, for the purposes of the appeal, be deemed to be a part of the judgment-roll or appeal papers.

Co. Proc., § 281, subd. 1 and 2, am'd. Am'd by L. 1877, ch. 416; L. 1879, ch. 542; L. 1913, ch. 545. In effect Sept. 1, 1913. See § 1717.

§ 1238. Id.: by whom prepared.

The judgment-roll must be prepared, and furnished to the clerk, by the attorney, for the party, at whose instance the final judgment is entered; except that the clerk must attach thereto the necessary original papers, on file. But the clerk may, at his option, make up the entire judgment-roll.

Substitute for Introductory part of Co. Proc., § 281.

§ 1239. Time of filing judgment-roll to be noted.

The clerk must make a minute, upon the back of each judgment-roll, filed in his office, of the time of filing it, specifying the year, month, day, hour, and minute. A proceeding to enforce or collect a final judgment, cannot be taken, until the judgment-roll is filed.

2 R. S. 360, § 11, am'd.

§ 1240. When a judgment may be enforced by execution

In either of the following cases, a final judgment may be enforced by execution:

1. Where it is for a sum of money, in favor of either party; or directs the payment of a sum of money.

2. Where it is in favor of the plaintiff, in an action of ejectment, or for dower.

3. In an action to recover a chattel, where it awards a chattel to either party.

Substitute for Co. Proc., part of § 285. See § 1364, post.

§ 1241. When a judgment may be enforced by punishment for disobeying it.

In either of the following cases, a judgment may be enforced, by serving a certified copy thereof, upon the party against whom it is rendered, or the officer or person, who is required thereby, or by law, to obey it; and, if he refuses or wilfully neglects to obey it, by punishing him for a contempt of the court:

1. Where the judgment is final, and cannot be enforced by execution, as prescribed in the last section.

2. Where the judgment is final, and part of it cannot be enforced by execution, as prescribed in the last section; in which case, the part or parts, which cannot be so enforced, may be enforced as prescribed in this section.

3. Where the judgment is interlocutory, and requires a party to do, or to refrain from doing, an act, except in a case specified in the next subdivision.

4. Where the judgment requires the payment of money into court, or to an officer of the court; except where the money is due upon a contract, express or implied, or as damages for non-performance of a contract. In a case specified in this subdivision, if the judgment is final, it may be enforced, as prescribed in this section, either simultaneously with, or before or after the issuing of an execution thereupon, as the court directs.

Substitute for Co. Proc., part of § 255. See § 2555, post.

§ 1242. [Am'd, 1877, 1902, 1911.] Real property; how sold; effect of conveyance.

Except where special provision is otherwise made by law, real property adjudged to be sold, must be sold in the county and borough where it is situated, by the sheriff of the county or by a referee, appointed by the court for that purpose, who must execute a conveyance to the purchaser. If such real property is situated partly in one county or borough and partly in another and is so circumstanced that a sale of the whole will be most beneficial to the parties, the court rendering judgment may direct in which county and borough the whole of such real property shall be sold. The conveyance is effectual, to pass the right, title or interest of a party adjudged to be sold; but nothing contained in this section shall be deemed to repeal or modify the provisions of any law specially regulating the sale of real property under a judgment or decree of any court, in any particular county of the state.

Co. Proc., last sentence but one, of § 287; L. 1902, ch. 138; L. 1911, ch. 180, in effect Sept. 1, 1911.

§ 1243. [Am'd, 1877.] Security upon sale by referee.

Where a referee is appointed by the court, to sell real property, the court may provide for his giving such security, as the court deems just, for the proper application of the money received upon the sale; or for the payment thereof by the purchaser, directly to the person or persons entitled thereto, or their attorneys.

§ 1244. [Am'd, 1879.] Conveyance to state name of party.

A conveyance of property, sold by virtue of an execution, or sold pursuant to a judgment, which specifies the particular party or parties, whose right, title or interest is directed to be sold, must distinctly state, in the granting clause thereof, whose right, title, or interest was sold, and is conveyed, without naming, in that clause, any of the other parties to the action; otherwise, the purchaser is not bound to accept the conveyance, and the officer executing it is liable for the damages, which the purchaser sustains by the omission, whether he accepts or refuses to accept it.

§ 1245. [Am'd, 1895, 1911, 1912.] Certain clerks to keep docket books.

Each county clerk, and the clerk of the city court of the city of New York, must keep one or more books, ruled in columns, convenient for making the entries prescribed in section twelve hundred and forty-six; in which he must docket, in its regular order and according to its priority, each judgment, which he is required by this article to docket. The expense of procuring new books when necessary is a county charge. The judgment dockets kept by the county clerk of New York county must hereafter be kept in two separate sets of books, one set to be designated and used for judgment debtors that are individuals, including all individual members of a copartnership or of a firm doing business under a firm name or style as stated in the title of the action, and the other set to be designated and used for judgment debtors that are corporations, a joint stock company, a copartnership or a firm name or style under which a person or persons are doing business; and each set of such judgment dockets must have a separate volume or volumes for each letter of the alphabet, and each judgment docket book shall have its letter, and the year or years of its entries plainly marked on its back and cover and on every page. A judgment docket for judgment debtors that are individuals shall contain the names of those judgment debtors whose last name begins with the letter marked on the back of the volume. Each volume shall also have a marginal page index showing each letter of the alphabet in order. And a page of such judgment docket for judgment debtors that are individuals shall contain the names of those judgment debtors whose first name begins with the letter or whose first initial is the letter marked on the marginal index for that page; except that there shall be at the back of each of such volumes blank pages not indexed which shall contain the names of those judgment debtors whose first names or initials are stated in the title of the action to be unknown or fictitious. And a judgment docket for those judgment debtors that are corporations, a joint stock company, a copartnership or a firm name or style under which a person or persons are doing business shall contain the names of those judgment debtors the first letter or initial of whose name as it appears, following the prefixed articles "A," "An," or "The," is the letter marked on the page and on the back of the book. And there must be prepared and kept two separate sets of volumes for judgment dockets, designated, lettered, indexed and marked as hereinbefore provided in which there shall be entered in the same manner as hereinbefore directed to be entered, in their regular order and according to their priority and as soon as it may be practicable to have it done, the names of judgment debtors against whom judgments have been docketed within ten years of the time of the making of the entry in such volumes. And the county clerk of New York county shall prepare and keep a card index, supplemental to the judgment docket books hereinbefore provided for, wherein he shall enter and arrange in alphabetical order the names of all judgment debtors hereinbefore directed to be docketed. And with every entry of a judgment in an action begun on or after September first, nineteen hundred and eleven, there shall be entered as a part of such entry the number of the action and the year in which it was begun.

§ 1245a. [Added, 1911; am'd, 1912, 1915.] Current docket books.

The county clerk of New York county and the county clerk of Bronx county must keep books to be known as current docket books. Each half page of space in each book shall be consecutively numbered in a series of consecutive numbers for each year and shall be devoted to one action. On a half page so numbered the clerk shall enter the title of the action having the same consecutive number for that year, with the names of the plaintiffs and defendants and attorneys in full, and in chronological order a brief description of each paper as it is filed, together with the date of filing thereof, also the verdict, report or decision, if any, rendered in the action as of the date of the rendering thereof, also all orders and judgments in the action. All interlocutory and provisional proceedings, and proceedings supplementary to execution, shall be entered on the same half page of the docket as the action out of which they arise, except in actions where the entries are so voluminous as to require one or more additional half pages of space; in which case the entries shall be continued under the same number upon other pages of that or a subsequent docket book, reference thereto being entered at the end of the first and all additional half pages, and the clerk upon entering the description of a paper filed in an action shall enter upon its front page and opposite the title caption the number of the action and the filing date and number of entry of the paper. There shall be kept an alphabetical index of all the actions entered in such current docket books during any year, which index shall consist of two sets of separate volumes, one set to be designated and used for indexing actions wherein the plaintiff or plaintiffs are individuals, including all individual members of a copartnership or of a firm doing business under a firm name or style as stated in the title of the action, and the other set to be designated and used for indexing actions wherein the plaintiff or plaintiffs are corporations, a joint stock company, a copartnership or a firm name or style under which a person or persons are doing business. Each of such sets of index books shall have a separate volume or volumes for each letter of the alphabet, and the volumes designated and used for indexing actions wherein the plaintiff or plaintiffs are individuals shall have a marginal page index showing each letter of the alphabet in order, and shall have the designation of its set of books, its letter and the year or years of its entries plainly marked on its back and cover and on every page. And all such actions shall be indexed in such index volume, according to all the plaintiffs of each title, in the same manner as it is provided in section twelve hundred and forty-five that judgment debtors shall be docketed in the judgment docket books, and in every case the serial number of the action shall be entered opposite the name indexed. Within three days after a summons, writ or other original process is served in an action in the supreme court, New York county, or in an action in the supreme court, Bronx county, or in an action in the county court, Bronx county, the attorney or party causing the same to be served shall file said process with proof of service in the office of the clerk who has custody of the records of the court in which the action is brought. The said clerk shall, upon receipt thereof, stamp the same upon its front page with a certain number to be one of the series for that year, and enter in the current docket book, on the half page bearing the same number, the names of the parties as they appear on said process, and the name and address of the attorney who issued the same. And the attorney or party causing such summons, writ or original process to be served shall, upon demand, give to the party so served, or to the attorney of such party, the number so stamped by the clerk, stamped or indorsed upon a paper with the title of the action, and the name and address of the attorney or party who made or caused the service to be made. All papers in the action shall bear the same number and year as the summons, writ or other original process, which number shall constitute a part of the title of such action. All original papers in the action, with proof or admission of their service, not later than the day after their service, shall be filed with or mailed to the clerk who stamped the number on the summons, writ or other original process. All papers to be hereafter filed with the clerk of New York county, or with the clerk of Bronx county must be flat and filed flat. The word "action" as used in this section shall mean "action or special proceeding." Whenever a paper pertaining to any action begun prior to the passage of this act is filed in the office of the clerk who has custody of the records of the court in which the action is pending the clerk shall upon receipt of such paper stamp the same upon the front page with a certain number, to be one of a series of consecutive numbers for the year in which said action was brought, and shall enter in a current docket book prepared for that year the names of the parties to the action and the name and address of the attorney who filed the paper, in the same manner as if such paper were the original summons, writ or other process in such action; and the clerk shall as soon as practicable thereafter stamp or indorse that number upon every paper in that action theretofore filed in his office and shall enter such papers, as they are so numbered, in such docket book in the same manner as if such docketing had been begun with the first paper in such action. And all such entries in such docket books of actions begun prior to the passage of this act shall be indexed in separate volumes for each letter of the alphabet, and for corporations, a joint stock company, a copartnership or a person or persons doing business under a firm name or style, as hereinbefore provided, in the same manner as actions begun after the passage of this act are hereinbefore directed to be indexed. Whenever an action is transferred to another court, or the place of trial changed, the clerk to whom the papers in such action are delivered shall enter in the current docket book in which he makes entries copies of all entries theretofore made in said action, and shall continue to make subsequent entries therein in the same manner as if the process had originally been filed with him. All papers numbered and docketed as herein directed shall be filed together; and on the entry of final judgment in any action all the papers in that action shall be arranged in the order of the dates on which they were filed and shall be fastened or bound together flat with the judgment-roll and so filed. The county clerk of New York county shall appoint, subject to the rules of the state civil service commission, such subordinates as may be necessary for the work required to be done in his office under the provisions of this act, and shall designate the positions and fix the compensation of such subordinates, subject to the approval of the board of estimate and apportionment of the city of New York; and the comptroller of the city of New York shall issue and sell certificates of indebtedness to an amount sufficient to provide for the payment of the salaries of such subordinates during the year nineteen hundred and twelve, which shall be a charge against the county of New York, and an amount sufficient to pay and discharge the certificates so issued shall be included in the budget made by said board of estimate and apportionment for the year nineteen hundred and thirteen.

Added by L. 1911, ch. 290; am'd by L. 1912, ch. 344; L. 1915, ch. 567, in effect May 10, 1915.

§ 1246. Id.; to docket judgments.

Each clerk, specified in the last section, must, when he files a judgment-roll, upon a judgment, rendered in a court of which he is clerk, docket the judgment, by entering, in the proper docket-book, the following particulars, under the initial letter of the surname of the judgment debtor, in its alphabetical order:

1. The name, at length, of the judgment debtor; and also his residence, title, and trade or profession, if any of them are stated in the judgment.

2. The name of the party, in whose favor the judgment was rendered.

3. The sum, recovered or directed to be paid, in figures.

4. The day, hour, and minute, when the judgment-roll was filed.

5. The day, hour, and minute, when the judgment was docketed in his office.

6. The court in which the judgment was rendered, and, if it was rendered in the supreme court, the county where the judgment-roll is filed.

7. The name of the attorney for the party recovering the judgment.

If there are two or more judgment debtors, those entries must be repeated, under the initial letter of the surname of each.

2 R. S. 861, § 13 (2 Edm. 873), remodelled and am'd.

§ 1247. Filing transcripts, and docketing judgments thereon.

A clerk, with whom a judgment-roll is filed, upon a judgment docketed as prescribed in the last section, must furnish, to any person applying therefor, and paying the fees allowed by law, one or more transcripts of the docket of the judgment, attested by his signature. A county clerk to whom such a transcript is presented, must, upon payment of his fees therefor, immediately file it, and docket the judgment, as prescribed in the last section, in the appropriate docket-book, kept in his office.

L. 1840, ch. 483, § 26 (4 Edm. 692), am'd.

§ 1248. Penalty for clerk's neglect.

A clerk who omits, as soon as practicable, to docket a judgment required to be docketed, or to furnish a transcript of a judgment, so docketed in his office, as prescribed in the last two sections, forfeits, to the person aggrieved, two hundred and fifty dollars, in addition to the damages sustained by reason of the omission.

2 R. S. 362, § 20 (2 Edm. 874).

§ 1249. Dockets to be public.

A docket-book, kept by a clerk, must be kept open, during the business hours fixed by law, for search and examination by any person.

Id., § 19.

§ 1250. Judgment not to be a lien until docketed.

A judgment, required to be docketed, as prescribed in this article, neither affects real property or chattels real, nor is entitled to a preference, until the judgment-roll is filed, and the judgment docketed.

Id., § 12, am'd.

§ 1251. [Am'd, 1902, 1905.] Real property bound for ten years by a judgment thus docketed; judgments against persons sued by a fictitious name.

Except as otherwise specially prescribed by law, and except also as in this section below provided, a judgment, hereafter rendered, which is docketed in a county clerk's office, as prescribed in this article, binds, and is a charge upon, for ten years after filing the judgment roll, and no longer, the real property and chattels real, in that county, which the judgment debtor has at the time of so docketing it, or which he acquires at any time afterwards, and within the ten years. Provided however that no judgment shall be a charge upon or bind the real property of any person unless and until he be designated by his name in a docket of such judgment in the office of the clerk in the county where such property is. Upon such notice to a judgment debtor as the court may direct the supreme court may order that any judgment heretofore or hereafter rendered therein against such debtor be amended so as to designate such debtor by his name and that the clerk of the county in which the judgment roll is filed redocket such judgment as so amended; and from the time of such redocket during the remainder of ten years from the filing of the judgment roll, such judgment shall bind and be a charge upon the real property and chattels real in that county which such judgment debtor may have at the time of such redocket or may thereafter within said ten years acquire, and a transcript of such new docket may be filed and docketed in the office of the clerk of any other county in the state in like manner and with like effect as a transcript of an original docket may be filed. Upon such notice to a judgment debtor as the court may direct any court other than the supreme court may order that, any judgment heretofore or hereafter rendered therein against such debtor and any docket thereof in such court be amended so as to designate such debtor by his name, and at any time after such amendment shall have been made a transcript of the docket of such judgment as so amended may be filed and docketed in the office of the clerk of any county in this state in like manner and with like effect as a transcript of an original docket may be filed.

This and next section are substitutes for 2 R. S. 859, §§ 3 and 4; L. 1840, ch. 286, § 25; and Co. Proc., part of § 282; L. 1902, ch. 318; L. 1905, ch. 432. In effect May 16, 1905.

§ 1252. Real property may be levied upon after ten years.

When ten years after filing the judgment-roll have expired, real property or a chattel real, which the judgment debtor, or real property which a person, deriving his right or title thereto, as the heir or devisee of the judgment debtor, then has, in any county, may be levied upon, by virtue of an execution against property, issued to the sheriff of that county, upon a judgment hereafter rendered, by filing, with the clerk of that county, a notice, subscribed by the sheriff, describing the judgment, the execution, and the property levied upon; and, if the interest levied upon is that of an heir or devisee, specifying that fact, and the name of the heir or devisee. The notice must be recorded and indexed by the clerk, as a notice of the pendency of an action. For that purpose, the judgment debtor, or his heir, or devisee, named in the notice, is regarded as a party to an action. The judgment binds, and becomes a charge upon, the right and title thus levied upon, of the judgment debtor, or of his heir or devisee, as the case may be, only from the time of recording and indexing the notice, and until the execution is set aside, or returned.

§ 1253. Land held under contract not bound by judgment.

The interest of a person, holding a contract for the purchase of real property, is not bound by the docketing of a judgment; and cannot be levied upon or sold, by virtue of an execution, issued upon a judgment.

1 R. S. 744, first paragraph of § 4 (1 Edm. 696). See §§ 645, 1370, 1874.

§ 1254. Preference of mortgages for purchase-money.

Where real property is sold and conveyed, and, at the same time, a mortgage thereupon is given by the purchaser, to secure the payment of the whole or a part of the purchase-money, the lien of the mortgage, upon that real property, is superior to the lien of a previous judgment against the purchaser.

1 R. S. 749, § 5 (1 Edm. 700), am'd.

§ 1255. Certain time not to be included in the ten years.

The time, during which a judgment creditor is stayed, by an injunction or other order, or by the operation of an appeal, or by express provision of law, from enforcing a judgment, is not a part of the ten years, to which the lien of a judgment is limited by this article. But this section does not extend the time of the lien, as against a purchaser, creditor, or mortgagee in good faith.

Co. Proc., second sentence of § 282, am'd.

§ 1256. Court may order lien of judgment to be suspended upon appeal.

Where an appeal from a judgment has been perfected, and an undertaking has been given, sufficient to entitle the appellant to a stay of the execution of the judgment, without an order for that purpose, the court, in which the judgment was recovered, may, in its discretion and upon such terms as justice requires, make an order, upon notice to the attorney for the respondent, and to the sureties in the undertaking, exempting from the lien of the judgment, as against judgment creditors, and purchasers and mortgagees in good faith, the real property or chattels real, upon which the judgment is a lien, or a portion thereof, specifically described in the order. If all the property, subject to the lien, is so exempted, the order must direct the clerk, in whose office the judgment-roll is filed, to make an entry, on the docket of the judgment, in each place where it appears in the docket-book, substantially as follows: "Lien suspended upon appeal. See order entered"; adding the proper date. If a portion only is exempted, the order must direct the clerk to make, in like manner, an entry, substantially as follows: "Lien partially suspended upon appeal. See order entered"; adding the proper date. The clerk must, when he files the motion papers, and enters the order, make the entry or entries in the docket-book, as required by the order.

Substitute for Co. Proc., part of § 282.

§ 1257. From what time order suspends the lien.

Where an order is made, as prescribed in the last section, by the supreme court or by a county court, it operates as a suspension of the lien upon property situated in the county, where the judgment-roll is filed, from the time when the order is entered, and the proper entry made in the docket-book. If the property exempted is situated in another county, or if the order was made by a court, other than the supreme court or a county court; the order operates as a suspension, from the time, when the proper entry is made in the docket-book, kept by the clerk of that county, as prescribed in the next section.

Id.

§ 1258. How lien suspended in any other county.

The clerk, with whom the order is entered, must, upon payment of his fees therefor, furnish to the party who obtained the order, one or more transcripts, attested by his signature, of the docket of the judgment, including the entry made upon the docket. A county clerk, in whose office the judgment is docketed, must, upon payment of his fees therefor, immediately file such a transcript; and make an entry upon the docket of the judgment, in each place where it appears in his docket-book, substantially as follows: "Lien suspended", or, "Lien partially suspended", according to the entry upon the original docket, and also, "See transcript filed"; adding the proper date.

Id.

§ 1259. When and how lien restored.

At any time after a judgment, which has ceased to be a lien, as prescribed in the last three sections, is affirmed, or the appeal therefrom is dismissed, the lien thereof may be restored, as follows:

1. The clerk, in whose office the judgment of affirmance, or the order dismissing the appeal, is entered, must, upon the request of the judgment creditor, docket the judgment anew, as it was originally docketed, but in the order of priority of the new docket; and he must write, upon the new docket, the words, "Lien restored by redocket"; adding the date of redocketing.

2. A transcript of the new docket must be furnished to a county clerk, in whose office an entry of the suspension of the lien has been made, as prescribed in the last two sections; and thereupon the judgment must be docketed by him anew, in the order of the priority of the new docket. The clerk who so redockets the judgment, must make an entry upon the new docket, substantially as follows: "Lien restored by redocket. See transcript filed"; adding the date of redocketing in his county.

The lien of the judgment is thereupon restored, for the unexpired period thereof, as if the order had not been made; but with like effect only, as against judgment creditors, purchasers, and mortgagees in good faith, as if the judgment had then been first docketed.

§ 1260. [Am'd, 1899, 1911, 1913.] Docket of judgment, now cancelled.

The docket of a judgment must be cancelled and discharged by the clerk in whose office the judgment-roll is filed, or by the clerk of any county where a transcript of said judgment shall have been docketed, upon filing with him a satisfaction-piece, describing the judgment, and executed as follows:

1. Except as otherwise prescribed in the next subdivision, the satisfaction-piece must be executed by the party in whose favor the judgment was rendered, or his executor or administrator; or, if it is made within two years after the entry of judgment, or after the entry of final judgment or order of affirmance, by the attorney of record of the party. But where the authority of the attorney has been revoked, a satisfaction by him is not conclusive, against the person entitled to enforce the judgment, in respect to a person, who had actual notice of the revocation, before a payment on the judgment was made, or a purchase of property bound thereby was effected.

2. If an assignment of the judgment, executed by the party in whose favor it was rendered, or his executor or administrator has been filed in the clerk's office the satisfaction-piece must be executed by the person, who appears, from the assignment, or from the last of the subsequent assignments, if any, so filed, showing a continuous chain of title, to be the owner of the judgment; or by his executor or administrator.

3. If the satisfaction-piece is executed by an attorney in fact, in behalf of a person authorized to execute it, other than the attorney of record, an instrument, containing a power to acknowledge the satisfaction, must be filed with the satisfaction-piece, unless it has been recorded, in the proper book for recording deeds, in that or another county; in which case, the satisfaction-piece must refer to the record, and the clerk may, for his own indemnity, require evidence of a record remaining in another office.

The execution of each satisfaction-piece or power of attorney must be acknowledged, before the clerk, or his deputy, and certified by him thereupon; or it must be acknowledged or proved, and certified, in like manner as a deed to be recorded in the county where it is filed.

4. In the absence of a satisfaction piece under any of the foregoing provisions of this section the docket of a judgment must be canceled, satisfied and discharged by the clerk in whose office the judgment-roll is filed at any time if the judgment debtor, or his legal representatives, or any other person shall deposit with such clerk a sum of money equal to the amount of the judgment, or if the docket shows a partial satisfaction thereof, the unpaid residue thereof, with interest to the time of such deposit and in addition thereto a sum equal to one per centum of said judgment or unpaid residue. There shall be delivered to such clerk with such a deposit a certificate of the sheriff of the same county dated on the day of such deposit that no execution upon the judgment is in his hands. Upon any such payment and delivery of such certificate the clerk shall enter upon the judgment docket the words "satisfied and discharged by deposit." All the provisions of section twelve hundred and sixty-seven of this act, so far as they affect, shall be applicable to this subdivision of this section, except that the clerk of a county with whom a judgment has been docketed, but with whom the judgment-roll has not been filed, before filing the transcript and canceling and discharging the docket of a judgment satisfied of record pursuant to this subdivision of this section, shall also require to be delivered to him in addition to the certificate provided for in section twelve hundred and sixty-seven of this act, a certificate of the sheriff of the same county showing that no execution is in his hands or that an execution is in his hands and that he has received payment of all fees to which he would by law be entitled if he had collected by virtue of an execution the amount of said judgment or unpaid residue thereof with interest. It shall be the duty of such sheriff to accept such fees without payment to him of the amount of the judgment or any part thereof, upon there being delivered to him a certificate of the clerk with whom the judgment-roll is filed, showing that the judgment has been satisfied of record; and it shall be the duty of any sheriff to give any and all certificates required under this subdivision of this section, upon compliance with the provisions hereof and he shall be entitled to receive fifty cents for each certificate. All deposits of money hereunder shall be considered as paid into court and shall be subject to the provisions of the code of civil procedure relative to the payment of money into court, and the surrender of such money by an order of the court. The additional one per centum to be deposited as aforesaid shall be in payment of all fees of the financial officer of the city or county with whom any money is deposited hereunder. But no provision of this subdivision shall affect the right of the judgment creditor to appeal from the judgment, or make any motion with respect thereto, nor shall any proceedings on appeal be affected by this subdivision.

2 R. S. 362, §§ 22, 23 and 24 (2 Edm. 375), and L. 1834, ch. 202, §§ 1, 2 and 3 (4 Edm. 622). Am'd by L. 1899, ch. 95; L. 1911, ch. 590; L. 1913, ch. 30. In effect Sept. 1, 1913.

§ 1261. Satisfaction-piece to be given on payment of judgment.

The person, entitled to enforce a judgment, must execute, and acknowledge before the proper officer, a satisfaction-piece thereof, at the request of the judgment debtor, or of a person interested in the property bound by the judgment, upon presentation of a satisfaction-piece, and payment of the sum due upon the judgment, and the fees allowed by law for taking the acknowledgment of a deed.

Id., § 25 (2 Edm. 375), am'd.

§ 1262. [Am'd, 1895.] Assignor must acknowledge assignment.

A person who has heretofore executed, or hereafter executes, a written assignment of a judgment, owned by him, without acknowledging the execution thereof, before an officer authorized to take the acknowledgment of a deed, must so acknowledge it, at the request of his assignee, or of a subsequent assignee thereof, or of the judgment debtor, upon presentation of the assignment, and payment of the officer's fees.

L. 1895, ch. 946.

§ 1263. Assignee who is a receiver, etc., may file notice.

A resident of the State, or a person having an office within the State, for the regular transaction of business, in person, who becomes the owner of a judgment, by virtue of a general assignment for the benefit of creditors, or of an appointment as a receiver, or trustee or assignee of an insolvent debtor or bankrupt, may file with the clerk, in whose office the judgment-roll is filed, a notice of the assignment, or of his appointment, and of his ownership of the judgment. The notice must be subscribed by him, adding to his signature his place of residence, and also, if he resides without the State, his office address. A notice so filed has the same force and effect, for the purposes of this article, as if it was an assignment of the judgment.

§ 1264. Entry in docket, upon return of execution satisfied.

Where an execution is returned, wholly or partly satisfied, the clerk must make an entry of the satisfaction, or partial satisfaction, in the docket of the judgment, upon which it was issued. Thereupon the judgment is deemed satisfied, to the extent of the amount returned as collected, unless the return is vacated by the court.

2 R. S. 362, § 26 (2 Edm. 375).

§ 1265. Id.; where execution returned unsatisfied.

Where an execution is returned wholly unsatisfied, the clerk must immediately make, in the docket of the judgment, upon which it was issued, an entry of the fact, stating the time when the execution was returned.

§ 1266. Sheriff to give copy of satisfied execution; clerk to enter satisfaction.

A sheriff, upon being paid the full amount due upon an execution in his hands, must immediately indorse thereupon a return of satisfaction thereof. He must also deliver, to the person making the payment, upon the latter's request, and payment of the fees allowed by law therefor, a certified copy of the execution, and of the return of satisfaction thereupon; which may be filed with the clerk of the same county, who must thereupon cancel and discharge the docket of the judgment, as if the judgment-roll was filed in his office, and the execution was returned to him, as satisfied. But this section does not exonerate the sheriff, from his duty to return the execution, to the clerk with whom the judgment-roll is filed.

L. 1860, ch. 6, § 1 (4 Edm. 635), am'd. See § 1366.

§ 1267. Docket; when to be discharged and cancelled.

The clerk of a county, with whom a judgment has been docketed, must cancel and discharge the docket thereof, upon the filing, with him, of a certificate of the clerk, with whom the judgment-roll is filed, showing that the judgment has been reversed, vacated, or satisfied of record; or the certificate of the clerk of the county, with whom a copy of an execution, and of a return of satisfaction thereupon, have been filed, as prescribed in the last section, showing that they have been so filed, and the docket cancelled and discharged accordingly.

L. 1860, ch. 6, § 2, and L. 1844, ch. 104, § 5 (4 Edm. 627), consolidated.

§ 1268. [Repealed by L. 1909, ch. 17. See Consolidated Laws, tit. Debtor and Creditor Law, § 150.]

§ 1269. Power of courts respecting docket.

A court of record has the same power and jurisdiction, concerning the docket of its judgments, kept by a county clerk, which it has concerning the docket, kept by its own clerk. It may direct that such a docket be amended; or that its judgment, there docketed, be docketed nunc pro tunc.

L. 1844, ch. 104, § 7 (4 Edm. 628), am'd.

§ 1270. Clerk to file and note assignment of judgment.

Upon the presentation, to the clerk of a court of record, of an assignment of a judgment, entered in his office, executed by a person entitled to satisfy the judgment, as prescribed in section 1260 of this act, and otherwise executed as prescribed in that section, with respect to a satisfaction-piece, and upon payment of the fees, allowed by law, for filing a transcript, and docketing a judgment thereupon, the clerk must forthwith file the assignment in his office, and make, upon the docket of the judgment, an entry of the fact, and of the day of filing; or, if he keeps a separate book for the entry of assignments of judgments, an entry, referring to the page of the book, where the filing of the assignment is noted.

§ 1271. [Repealed, 1879.]

§ 1272. To what judgments and executions this article applies.

This article applies only to a judgment, wholly or partly for a sum of money, or directing the payment of a sum of money; and to an execution issued upon such a judgment.

TITLE II.

Judgments taken without process.

Article 1. Confession of judgment.

2. Submission of a controversy, upon facts admitted.

ARTICLE FIRST.

Confession of judgment.

Sec. 1273. Judgment may be confessed.

1274. Statement; form thereof.

1275. Statement to be filed, and judgment entered.

1276. Judgment-roll; docketing and enforcing the judgment.

1277. Execution, where the judgment is not all due.

1278. Confession by one of several joint debtors.

§ 1273. [Am'd, 1877, 1897, 1909.] Judgment may be confessed.

A judgment by confession may be entered, without action, either for money due or to become due, or to secure a person against contingent liability in behalf of the defendant, or both, as prescribed in this article.

Co. Proc. § 382; L. 1897, ch. 38. Am'd by L. 1909, ch. 65. Also partly repealed by L. 1909, ch. 19. See Consolidated Laws, tit. Domestic Relations Law, § 51. See note 57 of notes of Board of Statutory Consolidation at end of code.

§ 1274. Statement; form thereof.

A written statement must be made, and signed by the defendant, to the following effect:

1. It must state the sum, for which judgment may be entered, and authorize the entry of judgment therefor.

2. If the judgment to be confessed is for money due or to become due, it must state concisely the facts, out of which the debt arose; and must show, that the sum confessed therefor is justly due, or to become due.

3. If the judgment to be confessed is for the purpose of securing the plaintiff, against a contingent liability, it must state concisely the facts, constituting the liability; and must show, that the sum confessed therefor does not exceed the amount of the liability.

The statement must be verified by the oath of the defendant, to the effect, that the matters of fact therein set forth are true.

Id., § 383, am'd.

§ 1275. [Am'd, 1895, 1915.] Statement to be filed, and judgment entered.

At any time within three years after the statement is verified, it may be filed with the county clerk of the county of which the defendant was a resident at the time of making such statement, or, where the sum, for which judgment is confessed, does not exceed two thousand dollars, exclusive of interest from the time of making the statement, with the clerk of the city court of the city of New York, provided, however, that the defendant at time of making such statement was a resident of the city of New York. Thereupon the clerk must enter, in like manner as a judgment is entered in an action, a judgment for the sum confessed, with costs, which he must tax, to the amount of fifteen dollars, besides disbursements taxable in an action. If the statement is filed with a county clerk, the judgment must be entered in the supreme court; if it is filed with the clerk of another court, specified in this section, the judgment must be entered in the court of which he is clerk. But a judgment shall not be entered upon such a statement, after the defendant's death.

Co. Proc., § 384, first sentence. Am'd by L. 1895, ch. 946; L. 1915, ch. 639, in effect Sept. 1, 1915.

§ 1276. [Am'd, 1879.] Judgment-roll; docketing and enforcing the judgment.

The clerk, immediately after entering the judgment, must attach together and file the statement, as verified, and a copy of the judgment; which constitute the judgment-roll. The judgment may be docketed, and enforced against property, in the same manner, and with the same effect, as a judgment in an action, rendered in the same court; and each provision of law, relating to a judgment in an action, and the proceedings subsequent thereto, apply to a judgment thus taken.

Id., § 384, second and third sentences am'd.

§ 1277. Execution where the judgment is not all due.

Where the debt, for which the judgment is rendered, is not all due, execution may be issued, upon the judgment, for the collection of the sum which has become due. The execution must be in the form prescribed by law, for an execution upon a judgment for the full amount recovered; but the person, whose name is subscribed to it, must indorse thereupon a direction to the sheriff, to collect only the sum due, stating the amount thereof, with interest thereon, and the costs of the judgment. Notwithstanding the issuing and collection of such an execution, the judgment shall remain, as security for the sum or sums to become due, after the execution is issued. When a further sum becomes due, an execution may, in like manner, be issued for the collection thereof; and successive executions may be issued, as further sums become due.

Id., remainder of § 384.

§ 1278. Confession by one of several joint debtors.

One or more joint debtors may confess a judgment for a joint debt, due or to become due. Where all the joint debtors do not unite in the confession, the judgment must be entered and enforced against those only who confessed it; and it is not a bar to an action against all the joint debtors, upon the same demand.

ARTICLE SECOND.

Submission of a controversy, upon facts admitted.

Sec. 1279. Controversy, how submitted without process.

1280. Papers to be filed; controversy thereupon becomes an action.

1281. Subsequent proceedings regulated.

§ 1279. Controversy, how submitted without process.

The parties to a question in difference, which might be the subject of an action, being of full age, may agree upon a case, containing a statement of the facts, upon which the controversy depends; and may present a written submission thereof to a court of record, which would have jurisdiction of an action, brought for the same cause. The case must be accompanied with the affidavit of one of the parties, to the effect, that the controversy is real; and that the submission is made in good faith, for the purpose of determining the rights of the parties. The submission must be acknowledged or proved, and certified, in like manner as a deed, to be recorded in the county where it is filed.

Co. Proc., part of § 372, am'd.

§ 1280. Papers to be filed; controversy thereupon becomes an action.

The case, submission, and affidavit, must be filed in the office of the clerk of the court to which the submission is made.(1) If the submission is made to the supreme court, they must be filed in the office of the county clerk, if any, specified in the submission; if no county clerk is so specified, they may be filed in the office of any county clerk. The filing is a presentation of the submission; and thenceforth the controversy becomes an action; and each provision of law, relating to a proceeding in an action, applies to the subsequent proceedings therein except as otherwise prescribed in the next action.

(1) New. Remainder is substituted for Co. Proc., § 374, and part of §§ 372 and 373.

§ 1281. [Am'd, 1895, 1899.] Subsequent proceedings regulated.

An order of arrest, a temporary injunction, or a warrant of attachment, cannot be granted in such an action; the costs thereof are always in the discretion of the court, but costs cannot be taxed, for any proceedings before notice of trial; the action must be tried by the court, upon the case alone; and the case, submission, affidavit, and a certified copy of the judgment, and of any order or paper necessarily affecting the judgment, constitute the judgment roll. If the action is in the supreme court it must be tried and judgment rendered by the appellate division thereof, and if in the city court of the city of New York, it must be tried and judgment rendered at the general term thereof. If the statement of facts contained in the case, is not sufficient to enable the court to render judgment, an order must be made dismissing the submission, without costs to either party; unless the court permits the parties, or, in a proper case their representatives, to file an additional statement, which it may do, in its discretion, without prejudice to the original statement.

§ 1281      SUBMISSION OF CONTROVERSY. c. 11, t. 2, a. 2

L. 1895, ch. 946; L. 1899, ch. 526. In effect May 5, 1899.

TITLE III.

Vacating or setting aside a judgment, for irregularity or error in fact.

Sec. 1282. Motion to set aside judgment for irregularity; when it may be heard.

1283. Motion to set aside judgment for error in fact; when it may be made by party.

1284. Id.; after a party's death.

1285. Id.; by a person not a party.

1286. Id.; when several parties are entitled to move.

1287. To whom notice of the motion must be given.

1288. Id.; when real property recovered by the judgment has been conveyed.

1289. How notice given under this title.

1290. Within what time motion to be made.

1291. Exceptions in cases of disability.

1292. Restitution; when directed.

§ 1282. Motion to set aside judgment for irregularity; when it may be heard.

A motion to set aside a final judgment, for irregularity, shall not be heard, after the expiration of one year since the filing of the judgment-roll; unless notice thereof is given for a day within the year, and either the hearing is adjourned, by one or more orders, until after the expiration of the year; or the term, for which it is thus noticed, is not held. In the latter event, the motion may be re-noticed for, and heard at, the next term at which it can be made, held not less than ten days after the day, when the first term was appointed to be held.

2 R. S. 359, § 2 (2 Edm. 371), remodelled. See § 724.

§ 1283. Motion to set aside judgment for error in fact; when it may be made by party.

A motion to set aside a final judgment, rendered in a court of record, for error in fact, not arising upon the trial, may be made by the party against whom it is rendered; or, if an execution has not been issued thereon, and the judgment has not been wholly or partly satisfied or enforced, by the party in whose favor it is rendered. (See § 1290.)

2 R. S. 501, parts of §§ 2 and 3 (2 Edm. 613), consolidated and am'd.

§ 1284. Id.; after a party's death.

A like motion may be made, after the death of a party entitled to make it, as prescribed in the last section, by the following persons:

1. Where the judgment awards a sum of money, or a chattel, or an interest in real property, which is declared by law to be assets, the motion may be made by his executor or administrator.

2. Where the judgment awards real property, or the possession thereof, or where the title to or an estate or interest in real property is determined or affected thereby, the motion may be made by the heir of the decedent, to whom the real property descended, or might have descended, or by the person to whom he devised it.

3. Where the judgment is rendered against or in favor of two or more persons, the motion may be made, jointly, by the survivor, and the person who would have been entitled to make it, if the judgment had been rendered in favor of or against the decedent only.

2 R. S. 591, § 2, subd. 2 and 3, and § 6, consolidated.

§ 1285. Id.; by a person not a party.

A motion may be made, either before or after the death of the defendant, by a person, who is not a party, to set aside, for error in fact, not arising upon the trial, a judgment, rendered in an action against a tenant for life, or for years, awarding real property, or the possession of real property, in which the person making the motion has an estate, or interest, in reversion or remainder.

Id., § 2, subd. 4, remodelled.

§ 1286. Id.; when several parties are entitled to move.

Where two or more persons are entitled to move to set aside a judgment, as prescribed in the last three sections, one or more of them may move separately; but, in that case, notice of the motion must be given to those who do not join therein, in like manner as if they were adverse parties.

Substitute for 2 R. S. 592, §§ 7-17.

§ 1287. To whom notice of the motion must be given.

Notice of a motion to set aside a final judgment, for error in fact, not arising upon the trial, must be given to the adverse party, or, in case of his death, to each person who might have moved, as against the moving party, to set aside the judgment for the same cause, as prescribed in this title.(1) Where the motion is made by the party against whom the judgment is rendered, or by his heir, devisee, executor, or administrator, service of the notice, upon the attorney of record for the party, in whose favor the judgment is rendered, has the like effect, as if it was served upon the party.(2)

(1) Id., the substance of § 19, except the last clause of subd. 3 thereof.
(2) New.

§ 1288. Id.; when real property recovered by the judgment has been conveyed.

Where the judgment awards real property, or the possession thereof, or where the title to, or an estate or interest in, real property is determined or affected thereby, and the real property, or estate or interest therein, has been conveyed, by the adverse party, more than eight days before the hearing of the motion, notice of the motion must also be given to each actual occupant of the property, claiming under the conveyance.

2 R. S. 592, remainder of § 19.

§ 1289. How notice given under this title.

Notice must be given, in a case specified in this title, by personal service of a written notice, or of an order to show cause why the motion should not be granted; or, if a person entitled to notice cannot, with due diligence, be found within the State, in any manner which the court, or a judge thereof, directs in an order to show cause, or which the court directs in a subsequent order.

§ 1290. Within what time motion to be made.

A motion to set aside a final judgment, for error in fact, not arising upon the trial, shall not be heard, except as specified in the next section, after the expiration of two years since the filing of the judgment-roll, unless notice thereof is given, for a day within the two years; and either the hearing is adjourned, by one or more orders, until after the expiration of the two years; or the term, for which it is thus noticed, is not held. In the latter event, the motion may be re-noticed for, and heard at, the next term at which it can be made, held not less than ten days after the day, when the first term was appointed to be held.

§ 1291. Exceptions in cases of disability.

If the person, against whom the judgment is rendered, is, at the time of filing the judgment-roll, either

1. Within the age of twenty-one years; or
2. Insane; or
3. Imprisoned on a criminal charge, or in execution, upon conviction of a criminal offence, for a term less than for life;

The time of such a disability is not a part of the time, limited by the last section; except that the time, within which the motion may be heard, cannot be extended more than five years by such a disability, nor, in any case, more than one year after the disability ceases.

From 2 R. S. 594. §§ 22 and 24.

§ 1292. Restitution; when directed.

Where a judgment is set aside for any cause, upon motion, the court may direct and enforce restitution, in like manner, with like effect, and subject to the same conditions, as where a judgment is reversed upon appeal.

See § 1323, post.

- 1322. Id.; when reversal, etc., was by court of appeals.
- 1323. Restitution; when awarded.
- 1323a. Remarks or comments of judge, duly excepted to, shall be subject to review.

§ 1293. Writs of error abolished.

The writ of error in a civil action or special proceeding has been abolished.

Substituted for Co. Proc., § 333, and the first sentence of § 457.

§ 1294. When party may appeal.

A party aggrieved may appeal, in a case prescribed in this chapter, except where the judgment or order, of which he complains, was rendered or made upon his default.

Co. Proc., § 325, am'd by adding the final clause. See § 2508.

§ 1295. Parties to appeal; how designated. Title of case.

The party or person appealing is designated as the appellant, and the adverse party as the respondent. After an appeal is taken to another court, the name of the appellate court must be substituted, for that of the court below, in the title of the action or special proceeding, and in any case, the name of the county, if it is mentioned, may be omitted; otherwise the title shall not be changed, in consequence of the appeal.

Co. Proc., § 326, am'd.

§ 1296. When a person entitled to become a party may appeal.

A person aggrieved, who is not a party, but is entitled by law to be substituted, in place of a party; or who has acquired, since the making of the order, or the rendering of the judgment appealed from, an interest, which would have entitled him to be so substituted, if it had been previously acquired, may also appeal, as prescribed in this chapter, for an appeal by a party. But the appeal cannot be heard, until he has been substituted in place of the party; and if he unreasonably neglects to procure an order of substitution, the appeal may be dismissed, upon motion of the respondent. (See § 2569.)

§ 1297. Appeal when adverse party has died.

Where the adverse party has died, since the making of the order, or the rendering of the judgment appealed from, or where the judgment appealed from was rendered, after his death, in a case prescribed by law, an appeal may be taken, as if he was living; but it cannot be heard, until the heir, devisee, executor, or administrator, as the case requires, has been substituted as the respondent. In such a case, an undertaking required to perfect the appeal, or to stay the execution of the judgment or order appealed from, must recite the fact of the adverse party's death; and the undertaking enures, after substitution, to the benefit of the person substituted.

§ 1298. [Am'd, 1877.] Proceedings, when party dies pending appeal.

Where either party to an appeal dies, before the appeal is heard, or has heretofore died, and the appeal has not been heard, if an order, substituting another person in his place, is not made, within three months after his death, or, where he has heretofore died, within three months after this section takes effect, the court, in which the appeal is pending, may, in its discretion, make an order, requiring all persons interested in the decedent's estate, to show cause before it, why the judgment or order appealed from should not be reversed or affirmed, or the appeal dismissed, as the case requires. The order must specify a day, when cause is to be shown, which must be not less than six months after making the order; and it must designate the mode of giving notice to the persons interested. Upon the return day of the order, or at a subsequent day, appointed by the court, if the proper person has not been substituted, the court, upon proof, by affidavit, that notice has been given, as required by the order, may reverse or affirm the judgment or order appealed from, or dismiss the appeal, or make such further order in the premises, as the case requires.

Substitute for Co. Proc., part of § 121.

§ 1299. Order of substitution.

Where the appeal is from one court to another, an application for an order of substitution, as prescribed by the last three sections, must be made to the appellate court. Where personal service of notice of application for an order has been made, within the State, upon the proper representative of the decedent, an order of substitution may be made, upon the application of the surviving party.

§ 1300. [Am'd, 1909.] Appeal, how taken.

An appeal must be taken, by serving, upon the attorney for the adverse party, as prescribed in article third of title sixth of chapter eighth of this act, and upon the clerk, with whom the judgment or order appealed from is entered, by filing it* in his office, a written notice, to the effect, that the appellant appeals from the judgment or order, or from a specified part thereof. Upon an appeal to the court of appeals from an order of the appellate division, made upon an appeal from the surrogates' court, the notice of appeal shall be filed with the clerk of the surrogates' court.

Co. Proc., § 527, first sentence. Am'd by L. 1909, ch. 416. In effect Sept. 1, 1909. See § 2574.

§ 1301. When notice of appeal to specify interlocutory judgment, etc.

Where the appeal is from a final judgment, or from a final order in a special proceeding, and the appellant intends to bring up, for review thereupon, an interlocutory judgment, or an intermediate order, he must, in the notice of appeal, distinctly specify the interlocutory judgment, or intermediate order, to be reviewed.

See §§ 1316 and 1317, post.

§ 1302. Proceedings, if attorney or party not found.

If the attorney for the adverse party is dead; or if he has been removed, and notice of the removal has been served upon the appellant's attorney, and another attorney has not been substituted in his place; or if, for any reason, service of a notice of appeal, upon the proper attorney for the adverse party, cannot, with due diligence, be made within the State, the notice of appeal may be served upon the respondent, in the manner prescribed by law for serving it upon an attorney. If personal service upon the respondent cannot, with due diligence, be so made within the State, the notice of appeal may be served upon him, and notice of the subsequent proceedings may be given to him, as directed by a judge of the court, in or to which the appeal is taken.

§ 1303. Defects in proceedings may be supplied.

Where the appellant, seasonably and in good faith, serves the notice of appeal, either upon the clerk or upon the adverse party, or his attorney, but omits, through mistake, inadvertence, or excusable neglect, to serve it upon the other, or to do any other act, necessary to perfect the appeal, or to stay the execution of the judgment or order appealed from; the court, in or to which the appeal is taken, upon proof, by affidavit, of the facts, may, in its discretion, permit the omission to be supplied, or an amendment to be made, upon such terms as justice requires.

Co. Proc., part of § 327. am'd.

§ 1304. Order appealed from must be entered. Proceedings to compel entry.

An appeal cannot be taken from an order made by a judge, out of court, until it is entered in the office of the proper clerk. Where such an order has not been so entered, or the papers, upon which it was founded, have not been filed in the same clerk's office, the judge who made it, or, if he is absent, or unable or disqualified to act, a judge of the court, in or to which an appeal therefrom may be taken, must, upon the application of a party or other person, entitled to take such an appeal, make an order, requiring the omission to be supplied, within a specified time after service of a copy of the order made by him. Upon proof, by affidavit, that a copy of the latter order has been served, and that the omission has not been supplied, the same judge may make, upon notice, an order revoking and annulling the original order. The provisions of the last section but one apply to the service of an order, or a notice, as prescribed in this section.

Substitute for portions of Co. Proc., § 350.

§ 1305. Security may be waived.

An undertaking, which the appellant is required, by this chapter, to give, or any other act which he is so required to do, for the security of the respondent, may be waived by the written consent of the respondent.

Co. Proc., § 334, last sentence, am'd.

§ 1306. Deposit, in lieu of undertaking.

Where the appellant is required, by this chapter, to give an undertaking, he may, in lieu thereof, deposit with the clerk, with whom the judgment or order appealed from is entered, a sum of money, equal to the amount for which the undertaking is required to be given. The deposit has the same effect, as filing the undertaking; and notice that it has been made, has the same effect, as notice of the filing and service of a copy of the undertaking. The court, wherein the appeal is pending, may direct the mode, in which the money shall be kept and disposed of, during the pendency, or after the determination of the appeal.

Id., part of § 335, am'd.

§ 1307. [Am'd, 1910.] Undertaking must be filed.

An undertaking, given as prescribed in this chapter, must be filed with the clerk, with whom the judgment or order appealed from is entered, except that upon an appeal to the court of appeals the undertaking must be filed with the clerk of the court wherein the original judgment or order was entered.

Id., § 343, first sentence. See Rule 4. Am'd, L. 1910, ch. 582. In effect Sept. 1, 1910.

§ 1308. [Am'd, 1895.] New undertaking to be given, when sureties are insolvent, etc.

The court, in which the appeal is pending, upon satisfactory proof, by affidavit, that since the execution of an undertaking, given as prescribed in this chapter, one or more of the sureties therein have become insolvent; or that his or their circumstances have become so precarious, that there is reason to apprehend, that the undertaking is not sufficient for the security of the respondent; may make an order, requiring the appellant to file a new undertaking, and to serve a copy thereof, as required with respect to the original undertaking. If the appellant fails so to do, within twenty days after the service of a copy of the order, or such further time as the court allows, the appeal must be dismissed, or the order or judgment, from which the appeal is taken, must be executed, as if the original undertaking had not been given.

Co. Proc., part of § 335, am'd; L. 1895, ch. 946.

§ 1309. [Am'd, 1894.] Action upon undertaking; when not to be brought.

An action shall not be maintained, upon an undertaking, given upon an appeal, taken as prescribed in title third, fourth or fifth of this chapter, until ten days have expired, since the service, upon the attorney for the appellant, and upon the sureties on such undertaking, of a written notice of the entry of a judgment or order, affirming the judgment or order appealed from, or dismissing the appeal. Such service may be made by mailing such notice in a postpaid wrapper addressed to said surety or sureties, at the last known post-office address of such surety or sureties. Where an appeal to the court of appeals, from that judgment or order, is perfected, and security is given thereupon, to stay the execution of the judgment or order appealed from, an action shall not be maintained upon the undertaking, given upon the preceding appeal, until after the final determination of the appeal to the court of appeals.

L. 1894, ch. 108.

§ 1310. [Am'd, 1895, 1898, 1917.] When appeal stays proceedings; effect thereof.

Where an appeal to the appellate term of any court or to the appellate division of the supreme court or to the court of appeals or otherwise has been heretofore or shall hereafter be perfected, as prescribed in this chapter, and the other acts, if any, required to be done, to stay the execution of the judgment or order appealed from, have been done, the appeal stays all proceedings to enforce the judgment or order appealed from; except that the court or judge from whose determination the appeal is taken, may proceed in any matter included in the action or special proceeding, and not affected by the judgment or order appealed from or not embraced within the appeal; or may cause perishable property to be sold, pursuant to the judgment or order appealed from. The proceeds of such a sale must be paid, to abide the result of the appeal, into the court from or in which the appeal is taken, or, if it was taken as prescribed in title fifth of this chapter, into the supreme court. When an appeal from a judgment for rent has been perfected and execution stayed as herein provided, the appeal stays all summary proceedings, pending or otherwise, to recover the possession of real property or dispossess tenants therefrom, based on the failure to pay the rent included in the judgment appealed from. In a case, specified in subdivision four of section one hundred and ninety of this act, a party aggrieved, upon presenting to the court proof by affidavit that he intends to apply to the appellate division, rendering such decision, for leave to appeal to the court of appeals, and in case such appellate division shall refuse such leave, then that such party intends to apply to the court of appeals to be allowed to appeal to said court of appeals, and proof that an undertaking, given as prescribed in this chapter, has been filed with the clerk with whom the judgment appealed from is entered, shall be entitled to an order staying all proceedings to enforce such judgment, until the granting or refusal of such leave to appeal by such appellate division or the court of appeals. The party desiring to make such application must do so at the same term or at the term of said appellate division next succeeding that at which judgment of affirmance was rendered and notice of entry thereof served upon the party aggrieved, and in case said appellate division refuses such application, then such party shall have thirty days, from and after service of a copy of the order of said appellate division denying such application, with notice of entry, in which to apply to the court of appeals, to be allowed to so appeal, and if such application be granted, shall have thirty days from the granting thereof to perfect an appeal to the court of appeals. (See §§ 2087, 2101, 2584.)

§ 1311. [Am'd, 1895, 1899.] Levy upon personal property, when superseded by appeal.

Where an appeal, taken from a final judgment, to the court of appeals, has been perfected, and the security, required to stay the execution of the judgment, has been given; or where the security, given upon an appeal, taken from a final judgment of the supreme court, a county court or the city court of the city of New York, or the municipal court of the city of New York, is equal to that required to perfect an appeal to the court of appeals, and to stay the execution of the judgment; the court, in which the judgment appealed from was rendered, may, in its discretion, and upon such terms as justice requires, make an order, upon notice to the respondent, and the sureties in the undertaking, discharging a levy upon personal property, made by virtue of an execution, issued upon the judgment appealed from. But this section does not authorize the discharge of a levy, made by virtue of a warrant of attachment.

L. 1895, ch. 946; L. 1899, ch. 215. In effect Sept. 1, 1899.

§ 1312. Court may limit amount of security in certain cases.

Where an appeal is taken, as prescribed in title second or fourth of this chapter, the court, in or from which the appeal is taken; or, where an appeal is taken as prescribed in title third or fifth of this chapter, the court, to which the appeal is taken; may, in its discretion, make an order, upon notice to the respondent, dispensing with or limiting the security, required to stay the execution of the judgment or order appealed from, as follows:

1. Where the appellant is an executor, administrator, trustee, or other person acting in another's right, the security may be dispensed with or limited, in the discretion of the court.

2. The aggregate sum, in which one or more undertakings are required to be given, may be limited to not less than fifty thousand dollars, where it would otherwise exceed that sum.

Substitute for part of Co. Proc., § 839.

§ 1313. No security necessary, on appeal by the people, etc.

Upon an appeal, taken by the people of the State, or by a State officer, or board of State officers, or a board of supervisors of a county, the service of the notice of appeal perfects the appeal, and stays the execution of the judgment or order appealed from, without an undertaking, or other security.

Substance of L. 1858, ch. 37, § 2, as am'd by L. 1861, ch. 288 (4 Edm. 200).

§ 1314. [Am'd, 1877.] Id.; on appeal by a domestic municipal corporation.

Upon an appeal, taken by a domestic municipal corporation, the service of the notice of appeal perfects the appeal, and stays the execution of the judgment or order appealed from, without an undertaking, or other security; except that, where an appeal is taken, as prescribed in title second, third or fourth of this chapter, the court, in or from which the appeal is taken, may, in its discretion, require security to be given. In that case, the form, nature, and extent of the security, not exceeding that which is required in a like case, from a natural person, and the time and manner in which it must be given, must be prescribed by the order of the court; and the mayor, comptroller, or counsel to the corporation, may execute, in behalf of the corporation, an undertaking, so required to be given.

L. 1859, ch. 262, § 1 (4 Edm. 682). See § 1990, post.

§ 1315. Papers to be transmitted to appellate court.

Where an appeal is taken from a final judgment, as prescribed in title second or third of this chapter, the appellant must, within twenty days after it is perfected, cause a copy of the judgment-roll, and of a case or notice of exceptions, if any, filed after the entry of judgment, and a certified copy of the judgment given thereon and of the notice of appeal, to be transmitted to the appellate court, by the clerk, upon whom the notice of appeal was served. Where an appeal from an order, or a part of an order, is taken as prescribed in title second, third, and fifth of this chapter, the appellant must, within the same time, cause a certified copy of the notice of appeal, of the order, and of the papers upon which the order was founded, to be transmitted to the appellate court, by the same clerk. If the appellant fails so to do, the respondent may cause those papers to be so transmitted; and he is entitled to tax the expense thereof, as a disbursement, where he recovers costs. The clerk of the appellate court must file the papers so transmitted; and, except where it is otherwise specially prescribed by law, the appeal must be heard upon them.

Co. Proc., § 228, am'd. See § 1339.

§ 1316. Interlocutory judgment, or intermediate order, may be reviewed.

An appeal, taken from a final judgment, brings up for review, an interlocutory judgment, or an intermediate order, which is specified in the notice of appeal, and necessarily affects the final judgment; and which has not already been reviewed, upon a separate appeal therefrom, by the court or the term of the court, to which the appeal from the final judgment is taken. The right to review an interlocutory judgment, or an intermediate order, as prescribed in this section, is not affected by the expiration of the time, within which a separate appeal therefrom might have been taken.

Predicated on Co. Proc., § 329. See §§ 1336, 1350.

§ 1317. [Am'd, 1895, 1912.] Judgment or order on appeal.

Upon an appeal from a judgment or an order, the appellate division of the supreme court, or appellate term, to which the appeal is taken, may reverse or affirm, wholly or partly, or may modify, the judgment or order appealed from, and each interlocutory judgment or intermediate order, which it is authorized to review, as specified in the notice of appeal, and as to any or all of the parties. It shall thereupon render judgment of affirmance, judgment of reversal and final judgment upon the right of any or all of the parties, or judgment of modification thereon, according to law, except where it may be necessary or proper to grant a new trial or hearing, when it may grant a new trial or hearing. When a trial has been before a jury, the judgment of the appellate court must be rendered either upon special findings of the jury or the general verdict, or upon a motion to dismiss the complaint or to direct a verdict. A judgment, affirming wholly or partly a judgment, from which an appeal has been taken, shall not, expressly and in terms, award to the respondent, a sum of money, or other relief, which was awarded to him by the judgment so affirmed. After hearing the appeal, the court must give judgment, without regard to technical errors or defects or to exceptions which do not affect the substantial rights of the parties.

See Co. Proc., § 330. See § 1337. Am'd by L. 1895, ch. 346; L. 1912, ch. 280, in effect Sept. 1, 1912.

§ 1318. When no appeal lies from judgment of reversal.

Where a judgment, from which an appeal is taken, is reversed upon the appeal, and a new trial is granted, an appeal cannot be taken from the judgment of reversal; but upon an appeal from the order granting a new trial, taken, as prescribed by law, the judgment of reversal must also be reviewed.

§ 1319. Mode of enforcing affirmed or modified judgment.

Where a judgment, from which an appeal has been taken, from one court to another, is wholly or partly affirmed, or is modified, upon the appeal, it must be enforced, by the court in which it was rendered, to the extent permitted by the determination of the appellate court, as if the appeal therefrom had not been taken.

§ 1320. Id.; as to order.

Where a final order, from which an appeal has been taken, from one court to another, as prescribed in title fifth of this chapter, is wholly or partly affirmed, or is modified, upon the appeal, the appellate court may enforce its order, or may direct the proceedings to be remitted, for that purpose, to the court below, or to the judge who made the order appealed from.

§ 1321. Mode of cancelling docket of reversed or modified judgment.

Where a final judgment for a sum of money, or directing the payment of a sum of money, has been reversed, or has been affirmed as to part only of the sum, upon an appeal, taken as prescribed in title third or fourth of this chapter; and an appeal to the court of appeals is not taken and perfected, and the security required to stay execution is not given, within ten days after the entry of the judgment upon the appeal, in the clerk's office where the judgment appealed from is entered, the clerk must make a minute of the reversal of the judgment, or of the amount to which it has been reduced, upon his docket-book, in each place, where the judgment is docketed. A transcript of the docket, as thus corrected, must be furnished by him, and may be filed in any county clerk's office, where the original judgment is docketed, as prescribed by law, with respect to the original docket; and thereupon the county clerk must correct his docket accordingly. The lien of a judgment, the docket of which is not corrected as prescribed in this section, remains unaffected by the reversal or modification thereof, until the decision of the court of appeals, upon an appeal from the judgment reversing or modifying the same, or the expiration of the time to take such an appeal.

§ 1322. Id.; when reversal, etc., was by court of appeals.

Where a final judgment for a sum of money, or directing the payment of a sum of money, has been reversed, or affirmed as to part only of the sum, upon an appeal to the court of appeals, the docket may be corrected, as prescribed in the last section, at any time after the remittitur has been filed in the court below.

§ 1323. [Am'd, 1877, 1880, 1890.] Restitution; when awarded.

When a final judgment or order is reversed or modified, upon appeal, the appellate court, or the general term of the same court, as the case may be, may make or compel restitution of property, or of a right, lost by means of the erroneous judgment or order; but not so as to affect the title of a purchaser in good faith and for value. When property has been sold, the court may compel the value, or the purchase price, to be restored, or deposited to abide the event of the action, as justice requires. When the appeal is from a judgment in favor of the owner of real estate, in an action to set aside a conveyance thereof, or in an action to compel the specific performance of a contract for the sale thereof, such owner shall have the same right to sell or dispose of the same as though no appeal had been taken; unless the appellant shall file with the clerk of the court a written undertaking, in a sum fixed by the court, or a judge thereof, upon a notice to the respondent of at least ten days, and to be approved by such court or judge, to the effect that the appellant will, in case the judgment appealed from shall be affirmed, pay to such owner such damages as he may suffer by reason of such appeal, not exceeding the amount of the penalty in such undertaking. Such undertaking may be filed at any time during the appeal, but any sale of such real estate or contract to sell the same in good faith and for a valuable consideration, after said judgment and before the filing of such undertaking, shall be as valid as if such undertaking had not been filed. In case such undertaking shall not be filed, the respondent shall be entitled, at any time during such appeal, to an order discharging of record any notice of pendency of action filed in the action, and, in an action to compel the specific performance of a contract for the sale of real estate, also canceling and discharging of record said contract, in case the same has been recorded.

Substitute for Co. Proc., part of § 880. L. 1809, ch. 650. In effect Sept. 1, 1890.

§ 1323a. [Added, 1909.] Remarks or comments of judge, duly excepted to, shall be subject of review.

In case of an appeal, every remark or comment of the presiding judge during the trial, duly excepted to, shall be the subject of review, but the case and exceptions on appeal shall be settled by the trial justice as now provided by law.

Added by L. 1909, ch. 65. Derivation — Code Civ. Proc., § 83, pt. For remainder of section see Judiciary Law, §§ 14, 24, 205-207, 301. See note 14 of notes of Board of Statutory Consolidation at end of code.

TITLE II.

Appeal to the court of appeals.

- Sec. 1324. What appeals may be taken.
1325. Limitation of time to appeal.
1326. Security to perfect appeal.
1327. Security to stay execution on judgment, etc., for money.
1328. Id.; on judgment, etc., for delivery of property.
1329. Id.; on judgment for a chattel.
1330. Id.; on judgment, etc., directing conveyance.
1331. Id.; on judgment, etc., for possession of real property.
1332. Construction of the last five sections.
1333. The last six sections qualified.
1334. Undertakings may be in one instrument; form, and service thereof.
1335. Exceptions to sureties; justification.
1336. Appeal from final judgment rendered after affirmance of interlocutory judgment, or denial of motion for new trial.
1337. What questions are brought up for review.
1338. When questions of fact to be reviewed.
1339. When a case to be prepared, etc., for the appeal.

§ 1324. What appeals may be taken.

An appeal may be taken to the court of appeals, in a case where that court has jurisdiction, as prescribed in sections 190 and 191 of this act.

Co. Proc., § 333, first sentence.

§ 1325. [Am'd, 1895, 1909.] Limitation of time to appeal.

An appeal to the court of appeals, must be taken within sixty days after service, upon the attorney for the appellant, of a copy of the judgment or order appealed from, and a written notice of the entry thereof.

Substitute for Co. Proc., § 331. Am'd by L. 1895, ch. 946; L. 1909, ch. 418. In effect Sept. 1. 1909.

§ 1326. Security to perfect appeal.

To render a notice of appeal, to the court of appeals, effectual, for any purpose, except in a case where it is specially prescribed by law, that security is not necessary, to perfect the appeal, the appellant must give a written undertaking, to the effect, that he will pay all costs and damages, which may be awarded against him on the appeal, not exceeding five hundred dollars. The appeal is perfected, when such an undertaking is given and a copy thereof, with notice of the filing thereof, is served, as prescribed in this title.

Co. Proc., part of § 334, am'd.

§ 1327. Security to stay execution on judgment, etc., for money.

If the appeal is taken from a judgment for a sum of money, or from a judgment or order, directing the payment of a sum of money, it does not stay the execution of the judgment or order, until the appellant gives a written undertaking, to the effect, that if the judgment or order appealed from, or any part thereof, is affirmed, or the appeal is dismissed, he will pay the sum, recovered or directed to be paid, by the judgment or order, or the part thereof, as to which it is affirmed. But where the judgment or order directs the payment of money in fixed instalments, the undertaking must be to the effect, that the appellant will pay each instalment, which becomes payable, pending the appeal, or the part thereof as to which the judgment or order is affirmed, not exceeding a sum specified in the undertaking, which must be fixed by a judge of the court below. The court below may, at any time afterwards, upon satisfactory proof, by affidavit, that the sum so fixed is insufficient in amount, make an order, requiring the appellant to give a further undertaking, to the same effect, in a sum and within a time, specified in the order. A failure to comply with such an order has the same effect, as if no undertaking had been given, as prescribed in this section.

Co. Proc., § 335, first sentence am'd.

§ 1328. Id.; on judgment, etc., for delivery of property.

If the appeal is taken from a judgment or order, directing the assignment or delivery of a document, or of personal property, it does not stay the execution of the judgment or order, until the thing directed to be assigned or delivered, is brought into the court below, or placed in the custody of an officer or receiver, designated by that court; or the appellant gives a written undertaking as prescribed in the next section.

Id., part of § 336, am'd.

§ 1329. Id.; on judgment for a chattel.

If the appeal is taken from a judgment for the recovery of a chattel, it does not stay the execution of the judgment, until the appellant gives a written undertaking, in a sum fixed by the court below, or a judge thereof, to the effect, that the appellant will obey the direction of the appellate court, upon the appeal.

Id.

§ 1330. Id.; on judgment, etc., directing conveyance.

If the appeal is taken from a judgment or order, directing the execution of a conveyance, or other instrument, it does not stay the execution of the judgment or order, until the instrument is executed, and deposited with the clerk, with whom the judgment or order is entered, to abide the direction of the appellate court.

Id., § 337, extended to an appeal from an order.

§ 1331. [Am'd. 1879, 1897.] Id.; on judgment, etc., for the possession of real property.

If the judgment or order directs the sale or the delivery of the possession of real property, or entitles the respondent to the immediate possession thereof, an appeal does not stay the execution of the judgment or order until the appellant gives a written undertaking to the effect that he will not, while in possession of the property, commit, or suffer to be committed, any waste thereon; and if the property is in his possession or under his control, the undertaking must also provide that if the judgment or order is affirmed or the appeal is dismissed, and there is a deficiency upon a sale, he will pay the value of the use and occupation of such property, or the part thereof as to which the judgment or order is affirmed, from the time of taking the appeal until the delivery of the possession thereof, pursuant to the judgment or order, not exceeding a specified sum fixed by a judge of the court below. If the judgment directs a sale of real property upon the foreclosure of a mortgage, and an appeal is taken by a party against whom payment of the deficiency is awarded by such judgment, the undertaking must also provide that if the judgment is affirmed or the appeal is dismissed, the appellant will pay any deficiency which may occur upon the sale, with interest and costs, and all expenses chargeable against the proceeds of the sale, not exceeding a sum fixed by a judge of the court below.

Co. Proc., § 338; L. 1897, ch. 119. In effect Sept. 1, 1897. See § 1616.

§ 1832. Construction of the last five sections.

Where the judgment or order, from which an appeal is taken to the court of appeals, affirms a judgment or order, to the effect specified in either of the last five sections, the undertaking must be the same, as if the judgment or order, from which the appeal is so taken, was to the same effect, as the judgment or order so affirmed.

§ 1833. The last six sections qualified.

The last six sections do not extend to a case, where it is specially prescribed by law, that an appeal may be taken, or the execution of a judgment or order appealed from may be stayed, without security, or where the security to be given, for either purpose, is specially regulated by law.

§ 1834. [Am'd, 1879.] Undertakings may be in one instrument; form and service thereof.

Where two or more undertakings are required to be given as prescribed in this title they may be contained in the same instrument, or in different instruments at the option of the appellant. Each undertaking given as prescribed in this title must be executed by at least two sureties, and must specify the residence of each surety therein. A copy thereof, with a notice showing where it is filed, must be served on the attorney for the adverse party with the notice of appeal or before the expiration of the time of appeal.

Co. Proc., § 341, am'd.

§ 1835. [Am'd, 1891.] Exceptions to sureties; justification.

It is not necessary that the undertaking should be approved; but the attorney for the respondent may, within ten days after the service of a copy of the undertaking with notice of the filing thereof, serve upon the attorney for the appellant, a written notice that he excepts to the sufficiency of the sureties. Within ten days thereafter, the sureties, or other sureties in a new undertaking to the same effect, must justify before the court below, or a judge thereof, or a referee appointed by the same, or a county judge. At least five days' notice of the justification must be given. A referee may be appointed upon the motion of either party, or upon the court's own motion to take the justification of such sureties and to report the evidence upon the same to the court or judge with his opinion. The court may further direct that either party shall pay the expenses of such reference. If the court or judge finds the sureties sufficient he must indorse his allowance of them upon the undertaking, or a copy thereof, and a notice of the allowance must be served upon the attorney for the exceptant. The effect of a failure so to justify and procure an allowance, is the same as if the undertaking had not been given. The court shall also have power, in case it shall be made to appear to its satisfaction, upon motion, that the exception was taken unnecessarily or for purposes of vexation or delay, to set the same aside and approve the undertaking.

Co. Proc., § 341, am'd; L. 1891, ch. 369.

§ 1336. [Am'd, 1895.] Appeal from final judgment rendered after affirmance of interlocutory judgment, or denial of motion for new trial.

Where final judgment is rendered in the court below, after the affirmance, upon an appeal to the appellate division of the supreme court, of an interlocutory judgment; or after the refusal, by the appellate division, of a new trial, either upon an application, made, in the first instance, at a term thereof, or upon an appeal from an order of the special term, or of the judge before whom the issues, or questions of fact, were tried by a jury; the party aggrieved may appeal directly from the final judgment to the court of appeals, notwithstanding that it was rendered at a special term, or at a trial term, or pursuant to the directions, contained in a referee's report. But such an appeal brings up, for review, only the determination of the appellate division of the supreme court, affirming the interlocutory judgment, or refusing the new trial.

L. 1895, ch. 946. See § 1350, post.

§ 1337. [Am'd, 1895.] What questions are brought up for review.

An appeal to the court of appeals from a final judgment, or from an order, granting or refusing a new trial in an action, where the appellant stipulates that upon affirmance judgment absolute shall be rendered against him, brings up for review in that court only questions of law; but where the justices of the appellate division from which an appeal is taken are divided upon the question as to whether there is evidence supporting, or tending to support, a finding or verdict not directed by the court, a question for review is presented. In any action on an appeal to the court of appeals, the court may either modify or affirm the judgment or order appealed from, award a new trial, or grant to either party such judgment as such party may be entitled to.

L. 1895, ch. 946. See § 191, subd. 4; § 1817.

§ 1338. [Am'd, 1895, 1912.] When reversal presumed not to be on a question of fact.

Upon an appeal to the court of appeals from a judgment, reversing a judgment entered upon the report of a referee, upon the verdict of a jury or a decision, or a determination in the trial court; or from an order granting a new trial, upon such a reversal; it must be conclusively presumed that the judgment was not reversed, or the new trial granted, upon a question of fact, unless the particular question or questions of fact upon which the reversal was made or the new trial was granted are specified and referred to by number or other adequate designation in the body of the judgment or order appealed from.

Co. Proc., parts of §§ 208 and 272. Am'd by L. 1895, ch. 946; L. 1912, ch. 861, in effect Sept. 1, 1912.

§ 1339. [Am'd, 1895.] When a case to be prepared, etc., for the appeal.

Where an appeal to the court of appeals, from a judgment, rendered by the appellate division of the supreme court, upon a verdict, subject to the opinion of the court, has been perfected, a case, containing a concise statement of the facts, of the questions of law arising thereupon, and of the determination of those questions by the appellate division, must be prepared and settled, by or under the direction of the court below, and annexed to the judgment-roll. An exception is not necessary, to enable the court of appeals to review the determination of a question of law, arising upon the verdict. A certified copy of the case must be transmitted to the court of appeals, instead of the case upon which the judgment of the court below was rendered. The court below, or a judge thereof, may extend the time, limited by law, within which the papers must be transmitted to the court of appeals, for the purpose of enabling the appellant to procure the case to be prepared or settled.

Co. Proc., part of § 383 and part of § 265; L. 1895, ch. 946.

TITLE III. .*Appeal to the supreme court from an inferior court.

Sec. 1340. Appeals from inferior courts.

1341. Limitation of time; security.

1342. Appeal from order.

1343. Limitation of time and stay of proceedings.

1344. Appeal, where and how heard.

1345. Judgment or order, where entered.

§ 1340. [Am'd, 1895.] Appeals from inferior courts.

Except appeals from inferior and local courts heretofore heard in the court of common pleas for the city and county of New York, and the superior court of Buffalo, an appeal may be taken to the appellate division of the supreme court, from a final judgment, rendered by a county court, or by any other court of record possessing original jurisdiction, where an appeal therefrom to a court other than the supreme court is not expressly given by statute, and upon such appeal, an order granting or refusing a new trial for any of the causes mentioned in section nine hundred and ninety-nine of this act, made by any of said courts, and questions of fact, may be reviewed in the same manner and to the same extent as questions of fact may be reviewed, upon appeal to the appellate division of the supreme court from a final judgment and order, granting or refusing a new trial, rendered by the same court. Appeals from inferior and local courts heretofore heard in the court of common pleas for the city and county of New York and the superior court of Buffalo, may be taken to the supreme court.

Co. Proc., § 344, first sentence am'd. See 6 T. & C. 456. L. 1895, ch. 946.

§ 1341. Limitation of time; security.

An appeal, authorized by the last section, must be taken within thirty days after service, upon the attorney for the appellant, of the copy of the judgment, and written notice of the entry thereof. Security is not required to perfect the appeal, but to stay the execution of the judgment security must be given and the sureties may be excepted to, and must justify as upon an appeal to the court of appeals, from a judgment of the same amount, or to the same effect.

Id., § 345, and part of § 331, as am'd by L. 1876, ch. 341, § 13.

§ 1342. [Am'd, 1895, 1907.] Appeal from order.

An appeal may also be taken, as provided by section 1340, from an order affecting a substantial right made by the court or a judge, in an action brought in or taken by appeal to a court, specified in said section.

Id., part of § 344, am'd; L. 1895, ch. 946; L. 1907, ch. 579. In effect July 15, 1907.

§ 1343. [Am'd, 1877.] Limitation of time and stay of proceedings.

An appeal, authorized by the last section, must be taken, within sixty days after service upon the attorney for the appellant, of a copy of the order, and written notice of the entry thereof.(1) Security is not required to perfect it; but it does not stay the execution of the order from which it is taken. The appellate court, or a judge thereof, may direct such a stay, upon such terms, as to security or otherwise, as justice requires.(2)

(1) Co. Proc., § 331, as am'd by L. 1876, ch. 431, § 13. (2) Id., § 350.

§ 1344. [Am'd, 1895, 1902, 1904, 1914, 1915.] Appeal, where and how heard; appellate term of the supreme court for the first and second departments.

1. An appeal taken as prescribed in this title must be heard by the appellate division of the supreme court, except that appeals from judgments or orders of the municipal court of the city of

New York, or from judgments or orders of the city court of the city of New York may be heard either by the appellate division of the supreme court or by not less than three justices of the supreme court in each of the first and second judicial departments, who shall be designated for that purpose by the justices of the appellate division sitting in said departments and who shall be known as the appellate term of the supreme court in the first and second departments, respectively.

2. When an appeal shall have been heard and determined by an appellate term constituted as herein provided, the justices thereof or a justice of the appellate division in the same department may allow a further appeal to be taken from that determination to said appellate division.

3. Appeals from inferior courts heretofore heard by the superior court of Buffalo shall be heard by the appellate division of the supreme court in the fourth judicial department or by such justice or justices of the supreme court as may be designated for that purpose by the justices of the appellate division of said department.

4. The provisions of title fourth of this chapter, relating to the hearing of appeals taken in the supreme court and to subsequent proceedings thereupon, apply to an appeal taken as prescribed in this title, except as specified in the next following section and except as otherwise provided in a statute enacted by the legislature in the year nineteen hundred and fifteen, entitled "An act in relation to the municipal court of the city of New York, and repealing certain statutes affecting such court, its justices and officers."

§ 1345. [Am'd, 1895, 1916.] Judgment or order, where entered.

A judgment or order of the appellate division rendered upon an appeal authorized by this title must be entered in the office of the clerk of the appellate division in the department in which the court below is located. A certified copy thereof annexed to the papers transmitted from the court below must be transmitted by the clerk, upon payment of his fees, to the clerk of the county where the court from which the appeal was taken is situated, and shall constitute the judgment-roll and remain in his office. The filing of the judgment-roll or the entry of the order, as prescribed in this section, is a sufficient authority for any proceeding in the court below or before the judge or justice who made the order appealed from which the judgment or order of the appellate court directs or permits. But where the execution of the judgment or order of the appellate court is stayed by an appeal to the court of appeals, the proceedings in the court below or before the judge or justice, who made the order, are stayed in like manner. A judgment or order of the supreme court, rendered upon an appeal from a judgment of any district court or of the city court of New York, or an appeal heretofore heard by the superior court of Buffalo, must be entered in the office of the clerk of the county wherein the court below is located, and with the papers transmitted from the court below, forms the judgment-roll which must be filed in the same office. Where the appeal is from the city court of New York, the judgment or order of the supreme court must be entered in the office of the clerk of the said court. Where the appeal is from a county court, the judgment must be entered by and filed in the office of the clerk of the county wherein the court below is located.

Am'd by L. 1895, ch. 946; L. 1916, ch. 84, in effect March 30, 1916.

TITLE IV.

Appeal to the appellate division of the supreme court.

Sec. 1346. Appeal from judgment.

1347. Appeal from order.

1348. Id.; when made out of court; powers of appellate division to grant orders.

1349. Appeal from interlocutory judgment.

1350. Appeal from final judgment, after affirmance of interlocutory judgment, or denial of new trial. Review in the court of appeals.

1351. Limitation of time; order to stay proceedings.

1352. Stay of proceedings without order.

1353. Upon what papers appeal to be heard.

1354. Entry of judgment or order; judgment-roll.

1355. Hearing, etc., in the supreme court.

§ 1346. [Am'd, 1895, 1914.] Appeal from judgment.

An appeal may be taken to the appellate division of the supreme court from a final judgment rendered in the supreme court as follows:

1. Where the judgment was rendered upon a trial by a referee, or by the court without a jury, the appeal may be taken upon questions of law, or upon the facts, or upon both.

2. When the judgment was rendered upon the verdict of a jury, the appeal may be taken upon questions of law, or upon the facts, or upon both.

Co. Proc., part of § 343, am'd. See L. 1870, ch. 408, § 8, am'd by L. 1895, ch. 946, and L. 1914, ch. 351, in effect Sept. 1, 1914.

§ 1347. [Am'd, 1895.] Appeal from order.

An appeal may be taken, to the appellate division of the supreme court, from an order, made prior to the first day of January, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-six, in an action upon notice, at a special term or a trial term of a superior city court, or of the supreme court, or at a term of the circuit court, and from an order made at a special term or trial term of the supreme court, after said day, in either of the following cases:

1. Where the order grants, refuses, continues, or modifies a provisional remedy; or settles, or grants, or refuses an application to resettle a case on appeal or a bill of exceptions.

2. Where it grants or refuses a new trial; except that where specific questions of fact, arising upon the issues, in an action triable by the court, have been tried by a jury, pursuant to an order for that purpose, as prescribed in section 971 of this act, an appeal cannot be taken from an order, granting or refusing a new trial, upon the merits.

3. Where it involves some part of the merits.

4. Where it affects a substantial right.

5. Where, in effect, it determines the action, and prevents a judgment, from which an appeal might be taken.

6. Where it determines a statutory provision of the State to be unconstitutional; and the determination appears from the reasons given for the decision thereupon, or is necessarily implied in the decision.

An order, made upon a summary application, after judgment, is deemed to have been made, in the action, within the meaning of this section.

Id., § 349, am'd; L. 1895, ch. 946. See §§ 2067, 2070.

§ 1348. [Am'd, 1895.] Id.; when made out of court; powers of appellate division to grant orders.

An appeal may also be taken to the appellate division of the supreme court, from an order, made in an action, upon notice, by a judge or justice, out of court, in a case where an appeal might have been taken, as prescribed in the last section, if the order had been made, by the court. The appellate division shall have power to vacate or modify, without notice, or upon such notice as it shall deem proper, any order in an action or special proceeding made by a justice of the supreme court or by the court without notice to the adverse party; it may grant a stay of proceedings upon any judgment or order of the supreme court from which an appeal is pending, and may grant any order or provisional remedy which has been applied for without notice to the adverse party, and refused by the supreme court or a justice thereof.

L. 1895, ch. 946.

§ 1349. [Am'd, 1895.] Appeal from interlocutory judgment.

An appeal may also be taken to the appellate division of the supreme court, from an interlocutory judgment rendered at a special term or trial term of the supreme court, or entered upon the report of a referee.

Id.

§ 1350. [Am'd, 1895.] Appeal from final judgment, after affirmance of interlocutory judgment, or denial of new trial. Review in the court of appeals.

Where final judgment is taken, at a special term or trial term, or pursuant to the directions of a referee, after the affirmance, upon an appeal to the appellate division of the supreme court of an interlocutory judgment, or after the refusal by the appellate division of a new trial, either upon an application, made, in the first instance, at a term of the appellate division, or upon an appeal from an order of the special term, or of the judge, before whom the issues, or questions of fact, were tried by a jury; an appeal to the appellate division from the final judgment brings up, for review, only the proceedings to take the final judgment, or upon which the final judgment was taken, including the hearing or trial of the other issues in the action, if any. If an appeal is taken, to the court of appeals, from the determination of the appellate division upon the appeal from the final judgment, the determination of the appellate division, affirming the interlocutory judgment or refusing the new trial, may, at the election of either party, be reviewed thereupon. If the respondent elects to bring it up for review, he may take a cross-appeal therefrom, notwithstanding the expiration of the time to take an original appeal therefrom.

Id. See §§ 1316, 1330.

§ 1351. [Am'd, 1895, 1903.] Limitation of time; order to stay proceedings.

An appeal, authorized by this title, must be taken, within thirty days after service, upon the attorney for the appellant, of a copy of the judgment or order appealed from, and a written notice of the entry thereof. Security is not required to perfect the appeal; but, except where it is otherwise specially prescribed by law, the appeal does not stay the execution of the judgment or order appealed from; unless the court, in or from which the appeal is taken, or a judge thereof, makes an order, directing such a stay. Such an order may be made, and may, from time to time, be modified, upon such terms, as to security or otherwise, as justice requires. If security is given, either as a condition of granting the order, or as prescribed in the next section, the provisions of title second of this chapter apply thereto, as if the appellate division of the supreme court was specified in those provisions, in place of the appellate court, and a judge of the same court, in place of a judge of the court below. Execution of a judgment for the recovery of money only shall not be stayed without security for more than thirty days after the service upon the attorney for the appellant of a copy of the judgment and written notice of the entry thereof.

Co. Proc., portions of §§ 832, 348, and 350, reconstructed; L. 1895, ch. 946; L. 1903, ch. 288. In effect Sept. 1, 1903.

§ 1352. Stay of proceedings without order.

Upon an appeal from a final judgment, taken as prescribed in this title, the appellant may give the security, required to perfect an appeal to the court of appeals, from a judgment of the same amount, or to the same effect; and to stay the execution thereof. In that case, the execution of the judgment appealed from is stayed, as upon an appeal to the court of appeals, and subject to the same conditions.

Id., § 348.

§ 1353. [Am'd, 1895.] Upon what papers appeal to be heard.

An appeal from a final judgment, taken as prescribed in this title, must be heard upon a certified copy of the notice of appeal, of the judgment-roll, and of the case or notice of exceptions, if any, filed, as prescribed by law or the general rules of practice, after the entry of the judgment, and either before or after the appeal is taken. An appeal from an interlocutory judgment, or from an order taken as prescribed in this title, must be heard upon a certified copy of the notice of appeal, and of the papers used before the court, judge or justice, upon the hearing of the demurrer, application for judgment, or motion, as the case requires. Unless the appellate division shall in a special case otherwise direct, before an appeal shall be placed upon the calendar, the appellant shall file with the clerk of the appellate division the case and exceptions or the other papers, upon which the appeal shall be heard, printed as required by the rules of practice; in case the appeal is from a judgment the printed case and exceptions must be ordered filed by the justice or referee before whom the case was tried.

L. 1895, ch. 946.

§ 1354. [Am'd, 1879.] Entry of judgment or order; judgment-roll.

Where judgment of affirmance is rendered upon the appeal, the judgment-roll consists of a copy of the judgment, annexed to the papers, upon which the appeal was heard. Where subsequent proceedings are taken, at the special term or trial term, before the entry of final judgment, the judgment-roll must also contain the proper papers relating thereto.

§ 1355. [Am'd, 1895.] Hearing, etc., in the supreme court.

An appeal taken to the appellate division of the supreme court, as prescribed in this title, must be heard in the department, embracing the county, in which the judgment or order appealed from is entered; unless an order is made, as prescribed in section 231 of this act, directing that it be heard in another department, or unless appeals pending in one department are transferred for hearing and determination to another, pursuant to article six, section one, of the constitution. The order made upon the appeal must be entered in the office of the clerk of the appellate division, and a certified copy thereof with the original case or papers upon which the appeal was heard, filed as provided in section thirteen hundred and fifty-three must be transmitted by the clerk upon payment of his fees, to the clerk of the county where the judgment or order appealed from was entered, and upon such certified copy of the order and the case or papers upon which the appeal was heard, the county clerk shall enter the judgment in his office.

Substitute for Co. Proc., portions of §§ 347 and 348; L. 1895, ch. 946. See § 268.

TITLE V.

Appeal from a determination in a special proceeding.

- Sec. 1356. Appeal from order made in the same court.
 1357. Id.; when made by another court or judge.
 1358. Preceding order may be reviewed.
 1359. Limitation of time to appeal.
 1360. Stay of proceedings; hearing of appeal; decision thereupon.
 1361. This title qualified. Application of provisions relating to actions.

§ 1356. [Am'd, 1895, 1913.] Appeal from order made in the same court.

An appeal may be taken, to the appellate division of the supreme court, from an order, affecting a substantial right, made in a special proceeding, at a special term or a trial term of the supreme court; or made by a justice thereof in a special proceeding instituted before him, pursuant to a special statutory provision; or instituted before another judge, and transferred to, or continued before him. An appeal may also be taken to the appellate division of the supreme court from an order granting or denying an application for an alternative writ of mandamus or an alternative writ of prohibition.

L. 1854, ch. 270, § 1, first clause (4 Edm. 681; 5 Id. 133). Am'd by L. 1895, ch. 946; L. 1913, ch. 572. In effect Sept. 1, 1913.

§ 1357. [Am'd, 1895.] Id.; when made by another court or judge.

An appeal may also be taken to the appellate division of the supreme court, from an order, affecting a substantial right, made by a court of record, possessing original jurisdiction, or a judge thereof, in a special proceeding instituted in that court, or before a judge thereof, pursuant to a special statutory provision; or instituted before another judge, and transferred to, or continued before, the judge who made the final order. But this section does not apply to a case, where an appeal from the order, to a court, other than the appellate division of the supreme court, is expressly given by statute.

Substituted for part of Co. Proc., § 344; L. 1895, ch. 946. See § 1342, ante.

§ 1358. [Am'd, 1877.] Preceding order may be reviewed.

An appeal, authorized by this title, brings up for review, any preceding order, made in the course of the special proceeding, involving the merits, and necessarily affecting the final order appealed from, which is specified in the notice of appeal.

See Co. Proc., § 329.

§ 1359. Limitation of time to appeal.

An appeal, authorized by this title, must be taken within thirty days after service of a copy of the final order, from which it is taken, with a written notice of the entry thereof, upon the appellant; or, if he appeared, upon the hearing, by an attorney at law or an attorney in fact, upon the person who so appeared for him.

From Id., § 332. See L. 1854, ch. 270, § 2.

§ 1360. Stay of proceedings; hearing of appeal; decision thereupon.

The provisions of title fourth of this chapter, relating to perfecting an appeal from an order, taken as therein prescribed; to staying the execution of the order appealed from; to hearing the appeal; and to the entry and enforcement of the order made upon the appeal, apply, where an appeal is taken, as prescribed in this title, except as otherwise specially prescribed by law.

This section refers to §§ 1351, 1353, 1354, and 1355, ante. See, also, §§ 1313 and 1314, ante.

§ 1361. This title qualified. Application of provisions relating to actions.

This title does not confer the right to appeal from an order, in a case, where it is specially prescribed by law, that the order cannot be reviewed. The proceedings upon an appeal, taken as prescribed in this title, are governed by the provisions of this act, and of the general rules of practice, relating to an appeal in an action, except as otherwise specially prescribed by law.

CHAPTER XIII.

Executions.

TITLE I.—Forms of Execution; Time and Manner of Issuing an Execution; General Duties and Liabilities of Officers.

TITLE II.—Execution Against Property.

TITLE III.—Execution Against the Person.

TITLE I.

Forms of execution; time and manner of issuing an execution; general duties and liabilities of officers.

- Sec. 1362. To whom execution directed; provision where sheriff is a party.
1363. Time of receipt to be indorsed on execution.
1364. The different kinds of execution.
1365. To what counties executions may issue.
1366. General requisites of executions.
1367. Id.; when issued on filing transcript from justice's court, etc.
1368. Requisites of execution for the collection of money.
1369. Id.; against property
1370. Id.; where a warrant of attachment has been levied by sheriff.
1371. Id.; against executor, etc.
1372. Id.; against the person.
1373. Id.; for delivery of property. How money, recovered by same judgment, may be collected.
1374. Separate executions, where separate sums awarded.
1375. Execution of course, within five years.
1376. Execution, after death of judgment creditor.
1377. When execution may be issued after five years.
1378. Id.; leave, how obtained.
1379. No execution against decedent, except, etc.
1380. Execution against decedent's property.
1381. Leave, how obtained.
1382. Time of stay by order, etc., not reckoned under this title.
1383. Execution against surviving judgment debtors.
1384. Sale on execution, etc.; when and how conducted.
1385. Penalty for taking down or defacing notice of sale.
1386. Validity of sale, when not affected by sheriff's default, etc.
1387. Purchases on such sales, by certain officers, prohibited.
1388. When execution to be enforced by under-sheriff.

§ 1362. To whom execution directed; provision where sheriff is a party.

An execution must be directed to the sheriff, unless he is a party or interested; in which case it must be directed as prescribed in section 173 of this act. But the court may, in its discretion, order an execution, issued upon a judgment rendered against a sheriff, either alone or with another, to be directed to a person, designated in the order, instead of to the coroners, or a particular coroner; in which case it must be so directed. The person so designated must be of full age, a resident of the State, and not a party to the action, or interested therein. Where the execution is issued upon a judgment for a sum of money, or directing the payment of a sum of money, the order does not take effect, until the person so designated executes, and files in the clerk's office, a bond to the people, with at least two sureties, approved by a judge of the court, or a county judge, in a penal sum, fixed by the order, not less than twice the sum to be collected by virtue of the execution; conditioned for the faithful performance of his duties under the execution. A certified copy of the order, and, where it requires a bond to be given, the clerk's certificate that a bond has been filed, as required by the order, must be attached to the execution. The person so designated is deemed an officer; and, with respect to that execution, he is subject to the obligations and liabilities, and has the power and authority of a coroner, and is entitled to fees accordingly.

Co. Proc., part of § 289, and 2 R. S. 364, §§ 11 and 12, am'd. See 3 T. & C. 608.

§ 1363. Time of receipt to be indorsed on execution.

The sheriff, to whom an execution is directed and delivered, must, upon the receipt thereof, indorse thereupon a memorandum of the day, hour, and minute, when he received it.

2 R. S. 364, § 10 (2 Edm. 377).

§ 1364. The different kinds of execution.

There are four kinds of execution, as follows:

1. Against property.
2. Against the person.
3. For the delivery of the possession of real property with or without damages for withholding the same.
4. For the delivery of the possession of a chattel, with or without damages for the taking or detention thereof.

An execution is the process of the court, from which it is issued.

Co. Proc., § 286, am'd. See § 1240.

§ 1365. To what counties executions may issue.

An execution against property can be issued only to a county, in the clerk's office of which the judgment is docketed. An execution against the person may be issued to any county. An execution for the delivery of the possession of real property, must be issued to the county, where the property, or a part thereof, is situated. An execution for the delivery of the possession of a chattel, may be issued to any county, where the chattel is found; or to the sheriff of the county where the judgment-roll is filed. Executions, upon the same judgment, may be issued at the same time, to two or more different counties.

Substitute for Co. Proc., part of § 287. See ante, § 597.

§ 1366. [Am'd, 1914.] General requisites of executions.

An execution must intelligibly describe the judgment, stating the names of the parties in whose favor, and against whom, the time when, and the court in which, the judgment was rendered; and, if it was rendered in the supreme court, the county in which the judgment-roll is filed. It must require the sheriff to return it to the proper clerk, within sixty days after the receipt thereof. Except as otherwise prescribed in the next section, it must be made returnable to the clerk, with whom the judgment-roll is filed. When an execution has been issued against the wages, debts, earnings, salary, income from trust funds or profits due and owing to any judgment debtor, pursuant to the provisions of this chapter, it shall be the duty of the sheriff or other officer or person to whom such execution shall be delivered, from time to time, and at least once every six months from the time a levy shall be made thereunder, to account for and pay over, to the person entitled thereto, all moneys collected thereon, less his lawful fees and expenses for collecting the same. This section shall apply to all such executions now issued and outstanding.

Co. Proc., part of § 289, consolidated with id., § 290. See §§ 23, 24. Am'd by L. 1914, ch. 847, in effect Apr. 15, 1914

§ 1367. Id.; when issued on filing transcript from justice's court, etc.

Where an execution is issued out of a court, other than that in which the judgment was rendered, upon filing a transcript of the judgment rendered in the latter court, it must also specify the clerk, with whom the transcript is filed, and the time of filing; and it must be made returnable to that clerk. If the judgment was rendered in a justice's court, it must specify the justice's name; and it must omit the specification, respecting the filing of the judgment-roll.

See post, § 3043.

§ 1368. Requisites of execution for the collection of money.

An execution, issued upon a judgment for a sum of money, or directing the payment of a sum of money, must specify, in the body thereof, the sum recovered, or directed to be paid, and the sum actually due when it is issued. It may specify a day, from which interest upon the sum due is to be computed: in which case, the sheriff must collect interest accordingly, until the sum is paid. If all the parties, against whom the judgment is rendered, are not judgment debtors, the execution must show who is the judgment debtor.

2 R. S. 364, § 9, as am'd by L. 1844, ch. 324; and Co. Proc., part of § 289.

§ 1369. Id.; against property.

An execution against property must, if the judgment-roll is not filed in the clerk's office of the county to which it is issued, specify the time when the judgment was docketed in that county. It must, except in a case where special provision is otherwise made by law, substantially require the sheriff to satisfy the judgment, out of the personal property of the judgment debtor; and, if sufficient personal property cannot be found, out of the real property, belonging to him, at the time when the judgment was docketed in the clerk's office of the county, or at any time thereafter.

Co. Proc., part of § 289, am'd.

§ 1370. Id.; where a warrant of attachment has been levied by sheriff.

Where a warrant of attachment, issued in the action, has been levied by the sheriff, the execution must substantially require the sheriff to satisfy the judgment, as follows:

1. Where the judgment debtor is a non-resident, or a foreign corporation, and the summons was served upon him or it, without the State, or otherwise than personally, pursuant to an order obtained for that purpose, as prescribed in chapter fifth of this act, and the judgment debtor has not appeared in the action; out of the personal property attached, and, if that is insufficient, out of the real property attached.

2. In any other case, out of the personal property attached; and, if that is insufficient, out of the other personal property of the judgment debtor; if both are insufficient, out of the real property attached; and, if that is insufficient, out of the real property, belonging to him, at the time when the judgment was docketed in the clerk's office of the county, or at any time thereafter.

See §§ 649, 707 and 708, ante.

§ 1371. Id.; against executor, etc.

An execution against real or personal property, in the hands of an executor, administrator, heir, devisee, legatee, tenant of real property, or trustee, must substantially require the sheriff to satisfy the judgment, out of that property.

Co. Proc., § 289, subd. 1.

§ 1372. Id.; against the person.

An execution against the person must substantially require the sheriff, to arrest the judgment debtor, and commit him to the jail of the county, until he pays the judgment, or is discharged according to law. Except where it may be issued, without the previous issuing and return of an execution against property, it must recite the issuing and return of such an execution, specifying the county to which it was issued.

Id., § 289, subd. 3, am'd. See § 1489.

§ 1373. Id.; for delivery of property. How money, recovered by same judgment, may be collected.

An execution for the delivery of the possession of real property, or a chattel, must particularly describe the property, and designate the party to whom the judgment awards the possession thereof; and it must substantially require the sheriff, to deliver the possession of the property, within his county, to the party entitled thereto. If a sum of money is awarded by the same judgment, it may be collected, by virtue of the same execution; or a separate execution may be issued for the collection thereof, omitting the direction to deliver possession of the property. If one execution is issued for both purposes, it must contain, with respect to the money to be collected, the same directions as an execution against property, or against the person, as the case requires.

Substitute for Co. Proc., § 289, subd. 4.

§ 1374. Separate executions, where separate sums awarded.

Where a judgment awards different sums of money, to or against different parties, a separate execution may be issued, to collect each sum so awarded; subject to the power of the court, to control the enforcement of the executions, upon motion, where the collection of one execution will, wholly or partly, satisfy another.

§ 1375. Execution of course, within five years.

Except as otherwise specially prescribed by law, the party recovering a final judgment, or his assignee, may have execution thereupon, of course, at any time within five years after the entry of the judgment.

Co. Proc., § 283, am'd. See §§ 1382, 1858.

§ 1376. [Am'd, 1885, 1887.] Execution after death of judgment creditor.

Where the party recovering a final judgment has died, execution may be issued at any time within five years after the entry of the judgment, by his personal representatives, or by the assignee of the judgment, if it has been assigned, and the execution must be indorsed with the name and residence of the person issuing the same. And where a party or one or more of several parties against whom a judgment for the recovery of possession of real property has been obtained has died, an order granting leave to issue and execute such execution or writ of possession may be granted upon giving twenty days' notice to the occupants of the lands so recovered and to the grantees or devisees of said deceased, or if he died intestate, to the heirs at law of said deceased, said notices to be served in the same manner as a summons is directed to be served in an action in the supreme court.

L. 1887, ch. 682.

§ 1877. When execution may be issued after five years.

After the lapse of five years from the entry of a final judgment, execution can be issued thereupon, in one of the following cases only:

1. [Am'd, 1879.] Where an execution was issued thereupon, within five years after the entry of the judgment, and has been returned wholly or partly unsatisfied or unexecuted.

2. Where an order is made by the court, granting leave to issue the execution.

Co. Proc., part of § 284.

§ 1878. Id.; leave, how obtained.

Notice of an application for an order, granting leave to issue an execution, as prescribed in the last section, must be served personally upon the adverse party, if he is a resident of the State, and personal service can, with reasonable diligence, be made upon him therein; otherwise, notice must be given in such manner as the court directs. Where the judgment is for a sum of money, or directs the payment of a sum of money, leave shall not be granted, except on proof, by affidavit, to the satisfaction of the court, that the judgment remains wholly or partly unsatisfied.

Id., am'd.

§ 1879. No execution against decedent, except, etc.

An execution to collect a sum of money cannot be issued, against the property of a judgment debtor, who has died since the entry of the judgment except as prescribed in the next two sections.

§ 1880. [Am'd, 1894, 1916.] Execution against decedent's property.

After the expiration of one year from the death of a party, against whom a final judgment for a sum of money, or directing the payment of a sum of money is rendered, the judgment may be enforced by execution against any property upon which it is a lien with like effect as if the judgment debtor was still living. But such an execution shall not be issued, unless an order granting leave to issue it is procured from the court from which the execution is to be issued, and from a surrogate's court of this state, which has duly granted letters testamentary or letters of administration upon the estate of the deceased judgment debtor. Where the lien of the judgment was created as prescribed in section twelve hundred and fifty-one of this act, neither order can be made until the expiration of eighteen months after letters testamentary or letters of administration have been duly granted upon the estate of the decedent, and for that purpose such a lien existing at the decedent's death continues for two years thereafter, notwithstanding the previous expiration of ten years from the filing of the judgment roll. But where letters upon the estate of the decedent have not been granted within eighteen months after his death by the surrogate's court of the county in which the decedent resided at the time of his death, or if the decedent resided out of the state at the time of his death, and letters testamentary or letters of administration have not been granted within the same time by the surrogate's court of the county in which the property on which the judgment is a lien is situated, such court may grant the order where it appears that the decedent did not leave any personal property within the state upon which to administer. In such case the lien of the judgment existing at the decedent's death continues for two years as aforesaid. Provided, however, that such judgment lien, existing at the decedent's death, upon the decedent's real property, or some portion thereof, may be enforced and payment thereof obtained during the said eighteen months after granting of letters testamentary, or letters of administration, in the manner prescribed by title four of chapter eighteen of this act. But this section shall not apply to real estate which shall have been conveyed, or hereafter may be conveyed by the deceased judgment debtor during his lifetime, if such conveyance was made in fraud of his creditors or any of them, and any judgment creditor of said deceased, against whose judgment said conveyance shall have been, or may hereafter be, declared fraudulent by the judgment and decree of any court of competent jurisdiction, may enforce his said judgment against such real property, with like effect as if the judgment debtor was living, and it shall not be necessary to obtain the leave of any court or officer to issue such execution, and the same may be issued at any time to the sheriff of the county where such property is or may be situated. The person issuing such execution, however, shall annex thereto a description of the real estate against which the same is sought to be enforced, as aforesaid, and shall endorse on said execution the words "issued under section thirteen hundred and eighty of the code of civil procedure." whereupon said sheriff shall enforce said execution as therein directed, against the property so described, and not against any other property, either real or personal, and all provisions of law relating to the sale and conveyance of real estate on execution and the redemption thereof shall apply thereto.

Am'd by L. 1894, ch. 734; L. 1916, ch. 625, in effect May 20, 1916. See § 1825.

§ 1381. [Am'd, 1889.] Leave, how obtained.

Leave to issue an execution, as prescribed in the last section, must be procured as follows:

1. Notice of the application, to the court, from which the execution is to be issued, for an order, granting leave to issue the execution, must be given to the person or persons, whose interest in the property will be affected by a sale by virtue of the execution, and also to the executor or administrator of the judgment debtor. The general rules of practice may prescribe the manner in which the notice must be given; until provision is so made therein, it must be served, either personally, or in such manner as the court prescribes, in an order to show cause. Leave shall not be granted, except upon proof, by affidavit to the satisfaction of the court that the judgment remains wholly or partly unsatisfied.

2. For the purpose of procuring a decree from the surrogate's court, granting leave to issue the execution, the judgment creditor must present to that court, a written petition, duly verified, setting forth the facts, and praying for such a decree; and that the persons, specified in the first subdivision of this section, may be cited, to show cause why it should not be granted. Upon the presentation of such a petition, the surrogate must issue a citation accordingly, which said citation may be served in the same manner as is provided in the first subdivision of this section for the service or giving of a notice to the parties or persons therein mentioned, and, if the general rules of practice of the supreme court do not provide for a mode of giving such notice, such citation must be served in such manner as the surrogate by order may prescribe, or as is otherwise provided by law; and, upon his return thereof, he must make such a decree in the premises as justice requires.

§ 1382. Time of stay by order, etc., not reckoned under this title.

The time during which the person, entitled to enforce a judgment, is stayed from enforcing it, by the provision of a statute, or by an injunction or other order, or in consequence of an appeal, is not a part of the time, limited by this title, for issuing an execution thereupon, or for making an application for leave to issue such an execution.

§ 1383. Execution against surviving judgment debtors.

The last six sections do not affect the right of a judgment creditor to enforce a judgment, against the property of one or more surviving judgment debtors, as if all the judgment debtors were living. In that case, an execution must be issued in the usual form; but the attorney for the judgment creditor must indorse thereupon, a notice to the sheriff, reciting the death of the deceased judgment debtor, and requiring the sheriff not to collect the execution, out of any property which belonged to him.

§ 1384. [Am'd, 1894.] Sale on execution, etc.; when and how conducted.

A sale of real or personal property, by virtue of an execution, or pursuant to the directions contained in a judgment or order, must be made at public auction, between the hour of nine o'clock in the morning and sunset. The sheriff to whom an execution is issued shall at any time before the sale of the personal property levied on by him, on the written request of any person who is a creditor of the person against whom the writ was issued under which the sheriff levied upon the property, exhibit to such creditor the personal property so levied upon under said writ and permit an inspection thereof by such creditor or his agent.

L. 1894, ch. 739.

§ 1385. Penalty for taking down or defacing notice of sale.

A person who, before the time fixed for the sale, in a notice of the sale of property, to be made by virtue of an execution, wilfully takes down or defaces such a notice put up by the sheriff, or by his authority, forfeits fifty dollars to the judgment creditor, and the same sum to the judgment debtor; unless the notice was defaced or taken down, with the consent of the person seeking to enforce the forfeiture or the execution was previously satisfied.

§ 1386. Validity of sale, when not affected by sheriff's default, etc.

An omission by the sheriff to give notice, as required by law, or the taking down or defacing of a notice, when put up, does not effect* the validity of a sale, made by virtue of an execution, to a purchaser in good faith, without notice of the omission or offence.

2 R. S. 369. § 40.

§ 1387. Purchases on such sales, by certain officers, prohibited.

The sheriff, to whom an execution is directed, or the under-sheriff or deputy-sheriff, holding an execution, and conducting a sale of property by virtue thereof, shall not, directly or indirectly, purchase any of the property at the sale. A purchase made by him, or to his use, is void.

Id., § 41.

§ 1388. When execution to be enforced by under-sheriff.

Where the sheriff, to whom an execution is delivered, dies, is removed from office, or becomes otherwise disqualified to act, before the execution is returned, his under-sheriff must proceed upon the execution, as the sheriff might have done. If there is no under-sheriff, the court, from which the execution issued, may designate a person to proceed thereupon; who may complete the same, as an under-sheriff might have done. The person so designated must give such security as the court directs. He is deemed an officer; and is subject to the same obligations and liabilities, and has the same power and authority, in relation to the object of his appointment, as a sheriff, and is entitled to fees accordingly. But this section does not apply, in a case where special provision is otherwise made by law for the enforcement of an execution, after the death, removal from office, or other disqualification, of the sheriff, or under-sheriff.

TITLE II.

Execution against property.

- Article 1. Property exempt from levy and sale.
 2. Lien of an execution upon personal property; levy upon and sale of personal property. Rights of indemnitors of sheriff.
 3. Sale, redemption, and conveyance of real property; rights and liabilities of persons interested.
 4. Remedies for failure of title to real property sold, and to enforce contribution.

ARTICLE FIRST.

Property exempt from levy and sale.

- Sec. 1889. Certain special exemptions not affected by this article.
 1390. What personal property is exempt, when owned by a householder.
 1391. Additional personal property exempt in certain cases; levying execution against wages, etc., of judgment debtor.
 1392. Woman entitled to same exemption as a householder.
 1393. Military pay, rewards, etc., exempt from execution and other legal proceedings.
 1394. Right of action for taking, etc., exempt property.
 1395. Burying ground; when exempted.
 1396. How exempt burying ground designated.
 1397. Homestead; when exempted.
 1398. How exempt homestead designated.
 1399. Married woman's homestead; when exempted.
 1400. When exemption to continue after owner's death.

 1403. Id.; how proceeds to be marshalled when property is sold.
 1404. Exemption of real property; how cancelled.
 1404a. Exemption of exhibits at exhibitions.

§ 1889. Certain special exemptions not affected by this article.

The enumeration, in this article, of the property which is exempt from levy and sale by virtue of an execution, does not repeal any special provision of law, relating to such an exemption, which, by its terms, is applicable only to a particular class of persons, or corporations, or to a particular locality, or otherwise to a special case.

Designed to guard against a repeal, by implication, of provisions like L. 1847, ch. 133, § 10 (2 R. S., 5th ed., 630; 3 Edm. 748); L. 1851, ch. 122, § 19 (2 R. S., 5th ed., 784; 3 Edm. 782); L. 1866, ch. 273, § 6 (6 Edm. 715); L. 1867, ch. 516; and various similar statutes.

§ 1890. What personal property is exempt, when owned by a householder.***

The following personal property, when owned by a householder, is exempt from levy and sale by virtue of an execution; and each movable article thereof continues to be so exempt, while the family, or any of them, are removing from one residence to another:

1. All spinning wheels, weaving looms, and stoves, put up, or kept for use in a dwelling house; and one sewing-machine, with its appurtenances.

2. The family bible, family pictures, and school-books, used by or in the family; and other books, not exceeding in value fifty dollars, kept and used as part of the family library.

* See L. 1878, ch. 33.

3. A seat or pew, occupied by the judgment debtor, or the family, in a place of public worship.

4. Ten sheep, with their fleeces, and the yarn or cloth manufactured therefrom; one cow; two swine; the necessary food for those animals; all necessary meat, fish, flour, groceries and vegetables, actually provided for family use; and necessary fuel, oil, and candles, for the use of the family for sixty days.

5. All wearing apparel, beds, bedsteads, and bedding, necessary for the judgment debtor and the family; all necessary cooking utensils; one table; six chairs; six knives; six forks; six spoons; six plates; six tea cups; six saucers; one sugar dish; one milk pot; one tea pot; one crane and its appendages; one pair of andirons; one coal scuttle; one shovel; one pair of tongs; one lamp, and one candlestick.

6. The tools and implements of a mechanic, necessary to the carrying on of his trade, not exceeding in value twenty-five dollars.

2 R. S. 367, § 22 (2 Edm. 380), as am'd by L. 1860, ch. 152; with additions.

§ 1391. [Am'd, 1879, 1901, 1903, 1905, 1908, 1911, 1914.] Additional personal property exempt in certain cases; levying execution against wages, etc., of judgment debtor.

In addition to the exemptions, allowed by the last section, necessary household furniture, working tools and team, professional instruments, furniture and library, not exceeding in value two hundred and fifty dollars, together with the necessary food for the team, for ninety days, are exempt from levy and sale by virtue of an execution, when owned by a person, being a householder, or having a family for which he provides, except where the execution is issued upon a judgment, recovered wholly upon one or more demands, either for work performed in the family as a domestic or for the purchase money, of one or more articles, exempt as prescribed in this or the last section. Where a judgment has been recovered and where an execution issued upon said judgment has been returned wholly or partly unsatisfied, and where any wages, debts, earnings, salary, income from trust funds or profits are due and owing to the judgment debtor or shall thereafter become due and owing to him, to the amount of twelve dollars or more per week, the judgment creditor may apply to the court in which said judgment was recovered or the court having jurisdiction of the same without notice to the judgment debtor and upon satisfactory proof of such facts by affidavits or otherwise, the court, if a court not of record, a judge or justice thereof, must issue or if a court of record, a judge or justice, must grant an order directing that an execution issue against the wages, debt, earnings, salary, income from trust funds or profits of said judgment debtor, and on presentation of such execution by the officer to whom delivered for collection to the person or persons from whom such wages, debts, earnings, salary, income from trust funds or profits are due and owing, or may thereafter become due and owing to the judgment debtor, said execution shall become a lien and a continuing levy upon the wages, earnings, debts, salary, income from trust funds or profits due or to become due to said judgment debtor to the amount specified therein which shall not exceed ten per centum thereof, and said levy shall be a continuing levy until said execution and the expenses thereof are fully satisfied and paid or until modified as hereinafter provided, but only one execution against the wages, debts, earnings, salary, income from trust funds or profits of said judgment debtor shall be satisfied at one time and where more than one execution has been issued or shall be issued pursuant to the provisions of this section against the same judgment debtor, they shall be satisfied in the order of priority in which such executions are presented to the person or persons from whom such wages, debts, earnings, salary, income from trust funds or profits are due and owing. It shall be the duty of any person or corporation, municipal or otherwise, to whom said execution shall be presented, and who shall at such time be indebted to the judgment debtor named in such execution, or who shall become indebted to such judgment debtor in the future, and while said execution shall remain a lien upon said indebtedness to pay over to the officer presenting the same, such amount of such indebtedness as such execution shall prescribe until said execution shall be wholly satisfied and such payment shall be a bar to any action therefor by any such judgment debtor. If such person or corporation, municipal or otherwise, to whom said execution shall be presented shall fail, or refuse to pay over to said officer presenting said execution, the percentage of said indebtedness, he shall be liable to an action therefor by the judgment creditor named in such execution, and the amount so recovered by such judgment creditor shall be applied towards the payment of said execution. Either party may apply at any time to the court from which such execution shall issue, or to any judge or justice issuing the same, or to the county judge of the county, and in any county where there is no county judge, to any justice of the city court upon such notice to the other party as such court, judge, or justice shall direct for a modification of said execution, and upon such hearing the said court, judge or justice may make such modification of said execution as shall be deemed just, and such execution as so modified shall continue in full force and effect until fully paid and satisfied, or until further modified as herein provided. This section, so far as it relates to wages and salary, due and owing or to become due and owing to the judgment debtor, shall not apply to judgments recovered more than ten years prior to September first, nineteen hundred and eight, nor to judgments heretofore or hereafter recovered upon such judgments, and any execution heretofore issued upon such judgments pursuant to an order heretofore granted under this section shall, when this act takes effect, cease to be a lien and continuing levy upon wages and salary thereafter to become due and owing to the judgment debtor.

§ 1392. [Am'd, 1877.] Woman entitled to same exemption as a householder.

Where the judgment debtor is a woman, she is entitled to the same exemptions, from levy and sale by virtue of an execution, subject to the same exceptions, as prescribed in the last two sections, in the case of a householder.

§ 1393. [Am'd, 1895, 1897.] Military pay, rewards, etc., exempt from execution and other legal proceedings.

The pay and bounty of a non-commissioned officer, musician or private in the military or naval service of the United States or the state of New York; a land warrant, pension or other reward heretofore or hereafter granted by the United States, or by a state, for military or naval services; a sword, horse, medal, emblem or device of any kind presented as a testimonial for services rendered in the military or naval service of the United States or a state; and the uniform, arms and equipments which were used by a person in that service, are also exempt from levy and sale, by virtue of an execution, and from seizure for non-payment of taxes, or in any other legal proceeding; except that real property purchased with the proceeds of a pension granted by the United States for military or naval services, and owned by the pensioner, or by his wife or widow, is subject to seizure and sale for the collection of taxes or assessments lawfully levied thereon.

L. 1897, ch. 348. In effect Sept. 1, 1896. (Probable error for 1897.)

§ 1394. Right of action for taking, etc., exempt property.

A right of action to recover damages, or damages awarded by a judgment, for taking or injuring personal property, exempt by law from levy and sale, by virtue of an execution, are exempt, for one year after the collection thereof, from levy and sale, by virtue of an execution, and from seizure in any other legal proceeding.

§ 1395. Burying ground; when exempted.

Land, set apart as a family or private burying ground, and heretofore designated, as prescribed by law, in order to exempt the same, or hereafter designated for that purpose, as prescribed in the next section, is exempt from sale, by virtue of an execution, upon the following conditions only:

1. A portion of it must have been actually used for that purpose.

2. It must not exceed in extent one-fourth of an acre.

3. It must not contain, at the time of its designation, or at any time afterwards, any building or structure, except one or more vaults, or other places of deposit for the dead, or mortuary monuments.

L. 1847, ch. 85, § 1, and part of § 2 (4 Edm. 629), am'd.

§ 1396. How exempt burying ground designated.

In order to designate land, to be exempted as prescribed in the last section, a notice, containing a full description of the land to be exempted, and stating that it has been set apart for a family or private burying ground, must be subscribed by the owner; acknowledged or proved, and certified, in like manner as a deed to be recorded in the county where the land is situated; and recorded in the office of the clerk or register of that county, in the proper book for recording deeds, at least three days before the sale of the land, by virtue of the execution.

L. 1847, ch. 85, the residue of § 2, am'd.

§ 1397. [Am'd, 1883.] Homestead; when exempted.

A lot of land, with one or more buildings thereon, not exceeding in value one thousand dollars, owned, and occupied as a residence, by a householder having a family, and heretofore designated as an exempt homestead, as prescribed by law, or hereafter designated for that purpose, as prescribed in the next section, is exempt from sale, by virtue of an execution, issued upon a judgment, recovered for a debt contracted after the thirtieth day of April, eighteen hundred and fifty; unless the judgment was recovered wholly for a debt or debts, contracted before the designation of the property, (or) for the purchase-money thereof. But no property heretofore or hereafter designated as an exempt homestead, as prescribed by law, or by the next section, shall be exempt from taxation, or from sale for non-payment of taxes or assessments.

L. 1850, ch. 260 (4 Edm. 632), first sentence of § 1; L. 1883, ch. 156.

§ 1398. How exempt homestead designated.

In order to designate property, to be exempted as prescribed in the last section, a conveyance thereof, stating, in substance, that it is designed to be held as a homestead, exempt from sale by virtue of an execution, must be recorded, as prescribed by law; or a notice, containing a full description of the property, and stating that it is designed to be so held, must be subscribed by the owner, acknowledged or proved, and certified, in like manner as a deed to be recorded in the county where the property is situated; and must be recorded in the office of the clerk of that county, in a book kept for that purpose, and styled the "homestead exemption book."

L. 1850, ch. 260 (4 Edm. 632), part of § 2

§ 1399. Married woman's homestead; when exempted.

A lot of land, with one or more buildings thereon, owned by a married woman, and occupied by her as a residence, may be designated as her exempt homestead, as prescribed in the last section; and the property so designated is exempt from sale, by virtue of an execution, under the same circumstances, and subject to the same exceptions, as the homestead of a householder, having a family.

See § 1392, ante.

§ 1400. When exemption to continue after owner's death.

The exemption, prescribed by the last three sections, continues, after the death of the person in whose favor the property was exempted, as follows:

1. If the decedent was a woman, it continues, for the benefit of her surviving children, until the majority of the youngest surviving child.

2. If the decedent was a man, it continues, for the benefit of his widow and surviving children, until the majority of the youngest surviving child, and until the death of the widow.

But the exemption ceases earlier, if the property ceases to be occupied, as a residence, by a person for whose benefit it may so continue, except as otherwise prescribed in the next section.

L. 1850, ch. 260 (4 Edm. 632), second sentence of § 1, am'd.

§ 1401. Exemption; when not affected by temporary suspension of residence.

The right to exemption, of a person entitled thereto, as prescribed in the last four sections, is not affected by a suspension of the occupation of the exempt property, as a residence, for a period not exceeding one year, which occurs in consequence of injury to, or destruction of, the dwelling house upon the premises.

§ 1402. If value of homestead exceeds $1,000, lien attaches to surplus.

The exemption of a homestead, otherwise valid under the provisions of this article, is not void, because the value of the property, designated as exempt, exceeds one thousand dollars. In that case, the lien of a judgment attaches to the surplus, as if the property had not been designated as an exempt homestead; but the property cannot be sold by virtue of an execution, issued upon a judgment, as against which it is exempt. After the return of such an execution, the owner of the judgment may maintain a judgment creditor's action, to procure a judgment, directing a sale of the property, and enforcing his lien upon the surplus.

§ 1403. Id.; how proceeds to be marshalled when property is sold.

Where the judgment, in a judgment creditor's action, brought as prescribed in the last section, or in any other action affecting the title to an exempt homestead, directs the sale of the property, the court must so marshal the proceeds of the sale, that the right and interest of each person in the proceeds, shall correspond, as nearly as may be, to his right and interest in the property sold. Money, not exceeding one thousand dollars, paid to a judgment debtor, as representing his interest in the proceeds, is exempt for one year after the payment, as the property sold was exempt; unless, before the expiration of the year, he causes real property to be designated as an exempt homestead, as prescribed in section 1398 of this act; in which case, the exemption ceases, with respect to so much of the money, as was not expended for the purchase of that property; and the exemption of the property so designated extends to every debt, against which the property sold was exempt. Where the exemption of property, sold as prescribed in this section, has been continued after the judgment debtor's death, or where he dies after the sale, and before payment to him of his proportion of the proceeds of the sale, the court may direct that portion of the proceeds, which represents his interest, to be invested, for the benefit of the person or persons, entitled to the benefit of the exemption; or to be otherwise disposed of, as justice requires.

§ 1404. [Am'd, 1894.] Exemption of real property; how canceled.

The owner of real property, exempt as prescribed in this article, may, at any time, subscribe a notice, and personally acknowledge the execution thereof, before an officer authorized by law to take the acknowledgment of a deed, to the effect that he cancels all exemptions from levy or sale by virtue of an execution affecting the property, or a particular part thereof, fully described in the notice. The cancellation takes effect when such a notice is recorded, as prescribed in this article for recording a notice to effect the exemption so canceled. Any other release or waiver, hereafter executed, or an exemption of real property, allowed by this article, or of an exemption of a homestead, or a private or family burying-ground, allowed by the provisions of law heretofore in force, is void; provided, however, that nothing herein contained shall be so construed as to prevent the husband and wife from jointly conveying or mortgaging property so exempt.

L. 1894, ch. 202.

§ 1404a. [Added, 1909.] Exemptions of exhibits at exhibitions.

No process of attachment, execution, sequestration, replevin, distress or any kind of seizure shall be served or levied upon articles, goods, wares, merchandise or property of any description while the same is en route to or from, or while on exhibition or deposited by exhibitors at any international exhibition held under the auspices or supervision of the United States, within any city or county of the state, nor shall such property be subject to attachment, seizure, levy or sale, for any cause whatever, in the hands of the authorities of such exhibition or otherwise.

Added by L. 1909, ch. 65. Derivation — L. 1880, ch. 393. § 1. See note 15 of notes of Board of Statutory Consolidation at end of code.

1428. Sale of personal property; how made.
1429. Notices of sale to be posted.

§ 1405. Personal property bound by execution.

The goods and chattels of a judgment debtor, not exempt, by express provision of law, from levy and sale by virtue of an execution, and his other personal property, which is expressly declared by law, to be subject to levy by virtue of an execution, are, when situated within the jurisdiction of the officer, to whom an execution against property is delivered, bound by the execution, from the time of the delivery thereof to the proper officer, to be executed; but not before.

2 R. S. 365, § 13 (2 Mass. 879), am'd.

§ 1406. Order of preference among executions.

Where two or more executions against property are issued, out of the same or different courts of record, against the same judgment debtor, the one first delivered, to an officer, to be executed, has preference, notwithstanding that a levy is first made, by virtue of an execution subsequently delivered; but if a levy upon and sale of personal property has been made, by virtue of the junior execution, before an actual levy, by virtue of the senior execution, the same property shall not be levied upon or sold, by virtue of the letter.*

Id., § 14, am'd.

§ 1407. Id.; when attachments also are issued.

Where there are one or more executions, and one or more warrants of attachment, against the property of the same person, the rule prescribed in the last section prevails, in determining the preferences of the executions or warrants of attachment; the de-defendant in the warrants of attachment being, for that purpose, regarded as a judgment debtor.

2 R. S. 865, § 15, am'd.

§ 1408. Id.; when issued from court not of record.

But an execution, issued out of a court not of record, or a warrant of attachment, granted in an action pending in a court not of record, if actually levied, has preference over another execution, issued out of any court, of record or not of record, which has not been previously levied.

Id., § 15, am'd.

§ 1409. Title of bona fide purchasers before levy, not affected.

The title to personal property, acquired before the actual levy of an execution, by a purchaser in good faith, and without notice that the execution has been issued, is not affected by an execution delivered, before the purchase was made, to an officer, to be executed.

Id., § 17.

§ 1410. [Am'd, 1877.] Execution may be levied upon current money.

The officer, to whom an execution against property is delivered, must levy upon current money of the United States, belonging to the judgment debtor; and must pay it over, as so much money collected, without exposing it for sale; except that where it consists of gold coin, he must sell it, like other personal property; unless he is otherwise directed, by an order of a judge, or by the judgment in the particular cause.

Substituted for 2 R. S. 866, § 18.

§ 1411. [Am'd, 1877.] Levy upon certain evidences of debt.

The officer, to whom an execution against property is delivered, must levy upon and sell, a bill, or other evidence of debt, belonging to the judgment debtor, which was issued by a moneyed corporation to circulate as money, or a bond, or other instrument for the payment of money, belonging to the judgment debtor, which was executed and issued, by a government, state, county, public officer, or municipal or other corporation, and is in terms negotiable, or payable to the bearer or holder.

2 R. S. 866, § 19, am'd.

§ 1412. Interest of bailor in goods pledged may be sold.

The interest of the judgment debtor in personal property, subject to levy, lawfully pledged, for the payment of money, or the performance of a contract or agreement, may be sold, in the hands of the pledgee, by virtue of an execution against property. The purchaser at the sale acquires all the right and interest of the judgment debtor, and is entitled to the possession of the property, on complying with the terms and conditions upon which the judgment debtor could obtain possession thereof. This section does not apply to property, of which the judgment debtor is unconditionally entitled to the possession.

Id., § 20, am'd.

§ 1413. When partners may apply for release of property levied upon.

Where an officer has seized personal property of a partnership, before or after its dissolution, upon a levy upon the interest therein of a partner, made by virtue of an execution against his individual property, the other partners, or former partners, having an interest in the property, or any of them, may, at any time before the sale, apply to a judge of the court, or to the county judge of the county, where the seizure was made, upon an affidavit, showing the facts, for an order, directing the officer to release the property, and to deliver it to the applicant.

§ 1414. Undertaking to be given.

Upon such an application, the applicant must give an undertaking, with at least two sureties, approved by the judge, to the effect, that he will account to the purchaser, upon the sale to be made by virtue of the execution, of the interest of the judgment debtor in the property seized, in like manner as he would be bound to account to an assignee of such an interest; and that he will pay to the purchaser the balance, which may be found due upon the accounting, not exceeding a sum, specified in the undertaking, which must be not less than the value of the interest of the judgment debtor, in the property seized by the sheriff, as fixed by the judge. The provisions of sections 695 and 696 of this act apply to the proceedings, taken as prescribed in this and the last section.

See § 694, ante.

§ 1415. Provision, where a warrant of attachment has also been levied, etc.

Where a warrant of attachment has been levied upon the interest of a defendant, as a partner, in personal property of a partnership, and the attachment has been discharged as to that interest, as prescribed in sections 693 and 694 of this act, a levy, by virtue of an execution against his individual property, cannot be made upon his interest on the same property, unless the warrant of attachment has been vacated or annulled.

§ 1416. When the undertaking enures to other judgment creditors.

Where personal property of a partnership has been released, upon giving an undertaking, as prescribed in the last three sections, if the execution, by virtue of which the levy was made, is set aside, or is satisfied without a sale of the interest levied upon, the undertaking enures to the benefit of each judgment creditor of the same judgment debtor, then having an execution in the hands of the same officer, or of another officer, having authority to levy upon that interest, as if it had been given to obtain a release from a seizure, made by virtue of such an execution.

§ 1417. How partner's interest sold; rights, etc., of purchaser.

Where personal property of a partnership has been so released, the interest of the judgment debtor therein may be sold by the officer; and the purchaser, upon the sale, acquires all that interest, as if he was an assignee thereof. If the purchase-money exceeds the amount of all the executions and warrants of attachment, against the property of the same judgment debtor, of which the officer has notice, and of the lawful fees and charges thereon, the officer must pay the surplus into court, for the benefit of the judgment debtor, or other person entitled thereto.

§ 1418. [Am'd, 1904.] Claim of property by a third person, how tried.

If personal property, levied upon as the property of the judgment debtor, is claimed by or in behalf of another person, as his property, an affidavit may be made and delivered to the sheriff, in behalf of such person, at any time while such property or the proceeds thereof are in the sheriff's possession, stating that he makes such a claim; specifying in whole or in part the property to which it relates, and in all cases stating the value of the property claimed and the damages, if any, over and above such value, which the claimant will suffer in case such levy is not released. In that case, the officer may, in his discretion, empanel a jury to try the validity of the claim.

See § 657, ante; also §§ 108-110, ante; L. 1904, ch. 541. In effect Sept. 1, 1904.

§ 1419. [Am'd, 1895, 1904.] Proceedings, if claimant succeeds.

If by their inquisition the jurors find that the property belongs to the claimant, they must also determine its value and the damages above such value as specified in the last section. Thereupon the officer may relinquish the levy, unless the judgment creditor gives him an undertaking with at least two sufficient sureties, to the effect that the sureties will indemnify him to an amount therein specified, not less than twice the value of the property and damages as determined by the jury, and two hundred and fifty dollars in addition thereto, against all damages, costs and expenses, in an action to be brought against him by any person, by the claimant, his assignee, or other representative, by reason of the levy upon, detention or sale of any of the property, by virtue of the execution. If the undertaking is given, the officer must detain the property as belonging to the judgment debtor. Where an undertaking is given to indemnify an officer, he must, within two days after the giving of the said undertaking, cause the same to be filed in the office of the clerk of the court out of which the execution was issued, and serve upon the claimant, his assignee or other representative, and the judgment creditor, or the attorney whose name is subscribed to the execution, a copy of the said undertaking, with a notice of the justification of the sureties thereon. The justification must take place before a judge of the court out of which the execution was issued, at a time to be specified in the notice, which must not be less than two nor more than five days after service of said notice. For the purpose of justification, each of the sureties upon the undertaking must attend before the judge, at the time and place mentioned in the notice, and be examined on oath, on the part of the claimant, his assignee or other representative, touching his sufficiency in such manner as the judge in his discretion thinks proper. The examination may be adjourned from day to day, until it is completed, but such adjournment must always be to the next judicial day. If required by the claimant, his assignee or other representative, the examination must be reduced to writing and subscribed by the sureties. If the judge finds the sureties sufficient, he must annex the examination to the undertaking, endorse his allowance thereon, and cause the said undertaking, together with the examination of the sureties, to be filed with the clerk of the court. Thereupon the sheriff is released and discharged from all liability by reason of the levy upon, detention, and sale of the property seized. When any such undertaking shall have been approved and filed, as hereinbefore provided, the clerk of the court shall immediately upon the same being filed, index the same in the index book in his office, under which executions are indexed, under the title of the suit in which the execution is issued.

L. 1895, ch. 663. See § 658, ante; L. 1904, ch. 541. In effect Sept. 1, 1904.

§ 1420. Inquisition not to prejudice claimant's right.

If the property is found to belong to the defendant, the finding does not prejudice the right of the claimant, to bring an action to recover the property so levied upon, or damages by reason of the levy, detention, or sale.

See §§ 108 and 109, and 657-659, ante.

§ 1421. [Am'd, 1887, 1900.] In action against officer, indemnitors may be substituted as defendants.

Where an action to recover a chattel or chattels, hereafter levied upon by virtue of an execution, or several executions, or a warrant of attachment, or several warrants of attachment, or to recover damages by reason of a levy or levies upon detention, sale or sales of personal property, hereafter made, by virtue of an execution or several executions, or a warrant of attachment, or several warrants of attachment, is brought against an officer, or against a person who acted by his command or in his aid, if a bond or bonds or written undertaking or undertakings indemnifying the officer against the levy or levies, or other act or acts, has been given in behalf of the judgment creditor or the several judgment creditors, or the plaintiff in the warrant or the plaintiffs in the several warrants, either before or after the commencement of the action, the persons or person or the several persons who gave it to them, or the survivors, if one or more are dead, may apply to the court for an order to substitute the applicant or several applicants as defendants in the action, in place of the officer or of the person so acting by his command or in his aid; and the court may upon application of the officer, or in case of his death, upon the application of his legal representatives, grant an order substituting the indemnitors as defendants in the action, in place of the officer or of the person so acting by his command or in his aid.

L. 1887, ch. 452; L. 1900, ch. 115. In effect Sept. 1, 1900.

§ 1422. [Am'd, 1887.] Notice of application and proofs thereupon.

Where the application is made by the officer, notice of the application must be given to the indemnitors or their attorney, and also to the attorney for the plaintiff. If the pleadings do not sufficiently show that the case is one where the order may be granted, the facts with respect thereto must be shown by affidavit or other competent proof. Where the application is made by the indemnitors, or one of them, the motion papers must contain a written consent to be made defendant in the action executed by each person who executed the instrument or instruments of indemnity, unless proof by affidavit is furnished that those who do not consent are dead. Each consent must be acknowledged or proved and certified in like manner as a deed to be recorded in the county, and notice of the application must be given to the attorney of each party to the action, and if the defendant has not appeared, notice must be given to him personally.

L. 1887, ch. 452.

§ 1423. [Am'd, 1887.] Terms may be imposed.

Upon granting the order the court may, in its discretion, require the indemnitors to furnish additional security to the plaintiff and to pay the reasonable expenses of the defendant, necessarily incurred before the order is granted, or it may impose such other terms for the security of either of the original parties as justice requires.

L. 1887, ch. 452.

§ 1424. [Am'd, 1887.] When indemnity related to part of property.

If the indemnity given related to a part only of the property, the court may, in a proper case, direct that the action be divided into two actions, that the indemnitors be substituted as defendants in one without affecting the other, and that the controversy in each action be limited to that part of the property in respect to which it is to be continued. Where such an order is made a similar application may be subsequently made in the action which proceeds against the original defendant.

L. 1887, ch. 452.

§ 1425. [Am'd, 1887.] Application when officer is joined with indemnitors.

If the officer, or person acting by his command, or in his aid, is joined as a defendant, with all the indemnitors, he may apply for an order to strike out his name as a defendant. If he is joined as a defendant with one or more, but not all of them, he may apply for an order substituting those who are not joined with him as defendants in his place. In either case, the application is made in the same manner, and is subject to the same provisions, as if made as prescribed in section 1421 of this act.

L. 1887, ch. 452.

§ 1426. Effect of the order.

An order, made as prescribed in the last five sections, does not affect the merits of the cause of action, or of the defense, except so far as it limits the controversy to particular property. But if the substituted or remaining defendants recover judgment, they are entitled to single costs only. If the action is discontinued, or the complaint dismissed, a new action may be brought, as if the former action had not been brought.

§ 1427. [Am'd, 1887.] Officer to whom indemnity is given, required to give notice of action.

Where an action is brought in a case where one or more persons are entitled to make an application for an order of substitution, or where one or more persons are liable to be substituted as defendants, as prescribed in section one thousand four hundred and twenty-one of this act, the officer to whom the instrument or instruments of indemnity was given cannot maintain an action thereupon against a person entitled to make, but who has not made, such an application, or who is liable to be but has not been substituted as a defendant, unless notice of the commencement of the action against the officer, or the person acting by his command or in his aid, is given before the trial thereof, or at least ten days before judgment by default is taken therein either to attorney or several attorneys whose name is or several names are subscribed to the execution or several executions or warrants of attachment or several warrants of attachment, or personally to the judgment creditor or creditors, or the plaintiff or several plaintiffs in the action in which the warrant of attachment was or several warrants of attachment were issued, or to one of the persons who executed the instrument or instruments of indemnity.

L. 1887, ch. 452.

§ 1428. Sale of personal property; how made.

Personal property must be offered for sale, in such lots and parcels, as are calculated to bring the highest price. Except where the officer is expressly authorized, by this article, to sell property not in his possession, personal property shall not be offered for sale, unless it is present, and within the view of those attending the sale.

2 R. S. 367, § 23 (2 Edm. 381), am'd.

§ 1429. [Am'd, 1907.] Notices of sale to be posted.

At least six days' previous notice of the time and place of a sale of personal property, by virtue of an execution, must be given, by posting conspicuously written or printed notices thereof, in at least three public places of the town or city, where the sale is made. Where perishable property has been levied upon by virtue of an execution the court may, upon the application of the officer making the levy, by order, direct the sale thereof at such a time and upon such a notice as it deems proper; and, thereupon, the property must be sold accordingly.

Id., § 21, am'd; L. 1907, ch. 244. In effect Sept. 1, 1907. See 3 T. & C. 210.

1512. To whom money paid upon redemption.
1513. Certificate of satisfaction required to effect redemption by creditor.
1514. What evidence a redeeming judgment creditor must furnish.
1515. Id.; as to mortgage creditor.
1516. Id.; as to executor or administrator.
1517. Officers to keep papers open to inspection; when to file them.
1518. When redemption takes effect.
1519. Certificate to be given, when redemption made.
1520. Certificate may be acknowledged and recorded.
1521. When and by whom conveyance to be executed.
1522. To whom conveyance to be executed.
1523. When conveyance made to executor or administrator; effect thereof.
1524. Assignment must be acknowledged and filed.
1525. Under-sheriff or successor to act, if sheriff dies.
1526. Money may be paid, etc., to under-sheriff, or deputy-sheriff, who sold property.
1527. Application of this article to sale by coroner, or person specially appointed, etc.
1528. Id.; where coroner or person appointed dies, etc.

§ 1480. To what leasehold property this article applies.

The expression, "real property", as used in this and the succeeding article, includes leasehold property, where the lessee or his assignee is possessed, at the time of the sale, of at least five years unexpired term of the lease, and also of the building or buildings, if any, erected thereupon.

L. 1837, ch. 462, § 1; verbal amendments.

§ 1481. Real property held in trust, when liable to execution.

Real property, held by one person, in trust or for the use of another, is liable to levy and sale by virtue of an execution, issued upon a judgment recovered against the person, to whose use it is so held, in a case where it is prescribed by law, that, by reason of the invalidity of the trust, an estate vests in the beneficiary; but special provision is not otherwise made by law, for the mode of subjecting it to his debts.

Substituted for 2 R. S. 368, § 26 (2 Edm. 381).

§ 1432. Equity of redemption; when not to be sold.

The judgment debtor's equity of redemption, in real property mortgaged, shall not be sold by virtue of an execution, issued upon a judgment recovered for the mortgage debt, or any part thereof.

Id., § 31.

§ 1433. Direction to be indorsed on execution.

Where an execution against property, is issued upon a judgment, specified in the last section, to the county where the mortgaged property is situated, the attorney, or other person who subscribes it, must indorse thereupon a direction to the sheriff, not to levy it upon the mortgaged property, or any part thereof. The direction must briefly describe the mortgaged property, and refer to the book and page, where the mortgage is recorded. If the execution is not collected out of the other property of the judgment debtor, the sheriff must return it wholly or partly unsatisfied, as the case requires.

Id., §§ 32 and 33.

§ 1434. [Am'd, 1896.] Notice of sale of real property; how given.

The sheriff who sells real property, by virtue of an execution, must previously give public notice of the time and place of the sale, as follows:

1. A written or printed notice thereof must be conspicuously fastened up, at least forty-two days before the sale, in three public places, in the town or city where the sale is to take place, and also in three public places, in the town or city where the property is situated, if the sale is to take place in another town or city.

2. A copy of the notice must be published, at least once in each of the six weeks, immediately preceding the sale, in a newspaper published in the county, or published in an incorporated village, a part of which is within the county; if there is a newspaper published in such county or village; or, if there is none, in the newspaper printed at Albany, in which legal notices are required to be published.

Id., § 34, am'd; L. 1896, ch. 567. In effect May 12, 1896.

§ 1435. Property, how described therein. Part may be sold.

In each notice, specified in the last section, the real property to be sold must be described with common certainty, by setting forth the name of the township or tract, and the number of the lot, if there is any, or by some other appropriate description. The validity of a sale is not affected by the fact, that the property sold is part only of the property advertised to be sold.

Id., § 35, am'd.

§ 1436. Penalty for irregularity in sale.

A sheriff who sells real property, by virtue of an execution, without having given notice thereof, as prescribed in the last two sections, or otherwise than as prescribed in this chapter, forfeits one thousand dollars to the party injured, in addition to the damages which the latter sustains thereby.

2 R. S. 369, § 37.

§ 1437. Manner of conducting sale.

Where real property, offered for sale by virtue of an execution, consists of two or more known lots, tracts, or parcels, each lot, tract, or parcel must be separately exposed for sale. If a person who is the owner of, or is entitled by law to redeem, a distinct parcel of the property, of any other description, requires that parcel to be exposed for sale separately, the sheriff must expose it accordingly. No more real property shall be exposed for sale, than it appears to be necessary to sell, in order to satisfy the execution.

Id., § 38, am'd. See 4 T. & C. 681.

§ 1438. Sheriff to make duplicate certificates of sale.

The sheriff, who sells real property, by virtue of an execution, must make out, subscribe, and acknowledge before an officer authorized to take the acknowledgment of a deed, duplicate certificates of the sale, containing:

1. The name of each purchaser, and the time when the sale was made.
2. A particular description of the property sold.
3. The price bid for each distinct parcel separately sold.
4. The whole consideration money paid.

Id., § 42, am'd.

§ 1439. Certificate to be recorded, etc.

The sheriff must, within ten days after the sale, file one of the duplicate certificates in the office of the clerk of the county, and deliver another to the purchaser. If there are two or more purchasers, a certificate must be delivered to each. The clerk must immediately record the certificate in a book, kept by him for that purpose, and must index the record, to the name of the judgment debtor. His fees for so doing must be paid by the sheriff, as part of the expenses of the sale.

Id., § 43; and L. 1857, ch. 60, § 1 (4 Edm. 634), consolidated.

§ 1440. [Am'd, 1881.] Title to real property not divested before deed.

The right and title of the judgment debtor, or of a person holding under him, or deriving title through him, to real property sold by virtue of an execution, is not divested by the sale, until the expiration of the period, within which it can be redeemed, as prescribed in this article, and the execution of the sheriff's deed. But if the property is not redeemed, and a deed is executed in pursuance of the sale, the grantee in the deed is deemed to have been vested with the legal estate, from the time of the sale. And if the title of such grantee or his assigns is adjudged for any reason or cause whatsoever to be null and void in any action for that purpose brought by the judgment debtor or his assigns, such judgment shall have no force or effect unless within twenty days after the entry of such judgment the plaintiff shall pay to such grantee or his assigns the sum of money which was paid upon the sale with interest from the time of the sale as prescribed in this article, including the costs and expenses of said defendant in defending this action in which such judgment was recovered, to be adjusted by a judge of the court in which said action is brought, and in the event of plaintiff's failure to pay such purchase-money and expenses within the time aforesaid, said title shall be valid in said grantee, and in case such judgment has heretofore been recovered and an appeal has been taken therefrom which is now pending, and such judgment shall be affirmed on final appeal, the same shall have no force of effect unless within twenty days after the entry of judgment or affirmance, the plaintiff shall pay to such grantee or his assigns the sum of money which was paid upon the sale, with interest as aforesaid, including the costs and expenses of the defendant as aforesaid, in prosecuting any appeal from such judgment, and in the event of plaintiff's failure so to do, said title shall be valid in said grantee.

2 R. S. 373, § 61 (2 Edm. 387), am'd. L. 1881, ch. 681.

§ 1441. Rights of holder of the property during intermediate period.

The person entitled to the possession of real property, sold by virtue of an execution, as prescribed in the last section, may, during the period therein specified, use and enjoy the same as follows, without being chargeable with committing waste:

1. He may use and enjoy it in like manner, and for the like purposes, as it was used and enjoyed before the sale, doing no permanent injury to the freehold.

2. He may make necessary repairs to a building, or other erection thereupon. But this subdivision does not permit an alteration in the form or structure of the building or other erection.

3. He may use and improve the land, in the ordinary course of husbandry; but he is not entitled to a crop, growing thereon, at the expiration of the period of redemption.

4. He may apply any wood or timber on the land to the necessary reparation of a fence, building, or other erection, which was thereupon at the time of the sale.

5. If he actually occupies the land sold, he may take necessary fire-wood therefrom for use in his household.

2 R. S. 336, § 23 (2 Edm. 347).

§ 1442. Order to prevent waste; when and how applied for.

If, at any time during the period allowed for redemption, the judgment debtor, or any other person in possession of the property sold, commits or threatens to commit, or makes preparation for committing waste thereupon, the supreme court, or any justice thereof, within the judicial district, or the county judge of the county, in which the property, or any part thereof, is situated, may, upon the application of the purchaser, or his assignee, or the agent or attorney of either, and proof, by affidavit, of the facts, grant, without notice, an order, restraining the wrong-doer from committing waste upon the property.

Id., §§ 23 and 24, consolidated.

§ 1443. Proceedings to punish violation of the order.

If the person, against whom such an order is granted, commits waste in violation thereof, after the service upon him of the order, with a copy of the affidavit upon which it was granted, the court or judge, upon proof, by affidavit, of the facts, may grant an order, requiring him to show cause, at a time and place therein specified, why he should not be punished for a contempt.

2 R. S. 836, §§ 25 and 26.

§ 1444. Mode and extent of punishment.

If, upon the return of the order to show cause, it satisfactorily appears, that the person, required to show cause, has violated the former order, the court or judge may either punish him, as prescribed by law for the punishment of a contempt of a court of record, other than a criminal contempt; or may grant a warrant, directed to the sheriff of the county, reciting the former order, and the violation thereof, and commanding the sheriff to commit the wrong-doer to close confinement, for a term specified therein, not more than one year. A person thus committed cannot be admitted to the liberties of the jail.

Id., §§ 27 and 28, consolidated.

§ 1445. How warrant, etc., superseded.

The warrant may be superseded, and the prisoner discharged, by an order, in the discretion of the court or judge committing him, upon his executing, to the person who applied for the warrant, an undertaking, in a sum fixed, and with sureties approved, by the court or judge, to the effect, that he will pay any judgment, which the applicant, or his assignee, or other representative, may recover against him, by reason of any waste therefore or thereafter committed on the property; and upon his paying to the applicant, for the costs and expenses of the proceedings, a sum, fixed by the court or judge.

Id., § 29, am'd.

§ 1446. When and how real property sold may be redeemed.

Within one year after the sale of real property, by virtue of an execution, a person, specified in the next section, may redeem it, by paying to the purchaser, his executor, administrator, or assignee, or to the sheriff who made the sale, for the use of the person so entitled thereto, the sum of money which was paid upon the sale, with interest from the time of the sale, at the rate of ten per centum a year.

2 R. S. 370, § 45 (2 Edm. 384), am'd. See 5 T. & C. 140.

§ 1447. By whom such redemption may be made.

The redemption, specified in the last section, may be made, either by the judgment debtor, whose right and title were sold, or by his heir, devisee, or grantee, who has acquired, by inheritance, devise, deed, sale, by virtue of a mortgage or of an execution, or by any other means, an absolute title to the property proposed to be redeemed; or, in a case specified in section 1458 or 1459 of this act, to a portion thereof.

Id., § 46.

§ 1448. Such redemption avoids the sale.

Upon payment being made, by a person entitled to redeem real property, as prescribed in the last two sections, the sale of the property redeemed, and the certificates of the sale, as far as they relate thereto, become null and void.

2 R. S. 370, § 49, am'd.

§ 1449. When creditor may redeem.

Real property, sold by virtue of an execution, which remains, at the expiration of one year after the sale, unredeemed by the person or persons entitled to redeem it, as prescribed in the last three sections, may be redeemed, within three months after the expiration of the year, by the creditors specified, and upon the terms and in the manner prescribed, in the following sections of this article.

Id., § 50, remodelled.

§ 1450. What sum to be paid, etc., when creditor redeems.

In a case specified in the last section, a creditor, having in his own name, or as executor, administrator, assignee, trustee, or otherwise, a judgment rendered, or a mortgage duly recorded, at any time before the expiration of fifteen months from the time of the sale, which is a lien upon the real property sold, may redeem that property, by paying the sum of money, which was paid upon the sale thereof, with interest at the rate of seven per centum a year from the time of the sale, and executing a certificate of satisfaction, as prescribed in section 1463 of this act.

Id., § 51, as am'd by L. 1847, ch. 410, §§ 1 and 2 (4 Edm. 680, 681).

§ 1451. Redemption by another creditor from a redeeming creditor.

Where a creditor has redeemed real property, as prescribed in the last section, any other creditor, who might have redeemed it from the purchaser, as therein prescribed, may redeem it from the first redeeming creditor, as follows:

1. He must reimburse to the first redeeming creditor, his executor, administrator, or assignee, the sum paid by him to redeem the property, with interest at the rate of seven per centum a year, from the time of his redemption.

2. He must execute a certificate of satisfaction, relating to his judgment or mortgage, in like manner as the first redeeming creditor was required to do.

3. If the judgment or mortgage, by virtue of which the first creditor redeemed, is prior to the judgment or mortgage of the second creditor, the second creditor must also pay to the first creditor, the sum specified in the certificate of satisfaction, executed by him upon his redemption, with interest at the rate of seven per centum a year, from the time of his redemption: unless the first redeeming creditor's judgment or mortgage had ceased, when he redeemed, to be a lien as against the second redeeming creditor; in which case, the latter need not pay any part of the sum, specified in the certificate.

Id., § 55, am'd.

§ 1452. Id.; when second redeeming creditor has the prior lien.

Where the lien of the second redeeming creditor's judgment or mortgage, is prior to that of the first redeeming creditor's judgment or mortgage, so that the former redeems, without paying the sum, specified in the latter's certificate of satisfaction, the latter may, without executing another certificate of satisfaction, again redeem from the former, or from any subsequent redeeming creditor, in a case, where he would have been entitled to redeem, if his first certificate had not been executed; and he has the same rights, with respect to any creditor redeeming from him, as if his first certificate had been executed, when he made his second redemption.

§ 1453. Subsequent redemptions by other creditors.

A third or other creditor, who might have redeemed, as prescribed in the last four sections, may redeem from the second or any other creditor, who has redeemed, in the manner, and upon the terms and conditions, prescribed in the last two sections.

2 R. S. 372, § 56.

§ 1454. When creditor may redeem after fifteen months.

A creditor, who might have redeemed within fifteen months after the sale, as prescribed in the last four sections, may redeem from any other redeeming creditor, although the fifteen months have elapsed; provided, that he thus redeems within twenty-four hours after the last previous redemption.

L. 1847, ch. 410, part of § 4, am'd.

§ 1455. When redemption must be made at sheriff's office.

A redemption, made by a creditor, on or after the last day of the fifteen months, must be made at the sheriff's office of the county. The sheriff, or his under-sheriff, or a deputy-sheriff, in his behalf, must attend at the sheriff's office, for that purpose, on the last day of the fifteen months, and on each day thereafter, in which a redemption can be made, during the time when the sheriff's office is required by law to be kept open. In the absence of the sheriff, the redemption may be made by paying the necessary money, and delivering the necessary papers, to the under-sheriff, or to any deputy-sheriff, present at the sheriff's office. If the term of office of the sheriff, who made the sale, has expired, and he, or his under-sheriff, or a deputy-sheriff authorized, in his behalf, to receive the necessary money and the necessary papers, is not present, the money may be paid, and the papers may be delivered, to the sheriff then in office, or to the under-sheriff or a deputy-sheriff of the latter.

Id., part of § 3, remodelled. See 5 T. & C. 140.

§ 1456. Original purchaser may redeem, when also a creditor.

If the purchaser, at the execution sale, of property, which can be redeemed by a creditor, as prescribed in this article, is also a creditor of the judgment debtor, and as such could redeem from a purchaser, or a redeeming creditor, he may avail himself of his judgment or mortgage, to redeem from any other redeeming creditor.

2 R. S. 372, § 57 (2 Edm. 387).

§ 1457. Creditor may redeem again under another judgment or mortgage.

The judgment creditor, by virtue of whose execution real property has been sold, cannot avail himself of the judgment, upon which the execution was issued, to redeem the property; nor, except as otherwise specially prescribed in this article, can a creditor, who has once redeemed, avail himself of the same judgment or mortgage, to redeem again. But if either has another judgment or mortgage, which would entitle him to redeem, he may avail himself thereof for that purpose, in the same manner and on the same terms, as any other creditor.

2 R. S. 373, § 58, am'd.

§ 1458. Redemption by person entitled to redeem part.

Where a person, who has an absolute title to, or a judgment or mortgage, which is a lien upon, a distinct parcel only of the real property, sold by virtue of an execution, would be authorized, by this article, to redeem the property, if his title or lien extended to the whole, he may redeem, from a purchaser, the entire property sold, or from a prior redeeming creditor, the entire property redeemed by that creditor; except that if his title or lien extends to a distinct parcel only of one or more parts of the property, which were separately sold, he can redeem, from a purchaser, only the part or parts thus separately sold, in which his distinct parcel is included. (See § 1482.)

Substitute for 2 R. S. 372, §§ 52 and 53; extended in its application.

§ 1459. Redemption by owners of undivided shares.

Where two or more persons own undivided shares, as joint tenants, or as tenants in common, in real property, sold by virtue of an execution, or in a distinct parcel thereof, which has been separately sold; each of them may redeem, from the purchaser, as prescribed in sections 1446 and 1447 of this act, the share or interest, belonging to him, by paying a part of the purchase-money, bid for the property, or for that distinct parcel thereof bearing the same proportion to the whole, as the share or interest, proposed to be redeemed, bears to the property, or distinct parcel separately sold, of which it is a part; together with interest on the sum so paid, from the time of the sale, at the rate of ten per centum a year.

2 R. S. 371, § 48.

§ 1480. Id.; by creditors having liens on undivided shares.

Where the judgment or mortgage of a creditor, entitled to redeem, is a lien upon an undivided share, specified in the last section, he may redeem, from a purchaser, that undivided share, by paying him the same proportion of the purchase-money, which the owner must have paid to redeem it, as prescribed in the last section; or he may redeem, from a prior redeeming creditor, the entire property redeemed by the latter, with like effect and in the same manner, as if his lien attached to the whole.

Id., § 54, am'd.

§ 1461. Right to redeem not affected by agreement.

The sheriff, the purchaser, the judgment creditor, or a redeeming creditor, cannot, by his agreement or other act, in any manner impair or prejudice the right of any other person to redeem, as prescribed in this article.

§ 1462. To whom money paid upon redemption.

The money required to be paid by a creditor, in order to effect a redemption of real property, as prescribed in this article, may be paid to the purchaser or creditor, from whom the property is to be redeemed, his executor, administrator, or assignee; or it may be paid, for the use of the person so entitled thereto, to the sheriff who made the sale.

2 R. S. 873, part of § 59.

§ 1463. Certificate of satisfaction required to effect redemption by creditor.

The certificate of satisfaction, required to be executed by a creditor, in order to effect a redemption of real property, must be acknowledged or proved, and certified, in like manner as a deed to be recorded in the county; must describe, with reasonable certainty, the judgment or mortgage under which he redeems, and specify the sum due thereupon; and must state, that the redemption satisfies the judgment or mortgage, in full, or to a specified amount. It must be filed in the county clerk's office, at or before the time when the money is paid to effect the redemption, unless the money is paid to the sheriff; in which case, the certificate must also be delivered, at the time of the payment, to the sheriff, who must file it in the county clerk's office, as prescribed in section 1467 of this act. The county clerk, immediately after the execution and recording of the deed, must enter, in his docket, the satisfaction, or partial satisfaction, of a judgment, specified in a certificate so filed, as required by law, when a judgment is collected, by virtue of an execution. If a mortgage, specified in the certificate, is recorded in his office, he must cancel and discharge the mortgage of record, if it is satisfied by the certificate; or, if it is only partially satisfied, he must make a minute of the partial satisfaction, upon the record thereof. If the property mortgaged is situated in a county, in which there is a register, the county clerk must transmit a certified copy of the certificate to the register, who must, in like manner, cancel and discharge the mortgage of record, or make a minute of the partial satisfaction thereof. The clerk's and register's fees, for performing the services specified in this section, must be paid by the sheriff; who may require the person entitled to a deed to pay him the amount thereof, before the deed is delivered.

§ 1464. What evidence a redeeming judgment creditor must furnish.

In order to entitle a creditor by judgment to redeem real property, as prescribed in this article, he must, when he redeems, file in the county clerk's office, or deliver to the sheriff, as the case requires, the following evidence of his right:

1. A copy of the docket of the judgment, under which he claims the right to redeem, duly certified by the county clerk.

2. Each assignment of the judgment, which is necessary to establish his right. An assignment so filed or delivered must be acknowledged or proved, and certified, in like manner as a deed to be recorded, or the execution thereof must be proved, by the affidavit of the creditor, or of a witness thereto; unless it has been filed, and entered, as prescribed in article third of title first of chapter eleventh of this act, in which case, a certified copy thereof must be filed or delivered.

3. An affidavit, made by him, or his attorney or agent, stating truly the sum remaining unpaid on the judgment, at the time of claiming the right to redeem.

2 R. S. 873, § 60, with am'ts.

§ 1465. Id.; as to mortgage creditor.

In order to entitle a creditor by mortgage to redeem real property, as prescribed in this article, he must, when he redeems file in the county clerk's office, or deliver to the sheriff, the following evidence of his right:

1. A copy of the mortgage, under which he claims the right to redeem, duly certified by the clerk or register of the county.

2. Each assignment of the mortgage, which is necessary to establish his right, acknowledged or proved, and certified, as prescribed in the last section for an assignment of a judgment, unless it has been recorded; in which case a certified copy of the record must be filed or delivered.

3. An affidavit, made by him, or by his attorney or agent, stating truly the sum remaining unpaid on the mortgage, at the time of claiming the right to redeem.

L. 1836, ch. 525, § 2 (4 Edm. 624), am'd.

§ 1466. Id.; as to executor or administrator.

In either of the cases specified in the last two sections, if the person, proposing to redeem, claims to be entitled so to do, by reason of his being an executor or administrator of a person, who, if living, would be entitled to redeem, he must file or deliver, with the other papers therein prescribed, a certified copy or a sworn copy of his letters testamentary, or letters of administration.

Id., subd. 3, extended.

§ 1467. Officers to keep papers open to inspection; when to file them.

The sheriff, to whom one or more papers, specified in the last four sections, are delivered, must keep them open, at all reasonable times during the period allowed for redemption, to the inspection of all persons interested. He must have all those papers at the sheriff's office, at the times when he is required to attend thereat, for the purpose of enabling creditors to redeem, as prescribed by law; and he must file them in the county clerk's office, within three days after the execution of the deed.

§ 1468. When redemption takes effect.

A redemption by a creditor is effected, only when he has paid all the money, required to be paid, and filed or delivered all the papers, required to be filed or delivered, as prescribed in this article, and a waiver of any of those requirements is void, as against a person who is entitled subsequently to redeem. Where a redemption is thus effected, it vests in the redeeming creditor all the right, title, and interest, which the purchaser acquired by the sale.

§ 1469. Certificate to be given, when redemption made.

Where a redemption is made, as prescribed in this article, the officer or other person, to whom money is paid, or a paper is delivered, for the purpose of effecting the redemption, must execute and deliver, to the person paying the money or delivering the paper, a certificate, stating all the facts which transpired before him, with respect to the redemption.

L. 1847, ch. 410, § 5 (4 Edm. 631), am'd.

§ 1470. Certificate may be acknowledged and recorded.

Such a certificate may be acknowledged or proved, and certified in like manner as a deed to be recorded in the county where the property is situated. The recording thereof, in the office of the clerk or register of that county, in the book for recording deeds, has the same effect, as against subsequent purchasers and incumbrancers, as the recording of a conveyance.

L. 1847, ch. 410, § 6, am'd.

§ 1471. [Am'd, 1886.] When and by whom conveyance to be executed.

Immediately after the expiration of fifteen months from the time of *sale; except where a redemption has been made on the last day of the fifteen months, and, in that case, immediately after the expiration of twenty-four hours from the last redemption; the sheriff, who made the sale, must execute the proper deed or deeds, in order to convey to the person or persons entitled thereto, the part or parts of the property sold, which have not been redeemed by the judgment debtor, his heir, devisee, or assignee. The deed conveys to the grantee therein the right, title, and interest, which were sold by the sheriff. After the same shall have been recorded for twenty years in the county where the real estate is situated, it shall be presumptive evidence of the facts therein stated.

2 R. S. 373, § 62, am'd to accord with L. 1847, ch. 410, § 4; L. 1886, ch. 637.

§ 1472. To whom conveyance to be executed.

If any part of the property remains unredeemed by a creditor it must be conveyed, by the sheriff, to the purchaser upon the sale, except where the certificate of sale has been assigned; in which case, it must be conveyed to the last assignee. Any part or parts of the property sold, which have been redeemed by a creditor, must be conveyed by the sheriff, to the last redeeming creditor, except where he has assigned the certificate of redemption, or has executed any other assignment of his right, title, and interest in the property redeemed by him; in which case, it must be conveyed to the last assignee.

L. 1835, ch. 189, part of § 1 (4 Edm. 622), as am'd by L. 1867, ch. 116, § 1 (7 Edm. 60).

§ 1473. When conveyance made to executor or administrator; effect thereof.

Where a person, entitled to a deed, dies before the delivery of the deed, the sheriff must execute and deliver the deed to his executor or administrator. The property so conveyed must be held, in trust for the use of the heirs or devisees of the decedent, subject to the dower of his widow, if there is one; but it may be sold, in a proper case, for the payment of his debts, in the same manner as land, whereof he died seized.

2 R. S. 374, §§ 63 and 64 (2 Edm. 388), consolidated.

§ 1474. Assignment must be acknowledged and filed.

Before an assignee, or his executor or administrator, is entitled to a deed, as prescribed in the last two sections, each assignment, under which the deed is claimed, must be acknowledged or proved, and certified, in like manner as a deed to be recorded in the county where the property is situated, and must be filed in the office of the clerk of that county.

4 1885, ch. 189, § 2 (4 Edm. 623), am'd.

---

* The word "the" omitted in engrossing.

§ 1475. Under-sheriff or successor to act, if sheriff dies.

Where a sheriff dies, is removed from office, or becomes otherwise disqualified to act, at any time after making a sale of real property, by virtue of an execution, the property, or a distinct parcel thereof, may be redeemed, by paying the necessary money, and delivering the necessary papers, to his under-sheriff, who must also execute and deliver the proper deed or deeds of property, not redeemed by the judgment debtor, his heir, devisee, or grantee. If the under-sheriff also dies, is removed from office, or becomes otherwise disqualified to act, the property may be redeemed, by paying the necessary money, and delivering the necessary papers, to the sheriff's successor in office, who must also execute and deliver the proper deed or deeds. The under-sheriff, or the sheriff's successor, as the case requires, possesses all the powers, and is subject to all the duties and liabilities, of the sheriff who made the sale, touching the redemption and conveyance of property sold and the proceedings relating thereto; and each provision of law, regulating those proceedings, and applicable to the sheriff who made the sale, is applicable to his under-sheriff or successor. This section applies where a sale was made, either before or after this act takes effect.

Substitute for 2 R. S. 374, §§ 65, 66 and 67 (2 Edm. 388), and L. 1867, ch. 116, § 1 (7 Edm. 60).

§ 1476. Money may be paid, etc., to under-sheriff, or deputy-sheriff, who sold property.

Where real property is sold, by virtue of an execution, by the under-sheriff or a deputy sheriff, in behalf of the sheriff, money required to be paid, or a paper required to be delivered, to the sheriff, in order to effect a redemption, as prescribed in this article, at any time before the last day of the fifteen months from the time of the sale, may be paid or delivered, either to the sheriff, or to the under-sheriff or deputy-sheriff, who made the sale.

§ 1477. Application of this article to sale by coroner, or person specially appointed, etc.

Where real property is sold, by virtue of an execution, by a person specially appointed by the court, as prescribed in section 1362 or section 1388 of this act, it may be redeemed, as prescribed in this article, as if it had been sold by the sheriff, except as follows:

1. Money, required to be paid, or a paper, required to be delivered, to the sheriff, in order to effect a redemption, as prescribed in this article, at any time before the last day of the fifteen months from the time of the sale, must be paid to the officer who made the sale; unless the person entitled to redeem, his agent or attorney, files with the clerk of the county, with the paper or papers required to be filed, or to be delivered to the sheriff, for the purpose of effecting the redemption, his affidavit, to the effect, that the officer is dead; or has been removed; or, where he is a coroner, that he is no longer in office; or that after diligent search, the affiant has been unable to find him within the county; in which case, the money may be paid into court, by paying it to the county treasurer, to the credit of the cause, with like effect, as where it is paid to the sheriff, after a sale by the latter.

2. The provisions of section 1455 of this act, apply to a redemption, upon a sale made as prescribed in this section; and the officer, who sold the property, must attend, as the sheriff is therein required to attend. If he is not present, the redemption may be effected, as prescribed in that section, for redemption in a case, where the term of office of the sheriff, who made the sale, has expired.

§ 1478. Id.; where coroner or person appointed dies, etc.

If, when the period for redemption expires, a coroner, or a person specially appointed, by the court, who has sold real property, by virtue of an execution, is dead, or has been removed, or, in the case of a coroner, if he is no longer in office, the court must, upon the application of a person entitled to a deed, appoint a person to execute the deed accordingly.

ARTICLE FOURTH.

Remedies for failure of title to real property sold, and to enforce contribution.

Sec. 1479. When evicted purchaser may recover purchase-money.

1480. Remedy of judgment creditor thereupon.

1481. Contribution between owners of real property.

1482. Id.; when part owner redeems.

1483. Order of contribution.

1484. Contribution, how enforced by means of original judgment.

1485. Requisites to preserve the lien.

1486. Entry upon the docket.

§ 1479. When evicted purchaser may recover purchase-money.

The purchaser of real property, sold by virtue of an execution, his heir, devisee, grantee, or assignee, who is evicted from the possession thereof, or against whom judgment is rendered, in an action to recover the same, may recover the purchase-money, with interest, from the person for whose benefit the property was sold, where the judgment was rendered, or the eviction occurred, in consequence, either:

1. Of any irregularity in the proceedings concerning the sale; or

2. Of the judgment, upon which the execution was issued, being vacated or reversed, or set aside for irregularity, or error in fact.

2 R. 8. 375, § 68 (2 Edm. 389), remodelled.

§ 1480. Remedy of judgment creditor thereupon.

Where final judgment is rendered, against the defendant, in an action specified in subdivision first of the last section, the judgment, by virtue of which the sale was made, remains, in his favor, valid and effectual against the judgment debtor therein, his executor, administrator, heir, or devisee, for the purpose of collecting the sum paid on the sale, with interest. He may accordingly have a further execution upon that judgment; but the execution does not affect a purchaser in good faith, or an incumbrancer by mortgage, judgment, or otherwise, whose title or whose incumbrance accrued, before the actual levy thereof.

Id., § 69, am'd.

§ 1481. Contribution between owners of real property.

Where the real property of two or more persons is liable to satisfy a judgment, and the whole of the judgment, or more than a due proportion thereof, has been collected, by a sale of the real property of one or more of them, by virtue of an execution issued upon the judgment; the person so aggrieved, or his executor or administrator, may maintain an action, to compel a just and equal contribution by all the persons, whose real property ought to contribute as prescribed in the next section but one.

Id., § 70, am'd.

§ 1482. Id.; when part owner redeems.

Where the heir, devisee, or grantee, of a judgment debtor, having an absolute title to a distinct parcel of real property, sold by virtue of an execution, redeems, as prescribed in section 1458 of this act, the property sold, or any part or parts thereof separately sold, which include his property; he may, in like manner, maintain an action, to compel a just and equal contribution by those who own the residue of the property thus redeemed.

2 R. S. 375, § 72, am'd.

§ 1483. Order of contribution.

Where an action is brought, as prescribed in the last two sections, the real property is liable to contribution in the following order:

1. If it comprises different undivided shares or distinct parcels, which have been conveyed by the judgment debtor, they are liable in succession, commencing with the portion last conveyed.

2. If it comprises different undivided shares or distinct parcels, which have been sold by virtue of two or more executions, they are liable in succession, commencing with the portion sold under the last and youngest judgment.

3. If it comprises different undivided shares or distinct parcels, some of which have been conveyed by the judgment debtor, and some of which have been sold by virtue of one or more executions, they are respectively liable in succession, according to the order prescribed in the first and second subdivisions of this section.

Id., § 71, am'd.

§ 1484. Contribution, how enforced by means of original judgment.

For the purpose of enforcing contribution, as prescribed in the last section, the court, in which the action is brought, may, and in a proper case, must, permit the plaintiff to use the original judgment, and to collect, by an execution issued thereupon, out of any real property subject to the lien thereof, the sum which ought to be contributed by that property. For that purpose, the lien of the original judgment, upon that real property, when preserved, as prescribed in the next section, continues, for the term prescribed in sections 1251 and 1255 of this act, to the extent of the sum, which ought to be so contributed, notwithstanding the payment made by the party seeking contribution.

Id., § 72, am'd.

§ 1485. Requisites to preserve the lien.

The lien of the original judgment may be preserved, as prescribed in the last section, by filing, in the clerk's office of the county where the real property is situated, within twenty days after the payment, for which contribution is claimed, an affidavit, in behalf of the person aggrieved, stating the sum paid, and his claim to use the judgment for the reimbursement thereof, with a notice, requiring the clerk to make the entries specified in the next section. But the lien is not preserved, as against a grantee or mortgagee in good faith, for a valuable consideration, without notice, and before the entries are actually made.

Id., § 73, am'd.

§ 1486. Entry upon the docket.

On filing the affidavit and notice, the clerk must make, upon the docket of the judgment, an entry, stating the sum paid, and that the judgment is claimed to be a lien to that amount. Where it is desired to preserve the lien, upon property situated in two or more counties, a similar affidavit and notice must be filed with, and a similar entry made by the clerk of each county.

2 R. S. 875, § 74, am'd.

TITLE III.

Execution against the person.

- Sec. 1487. In what cases execution may be issued against the person.
1488. Id.; against a woman.
1489. When execution against property must be first issued.
1490. Simultaneous executions not allowed against property and person.
1491. Id.; when debtor has been taken.
1492. New execution may issue after escape.
1493. Id.; when debtor dies charged in execution.
1494. Id.; when creditor discharges debtor after thirty days.
1495. New execution not to be enforced against real property sold, etc.

§ 1487. In what cases execution may be issued against the person.

Where a judgment can be enforced by execution, as prescribed in section 1240 of this act, an execution, against the person of the judgment debtor, may be issued thereupon, subject to the exception specified in the next section, in either of the following cases:

1. Where the plaintiff's right to arrest the defendant depends upon the nature of the action.
2. [Am'd, 1879.] In any other case, where an order of arrest has been granted and executed in the action, and if it was executed against the judgment debtor where it has not been vacated.

Co. Proc., first two sentences of § 288.

§ 1488. [Am'd, 1879.] Id.; against a woman.

But an execution cannot be issued against the person of a woman, unless an order of arrest has been granted and executed in the action, and, if it was executed against the judgment debtor, has not been vacated.

1 T. & C., Addenda, 10.

§ 1489. When execution against property must be first issued.

Unless the judgment debtor is actually confined, without having been admitted to the liberties of the jail, by virtue of an execution against his person, issued in another action, or of an order of arrest or a surrender by his bail, in the same action, an execution against his person cannot be issued, until an execution against his property has been returned, wholly or partly unsatisfied. If he is a resident of the State, the execution against his property must have been issued to the county where he resides.

Co. Proc., part of § 288, am'd.

§ 1490. Simultaneous executions not allowed against property and person.

An execution against the person of the judgment debtor cannot be issued, without leave of the court, while an execution against his property, issued in the same action, remains unreturned; and an execution against his property cannot be issued, without leave of the court, while an execution against his person, issued in the same action, remains unreturned.

2 R. S. 364, § 6 (2 Edm. 377).

§ 1491. Id.; when debtor has been taken.

Where a judgment debtor has been taken, and remains in custody, by virtue of an execution against his person, another execution cannot be issued, in the same action, against his person or his property, except in a case specially prescribed by law.

Id., § 7.

§ 1492. New execution may issue after escape.

If a judgment debtor escapes, after having been taken, by virtue of an execution against his person, he may be retaken, by virtue of a new execution against his person; or an execution against his property may be issued, as if the execution, by virtue of which he was taken, had been returned, without his having been taken.

Id., § 8.

§ 1493. Id.; when debtor dies charged in execution.

Where a judgment debtor, who has been taken by virtue of an execution against his person, dies while in custody, a new execution against his property may be issued, as if the execution, by virtue of which he was taken, had been returned without his having been taken.

2 R. S. 368, § 28 (2 Edm. 381). Sections 29 and 30 are in § 1495, post. See §§ 1380, 1381, ante.

§ 1494. Id.; when creditor discharges debtor after thirty days.

At any time after a judgment debtor has remained in custody, by virtue of an execution against his person, for the space of thirty days, the judgment creditor may serve upon the sheriff a written notice, requiring him to discharge the judgment debtor from custody, by virtue of the execution. Whereupon the sheriff must discharge the judgment debtor, and return the execution accordingly. After service of such a notice, another execution, against the person of the judgment debtor, cannot be issued upon the judgment; but after his discharge, the judgment creditor may otherwise enforce the judgment, as if the execution, from which he was discharged, had been returned, without his having been taken.

L. 1857, ch. 427, § 1, amending 2 R. S. 34, § 17 (2 Edm. 34).

§ 1495. New execution not to be enforced against real property sold, etc.

A new execution against property, issued in a case specified in the last two sections, cannot be enforced against an interest in real property, including a chattel real, which was purchased in good faith, from the judgment debtor, after the recovery of the judgment upon which it is issued; or which was sold by virtue of an execution, issued upon a previous or subsequent judgment.

1530. [Repealed.]
1531. Damages recoverable; set-off by defendant.

§ 1496. Plaintiff may recover damages with the land.

In an action to recover real property, or the possession thereof, the plaintiff may demand in his complaint, and in a proper case recover, damages for withholding the property.

New in form. See Co. Civ. Proc., § 484, subd. 5; Co. Proc., § 167, subd. 5. See § 484, subd. 5.

§ 1497. Rents and profits to be included in damages.

Those damages include the rents and profits or the value of the use and occupation of the property, where either can legally be recovered by the plaintiff.

Annuling the law as settled in 57 N. Y. 151; 2 R. S. 310, §§ 43, 44 and 45 (2 Edm. 219). See § 1531, post.

§ 1498. Mortgagee cannot maintain action.

A mortgagee, or his assignee or other representative, cannot maintain such an action, to recover the mortgaged premises.

2 R. S. 312, § 57 (2 Edm. 321).

§ 1499. [Am'd, 1888.] Action cannot be maintained for dower.

Such an action can not be maintained in a case where an action for dower may be maintained, as prescribed in article third of this title; or

2. Where in any city the real property consist of a strip of land not exceeding six inches in width upon which there stands the exterior wall of a building erected partly upon said strip and partly upon the adjoining lot, and a building has been erected upon land of the plaintiff abutting on the said wall, unless said action be commenced within one year after the completion of the erection of such wall or within one year after the first day of September, eighteen hundred and ninety-eight. But an action may be maintained, if commenced within the further period of one year, for the recovery of damages by reason of the erection of such wall, and upon the satisfaction of the judgment for such damages the title of the plaintiff to such strip of land shall thereby be transferred to and vest in the defendant. If neither an action of ejectment nor an action for the recovery of damages be brought within the period hereby limited therefor, the person in possession of such lands shall be deemed to have an easement in said strip of land so long as the said wall partly erected thereon shall stand, and no longer, and in case of the destruction of such wall the owner of such strip shall have the same right to take or recover the possession thereof as if such wall had never existed.

See § 1504, post; L. 1888, ch. 527. In effect Sept. 1, 1888.

§ 1500. Separate action by joint tenant or tenant in common.

Where two or more persons are entitled to the possession of real property, as joint tenants or tenants in common, one or more of them may maintain such an action, to recover his or their undivided shares in the property, in any case where such an action might be maintained by all.

§ 1501. [Am'd, 1882.] Grantee of lands held adversely may maintain action.

Such an action may be maintained by a grantee, his heir or devisee, in the name of the grantor, or his heir, where the conveyance, under which he claims, is void because the property conveyed was held adversely to the grantor. The plaintiff must be allowed to prove the facts to bring the case within this section. In such an action a judgment against the plaintiff shall not award costs to the defendant; but where the defendant is entitled to costs as prescribed in section three thousand two hundred and twenty-nine of this act, they may be taxed, and the person who maintained the action in the plaintiff's name may be compelled to pay the same as prescribed in section three thousand two hundred and forty-seven of this act,

Co. Proc., § 111; 1 R. S. 739, § 147 (1 Edm. 690).

§ 1502. Against whom action to be brought.

Where the complaint demands judgment for the immediate possession of the property, if the property is actually occupied, the occupant thereof must be made defendant in the action. If it is not so occupied, the action must be brought against some person exercising acts of ownership thereupon, or claiming title thereto, or an interest therein, at the time of the commencement of the action.

2 R. S. 304, § 4 (2 Edm. 312).

§ 1503. Who may be joined as defendants.

In either of the cases specified in the last section, any other person claiming title to, or the right to the possession of, the real property sought to be recovered, as landlord, remainderman, reversioner, or otherwise adversely to the plaintiff, may be joined as defendant in an action therefor.

See Co. Proc., §§ 118 and 1500.

§ 1504. When action may be brought for non-payment of rent.

When six months' rent or more is in arrear, upon a grant reserving rent, or upon a lease of real property, and the grantor or lessor, or his heir, devisee, or assignee, has a subsisting right by law to re-enter for the failure to pay the rent, he may maintain an action to recover the property granted or demised, without any demand of the rent in arrear, or re-entry on the property.

2 R. S. 505, § 30 (2 Edm. 521).

§ 1505. Id.; when right of re-entry is reserved for want of distress.

Where a right of re-entry is reserved and given to a grantor or lessor of real property, in default of a sufficiency of goods and chattels whereon to distrain for the satisfaction of rent due, the re-entry may be made, or an action to recover the property demised or granted, may be maintained by the grantor or lessor, or his heir, devisee, or assignee, at any time after default in the payment of the rent; provided the plaintiff, at least fifteen days before the action is commenced, serves upon the defendant a written notice of his intention to re-enter, personally, or by leaving it at his dwelling-house on the premises with a person of suitable age and discretion; or, if the defendant cannot be found with due diligence, and has no dwelling-house on the premises, whereat a person of suitable age and discretion can be found, by posting it in a conspicuous place on the premises.

L. 1846, ch. 274, § 3 (4 Edm. 432), am'd.

§ 1506. Action against tenant, when proceedings to be stayed.

At any time before final judgment for the plaintiff is rendered, and the judgment-roll is filed, in an action brought as prescribed in either of the last two sections, the defendant may pay or tender to the plaintiff or his attorney, or pay into court, all the rent then in arrear, with interest and the costs of the action to be taxed; and thereupon the complaint must be dismissed.

Amending 2 R. S. 505, § 32 (2 Edm. 521).

§ 1507. Id.; amount of rent in arrear to be stated in judgment.

In such an action, a verdict, report, or decision in favor of the plaintiff, must fix the amount of rent in arrear to the plaintiff, or, if judgment is taken by default, the amount thereof must be ascertained by or under the direction of the court; and, in either case, it must be stated in the judgment.

§ 1508. Id.; when possession to be restored to defendant.

At any time within six months after possession of the property, awarded to the plaintiff in such an action, has been delivered to him by virtue of an execution issued upon a judgment rendered therein, the defendant, or any person who has succeeded to his interest, or a mortgagee of the lease, or of any part thereof, who was not in possession when final judgment was rendered, may pay or tender to the plaintiff, or his executor, administrator, or attorney, or may pay into court, for the use of the person so entitled thereto, the amount of rent in arrear, as stated in the judgment, and the costs of the action, with interest, and all other charges incurred by the plaintiff.

2 R. S. 505, § 33 (2 Edm. 521).

§ 1509. The same.

Within three months after making the payment or tender, the person who made it, or his representative, may apply to the court for an order that possession of the property be delivered to him; and thereupon, upon proof of the facts, and payment of the sum due by reason of rent accruing since the judgment was rendered, and upon compliance with all other terms to be complied with by the grantee or lessee, to the time of the application, the court must make an order, directing that possession of the property be delivered to the applicant, who shall hold and enjoy the same, without any new grant or lease thereof, according to the terms of the original grant or lease. Notice of the application must be served upon the plaintiff's attorney.

2 R. S. 506, §§ 35 and 36 (2 Edm. 522).

§ 1510. Id.; use of property, when set off against rent.

If possession of the property recovered has been delivered to the plaintiff, by virtue of an execution issued upon a judgment in the action, the order must provide for setting off the sum which the plaintiff has made, or which he might, without wilful neglect, have made, of the property, during the possession thereof, against the rent accruing after the judgment was rendered, and for reimbursement to the applicant of the balance, if any, of the sum paid into court by him, after making the set-off prescribed in this section.

Id., § 38.

§ 1511. Property claimed in action; how described in complaint.

The complaint must describe the property claimed with common certainty, by setting forth the name of the township or tract, and the number of the lot, if there is any, or in some other appropriate manner; so that, from the description, possession of the property claimed may be delivered, where the plaintiff is entitled thereto.

2 R. S. 304, § 8 (2 Edm. 313), am'd. See, also, § 1435, ante.

§ 1512. Motion for plaintiff's attorney to produce his authority.

A defendant, in an action to recover real property or the possession thereof, may, at any time before answering, upon an affidavit that evidence of the authority of the plaintiff's attorney to commence the action has not been served upon him, apply, upon notice, to the court or judge thereof, for an order directing the attorney to produce such evidence.

Amending and consolidating §§ 17 and 18, 2 R. S.

§ 1513. Order thereupon.

Upon such an application, the court or judge must, in a proper case, make an order, requiring the plaintiff's attorney to produce, as directed therein, evidence of his authority to commence the action, and staying all proceedings therein, on the part of the plaintiff, until the evidence is produced.

Id., § 19.

§ 1514. Evidence of authority.

Any written request of the plaintiff or his agent, to the plaintiff's attorney, to commence the action, or any written recognition of his authority so to do, verified by the affidavit of the attorney, or any other competent witness, is sufficient presumptive evidence of such authority.

Id., § 20.

§ 1515. When ouster to be proved.

Where the action is brought by a tenant in common, or a joint tenant, against his co-tenant, the plaintiff, besides proving his right, must also prove that the defendant actually ousted him, or did some other act, amounting to a total denial of his right.

Id., § 27.

§ 1516. Rule when there are distinct occupants.

Where there are two or more defendants, and it is alleged, in the answer of either of them, that he occupies in severalty, or that he and one or more of his co-defendants occupy jointly, one or more distinct parcels, and that one or more other defendants possess other parcels, in severalty or jointly, the court may, in its discretion, upon the application of the plaintiff, and upon such terms as justice requires, direct that the action be divided into as many actions as are necessary. If the action is not so divided, and it appears, upon the trial, that the allegation is true, the plaintiff must, before the evidence is closed, elect against which defendant or defendants he will proceed; and a judgment dismissing the complaint must thereupon be rendered, in favor of the other defendants.

Id., § 29, in substance.

§ 1517. The last section qualified.

The last section does not apply to a case, where two or more defendants occupy different apartments in a building. In such a case, in an action to recover the building and its curtilage, the plaintiff is entitled to judgment jointly against all the defendants who are liable to him.

§ 1518. When plaintiff may recover against one defendant subject to rights of others.

Section 1516 of this act does not apply to a case, where one or more defendants, answering as therein prescribed, hold under another defendant, and the plaintiff elects to proceed against the latter, subject to the rights and interests of the former. In such a case, the proceedings against the defendant so answering must be stayed until final judgment; and if the plaintiff recovers final judgment against the defendant, under whom they hold, the judgment operates as a transfer to the plaintiff of that defendant's right, title, and interest, and the costs of the defendant or defendants so answering are in the discretion of the court.

§ 1519. Verdict, etc., to state nature of plaintiff's estate.

A verdict, report, or decision, in favor of the plaintiff, in an action specified in this article, must specify the estate of the plaintiff in the property recovered, whether it is in fee, or for life, or for a term of years, stating for whose life it is, or specifying the duration of the term, if the estate is less than a fee.

§ 1520. Expiration of plaintiff's title before trial.

If the right or title of the plaintiff, in an action specified in this article, expires after the commencement of the action, but before the trial, and he would have been entitled to recover, but for the expiration, the verdict, report, or decision must be rendered according to the fact; and the plaintiff is entitled to judgment for his damages for the withholding of the property, to the time when his right or title so expired.

2 R. S. 308, § 31 (2 Edm. 316).

§ 1521. Abatement of action.

The provisions of title fourth of chapter eighth of this act, as applied to an action specified in this article, are subject to the qualification that the court may, in its discretion, proceed as prescribed either in that title or in the next two sections.

Substituted for id., § 32, and L. 1865.

§ 1522. Action to be divided, when different persons succeed to different parcels.

Where, upon the death of a party, different persons succeed to the decedent's title to, or interest in, different distinct parcels of the property sought to be recovered, the court may, upon motion, and upon such terms as justice requires, direct that the action be divided into as many actions as are necessary; and that the successor to the title or interest of the decedent, to or in each distinct parcel, be substituted as plaintiff or defendant, as the case requires, in an action relating thereto.

§ 1523. Id.; when different persons succeed to real property and to rents and profits.

Where the plaintiff seeks to recover damages for withholding the property, and, upon the death of a party, different persons succeed to the decedent's right or liability for those damages, and to his title to or interest in the property, the court may, upon motion made upon notice to the persons to be affected, and upon such terms as justice requires, direct the action to be divided into two actions, one to recover the possession of the property, with the rents and profits thereof accruing after the decedent's death, the other to recover the damages accruing before his death; and that the successor in interest of the decedent, with respect to the cause of action in each action, be substituted as plaintiff or defendant therein, as the case requires.

Substituted for 2 R. S. 311, § 54 (2 Edm. 320).

§ 1524. [Am'd, 1911.] Effect of judgment rendered after trial of issue of fact.

A final judgment in an action specified in this article, rendered upon the trial of an issue of fact, is conclusive, as to the title established in the action, upon each party against whom it is rendered, and every person claiming from, through or under him, by title accruing, either after the judgment-roll is filed, or after a notice of the pendency of the action is filed in the proper county clerk's office, as prescribed in article ninth of this title.

2 R. S. 309, § 36 (2 Edm. 317), as am'd by L. 1862, ch. 485; am'd by L. 1911, ch. 509, in effect Sept. 1, 1911.

§ 1525. [Repealed by L. 1911, ch. 509, in effect Sept. 1, 1911.]

§ 1526. [Am'd, 1911.] Effect of judgment by default, etc.

A final judgment for the plaintiff, rendered in an action specified in this article, otherwise than upon the trial of an issue of fact, is conclusive upon the defendant, and every person claiming from, through, or under him, by title accruing, either after the judgment-roll is filed, or after a notice of the pendency of the action is filed in the proper county clerk's office, as prescribed in article ninth of this title.

Id., § 38. Am'd by L. 1911, ch. 509, in effect Sept. 1, 1911.

§ 1527. [Repealed by L. 1911, ch. 509, in effect Sept. 1, 1911.]

§ 1528. [Repealed by L. 1911, ch. 509, in effect Sept. 1, 1911.]

§ 1529. [Am'd, 1911.] Effect on possession of vacating judgment.

Where the plaintiff has taken possession of real property by virtue of a final judgment, his possession shall not be in any way affected by the vacating of the judgment. In such a case, if the defendant thereafter recovers final judgment in the action, it must award to him the restitution of the possession of the property; and he may have an execution thereupon for the delivery of the possession to him, as if he was plaintiff.

Id., § 41, am'd. Am'd by L. 1911, ch. 509, in effect Sept. 1, 1911.

§ 1531. Damages recoverable; set-off by defendant.

In an action, brought as prescribed in this article, the plaintiff, where he recovers judgment for the property, or possession of the property, is entitled to recover, as damages, the rents and profits, or the value of the use and occupation, of the real property recovered, for a term not exceeding six years; but the damages shall not include the value of the use of any improvements made by the defendant, or those under whom he claims. Where permanent improvements have been made, in good faith, by the defendant, or those under whom he claims, while holding, under color of title, adversely to the plaintiff, the value thereof must be allowed to the defendant, in reduction of the damages of the plaintiff, but not beyond the amount of those damages.

§ 1582. When action for partition may be brought.

Where two or more persons hold and are in possession of real property, as joint tenants or as tenants in common, in which either of them has an estate of inheritance, or for life, or for years, any one or more of them may maintain an action for the partition of the property, according to the respective rights of the persons interested therein; and for a sale thereof, if it appears that a partition thereof cannot be made, without great prejudice to the owners.

2 R. S. 317, § 1 (2 Edm. 326), am'd. See Rules 65, 68.

§ 1533. [Am'd, 1887.] Id.; by remainderman.

Where two or more persons hold as joint tenants, or as tenants in common, a vested remainder or reversion, any one or more of them may maintain an action for the partition of the real property to which it attaches, according to their respective shares therein, subject to the interest of the person holding the particular estate therein, but no sale of the premises in such an action shall be made except by and with the consent in writing, to be acknowledged or proved and certified in like manner as a deed, to be recorded by the person or persons owning and holding such particular estate or estates; and if in such an action it shall appear in any stage thereof that partition or sale cannot be made without great prejudice to the owners, the complaint must be dismissed. The dismissal of the complaint, as herein provided, shall not affect the right of any party to bring a new action, after the determination of such particular estate.

L. 1887, ch. 683.

§ 1534. Id.; by an infant.

An action for the partition of real property shall not be brought by an infant, except by the written authority of the surrogate of the county in which the property, or a part thereof, is situated. The authority shall not be given, unless the surrogate is satisfied, by affidavit or other competent evidence, that the interests of the infant will be promoted by bringing the action. A judgment for a partition or sale shall not be rendered in such an action, unless the court is satisfied that the interests of the infant will be promoted thereby, and that fact is expressly recited in the judgment.

L. 1852, ch. 277, §§ 1 and 2, am'd.

§ 1535. Guardian ad litem; how appointed.

A guardian ad litem for an infant party, in an action for partition, can be appointed only by the court.

Id., and 2 R. S. 317, § 2 (2 Edm. 326). See, also, § 472, ante.

§ 1536. [Am'd, 1884.] Security.

The security to be given by the guardian ad litem for an infant party, in an action for partition, must be a bond to the people of this State, executed by him and one or more sureties, as the court directs, in a sum fixed by the court, conditioned for the faithful discharge of the trust committed to him as guardian, and to render a just and true account of his guardianship, in any court or place, when thereunto required. The bond must be filed with the clerk, before the guardian enters upon the execution of his duties; and it cannot be dispensed with, although he is the general guardian of the infant.

2 R. S. 317, §§ 3 and 4 (2 Edm. 326), am'd; L. 1884, ch. 404. See Rule 4.

§ 1537. When heir may maintain action for partition of devised property.

A person claiming to be entitled, as a joint tenant or a tenant in common, by reason of his being an heir of a person who died, holding and in possession of real property, may maintain an action for the partition thereof, whether he is in or out of possession, notwithstanding an apparent devise thereof to another by the decedent, and possession under such a devise. But in such an action, the plaintiff must allege and establish that the apparent devise is void.

L. 1853, ch. 238, § 2 (4 Edm. 504).

§ 1538. [Am'd, 1896, 1897, 1898, 1905, 1909, 1918.] Who must be parties.

Every person having an undivided share, in possession or otherwise, in the property, as tenant in fee, for life, by the curtesy, or for years; every person entitled to the reversion, remainder or inheritance of an undivided share, after the determination of a particular estate therein; every person who, by any contingency contained in a devise or grant or otherwise, is or may become entitled to a beneficial interest in an undivided share thereof, provided that where a future estate or interest is limited in any contingency to the persons who shall compose a certain class upon the happening of a future event, it shall be sufficient to make parties to the action the persons who would have been entitled to such estate or interest if such event had happened immediately before the commencement of the action; every person having an inchoate right of dower in an undivided share in the property; and every person having a right of dower in the property, or any part thereof, which has not been admeasured, must be made a party to an action for a partition. But no person, other than a joint tenant, or a tenant in common of the property, shall be a plaintiff in the action. Whenever an action for the partition of real property shall be brought before the expiration of eighteen months from the time when letters of administration or letters testamentary, as the case may be, shall have been issued upon the estate of the decedent from whom the plaintiff's title is derived, the executors or administrators, as the case may be, if any, of the estate of said decedent, shall be made parties defendant. In case no executor or administrator of such decedent shall have been appointed at the time said action is begun, that fact shall be alleged in the complaint. The executors or administrators, if any, as the case may be, of a deceased person, who, if living, should be a party to such action, shall be made parties defendant therein, and in case no executor or administrator of such deceased person shall have been appointed, that fact shall be alleged in the complaint. Where the interlocutory judgment directs a sale of the premises sought to be partitioned, or of some part thereof, the judgment may, in the discretion of the court, direct that the premises so sold pursuant to such interlocutory judgment shall be free from the lien of every debt of such decedent or decedents, except debts which were a lien upon the premises before the death of such decedent or decedents. When the action is brought before eighteen months have elapsed from the granting of such letters of administration or letters testamentary, as the case may be, upon the estate of a decedent from whom the plaintiff derived his title, and the interlocutory judgment directs, as above provided, that the premises shall be sold, free from the lien of debts, the final judgment shall direct that the proceeds of the sale remaining after the payment of the costs, referee's fees, expenses of sale, taxes, assessments, water rates, and liens established before the death of the decedent, including any sum allowed to a widow in satisfaction of her right of dower, therein directed to be paid, be forthwith paid into court by the referee making such sale by depositing the same with the county treasurer of the county, in which the trial of the action is placed, to the credit of the parties entitled thereto, to await the further order in the premises. Where the action is brought before eighteen months have elapsed from the granting of letters of administration or letters testamentary, as the case may be, upon the estate of a deceased person, who, if living, should be a party to the action, and the interlocutory judgment directs, as above provided, that the premises shall be sold, free from the lien of debts, the final judgment shall direct that the share of the proceeds of such sale, which would have been his, if living, be paid into court by such referee, by depositing the same with such county treasurer, to await the further order in the premises. Upon the certificate of the surrogate of the county of which the decedent was, at the time of his death, a resident, showing that eighteen months have elapsed since the issuing of letters testamentary or letters of administration, as the case may be, upon the estate of said decedent, and that no proceedings for the mortgage, lease or sale of the real property of said decedent for the payment of his debts or funeral expenses, or both, is pending, and upon the certificate of the county clerk of the county where the real property sold under the interlocutory judgment is located, showing that no notice of pendency of action in respect to such real property has been filed in his office, the court, wherein the final judgment was made shall, upon the application of any party to said action, make an order directing the county treasurer to pay to said party from said deposit, the amount to which he is entitled under the said final judgment, with the accumulation thereon, if any, less the fees of said county treasurer. Any party to such action may, at any time after final judgment, upon notice to the executors or administrators of the decedent from whom the party applying derived his share or interest, apply to the court in which said action is pending for leave to withdraw the deposit or the share of the deposit, adjudged in the final judgment to belong to him; and, upon said application, the court may, in its discretion, make an order directing the county treasurer to pay over to said party the deposit, or the share of the deposit, adjudged in the final judgment to belong to him, but said order shall not be made until said party so applying shall have furnished a bond to the people of the state of New York in the penalty of twice the amount of the deposit sought to be withdrawn, with two or more good and sufficient sureties, approved by the judge or justice of the court making such order, and filed with such approval, in the office of the clerk of the county in which such action is pending, to the effect that the said party so withdrawing said deposit will pay any and all claims, not exceeding the amount of said deposit, when thereunto required by order of the court or by order of the surrogate or of the surrogate's court in a proceeding to mortgage, lease or sell the real property of such decedent. Where a final accounting has been § 1537. When heir may maintain action for partition of devised property.

A person claiming to be entitled, as a joint tenant or a tenant in common, by reason of his being an heir of a person who died, holding and in possession of real property, may maintain an action for the partition thereof, whether he is in or out of possession, notwithstanding an apparent devise thereof to another by the decedent, and possession under such a devise. But in such an action, the plaintiff must allege and establish that the apparent devise is void.

L. 1853, ch. 238, § 2 (4 Edm. 504).

§ 1538. [Am'd, 1896, 1897, 1898, 1905, 1909, 1918.] Who must be parties.

Every person having an undivided share, in possession or otherwise, in the property, as tenant in fee, for life, by the curtesy, or for years; every person entitled to the reversion, remainder or inheritance of an undivided share, after the determination of a particular estate therein; every person who, by any contingency contained in a devise or grant or otherwise, is or may become entitled to a beneficial interest in an undivided share thereof, provided that where a future estate or interest is limited in any contingency to the persons who shall compose a certain class upon the happening of a future event, it shall be sufficient to make parties to the action the persons who would have been entitled to such estate or interest if such event had happened immediately before the commencement of the action; every person having an inchoate right of dower in an undivided share in the property; and every person having a right of dower in the property, or any part thereof, which has not been admeasured, must be made a party to an action for a partition. But no person, other than a joint tenant, or a tenant in common of the property, shall be a plaintiff in the action. Whenever an action for the partition of real property shall be brought before the expiration of eighteen months from the time when letters of administration or letters testamentary, as the case may be, shall have been issued upon the estate of the decedent from whom the plaintiff's title is derived, the executors or administrators, as the case may be, if any, of the estate of said decedent, shall be made parties defendant. In case no executor or administrator of such decedent shall have been appointed at the time said action is begun, that fact shall be alleged in the complaint. The executors or administrators, if any, as the case may be, of a deceased person, who, if living, should be a party to such action, shall be made parties defendant therein, and in case no executor or administrator of such deceased person shall have been appointed, that fact shall be alleged in the complaint. Where the interlocutory judgment directs a sale of the premises sought to be partitioned, or of some part thereof, the judgment may, in the discretion of the court, direct that the premises so sold pursuant to such interlocutory judgment shall be free from the lien of every debt of such decedent or decedents, except debts which were a lien upon the premises before the death of such decedent or decedents. When the action is brought before eighteen months have elapsed from the granting of such letters of administration or letters testamentary, as the case may be, upon the estate of a decedent from whom the plaintiff derived his title, and the interlocutory judgment directs, as above provided, that the premises shall be sold, free from the lien of debts, the final judgment shall direct that the proceeds of the sale remaining after the payment of the costs, referee's fees, expenses of sale, taxes, assessments, water rates, and liens established before the death of the decedent, including any sum allowed to a widow in satisfaction of her right of dower, therein directed to be paid, be forthwith paid into court by the referee making such sale by depositing the same with the county treasurer of the county, in which the trial of the action is placed, to the credit of the parties entitled thereto, to await the further order in the premises. Where the action is brought before eighteen months have elapsed from the granting of letters of administration or letters testamentary, as the case may be, upon the estate of a deceased person, who, if living, should be a party to the action, and the interlocutory judgment directs, as above provided, that the premises shall be sold, free from the lien of debts, the final judgment shall direct that the share of the proceeds of such sale, which would have been his, if living, be paid into court by such referee, by depositing the same with such county treasurer, to await the further order in the premises. Upon the certificate of the surrogate of the county or which the decedent was, at the time of his death, a resident, showing that eighteen months have elapsed since the issuing of letters testamentary or letters of administration, as the case may be, upon the estate of said decedent, and that no proceedings for the mortgage, lease or sale of the real property of said decedent for the payment of his debts or funeral expenses, or both, is pending, and upon the certificate of the county clerk of the county where the real property sold under the interlocutory judgment is located, showing that no notice of pendency of action in respect to such real property has been filed in his office, the court, wherein the final judgment was made shall, upon the application of any party to said action, make an order directing the county treasurer to pay to said party from said deposit, the amount to which he is entitled under the said final judgment, with the accumulation thereon, if any, less the fees of said county treasurer. Any party to such action may, at any time after final judgment, upon notice to the executors or administrators of the decedent from whom the party applying derived his share or interest, apply to the court in which said action is pending for leave to withdraw the deposit or the share of the deposit, adjudged in the final judgment to belong to him; and, upon said application, the court may, in its discretion, make an order directing the county treasurer to pay over to said party the deposit, or the share of the deposit, adjudged in the final judgment to belong to him, but said order shall not be made until said party so applying shall have furnished a bond to the people of the state of New York in the penalty of twice the amount of the deposit sought to be withdrawn, with two or more good and sufficient sureties, approved by the judge or justice of the court making such order, and filed with such approval, in the office of the clerk of the county in which such action is pending, to the effect that the said party so withdrawing said deposit will pay any and all claims, not exceeding the amount of said deposit, when thereunto required by order of the court or by order of the surrogate or of the surrogate's court in a proceeding to mortgage, lease or sell the real property of such decedent. Where a final accounting has been had in the estate of said decedent in a surrogate's court, and certified copies of the account and decree of final settlement, showing that all of the debts of the decedent have been paid in full, is filed with the court having jurisdiction of the fund, the court may dispense with the giving of a bond and direct the immediate payment of the fund to the parties entitled thereto, subject to the provisions of article second, title three, chapter fifteen of the code of civil procedure. But where final judgment shall be rendered in any action for partition after eighteen months have elapsed from the granting of letters of administration or letters testamentary, as the case may be, upon the estate of the decedent from whom the plaintiff derived title, and the premises shall have been sold, free from the lien of debts, as above provided, then, upon producing to the court the certificate of the surrogate of the county in which the decedent was at the time of his death a resident, showing that eighteen months have elapsed since the issuing of letters of administration or letters testamentary, as the case may be, upon the estate of said decedent and that no proceeding for the mortgage, lease or sale of the real property of the decedent for the payment of his debts or funeral expenses, or both, is pending, and upon the certificate of the clerk of the county where the real property sold under the interlocutory judgment is located showing that no notice of pendency of action in respect to such real property has been filed in his office, the court rendering the final judgment shall direct the payment of the different shares to the several parties entitled thereto; except that the share of a deceased person, who, if living, should be a party to the action shall be paid into court as above provided, unless eighteen months have also elapsed since the granting of letters of administration or letters testamentary, as the case may be, upon the estate of said last mentioned deceased person, and like certificates of the surrogate and county clerk are produced to the court.

§ 1539. [Am'd, 1892.] Who may be made parties.

The plaintiff may, at his election, make a tenant, by the curtesy, for life, or for years, of the entire property, or whoever may be entitled to a contingent or vested remainder or reversion in the entire property, or a creditor, or other person, having a lien or interest, which attaches to the entire property, a defendant in the action. In that case, the final judgment may either award to such a party his or her entire right and interest, or the proceeds thereof, or where the right or interest is contingent direct that the proceeds or share thereof be substituted for the property and invested for whoever may eventually be entitled thereto, or may reserve and leave unaffected his or her right and interest, or any portion thereof. A person specified in this section, who is not made a party, is not affected by the judgment in the action.

2 R. S. § 36, am'd; L. 1892, ch. 581.

§ 1540. Id.; as to persons having liens.

The plaintiff may, at his election, make a creditor, having a lien on an undivided share or interest in the property, a defendant in the action. In that case, he must set forth the nature of the lien, and specify the share or interest to which it attaches. If partition of the property is made, the lien, whether the creditor is or is not made a party, shall thereafter attach only to the share or interest assigned to the party upon whose share or interest the lien attached; which must be first charged with its just proportion of the costs and expenses of the action, in preference to the lien.

Id., §§ 8 and 9, and L. 1830, ch. 320, § 41 (2 Edm. 327), am'd.

§ 1541. [Am'd, 1914.] Provision where a party is unknown.

Where a defendant having a share or interest in the property is unknown, or where his name or part of his name is unknown, and the summons is served upon him by publication, pursuant to an order for that purpose, as prescribed in article second of title first of chapter fifth of this act, the notice subjoined to the copy of the summons as published must, in addition to the matters required in that article, state briefly the object of the action, and contain a brief description of the property.

Id., § 12, in substance; annulling the law as settled in 56 N. Y. 359. Am'd by L. 1914, ch. 346, in effect Sept. 1, 1914.

§ 1542. Complaint to state interests of parties.

The complaint must describe the property with common certainty, and must specify the rights, shares, and interests therein of all the parties, as far as the same are known to the plaintiff. If a party, or the share, right, or interest of a party, is unknown to the plaintiff; or if a share, right, or interest is uncertain or contingent; or if the ownership of the inheritance depends upon an executory devise; or if a remainder is a contingent remainder, so that the party cannot be named; that fact must also be stated in the complaint.

Id., § 5, subd. 1 and 2, and § 7, consolidated.

§ 1543. Title of parties may be tried.

The title or interest of the plaintiff in the property, as stated in the complaint, may be controverted by the answer. The title or interest of any defendant in the property, as stated in the complaint, may also be controverted by his answer, or the answer of any other defendant; and the title or interest of any defendant, as stated in his answer, may be controverted by the answer of any other defendant. A defendant, thus controverting the title or interest of a co-defendant, must comply with section 521 of this act. The issues, joined as prescribed in this section, must be tried and determined in the action.

2 R. S. 320, §§ 18 and 19 (2 Edm. 329), am'd. See §§ 521 and 1204, ante.

§ 1544. Issues of fact triable by jury.

An issue of fact joined in the action is triable by a jury. Unless the court directs the issues to be stated, as prescribed in section 970 of this act, the issues may be tried upon the pleadings.

§ 1545. When title to be ascertained by the court.

Where a defendant has made default in appearing or pleading, or where a party is an infant, the court must ascertain the rights, shares, and interests of the several parties in the property, by a reference or otherwise, before interlocutory judgment is rendered in the action.

2 R. S. 320, § 22 and part of § 23, am'd. See Rule 68.

§ 1546. Interlocutory judgment.

The interlocutory judgment must declare what is the right, share, or interest of each party in the property, as far as the same has been ascertained, and must determine the rights of the parties therein. Where it is found, by the verdict, report, or decision, or where it appears to the court, upon an application for judgment in favor of the plaintiff, that the property, or any part thereof, is so circumstanced that a partition thereof cannot be made without great prejudice to the owners, the interlocutory judgment, except as otherwise expressly prescribed in this article, must direct that the property, or the part thereof which is so circumstanced, be sold at public auction. Otherwise, an interlocutory judgment in favor of the plaintiff, must direct that partition be made between the parties, according to their respective rights, shares, and interests.

See id., §§ 23, 24 and 81.

§ 1547. Partial partition; when made.

Where the right, share, and interest of a party has been ascertained and determined, and the rights, shares, or interests of the other parties, as between themselves, remain unascertained or undetermined, an interlocutory judgment for a partition, entered as prescribed in the last section, must direct a partition, as between the party whose share has been so determined and the other parties to the action. Where the rights, shares, and interests of two or more parties have been thus ascertained and determined, the interlocutory judgment may also direct the partition among them of a part of the property, proportionate to their aggregate shares. In either case, the court may, from time to time, as the other rights, shares, and interests are ascertained and determined, render an interlocutory judgment, directing the partition, in like manner, of the remainder of the property. Where an interlocutory judgment is rendered, in a case specified in this section, the court may direct the action to be severed, and final judgment to be rendered, with respect to the portion of the property set apart to the parties, whose rights, shares, and interests are determined, leaving the action to proceed as against the other parties, with respect to the remainder of the property; and if necessary, the court may direct that one of those parties be substituted as plaintiff.

L. 1847, ch. 430, §§ 1, 2 (4 Edm. 613).

§ 1548. Shares may be set off in common.

Where two or more parties, to an action for partition, make it appear to the court, that they desire to enjoy their shares in common with each other, the interlocutory judgment may, in the discretion of the court, direct partition to be so made, as to set off to them their shares of the real property partitioned, without partition as between themselves, to be held by them in common.

L. 1847, ch. 430, § 4.

§ 1549. Appointment of commissioners.

Where the interlocutory judgment, in an action for partition, directs a partition, it must designate three reputable and disinterested freeholders as commissioners, to make the partition so directed.

2 R. S. 321, § 25 (2 Edm. 331).

§ 1550. Commissioners to be sworn, etc.

Each of the commissioners must, before entering upon the execution of his duties, subscribe and take an oath before an officer specified in section 842 of this act, to the effect that he will faithfully, honestly and impartially discharge the trust reposed in him. Each commissioner's oath must be filed with the clerk, before he enters upon the execution of his duties. The court may, at any time, remove either of the commissioners. If either of them dies, resigns, neglects or refuses to serve, or is removed, the court may, from time to time, by order, appoint another person in his place.

Id., §§ 26, 27. See § 1608, post.

§ 1551. Id.; when to make partition.

The commissioners must forthwith proceed to make partition, as directed by the interlocutory judgment, unless it appears to them, or a majority of them, that partition thereof, or of a particular lot, tract, or other portion thereof, cannot be made, without great prejudice to the owners; in which case, they must make a written report of that fact to the court.

Id., § 28.

§ 1552. Partition; how made.

In making the partition, the commissioners must divide the property into distinct parcels, and allot the several parcels thereof to the respective parties, quality and quantity being relatively considered, according to the respective rights and interests of the parties, as fixed by the interlocutory judgment. They must designate the several parcels by posts, stones, or other permanent monuments. They may employ a surveyor, with the necessary assistants, to aid them in so doing.

Id., § 29.

§ 1553. Provision where there is a particular estate.

Where a party has a right of dower in the property, or a part thereof, which has not been admeasured, or has an estate by the curtesy, for life or for years, in an undivided share of the property, the commissioners may allot to that party his or her share of the property, without reference to the duration of the estate. And they may make partition of the share so allotted to that party, among the parties, who are entitled to the remainder or reversion thereof, to be enjoyed by them upon the determination of the particular estate, where, in the opinion of the commissioners, such a partition can be made without prejudice to the rights of the parties.

L. 1847, ch. 430, § 5 (4 Edm. 614), am'd.

§ 1554. Report of commissioners.

All the commissioners must meet together in the performance of any of their duties; but the acts of a majority so met are valid. They, or a majority of them, must make a full report of their proceedings, under their hands, specifying therein the manner in which they have discharged their trust, describing the property divided, and the share or interest in a share, allotted to each party, with the quantity, courses, and distances, or other particular description of each share, and a description of the posts, stones, or other monuments; and specifying the items of their charges. Their report must be acknowledged or proved, and certified, in like manner as a deed to be recorded, and must be filed in the office of the clerk.

2 R. S. 322, §§ 30, 31, 33 (2 Edm. 331).

§ 1555. Fees and expenses.

The fees and expenses of the commissioners, including the expense of a survey, when it is made, must be taxed under the direction of the court; and the amount thereof must be paid by the plaintiff, and allowed as part of his costs.

Id., § 32; Smith v. Broadstreet, 5 Cow. 213.

§ 1556. Confirming or setting aside report.

The court must confirm or set aside the report, and may, if necessary, appoint new commissioners, who must proceed as directed in this article.

Id., § 34, am'd.

§ 1557. Final judgment on report; effect thereof.

Upon the confirmation, by the court, of the report of the commissioners making partition, final judgment, that the partition be firm and effectual forever, must be rendered, which is binding and conclusive upon the following persons:

1. The plaintiff; each defendant upon whom the summons was served, either personally, or without the State, or by publication, pursuant to an order obtained for that purpose, as prescribed in chapter fifth of this act; and the legal representatives of each party, specified in this subdivision. So much of section 445 of this act, as requires the court to allow a defendant to defend an action, after final judgment, does not apply to an action for partition.

2. Each person claiming from, through, or under such a party, by title accruing after the filing of the judgment-roll, or after the filing, in the proper county clerk's office, of a notice of the pendency of the action, as prescribed in article ninth of this title.

3. Each person, not in being when the interlocutory judgment is rendered, who, by the happening of any contingency, becomes afterwards entitled to a beneficial interest attaching to, or an estate or interest in, a portion of the property, the person first entitled to which, or other virtual representative whereof, was a party specified in the first subdivision of this section.

But this section does not apply to a party, whose right and interest are expressly reserved and left unaffected, as prescribed in section 1539 of this act, or to a person claiming from, through, or under such a party.

2 R. S. 322, § 35, am'd. See § 445, ante, and § 185, Co. Proc.

§ 1558. Judgment must direct delivery of possession.

The final judgment must also direct that each of the parties, who is entitled to possession of a distinct parcel allotted to him, be let into the possession thereof, either immediately, or after the determination of the particular estate, as the case requires.

See § 1675, post.

§ 1559. Costs; how awarded. Id.; against unknown parties.

The final judgment for the partition of the property, must also award, that each defendant pay to the plaintiff his proportion of the plaintiff's costs, including the extra allowance. The sum to be paid by each must be fixed by the court, according to the respective rights of the parties, and specified in the judgment. If a defendant is unknown, his proportion of the costs must be fixed and specified in like manner. An execution against an unknown defendant may be issued to collect the costs awarded against him, as if he was named in the judgment; and his right, share, or interest in the property may be sold by virtue thereof, as if he was named in the execution.

2 R. S., § 72, am'd.

§ 1560. Sale of property; when directed.

If the commissioners, or a majority of them, report that the property, or a particular lot, tract, or other portion thereof, is so circumstanced, that a partition thereof cannot be made, without great prejudice to the owners thereof, the court, if it is satisfied that the report is just and correct, may thereupon, except as otherwise expressly prescribed in this article, modify the interlocutory judgment, or render a supplemental interlocutory judgment, reciting the facts, and directing that the property, or the distinct parcel thereof so circumstanced, be sold by a referee, designated in the judgment, or by the sheriff.

Id., §§ 87 and 81. See Rules 71 and 72.

§ 1561. Reference to inquire as to creditors.

Before an interlocutory judgment for the sale of real property is rendered, in an action for partition, the court must, either with or without application by a party, direct a reference, to ascertain whether there is any creditor, not a party, who has a lien on the undivided share or interest of any party. But the court may direct or dispense with such a reference, in its discretion, where a party produces a search, certified by the clerk, or by the clerk and register, as the case requires, of the county where the property is situated; and it appears therefrom, and by the affidavits, if any, produced therewith, that there is no such outstanding lien.

Id., § 42, as am'd, L. 1830, ch. 320, § 42.

§ 1562. [Am'd, 1887.] Duty of referee.

Where a reference is directed, as prescribed in the last section, the referee must cause a notice to be published, once in each week for six successive weeks, in such newspaper published in the county wherein the place of trial is designated, as shall be designated by the court directing said reference, and also in a newspaper published in each county wherein the property is situated, requiring each person, not a party to the action, who, at the date of the order, had a lien upon any undivided share or interest in the property, to appear before the referee, at a specified place, and on or before a specified day, to prove his lien, and the true amount due or to become due to him by reason thereof. The referee must report to the court, with all convenient speed, the name of each creditor, whose lien is satisfactorily proved before him, the nature and extent of the lien, the date thereof, and the amount due or to become due thereupon.

2 R. S., § 43; L. 1887, ch. 686. See § 1578.

§ 1563. Money to be paid into court.

If it appears by the pleadings, or by the evidence in the action, or by the report, that there was, at the date of the order, any existing lien upon the share or interest of a party in the property, the interlocutory judgment, directing the sale, must also direct the officer making it to pay into court the portion of the money arising from the sale of the share or interest of that party, after deducting the portion of the costs and expenses for which it is liable.

Id., § 44.

§ 1564. Application for money.

Where money is paid into court, in a case specified in the last section, the party may apply to the court for an order directing that the money, or such part thereof as he claims, be paid to him. Upon such an application, he must produce the following papers:

1. An affidavit, made by himself, or, if a sufficient excuse is shown, by his agent or attorney, stating the true amount actually due on each incumbrance, and the name and residence of the owner of the incumbrance, as far as they are known, or can be ascertained with due diligence.

2. An affidavit, showing service of a notice of the application upon each owner of an incumbrance. Service of the notice, within the State, must be personal, or by leaving it at the owner's residence, with some person of suitable age and discretion, at least fourteen days previous to the application. Service, without the State, if personal, must be made at least twenty days previous to the application. If the owner of the incumbrance resides without the State, and the place of his abode cannot be ascertained, with reasonable diligence, notice may be served upon him by publishing it in the newspaper printed at Albany, in which legal notices are required to be published, once in each week for the four weeks immediately preceding the application.

Upon the application, the court must make such an order as justice requires.

Id., §§ 45 and 46. See, also, §§ 823 and 1015, ante.

§ 1565. Payment of incumbrances.

When the whole amount of the unsatisfied liens upon an undivided share, which were existing at the date of the order of reference, has been ascertained, the court must order the portion of the money so paid into court, on account of that share, to be distributed among the creditors having the liens, according to the priority of each of them. Where the incumbrancer is not a party to the action, the clerk or other officer, by whom a lien is paid off, must procure satisfaction thereof to be acknowledged or proved, as required by law, and must cause the incumbrance to be duly satisfied or cancelled of record. The expense of so doing must be paid out of the portion of the money in court, belonging to the party, by whom the incumbrance was payable.

2 R. S., §§ 47 and 48. See § 1578, post.

§ 1566. Other parties not to be delayed.

The proceedings to ascertain and settle the liens upon an undivided share, as prescribed in the last three sections, shall not affect any other party to the action, or delay the paying over or investing of money, to or for the benefit of any other party, upon whose share or interest in the property there does not appear to be any existing lien.

Id., § 49.

§ 1567. Sale of dower interest.

Where a party has an existing right of dower in the entire property directed to be sold, at the time when an interlocutory judgment for a sale is rendered in an action for partition, the court must consider and determine whether the interests of all the parties require, that the right of dower should be excepted from the sale, or that it should be sold.

Id., § 50, am'd. See § 1533, ante.

§ 1568. Purchaser to hold the property free therefrom.

If a sale of the property, including the right of dower, is directed, the interest of the party entitled to the right of dower shall pass thereby; and the purchaser, his heirs and assigns, shall hold the property free and discharged from any claim, by virtue of that right. In that case, the dowress is entitled to receive, from the proceeds of the sale of the whole property, a gross sum, in satisfaction of her right of dower, or to have one-third of those proceeds paid into court, for the purpose of being invested for her benefit, as prescribed in the next section with respect to the dowress of an undivided share.

Id., § 51, am'd.

§ 1569. [Am'd, 1913.] Gross sum to be paid to or invested for tenant in dower, etc.

A party to an action for partition, who has a right of dower, or is a tenant for life or for years, in or of an undivided share of the property sold, is entitled to receive, from the proceeds of the sale, a gross sum, to be fixed according to the principles of law applicable to annuities, in satisfaction of his or her estate or interest. The written consent of the party to receive such a gross sum, acknowledged or proved, and certified, in like manner as a deed to be recorded, must be filed, at the time of, or before, the filing of the report of sale; otherwise the court must direct that, out of the proceeds of the sale, which belong to the undivided share to which the estate or interest attaches, one-third, in case of a dowress, and in any other case arising under this section, the entire proceeds, or such a proportion thereof as fairly represents the interest of the holder of the particular estate, be paid into court, for the purpose of being invested for his or her benefit. If it shall appear to the court that the tenant for life or for years, or the widow, is an infant, lunatic or otherwise incompetent, and that a general guardian or committee has been duly appointed, upon proof that it will be for the best interest and advantage of the estate of such infant or lunatic or incompetent person, the court may authorize and direct such guardian or committee, in the name of such infant, lunatic or incompetent person, having such estate for life, or years or dower right, to execute an instrument under seal, acknowledged or proved and certified in like manner as a deed to be recorded, whereby such guardian or committee shall consent to accept in lieu of such estate or dower, a sum, to be ascertained by the court as above provided, according to the principles applicable to life annuities; and upon presentation of such an instrument to the court, the value of the estate for life or for years or dower so ascertained by it shall be paid to such guardian or committee. Such instrument shall have the same force and effect as a deed or instrument executed and acknowledged by a competent person or a person of full age.

2 R. S., §§ 52, 53, and 54, am'd. See 2 T. & C. 483; also, § 1570, post; am'd by L. 1913, ch. 450. In effect Sept. 1, 1913.

§ 1570. [Am'd, 1892.] Interests of owners of future estates to be protected.

Where it appears, that a party to the action has an inchoate right of dower, or any other future right or estate, vested or contingent, or that any person or persons not in being who may by any contingency become entitled to any interest or estate, in the property sold, the court must fix the proportional value of the right or estate, according to the principles of law applicable to annuities and survivorships, or set aside so much of the proceeds of sale to which the contingency attaches, and must direct that proportion of the proceeds of the sale to be invested, secured or paid over, in such a manner as it deems calculated to protect the rights and interests of the parties.

L. 1840, ch. 177, § 1 (4 Edm. 511), am'd; L. 1892, ch. 581. , § 1571. Married woman may release her interest.

A married woman may release to her husband her inchoate right of dower, in the property directed to be sold, by a written instrument, duly acknowledged by her and certified, as required by law with respect to the acknowledgment or a conveyance to bar her dower; which must be filed with the clerk. Thereupon, the share of the proceeds of the sale, arising from her contingent interest, must be paid to her husband.

Id., § 2.

§ 1572. Unknown owners.

If a person, entitled to an estate or interest in the property sold, is made a party as an unknown defendant, the court must provide for the protection of his rights, as far as may be, as if he was known and had appeared.

2 R. S. 326, § 55 (2 Edm. 336). See, also, §§ 1541 and 1557, subd. 1, ante.

§ 1573. Sale; terms of credit thereupon.

The court must, in the interlocutory judgment for a sale, direct the terms of credit which may be allowed for any portion of the purchase-money, of which it thinks proper to direct the investment, and for any portion of the purchase-money, which is required to be invested for the benefit of a person, as prescribed in this article.

Id., § 38.

§ 1574. Credit; how secured.

The portion of the purchase-money, for which credit is so allowed, must always be secured at interest, by a mortgage upon the property sold, with a bond of the purchaser; and by such additional security, if any, as the court prescribes.

Id., § 39.

§ 1575. Separate securities.

The officer making the sale may take separate mortgages and other securities in the name of the county treasurer of the county in which the property is situated, for such convenient portions of the purchase-money, as are directed by the court to be invested; and in the name of the owner, for the share of any known owner of full age, who desires to have it invested.

2 B. S. 326, § 40, am'd. See § 745, ante.

§ 1576. Report of sale.

Immediately after completing the sale, the officer making it must file with the clerk his report thereof under oath, containing a description of each parcel sold, the name of the purchaser thereof, and the price at which it was sold.

Id., § 59.

§ 1577. Final judgment; effect thereof.

If the sale is confirmed by the court, a final judgment must be entered, confirming it accordingly; directing the officer making it to execute the proper conveyances, and take the proper securities pursuant to the sale; and also directing concerning the application of the proceeds of the sale. Such a final judgment is binding and conclusive upon the same persons, upon whom a final judgment for partition is made binding and conclusive by section 1557 of this act; and it effectually bars each of those persons, who is not a purchaser at the sale, from all right, title and interest in the property sold.

Id., §§ 60, 61a and 61b, am'd. See § 1557, ante.

§ 1578. [Am'd, 1883.] Id.; effect thereof upon incumbrancers.

Such a final judgment is also a bar against each person, not a party, who has, at the time when it is rendered, a general lien by judgment or decree on the undivided share or interest of a party, if notice was given to appear before the referee, and make proof of liens, as prescribed in section 1562 of this act, and also against each person made a party, who then has a specific lien on any such undivided share or interest; but a person having any such specific lien appearing of record at the time of the filing of the notice of the pendency of the action, who is not made a party, is not affected by such judgment.

Id., § 61b; L. 1830, ch. 320, § 45. See §§ 1561 and 1562, ante.

§ 1579. Costs and expenses; how paid.

Where final judgment, confirming a sale, is rendered, the costs of each party to the action, and the expenses of the sale, including the officer's fees, must be deducted from the proceeds of the sale, and each party's costs must be paid to his attorney. But the court may, in its discretion, direct that the costs and expenses any trial, reference, or other proceeding in the action, be paid out of the share of any party in the proceeds, or may render judgment against any party therefor. Where a proportion of the proceeds is to be paid to, or invested for the benefit of any person, as prescribed in any provision of this article, the amount thereof must be determined by the residue of the entire proceeds, remaining after deducting the costs and expenses chargeable against them.

Id., §§ 62 and 72, am'd.

§ 1580. [Am'd, 1908.] Distribution of proceeds; duties of officer making sale.

The proceeds of a sale, after deducting therefrom the costs and expenses chargeable against them, must be immediately awarded to the parties whose rights and interests have been sold, in proportion thereto. The sum chargeable upon any share to satisfy a lien thereon, must be paid to the creditor, or retained, subject to the order of the court; and the remainder, except as otherwise prescribed in this article, must be paid by the officer making the sale, to the party owning the share, or his legal representatives or into court for his use. Within sixty days after the entry of final judgment, unless such time be extended by an order of the court entered in the office of the clerk within said sixty days, the officer making the sale must file with the clerk his report under oath of the disposition of the proceeds of the sale, accompanied by the vouchers of the persons to whom payments were ordered to be made.

5 R. S. 326, § 63. Am'd, L. 1908, ch. 294. In effect Sept. 1, 1908.

§ 1581. [Am'd, 1892, 1897.] Shares of infants.

Where a party entitled to receive a portion of the proceeds is an infant, the court may direct it to be invested in permanent securities in the name and for the benefit of the infant, or it may direct it to be paid over to the general guardian of the said infant when the guardian shall have executed to such infant a bond with two sureties which shall be approved by the court; or, if any of the moneys arising from the proceeds of such sale shall have been paid to the county treasurer, and on due proof that such money has remained uninvested in permanent securities for the space of three months, may direct the same to be paid to the general guardian of such infant upon his giving an undertaking in an amount and with securities satisfactory to the court for the faithful execution of his trust. In the case of an infant residing without the state, and having in the state or country where he or she resides a general guardian or person duly appointed under the laws of such state or country, to the control and entitled, by the laws of such state or country, to the custody of the money of such infant, the court, upon satisfactory proof of such facts and of the sufficiency of the bond or security given by such general guardian or person in such state or country by the certificate of a judge of a court of record of such state or country, or otherwise, may direct that the portion of such infant arising upon such sale shall be paid over to such general guardian or person.

L. 1892, ch. 558; L. 1897, ch. 602. In effect Sept. 1, 1897.

§ 1582. [Am'd, 1893.] Id.; of unknown and absent owners.

Where a person has been made a defendant as an unknown person, or where the name of a defendant is unknown, or where the summons has been served upon a defendant without the state, or by publication, and he has not appeared in the action, the court must direct his portion to be invested in permanent securities, at interest, for his benefit, until claimed by him or his legal representatives, but after the lapse of twenty-five years from the time of the payment into court, or to the treasurer of any county, of any portion of the proceeds of the sale of real property, for unknown heirs, heretofore or hereafter to be made in any action of partition, without any claim therefor having been made by any person entitled thereto, and upon there being made and presented to the court, at a special term thereof, proof, by petition or otherwise, showing to the satisfaction of the court that due inquiry for such unknown heirs, or their representatives, has been made and that they cannot be found, and that no claim has been made for such portion of said proceeds by any person entitled thereto, proceedings shall thereupon be taken in said court, and an investigation had therein as to the heirship, death or whereabouts of such unknown heirs or their representatives, and as to the known heirs of the ancestor of such unknown heirs, the next of kin, representatives and distributees of such known heirs, and as to all persons interested in such proceeds, and their respective interests therein, and the said court shall, by an order made in the action, direct that a notice entitled in the action and signed by the petitioner, or his attorney, and directed to such unknown heirs or their representatives, and to known heirs, their next of kin, representatives or distributees, and all persons interested in such proceeds, be served upon them by the publication thereof, the same to be published once in each week for six successive weeks in a newspaper published in the county where the action was brought, and in such other newspapers as the court may direct, ordering and requiring such unknown heirs, or their representatives, and all known heirs, their next of kin, or representatives, and all persons interested in such proceeds, and each of them to be and appear in said court at a special term thereof, at a time and place to be specified in said order and notice, and at least six weeks from the date of the first publication of such notice, to then and there establish their heirship and identity, kinship and interest, and submit any proof, as to such unknown heirs, or their representatives, and the known heirs, their next of kin, representatives or distributees, and all persons interested and their interest in such proceeds, they may desire, and that in case of their default in so doing, that the said proceeds will be distributed and paid over to the known heirs of the ancestor from whom such unknown heirs derived title thereto, and to their heirs, next of kin, representatives, distributees and assigns, and that they and each of them shall thereafter be forever barred of and from all and every cause or causes of action for such proceeds, or on account thereof, or growing out of the distribution thereof, and of and from all right, title, claim and interest in and to such proceeds, and shall be deemed to have surrendered all right, claim and interest in and to such proceeds. The order must contain a direction that a copy of the notice must be served on each of the persons named in the order, if within the state, in the manner prescribed for the service of a summons on a defendant in an action in the supreme court, at least twenty days before the time specified in the notice. The publication of such notice, as required by said order, is hereby made and shall be deemed and taken for all purposes to be due and complete service upon each and every of such unknown heirs or their representatives, and the known heirs, their next of kin, and representatives, and all persons interested in such proceeds, of due notice of the proceedings to distribute and pay out such proceeds, and shall be conclusive upon each and all of them. Proof of such personal service may be made by the affidavit of the person making the same, and proof of the publication of such notice may be made by affidavit of the publisher of such paper or papers. At the time and place specified in the said order and notice, such unknown heirs or their representatives, and all known heirs, their next of kin, representatives or distributees, devisees, and all persons interested in such proceeds, shall appear in court, in person or by attorney, and make proof establishing their heirship and identity, kinship and interest in such proceeds, and upon proof being made to the satisfaction of the court of the heirship and identity of the unknown heirs, the proceeding for distribution shall be dismissed. And if such unknown heirs or their representatives, do not so appear in court at the time and place specified in such notice and order, to establish their heirship and identity, kinship or interest, they and each of them, and every person claiming under or through them, shall thereafter be forever barred of and from all and every cause or causes of action for such proceeds, or on account thereof, or growing out of the distribution of such proceeds, and of and from all right, title, claim and interest in and to such proceeds, and shall be deemed to have surrendered all right, claim and interest in and to such proceeds. And upon proofs being made of such publication, and showing to the satisfaction of the court that such unknown heirs or their representatives can not be found, or are dead, the said court shall have power to decree accordingly, and to decree that the share or interest of such unknown heirs in such real property was vested, at the time of such sale, in the known heirs of the ancestor from whom such unknown heirs derived title thereto, and to decree that the unclaimed portion of such proceeds was vested at the time of such payment in such known heirs, and that such heirs, their heirs, next of kin, representatives, distributees, devisees and assigns, are entitled thereto; and the said court shall make an order in such action, directing the payment to them, or their assigns, of the respective shares or portions of, or interest in such proceeds to which they are entitled; and which order shall be entered in the office of the clerk of the county where the original action was brought, and after having been so entered for three months, shall be conclusive evidence of the regularity of the proceedings upon which it is based, and of all the facts set forth therein; and, upon serving upon the county treasurer a certified copy of such order, the treasurer shall so pay over and distribute such proceeds, after deducting his lawful commissions, and shall thereupon be exempt from all liability on account thereof; and if any such proceeds shall have been paid over by any county treasurer to the treasurer of the state of New York, under the provisions of section seven hundred and fifty-three of this act, due notice of said applications and proceedings shall be given to the comptroller of the state of New York, and the said proceeds shall be paid out by the treasurer of the state of New York, as provided by section seven hundred and fifty-one and seven hundred and fifty-three of this act, and upon such payment he shall thereupon be exempt from all liability on account thereof.

L. 1893, ch. 203.

§ 1583. Id.; of tenants of particular estates.

Where a portion of the proceeds representing an undivided share or interest, is invested for the benefit of a tenant for life, or for years, or of a widow, as prescribed in the foregoing provisions of this article, the court must cause it to be invested in permanent securities, at interest, and the interest to be paid, from time to time as it accrues, to the person for whose benefit it is invested, while his or her right continues.

2 R. S. 326, § 66, am'd. See § 1569, ante.

§ 1584. Court may require security to refund.

The court may, in its discretion, require any person, before he receives his portion of the proceeds of the sale, to give such security as it directs, to the people, or to such parties or other persons, as it prescribes, to refund the same, or a portion thereof, with interest, if it thereafter appears that he was not entitled thereto.

Id., § 67, am'd.

§ 1585. Security to be taken in name of county treasurer.

A security taken under any provision of this article, except as otherwise specially prescribed therein, must be taken in the name and official title of the county treasurer of the county in which the property sold is situated. He, and his successors in office, must hold the same for the use and benefit of the persons interested, subject to the order of the court.

Id., § 68, am'd by L. 1848, ch. 277, § 1 (4 Edm. 593). See § 745, ante.

§ 1586. Action thereupon.

The court may in its discretion, and upon such terms and conditions as justice requires, make an order, allowing a person interested in a security specified in the last section, to maintain an action thereupon in the name of the county treasurer.

2 R. S. 326, § 71, am'd. See §§ 745-754, ante.

§ 1587. Compensation to equalize partition.

Where it appears that partition cannot be made equal between the parties, according to their respective rights, without prejudice to the rights or interests of some of them, the final judgment may award compensation to be made by one party to another for equality of partition. But compensation cannot be so awarded against a party who is unknown, or whose name is unknown. Nor can it be awarded against an infant, unless it appears, that he has personal property sufficient to pay it, and that his interests will be promoted thereby.

§ 1588. Proceedings on death of parties.

If, upon the death of one of two or more plaintiffs, or one of two or more defendants, in an action for partition, the interest of the decedent in the property passed to a person, not a party to the action, the latter may be made defendant by the order of the court; and a supplemental summons may be issued, to bring him in accordingly.

2 R. S. 387, §§ 6 and 7 (2 Edm. 402, 403).

§ 1589. Rents, etc., may be adjusted.

Nothing contained in this article prevents the court from adjusting, in the interlocutory or final judgment, or otherwise, as the case requires, the rights of one or more of the parties, as against any other party or parties, by reason of the receipt, by the latter, of more than his or their proper proportion of the rents or profits of a share, or part of a share.

§ 1590. [Am'd, 1895, 1905.] Partition by guardian of infant, committee of lunatic, etc.

Where an infant, idiot, lunatic, or habitual drunkard, holds real property, in joint tenancy or in common, the general guardian of the infant, or the committee of the idiot, lunatic, or habitual drunkard, may apply to the supreme court or to the county court of the county, wherein the real property is situated, for authority to agree to a partition of the real property. Where such application affects the interests of an incompetent person who has been committed to a state institution, and is an inmate thereof, notice of such application must be given to the superintendent, acting superintendent, or state officer having special jurisdiction over the institution where the incompetent person is confined.

2 R. S. 330, 331, §§ 86 and 89 (2 Edm. 341); L. 1905, ch. 434. In effect Sept. 1, 1905.

§ 1591. Contents of petition.

Such an application must be by a petition, which must describe the real property proposed and to be partitioned; must state the rights and interests of the several owners thereof; must specify the particular partition proposed to be made; and must be verified by affidavit. The court may order notice of the application to be given to such persons as it thinks proper.

Id., § 87.

§ 1592. [Am'd, 1886.] Court may authorize partition.

If, after due inquiry into the merits of the application, by a reference or otherwise, the court is of the opinion that the interests of the infant, or of the idiot, lunatic, or habitual drunkard will be promoted by the partition, it may make an order authorizing the petitioner to agree to the partition proposed, and in the name of the infant, or of the idiot, lunatic, or habitual drunkard, to execute releases of his right and interest in and to that part of the property which falls to the shares of the other joint-tenants or tenants in common. The court may, in its discretion, for the furtherance of the interests of said infant, idiot, lunatic, or habitual drunkard, direct partition to be so made as to set off to him or them his or their share in common with any of the other owners, provided the consent in writing thereto of such owners shall be first obtained.

2 R. S. 330, 331, §§ 87 and 90; L. 1886, ch. 208.

§ 1593. Effect of releases.

Releases so executed have the same validity and effect, as if they were executed by the person in whose behalf they are executed, and as if the infant was of full age, or the idiot, lunatic, or habitual drunkard was of sound mind, and competent to manage his affairs.

Id., §§ 88a and 91, Am'd.

§ 1594. [Am'd, 1911, 1916, 1917.] When the state is interested.

The people of the state may be made a party defendant to an action for the partition of real property, in the same manner as a private person. In such a case the summons must be served upon the attorney-general who must appear in behalf of the people, but where the people of the state of New York are made a party defendant, as herein provided, the complaint shall set forth, in addition to the other matters required to be set forth by the code of civil procedure detailed facts showing the nature and extent of the interest in or lien on the said real property of the people of the state of New York and the reason for making the people a party. Upon failure to state such facts, the complaint shall be dismissed, as to the people of the state of New York. The commissioners of the land office, whenever they deem it for the best interests of the state, may order the treasurer or the comptroller to pay off and cancel any mortgage, tax, or other encumbrance, or any amount due thereon, or to acquire any undivided interest, adverse to the state, existing on any lands belonging to the state, or in which the state has an interest other than the lien of a tax under article ten of the tax law, to perfect in the state a title to any such lands or to protect the state's interest therein. In all such actions wherein the commissioners of the land office are so empowered the plaintiff shall not be entitled to costs if the people of the state are made a party defendant, unless the commissioners of the land office, after a full presentation of the facts to them shall have determined before the action of partition is brought against the state that the interests of the state did not warrant their making an order for the payment or cancellation of said mortgage, lien or encumbrance, or any amount due thereon, or for the acquisition of any outstanding undivided interest adverse to the state, or unless the commissioners of the land office shall have failed to make such determination within three months after such full presentation of facts shall have been made to them by a verified statement in writing, and filed with the secretary of said commissioners at his office in the city of Albany, nor unless a certified copy of the commissioners' report of partition, and of the referee's or sheriff's report of sale, in case of a sale, filed in the action shall have first been duly served upon the attorney-general; and in no such case wherein the people are made a party defendant because of an interest other than the lien of a tax under article ten of the tax law, shall any additional allowance under sections thirty-two hundred and fifty-two or thirty-two hundred and fifty-three of this act be made to the plaintiff.

Id., §§ 92, 93, am'd. Am'd by L. 1911, ch. 26; L. 1916, ch. 330; L. 1917, ch. 774, in effect Sept. 1, 1917.

§ 1595. Exemplified copy of judgment may be recorded.

An exemplified copy of the judgment-roll, or of the final judgment, in an action for partition, may be recorded, in the office for recording deeds, in each county in which any real property affected thereby is situated.

L. 1846, ch. 182, § 2 (4 Edm. 438).

ARTICLE THIRD.Action for dower.*

- Sec. 1596. Limitation of action for dower.
 1597. Against whom action to be brought.
 1598. Who may be joined as defendants.
 1599. Id.; where defendants claim in severalty.
 1600. Damages may be recovered; how estimated.
 1601. Id.; in action against alienee of husband.
 1602. Id.; where several parcels, etc.
 1603. Id.; against heirs, etc., aliening land.
 1604. Action barred by assignment of dower.
 1605. Collusive recovery not to prejudice infant.
 1606. Complaint.
 1607. Interlocutory judgment for admeasurement.
 1608. Oath of commissioners, etc.; removal; filling vacancy.
 1609. Dower, how administered.
 1610. Report thereupon.
 1611. Setting aside report.
 1612. Fees and expenses.
 1613. Final judgment.
 1614. Plaintiff may recover sum awarded; court may modify judgment.
 1615. Junior incumbrancers; not affected by admeasurement.
 1616. Appeal not to stay execution, if undertaking is given.
 1617. Plaintiff may consent to receive a gross sum.
 1618. Defendant may consent to pay it; proceedings thereupon.

 1620. Id.; directing a part to be laid off.
 1621. Liens to be ascertained.
 1622. Id.; payment of; or sale subject to.
 1623. Report of sale.
 1624. Final judgment thereon.
 1625. Certain provisions of article second made applicable.

§ 1596. [Am'd, 1882.] Limitation of action for dower.

An action for dower must be commenced by a widow, within twenty years after the death of her husband; but if she is, at the time of his death, either:

1. Within the age of twenty-one years; or
2. Insane; or
3. Imprisoned on a criminal charge, or in execution upon conviction of a criminal offence, for a term less than for life;

The time of such a disability is not a part of the time limited by this section. And if at any time, before such claim of dower has become barred by the above lapse of twenty years, the owner or owners of the lands subject to such dower, being in possession, shall have recognized such claim of dower by any statement contained in a writing under seal, subscribed and acknowledged in the manner entitling a deed of real estate to be recorded, or if by any judgment or decree of a court of record within the same time and concerning the lands in question, wherein such owner or owners were parties, such right of dower shall have been distinctly recognized as a subsisting claim against said lands, the time after the death of her husband, and previous to such acknowledgment in writing or such recognition by judgment or decree, is not a part of the time limited by this section.

1 R. S. 742, § 18 (1 Edm. 693).

§ 1597. Against whom action to be brought.

Where the property, in which dower is claimed, is actually occupied, the occupant thereof must be made defendant in the action. Where it is not so occupied, the action must be brought against some person exercising acts of ownership thereupon, or claiming title thereto, or an interest therein, at the time of the commencement of the action.

See § 1502, ante.

§ 1598. [Am'd, 1913.] Who may be joined as defendants.

1. In either of the cases specified in the last section, any other person, claiming title to, or the right to the possession of, the real property in which dower is claimed, may be joined as defendant in the action.

2. The people of the state of New York may be made a party defendant in an action for dower where the people of the state of New York have an interest in or a lien upon the lands affected thereby, in the same manner as a private person. In such a case the summons must be served upon the attorney-general, who must appear in behalf of the people. But where the people of the state of New York are made a party defendant, as herein provided, the complaint shall set forth, in addition to the other matters required to be set forth by the code of civil procedure, detailed facts showing the particular nature of the interest in or the lien on the said real property of the people of the state of New York and the reason for making the people a party defendant. Upon failure to state such facts the complaint shall be dismissed as to the people of the state of New York.

See §§ 452, 1503, ante. Am'd L. 1913, ch. 773. In effect Sept. 1, 1913.

§ 1599. Id.; where defendants claim in severalty.

In an action to recover dower, in a distinct parcel of real property of which the plaintiff's husband died seized, or in all the real property which he aliened by one conveyance, all the persons in possession of, or claiming title to, the property, or any part thereof, may be made defendants, although they possess or claim title to different portions thereof in severalty.

§ 1600. Damages may be recovered; how estimated.

Where a widow recovers, in an action therefor, dower in property, of which her husband died seized, she may also recover, in the same action, damages for withholding her dower, to the amount of one-third of the annual value of the mesne profits of the property, with interest; to be computed, where the action is against the heir, from her husband's death, or, where it is against any other person, from the time when she demanded her dower of the defendant; and in each case, to the time of the trial, or application for judgment, as the case may be; but not exceeding six years in the whole. The damages shall not include any thing for the use of permanent improvements, made after the death of the husband.

1 R. S. 742, §§ 19, 20 and 21 (1 Edm. 604).

§ 1601. Id.; in action against alienee of husband.

Where a widow recovers dower, in a case not specified in the last section, she may also recover, in the same action, damages for withholding her dower, to be computed from the commencement of the action; but they shall not include any thing for the use of permanent improvements, made since the property was aliened by her husband. In all other respects, the same must be computed as prescribed in the last section.

§ 1602. Id.; where several parcels, etc.

The last two sections do not authorize the recovery, against a defendant who is joined with others, of damages for withholding dower, in any portion of the property not occupied or claimed by him.

See §§ 1598 and 1599, ante.

§ 1603. Id.; against heirs, etc., aliening land.

Where a widow recovers dower in real property aliened by the heir of her husband, she may recover, in a separate action against him, her damages for withholding her dower, from the time of the death of her husband to the time of the alienation, not exceeding six years in the whole. The sum recovered from him must be deducted from the sum, which she would otherwise be entitled to recover from the grantee; and any sum recovered as damages from the grantee, must be deducted from the sum, which she would otherwise be entitled to recover from the heir.

1 R. S. 743, § 22 (1 Edm. 604).

§ 1604. Action barred by assignment of dower.

The acceptance, by a widow, of an assignment of dower, in satisfaction of her claim upon the property in question, bars an action for dower, and may be pleaded by any defendant.

Id., § 23.

§ 1605. Collusive recovery not to prejudice infant.

Where a widow, not having a right to dower, recovers dower against an infant, by the default or collusion of his guardian, the infant shall not be prejudiced thereby; but when he comes of full age, he may bring an action of ejectment against the widow, to recover the property so wrongfully awarded for dower, with damages from the time when she entered into possession, although that is more than six years before the commencement of the action.

Id., § 24, am'd.

§ 1606. Complaint.

The complaint, in an action for dower, must describe the property, as prescribed in section 1511 of this act; and must set forth the name of the plaintiff's husband.

2 R. S. 301, § 10 (2 Edm. 313), am'd. See § 1499, ante.

§ 1607. Interlocutory judgment for admeasurement.

If the defendant makes default in appearing or pleading; or if the right of the plaintiff to dower is not disputed by the answer, or if it appears, by the verdict, report, or decision upon a trial, that the plaintiff is entitled to dower in the real property described in the complaint, an interlocutory judgment must be rendered; which, except as otherwise prescribed in this article, must direct that the plaintiff's dower in the property, particularly describing it, be admeasured by a referee, designated in the judgment, or by three reputable and disinterested freeholders, designated therein, as commissioners for that purpose.

Based on 2 R. S. 311, § 55; Id. 449 (2 Edm. 320, 511).

§ 1608. Oath of commissioners, etc.; removal; filling vacancy.

Each of the commissioners, or the referee, as the case requires, must, before entering upon the execution of his duties, subscribe and take an oath, before an officer specified in section 842 of this act, to the effect, that he will faithfully, honestly and impartially discharge the trust reposed in him. The oath must be filed with the clerk, before a commissioner or a referee enters upon the execution of his duties. The court may, at any time, remove the referee, or either of the commissioners. If either of them dies, resigns, or neglects or refuses to serve, or is removed, the court may, from time to time, appoint another person in his place.

2 R. S. 489, §§ 11 and 12 (2 Edm. 512), am'd. See § 1550, ante.

§ 1609. Dower, how admeasured.

The referee or the commissioners must execute their duties in the following manner:

1. They must, if it is practicable, and, in their opinion, for the best interests of all the parties concerned, admeasure and lay off, as speedily as possible, as the dower of the plaintiff, a distinct parcel, constituting the one-third part of the real property of which dower is to be admeasured, designating the part so laid off by posts, stones, or other permanent monuments.

2. In making the admeasurement, they must take into consideration any permanent improvements, made upon the real property, after the death of the plaintiff's husband, or after the alienation thereof by him; and, if practicable, those improvements must be awarded within the part not laid off to the plaintiff; or, if it is not practicable so to award them, a deduction must be made from the part laid off to the plaintiff, proportionate to the benefit which she will derive from so much of those improvements, as is included in the part laid off to her.

3. If it is not practicable, or if, in the opinion of the referee or commissioners, it is not for the best interests of all the parties concerned, to admeasure and lay off to the plaintiff a distinct parcel of the property, as prescribed in the foregoing subdivisions of this section, they must report that fact to the court.

4. They may employ a surveyor, with the necessary assistants, to aid in the admeasurement.

2 R. S. 489, § 13, as am'd by L. 1869, ch. 433, § 1.

§ 1610. Report thereupon.

All the commissioners must meet together in the performance of any of their duties; but the acts of a majority so met are valid. The referee, or the commissioners, or a majority of them, must make a full report of their proceedings, specifying therein the manner in which they have discharged their trust, with the items of their charges, and a particular description of the portion admeasured and laid off to the plaintiff; or, if they report that it is not practicable, or, in their opinion, it is not for the best interests of all the parties concerned, to admeasure and lay off a distinct parcel of the property, of which dower is to be admeasured, they must state the reasons for that opinion, and all the facts relating thereto. The report must be acknowledged or proved, and certified, in like manner as a deed to be recorded, and must be filed in the office of the clerk.

Id., § 13, am'd by L. 1869, ch. 433, § 2.

§ 1611. Setting aside report.

Upon the application of any party to the action, and upon good cause shown, the court may set aside the report, and, if necessary, may appoint new commissioners, or a new referee, who must proceed, as prescribed in this title, with respect to those first appointed.

Id., § 16, am'd.

§ 1612. Fees and expenses.

The fees and expenses of the commissioners, or of the referee, including the expense of a survey, when it is made, must be taxed under the direction of the court; and the amount thereof must be paid by the plaintiff, and allowed to her, upon the taxation of her costs.

Substituted for Id., § 25. See § 1555, ante.

§ 1613. Final judgment.

Upon the report being confirmed by the court, final judgment must be rendered. If the referee or commissioners have admeasured and laid off to the plaintiff a distinct parcel of the property, the judgment must award to her, during her natural life, the possession of that parcel, describing it, subject to the payment of all taxes, assessments, and other charges, accruing thereupon after she takes possession. If the referee or the commissioners report, that it is not practicable, or that, in his or their opinion, it is not for the best interests of all the parties concerned, so to admeasure and lay off a distinct parcel of the property, the final judgment must direct, that a sum, fixed by the court, and specified therein, equal to one-third of the rental value of the real property, as ascertained by a reference or otherwise, be paid to the plaintiff, annually or oftener, as directed in the judgment, during her natural life, for her dower in the property; and that the sum so to be paid, be and remain a charge upon the property, during her natural life. The final judgment may also award damages for the withholding of dower.

See 2 R. S. 489, § 18, and L. 1809, ch. 433, § 3 (7 Edm. 449).

§ 1614. Plaintiff may recover sum awarded; court may modify judgment.

The plaintiff may, from time to time, maintain an action against the owner, or a person who was the owner of the property, to recover any instalment of the sum, so awarded to her for her dower, which became due during his ownership, and remains unpaid. Or, if an instalment remains due and unpaid, she may maintain an action to procure a sale of the property, and enforce the payment of the instalments, due and to become due, out of the proceeds of the sale. Such an action must be conducted, as if the charge upon the real property was a mortgage to the same effect. If, at any time, it is made to appear to the court, that the rental value of the real property has materially increased or diminished, the court may, by an order, to be made upon notice to all the persons interested, modify the final judgment, by increasing or diminishing the sum to be paid to the plaintiff.

L. 1809, ch. 433, § 3.

§ 1615. Junior incumbrancers; not affected by admeasurement.

Where a portion of the property is admeasured and laid off to the plaintiff as her dower, a lien, which is inferior to the plaintiff's right of dower, attaches, during the life of the plaintiff, to the residue, or to the portion or share of the residue which was subject to it, as if the portion laid off to the plaintiff had not been a part of the property.

L. 1870, ch. 717, § 2, am'd by L. 1874, ch. 258 (9 Edm. 880).

§ 1616. Appeal not to stay execution, if undertaking is given.

An appeal from a final judgment, awarding to the plaintiff possession of the part admeasured and laid off to her, does not stay the execution thereof, unless the court, or a judge thereof, grants an order directing such a stay. Such an order shall not be granted, if an undertaking is given on the part of the respondent, with one or more sureties, approved by the court, or a judge thereof, to the effect that, if the judgment appealed from is reversed or modified, and restitution is awarded, she will pay, to the person entitled thereto, the value of the use and occupation of the part so admeasured and laid off to her, or of the portion, restitution of which is awarded, during the time she holds possession thereof, by virtue of the judgment.

L. 1869, ch. 433, § 4 (7 Edm. 450). See ibid. 1831, 1852.

§ 1617. Plaintiff may consent to receive a gross sum.

In an action for dower, the plaintiff may, at any time before an interlocutory judgment is rendered, by reason of the defendant's default in appearing or pleading, or, where an issue of fact is joined, at any time before the commencement of the trial, file with the clerk, a consent to accept a gross sum, in full satisfaction and discharge of her right of dower in the real property described in the complaint. Such a consent must be in writing, and acknowledged or proved, and certified, in like manner as a deed to be recorded. A copy thereof, with notice of the filing, must be served upon each adverse party who has appeared, or who appears after the filing.

L. 1870, ch. 717, § 1 (7 Edm. 771), am'd.

§ 1618. Defendant may consent to pay it; proceedings thereupon.

At any time after a consent is filed, as prescribed in the last section, and before an interlocutory judgment is rendered, any defendant may apply to the court, upon notice, for an order granting him leave to pay such a gross sum. Thereupon the court may, in its discretion, and upon such terms as justice requires, ascertain the value of the plaintiff's right of dower in the property, by a reference or otherwise, and make an order, directing payment, by the applicant, of the sum so ascertained, within a time fixed by the order, not exceeding sixty days after service of a copy thereof; and directing the execution by the plaintiff of a release of her right of dower, upon receipt of the money. Obedience to the order may be enforced, either by punishment for contempt, or by striking out the pleading of the offending party, and rendering judgment against him or her or in both modes.

§ 1619. Interlocutory judgment for sale.

Where the plaintiff's consent has been filed, as prescribed in the last section but one, and she is entitled to an interlocutory judgment in the action, the court must, upon the application of either party, ascertain, by reference or otherwise, whether a distinct parcel of the property can be admeasured and laid off to the plaintiff, as tenant in dower, without material injury to the interests of the parties. If it appears to the court, that a distinct parcel cannot be so admeasured and laid off, the interlocutory judgment must, except in the case specified in the next section, direct that the property be sold by the sheriff, or by a referee designated therein; and that, upon the confirmation of the sale, each party to the action, and every person deriving title from, through, or under a party, after the filing of the judgment-roll, or of a notice of the pendency of the action, as prescribed in article ninth of this title, be barred of and from any right, title, or interest in or to the property sold.

L. 1870, ch. 717, §§ 1 and 3, am'd.

§ 1620. Id.; directing a part to be laid off.

In a case specified in section 1617 of this act, where the property, or a part thereof, consists of one or more vacant or unimproved lots, the plaintiff's consent may contain a stipulation to take a distinct parcel, out of those lots, in lieu of a gross sum. In that case, the interlocutory judgment, instead of directing a sale, may direct if it appears to be just so to do, that commissioners be appointed to admeasure and lay off to the plaintiff a distinct parcel, out of the vacant or unimproved lots; and, if there is any other property, that it be sold, and a gross sum be paid to her out of the proceeds thereof, as prescribed in the next three sections. The plaintiff's title to each distinct parcel, admeasured and laid off to her, as prescribed in this section, is that of an estate of inheritance in fee simple. In admeasuring and laying off the same, the commissioners must consider quantity and quality relatively, according to the value of the plaintiff's right of dower in the vacant or unimproved lots, out of which the admeasurement is to be made; which must be ascertained, in proportion to the value of those lots, as prescribed, in the next three sections, for fixing a gross sum to be paid to her out of the proceeds of a sale.

Id., § 6.

§ 1621. [Am'd, 1914.] Liens to be ascertained.

Before an interlocutory judgment is rendered for the sale of the property, the court must direct a reference to ascertain whether any person, not a party, has a lien upon the property, or any part thereof. But the court may direct or dispense with such reference, in its discretion, where a party produces a search, certified by the clerk, or by the clerk and register as the case requires, of the county where the property is situated; and it appears therefrom, and by the affidavits, if any, produced therewith, that there is no such outstanding lien. Except as otherwise expressly prescribed in this article, the proceedings upon and subsequent to the reference must be the same, as prescribed in article second of this title, where a reference is made as prescribed in section 1561 of this act.

Id., § 2, am'd by L. 1874, ch. 258 (9 Edm. 880). Am'd by L. 1914, ch. 348, in effect Sept. 1, 1914.

§ 1622. Id.; payment of; or sale subject to.

Where the interlocutory judgment directs a sale, if the right of dower of the plaintiff is inferior to any other lien upon the property, the judgment may, in the discretion of the court, direct that the property be sold either subject to the lien, or discharged from the lien; and, in the latter case, that the officer making the sale pay the amount of the lien, out of the proceeds of the sale.

Id., § 4.

§ 1623. Report of sale.

Immediately after completing the sale, and executing the proper conveyance to the purchaser, the officer making the sale must make and file with the clerk a report thereof, showing the name of the purchaser, and the purchase-price paid by him, or, if the property was sold in parcels, the name of each purchaser, and the price and a description of the parcel sold to him; the sums which the officer has paid out of the proceeds of the sale, pursuant to the interlocutory judgment; the purpose for which each payment was made; the amount and items of his fees and expenses; and the net amount of the proceeds, after deducting the payments.

L. 1870, ch. 717, § 5.

§ 1624. Final judgment thereon.

Upon confirming the sale, the court must ascertain, by a reference or otherwise, the rights and interests of each of the parties in and to the proceeds of the sale, and also what gross sum of money is equal to the value of the plaintiff's dower in the net proceeds of the sale, calculated upon the principles applicable to life annuities. The court must thereupon render final judgment, confirming the sale, and directing that the gross sum so ascertained be paid to the plaintiff, in full satisfaction of her right of dower; and that the remainder of the proceeds of the sale be distributed among the persons entitled thereto.

Id., § 5, am'd.

§ 1625. Certain provisions of article second made applicable.

The provisions of article second of this title, relating to a sale made as prescribed in that article, and to the distribution, investment, and care of the proceeds, apply, as far as they are applicable, to a sale made as prescribed in this article, and to the distribution of the proceeds of a sale, as prescribed in the last section.

See §§ 1580-1586, ante.

ARTICLE FOURTH.Action to foreclose a mortgage.*

Sec. 1626. Final judgment; what to contain.

1627. Person liable for mortgage debt may be made defendant, etc.; when people of state may be made a party.

1628. Other actions for mortgage debt, when prohibited.

1629. Complaint to state whether such action brought.
